Q What part of Big Cabin was it? A Right at the crossing.
Q At the crossing of what? A Cabin Creek.
Q What is it crosses Cabin Creek there? A The Military Road.
Q The Military road that led from Ft. Gibson to Ft. Scott? A Yes sir.
Q That's about 15 or 16 miles directly north-east of here? A I guess it is.
Q And so low the mouth of where Rock Creek empties into Big Creek? A Yes sir.
Q You started from your home then on Big Creek, and travelled south-east about 35 miles before you started towards Kansas did you? A Always go to the Big road, we didn't know no other way.
Q I will ask you if the Military road to Fort Scott, Kansas, didn't run within 20 miles of your place, and directly east of where you was living when you started? A I guess it was.
Q Then why did you travel more than 35 miles south instead of going east? A Didn't know no other way, that's why.
Q Wasn't there an Osage Trail that ran from Osage Mission to Fort Scott, Kansas? A We didn't go it if there was.
Q Wasn't there Osages living in that locality where you located when you came down there? A They lived up north of us on Snow Creek and Panther Creek.
Q There was Osages up in there? A Yes sir.
Q The traders come in the locality to trade with them? A I guess so, I never saw them.
Q Didn't you see Nelson Merrill in the fall of '84 peddling flour to them? A No, because you testified to that right here? A No sir.
Q You didn't know that Nelson Merrill was up in there? A I know he was up in there, but I didn't know about his peddling flour.

By Sam'l Washington:

Q You say you live about 15 miles north of here? A Yes sir, I guess about that.
Q What kind of country is it, hilly country? A It's level where I live over near the river bed.
Q I am talking about this place where you lived at the time of the war, is it hilly country there? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any road leading from there to the lower part of the over to the Military road that went to Fort Scott? A We just made a trail leading to the big road and went out west in there hunting horses, and then just followed the trail back to the road again.

Q There was no leading out road except that one you made? A No sir, that was all we had, the trail we made when we went out in that country.

Q They hadn't laid out any roads like they have at the present day? A No sir, none at all, not until now, there's roads now.

Q Is it a pretty even prairie country, could you have gone to without any difficulty in that day? A We didn't know nothing about the country, it was a pretty even country, so as strange country to us.
Q You didn't know what you might have come across? A No sir.

By Charles Repley Davenport:

Q Didn't you cross the Neosho River on the Military road coming to Big Creek to locate when you came back? A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and five children in her charge; the applicant is identified on the Kern-Clifton roll and not upon the roll of 1890 or upon that of 1896; it appears from the testimony that she was a slave of an Cherokee citizen, and lived in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the Civil War; she was carried to the State of Kansas, and the testimony indicates that she came back with her mother and step-father and some others enumerated in the testimony in the autumn of '66; since that time she has been to Oklahoma, Colorado, Huron Springs, Arkansas, and to the State of Kansas; but the testimony does not indicate that her visit to any of these places was of a protracted character, or for any permanent purpose; she went to Colorado for a month on account of her health; she made a stay of some nine months at Huron Springs for her health, and her other visits were perhaps of lesser duration and for temporary purposes; it appears from the testimony now given that the omission of the applicant from the roll of 1890 was not through any fault of her status, but for the further consideration of her case, she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post-office address.

As for the five children named in the testimony, they are the children of a deceased sister of the applicant; they are all miners, and are living at this time, and they are identified on the Kern-Clifton roll; their mother is shown to have returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war with the applicant; she died after the roll of 1890 was made, but before the Kern-Clifton roll was made; it appears that she lived in the Cherokee Nation from the time of her return from Kansas in '66 until her death; no serious reason is seen at this time to invalidate the right of these children to enrollment, but at present, in as much as the mother was not placed upon the roll of 1890, they will be placed upon a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known, through the applicant, at her post-office address.

In the course of this testimony the case of one Nancy Hunt, formerly Nancy Davis, a sister of the applicant, has been entered into, and as she is stated to be an affiliated person, and may have been applied for by one of the children of her deceased husband, she is living in Oklahoma of the same name, and is shown to have been a member of the Cherokee Nation, and is shown to have been a member of the same.

Frances Anderson et al is respects the Treaty of 1866 as the applicant, as the rights of the children of the woman Julia will depend upon the status of their deceased mother under the Treaty of 1866, and when these cases are taken up this testimony will be incorporated therein.

H. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this June 13, 1901.

Muskegee, I. T., February 18, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Manda Manley, et al, for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen:

Appearances:

Mallette & Smith, Vinita, I. T., for applicants;
James S. Davenport, for the Cherokee Nation:

TESTIMONY IN BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

ELIZABETH DAVIS, being sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by James S. Davenport:

- Q What is your name ? A Elizabeth Davis.
Q Where do you live ? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived there ? A I went there in the fall of '63, and have lived there continually ever since.
Q Where had you been living before you went there in '63 ? A In the Territory here.
Q Near what place ? A Between here and the falls on the Arkansas river.
Q Do you mean Webbers Falls ? A Yes sir.
Q You went to Fort Scott, Kansas, in the fall of '63, during the war ? A Yes sir.
Q And have lived there continuously since that time ? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know of a man by the name of Alenase Cullen or Manley, a colored man ? A Yes sir. I knew his step-mother before I went there.
Q After you went there did you get acquainted with him ? A Yes sir. His name was Cullen Manley, and he went by the name of Cullen, and the children went by the name of Cullen.
Q Do you know if he had any children ? A Yes he had two, one named Alenase, and one I can't remember the name.
Q Do you know whether or not Alenase ever married ? A Yes sir he was married there in Fort Scott.
Q Do you know whether or not he had any children ? A He had one boy child they called Joe.
Q When did you first get acquainted with Cullen Manley ? A When I went to Fort Scott in '63. By knowing his wife I got acquainted with him. I had known her before going there.
Q You say you had known his wife before going there ? A Yes sir. She belonged to Peter Hilderbrand.
Q Do you know whether or not that wife is living ? The wife of Cullen.
A No, she died there in Fort Scott.
Q Was she the mother of Alenase ? A No, she was his step-mother. She was the mother of Fred.
Q What was Cullen doing, if you remember ? A He was trading horses for a man by the name of Kirkendal, who kept race horses.
Q That was in '63 or '64 ? A Yes sir, in '64.
Q How long did he live there when you were living in Fort Scott was you learned to know him ? A From that time up until 1870. He didn't leave there earlier than that, and maybe later.
Q Did his family live there with him ? A Yes sir.
Q After his wife that you knew died, did he re-marry ? A No sir, he broke up there pretty soon after she died.
Q Alenase was his son by a former wife ? A Yes sir.
Q Who had belonged to the Hilderbrand's ? A Yes sir.

Q This boy Fred was the son of this woman ?
 A Fred was the son of Harriett.
 Q She died in Fort Scott ? A Yes sir.
 Q When he continued to live there from the time you got acquainted with him until after the death of his wife ?
 A Until after the death of his wife.
 Q Till about what time ? A I think Cullen himself left there in 1870, but Alenxo, I don't think he left there earlier than 1872 or '3.
 Q Did they have a house there ? A Yes sir.
 Q Did they own any property there ? A Yes sir they owned property. In 1872 their property was sold for taxes and a lawyer there named Hewitt bought it in.
 Q How far did they live from where you lived ?
 A Just a block east of where I lived.
 Q You had an opportunity then to see them quite often ?
 A Every day.
 Q And you had known Fred Manley's mother before she went there ?
 A Yes sir.
 Q You had lived here in this country quite a while ?
 A Yes sir, and I knew nearly all the colored people that went from here up there.
 Q You know a great many of the people that still live here ?
 A Yes sir.

Examined by Mr. Smith:

Q Where did you go from to Fort Scott ? A From the Cherokee Nation.
 Q How long had you lived in the Cherokee Nation before you went to Fort Scott ? A I don't know just how long; I had been here 15 years probably.
 Q When did you go to Fort Scott ? A In '63, in the fall of '63.
 Q When did you first know Alenxo Manley ?
 A I knew him in '64.
 Q How old was he at that time ?
 A He was about—he must have been about 18 years old I guess; he was a short chunky boy. He was a boy who was beginning to think himself a young man.
 Q What was his father's name ? A Cullen Manley.
 Q When did you first know Cullen ?
 A About the same time I knew Alenxo.
 Q Didn't know either of them in the Nation ? A No sir. I knew his wife though.
 Q Cullen's wife ? A Not Alenxo's mother, but Cullen's second wife.
 Q What was Alenxo's mother's name ? A I don't know; never knew her.
 Q What was his step-mother's name ? A Harriett.
 Q Now you say that you know one son of Em Alenxo Manley. What was his name ? A They called him Joe. He was a little fellow when I seen him.
 Q Where ? A At his house. I went to see him purposely.
 Q Where ? A At Fort Scott.
 Q What was his mother's name ? A Eliza.
 Q What was her name before he married ? A Whitmire.
 Q Where did he marry her ? A There in Fort Scott.
 Q Was she a colored woman ? A She was a colored woman. A yellow woman; a very pretty woman.
 Q When was the last time you saw her ? A I saw her the last time when that baby was small, it must have been about the first part of '72. Along there.

Q In Fort Scott? A Yes sir.

Q How old was the boy Joe at that time? A He was a young baby. Probably a year old; but I don't hardly think he was that old.

Q Less than a year you would say? A Yes sir. I think he was less than a year old probably when they left there.

Q When you first knew Alonso you say he was about 18. How long from that time was it until he married? A He married '65, I believe. He may have been older than that. I don't know what his age was. He helped his father with the horses.

Q How long did you know him before he married? A I knew him in '64, and he was married, I think, in '65. He was married young. His father was very much against his marrying so young when he married.

Q Did Alonso have any brothers or sisters? A He had this one, this half-brother Freddie.

Q That's all? A That's all I ever saw or heard of.

Q Had no sisters? A I never heard of any.

Q Have you ever resided in the Cherokee Nation since the war? A No sir.

Q Have you ever been an applicant for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir, I have no right here at all.

Q Did you ever apply? A No sir.

Q Any of your family? A No sir.

Q Did you ever claim to have? A No sir. My brother was a citizen here in the Cherokee Nation.

Q What was his name? A Hays.

Q Is he a citizen yet? A No, he is dead.

Q His family? A He left no family; his wife died before he did, and they had no children.

Q Where were you living in the year 1866? A I was living in Fort Scott.

Q Where do you say Manley was? A There in Fort Scott trading horses.

Q Did he marry that year? A He was married, I think, in '65.

Q Are you certain about that? A No I aint certain about it. I know that he was married there and stayed there quite a while after he was married. I know he was there in the first part of '70. I am positively sure he was there then.

Q You can't say whether he was in the Cherokee Nation in November, 1866? A Well, he wasn't; he was there in Fort Scott.

Q Who was he working for? A Kirkendal, the same man his father worked for.

Q Who was Kirkendal? A He was a man who owned race horses.

Q Were the streets of Fort Scott numbered at that time? A No sir.

Q Were they designated in any way? A Well, there was Locust street; and Market street; and Main street;

Q Will you tell me exactly where this man lived in November, 1866? A He lived on what they called Plaza, in a house that is torn down and gone now.

Q Who was living in Fort Scott who knew, besides yourself, that this man lived there during 1866? A Well there's Mrs. Anthony, that knows him. A man named Wiley Anderson; Ben Crowl, and several others that know him.

Q Do you know where this man Alonso Manley came from when he came to Fort Scott? A From the Cherokee Nation, with his father and mother.

Q What makes you suppose that? A Because he was a boy living with his father.

Q How do you know where his father came from? A Because he married Harriett there before the war, and bought her from her folks. She said so. That's what she told me herself.

Q Well you didn't know this man Manley at the time the war commenced? A No sir.

Q Do you know his status, whether he was free then ?
A They didn't belong to anybody. Him and Cullen were free, so they said.
Q Where did you live; what part of the Cherokee Nation?
A I lived here between here and Webbers Falls on the Arkansas river.
Q How far from Fort Gibson ? A I lived just above where Spaniard Creek empties into the river.
Q How far is that from Fort Gibson ? A I don't know.
Q Don't you know how many miles ? A No sir I never measured it. I never went up that way, and don't know a thing about it.
Q You haven't any idea how far it was from Fort Gibson ?
A No sir, Never heard anybody say.
Q Where was Alonzo Manley in December, 1866 and January, 1867.
A In 1866 he was there, unless he was away somewhere; his family was there anyway.
Q What composed his family then ?
A His wife is all he had.
Q When was Joe born ? A I don't know; sometime along there in the 60 s, or the first of the 70 s. I don't know exactly when he was born.
Q Don't know what year he was born ? A No sir.
Q You don't know where Alonzo Manley was in the month of December, 1866 ? A No, but he was there I suppose.
Q Just testify as to what you actually know.
A His wife was there. He was there in '69, because he shot his leg there, and was laid up there for quite a while in '69.
Q You can't state then, of your own knowledge, where Alonzo Manley was in January, 1867 ? A No sir, not any special month.
Q Now the mother of this boy Joe; what was her name ?
A Her name was Eliza Whitmire before he married her.
Q You saw him as late as 1872 in Fort Scott ? A Yes sir.
She was there for that long if not longer.
Q Did you ever know Alonzo Manley after the time about which you have spoken ? A No sir. I know he moved to the Territory. At least they said he did.
Q You never saw him yourself ?
A No sir, I have heard of him several times, but never saw him.
Q Well, when were you here; what years ?
A I have been here ever year since '71 nearly. Every two years or every year I would come and visit my brother.
Q Did you never apply for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Why no, I had no right to apply for citizenship.
Q Do you know what Alonzo Manley's mother's name was ?
A No sir, I never saw her nor heard tell of her even.
Q You are here testifying in a number of these Freedmen cases are you not ? A No, I know a number of them.
Q How many cases did you testify in yesterday ?
Mr. Davenport: I submit that that doesn't make any difference. I don't object to it, however. Give him the number of cases you testified in Mrs. Davis, if you can.
A Three, I think.

Examined by Mr. Davenport;

Q You have only testified as to what you know in these cases ?
A That's all I aim to do.

The Commission: This testimony will be filed in the case at bar, and also in the case of Joseph Manley, Cherokee Freedman No. D 626.

The authenticated roll of 1890 examined, and the names of applicants not found therein;
The census roll of 1896, similarly examined, and the names of applicants not found therein;

H. C. Bagwell, on oath states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly reported the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cases, and that the above and foregoing is an accurate transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., April 11, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Frances Anderson for the enrollment of herself and others as Cherokee Freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-827.

Applicant represented by Mellette & Smith, Vinita, I.T.
Cherokee Nation represented by W. W. Hastings.

The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on the said attorneys for applicant, Mellette & Smith, that it would, on the 11th day of April, 1902, at the offices of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, introduce testimony tending to disprove the right of Frances Anderson et al to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

The applicant and her attorneys have this day, to wit the 11th day of April, 1902, been called and fail to respond either in person or by attorney.

MRS. E. N. WALKER, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A I sign my name Mrs. E. N. Walker, E. N. Walker is my name when I don't put the Mrs.
Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Gibson.
Q How old are you? A I will be 77 my next birthday.
Q You a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What was your maiden name? A Adair.
Q Do you know a colored woman that formerly belonged to the dairs who now goes by the name of Frances Anderson? A Yes, sir, I knew her from a child, from a baby.
Q Did you know her mother? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her mother's name? A Polly.
Q To whom did Frances and her mother belong when the war came up? A Well, her mother belonged to my mother and Frances belonged to Dr. Adair's wife or Dr. Adair.
Q Your sister? A My sister; when she married mother gave her this girl.
Q She was the property then of your sister at the time the war came up? A Yes, sir.
Q What became of her when the war came up? A Went to Kansas.
Q Did you reside in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well, we were in the Cherokee Nation in August 1862.
Q Well, but I mean were you here after the war, '66 and '7 and '8? A Yes, sir, we came back here in '66.
Q You have been living here ever since? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, now, after the war, where did you first see this applicant, if at all, Frances Anderson? A About the year 1880.
Q About the year '80? A Yes, sir, I saw her at the Vinita Fair, as well as I can recollect, about the year '80.
Q Well, it was after the town got big enough to have fairs up there was it? A Yes, sir, I can't tell you whether it was the first fair, but I think it was the first.
Q You saw her there at that time? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have any talk with her? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, what did she say with reference to her residence? A Well, she hadn't settled yet, and she had come from Kansas, she hadn't been here very long, she didn't say whether she had come in, when she had come in or anything, she just said she hadn't been here long.

Q Did she make any inquiry about—? A She was inquiring about the folks.

Q About the folks? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know whether she was married at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know where she married, do you? A No, sir, I suppose she married in Kansas.

Q She hadn't yet got any home? A No, sir.

Q She hadn't settled down? A No, sir.

Q She didn't say how long she had been here? A No, sir, she said she hadn't been here long, very long.

Q Now that was the first time you had seen her after the war?

A Yes, sir, that was the first time.

Q Did she know where any of the rest of the people were over the Cherokee Nation, or was she making any inquiry from you? A Well, she was inquiring about my mother and the family.

Q Did you ever see her after that? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A She stayed all night at our house.

Q At your house? A Yes, sir.

Q Talk to her, then, any about her citizenship? A No, sir, but she said she was going on to see Mont.

Q Mont Adams? A Yes, sir.

Q What relation was he to you? A Well, he is my brother.

Q Did she say what she was going to see him about? A She didn't say, she said she was going to see him.

Q That was after you had seen her up at Vinita? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, did she at any time claim to you that she had come back here in '66? A No, sir.

COMMISSION: Now, this Frances Anderson belonged to your sister at the close of the war or at the outbreak of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Your sister was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether or not Frances Anderson left the Cherokee Nation when the war came up? A Yes, sir, she went up to Kansas.

Q Did she go up there with your people? A No, sir.

Q She went up there alone? A She went up with her mother and her other relatives, they were on my place there at Parkhill when they all left.

Q Now what time did she go up there, that is what time during the war, do you know; what year was it in? A It was '62.

Q Now from '62 up until 1880 when you met her at the fair at Vinita had you ever seen her? A No, sir.

Q You had never saw her in Fort Gibson? A No, sir.

Q You don't know where she lived of your own knowledge? A No, sir.

Q When you met her there that time did she tell you that she had never been here since the close of the war? A No, sir, she didn't tell me that.

Q Didn't say anything about it? A No, sir.

COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: D-68, D-689, and D-900.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-528.

APPEARANCES:

Willetta A. Smith for applicants.

H. W. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

HARRY E. KELLEY, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A Harry E. Kelley.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Smith.

Q How long have you lived at Fort Smith? A 15 years last January.

Q Where did you move from when you moved to Fort Smith? A Coffey County, Kansas.

Q What was your postoffice? A Burlington the last few years I lived there, but I was born at Ottumwa, Kansas, and lived there until I was about 18 years old.

Q When did you leave Ottumwa, Kansas? A I left Ottumwa in 1880.

Q Did you know a colored man up there by the name of John Curry?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Charlotte.

Q How early is your memory of knowing them? A As early as 1868,
I think as early as 1865.

Q Did you know of them in 1868? A I can't quite fix the year that they came on my father's farm to live, but I have a distinct recollection of their being there in 1868, when I left on a trip for Ohio, and was driven to the railroad station about fifty miles away by one old Martin Bowlin, sometimes called Martin Blair, whom the husband of John Curry's mother.

Q What was her name? A Polly, they also lived on our farm.

Q Well John lived there at the same time? A John lived there from 1868 until 1872 or '3.

Q Then where did he move? A Then he homesteaded a piece of land about two miles from our house.

MR. SMITH: I object to the testimony with regard to the homesteading, not being the best evidence.

COMMISSIONER: Objection will be noted, proceed.

WITNESS: And moved onto that land and lived there until after Charlotte died.

Q About when did she die, that is his wife? A Yes, his wife, she died about 1884.

Q Was she buried there or do you know? A Yes, sir, she was buried there.

Q What became of him afterwards? A I saw him around there for a year or two afterwards, and then I heard he was dead, I don't know it personally, anything about his death.

Q Do you know whether this John Curry was ever in trouble up there prior to 1868? A Yes, sir.

Q When was that? A Killed a man in our county there about 1866.

Q Did John and Charlotte have any children? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember any of their names? A Mary and Fannie and Joe and Harrison, and another one, I can't recall the name of the other one.

Q They were all born there, were they? A No, they wasn't born there, they had her the first I can recollect.

Q I don't know where she was born? A Don't know where she was born, but she was born there.

Q Well what was John's mother's name? A Polly.
Q Well what was her mother's name, what was she known by? A Polly
Bowlin, they were commonly called there, sometimes they called them Adair.

Q Well you say she married a man by the name of Martin Bowlin? A No, they were married when I came there.

Q Well, lived with a man there by the name of Martin? A Yes, sir that was her husband then.

Q He went by the name of Martin Bowlin? A Yes, sir, Martin Bowlin.

Q And you knew them in 1887? A Yes, sir, first recollection I have of Martin and Polly and their family was moving them out of the bottom time of the flood in '68; they were clearing land for my father and the overflow came, and he brought them up to the house out of the flood.

Q Well did Polly, who was the mother of John, have any children that you know of? A Yes, sir.

Q Besides John I mean? A Yes, sir.

Q Name them? A Well she had one who used to come there occasionally, named Frances.

Q Yes, sir. And another named Nancy and Nathan and Julia and Rachel.

Q Well do you know who Rachel married? A Married a turkey named Harry Steele.

Q Do you know who Frances married? A No, sir.

Q Do you know his name at all, I mean his surname? A No, I do not.

Q Do you know who Julia married? A No, I perhaps have heard but I can't recall now.

Q Well now how long did you continue to know this family up there,
I believe we have traced John Curry and his wife; but I mean John's mother Polly, and Rachel and the rest of this family that you have mentioned? A Polly and Martin lived on our place until Polly died.

Q About when? A Polly died between '69 and '71, I remember being there when I came home from Ohio in the fall of '68.

Q They were there then? A Yes, sir, and she died before I went to Ohio to school in the fall of '71.

Q So it was between those times? A Between those times. Martin went away after her death for a time, and came back there, and died on our farm, and was buried there, and he died about '74.

Q What is your occupation Mr. Kelley? A I am in the real estate and loan business.

Q In Fort Smith, Arkansas? A Fort Smith, Arkansas, yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether this Polly Bowlin was also known as Polly Adair?
A Yes, sir.

Q You know that she was the mother of John Curry? A Well, she said she was, and it was generally said she was.

Q Well recognized? A Yes, sir, the recognized mother; they all came there together.

Q And she's the recognized mother of Frances Anderson and Rachel Steele? A Well I don't know about Frances Anderson, I know Frances

Q And Rachel? A And Rachel and Julia and Nancy.

MR. SMITH: Mr. Kelley, the Frances you speak of, you don't know what her name is? A I never knew of her as Frances Anderson, no.

Q Well you speak of her coming there from time to time; do you know of your own personal knowledge where she lived? A No, sir, I don't, she just came to visit, these Currys lived right in our back yard or right close to it, and she came there on visits to her brother and her half-sister, who lived in our house.

Q And you can't say positively that you know the Currys before '68,
I have no distinct recollection of the Currys before that I can place before '68.

Q Yes, I although I have understood that they came there all together, the whole bunch.

Q Well I have to state that because that's what the witness interested and not what he knew.

COMMISSION: Motion will be noted, and the testimony will be considered for all it is worth.

MR. SMITH: But so far as your personal knowledge goes you can't fix them there before '66? A I can't fix the Curry's there before '68 on our place.

Q Well now that was the first personal knowledge of them, was on your place? A No, sir, it wasn't.

Q You spoke of moving somebody up out of the bottom, who was that?

Q Old Martin and his family.

Q Who was Martin with reference to John Curry? A John Curry's mother was old Martin's wife.

Q Then he was John's stepfather? A Yes, sir.

Q Well now you spoke of somebody killing a man, now who was that?

A John Curry.

Q Well was that your personal knowledge or a matter of hearsay?

A Well I didn't see the killing done, I know of his being tried there but it was the first thing of the kind I ever heard, and made quite an impression on me.

Q Can you say when he was tried? A Well it was prior to '68. I can't give you the date, no.

Q Do you know what year it was that he killed the man? A To the best of my recollection was in the ~~spring~~ spring of '65.

Q You say he was indicted and tried? A He was tried, I don't know anything about the indictment.

Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge that he was tried?

A Well I was told around town there.

Q You only heard? A Yes, sir.

Q And now, if the court please, I move to strike the testimony with regard to John Curry's killing a man because it does not appear to be the best evidence.

COMMISSION: Motion will be noted, and the testimony considered for what it may be worth.

Q When was the last you knew of those Curry's? A I knew, I remember when Charlotte died, and considerable of John after she died, as near as I can fix the date she died in '84.

Q 84? A '84.

Q What time did you make your visit to Ohio before you went to school? A In '66.

Q How old were you then? A I was 6 years old, about six years and a half old.

Q Then how long were you in Ohio that time? A Oh, a month or two, short time.

Q Then when did you return there to school? A I went there to school in the fall of '71.

Q How long did you remain? A I stayed there until the fall of '72.

Q When did you leave that part of Kansas? A '87.

MR. HASTINGS: What was your father's name? A Harrison Kelley.

Q Your father used to represent that section of the country up there?

A A member of Congress from that district, if that's what you mean, yes, sir.

Q In what year? A He was elected in '88.

COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Freedmen cases: D-541, D-533, D-534, D-532, and in D-526, the case at bar.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that this testimony be filed in the case of Frances Anderson D-627, and in the references thereto as follows: D-687, D-689 and D-700.

MR. SMITH: The counsel for Frances Anderson and cases connected therewith and of the same numbers, object to the filing in these cases of the testimony of the witness Harry L. Kelley, for the reason that it does not appear from this testimony that the Frances Anderson named by him is identical with the applicant, Frances Anderson.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation contends that this testimony is relevant, and that the Frances mentioned in witness H.B. Kelley's testimony is identical with Frances Anderson for the reason that the testimony shows that she was a sister of John Curry, and the testimony further shows that her mother's name was Polly Adams, and the testimony further shows that she had a sister by the name of Julia, and the testimony further shows that she had another sister by the name of Rachel Steele, identified by this witness in his testimony; and the applicant Frances Anderson claims to have returned to the Cherokee Nation with her mother Polly and her step-father.

MR. SMITH: The applicant further objects to the introduction of said testimony into this case for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, as the testimony of said witness shows that she visited the place mentioned by said witness, and that it was not within his personal knowledge where said Frances lived.

COMMISSION: The objections will be noted and the testimony filed with the case of Frances Anderson and the cases relating thereto as above enumerated.

HARRY B. KELLEY, recalled:

MR. HASTINGS: Mr. Kelley, did you know Rachel Steele after she was married? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know her husband's name? A Harry Steele.

Q Did they live there near you? A They lived on our place, there right by our house, worked for us.

Q Have any children? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you continue to know them there? A After the death of Rachel's mother she -- I don't remember her again until she came back there married to Harry Steele. I think she came back about 1875, and they lived there by our house for some five years after that.

MR. SMITH: How is it spelled? A S-T-E-E-L-E.

Q How many children did you say they had? A There was several, I don't recall how many, several children I think of them born there on the place.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Oklahoma, T. T., May 31, 1902

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Applicant appears by Melville A. Smith, Cherokee Nation, by W. V. Hastings.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Elias Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 14205, filed in the Mariah Hayden case D 458, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Francis Anderson, D 457,

By W. V. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he remained within the time specified in the treaty of 1865, or that he has been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who takes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which came within the provisions of the temporary legislation recently granted by Judge Bill of the United States Court, of the Eastern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within three days to file any of the proof of any or all of the cases other than the decree already referred to.

in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings.

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cause would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission.

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

I, E. G. Bagwell, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath state that the above and foregoing is a true and perfect copy of the original testimony in the above entitled cause as filed with the Commission, which copy was made by me.

Q Did anybody else come back with your family in '66, anybody besides your own folks? A Yes sir, there was.
Q Who? A Uncle Lev Martin. His family wasn't along, but he was.
Q Is that Lewis Martin? A Yes sir, I couldn't tell you who all was along.
Q Can you think of anybody else along there at that time?
A I know Uncle Dave French, but they was ahead of us a day or two, and Uncle Sam Webber, and really if I was just to try I couldn't tell you all of them.
Q What part of the Cherokee Nation did you come to at that time?
A On Rock Creek.
Q What District? A It is Delaware, I guess.
Q Who did you find living there at that time?
A Nobody living there.
Q Any colored people living there? A Uncle Dave was living there.
Q Anybody else camped there, any colored people there at that time?
A He was the only one camped right there on Rock Creek where we stopped.
Q What other colored people did you see in that neighborhood?
A I seen nearly all the Lynch's, I guess, colored folks.
Q Which Lynch's? A Oldman Joe Lynch's, colored folks.
Q Did you see Anderson Lynch? A I guess I did.
Q At that time? A I don't remember.
Q Pelly Adair was your mother and Rachel Steele's mother?
A Yes sir.
Q Didn't your mother live in Kansas from '66 to '69? A No sir.
Q Near what place in Kansas were you all living during the war?
A It wasn't far from Fort Scott.
Q How long did you live in Fort Scott then? A He didn't stay there long.
Q Was Rachel Steele born before the war? A Yes sir.
Q About how long before the war was she born? A I don't know, sir, I expect she was between four and five years old.
Q When the war broke out? A Yes sir, as near as I know about it.
Q Did you folks ever live in Kansas after '66? A No sir.
Q Rachel Steele, you say, never lived in Kansas after '66?
A No sir.

Q Brother by the name of John Curry? A Yes sir.
Q John died at Ottawa? A No sir.
Q Where did he die? A Died at Wichita.
Q Wichita, Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q What year did he die? A Couldn't tell you.
Q What year is this, auntie? A I don't know, sir.
Q What year was it you appeared before the Kern-Clifton Commission?
A Couldn't tell you that if I was to be lying.
Q You don't know the year? A Yes sir, if anyone tells me, but I couldn't tell you.
Q Your mother, Pelly, died at Ottawa, Kansas? A No sir.
Q Ten four what, do you? A I do, because she didn't.
Q Where did she die? A She died in the bottom, down here on Grand River.
Q Where is she buried? A Buried in the bottom, down here on Grand River.

Q What river? A Near the mouth of Spavinaw and Grand River.
Q On what side of Spavinaw? A I don't know as I could tell that.
It is on this side, I don't know which side.
Q On this side of the river? A On the other side of Grand River, near the mouth of Spavinaw.
Q Whose place was that down there? A I don't know whether anybody owned it then at that time only the nation.
Q There wasn't any place there then? A Not in the woods where we lived.
Q You just lived in the woods? A Yes sir, we did when we first came back here.
Q How long had you been living down there when your mother died?
A We had branched out. She lived close there, and I was living further up the river then.
Q How long after the war was it when your mother died?
A I don't know, sir.
Q Your best recollection? A It was somewhere along the time of the smallpox.
Q Of what did your mother die? A Smallpox.
Q Was your father living then? A Yes sir, he died first.
Q Where did he die? A He died there with the smallpox.
Q At the same place? A Near about it.
Q They didn't have any place down there? A Just had a little patch
Q What became of that little patch? A I guess it grew up.
Q Grew up? A Certainly.
Q Didn't any of you take possession of it? A I didn't. I moved out from there and left them there.
Q Who owns any field there? A I don't know of anyone. I don't know as anyone owns any field there.
Q You were there when your mother died, were you? A Yes sir.
Q Who was some neighbors around there? A There was Bean's folks, they lived aroundus.
Q Which Bean? A Old Uncle Sandy Bean.
Q He is dead? A Yes sir, and her too.
Q Name somebody living neighbor to you at that time? A There is Tobe Bean and Arthur Bean.
Q They knew that your mother lived there, did they? A Yes sir.
Q Now, what Cherokees lived in that country? A I don't know any of them, not right there.
Q The smallpox was about '82 or '83, was it? A I don't know when it was.
Q About how many years after the war was the smallpox?
A Couldn't tell you that.
Q Do you know whether it was one year or 20? A No sir, I don't.
Q You don't know the difference? A No sir.
Q Did you know a young man by the name of Harry E. Kelly?
A No sir.
Q You never saw him up at Ottumwa? A No sir.
Q Didn't your father and mother live on their farm? A No sir.
Q Your mother is buried there at Ottumwa? A No sir, no sir, no she's not.
Q Why didn't you bring in some witnesses there to prove your mother died down here in the Cherokee Nation? A I can, just give me time.
Q When you come down here how did you come? A Come in a wagon.
Q Was it in the spring or summer or fall? A In the fall.
Q What town did you leave? A Fort Scott.
Q Were you ever at Ottumwa in your life? A No sir.
Q Never was there? A No sir.
Q You never saw that town did you, Ottumwa? A I don't know nothing about Ottumwa.

Q Ever up in Burlington? A Yes sir.

Q You have been there, have you? A Yes sir.

Q When were you there? A Come through there.

Q How long did you stop when you come through there?

A Didn't stop a day, just come through.

Q You come down on Rock Creek, did you? A Yes sir.

Q Who did you work for that winter, what did you do for a living, how did you make a living? A I didn't work for nobody then. My own folks went out to work and brought in what little they did.

Q Who did you live near that winter? A I told you I lived near Uncle Sandy Bean.

Q Winter of '66? A Yes sir.

Q First winter? A Yes sir.

Q You lived on the west side of Grand River you said? Over where Rock Creek was? A On the west side? I don't know which side it is but anyway we lived near the mouth of Spavinaw and Grand River in the bottom.

Q You never had any neighbors at all but Sandy Bean?

A I told you the Lynch's were there.

Q Which one of the Lynch's? A I don't know.

Q Why don't you know? A There was Al Lynch and Crap Lynch.

Q Were you living right there neighbors to them?

A Wasn't living right neighbors to them but they lived there.

Q How long did you live at that same place right there in the bottom? A I don't know how long we did stop there.

Q Did you live there a month? A Stayed there more than a month.

Q Two months? A I reckon so, or more.

Q Where did you go from there, from that place in the bottom?

A Moved up the river further, or down, which ever you might call it right close to Uncle Sandy Bean's.

Q I want to know whether it was up or down? A I don't know.

Q How far did you live from Sandy Bean? A I guess about a quarter of a mile.

Q About a quarter? A I reckon, might have been further, I don't know.

Q How long did you stay there when you moved up there?

A Stayed there until mother died and then I lived right in the house with Uncle Sandy; in Uncle Sandy's house.

Q Why don't you bring some of them witnesses there to testify that? A You didn't tell me to did you?

Q Was Rachel Steele along with you? A Yes sir.

Q Where did she get acquainted with Harry Steele? A Harry come down here in the nation on Grand River.

Q Who married her and Harry? A He can tell you that.

Q I am asking you? A He can tell you about coming down, I don't know who did marry them.

Q Where did Rachel and Harry ever keep house? A On Big Creek.

Q By themselves? A Yes sir.

Q Did they marry on Grand River? A No sir, they didn't. I don't know where he did take her. He took her away from there and then they came back.

Q Your mother and father never owned any place down there except that little cabin you have mentioned? A They never owned anything but a little patch like we all own now. We didn't own that. We tried to take care of it.

Q You never went and tried to take possession of that patch?

A I didn't like it well enough to take possession of it.

Q How far was it from the river? A Not far.

Q Did you ever see any Cherokee citizens at all down in that country? A Once in a while.

Q Do you know of any that lived in five miles of that place at all?

A I don't know their names.

Q You lived there for 20 years and don't know anybody that lives around there except Sandy Bean and he is dead? A I don't know how long I did live there it might have been 20 years I don't know.

Q Where do you live now? A Ghelsen.

Q How long have you been living there? A I guess I have been living there about 20 years, I reckon.

Q You was out in Colorado awhile? A yess sir.

Q Rachel Steele go out there with you? A No sir.

Q She was up in Kansas at that time? A No sir.

Q She and Harry Steele married in Kansas didn't they? A I fhtye did I don't know it.

Q You don't know where they married? A I told you he come there and got her and carried her off and come back.

Q Where did he get her from? A Off o f Grand River.

Q Where did Harry and Rachel first keep house? A Near old Uncle Peter Hudson.

Q How long ago? A I don't know that either.

Q Has it been five years? A I reckon it has been longer than that.

Q About how long? A I don't know. They was living there before the Wallace Court, I don't know how long that has been.

Q You don't know what year that has been? A I don't know. If you was going to hang me you would have to go on.

Q Did you ever have any place on Grand River yourself? A Yes sir.

Q Where was it? A Further west.

Q What become of it? A Sold it.

Q Who to? A Man by the name of Brown, I think that 's his name.

Q White man, Cherokee or freedman? A Freedman.

Q Don't you know there wasn 't any Cherokee freedmen down there by the name of Brown, you know it wasn't? A I think it was Brown.

Q Did you ever hear of a Cherokee freedman down on Grand river by the name of Brown? A yess sir.

Q Who did he marry? A I don't know who he married.

Q Did he have any family? A Just him and his wife.

Q What's his wife's name? A I don't know.

Q You never saw her? A Yes sir, but I donst know her name.

Q Brown a young man or an old man? A He was a middle aged man.

Q On what side of Grand river, east or west? A On this side.

Q Who lived adjoining to you down there? A Arch Williams.

Q How far from Arch Williams's place? A Lived between me and Arthur Bean.

Q Did you have a house there? A Yes sir, I had a house. I wouldn't be sure bout the man's name, it seems to me like it was Brown.

Q How much did you get for the place? A Four dollars.

Q How long had you lived on it? A I lived there two seasons on it.

Q When did you leave it? A Left it in the spring.

Q How many year ago? A In the fall, I don't know how many years ago.

Q Where had you lived when you went out to this place? A I told you I lived in the bottom.

Q With your father and mother? A yess sir.

Q Where were you married the first time? A At Washington Adair's place.

Q That was before the war? A yess sir.

Q Where were you married after the war? A Here in the nation.

Q Where? A Down near an Grand river.

Q Did you have a husband that come back with you? A yess sir.

Q What was his name? A Gull Landrum.

Q Where did he die? A Died in Ottumwa, he was just out there two weeks and died before he got back.

Q How long after the war? A I don't know how long, seems to me like it wasn't long though.

Q Had you gone up there visiting when he died? A No sir, I didn't.

Q Didn't you go up there and see him when he died? A No sir, I didn't.

Q Didn't you see him at all? A Not when he died, I didn't.

Q You didn't see him at the time he died? A No sir, because I didn't have no way to get to him.

Q Who did he go to visit? A I don't know, let me see, seems to me like his sister was there?

Q What was her name? A Amelia.

Q Amelia what? A I don't know. I don't know that either Amelia Landrum I guess, because he belonged to the Landrum's.

Q He had been there at Ottumwa there? A He died there. He had just been away two weeks and he died. He had consumption and he died before he got back.

Q Do you know what year he died? A No sir, I don't know that.

Q Now where did Rachel Steel live after she come down here with your father and mother, who did she live with? A After mother died?

Q Before your mother died? A I told you two or three times. We lived with mother all the children lived with her until she died.

Q Did you live with your mother at the time she died? A No sir.

Q How long had you been separated from your mother at the time she died? A I don't know that.

Q About how long? A Four or 5 weeks I reckon, maybe longer than that.

Q As much as two months? A Now, Mr. Hastings, I don't know.

Q But Rachel was living with her when your mother died? A Yes sir.

Q How old is Rachel's oldest child? A I don't know how old Fannie is, about --- I don't know how old she is.

Q What is her oldest child's name? A Fannie.

Q What is the next one? A Morning.

Q Next one? Claud.

Q Don't you have any idea about how old her oldest child is? A I say I don't know just exactly, Fannie must be 25 years old I reckon, I don't know. Probably somewhere along in there, I don't know just how old she is.

Q Rachel was living with her mother when her mother died? A Yes sir, she was.

Q Up to that time she had always lived with her mother? A Always did.

Q She hadn't married yet? A No sir.

Q You say her mother died down here on Spavinaw? A Yes sir.

Q You are positive of these things? A Yes sir.

Q You say that her mother died of smallpox? A She did.

Q That was when they had that general smallpox scourge throughout the country? A Yes sir.

Q That was in '82 or '83 wasn't it? A I don't know.

Q That was when everybody was having the smallpox, when they had it? A Yes sir.

Q Now then how are you going to get around the fact that the smallpox happened here in this country about 20 years ago and you say your mother died at that time down here on the river, and you say that Rachel was living with your mother at that time? A Yes sir.

Q And wasn't married? A No sir.

Q And yet her oldest child was 26 years old, and was bound to have been born about five or six or seven years before this smallpox? A I say I couldn't say positive how old she was; I am just guessing at it. Don't go and say I said positively because I don't know. She wasn't married then.

Q Your mother died in Ottumwa, Kansas? A No sir, she didn't.

Q Martin Adair died up there too didn't he? A No sir, he didn't.

Q Now on whose place is your mother buried? A I don't know.

Q In the graveyard? A No sir.

Q Out in the woods? A Yes sir, theres lots of folks buried out there in the woods.

Q How many children did Rachel have older than Roxie?

A Fannie is older, Claud is older and Merning is older. She's got three older than Roxie.

Q According to the schedule of the age of these three children, Roxie was born in 1882 during the year of the smallpox, and Rachel Steele, her mother, must have had 3 children born prior to that time, yet you say that her mother died down here in the Cherokee Nation and that Rachel was living with her and single and unmarried, how do you account for that? A I don't know but she was.

Q Where is Harry Steele living now? A At Nowata.

BY COMMISSION: You are your sister, Rachel, came down at the same time your mother, Polly Adair, did after the war? A Yes sir.

Wm. Hutchinson, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly reported the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Dear Sir:

There are herewith enclosed copies of testimony taken at Vinita, during the month of September, in Cherokee freedmen cases as follows:

D 627, Frances Anderson et al.,
D 958, Sallie Humphreys et al.,
D 289, Lewis Martin et al.

Respectfully,

Enc. D-3.

Commissioner in Charge.

Truchis statement is that it was rather cold & Webbers is that it was about last of Aug or 1st of September

Webbers says that he was on his way from his home on Big Creek to Ft. Scott - via the crossing on Neosho river where the old military road intersect Neosho river.

~~That is to say he was~~

There was a plain travellin road from his place on Big Creek direct to his crossing on the Neosho river - a distance of about 25 miles

Instead of going the direct route he goes 8, 20, 30 miles without a road and strikes the military road thirty miles south of the objection point on the Neosho river

The statements of Sam Webb and Dave French place Francis Anderson and his mother, stepfather and three sisters & Francis husband on Cabin Creek at the military crossing on the south side.

They differ materially as to when the family were camped. French places them some way from the Creek and Webb places them immediately at the Creek. In both instances it was an accidental meeting and lasted only a few minutes. Webb and French were both travelling north and differ somewhat as to the time of the year when they saw them.

The 1880 roll, printed and on page 80, 81, the third is "John Manley" and the fourth is "John Manley" and the fifth is "John Manley".

By the Court:

Joe Manley ?.

Q You didn't make any claim or make any reference to your name being on the 1880 roll five years ago before the Kern Clifton court did you?
A Not as I know of, but I knowed it just as well then as I do to-day.

By the Commission:

Q Do you know how old you are? A. No sir, but I was told that I was 38 years old.

By Com'r Needles,--

Joseph Manley applies for himself, his wife Kate, and six children, to-wit: Ida, Frank, Sarah, Lola, Joseph Jr and Willie Manley; he is not identified on the 186 Freedman roll or the Census Freedman roll of 1880; he is identified on the Kern Clifton and Wallace rolls as Joseph Manley; he avers by his agent that one Joseph Dick is enrolled on the authenticated roll of 1880 as a Delaware Indian, and the page and number of said roll giving said enrollment is set forth in the testimony and it is claimed that that enrollment is intended for the applicant; he claims that his step mother was one Polly Manley or Dick, and the name of Polly Dick is found on the 1880 roll, and he claims that she enrolled him with her other children as Joseph Dick. He applies for the enrollment of his wife Kate; she is identified on the Kern Clifton roll and on the Wallace roll but not on the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1880. Q He avers that she is the child of Robert and Marguerite Webber and the names of her father and mother are not found on the authenticated roll of 1880; they are known as disputed citizens and reference will be made to the testimony that will be taken in the said Robert Webber's application when same shall have been made, he not having as yet applied for enrollment. A copy of the testimony taken in said case will then be filed with this application and made a part of the application as for the with. The names of his four eldest children are identified on the Kern Clifton roll, but the names of his two youngest children are not on said roll and it will be necessary for him to file with this Commission satisfactory proof as to their birth. By reason of the fact that the name of Joseph Manley is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880, and for the further fact of the indefiniteness of the testimony as to the identification of the applicant with the Joseph Dick whose name is found on the authenticated roll of 1880 according to the page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, and for the further fact that no proof is set down as to the citizenship of the applicant's wife Kate, the said Joseph Manley and his said wife Kate Manley and their six children as enumerated herein will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen on a doubtful card for the further consideration of the Commission, and when the final decision therein is made he will be notified of the same by mail.

By W. W. Hastings:

* Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and call attention to the fact that the roll of 1880 as presented before the Commission, shows the names of Richard, Joseph and Billy Dick together as all one family, and neither the names of Richard and Billy have been mentioned by the applicant in his testimony as being among the members of his family.

Q Did you take them back in that two weeks? A No, sir, they lived down there.

Q Did they live at Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.

Q You had them there at the end of two weeks did you? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Mallette:

Q Who did you come back with? A I come with a fellow by the name of Web Crittendon.

Q Where is the first point you struck in the Cherokee Nation when you came here? A The first pint I struck was on the Illinois River by Mr. Musgrove's; I come down the big road, down Lindsey's prairie.

Q Where did you come from? A I come from Galdine Gunter's.

Q In what State? A That was in Arkansas he lives, I moved him there.

By Commissioner Breckinridge:

Q You moved him from where? A From Texas.

Q How long did you stay at Galdine Gunter's? A I stayed there that winter, in '65, and in '66 I left them, told mother there was a limit and I had better get back.

Q Is that up in Washington County, Arkansas? A Benton County I think.

Q Did you stay there as much as a year? A No, sir.

Q What time of the year was it you got there? A In the winter.

Q And what time did you leave? A I left in the Spring.

Q The following Spring? A Yes, sir, the following Spring.

Q You came to Gunter's from Texas? A Yes, sir.

Q About what time in the winter? A I don't know just exactly.

Q Well about how long after Christmas? A Oh, I guess it must have been a week or two after Christmas.

Q How did you happen to leave Texas and go up to Gunter's?

A He was coming back and he said he would bring me back.

Q Was the war over? A Yes, sir, peace was declared in '65, I drove teams for him.

Q Had Gunter been in the Confederate army? A No, sir, he hadn't been in any army at all; he stayed with his family.

Q There was no fighting when you came back? A No, sir, the war was ended but it was little kinda squally times yet.

Q Who came with you and the Gunters? A Fellow by the name of Crittendon.

Q How long had the war been over when you went to Gunters?

A Peace was declared in '65; I was with Gunter there in Texas when peace was declared, we started back home that same summer.

Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you came to it from Gunter's in Arkansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Was your wife with you at Gunter's? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she come with you from Gunter's to the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir, I moved her down from Gunter's to the Cherokee Nation.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q Now, Robert, did you belong to Calbine Gunter at the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q You belonged to whom? A Old Alkey Webber.

Q Where were you living with reference to Calbine Gunter and family when the war broke out? A I was living down here by Tahlequah.

Q How far from Gunter's? A About 35 or 40 miles.

Q They were living at what is known as Siloam Spring? A Yes, sir.

Q You went south to Texas during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q And you came back to Arkansas with Calbine Gunter and his family?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember the names of Calbine Gunter's children that were living then? A Yes, sir, I know part of them, John T. Gunter.

Q He lives here at Vinita? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember his oldest daughter's name? A Ann Eliza.

Q Mrs. Doctor Fortner at Vinita? A Yes, sir, and Eliza was out cow driver.

Q When you applied to the Chambers Court in 1871 to be admitted, you were decided against, of course, you had returned too late?

A That is what they said.

Q Now, when you came back to the Nation whose farm did you come to first? A I went to the old Roach farm on Warren Fork, the George Roach's farm.

Q He was living there? A Yes, sir.

Q He is now living down in there? A Yes, sir.

Q He would know when you got back? A Yes, sir, he ought to know I made a crop there.

Q In giving your testimony before you didn't state that you returned to Calbine Gunter's in 1868? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q How long did you live on the Roach place on Illinois river in that country there? A I lived down in that country four or five years.

Q Who else of the Cherokee families were living there when you returned to the Roach place? A Nan Roach and John Roach and Sallie.

Q Were there any other Cherokee families there other than the Roach family? A Aaron Crittendon.

Q How far is this Roach place from Tahlequah? A Ten miles.

By Com'r Breckinridge:

Q Where was Calbine Gunter living when the war broke out?

A He was living there where I left him I guess.

Q At Siloam Springs, Arkansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Was your wife living with him? A I guess so, I didn't know anything about her when they were living there.

Q You met her in Texas? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, was she living with Calbine Gunter in Texas? A Yes, sir.

Q And she belonged to Calbine Gunter at the time she went back with Calbine Gunter to his house? A Yes, sir, she was in the family.

Q Now, you and your wife have a lot of children? A Yes, sir.

Q They are of age? A Yes, sir.

Q They may need to claim in your case so I will take their names now; give me their names? A Frank Webber.

Q How old is Frank? A About 37.

Q And then the next child? A Katie but then she went in with her husband.

Q She is with her husband? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her present name? A She is a Manley now.

Q Has she already applied? A Yes, sir.

Q Now the next child? A Josh.

Q How old is Josh.

Q How old is Josh? A 33.

Q Now the next child? A Sam.

Q How old is Sam.

Q Now, the next child? A Ella, you get her down with her old man, Ella Wright.

Q Has she applied yet? A Yes, sir, told me to speak to you about it, she was down with him, Walter Wright, I guess he put his name down.

Q What is the name of Katie's husband? A Joe Manley.

Q Which one comes next to Ella? A That is all.

LOUIS B. DANIELS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Where did you first meet him after the surrender? A In Fort Gibson, sir.

Q When was that you met him in Fort Gibson? A That was in the summer of '66.

Q That was the first time you met him was it? A Yes, sir, I got to know him.

Q What were the circumstances of your meeting, were you acquainted with him? A There were eight or ten of us going to go out and hunt some meat and kill some beaves, we was allowed to kill beaves by going to see the chief and getting a permit, and we come up to Grand river and got an order from chief Downing to kill some beaves and Bob was in the crowd with me.

Q This man, Bob? A Yes, sir, there were several of us, there is six living now.

Q Did he go with you to kill the beaves? A Yes, sir.

Q And you remember of his being in that party? A Yes, sir, and every man remembers it that is living.

Q Were there any other times that you have met him? A Yes sir, I have met him since that; after he left Fort Gibson I don't know exactly what time I met him in '66 on Barron Fork. I was going by there to buy some hogs and I stayed all night with him in the Cherokee Nation, about 13 miles the other side of Tahlequah.

Q Where was he living when you met him in Fort Gibson? A He was staying with his brother, I guess, I didn't ask him.

Q Where was his brother living? A Right in Fort Gibson, Bude Webber.

By Mr. Bavenport:

Q Now, Louis, the first time you remember seeing Bob here in the Cherokee Nation from the time you went to get an order from Louis Downing to kill some beaves - ? A I may have seen him before that, but I didn't know it was Bob Webber.

Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee Nation when the war broke out?
A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know this man, Robert Webber before the war broke out?
A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Akey Webber, same woman I belonged to...

Q She was a recognized Cherokee citizen was she? A Yes, sir; talked all Cherokee, could not talk any English.

Q Did this man go out with you when the war came up?
A No, sir, I found him with the Pin Indians. When they pulled up and went north I found him with them when they went there.

Q Where was that? A That was somewhere near on the line, Arkansas line, where I found him when I went to him.

Q When was that? A That was somewhere along sometime near the war commenced.

Q He was with the Pina? A Yes, sir, when I seen him.

Q What did you see of him after that? A He was taken prisoner and was taken off and I didn't see him any more; his wife come to Kansas and said they come and got him at their house one night and I never seen him any more.

Q His wife come to your house? A Come to the soldiers' quarters.

Q Who did she say took him? A The Bushwhackers.

Q And they took him north? A No, sir, taken him south what she said.

Q And you don't know what they did with him down there? A No sir.

Q When did you see him after the war? A I saw him here along after the war when I lived up here he come up to see us.

Q That was two or three years after you got back? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you get back? A '88.

Q And that was '88 or '89? A Yes, sir, somewhere along there.

By Mr. Davenport:

Q Sam, what became of Bob's wife after she came up to the soldiers' camp? A She stayed there and went to Bigaon.

Q Where were you camped at that time? A Over here about, I can't think of the name of the place, over here in Arkansas.

Q Now, what year was that? A That was along, the war run a little while.

Q Fighting was going on then? A Yes, sir.

ROBERT WEBBER, the applicant, recalled by Mr. C. R. Breckinridge:

Q What is this about your being with the Pin Indians? A I was a soldier

Q Soldier in the army? A Yes, sir.

Q And you were captured were you? A Yes, sir.

Q And what did they do with you? A They took me to Texas.

Q You didn't go down to Texas with your mistress, Akey Webber?

A No, sir, she was dead.

Q When did she die? A She died in '61.

Q Who did you belong to after your mistress died? A I belonged to nobody, you see she died in '61 and I was still on the place.

Q You don't know who claimed you at that time? A No, sir.
Q Who had charge of the place? A Her son, Robin Webber.
Q Well, did you recognize his authority? A Oh, yes.
Q Well then when they took you down to Texas what did you do?
A I drove teams.
Q For whom? A The Southern Government.
Q Did you find this woman down there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you find any of your people down there?
A Found Charley Webber, son of Akey.
Q Were you hired out to the Southern Government? A Yes, sir.
Q Who did the hire? A Charley Webber I suppose.
Q What did you have to do with Webber at that time?
A They took me there and hauled and he was working for the Government.
Q What did this young Webber have to do with it? A The war was nearly over and he said I could just stay there.
Q Was he living in Gunter's neighborhood? A No, sir, he heard of me later and come over after me.
Q Then you married this woman that belonged to Gunter? A Yes, sir.
Q This woman Margaret? A Yes, sir.
Q And went on up to Gunter in Benton County? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, when you first come back from Texas you went to Benton County? A Yes, sir.
Q And then from Benton County where did you go? A To the Cherokee Nation.
Q Whereabouts? A On the Barren Fork.
Q How far to the mouth of Barren Fork? A It must be about ten or 12 miles above.
Q Well how long after you got there to Barren Fork was it before you ever had an occasion to go down to Fort Gibson?
A I don't know, sir, how long I stayed at Barren Fork before I went to Fort Gibson.
Q What neighbors did you have down there? A Hugo Gunter and Wooten Loomer.
Q Is that the time you got with Louis Danfield? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you go on that cattle hunt with them? A Yes, sir.
Q After that where did you go? A I went back to Barren Fork.
Q How long did you live there? A About four years.
Q By Mr. Davenport?
Q Now, in giving your testimony a while ago you said it happened that you didn't say anything about being taken by the soldiers could?
A You asked me how I got down there. I know of.
Q Didn't I ask you if you didn't go down there with Saline Gunter and family? A Yes, sir.
Q Didn't you tell me on cross-examination that you had married this girl before you went south? A No, sir.
Q And didn't you tell me that you lived that Gunter lived about 35 or 40 miles from where Webbers lived and that Antons lived in Arkansas and that you lived in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children has your wife got? A Yes, sir.
Q How old is your oldest child? A 21.
Q What time did you go to Texas when the soldiers took you there?
A I don't know.
Q When did you and your wife marry? A Shortly after we got there.
Q How about the war, was it over? A No, sir, the war was going on.
Q By Com'r Breckinridge?
Q Who was Saline Gunter's wife? A She was a ward.
Q Was she a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Was Gunter himself a Cherokee? A No, sir.
Q Where is Nancy Gunter living now? A She is living here.
Q Where? A In Benton County.
Q Has she lived there ever since the war? A I guess so.
Q You never heard of her coming back?
A No, sir, I never heard of her since.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife. The applicant is identified on the Kern-Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1896. It appears that he was a slave of a Cherokee citizen in the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the Civil War. He was taken to the State of Texas and it is quite satisfactorily established that he returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, and that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since. He states that he applied to the ~~Cherokee~~ ~~Nation~~ ~~Chambers~~ court and at one part of his testimony he said that they deferred his case and decided in his absence and in another part of his testimony he said that he was told by the court that he was rejected at that time because he had returned too late after the war. By this as it may the present testimony given by witnesses who are considered credible indicates that he did return within the time required by the treaty of 1866 and no real valid objection is seen at this time to his enrollment, but inasmuch as he was omitted from the roll of 1880, and for the further consideration by the full commission of the conditions stated, he will at present be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a Doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his postoffice address.

As for his wife: she is identified on the Kern-Clifton roll, and her Mistress, Nancy Ward, is appears was a Cherokee woman prior to the war she was married to one Caldine Gunter who lived in Benton county, Arkansas, and she was there residing with her husband, and the applicant's wife was living with them in the State of Arkansas prior to the breaking out of the Civil War. She was taken to the State of Texas where she met the applicant and they were married and after the war she returned to Benton County, Arkansas, her husband going with her, and he alleges that prior to the time he has been shown to have been at Fort Gibson in the year 1866, he had brought his wife to the Barren Port of the Illinois River in the Cherokee Nation and that they had there located.

Q Has your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you brought her after the war? A Yes, sir.

The weight of the testimony at present is that his wife by reason of the change of ownership that she underwent prior to the war and that was maintained in her case during the war, was not in a position to avail herself of the rights of Freedmen arising under the treaty of 1866. It may be, but it is not established, that Gunter and his wife were subsequently readmitted to Cherokee citizenship, but a decided weight of the testimony is that the wife of Caldine Gunter never resumed citizenship in the Cherokee Nation after taking up her residence in the State of Arkansas prior to the Civil War. Therefore, under these conditions there appears at present really no valid reason to justify the enrollment of the applicant's wife, Margaret, but for the further consideration of her case, as stated, she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card; but the applicant has five children enumerated in the testimony all of whom have now reached their majority and whose rights perhaps depend primarily upon the status of the applicant and his wife. Now, it seems from the testimony that both the applicant and his wife were married previous to their marriage but that he was separated by the war and under the operation of the insti tution of slavery from his wife, and she was similarly separated from her first husband and that under these conditions they contracted marriage in the State of Texas while the war was going on. It is not considered that the strict meaning of the laws of marriage are applicable to people as the applicant and his wife at that time, and it is believed at present that the marriage contracted by him and his wife, Margaret, during the war and maintained continuously from that time until now is a valid marriage, and that those children should be considered the lawful children of the applicant and his wife and that they should enjoy, in the absence of any testimony to the contrary, all the rights that may be finally established for the applicant himself.

SUPPLEMENTAL INTERROGATORIES by Gen'l Breckinridge: The APPLICANT recalled:

- Q Are those children all the children of your wife, Margaret?
A Yes, sir.
Q How many of them were born in Texas, any of them? A The oldest one was born in Texas before we left.
A Frank? A Yes, sir.
Q And then Frank is older than you think he is? A That is what I call him, what I think he is.
Q But he was born in Texas? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Frank come with you and your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Come with you over to Barren Park? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, these other children were they all born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Have they always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Davenport: The representatives of the Cherokee Nation protest against the enrollment of this wife, Margaret, for the reason that Cherokee card #428 gives the testimony of Nancy Gunter in full, who was alleged to have been the owner of the wife of the applicant at the time the war broke out, which testimony shows the continued residence of Nancy Gunter in the State of Arkansas for years up to and including the date of the giving of the testimony which was on the 25th day of September, 1900.

J. G. Rogson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly received the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereon.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 12th, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of ROBERT WEBBER, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, introduced on part of Cherokee Nation.

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Smith of Counsel for applicants.

Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

ELIZA CHANDLER, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation.

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A. Eliza Chandler.

Q Where do you live, Mrs. Chandler? A. In Vinita.

Q How old are you? A. 54.

Q Where were you living at the breaking out of the war?

A. Arkansas.

Q Did you leave the State of Arkansas during the war and your family? A. Yes, sir.

Q Your father, what was his first name? A. Galding Hunter.

Q Did your father own any slaves at the breaking out of the war?

A. Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether or not he owned a woman by the name of Margaret? A. Yes, sir.

Q Do you know who she afterwards married and lived with as his wife? A. Yes, sir.

Q Who did she live with Mrs. Chandler? A. Bob Webber, he goes by that name.

Q Do you know what became of Margaret during the war? A. Yes, sir.

Q Where did she go? A. We married her to Texas with us.

Q Well, after the close of the war what became of her? A. We brought her back to Arkansas.

Q You got back to Arkansas in what year? A. In '65.

Q How long did she live with you after you got back to Arkansas, that is, did she live there at all? A. She only stayed a little while; they moved up on Butler's creek.

Q Butler's creek, Territory or Arkansas? A. Arkansas, at Mr.
Tittles.

Q Do you know what Mr. Tittles first name was? A. Dan.

Q Did you know Bob Webber before the war? A. No, sir, I first saw him in Texas.

Q And he came down there while you were in Texas? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did he come back with you and your family? A. Yes, sir.

Q Was he with Margaret when they moved up on Butler's creek in Arkansas? A. Yes, sir.

Q About what year was that they moved up on Butler's creek at Dan
Tittles in Arkansas? A. It was in the winter of '66.

Q Now, Margaret as I understand was owned by your father at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes, sir.

Q You don't know of your own knowledge who owned Bob? A. No, sir.

Q Was your father and your mother a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at that time, or any of your family? A. No, sir.

Q They weren't citizens when they returned from the south, were they? A. No, sir.

MR. SMITH: Mrs. Chandler, your mother was a Cherokee Indian,
was she not? A. Yes, sir.

Q She is admitted to citizenship here? I understood you to say here in another case? A. Yes, sir.

Q Well, do you remember what month you returned to Arkansas in 1865? A I think it was in November, I won't be positive.
 Q Not sure? A No, sir.
 Q Well, none of your family owned Robert Webber? A No, sir.
 Q Did you know anything about him before the war? A No, sir, did not.
 Q You say after the war he was married to a woman named Margaret? A It was in time of the war that they come to our house in Texas.
 Q Well, then when you took Robert Webber and Margaret to Arkansas they were still husband and wife there, were they? A Yes, sir, after we come back.
 Q Now, you don't remember the month that they went up on this Butler creek, you are speaking about? A No, sir, they went that winter some time.
 Q You mean the winter in the year you returned? A Yes, sir.
 Q That was in '65? A Yes.
 Q How far from that place where they went to from where you lived? A About 25 miles.
 Q How far did you live from the Cherokee Nation? A I guess it was about two miles and a half.
 Q Lived right on the line? A Yes, sir.
 Q You don't know of your own knowledge where Robert Webber was during the year 1863? A Well, he made a stop up there on Butler's creek and then he moved back that summer down to Pa's, and then he come down here in the Nation, or said he was coming and left his family there at our place until in the fall and then he come back and moved them down in the Nation, I reckon. I have seen her here since I have been in the Nation.
 Q Well, at the time you came back with these people from Texas the war was over? A Yes, sir.
 Q They were free then? A Yes, sir.
 Q They could go wherever they wanted to? A Yes, sir.
 Q And they were only two miles and a half from where you lived to the Cherokee Nation line? A Yes, sir.
 Q Now, you can't state of your own knowledge, either when Robert Webber or his wife first came into the Cherokee Nation after the war was over? A No, sir, I would not try to state.

JOHN F. GUNTER, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John F. Gunter.
 Q Where do you live, Mr. Gunter? A Live in Vinita, Indian Territory.
 Q How old are you? A 46.
 Q Where were you living at the time war broke out? A Living in Benton County, Arkansas.
 Q Your father's name was Cassius Gunter? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did your father own a slave, a woman, at that time by the name of Margaret? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know whether or not she was married before the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir, she had a man named Adam.
 Q What became of Margaret during the war, if you know, Mr. Gunter? A My father took her to Texas.
 Q How long did she stay there? A Until 1865 when we returned to Arkansas.
 Q Did you have her and the fellow by the name of Bob Webber? A Yes, sir.
 Q Did he and Margaret live together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q Where did you first see Webber? A Hopkins County, Texas.
 Q How long did he stay there? A He stayed there until '65, drove a team back for my father.
 Q To what point did you come? A Benton County, Arkansas.

Q Were your family citizens of the Cherokee Nation at that time?

A No, sir.

Q Were they citizens of the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the war? A No, sir.

Q Well, after they came back to Benton County, Arkansas, what became of Margaret and Bob, if you know? A They left my father's house and went to Dan Tittler near Sulphur Springs.

Q What place? A Benton County, Arkansas.

Q Do you know how long they stayed there? A They went there in the winter of '65 and stayed until the fall of '66, made a crop at Dan Tittler; I don't know whether they made a crop or not.

Q Well, what became of them then? A Along in the fall Bob came back to my father's and he and Uncle Dan had fell out and he wanted to move back and my father had a little old smoke house and fixed that up for them and moved his family there, and stayed there that winter, he went away and was gone, quite a while, I don't know where he was, here in the Territory somewhere he said he was going.

Q That was the winter of '66? A Yes, sir.

Q What took place after that? A In the spring of '67, he moved his family here.

Q Do you know who Bob belonged to before the breaking out of the war? A No, sir.

Q You don't know anything about him, about as to who he belonged?

A Only what he told me; he said he belonged to the Webbers.

Q Margaret belonged to your father? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: What Webber did he say he belonged to? A I don't know.

Q Was there an Alex Webber? A I don't know of her.

Q You weren't acquainted with her? A No, sir.

Q You weren't in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A No, sir.

Q Didn't live here? A No, sir.

Q Now, you say, Mr. Gunter, Bob Webber, this applicant moved his family into the Territory in the spring of '67? A Yes, sir, in the spring of '67.

Q Well, now, can you state the month? A No, sir, but it was some time early in the spring.

Q You can't be positive as to the month? A No, sir.

Q Was it as early as first of the year, '67? A No, sir, grass was up, cattle was grazing on the grass, and the first I can remember it, my father made Margaret a present of a cow and a calf, and sent me out to drive her up and get her off of the grass; it was a young calf, he took them with him.

Q Robert Webber had made preparations to make to the Cherokee Nation before that? A I think he went to George Beach, on Barron Ferry before that.

Q That was in the winter of '66? A Yes, sir, at least he was gone quite a while.

Q That is where he said he was going? A That is where he said he was going.

Q Well, your father and your mother and children were all admitted to citizenship here after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q That was in what year? A 1880.

Q This woman, Margaret, that used to belong to your father was this man's first? A Yes, sir, lived with him.

Q This man you speak of her having been with that was in Slavery times? A Yes, sir.

Q What became of Adams? A He went to Kansas I was told.

Q Who did Adams belong to? A Belonged to my father.

Q Why didn't he go with your father? A He went away before we fled.

Q Was he sold? A No, sir, in '63 when the army came down there was a number of our slaves went away and some of them returned and some of them didn't, there is one of them lives up here at Fort Scott.

Q Well, this man Adam that you speak of and Margaret, they were just simply living together under the fashion of slaves at that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q No marriage about it? A No, sir.

Q They were separated from each other by the exigencies of war?

A Yes, sir.

Q You never heard of Adam afterwards? A Yes, sir, I have heard of him.

Q You never seen him? A No, sir.

Q Do you know how Robert came down to Texas? A Yes, sir, I know how he came to Hopkins County, he came with Dan Tittles and Jim.

Q Do you know whether the Pin Indians ever got him or not? A No, sir.

Q Did you ever hear? A No, sir, I heard Dan Tittles bought him and took him to Texas; the Pin Indians didn't come that way.

Q Do you know whether he was ever captured from the Pin Indians by anybody? A Never heard of it.

Q All you know about Robert Webster is that he came to Texas?

A No, sir.

Q Mr. Gunter, your mother was a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q And you say she was brought up in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir, she was born and raised in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was she in the Cherokee Nation when she married? A Married just across the line.

Q Living in the Cherokee Nation when she married? A Yes, sir.

Q And when she married your father went across the line of Arkansas to live? A Yes, sir.

Q During the time of the war did she claim to be a Cherokee Indian?

A Yes, sir.

Q Draw money? A Drew money in '53 I believe it was.

Q What money was that? A Old settler money.

Q Did she exercise any other rights or did any of your family before the war? A No, sir.

Q You didn't live in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; never except her mother and brothers and sisters, none of our immediate family.

Q But in the year 1880 she was formally admitted by an Act of the Council? A Yes, sir, Court created by the Council.

Q Mr. Gunter, can you state whether there were many or few of these Acts of Admission? A Admitting people to citizenship?

Q Yes? A Yes, sir, there were a great many.

Q They were applied for in favor of persons living in the Nation and claiming to be citizens? A Yes, living out and wanted to return, that is, had been citizens at one time and moved out and forfeited their citizenship; they applied to the Council for readmission. My mother being residing in the Territory and going out she forfeited her citizenship.

Q That is she stated she had forfeited it, you don't know whether she forfeited or not? A That is her understanding.

MR. DAVENPORT: What brought up the question of their applying to the Council, Mr. Gunter, if you know? A It was the understanding of the laws and constitution of the Cherokee Nation.

Q If they expected to participate in the benefits of the Cherokee Nation, they must be readmitted? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir.

MR. NEEDLES: What was your father's property was your mother's

A I don't know.

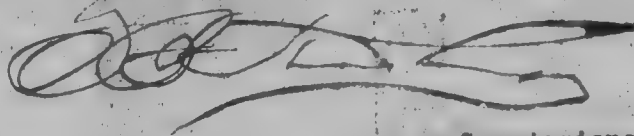

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be made part of the case at bar and made part of the record in D.#663, D.#628, D.#691, and D.#680.

Q What is your post office? A Vinita.

Q How old are you? A 55

Q Do you know Robert Webber, the applicant in this case?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Ever since about '63, '62 or 3

Q Did he ever be long to any of your family? A He belonged to my father.

Q Where did your father live? A He lived in Benton County, Arkansas.

Q Did your father move away from Benton County, Arkansas?

A No, sir.

Q Did they go south during the war any of your family, or do you know? A My family stayed there, but we went south.

Q Well, what became of Bob during the war, if you know?

A He taken him south.

Q Well, did he come back? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did he go to? A Come up to our place.

Q Where was that? A In Benton County, Arkansas.

Q How long did he stay there with you? A He come there in the fall of '65 and stayed until the fall of '66.

Q At that time where was your family residing? A In Benton County, Arkansas.

Q How long had they been residing in Arkansas? A About 15 years.

Q Were they or were they not recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A Not then, we was outside of the Cherokee Nation then.

Q Well, after the close of the war you say you returned back to your old home place, in Benton County, Arkansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever move back to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q That year did you move back? A We come back in '67.

Q Were they recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation at that time some action taken to the establishing of rights? A We had to establish a right; my father was admitted and married after he came back to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was it your father had the Cherokee blood or mother? A Mother.

Q When was she was admitted in 1867? A Yes, sir.

Q Did your father marry again? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you mean he was married twice according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation? A He married and went off and come back and married again.

Q Where did your father marry again? A In the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long after he was married the first time? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, what was the child? A That was the child in 1868 I guess it would be.

Q About what year? A About 1868 or 1869.

Q Would you want to point it mp; it was in '46.

Q He was in this Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, then, when he married, he was a citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did he continue to live in the Cherokee Nation?

A He lived there when I was about five years old; let's see, married in '46, that would be, I think we left there in '52.

Q Where did you go? A First went to Texas and stayed there a while and came back to the Cherokee Nation and stayed until after the old Settler payment and went to Arkansas; we drew money in the old Settler payment.

Q Your family all drew money in the old Settler's payment?

A Yes, sir.

Q In what year was that? A I think that was in '62; '1 or '2.

Q How long after that was it before you went into Arkansas?

A Right away after that.

Q How many years? A Oh, I guess probably inside of a year or such matter.

Q Where did you live in Arkansas? A Benton County.

Q How far from the line? A What line, Arkansas line or Missouri line.

Q The Cherokee Nation line? A It was about ten miles from Cherokee line and three miles from Missouri line.

Q What was your father's name? A Dan Tittle.

Q Who did your father get this man from? A Fellow by the name of John Grinnett.

Q When did he get him? A About '62.

Q Where did he get him from? A Down here about Mayesville.

Q Who is Grinnett? A He is said to be the owner of Bob, who he bought him from.

Q Where did Grinnett live? A He lived down there in the Nation somewhere.

Q He was a Cherokee, Grinnett was? A I don't know whether he was or not.

Q Did you ever know Grinnett? A No, sir.

Q Well, do you know what date it was that he bought this man?

A I think it was in '62, I think.

Q It was after the war had commenced? A Yes, sir.

Q It might have been in '63? A It was in '62. Somewhere along there as well as I remember about it.

Q You think it could not have been as late as 1864? A No, for we had him before he was bought, and we kept him there and went down on the Arkansas river and come back there and found Grinnett and bought him.

Q It was either in '62 or '63 your father bought him? A Yes, sir.

Q He had been captured and taken there? A Yes, sir, went down there and come back and he bought him.

Q Do you know who he had been captured from? A Only what he said; he said he belonged to as well as I remember, he belonged to Mrs. Webber, and Mrs. Grinnett was a daughter of Mrs. Webber.

Q What was Webber's name? A I don't know.

Q Did you ever know an Akay Webber? A No, sir.

Q Akay Webber was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation when the war came up? A I don't know.

Q Now, you claim that your father owned this man in '62 or '63?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where did he own him? A Benton County, Arkansas.

Q Who lived near him when he owned him? A In the settlement there?

A Yes. A The nearest fellow in the neighborhood was a man by the name of Wells, and Thomas.

Q Are they living there now? A I guess they are all dead now.

Q Does anybody but you know that your father owned this man?

A Yes, sir.

Q What? A Well, Thomas, living at Bentonville, Arkansas, and Eph Thompson that lived on Butler's drack where I lived, he is living there yet.

Q How long do you claim this man Robert Webber was with your father from the time you say your father bought him? A He must have been with him including the time we left, three or four years.

Q What time you say he left your father? A He left him in the fall of '56.

Q Well, it was a man named Grinnett that your father undertook to buy him from? A That is the man he bought him from.

Q After the man had been captured and taken out of the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q And you don't know what right Grinnett had for selling if he had any? A No, sir, claimed he sold him.

COM'R NEEDLES: As I understand your father before that was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q And when did he come back to the Cherokee Nation?

A He come back in '57.

Q And was re-admitted? A Yes, sir.

Q And this darkey was not with him then? A No, sir.

MR. SMITH: Now, Mr. Tittle, you lived in Arkansas after you went out after the old settler payment; what property did your father have back in the Cherokee Nation? A He didn't have any when he lived there; he killed a man and they kept hunting him.

COM'R NEEDLES: He refused over there? A Yes, sir, he stood his trial and come plenty.

Q Where did he stand his trial? A Right on the line right close to High Case at that time.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In the State.

Q He killed a man in the State? A Killed an Indian in the State and tried him right at the place he killed him.

Q When he killed the Indian he was living in the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir, he was living in the State; right within a quarter of where he killed him; but I had been born in the Nation.

MR. SMITH: What court did they try him in in the State of Arkansas? A Arkansas Court.

Q What Court? A Courts from Bentonville come down there and tried him.

Q Tried him in Bentonville? A No, sir.

Q They had to have a court there? A I don't know; they tried him at Cal Gunter's right on the edge of Lindsey's prairie.

Q It is the English Circuit Court in Benton County, Arkansas, tried him? A I could not tell you; they come there and tried him.

Q What did they try him in? A Tried him in Cal Gunter's house.

Q You don't claim that it was a court of the State of Arkansas?

A Yes, sir.

Q Come down to Cal Gunter's house? A Yes, sir.

Q They were very accommodating at that time?

A I can't tell you anything about that; that was where he was tried.

Q Well, now, during all that time he claimed to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A He was not at that time; was tried because he was living in the State of Arkansas.

Q That didn't keep him from being a citizen because he was not living in the Cherokee Nation? A He was not a citizen at that time.

MR. DAVENPORT: This was a trial before a Justice of the Peace? A I don't know; they had a trial and he come blocks I was a small boy, about five years old; there was about three hundred men with him and the Indians had gathered five or six hundred with them, and he was tried right there at the line.

COM'R NEEDLES: This will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and also D-625, D-662, D-691, D-680.

J. O. Benson, being first duly sworn, deposes that as stenographer to the Commission to the two Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Deigs for the enrollment of herself as a Cherokee Freedman.

Cherokee Nation appears by W. H. Hastings.
Applicant appears by L. T. Brown.

MRS. LYDIA BARTON, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A. Mrs. Lydia Barton.

Q. What is your postoffice? A. Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q. Do you hold any official position at the present time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is it? A. County Clerk.

Q. Of the county in which Fort Scott is located? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you an official paper? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is it? A. Our official paper at the present time is the Republican, but that changes you know from time to time.

Q. Do you know what your official paper was in December, 1866, and up to and including March of 1867? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was it? A. The Fort Scott Monitor.

Q. Are you required to keep files of this paper in your office? A. We are.

Q. Have you a file of the official paper including December, 23, 1866? up to and including March of 1867? A. Yes, sir. (Here presents files.)

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the account found in the Fort Scott Monitor of date Wednesday, December, 23, 1866, found on the second column of the editorial page, headed "Another Murder."

MR. BROWN: Comes now the agent for the applicant and objects to the introduction of these newspaper accounts for the reason that they are incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and purely hearsay.

COMMISSIONER: The objection will be noted and the newspaper accounts introduced in evidence and considered for what they are worth.

"Another Murder."

Shooting of D. Hayford.

Testimony given before the coroner.

On Saturday night, the 22nd, inst., after dark, Mr. Dyer Hayford of this city was found murdered. A colored man, named Eli Mackey, had been arrested, and is in jail, charged with the crime. There would not seem to be any, if any, doubt of his guilt. Mr. Hayford, has been a resident of Fort Scott for several years, has kept a grocery and provision store on the corner of Williams and Bigler Streets, and was a very quiet and inoffensive man. The facts of his murder as we learn them, are these:

On Saturday, about dark, the sack of flour which Mr. Hayford had placed on a box, outside the door of his store, was stolen. Being missed almost immediately, and learning that Mackey had taken it, and was then on his way home with it, (Mackey resides near Fort Scott mills,) Mr. Hayford jumped on a horse and started towards the mill. He had not been gone more than twenty or thirty minutes before several shots were fired on the road between the city and the mills, where Mr. Hayford was found on the ground, in the last agonies of death. He had received four shots from a weapon, evidently a revolver.

Suspicion was at once directed to Mackey and he was arrested. As the news spread through the city, the excitement and the irascibility was great, and many threats of lynching Mackey were made; but wiser and better counsels prevailed, and there was no disturbance.

On Sunday, Justice H. R. Love was called on to hold a coroner's inquest. A jury was empanelled, consisting of Messrs. C. F. Drake, Joseph Ray, Frank Clough, Burt Williams, Joe Fardani, and B. L. Philline. The body of Mr. Hayford was removed to his late residence, the jury proceeded to inquire into the cause of his death. We give the principal part of the testimony given before the jury.

Drs. J. S. Redfield and B. F. Herber and a post-mortem examination, had testified that they found four pistol or gun-shot wounds on the body, namely a Dyer Hayford, then living, dead before them. One shot entered the region of the stomach which came out over the liver, in the side of the back. This wound bears evidence that the pistol was held close to the body when discharged. Two other wounds found on the body were about two inches above the last nipple and about an inch and a half apart - one ball passing through, coming out below the left shoulder, the other passing downward, and was found close to the spinal column, a few inches below the lower ribs on the left side of the body. The fourth ball entered the upper part of the chin, not fracturing the bone, and lodged in the right shoulder, (evidently fired by Mackey when he was on the ground.) The surgeons testified that any of the three wounds found on his body would have been mortal.

Alonso Oullin, (doctor), sworn - Was at Hayford's Saturday evening, just after six o'clock, came on horseback to my house at the door, went in and found Hayford alone, and coming toward the door. Eli Mackey, colored, was standing on the walk when I went into Hayford's; a sack of flour was standing on the floor when I went in. Hayford came out and the flour was gone; he asked me who was there when I came in, and I told him I was there to get on my horse and follow Mackey and see if he had the flour; and he rode very fast and overtook Mackey at the mill, going toward the mill; he had stopped and the sack of flour was on the ground beside him; his coat was off and thrown over the flour but the end of the sack was in sight. I rode close to him; he put his hands up to his sides and was blowing right and left; I inquired if he had a star with a rope on his back; he said no; I rode back toward Hayford's and told him Mackey had the flour and where it was; Hayford said he would go and get the flour, and asked me for my pony; he got on and rode down the road; he had been gone a good while before I heard the firing; he had been gone long enough to ride to the mill and back to the place where he was shot, before I heard the firing. When I saw Mackey at Hayford's he was on a soldier's coat; it was off when I found him with the flour. Didn't notice that at any time whether Mackey had any arms or weapons with him, saw him again after he was arrested, a short time after Hayford was killed; he then had a different coat. He asked what he was arrested for; he was told, for stealing flour; he asked who had the flour with the flour; he was then told he had shot Hayford, and he said he had nothing to shoot with. I know that he generally carried a revolver, when I saw him with the flour I didn't notice whether he had one or not. When Hayford started from the store, he said he would go and get the flour to go with him to get the flour; from the place where I saw Mackey with the flour to that where Hayford was shot, is about one hundred yards. I heard these shots distinctly.

Harry Lender, (colored) sworn - Saturday evening heard several shots fired. Was at home, lived near the mill close by Eli Mackey. About twenty minutes after the shots were fired Mackey came to my door; asked me if his wife was there; told him no. He seemed to be in a hurry. He had on a black soldier's coat; the shooting sounded as if it was south from my house, and about the place where Hayford was found; someone rode down to Mackey's and returned about fifteen minutes, before the shots were fired. Saw the coat which Mackey wore when he came to my house; at his house afterward. - Do not know whether he had any revolver then or not, he usually carries one, have seen him have one several times. I did not notice any flour on his coat. It was a navy revolver which Mackey usually carried. He also owns a gun, didn't see that at his house that night. When Mackey left my house he went to his house, and soon afterward heard him going back to town whistling. Mr. Jones found the sack of flour at the edge of the creek; looked as if thrown down the bank. Was found about twenty yards from Mackey's house. Saw Mackey have a revolver on Friday the day before Hayford was killed.

E. J. H. Myers, sworn - I live about 100 yards west of Eli Mackey's. Saturday night was at home sick abed; a man came to my house and inquired for me; I heard him and knew by his voice that it was Mr. Hayford; have known him several years. He left and my wife said he rode in a northerly direction, that is the way from my house to Mackey's. About five minutes after he left I heard four distinct shots. From the sound thought they were about 150 yards off and southwest from my house. After the firing heard someone walking past, whistling; he was going towards town.

Stephen Looney, (col.) sworn - After dark Saturday night I saw Eli Mackey at Smith's saloon. He asked me to play cards with him that night. He went out and I told him not to stay long. I waited a good bit and Mackey didn't come back and I went out and called him; he didn't answer. I then went over to Hayford's and learned that a sack of flour had been stolen. Didn't notice whether Hayford was there or not. Monroe Cullin told me he saw Mackey on the road towards home, and that Mackey heard me call, but wouldn't answer. Didn't see Mackey again until Mr. Jones had arrested him, and brought him up to town. When I saw Mackey at Smith's he had on a soldier's frock coat; he had a revolver on him then; it was a big navy revolver. When I saw him after he was arrested, I think he had on a different coat.

Daniel O'Neil, sworn - Saturday night I was at Kirby's and heard a shot fired, and soon after heard a man halloo; run out and another shot was fired before I got out. Immediately after heard another shot and saw the flash of a pistol down in the bottom toward the mill. Alex Harris, Vesly Blokey and myself run down the road. We found a man lying on his side; his face was turned downward; he was alive but could not speak. From the sound I know it was a pistol that was fired. Came to town to ring Mr. Jones, Deputy Marshal.

The coroner's jury returned to the justice their inquisition, stating that Dyer Hayford came to his death by gun-shot wounds received at the hands of Eli Mackey; they also found that Mackey had feloniously and wilfully fired the revolver at Mr. Hayford with intent to kill him.

Mackey will have his examination soon, before Justice Hargrave, and will no doubt be committed for trial at the next April term of the district court. Mackey is said to be a very dangerous man; he was reined in the Cherokee Nation, and is said to be part Cherokee. He is also accused of having assassinated two men in the Nation, before he came to Fort Scott.

and he was once before arrested here, for shooting at a man; but before his trial came off the prosecuting witness left for parts unknown, and Mac'ey was discharged without trial. Let him be tried for the offence with which he now stands charged, and if guilty he should expiate his crime on the gallows."

MR. HASTINGS: I desire to introduce an editorial from the Fort Scott Monitor of date February, 27, 1867, as follows:

"Eli Mackey, colored, accused of the murder of Dyer Hayford, confined in our jail, to await his trial at the next term of the District Court, for murder in the first degree, escaped last evening, and up to the time of going to press this morning, has not been heard of. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension."

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from the Fort Scott Monitor of Wednesday, March 27, 1867:

"A Chapter of Horrors."

Murderer of Hayford captured and hung;
Tragic events connected with the affair.

The history of our community for the past week is replete with horrors, such as will, for long days to come, overshadow the hearts of our citizens with gloom.

A few weeks ago, we published an account of the escape of Eli Mackey, the black fiend, who last winter murdered Dyer Hayford. Ever since that time the officers of justice have been on the alert with a view of his recapture, and on Wednesday, the 26th inst., Deputy Sheriff Wheaton, having learned that the murderer was concealed in his brother's house, about five miles northeast of this city, started, in company with his son, Charles T. Wheaton, Edward Coe - who were on police duty in this city - and Benj. Files, for the purpose of capturing him.

On arriving at the house, Messrs. Coe and Wheaton, Jr., approached and ordered the wretch to surrender. In return he fired several shots through the partially open door, and then ran out of the house into the open prairie. Coe, being nearest, received the first shot that was fired. He stepped to the corner of the house, sat down and expired in about fifteen minutes. Immediately after Charley Wheaton received a ball in the right side and fell to the ground. For some time he hope was entertained for his recovery; but at the present writing his condition is improved, and his friends entertain some hopes that he will live.

In the mean time a number of the neighbors had gone around and headed by Capt. Curtis Johnson, Mr. Files and Mr. Dickinson started in pursuit. The murderer, with a gun and revolver in his hands, ran fleetly across the prairie, firing at his pursuers as he ran, and dropping down to load as fast as his weapon became empty. Finally, when nearly dead from the wounds he received from his pursuers, he signified his readiness to surrender, but even after they approached him his bloodthirsty spirit was not satisfied, and he fired the two remaining shots in his revolver at the crowd. Fortunately, no one was injured, though Mr. Dickinson had part of his coat shot off. After the murderer was secured he was taken back to the house from which he had fled and hung by the neck until he was dead. Before his death he tried to implicate an innocent negro in the murder of Mr. Hayford, but having been caught in the falsehood, he confessed to having committed the deed himself. He also confessed to having killed five other men, and also to having shot at Major Hayford last winter. All reports indicate that he has always been a character with scarcely a parallel in the annals of history for desperation.

and bloodthirstiness. We are informed that at one time, in the Cherokee Nation, 25 men attempted to arrest him but failed on account of his desperation. The colored people, who knew him, were terrible afraid of him. History has seldom presented a character so utterly lost even to every sentiment of humanity.

As a general rule, we have always deprecated the taking of life except by due process of law, as dangerous to the peace and quiet of the community and to the best interests of society. We have always found that nothing but the most extreme necessity would justify it, but we believe in this instance that necessity existed; for every moment this desperado was allowed to live, endangered the lives of good citizens. We learn that the house he occupied was since burned to the ground. The sufferers from their attempt to arrest him, were among the best of our young men. As members of the police force of this city they have performed their duties faithfully. Generous and brave to a fault, the death of one and the danger to the other creates a spirit of sadness that cannot soon be eradicated.

The body of Mr. See was brought into the city, and on Friday after a funeral sermon by Mr. Lewis was escorted by a large procession, headed by the leaders of the Grand Army of the Republic, to the cemetery where it was interred.

Sequel.

On Thursday night a crowd of about fifty men, still laboring under the excitement growing out of the tragedy of Wednesday, entered the jail and having possessed themselves of the keys took Jackson Mackey and Harry Vann - on the brother who harbored the murderer and the other charged with furnishing provisions and aiding in his concealment, to the ravine near the poorhouse and hung them to a tree where their lifeless bodies were found next morning. So quietly was this done that few in the city except those who participated knew of it until the next morning.

Benjamin Files, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What's your name? A Benjamin Files.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q Were you living there at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living there in '82, December? A I have lived there ever since '82.

Q Did you know Dyer Hayford? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you known him before December '80? A Yes sir, I had known him in the neighborhood of two years before that and knew him up until that time.

Q Was he killed? A He was killed at Fort Scott.

Q Was he killed in the town? A He was killed just at the brink of the hill along in the south; yes, sir he was killed in the city just about the brink of the hill.

Q About what time of the day was he killed? A He was killed just after dark, just dark.

Q Do you know who killed him, who was said to have killed him, who was accused of killing him? A Yes, sir.

Q Who? A Eli Macoy.

Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir, he was.

Q Did you assist in his arrest? Yes, sir.

Q Who arrested him? Myself and a man we called Deacon Jones.

- Q That this other man here with you? A Yes, sir.
- Q About how long after this reported killing? A I heard two shots fired, then run down there and ran over him; I lit a match and this man drew his breath twice; from the time the shots fired I wouldn't it was more than twenty minutes.
- Q Twenty minutes? A Yes, sir.
- Q Had it become generally known at the time of the arrest? A No, sir.
- Q There was no time for the public to know? A Only a few people know; I heard the shots fired myself and run down there.
- Q And a few people know that the killing had taken place before he was arrested? A Yes, sir.
- Q And the excitement then, was that after that? A Yes, sir, they didn't have time to know it.
- Q Was he put in jail? A Yes, sir.
- Q You remember how long he remained in jail? A Till about the twentieth, sometime in February, 26th I think it was.
- Q Of February following, of 1892. A Yes, sir.
- Q Well did he make his escape? A He got away.
- Q He got away? A Yes, sir, he got past the turnkey, Ed Coe.
- Q Ed Coe was the turnkey, was he? A Yes, sir.
- Q I will ask you then if there was any searching parties out for this man? Yes, sir.
- Q For how long? I think he was killed on the 26th of March.
- Q From then about the 26th of February until the 26th of March people looked for him, a reward offered for him? Yes, sir, some three hundred dollars I believe.
- Q Well were there quite a number of people out searching for him? A Yes, sir.
- Q Considerable excitement at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did people go out in the country looking for him? A Yes, sir, and searched houses and searched barns, they looked around for him, but failed to find him.
- Q Up until that time? Yes, sir.
- Q You say that was for about three weeks? A Yes, sir, something over three weeks.
- Q From the 26th of February up until about the 26th of March? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know whether this Eli Hickey was reputed to be a Cherokee darger or not? A Yes, sir, he was.
- Q I believe there was a newspaper account to the effect that when he was captured he was hung up there? A He was killed, yes, sir.
- Q What I want to get particularly from you was whether there was any search made for him at the time he was killed or whether search was made for him after his escape, after the 26th of February? A There was no search made for Hickey until he broke jail.
- Q No houses searched, nor no wagons, nor no nothing when he was first captured? A He was in jail. I don't think it was much over a half an hour, I don't think it was any; houses in jail in not much over half an hour after he shot Hayford; I heard the shot that killed Hayford.
- Q And you helped to arrest him? Yes, sir, I got to Hayford before he died, but he was too far gone. I lit a match and he was too far gone to speak.
- Q You had known Hayford prior to that time? A Yes, sir, him and me was friends.
- Q You was a friend of his? A Yes, sir.

H. C. Jones, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A. H. C. Jones.

Q What is your postoffice? A. Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A. Kansas, yes, sir.

Q What is your age, please sir? A. 66.

Q Were you holding any office in the town of Fort Scott, Kansas, in December of '68? A. I was.

Q Well were you holding any office at the time a man by the name of Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey? A. I was.

Q What office was that? A. City marshal, called town constable.

Q You was a city policeman? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did you assist in his first arrest? A. I did.

Q Who assisted you in the arrest? A. Mr. Benjamin Files.

Q This man that's present here? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear the shots that killed Hayford? A. I did.

Q How soon after Hayford was killed was Mackey arrested, Eli Mackey?

A. 20 or 25 minutes, inside of a half hour at most.

Q Very short time? A. Yes, sir.

Q Had any houses or wagons or anything of that kind been searched in the mean time? A. No, sir, there was no knowledge.

Q People didn't generally know it up to that time? A. No, sir.

Q Put in jail then? A. He was taken right to the jail as soon as he was arrested, he was hurried off to jail for fear of any mob violence.

Q Well how long did he remain in jail, do you remember? A. Why I think something like six weeks or more.

Q Well the Fort Scott Monitor puts it about February 26th? A. I presume that was right, it was correct. It was hard for me to remember exactly.

Q Well he remained in jail up to that time? A. Up till that time, he was not out of jail except while he was under guard.

Q He made his escape then? A. He made his escape, yes, sir, at the time.

Q You know how long he was at large? A. Well I put it something like three weeks.

Q I will ask you if there was any searches at that time made for him? A. You mean after?

Q When he got away after February 26th? A. Oh yes, sir, there was considerable hunt for him at that time.

Q Reward offered for him? A. Yes, sir, reward offered.

Q People searched around in the country for him? A. There was quite a number of both officials and independent searches, they would search for him for the first couple of weeks of his escape from there.

Q He was afterwards captured was he? A. Yes, sir, he was located afterwards, he hadn't been out of a radius of probably ten miles from there after he got away, he was captured.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee colored man? A. He was called a Cherokee refugee, yes, sir, had the reputation, that is his name, of being a Cherokee nigger.

COMMISSIONER: You are positive about these dates? A. To the best of my knowledge now, I would have put it, that is, a week before the holidays, and I knew it was only a few days before Christmas when the killing was done.

Q '67? A. In '66 the killing was done.

Q Few days before Christmas of '66? A. Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that all the testimony introduced in the case of Aaron Webber, D-216, with reference to the return of the Webber detachment, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR. BROWN: Come now the Agent for the applicant and moves the Commission to derive from the records of this case all the testimony taken on this day, for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence, it being purely hearsay.

COMMISSION: The request of the representative of the Cherokee Nation will be complied with, and the testimony filed.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases, No. D-394, D-395, D-396, D-401, D-402, D-404, D-407, D-775; and in D-391, the same being the case at bar.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-828.

Cherokee Nation represented by W. W. Hastings.

COMMISSION: The Cherokee Nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on the applicant's agent, J. R. Sequichie, Chelsea, I. T., that it would on the 20th day of May, 1902, at the office of the Commission, introduce testimony tending to disprove the right of Joe Manley and others to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen. The agent for the applicant and the applicant have this day been called and fail to appear.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871 as taken from the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation, and from a book entitled "Pocket of doubtful cases for Cherokee citizenship tried in 1871," from the colored doubtful roll Tahlequah District, the following:

"No. 52. Alonse Gullin and wife Eliza claiming rights by marriage.

Judgment against claimant June 20, 1871." - and the following judgment from the same page:

"No. 45. Gullin Manley, too late.

Decided against claimant June 15, 1871."

The Cherokee Nation also asks that the testimony of Lydia Barton taken in the case of Elizabeth Meigs, No. D-381, be filed with and made a part of the record in this case.

COMMISSION: The request of the Cherokee Nation will be complied with and the testimony made a part of the record in the case at bar.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Joseph Wanley, et al'

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

Service of the above motion accepted and a copy of the same received by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, at Vinita, I. T., this day of , 1905.

 Q. You saw her at that time? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Where did Sanders live when she belonged to? A. They lived alone to Flint at that time, I reckon it is.
 Commissioner Needles: In Flint District you mean, do you?
 A. Yes, sir, I thought it was Flint.
 L. B. Bell: Were you ever at the house? A. Yes sir, I have been at the house; that is not right at their house, I met them at a church.

Q Name someone in that neighborhood? A I wasn't acquainted there.

Q You seemed to be, you know this woman pretty well? A They were raised with me. Sanders' aint the first people that raised them.

Q They were raised on a place with you? A Not here, but older people.

Q I am asking you what you know about her? A I told you what I know about her.

Q You don't know where she did live, only that she lived in the nation? A That is all, I never was at her house.

Q You never seen her until you met her in '66? A Yes sir, I saw her before.

Q Where did you see her before? A On Peavine Creek near the Whitmire place.

Q That was a creek, down in Goingsnake district, wasn't it?
A I don't know where it was.

Q What did you understand by Peavine? A That is what they called it, the creek, Peavine.

Q Was you ever down on Peavine? A Yes sir.

Q When? A Before the war, I come from there.

Commissioner Needles: You say Sanders' lived in Flint District?
A I don't know exactly; it was down in that way.

Q You are not positive whether it was Flint District or not?
A No sir.

Commissioner or Applicant: You know that these three children, Gertie Tinnon, Lunnie Tinnon, and Thomas Ross are alive now are they?
A Yes sir, I brought the little girl with me.

Q Where is your boy? A He is in jail.

Q Who is Lunnie living with? A He is living with Johnson Vann.

Katie Blackwell applies for the enrollment of herself, her sister's children, Gertie Tinnon and Lunnie Tinnon, and her child, Thomas Ross. She avers that she was a slave of the Sanders family, Mary and Tom Sanders. She avers that she was taken out of the Cherokee Nation into the Choctaw Nation, and returned in '66. Her name is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, nor the census roll of 1890. Her name is found upon the Kerns Clinton Roll, and the name of the three children, Gertie Tinnon, Lunnie Tinnon and Thomas Ross, are found upon the Kerns Clinton Roll. She avers that she has been married three times; first, to Thompson; second, to one Blunt or Coody, and thirdly, to her present husband, John Blackwell. She is duly identified according to page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, and makes satisfactory proof as to residence. By reason of the fact that her name is not found upon the authenticated roll, and of the protest of the Cherokee Nation, she and the children as enumerated herein will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card awaiting further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at a decision in her case, she will be notified of the same by mail.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Nancy What? A Nancy Thompson is what they always called her.

Q Did she have a sister by the name of Katie, who is now called Katie Blackwell, her mother? Yes, sir.

Q Did this applicant's mother have a sister called Mary Riley, who applied for enrollment a while ago? A Yes, sir.

Q You testified as a witness in the case of Katie Blackwell, who was an applicant for enrollment, did you? A Yes, sir.

Q You mentioned in your testimony in the Blackwell case of seeing — Mr. Hastings; I object to that.

Q Did you see this applicant's mother, Nancy, after the war, in the Cherokee Nation? A Did I see her?

Q Did you see her in the Cherokee Nation after the war?

A Yes, sir, I seen her.

Q Where did you first see her after the war in the Cherokee Nation?

A The first time I seed her I saw her over here on Panther Creek.

Q Well, where did you first see her mother, Martha Thompson, after the war? A She was there too.

Q Where were they during the war? A They were down south in the Choctaw Nation.

Q Well, do you know when they came back to the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir, they came back in '66, they all come back together.

Q They came back together? A Martha brought all the children back together, brought all the children up.

Q Where did you see them? A I seed them again at Tahlequah.

Q Where did you first see them? A When I first seed them I seen them at Tahlequah; there is where I first seen them when they first come back.

Q Was this applicant's mother, Nancy, with them at that time?

A Yes, sir, she was with them.

Q Do you know whether her mother, Martha Thompson, was a slave or not before the war? A That is what she told me, told me she was a slave.

Mr. Hastings: Now I want you to tell me everybody that was in that little house in Tahlequah that you saw in 1866? A I can't tell you everybody in there, I just saw the family in there is all I can tell you anything about.

Q You testified they stayed there some two or three months and went off? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q Didn't you say they went back south? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did they stay there at Tahlequah? A I can't tell you how long they stayed there.

Q How long did you see them there? A Why I was back to Tahlequah and I seen them there once or twice while I was there.

Q For about how long? A I don't know just exactly how long it was.

Q About how many months? A Why I can't tell you whether it was a month or two months or three weeks, I seen them and knew them and didn't keep no count of the time.

Q They were living in a little house in the town in the year of '66? A Yes, sir.

Q And you know it was '66? A Yes, sir.

Mattie McHair - 4.

- Q Do you know what year the Wallace Court sat? A No, sir.
Q Don't know that year? A Don't know just what year that was, no.

A 1886.
Q They did? A I was told what time it was.
Q Do you know one year from another? A No, sir.
Q Yet you know a year that was 35 years ago, don't you, with distinctness and definiteness? A I know it was a good while ago.
Q You never saw this woman before you saw her down in the Cherokee Nation, did you? A No, sir, I never saw them before.
Q Did you see this particular girl at Tahlequah? A This girl, no, sir.
Q You didn't see her? A No, sir.
Q Well you don't know how many you did see, you said?
A I knew she wasn't there.
Q Why do you know it? A Because that woman wasn't married then.
Q She didn't have any children then at home? A No, sir, didn't have none then.
Q Isn't Mary Riley a half sister of this girl? A Not of this girl.
Q What kin is she to her? A She is this girl's aunt.
Q You said Mary Riley was eight or ten years of age at that time?
A No, sir, I didn't.
Q Didn't you testify you thought she was then older? A No, sir.
Q You never made any estimate? A No, sir, I said seven or eight.
Q Do you know where this girl was born? A No, sir.
Q Well you testified that her mother went back to the Cherokee Nation, didn't you? A Yes, sir.
Q About when did she go back? A Why I don't know just exactly when they did go back.
Q Do you know whether it was in '86 or not? A Well, I guess it was because they didn't stay up there but a short while, I guess it was.
Q How long after that till you saw her again, her mother?
A After they came back.
Q Yes? A I guess it was somewhere between three and six years, I don't know just exactly how much it was.
Q Which is the most, three or six? A Three I believe.
Q Mr. McHarris: Would you rather have three dollars than six dollars? A I believe I would take six.

Commissioner? Mattie McHair applies for the enrollment of herself and her child, James Benjamin. She cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1886. She is identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll as Mattie Hallstock, that having been her father's name, and her child, James Benjamin, is identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. She avers that she is now married to one Willie McHair, and that she is the daughter of Nancy Vann, sometimes known as Nancy Morgan. Her attorney prays that the testimony taken in the case of the application of Katie Blackwell, who is listed for enrollment on D card 327, be made part of the record in the case at bar, and a copy of said testimony will be filed herewith. Now again the attorney for the Cherokee Nation, and prays that the testimony taken in the application of Mary Riley, who is listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on D card 324, also be made part of the record, which will be done, and a copy of said testimony will be filed herewith. They are duly identified, and make satisfactory proof of relationship, consequently Mattie McHair and her child, James Benjamin, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card, awaiting further consideration by the Commission. She will be satisfied by each of the action of

NOTICE!

IN THE MATTER OF The application of Mattie McNair for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Case No. F. D. 629

To Mattie McNair or Mellette & Smith, Her Attys.

You are hereby notified that the Cherokee Nation will present before the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman, at the office of the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the town of Fort Gibson, I. T. Indian Territory, on the following dates, to-wit: Sept. 21st at 8 o'clock A. M. A. D. 1901, during the usual business hours of said Commission on the respective days above named, for the taking of testimony both for and against applicants for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

In testimony whereof, the undersigned representatives of the Cherokee Nation have hereunto set our hands this 12th day of Sept., 1901.

L. B. Bell
W. W. Hastings
J. S. Davenport
Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

File with Cherokee Freedman, D-329, Mattie McNair.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, I.T., September 21, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Katie Blackwell et al.
for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appetruances:

Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

HENRY BEAN, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A Henry Bean.

Q What is your age? A About 50, somewhere along about 50.

Q Where were you born? A Born in Missouri, I reckon, I came from Missouri, I don't know exactly where I was born.

Q Where did you go during the war? A Went to Texas.

Q Were you in Texas at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you for the first two or three years after the war?

A I was there on the frontier and around about in Texas and there.

Q Well, about how long after the war was it before you left Texas?

A Well I reckon it was somewhere along four or five years, about five years I reckon, somewhere along there, I never kept no count of the time, I just suppose about that time.

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes, sir, might have been longer.

Q Where did you go to when you first left the State of Texas? A
When I first left there I went to the Choctaw Nation and then I went to the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Do you know Katie Blackwell, or Katie Coody? A Well, I don't know them by that name.

Q Well, did you know Katie Thompson? A Yes, sir, I know Katie
Thompson.

Q Did she have a sister? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her sister's name? A She had one named Dicey.

Q Did you know Katie's mother? A Yes, sir.

Q And what was her name? A Her name was Martha.

Q Did Martha have any other children besides Katie and Dicey?

A Yes, sir.

Q What was their names? A One boy by the name of Charley Blagburne.

Q You testified in his case the other day? A Yes, sir; and had a girl by the name of Tempie.

Q Well, was this Katie married when you first knew her? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her husband's name then? A Albert Thompson.

Q What was Albert Thompson, was he a freedman? A Yes, sir, Choctaw Freedman.

Q Did you ever know of her having anybody else as her husband since that time? A No, sir, to say know it, I don't know it.

Q Did you ever know of her going by any other name since that time? A Yes, sir, they had another name but then I don't remember it, I don't know who her husband was, I know she was married up here about Lightning Creek here somewhere but I forgot her husband's name.

Q Who was Dicey married to, or was she married at all when you knew her first? A Yes, sir, she was married.

Q What was her husband's name? A Morris Borrell.

Q Did she have any children when you knew her first? A Yes, sir,
I think she had children, I am a little short of remembrance about that, about how many children she had, whether she had one or two, I know she had one but I don't know whether she had those two when I first knew her or not, I have forgot.

Q Now when did you know Katie and Dicey and her mother first?

A Well, we were on a little creek they called Sandy.

Q In what Nation or State? A In the Choctaw Nation, near Cherokee Town, about eight miles below Cherokee Town on the Washita River, close to the Washita River, between Cherokee Town and old Fort Arbuckle, it was about the same distance I reckon from that.

Q About the same distance from Cherokee Town and Fort Arbuckle?

A Yes, sir, just about the same distance between them, it wasn't just on the Arbuckle road.

Q When was it you knew them first, how long had you been over there? A Well sir, I can't tell you, I had been there though, I think though about four years, but just the time I can't tell you the day or the time.

Q Well where, about four years? A It was in the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Well when did you leave the Chickasaw Nation? A I left the Chickasaw Nation in about '74 I guess.

Q Where did you go to? A Came to Tahlequah.

Q Who came with you to Tahlequah? A These people.

Q Just go ahead. I want you to specify them? A Martha Thompson, that was Sid's wife, and Charley Blagburne.

Q Who was Charley, what relation was he to Martha? A Charley Blagburne was Martha's son.

Q Give all of Martha's children that was along that you can remember? A Well, there was Katie Thompson and Dicey Sorrell and Tempie Thomas and Nan Hallstock, and Mary Ann, that was her youngest child.

Q Was Tempie married? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was she married to? A Charley Thomas.

Q Well, where was Charley and his wife living when you first knew her? A They were living there on that Sandy road about half a mile or three quarters from the old lady, from her mother.

Q Did Tempie come up with you? A Yes, sir, I brought her in my wagon, she is the one I hauled up here.

Q How many wagons did you have along in that crowd? A Three.

Q Now all these people you have mentioned you brought up, did you?

A I brought up Dicey and Tempie in my wagon.

Q Well, these others that you mention came along in the same crowd?

A Yes, sir, they were all the same.

Q Through what district did you come? A Well now I can't tell you.

Q I mean up in this country, I don't mean below? A Well we came through Fort Gibson.

Q How long did you stop here? A I didn't stop here but a few minutes, just stopped there in town and drove on through.

Q Did they say anything about having been here before? A No, sir, never said anything to me about it.

Q Made no mention about it? A No, sir.

Q You went on to Tahlequah? A Yes, sir, I went on out to Mr. Dennis' out here and left the Sorrell family, it was on the Four Mile Branch to Mr. Dennis'.

Q Was Katie married when you first knew her? A Yes, sir.

Q Was Dicey? A Yes, sir.

Q Were they keeping house down there or not; what were they doing?

A Well, when I first knew them they were not keeping house, they were in the house with the old lady, but they did keep house shortly after that.

Q What were they doing for a living down there? A Well, Sorrell was a barbering around and sometimes he would farm around a little.

Q What was Thompson, Katie's husband? A Well, he was just working around for wages, and making a little patch.

Q What was Martha's husband, Sidney? A He was farming, had a little place of his own there.

Q Was Temple married when you first knew her? A Yes, sir.

Q Did any of these people marry after you became acquainted with them down there? A Charley Blagburne I think married down there.

Q Do you remember how many children Lettie had when she came up with you? A Let's see, I will have to count them up a little and see if I know, there was Jess and Henry and a girl they called, her nick name was Bude, I forget what her right name was, but they called her Bude, and a little boy named Dan, I believe that is all she had.

Q Well, do you remember whether Dickey had any children when she came up? A She had one or two, I know she had children, I think two children but it kinder seems to me like one of the children was born here, but I won't be certain about it.

Q Well did Temple Thomas have any children? A Yes, sir, she had two children.

Q I mean when you came up here? A Yes, sir, I think she had two when we came up here, a girl died, the one she brought here.

Q Do you remember their names? A The boy, Will was his name.

Q Did you mention one of them by the name of Nanoy a while ago, one of Martha's children? A Yes, sir, Nan.

Q Was she married? A Yes, sir, Hallstock.

Q Did she come with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did she have any children? A Yes, sir.

Q What was their names, do you remember? A I think one of them was named Mat, I have mighty nigh forgot them children's names, Mat and Martha, seems like one was named Martha, I think Martha is dead though, there isn't but one of the girls living that she brought here.

Q Why do you fix the date of '74 as the date of your coming out with these people? A Well, the reason why that, I was taking the figures in this way, when we come it was the year, we came the fall before the first ten dollars, that bread money was paid out, and that was paid out in '75 that was.

Q And you came the fall before that payment? A And we came the fall before that payment and that is why I have give it about in '74, about the time them additions was put in at the seminary.

Q How far did these people live apart in the Choctaw Nation?

A The families?

Q Yes? A Well they lived, Temple lived about between half a mile and three quarters from their mother.

Q Was they all in the same neighborhood? A Yes, sir, all right in the same neighborhood.

Q Did you know Jim Ross down there? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he there when you first went over? A I don't know sir whether he was or not.

Q What other people lived around in that neighborhood, any Chickasaws or freedmen, people living there? A Yes, sir, Zach Gardinet and old lady Howell, I don't know her name, and she had a son by the name of John Howell, and then she had a son was a doctor, they all called him Doctor Howell, I don't know what his name was only Doctor Howell, and they was about the closest around; the others was Chickasaws, had Chickasaw names, Nelson Chigley and several others; there was another man lives right close there but I don't remember his name, I was well acquainted with him too but I have forgot him.

Q Now about how long did you say you knew these people there before you moved out with them? A About four years.

Mr. Mellette: How old are you? A About 30 I guess.

Q Are you a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, I am not.

Q You claim to be? A No, sir.

Q Where does this woman live now you have been talking about?

A I don't know.

Q Is she Blackwell? A I don't know, sir, she lives somewhere out on the --

Q How long since you have seen her? A I haven't seen her for about eight or ten years I reckon.

Q How long has it been since you came here with her, how many years? A Why I don't know just how many years, that is something I don't keep the date, I came here in about '74.

Q Well now you figure it out how many years you have been here, you say it was '74 when you came here, how many years has it been?

A I can't tell you, without I sit down and it takes me I don't know how long to count it.

Q How do you know it was '74 you came here? A Reason I know it, I am going by the time that that money was paid out, I came the fall before that ten dollars was paid out.

Q How do you know that money was paid out in '74? A Well I am giving the time.

Q How do you know that money was paid out in '74? A Well I don't know it.

Q What year did you go to Texas in? A I don't know that.

Q Where do you live? A I live at Tahlequah.

Q How long have you lived there? A Lived there about something over 26 years or maybe longer, I have lived there ever since I came to the country.

Q Why can't you tell what year you went to Texas? A Why I was a boy, a little fellow, I don't know anything about it, I was carried there by my owners.

Q What year did you go into the Chickasaw Nation from Texas?

A I don't know, sir.

Q Can't you give an idea? A No, sir, I can't.

Q How is it then that you remember the year you came to this country and don't remember anything else or any other year? A Well sir, I don't know, I don't remember that only by the time, I got the count of the time that I came here, what was done, and figured it up from that time.

Q Now look here, you don't know anything about the payment in 1875, you don't remember that any payment took place in '75 do you? A Yes sir I do.

Q Do you remember the year? A I remember the payment.

Q Do you remember it was in '75? A Well I am just going by the time, according to the time I got here.

Q How do you know that any payment took place in 1875 here? A Well they paid ten dollars here.

Q How do you know it was '75? A It was the spring after I came here in the fall.

Q Well what year did you come here? A Well we must have come here in '74.

Q Why? A Because the money was paid out the next spring.

Q Well what year was that money paid out? A In '75.

Q How do you know? A Just because I know when I came here.

Q How do you know that that money was paid out in '75; answer that question; now answer it straight? A Simply because I was here when it was paid out.

Q Will you answer my question; how do you know it was 1875? A Well sir, I will tell you as near as I can come at it, the time that they put up that seminary out there, I am going according to the time that there is people that figured up the time.

Q Who figured up the time for you? A Well I don't know as anybody has figured it up for me, only I am going by the year what the people counted that this seminary was put up, in 1875, just the people at large; now that is the way I get at it.

Q You are testifying from what the people at large said about the date? A Yes, sir, that is the way it is.

Q Well, do you know that the woman you have been talking about here, Katie, is the woman who has applied here for citizenship? A If

It is Katie Thompson it is.

Q If it is Katie Thompson it is? A Yes, sir, the mother of Henry and Jessie and these other children.

Q Who else was she the mother of? A Dad and I believe that is all.

Q Now give the names of Katie's children, all you know? A Well Jessie and Henry and Wade and Dan. Dad was a wise man I think, I don't know, the child might have had some other name, but that is the mother of them children.

Q Do you know these two women here (indicating Lucinda Blackwell and Ann Williams)? A No, sir.

Q Ever see them? A If I did I don't know it.

Q Don't you know they were children of Katie Blackwell, the applicant here? A No, sir, I don't know it.

Q Did they come from Texas with you when you say you came here with this woman Katie? A I don't know whether they did or not.

Q Tell you ought to know it?

Mr. Hastings: You needn't argue the point.

Q I will ask you if they came with you from Texas, with Katie Blackwell, when you say you came with them? A I don't know whether they did or not.

Q Look at them? A Well it has been ten years since I have seen them.

Q You have seen the family of Katie Blackwell within ten years?

A I have seen her, I haven't seen her whole family, her children, more than Henry and Jessie, I have seen them.

Q How old is Henry? A I don't know, sir.

Q How old is Jessie? A I don't know how old he is.

Q Did Katie have a child by the name of James? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q James Ross? A Not as I know of.

Q You say that Katie Blackwell has a sister by the name of Dicey?

A Yes, sir.

Q What other name did she have besides Dicey? A Dicey Correll.

Q Did they ever call her Dicey Tinnon? A I don't know, she might have got that Tinnon name after she came here.

Q I ask you if she was ever called Dicey Tinnon? A I don't know.

Q You never knew of her being called Dicey Tinnon? A They might have, that might have been her name.

Q Did you ever know of her being called Dicey Tinnon? A Yes, sir.

Q What do you mean by testifying that way? Didn't you say just now that she might have been called that, that she might have married some man by the name of Tinnon? A Yes, sir, I said that.

Q And now you swear you don't know she was called Dicey Tinnon?

A Why I do.

Q When was she called Dicey Tinnon? A I have heard of her being called Dicey Tinnon the last time I was up on Big Creek, that Dicey Tinnon was it.

Q Why didn't you tell Mr. Hastings she was called Dicey Tinnon?

A I didn't know her by that name at that time.

Q You don't know now whether she was ever called Dicey Tinnon?

A I have heard she was.

Q Who told you? A Charley Blackburn, that is her brother.

Q Charley Blackburn? A Yes, sir.

Q You are giving the name right are you? A That is right as far as I know it.

Q You know this woman by the name of Katie Blackwell? A No, sir, I know her by the name of Katie Thompson.

Q You don't know how long these people you are talking about had lived down there in the unknown nation? A No, sir, I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know whether they had been in the Cherokee nation before that time or not? A No, sir, I don't know anything about that.

whether they had or not, I just got acquainted with them right there.

Commission: This testimony will be made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful cases; D-327, Katie Blackwell; D-333, Lucinda Blackwell; D-334, Ann Williams; D-343, Vinita Martin; D-438, Mattie Madden, D-629, Mattie McNair; D-754, Jesse Roach; D-756, Daniel Thompson; D-757, Henry Chambers.

HENRY BEAN, recalled by attorney for applicants, testified further as follows:

Mr. Mallette: You say the woman, Katie Thompson, that you are talking about, had a sister named Laura? A No, sir.

Q Well, did she have a daughter by the name of Laura? A No, sir.

Q Didn't you say a while ago that she had a daughter or a sister by the name of Laura? A No, sir.

Q You are certain you didn't say that? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, where did you see this woman, Katie Thompson, ten years ago, you say you saw her then? A I saw her up on Lightning Creek.

Q What were you doing up on Lightning Creek? A I went up there to a celebration.

Q Were you at her house? A No, sir.

Q Where did you see her? A I seen her there at the celebration.

Q Where was that celebration? A On Lightning Creek.

Q What place on Lightning Creek? Lightning Creek is pretty long?

A It was there in the settlement, if I can think of the man's name, along there about Hayden, Uncle Mose Whimires, somewhere along in there.

Q How long did you stay up there? A I didn't stay up there but a few days.

Q That the only time you have been up in that country? A No, I have been up there several times. I said about ten years ago, I was guessing at the time, it might have been a little shorter time or might have been longer.

Q Did Hayden live there at that time? A Yes, sir, he lived out there.

Q What kind of a celebration was that? A The 4th of August.

Q Was it on Lightning Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from Hayden's store? A I don't know just how far it was, I don't know whether he had a store there at that time.

Q Did he or did he not have a store there? A I don't know, sir, I can't tell you.

Q Did he live there? A He lived there.

Q How far was that from his house? A I don't know sir, I don't know where his house is, I was never at his house.

Q Did you see his house? A I never saw his house.

Q Where did you stay when you went up there? A I stayed at Looney Glass and at Eliza Wright's.

Q Where does Looney Glass live? A Lived there right there on Lightning Creek, not far from the celebration ground.

Q Was there any building there where they had the celebration?

A No, it was there just in the open woods.

Q No school house? A The school house was a little piece from there, I never went around to it.

Q No church house? A School house or church house, or something of some kind I can't far from there, I didn't pay any attention to such things as that.

Q That the only time you were up there? A No, sir, been right over the celebration ground, but I couldn't locate the ground by go ing over them.

Q How long did you see this woman at that time? A I just seen her that day.

Q Speak to her? A Yes, sir.

Q Talk to her? A Didn't have very much talk, I just passed and spoke.

Q Just spoke to her as you passed? A I stopped and spoke to her and talked a little but didn't have very much talk, just passed on.

Q You will swear that was the woman you came from Texas with?

A Yes, sir, from Chickasaw Nation.

Q Can't be mistaken about that? A No, sir, can't be mistaken about that.

FRANK PACK, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A Frank Pack.

Q What is your age? A 40.

Q You know Henry Bean, the witness that just left the stand?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Been knowing him ever since '74 or '75, somewhere along there.

Q Where did you get acquainted with him? A Got acquainted with him at Tahlequah.

Q You know when he came to Tahlequah? A It was along about '75 or '74 when I first seen him, that is my recollection.

Q You know when that first payment was made? A I think it was in '75 if I mistake not, somewhere along about there.

Q Do you know Lattie Thompson and Nancy Corrells? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when they came to Tahlequah? A They came there about the same time Henry Bean did, I seen them all just about the same time; they lived in about three miles and a half of where I lived, and stayed there a while and along in about '75 my mother died and we moved off and rented the place to some of them, they moved over on our place across the river and made a crop there one year.

Q How far is that from Tahlequah? A That is about six miles east.

Mr. Hollitt: Now you say you first saw this man Henry Bean in '7

Q '74 or '75, along in there somewhere.

Q How can you remember it was that year? A Because my mother died in '75 and I had seen them a while before she died, I got acquainted with them.

Q How long before your mother died? A I can't say how long.

Q One or two years? A It wasn't that long, I can't think it was hardly a year.

Q What reason had you for remembering when Henry Bean came to this country? A Because I told you my mother died along about '75, and I seen them a little before she died.

Q That didn't have any connection with her death did it? A He was always around where we were, we were neighbors.

Q Why does the death of your mother make you remember when you first saw Henry Bean? A Because they were not very many strange people moved in there then and they moved in close to where we lived and that makes me remember them.

Q Do you remember any other colored men that came in that country about that time? A I expect I would if they would mention some of them.

Q Why do you fix your memory on Henry Bean? A Because he was a stranger and came right in close neighbors to us.

Q Was he any kin to you? A None at all.

Q You were 15 years old at that time? A Yes, I was somewhere around that.

- Q And you can remember it was '74 or '75? A Yes, sir.
- Q When was your recollection first brought to bear upon the question as to when Henry Bean came into your country? A It always has been that way.
- Q Do you know John Ross? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you first see him? A I can't tell exactly, he was quite small when I first seen him.
- Q Where did you first see him? A At Tahlequah.
- Q When? A Along, I can't say exactly, he was a small boy.
- Q Give us an idea when you first saw him? A Well I can't really say, it was way after I seen Henry, I know that, and John was quite a boy.
- Q Now Pack, Henry Bean came to that country when you were about 15 years old and you have remembered from that time on the year that he came there? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are you employed by the Cherokee Nation now? A Yes, sir.
- Q In what capacity? A I am just working with them, working for them, anything they want me to do around about the office I am right there working.
- Q You are connected with the Cherokee officers who have charge of this enrollment, are you not? A I am working for them.
- Q You are kept here as a witness are you, too? A Not particular I don't guess.
- Q Then what do you do for the Cherokee Nation? A Anything they want me to do, clean up the room, bring water, go and get the mail, anything they ask me I go and do it.
- Q And you are willing to swear positively that Henry Bean came about Tahlequah in '75 or '75? A Yes, sir.
- Q You knew that you saw him when he first came? A Yes, sir, I am positive. I know what I am talking about.

L. B. BELL, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

- Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A L. B. Bell.
- Q How old are you? A 32.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.
- Q Mr. Bell, what was the date, if you know, of that first payment, that was made some eight or ten or twelve years after the war? A Well it was what we call the bread money, the first payment we had, was in '75; some of them calls it the $10.60 payment, and the ten dollar payment.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission in the Five Civilized Tribes,
Savage, T. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of HARRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Applicant appears by Marshall Hayden, Cherokee Nation, by W. T. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209 filed in the Marshall Hayden case F.D. 492, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Marshall Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Marshall Hayden, F.D. 492.

By W. T. Hastings:

Come now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be ascertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Marshall Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases where made with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary suspension recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, at the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Marshall Hayden case and counsel for the applicant be allowed to submit further evidence in any of the proof of any or all of the cases above named already referred to.

in the case of Moses Whitmore, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims at the request of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

V. W. Hastings

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

- Q Were you ever married to him? A No sir.
- Q How old is James Landrum? A 17.
- Q Is he living in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Where? A Vinita.
- Q Did you make application to the Dawes Commission in 1901 for enrollment of yourself as a Cherokee freedman? A Yes sir.
- Q Under what name? A Mattie McHair.
- Q Did you apply for James Landrum at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q What, if anything, if you have been informed, has been the decision of the Commission on that application? A I was denied.
- Q Have you got the decision of the Commission with you? A No sir.

Mr. Bransen: The applicant now desires to offer in evidence in Cherokee D-2344, a certified copy of the entire record of Cherokee Freedman D-629, including especially the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, on June 8, 1901, of the principal applicant in this case, and special attention of the Commission is called to page 2 of the testimony taken on that day in which the Commission says that the 1880 authenticated Cherokee freedman roll having been examined and applicant not identified thereon. Applicant further requests the Commission to examine the 1880 Cherokee authenticated tribal roll and if the name of Martha Hallstock appears thereon in Tahlequah District, that her name as members on said roll with the other members of the Hallstock family that are given there be inserted in this record.

Mr. Hastings: I desire to object to this request at this time until the examination of this witness is completed.

BY MR. BRANSON:

- Q Where did you and your mother move from when you left Tahlequah District? A I went to Vinita, my mother was still at Tahlequah.
- Q Do you know how long after your first recollection of your living at Parkhill, your mother with her children continue to live in Tahlequah District? A Mother stayed at Tahlequah. She moved away from Tahlequah and moved on Salt Creek up in Coowascoowee District.
- Q When was that? A That was when we were small, I don't know how long it has been, I remember we went in wagons and had oxen to drive.
- Q Did you ever hear of any family in Tahlequah District by the name of Hallstock except your family? A No sir, only I have a half brother on my father's side, Charles Hallstock.
- Q They were the members of your family? A Yes sir.
- Q If your mother's name appears on the 1880 roll as Ann Hallstock, is that a mistake?

Mr. Hastings: I submit that that question ought not to be asked because it is clearly leading and instructive to the witness.

- Q If your mother was living at the present time, is your mother living or dead? A She is dead.
- Q How long has she been dead? A About 4 or 5 years.

- Q About how old were you when your mother married Johnson Vann, that was your next husband after your father's death? A My fat her aint dead as I know of.
- Q After their separation? A I don't know, I must have been along about 20 some odd, I don't know just how old I was.
- Q About how long ago was it she married Johnson Vann? A I couldn't tell you, I left from here and went up to Vinita and mama was still here, she come back here after we went to Salt Creek, come back to Tahlequah.
- Q About how old were you when you went to Salt Creek? A I was small, I can't remember how old I was.
- Q Were you as much as 4 or 5 years old? A I guess I was older than that.
- Q What is your best judgment as to how old you were when you went to Salt Creek? A I couldn't have been not more than 10 or 11, I don't think.

Q Where was Jennie born? A Tahlequah.
 Q Where was Wacey born? A Tahlequah.
 Q Which is the older, Jennie or Wacey? A Jennie.
 Q About how old was Wacey when you left Tahlequah and went to Salt Creek? A She was awful small, a baby.
 Q In her mother's arms? A Yes sir, I can't remember whether she was walking or not, I know she was very small.
 Q With whom did your mother live down there when you went to Salt Creek or just before? A We lived with Aunt Rose Ross.
 Q Is she living? A I don't think she is.
 Q Is any of her family living? A I don't know, she was just an old widew woman.
 Q Did she have any children? A No sir, I don't think she did.
 Q On whose place did she live? A On her own.
 Q Did she have some neighbors? A Yes sir.
 Q Close to whom did you live? A I don't know, I just couldn't tell you I was small.
 Q You don't know anybody that lived close to you? A All I can remember there was some Indians living close around there.
 Q Do you remember any of their names? A No sir, I can't, it seems to me they had children, but I just couldn't remember anything more about it.
 Q Have you got any witnesses that you can prove that you lived about Parkhill? A Yes sir, I guess I can get some, my track is here, I didn't know I had to have any witnesses.
 Q Your mother wasn't living with your father when you can remember? A I do remember or but it has been so long, I don't know how big I was, I can remember my father but not much about when they were living together, but I remember his name that.
 Q What name did you go by when small? A Martha Ballstock.
 Q Always went by the name of Ballstock? A Yes sir, until I was married.
 Q Where are you living now? A Vinita.
 Q How long have you been living there? A Four years.
 Q Where did you go from there? A Big Creek.
 Q How long have you lived on Big Creek? A I don't know, I guess about 3 years. I left Vinita and went to Big Creek.
 Q Where did you live before you went to Vinita the first time? A Lived here at Tahlequah, I lived on Panther Creek when I went to Vinita the first time.
 Q How old were you when you went to Vinita the first time? A Along about 12 or 13 years old.
 Q How long had you lived on Panther Creek before you went to Vinita? A I don't know, we moved from Salt Creek to Panther Creek.
 Q About how long did you live on Panther Creek, the best of your judgement? A I don't remember, we moved from Salt Creek to Panther Creek and came to Vinita.
 Q About how long did you live on Panther Creek, two or three or four years? A Yes, I guess longer than that.
 Q Your best judgement about it? A Two or three years I guess.
 Q How long had you lived on Salt Creek when you went to Panther Creek? A I don't know, I was small when we went to Salt Creek. I couldn't tell you because I don't know that much about the years, didn't know anything.

- Q In what year were you married? A I don't know, I know I married at Vinita and Uncle Fred Martin married me.
- Q How long ago? A It has been a long time.
- Q About how long? A It seems to me it has been about 13 or 14 years I guess.
- Q How how old is your son Jim? A He is 17
- Q Is now? A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he born? A He was born on Panther Creek.
- Q Had you ever lived in Vinita before Jim was born? A Yes sir.
- Q How long had you lived in Vinita when Jim was born? A A year or two I guess.
- Q How long had you lived on Panther Creek before that? A I don't know, we come from Salt Creek to Panther Creek.
- Q Well I want to know how long you lived on these two creek before you went to Vinita? A I don't know how long before I went to Vinita, we had moved from Salt Creek to Panther Creek, but I don't know what year it was or how long it was.
- Q You don't know where you were living in 1865? A No sir, I was living around there somewhere.
- Q You don't know where you were living in 1875? A No sir, but I have been here in the nation all my life around up there some where.
- Q You don't know where you were living any particular year? A No sir because I don't know nothing about particular years, just that we just lived down in the country, when we moved from Salt Creek we moved to Panther Creek.
- Q You don't pretend to say you know all the Cherokees in Tahlequah District? A No sir.
- Q You don't know hardly any of them do you? A I know a few, I know more colored folks. When we left Parkhill we moved in town.
- ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:
- Q You drew Cherokee strip money in 1896, Kern-Clifton money? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you draw any money from the Cherokee nation at any other time? A I got the Wallace money.
- Q Did you draw any other money besides that? A Then I drew another little payment right after I drew the strip money, what was that, I forget, we drew $55.00.
- Q You never drew any other money besides at the time of the freedman payment in 1897 and at the Wallace payment? A I drew the Wallace money at the Wallace payment and I drew it while I was on Big Creek.
- Q Did any one else draw any money for you that you know of? A No sir, not as I know of.
- Q Were you ever known by any other name besides Martha Hallstock? A Not no other maiden name.
- Q When you were a child what did they call you? A They called me Martha or Mat.
- Q And after you grew up what did they call you? A Martha and yet, some folks called me Martha and some Mat.
- Q What did you always call yourself? A Martha.
- Q Is that the way you always called it and signed it? A No sir, I signed it once Mattie McFair.
- Q Is that the only time you can remember? A Yes sir.
- Q That is the time you applied for enrollment? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they ever call your mother by any other name besides Nancy? A Yes.
- Q Did she have any Cherokee blood in her? A I don't know, she had pretty near straight hair.
- Q Do you think you have any Cherokee blood? A I don't know, my mother was just a little brighter than I am and my father was about the same.

BY MR. BRANSON:

- Q You state that your first recollection was in Tahlequah District?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Are you acquainted with Faggie Lasky? A Yes sir.
 Q Where does she live? A She lives out there in the country somewhere.
 Q When did your family and her first become acquainted? A I couldn't tell you.
 Q Have you known her all your life? A Yes sir, I remember seeing her when we ~~lived~~ lived there in Tahlequah, I don't know whether I knew her when we lived at Parkhill or not.
 Q Do you know Nellie Young? A Yes sir.
 Q Where does she live? A On Big Creek.
 Q Is she related to Faggie Lasky? A Yes sir, sister I think.
 Q How long have you known Nellie Young? A Quite a while a long time.
 Q Was she acquainted with your family when you lived in Tahlequah District? A I don't know whether she was or not, lots of folks older than I was knew me that I don't know.

Mr. Branson: We now ask that the 1880 Cherokee Authenticated roll be examined by the representative of the Commissioner and that the name of Martha McHair, if it appears upon that roll, that that name as it appears there, giving the age etc., be inserted in this record with the other names along with her.

On Behalf of the Commissioner: This testimony is taken at the present time for the purpose of identifying, if possible, the persons whose names appear upon Cherokee Doubtful card No. 2344, the same being included in a general application for enrollment made on June 30, 1902, and the question will be determined by decision as to whether or not the present witness, Mattie or Martha McHair, who is listed on Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card No. 629 is identical with the person listed on Cherokee Doubtful card, No. 2344. Official notice will be taken of the enrollment on the roll of 1880 of the said Martha McHair, and also as to the persons which it appears she is enrolled therewith.

Mr. Branson: Comes now the applicant and objects to the notation made by the representative of the Commissioner because the applicant insists from the testimony given and from what appears in the record made by the Commission on June 8, 1901, in which it clearly appears that the representative of the Commission at that time failed to examine the 1880 Cherokee authenticated Tribal roll and only examined the 1880 Freedman roll, which is merely a copy of the 1880 authenticated roll of those persons on the 1880 Cherokee authenticated roll marked "Adopted colored," and by reason of this applicants appearing on the 1880 authenticated roll as a Native Cherokee, her name did not appear upon said copy known as the freedman roll. Applicant further insists that she has a right to have this enrollment inserted in the record and made a part of case 2344, has the right to have these names inserted as the roll clearly shows that they were members of the family of the persons who appears on Cherokee D-2344, and this record will be incomplete unless these names are inserted in this record.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER: The objection will be noted. The attorney for the applicant is misinformed as to the procedure taken by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the field as it was the ~~man~~ practice in all cases to examine the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as all other rolls to establish whether or not the applicants names were thereon.

Mr. Bransons. Applicant gets his information from this statement from page two of the testimony of the applicant now present taken on June 8, 1901, at Chelsea, Indian Territory.

BY MR. BRANSON:

- Q Have you got a sister who has been finally enrolled? A Yes sir.
Q What is her name? A Rosa Coleman.
Q How old is she? A About 24 or 25 I guess, I don't know.
Q What was her father's name? A Will Davis.
Q Her maiden name was Davis? A Yes sir.
Q Was she your half sister? A Yes sir.
Q Through whom did she claim right, through her mother or father?
A Mother.
Q Was her father a Cherokee freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know whether or not she appears on the 1880 roll? A Yes sir, she has got her land.
Q Under what name? A Rosa Davis.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Her father was a Cherokee freedman? A Yes sir.
Q And her father is on the roll of 1880? A Yes sir.
Q And her name is on there too? A Yes sir.
Q And that is how she came to be enrolled? A Yes sir.
Q You had different father's? A Yes sir.
Q And he was a Cherokee freedman? A Yes sir.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

To the Attorney for the applicant: Do you desire to submit the case on the testimony just introduced?

Mr. Branson: The applicant desires to submit the case, if, after consideration, it is the opinion of the Commissioner that the contention of the applicant that she is the party who appears on the 1880 Cherokee Tribal roll, Wabbequah District, along with Ann Hailstock, Jennie Hailstock, and Mary Hailstock, is this person. If the Commissioner does not consider her to be the identical person on that roll, then we desire to introduce further testimony in this case.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

To the Attorney for the applicant: Do you desire at this time to have further opportunity to introduce testimony, or submit the case now?

Mr. Branson: We have no further witnesses here today, none at all. The reason that we had no further witnesses is because I considered that this witness's testimony in the light of the former record in Cherokee District is sufficient to show her identity.

The Attorneys for the applicant and the Cherokee Nation announce that they have no further testimony to introduce, this case will be closed and a decision rendered on the evidence heretofore introduced.

George H. Lesley, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported the proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his sten-ographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mattie McNair, nee Hailstack, as a Cherokee Freedman.

O R D E R .

The records in the two above cases show that on June 8, 1901, Mattie McNair appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and her minor son, James Landrum, as Cherokee Freedmen, and that said applicants were duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedman card D 629; and that on June 30, 1902, Emmet Starr appeared before said Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of one Martha Hailstack (Hailstack) as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee card D 2344.

The evidence filed in said cases shows that Mattie McNair and Martha Hailstack (Hailstack) are one and the same person.

It is, therefore, ordered that Cherokee card D 2344 be cancelled and that the record of proceedings had in re application of the said Martha Hailstack (Hailstack), be transferred and made a part of the record in the case of Mattie McNair and her son, James Landrum, Cherokee Freedman D 629.

Cherokee Freedmen D 629

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mattie McNair (nee Hallstock) and her minor son, James Landrum, as Cherokee freedmen.

DECISION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Chelms, Indian Territory, on June 8, 1901, Mattie McNair appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of herself and her minor son, James Landrum, as Cherokee Freedmen, and that said applicants were duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful card 529; that further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Nowata, Indian Territory on June 27, 1901, and that the testimony taken at various times and places in the matter of the application for the enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of Katie Blackwell et al., Cherokee Freedmen D 327, and that taken in the matter of the application for the enrollment as Cherokee freedmen of Mary Riley, et al., Cherokee Freedmen D 624, is filed with and made a part of the record in this case; that on April 20, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision in the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell, et al., Cherokee Freedmen D 327, et al., denying, among others, the application for the enrollment of Mattie McNair and James Landrum as Cherokee freedmen, and that said decision was on October 31, 1904 (I.T.D. 8133-1904) duly affirmed by the Department.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That on June 30, 1903, Ernest Starr appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of one Martha Hallstock (Hallstock), who is identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and that said applicant was duly listed for enrollment on Cherokee Doubtful card 2344; that further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, March 16, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 28, 1906, in which it is shown that Mattie McNair and Martha Hailstack (Hailstack), are one and the same person.

The record further shows that on March 14, 1906 (I.T.D. 8138-04, 4720-05, 8469-05), in compliance with the request of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of March 28, 1905, the Department rescinded its decision of October 31, 1904, in the Cherokee Freedman case of Katie Blackwell, et al., insofar as it refers to Mattie McNair and her son, James Landrum, and returned their case to this office for readjudication.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the principal applicant herein, Mattie McNair, nee Hailstack, is the daughter of one Mammie Vann, nee Morgan, who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; that she was born in the Cherokee Nation, since 1865; is duly identified on the authenticated Cherokee tribal roll of 1880, and has continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth.

The evidence further shows that the minor applicant herein, James Landrum, is the son of the principal applicant, Mattie McNair, was born in the Cherokee Nation, since 1880, and has continuously resided therein since birth. Said minor applicant, with his mother, is identified on the Kern-Clifton roll, Coowasee district, No. 3665.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That, in accordance with the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), Mattie McNair and James Landrum are entitled to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, and their application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Mattie McHair, et al.

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

Service of the above motion accepted and a copy of the same received by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, at Vinita, I. T., this day of , 1905.

March 14, 1906

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

March 25, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes recommended that the decision of the Department, in letter to the Commission of October 31, 1904, approving its decision in the Cherokee freedman case of Mattie Blackwell et al., adverse to the applicants, except Henry Chambers, be rescinded so far as it relates to Mattie McNair and her son, James Landrum, as it is believed Mattie McNair can be identified upon the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

The said decision of the Department is hereby rescinded as to Mattie McNair and James Landrum, and you are authorized to re-adjudicate the case. The record is returned as requested.

As, however, motions for review as to other claimants in this consolidated case are pending, it is requested that the record be returned, direct, to the Department with as little delay as possible.

Respectfully

Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS
WASHINGTON

June 15, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes dated April 13, 1906, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen by Mattie McNair and her minor son James Landrum. April 19, 1906 the Commissioner decided favorably to both the applicants.

The records show that on June 8, 1901, Mattie McNair appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of herself and her minor child, James Landrum, as Cherokee freedmen, and that the applicants were duly listed for employment as Cherokee Freedmen certified card 29; the Commission rendered its decision in this among other cases denying the enrollment of Mattie McNair and James Landrum, and that the decision was on October 31, 1904, (ITD 8138-1904) approved by the Department. The record further shows that on March 14, 1906 (ITD 8869-05) the Department rescinded its action and returned the case of Mattie McNair and James Landrum.

The evidence in the case shows that Mattie McNair born Halstock, is the daughter of one Mannie Vann born Morgan who was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that she was born in the Cherokee Nation since 1866, is clearly identified on the 1880 authenticated tribal roll, and has continuously resided in the Cherokee Nation since birth; that James Landrum is the son of the principal applicant, was born in the Cherokee Nation since 1880 and has continuously resided therein since his birth.

In view of the record and of Section 21 of the Act of June 28, 1898(30 Stats., 495), the approval of the Commissioner's decision favorable to the applicants is recommended.

Very respectfully,

C F. Larrabee,
Acting Commissioner.

Sir:

In accordance with the recommendation of the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs dated June 15, 1906, your decision of April 19, 1906, finding that Mattie McNair, nee Hailstock is identical with Martha Hailstock whose name appears upon the authenticated Creek tribal roll of 1880, and that her minor son, James Landrum, born to her since the date of said roll, are entitled to entallment as Cherokee freedmen, is hereby affirmed.

You will advise applicant and her resident counsel, Fred P. Branson, Esq., of Muskogee, Ind. T., of this action.

Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee Nation when the war broke out?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know this man, Robert Webber before the war broke out?

A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Akay Webber, some woman I belonged to.

Q She was a recognized Cherokee citizen was she? A Yes, sir, talked all Cherokee, could not talk any English.

Q Did this man go out with you when the war came up?

A No, sir, I found him with the Pin Indians. When they pulled up and went north I found him with them when they went there.

Q Where was that? A That was somewhere near on the line, Arkansas line, where I found him when I went to him.

Q When was that? A That was along sometime near the war commenced.

Q He was with the Pins? A Yes, sir, when I seen him.

Q What did you see of him after that? A He was taken prisoner and was taken off and I didn't see him any more. His wife come to Kansas and said they come and got him at their house one night and I never seen him any more.

Q His wife come to your house? A Come to the soldiers' quarters.

Q Who did she say took him? A The Bushwhackers.

Q And they took him north? A No, sir, taken him south what she said.

Q And you don't know what they did with him down there?

A No, sir.

Q When did you see him after the war? A I saw him here along after the war when I lived up here he come up to see us.

Q That was two or three years after you got back? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you get back? A '66.

Q Soldier in the army A Yes, sir.
Q And you were captured were you? A Yes, sir.
Q And what did they do with you? A They took me to Texas.
Q You didn't go down to Texas with your Mistress, Akey Webber?
A No, sir, she was dead.
Q When did she die? A She died in '61.
Q Who did you belong to after your Mistress died? A I belonged to nobody, you see she died in '61 and I was still on the place.
Q You don't know who claimed you at that time? A No, sir.
Q Who had charge of the place? A Her son, Robin Webber.
Q Well, did you recognize his authority? A Oh, yes.
Q Well then when they took you down to Texas what did you do?
A I drove teams.
Q For whom? A The Southern Government.
Q Did you find this woman down there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you find any of your people down there?
A Found Charley Webber, son of Akey.
Q Were you hired out to the Southern Government? A Yes, sir.
Q Who did the hire? A Charley Webber I suppose.
Q What did you have to do with Webber at that time?
A They took me there and hauled and he was working for the Government.
Q What did this young Webber have to do with it? A The war was nearly over and he said I could just stay there.
Q Was he living in Gunter's neighborhood? A Not sir, he heard of me later and came over after me.

Q Whereabouts? A On the Barren Fork.
Q How far to the south of Barren Fork?
A It must be about ten or 12 miles above.
Q Well how long after you got there to Barren Fork was it before you ever had an occasion to go down to Fort Gibson?
A I don't know, sir, how long I stayed at Barren Fork before I went to Fort Gibson.
Q What neighbors did you have down there? A Dago Gunter and Wooten Looney.
Q Is that the time you got with Louis Daniels? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you go on that cattle hunt with them? A Yes, sir.
Q After that where did you go? A I went back to Barren Fork.
Q How long did you live there? A About four years.

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Robbery Webber, et al.--8.

Q Bob, in giving your testimony a while ago how did it happen that you didn't say anything about being taken by the soldiers south?

A You asked me how I got down there as I know of.

Q Didn't I ask you if you didn't go down there with Caldine Gunter and family? A Yes, sir.

Q Didn't you tell me on cross-examination that you had married this girl before you went south? A No, sir.

Q And didn't you tell me that you lived with a that Gunter lived about 35 or 40 miles from where Webbers lived and that Gunters lived in Arkansas and that you lived in Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.

Q How many children has your wife got? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is your eldest child? A 31.

Q What time did you go to Texas when the soldiers took you there? A I don't know.

Q When did you and your wife marry? A Shortly after we got there.

Q How about the war, was it over? A No, sir, the war was going on.

BY COM'R BRACKENRIDGE:

Q Who was Caldine Gunter's wife? A She was a Ward.

Q Was she a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.

Q Was Gunter himself a Cherokee? A No, sir.

Q Where is Nancy Gunter living now? A She is living here.

Q Where? A In Benton County.

Q Has she lived there ever since the war? A I guess so.

Q You never heard of her coming back?

A No, sir, I never heard of her since.

COM'R BRACKENRIDGE:--The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife. The applicant is identified on the Kern Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1896. It appears that he was a slave of a Cherokee citizen in the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the Civil War. He was taken to the State of Texas and it is quite satisfactorily established that he returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, and that he has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since. He states that he applied to the Cherokee Court and at one part of his testimony he said that they ~~deferred~~ deferred his case and decided in his absence and in another part of his testimony he said that he was told by the Court that he was rejected at that time because he had returned too late after the war. By this as it may the present testimony given by witnesses who are considered credible indicates that he did return within the time required by the treaty of 1866 and no real valid objection is seen at this time to his enrollment, but inasmuch as he was omitted from the roll of 1880 and for the further consideration by the full Commission of the conditions states, he will at present be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a Doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to him at his post office address.

As for his wife, she is identified on the Kern-Clifton roll, and her mistress, Nancy Ward, it appears was a Cherokee woman but prior to the roll she was married to one Caldine Gunter who lived in Benton County, Arkansas, and she was there residing with her husband, and the applicant's wife was living with them in the state of Arkansas prior to the breaking out of the Civil War. She was taken to the state of Texas where she met the applicant and they were married and after the war she returned to Benton County, Arkansas, her husband going with her, and he alleges that prior to the time he was taken down to have been at Fort Gibson in the year 1866, he had brought his wife to the Barren Fork of the Illinois River in the Cherokee Nation and that they had there located.

Q Has your wife lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you brought her after the war? A Yes, sir.

The weight of the testimony at present is that his wife by reason of the change of ownership that she underwent prior to the war and that was maintained in her case during the war, was not in a position to avail herself of the rights of Freedmen arising under the treaty of 1866. It may be, but it is not established, that Gunter and his wife were subsequently readmitted to Cherokee citizenship, but a decided weight of the testimony is that the wife of Calbine Gunter never resumed citizenship in the Cherokee Nation after taking up her residence in the State of Texas prior to the Civil War. Therefore, under these conditions there appears at present really no valid reason to justify the enrollment of the applicant's wife, Margaret, but for their further consideration of her case, as stated, she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card; but the applicant has five children enumerated in the testimony all of whom have now reached their majority and whose rights perhaps depend primarily upon the status of the applicant and his wife. Now, it seems from the testimony that both the applicant and his wife were married previous to their marriage but that he was separated by the war and under the operation of the institution of slavery from his wife, and she was similarly separated from her first husband and that under these conditions they contracted marriage in the State of Texas while the war was going on. Now it is not considered that the strict meaning of the laws of marriage are applicable to people as the applicant and his wife at that time, and it is believed at present that the marriage contracted by him and his wife, Margaret, during the war and maintained continuously from that time until now is a valid marriage, and that these children should be considered the lawful children of the applicant and his wife and that they should enjoy, in the absence of any testimony to the contrary, all the rights that may be finally established for the applicant himself.

SUPPLEMENTAL INTERROGATORIES by Capt. Breckinridge. The Applicant recalled:

Q Are these children all the children of your wife, Margaret?

A Yes, sir.

Q How many of them were born in Texas, any of them? A The eldest one was born in Texas before we left.

Q Frank? A Yes, sir.

Q And then Frank is older than you think he is? A That is what I call him, what I think he is.

Q But he was born in Texas? A Yes, sir.

Q Did Frank come with you and your wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Came with you even to Barren Fork? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, these other children were they all born in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have they always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Robert Webber, et al. - 10.

BY MR. DAVENPORT: The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation protest against the enrollment of his wife, Margaret, for the reason that Cherokee card #422 gives the testimony of Nancy Gunter in full, who was alleged to have been the owner of the wife of the applicant at the time the war broke out, which testimony shows the continued residence of Nancy Gunter in the State of Arkansas for years and up to and including the date of the giving of the testimony which was on the 26th day of September, 1900.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of ROBERT WEBBER, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, introduced on part of Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Smith of Counsel for applicants;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

ELIZA CHANDLER, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

Q. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A. Eliza Chandler.

Q. Where do you live, Mrs. Chandler? A. In Vinita.

Q. How old are you? A. 54.

Q. Where were you living at the breaking out of the war?
A. Arkansas.

Q. Did you leave the State of Arkansas during the war and your family? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your father, what was his first name? A. Caldwine Gunter.

Q. Did your father own any slaves at the breaking out of the war?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know whether or not he owned a woman by the name of Margaret? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know what she afterwards married and lived with as his wife? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Whom did she live with Mrs. Chandler? A. Bob Webber, he goes
by that name.

Q. Do you know what became of Margaret during the war? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did she go? A. We carried her to Texas with us.

Q. Well, after the close of the war what became of her? A. We brought her back to Arkansas.

Q. You got back to Arkansas in what year? A. In '65.

Q. How long did she live with you after you got back to Arkansas, that is, did she live there at all? A. She only stayed a little while; they moved up on Butler's creek.

Q. Butler's creek, Territory of Arkansas? A. Arkansas, at Mr.
Tittles.

Q. Do you know what Mr. Tittles first name was? A. Dan.

Q. Did you know Bob Webber before the war? A. No, sir, I first seen him in Texas.

Q. And he came down there while you were in Texas? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he come back with you and your family? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was he with Margaret when they moved up on Butler's creek in Arkansas? A. Yes, sir.

Q. About what year was that they moved up on Butler's creek at Dan Tittles in Arkansas? A. It was in the winter of '65.

Q. Now, Margaret as I understand was owned by your father at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You don't know of your own knowledge who owned Bob? A. No, sir.

Q. Was your father and your mother a citizen of the Cherokee Nation at that time, or any of your family? A. No, sir.

Q. They weren't citizens when they returned from the south, were they? A. No, sir.

MR. SMITH: Mrs. Chandler, your mother was a Cherokee Indian,
was she not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. She was readmitted to citizenship here, I understood you to say here in another case? A. Yes, sir.

Q Well, do you remember what month you returned to Arkansas in 1865? A I think it was in November, I won't be positive.
Q Not sure? A No, sir.
Q Well, none of your family owned Robert Webber? A No, sir.
Q Did you know anything about him before the war? A No, sir, did not.
Q You say after the war he was married to a woman named Margaret? A It was in time of the war that they came to our house in Texas.
Q Well, then when you took Robert Webber and Margaret to Arkansas they were still husband and wife there, were they? A Yes, sir, after we come back.
Q Now, you don't remember the month that they went up on this Butler creek, you are speaking about? A No, sir, they went that winter some time.
Q You mean the winter or is the year you returned? A Yes, sir.
Q That was in '65? A Yes.
Q How far from that place where they went to from where you lived? A About 25 miles.
Q How far did you live from the Cherokee Nation? A I guess it was about two miles and a half.
Q Lived right on the line? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know of your own knowledge where Robert Webber was during the year 1866? A Well, he made a crop up there on Butler's creek and then he moved back that summer down to Pa's, and then he come down here in the Nation, or said he was coming and left his family there at our place until in the fall and then he come back and moved them down in the Nation, I reckon. I have seen her here since I have been in the Nation.
Q Well, at the time you came back with these people from Texas the war was over? A Yes, sir.
Q They were free then? A Yes, sir.
Q They could go wherever they wanted to? A Yes, sir.
Q And they were only two miles and a half from where you lived to the Cherokee Nation line? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, you can't state of your own knowledge either when Robert Webber or his wife first came into the Cherokee Nation after the war was over? A No, sir, I would not try to state.

JOHN T. GUNTER, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John T. Gunter.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Gunter? A Live in Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q How old are you? A 40.
Q Where were you living at the time war broke out? A Living in Benton County, Arkansas.
Q Your father's name was Galdine Gunter? A Yes, sir.
Q Did your father own a slave, a woman, at that time by the name of Margaret? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you know whether or not she was married before the breaking out of the war? A Yes, sir, she had a son named Adam.
Q What became of Margaret during the war, if you know, Mr. Gunter? A My father took her to Texas.
Q How long did she stay there? A Until 1866 when we returned to Arkansas.
Q Did you have her and the fellow by the name of Bob Webber? A Yes, sir.
Q Did he and Margaret live together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Where did you first see Webber? A Hopkins County, Texas.
Q How long did he stay there? A He stayed there until '65, drove a team back for my father.
Q To what point did you come? A Benton County, Arkansas.

Q Were your family citizens of the Cherokee Nation at that time?
A No, sir.

Q Were they citizens of the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the war? A No, sir.

Q Well, after they came back to Benton County, Arkansas, what became of Margaret and Bob, if you know? A They left my father's house and went to Dan Tittler near Sulphur Springs.

Q What place? A Benton County, Arkansas.

Q Do you know how long they stayed there? A They went there in the winter of '65 and stayed until the fall of '66, made a crop at Dan Tittler; I don't know whether they made a crop or not.

Q Well, what became of them then? A Along in the fall Bob came back to my father's and he and Uncle Dan had fell out and he wanted to move back and my father had a little old smoke house and fixed that up for them and moved his family there, and stayed there that winter, he went away and was gone, quite a while, I don't know where he was, there in the Terr tory somewhere he said he was going.

Q That was the winter of '66? A Yes, sir.

Q What took place after that? A In the spring of '67, he moved his family here.

Q Do you know who Bob belonged to before the breaking out of the war? A No, sir.

Q You don't know anything about him, about as to who he belonged to? A Only what he told me; he said he belonged to the Webbers.

Q Margaret belonged to your father? A Yes, sir.

MR. SMITH: That Webber did he say he belonged to? A I don't know.

Q Was there an Akey webber? A I don't know of her.

Q You weren't acquainted with her? A No, sir.

Q You weren't in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A No, sir.

Q Didn't live here? A No, sir.

Q Now, you say, Mr. Gunter, Bob Webber, this applicant moved his family into the Territory in the spring of '67? A Yes, sir, in the spring of '67.

Q Well, now, can you state the month? A No, sir, but it was some time early in the spring.

Q You can't be positive as to the month? A No, sir.

Q Was it as early as first of the year, '67? A No, sir, grass was up, cattle was grazing on the grass, and the reason I can remember it, my father made Margaret a present of a cow and a calf, and sent me out to drive her up and get her off of the grass; it was a young calf, he took them with him.

Q Robert Webber had made preparations to made to the Cherokee Nation before that? A I think he went to George Roach's on Barron Form before that.

Q That was in the winter of '66? A Yes, sir, at least he was gone quite a while.

Q That is where he said he was going? A That is where he said he was going.

Q Well, your father and your mother and children were all admitted to citizenship here after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q That was in what year? A 1880.

Q This woman, Margaret, that used to belong to your father was this man's wife? A Yes, sir, lived with her.

Q This man you speak of her having been with that was in Slavery times? A Yes, sir.

Q What became of Adams? A He went to Kansas I was told.

Q Was did Adams belong to? A Belonged to my father.

Q Why didn't he go with your father? A He went away before we were freed.

Q Was he sold? A No, sir, in '62 when the army came down there was a number of our slaves went away and some of them returned and some of them didn't, there is one of them lives up here at Fort Scott.

Q Well, this man Adam that you speak of and Margaret, they were just simply living together under the fashion of slaves at that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q No marriage about it? A No, sir.

Q They were separated from each other by the exigencies of war?

A Yes, sir.

Q You never heard of Adam afterwards? A Yes, sir, I have heard of him.

Q You never seen him? A No, sir.

Q Do you know how Robert came down to Texas? A Yes, sir, I know how he came to Hopkins County, he come with Dan Tittles and Jim.

Q Do you know whether the Pin Indians ever got him or not? A No, sir.

Q Did you ever hear? A No, sir, I heard Dan Tittles bought him and took him to Texas; the Pin Indians didn't come that way.

Q Do you know whether he was ever captured from the Pin Indians by anybody? A Never heard of it.

Q All you know about Robert whether is that he came to Texas?

A No, sir.

Q Mr. Gunter, your mother was a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q And you say she was brought up in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes, sir, she was born and raised in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was she in the Cherokee Nation when she married? A Married just across the line.

Q Living in the Cherokee Nation when she married? A Yes, sir.

Q And when she married your father went across the line of Arkansas to live? A Yes, sir.

Q During the time of the war did she claim to be a Cherokee Indian?

A Yes, sir.

Q Draw money? A Drew money in '53 I believe it was.

Q What money was that? A Old settler money.

Q Did she exercise any other rights or did any of your family before the war? A No, sir.

Q You didn't live in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir; never except her mother and brothers and sisters, none of our immediate family.

Q But in the year 1880 she was formally admitted by an Act of the Council? A Yes, sir, Court created by the Council.

Q Mr. Gunter, can you state whether there were many or few of these Acts of Admission? A Admitting people to citizenship?

Q Yes? A Yes, sir, there were a great many.

Q They were applied for in favor of persons living in the Nation and claiming to be citizens? A Yes, living out and wanted to return, that is, had been citizens at one time and moved out and forfeited their citizenship; they applied to the Council for readmission. My mother being residing in the Territory and going out she forfeited her citizenship.

Q That is she stated she had forfeited it, you don't know whether she forfeited or of not? A That is her understanding.

MR. DAVENPORT: What brought up the question of their applying to the Council, Mr. Gunter, if you know? A It was the understanding of the laws and constitution of the Cherokee Nation.

Q If they expected to participate in the benefits of the Cherokee Nation, they must be readmitted? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father was not a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir.

MR. NEEDLES: What was your father's property was your mother's?

A I don't know.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be made part of the case at bar and made part of the record in D.#563, D.#628, D.#691, and D.#680.

up; it was in '46.

Q He was in this Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, then, when he married he was a citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did he continue to live in the Cherokee Nation?

A He lived there when I was about five years old; let's see, married in '46, that would be, I think we left there in '52.

Q Where did you go? A First went to Texas and stayed there a while and came back to the Cherokee Nation and stayed until after the old Settler payment and went to Arkansas; we drew money in the old settler payment.

Q Your family all drew money in the old Settler's payment?

A Yes, sir.

Q In what year was that? A I think that was in '52; '1 or '2.

Q How long after that was it before you went into Arkansas?

A Right away after that.

Q How many years? A Oh, I guess probably inside of a year or such matter.

Q Where did you live in Arkansas? A Benton County.

Q How far from the line? A What line, Arkansas line or Missouri line.

Q The Cherokee Nation line? A It was about ten miles from Cherokee line and three miles from Missouri line.

Q What was your father's name? A Dan Tittle.

Q Who did your father get this man from? A Fellow by the name of John Grimmett.

Q When did he get him? A About '62.

Q Where did he get him from? A Down here about Mayesville.

Q Who is Grimmett? A He is said to be the owner of Rob, who he bought him from.

Q Where did Grimmett live? A He lived down there in the Nation somewhere.

Q He was a Cherokee, Grimmett was? A I don't know whether he was or not.

Q Did you ever know Grimmetts? A No, sir.

Q Well, do you know what date it was that he bought this man?

A I think it was in '62 I think.

Q It was after the war had commenced? A Yes, sir.

Q It might have been in '62? A It was in '62. Somewhere along there as well as I remember about it.

Q You think it could not have been as late as 1864? A No, for we had him before he was bought, and we kept him there and went down on the Arkansas river and come back there and found Grimmett and bought him.

Q It was either in '62 or '3 your father bought him? A Yes, sir.

Q He had been captured and taken there? A Yes, sir, went down there and come back and he bought him.

Q Do you know who he had been captured from? A Only what he said; he said he belonged to as well as I remember, he belonged to Mrs. Webber, and Mrs. Grimmett was a daughter of Mrs. Webber.

Q What was Webber's name? A I don't know.

Q Did you ever know an Akey Webber? A No, sir.

Q Akey Webber was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation when the war came up? A I don't know.

Q Now, you claim that your father owned this man in '62 or 'w?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where did he own him? A Benton County, Arkansas.

Q Who lived near him when he owned him? A In the settlement there.

Q Yes. A The nearest fellow in the neighborhood was a man by the name of Wells, and Thomas.

Q Are they living there now? A I guess they are all dead now.

Q Does anybody but you know that your father owned this man?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who? A Will Thompson, living at Bentonville, Arkansas, and Eph Thompson that lived on Butler's creek where I lived, he is living there yet.

Q How long do you claim this man Robert Webber was with your father from the time you say your father bought him? A He must have been with him including the time we left, three or four years.

Q What time you say he left your father? A He left him in the fall of '66.

Q Well, it was a man named Grinnett that your father undertook to buy him from? A That is the man he bought him from.

Q After the man had been captured and taken out of the Indian Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q And you don't know what right Grinnett had for selling if he had any? A No, sir, claimed he sold him.

COM'R NEEDLES: As I understand your father before that was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q And when did he come back to the Cherokee Nation?

A He come back in '67.

Q And was re-admitted? A Yes, sir.

Q And this darkey was not with him then? A No, sir.

MR. SMITH: Now, Mr. Tittle, you lived in Arkansas after you went out after the old Settler payment; what property did your father have back in the Cherokee Nation? A He didn't have any when he lived there; he killed a man and they kept hunting him.

COM'R NEEDLES: He fledged over there? A Yes, sir, he stood his trial and come clear.

Q Where did he stand his trial? A Right on the line right close to High Sose at that time.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In the State.

Q He killed a man in the State? A Killed an Indian in the State and tried him right at the place he killed him.

Q When he killed the Indian he was living in the Cherokee Nation?

A No, sir, he was living in the State; right within a quarter of where he killed him; but I had been born in the Nation.

MR. SMITH: What Court did they try him in in the State of Arkansas? A Arkansas Court.

Q What Court? A Courts from Bentonville come down there and tried him.

Q Tried him in Bentonville? A No, sir.

Q They had to have a Court there? A I don't know; they tried him at Cal Gunter's right on the edge of Lindsey's prairie.

Q It is the regular Circuit Court in Benton County, Arkansas, tried him? A I could not tell you; they come there and tried him.

Q What did they try him in? A Tried him in Cal Gunter's house.

Q You don't claim that it was a court of the State of Arkansas?

A Yes, sir.

Q Come down to Cal Gunter's house? A Yes, sir.

Q They were very accommodating at that time?

A I can't tell you anything about that, that was where he was tried.

Q Well, now, during all that time he claimed to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A He was not at that time was tried because he was living in the State of Arkansas.

Q That didn't keep him from being a citizen because he was not living in the Cherokee Nation? A He was not a citizen at that time.

MR. DAVIDPORT: This was a trial before a Justice of the Peace? A I don't know; they had a trial and he come clear; I was a small boy, about five years old; there was about three hundred men with him and the Indians had gathered five or six hundred with them, and he was tried right there at the line.

COM'R NEEDLES: This will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and also D-628, D-663, D-691, D-680.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I.T., May 19, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Robert Webber et al for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen.

SUPPLEMENTAL TO D-630.

APPEARANCES:

Mallotte & Smith for applicants.
W. V. Hastings for Cherokee Nation.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence a decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation in 1871, as appears of record in a book in part of the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation entitled "Docket of doubtful cases for Cherokee citizenship tried in 1871," under the head of Coovescooves District, and opposite No. 24, the following:

"Robert Webber, give no satisfaction, too late.
Decided against claimant June 18, 1871."

MR. SMITH: The applicant objects to the introduction of the above for the reason that the alleged judgment shows upon the face of it that it is no judgment at all, and because there is no showing that any step necessary to the rendition of a valid judgment was ever taken, and because the above quoted entry is all that there purports to be regarding any case of the Cherokee Nation against the said Robert Webber, and that the same is wholly insufficient in law to show any action which would be valid or binding, and because the Robert Webber named in said entry is not shown to be identical with the applicant herein, and because it is incompetent to prove any record of the Cherokee Nation in the manner and form sought to be used in this instance.

COMMISSION: Attention is here invited to the descendants of said Robert Webber, whose names appear upon the following Cherokee Freedmen cards: D-622, D-663, D-680, and D-691.

Arthur O. Crapinger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 22th day of May, 1902.

Muskogee, T. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERCY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Hallette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Robert Peter, F 436,

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant, and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record when then the decrees already referred to in the case of Moses Whitire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the action of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

(Signed) E. G. Rothenberger.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of June, 1902.

(Signed) P. G. Reuter,

I, E. C. Bagwell, a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, on oath state that the above and foregoing is a true and perfect copy of the original testimony in the above entitled cause as filed with the Commission, which copy was made by me.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this July 29, 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Margarette Webster

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

Service of the above motion accepted and a copy of the same received by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, at Vinita, I. T., this day of , 1905.

- Q Didn't you come through that town when you moved to Russell Creek? A Never saw the town.
- Q Did you apply to the Fern-Clifton Commission five years ago? A I applied when they had the poll.
- Q About how many acres did you have in that little patch? A I don't know, just a small little place.
- Q Four or five acres? A I don't know whether that much or not, I raised the garden stuff and a little coming corn, just a little patch.
- Q Where did you come from? A Came from Fort Scott.
- Q What time of the year did you leave Fort Scott? A In April.
- Q Well, was Sam Webber up there at Fort Scott when you left? A Took no notice who was there, there was a good many people of all nations and all colors and all kinds, I don't know who was up there.
- Q Do you know him? A I didn't know him, he might have been there.
- Q You know Uncle Nelson Marshall, he had left up there, hadn't he? A I don't know whether he was there or not, the people was up in all parts of the town, I stayed down in the part by the old mill, and there was people camped all around there.
- Q You had heard about the treaty passing when you came down? A I never heard a thing of the treaty.
- Q We've heard about it at Fort Scott? A No, sir.
- Q Well, after you went over the Kansas line did you go on Russell Creek? A I don't know.
- Q What time did you leave Russell Creek? A I left there in the fall after I stayed all the fall.
- Q About what time in the fall? A Well, I guess it was along about the last part of the fall when I left there.
- Q About Christmas time? A A little before I think.
- Q Where did you go from there? A I went to the River.
- Q To Grand River? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well, you saw Allen Lynch down on the river? A No, I went to their brothers.
- Q Were Hardrick? A Yes, and Jeff Lyons.
- Q Was Jeff Lyons living down there? A Yes, sir, he was living down there, my oldest brother.

Q Who else was living down there? A Tom Moore.

Q Who else? A Uncle Simon Lynch.

Q How long did you stay down on the river? A I only stayed there three weeks.

Q Where did you go from there? A I went to Vinegar Creek.

Q Where is Vinegar Creek? A It is up above Russell Creek I reckon. It is away up towards Coffeyville or away up above that somewhere.

Q Then you went there in the early spring of '67? A I went up to Vinegar Creek that winter. I just left Russell Creek and went to the River and stayed three weeks and then went to Vinegar Creek that winter.

Q Who did you see while you were on Russell Creek? A I saw an old white man there said his name was Hannah.

Q Did he have a house up there? A Yes, sir.

Q How far were you from the state line on Russell Creek? A I don't know where the state line was.

Q How came you to locate up there away from everybody? A Well I guess my husband wanted to get up there and locate, he was the one, I wasn't locating, it was him.

Q Did you have a spring up there? A Got water out of the Creek.

Q On which side of Russell Creek did you live? A Lived on the west side, it was Vinegar Creek.

Q I mean on Russell Creek, when you first came there? A Lived on the south side of Russell Creek.

Q How far from the railroad? A Wasn't any railroad there.

Q Where did you get anything to eat all that spring and summer?

A Don't you suppose we brought victuals with us; how do you reckon we could make but until we raised a little corn and things?

Q Tell us the best you can where that was on Russell Creek?

A I lived just about a mile I guess south of the road.

Q Of what road? A On Russell Creek south of the road there.

Q Of the military road? A I don't know whether it was or not.

Q A big road? A Yes, sir, I don't know whether it was a military road.

Q And you stayed there the year '67? A Yes, sir, I was there from the spring to fall.

Q Did you see anybody at all while you lived there? A Never saw anybody except the folks lived with us, only Art Williams stopped there and Uncle Simon Lynch stopped there a time or two.

Q And that is the only ones you saw? A Yes, sir.

Q You never went to visit your brother until the fall? A Yes, sir.

Q And they never visited you? A No, sir.

Q Never saw anyone pass there except those two you mentioned?

A I never noticed who passed the road and who didn't, a great many passed, during all the time I wasn't in good health, I was sick.

Q How far did you locate on Vinegar Creek from the state line?

A I don't know nothing about the state line.

Q Who was living up there when you went up there on Vinegar Creek?

A A man by the name of Hannah, he pretended to be an Indian but he wasn't nothing but a white man and a rebel at that, and he was living there.

Q Did he have any family? A He had a few children, and a wife. I guess it was his wife, I didn't have much to do with them.

Q How do you know that he was a rebel? A I know he was a rebel, 'cause he talked and acted like one.

Q He acted peculiar, did he? A Yes, he did.

Q Did he have a family up there? A No, sir, I didn't see nothing but himself and wife.

Q He had a house? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from you was his house from you? A I don't know, it wasn't very far.

Q Wasn't any colored people near you up there? A No, not where

I was.

Q You say that was up in Kansas? A No, I didn't say it was in Kansas.

Q What Creek does Vinegar Creek empty into? A I don't know; it must empty into your creek I reckon.

Q Is that as much as you know about Vinegar Creek? A Yes, that is as much as I know about Vinegar Creek.

Q Did you build a house up there? A Yes, built a house up there.

Q How far was that from Coffeyville? A I don't know.

Q Were you ever at Coffeyville? A No.

Q You wasn't? A Not when I lived there.

Q Know who was your nearest colored neighbors up there? A My nearest colored neighbors at that time, there wasn't any there as I know of then, but after a while my husband went out and said Uncle Nelson Marshall lived about three miles up there, but I didn't go over there, I was sick all the time.

Q You didn't see him for a long time after you went up there?

A No, sir.

Q Did you see him for about five years? A I don't know whether it was five or ten, I was sick all the time, I wasn't studying anything about him.

Q Did you have any doctors? A No, sir.

Q Do you know any year from another? A I guess I do, I guess I got about sense enough to know winter from summer.

Q What year was that oldest child born? A Born in '57 they say, in the records.

Q What year was the Wallace Court sitting here? A I don't know what year they sat here.

Q What year did the Kern-Clifton Court sit? A I don't know that either, I know I was there.

Q You had to prove up before them? A Of course I had to prove up before them.

Q You don't remember it at all? A No, I don't remember what year it was, it was three or four years ago I guess, I was there.

Q Do you know what year this is? A No.

Q Where did you apply to the Kern-Clifton Commission? A Out here.

Q By the name of Nancy Ross? A Nancy Ross.

Q You applied for yourself? A Yes, sir, and children and grandchildren.

Q What are your children's and grandchildren's names, all Ross?

A Yes, sir, all Ross.

Q When did Moss Ross die? A Died in 1866.

Mr. Mellette: Nancy, you say that Moss Ross, your husband, returned with you in 1866 to the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Now I want to ask you about your children, I want to identify them so they can come in and appear for themselves. Did you have a son named Ned Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he born before the war or after? A Born before the war.

Q Did he return to the Cherokee Nation with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you have a son named Cyrus? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he born before or after the war? A He was born before the war.

Q Did he return to the Cherokee Nation with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your next child? A Kizzie.

Q Was she born before the war? A Yes, sir, she had a baby when I went out.

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation then? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your next child? A George.

Q When was he born? A He was born in Kansas during the war.

Q Did he return to the Cherokee Nation with you? A Yes sir.

- Q Did you have a child named Martha? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was she born? A On Russell Creek.
- Q After you returned? A Yes, sir.
- Q What is your next child? A Nelson.
- Q What is the next? A Harry.
- Q Where were Nelson and Harry born? A Harry was born on Grand River and Nelson was born on Vinegar Creek.
- Q Was that after you returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q What was the next child? A Mary.
- Q And the next one? A Arthur.
- Q And the next one? A Emma.
- Mr. Hastings: Did they ever call you Nancy Grubbs? A Yes, sir, I have been called Nancy Grubbs.
- Q Don't you live in Iola, Kansas? A I have been in Iola, Kansas, yes.
- Q When was the last time you were there? A I was there last winter, right there.
- Q You have been living there, have you? A Well, I was up there working, I am not living there.
- Q Well, how long have you been working up there? A I go up and work a month or two or two or three months if I want to.
- Q Where did Moss Ross die? A He died in Fort Scott.
- Q You were living in Fort Scott at the time? A No, I was living here, he went up there.
- Q Where was your home here then? A I was on the river then.
- Q In what settlement? A In Moss Kendrick's settlement.
- Q You had a place down there? A No, I didn't have no place, I was just stopping there, but his health was poor.
- Q Did you have a child named Rizzie? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Rizzie born? A Rizzie was born at the old Asylum before the war.
- Q Did you have a child named Martha? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Martha born? A Born on Russell Creek.
- Q You had a child named Nelson? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Nelson born? A Born on Vinegar Creek.
- Q You had a child named Harry? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was he born? A Born at my brother, Jefferson Lyon's.
- Q You had a girl named Mary? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Mary born? A She was born at Moss's.
- Q Where was your husband most of this time? A He was there of course, he never died till after the children was all born.
- Q Is Arthur your child? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Arthur born? A Born at Uncle Simon's.
- Q You were just living about from place to place? A Yes, sir.
- Q Where was Emma born? A She was born at Uncle Simon's too; I got two children born at Uncle Simon's.
- Q How long was Emma born before your husband's death? A Well I guess she was about two years old, over two years old.
- Q Did you take these children back to Fort Scott when your husband died? A No, sir, none but the baby.
- Q Where were the rest of these children at that time? A Living there at my brother's.
- Q Which one? A Moss and Jeff. left them children with my folks; some was at Mayfield's, my cousin.
- Q When did your brother Jeff die? A I don't remember.

Q Do you know when she returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A No, sir, not exactly.

Q When did you first see her in the Cherokee Nation after the war?

A I seen her here in the summer.

Q What year? A Of 1866.

Q Where did you see her? A She came over to my place on Grand River.

Q Who was her husband? A Moses Grubbs was her husband.

Q That was his other name besides Grubbs? A Moses Ross, belonged to Lewis Ross.

Q Where has the applicant lived since that time in '66 when she came to your place? A I can't tell you.

Q Have you seen her? A Yes, sir, several times, at my place.

Q Did she live in your part of the country any length of time?

A She came there and stayed a while with me, sometimes a month or two weeks and then she would go back to her home.

Q Where was her home? A She said she was living up on Russell Creek.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge what other parts of the country she has lived in? A No, sir.

Q How often since '66, how frequently would you see her during that 15 years? A I can't tell, I never noticed the time.

Q Did you see her often or not? A Well, tolerably often, just now and then.

Q Did she have a place on Big Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q She had a house built? A Yes, sir.

Q She is living on that same farm, and house now? A Yes, sir, in the same house and farm.

Commissioner: Nancy Ross applies for the enrollment of herself and two children, Arthur and Emma. She is not identified upon the authenticated roll of 1860, or the census roll of 1880. She is duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. Her two children, Arthur and Emma, are also identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. She avers that she was the slave of one Lewis Ross, a Cherokee citizen, and that she was married to one Moses Ross, ~~now deceased~~ or Moss Gribb, now deceased. She avers that she sent to Kansas during the war and returned in the year 1860. By reason of the fact that her name is not on the roll of 1860, and by reason of the fact of the especial protest of the Cherokee Nation against her enrollment, said Nancy Ross will be listed with her two children, Arthur and Emma, for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, on a doubtful card, awaiting further consideration by the Commission. She will be notified by mail of the decision of the Commission, when arrived at.

Q These children all living? A Yes, sir.

Q All living with you? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: The applicant also applies for the enrollment of six grandchildren, to-wit, Bert Ross, Lewis Ross, Georgia Ross and Minnie Ross, who she avers are the children of her son Cyrus, by one Sidney. The children are duly identified upon the census roll of 1896, but no proof is made as to the marriage of Cyrus with the presumed mother of said children, and no proof as to where they were born, or as to the citizenship of their mother. She avers that she has two grandchildren, Nancy and Roy, and that they are the children of her child, Martha, now deceased, --

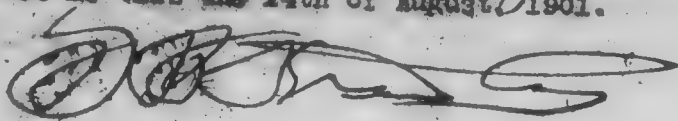

The Kern-Clifton roll examined, and the name of Martha Ross found thereon, page 152, No. 3759, Cooweescoowee district.

-- and the said Martha Ross is identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. The names of the children Roy and Nancy cannot be identified upon any roll, and no satisfactory proof is made as to their citizenship, consequently it will be necessary first that satisfactory proof of marriage be made between Cyrus and his wife, the avowed mother of his children, and satisfactory proof of the birth made as to Nancy and Roy, the avowed children of Martha, and their names will be placed upon a doubtful card as Cherokee Freedmen awaiting further consideration by the Commission. They will be notified by mail when a decision is arrived at.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

From an examination of the 1880 authenticated roll and the census roll of 1896, his name cannot be found, but he is duly identified upon the Fern-Clifton roll. He avers that he is the son of Nancy Ross, who has been listed for enrollment on doubtful card No. 631, and reference is made to the testimony taken in said case, which will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and a copy thereof will be filed herewith. Now the said Nelson Ross will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman upon a doubtful card. He will be notified by mail of the decision of the Commission when arrived at.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 25th day of June, 1891.

now I wouldn't be positive whether he died, I think though he died in Iola, I wouldn't be positive as to that.

Q Well, did you ever hear of these people leaving there for any length of time? A No, I never did, I don't know of them ever moving away.

Q Did you see them frequently? A Why very often.

Q Did you ever know one that they called Nelson? A No.

Q Never knew Nelson? A Didn't know him.

Q You know one they called Dick? A Yes.

Q Did Kizzie marry, the daughter? A Yes.

Q Who did she marry? A She married a colored man by the name of Newman, Taylor Newman.

Q Do you know what became of her? A I do not.

Q When did you remember of seeing her last? A Well sir, I can't tell you, I see Taylor very often.

Q That her husband? A That is her husband, but I haven't seen him for sometime.

Q You know where Taylor is? A He is in Iola.

Q Living there? A Yes, sir, living there.

Q That is Taylor Newman? A Taylor Newman.

Mr. Mellette: How old are you, Mr. Morris? A 56.

Q You say that the woman, Nancy Ross, whom you knew and whom you have been telling about, or Nancy Grubbs, lived in Iola last winter?

A Yes, sir.

Q That was the winter of 1900 and 1901? A Yes.

Q Where did she live? A She lived in the southwest part of town.

Q Kept house? A Yes, sir.

Q Have a family there? A Yes, sir, her children was there with her.

Q How many children? A Two I think and then there was one boarding there, George was boarding at home.

Q Well, how old a man is George? A He must be well into thirty years old, maybe older, I don't know just exactly.

Q Then you don't know anything about any of the rest of them except George, do you? And Nancy? A No, I don't; well, Harry, I know Harry lives there in Iola.

Q Do you know that the Nancy Ross who has made application here for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman is the Nancy Grubbs whom you have been talking about? A No, sir, I don't, I never knew her by the name of Nancy Ross.

Q Now where was Nancy Grubbs, when you have been talking about, in 1866? A In 1866, well she was in Iola as far as I know.

Q Well I am not talking about as far as you know? A I can't swear positively whether she was there or not, if she ever moved away I don't know about it.

Q You don't know whether she was there in 1866 or not? A I can't swear positively she was there, no, sir.

Q There was she in 1867? A That I can't say, for it has been years back.

Q Where was she in 1868? A Well she lived there in Iola or in the vicinity.

Q Well are you certain of that? A If they ever moved away I never knew it.

Q Well that don't answer my question? A Well I wouldn't swear positive.

Q Then you are not swearing where this woman Nancy Grubbs was in either of the years I have mentioned, '66 or '7 or '8? A I can't swear positively.

Q Where was she in 1870? A Well, I suppose she was in Iola.

Q Well do you know, can you swear that you saw her there? A I can't swear, I seen her there.

Q When? A Numbers of times, from the time I became acquainted up to the present time if they ever moved away I never knew it.

Q I am asking you where she was in 1870? A I can't tell you, I wouldn't swear positively.

Q You will not swear whether she was there in 1870? A I say if she ever moved away I never knew of it, she has always been a resident of Iola as far as I know, and I saw them often.

Q Where do you live? A I live northwest of Iola about three miles, and part of the time I lived in Iola.

Q Were you a particular acquaintance of Nancy Grubbs, you have been talking about? A Why I have been very well acquainted with her for sometime.

Q Did you watch her movements closely? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q I will ask you if it is not a fact that she has lived away from there as much as five years at the time? A No, sir.

Q You are positive of that? A Positive of that.

Q Has she lived away from there as much as one year at the time? A I can't say if she has, if she ever has I don't know it.

Q But you can't say she hasn't? A I wouldn't swear point blank that she hasn't.

Q You don't know whether or not she came down into the Cherokee Nation on Russell Creek in 1868, do you? A I can't swear positive.

Q Do you know of her living upon Vinegar Creek up close to Coffeyville in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether she did or not? A I don't know, I don't know anything about Vinegar Creek.

Q I will ask you if she lived there? A I don't know; I answered the question that way, I don't know.

Q You say you don't know Nelson Grubbs? A No, sir.

Q You don't know whether he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life or not? A Don't know him, I don't know any of them by that name.

Q Now you don't know this man, do you (indicating Nelson Grubbs)? A I can't see him.

Q He is right by the window and you ought to look at him; do you know him? A Well he looks like the Grubbs to me.

Q Well do you know him, do you know who he is? A Is it George?

Q Now you are positive? A Well he is in a little better shape, if he is George, than I have ever seen him.

Q You don't know whether the man sitting here is George Grubbs or not? A It is a pretty hard matter for me to place this fellow here.

Q I am asking you if ~~this~~ this fellow is George Grubbs? A I believe it is.

Q This man sitting here is George Grubbs? A I believe it is, it resembles him.

Q If it I would tell you it was Nelson Grubbs what would you say? A He must be a brother of George then.

Q You never saw that man in Kansas then? A Don't believe I ever did.

Q This man is Nelson Grubbs, and you will swear you never saw him in Iola Kansas, that you know of? A I don't think that I ever did, I never saw him that I know of, I can't tell him, it is a Grubbs though.

Q The only child of Nancy Grubbs then whom you know is George Grubbs? A George and Harry and Dick.

Q Where is Harry? A He is in Iola.

Q How old is he? A He must be probably 25 or more.

Q When did you see him in Iola? A I seen him there Saturday last.

Q What is he doing there? A He is in a livery barn.

Q For wages? A I suppose so.

Q Is he a single man? A No, sir.

Q Has a family? A Yes, sir, he has a wife, I don't know whether he has any children or not.

Q Well, where is George? A George, I saw him I think it was last Thursday.

Q Where did you see him? A In Iola.

Q What was he doing there? A Working.

Q What was he doing? A He was helping move a house.

Q How far is it from here to Iola, Kansas? A I don't know the exact distance, it is about 95 miles I suppose, something in the neighborhood.

Q Was he living there or just working there temporarily? A Why I don't know whether he lives in Iola or Humboldt, he lived in Humboldt last winter he told me, and I can't say whether he lives in Iola or Humboldt, he was working in Iola.

Mr. Hastings: Is Humboldt in Kansas? A Yes, sir, Allen County, Kansas.

Q Now Mr. Morris, as I understand you, you got acquainted with or learned to know these people about '63? A Yes, sir.

Q You saw them there last winter and some you saw the last few days ago? A Yes.

Q Between those two dates now have they lived there so far as you know? A So far as I know.

Q You never missed them? A Never missed them.

Mr. Mellette: Did you take it upon yourself to watch these people? A No, sir, oh no.

Q They might have been gone a year at a time without you knowing it? A I don't think they would, they possible might have been, I didn't watch for anybody very close, it is not my business, my business is attending to my own business, but as I say, if they were away from there I never knew it; well I have known of her going to the Nation a time or two but not to move here, I don't know of her moving here, she has made a few trips, her and George both, I don't know that Harry has ever made a trip.

J. E. THORP, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A J. E. Thorp.

Q What is your age, Mr. Thorp? A 64.

Q Where do you live? A Iola.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived in and about Iola, Kansas? A 44 years and a little upwards.

Q What is your occupation? A I have been a barber for the last 35 years, 32 years.

Q Do you know a colored woman by the name of Nance Ross, or Nancy Grubbs? A So called, yes, sir.

Q Where did you know her? A Immediately west of Iola, across the river, in the first place, a little way from Iola.

Q About how far did she live from town when you first knew her? A Two miles, two and a half, sir.

Q Well, about when did you learn to know her? A I think it was about '67, it was a year or more after I got home from service.

Q Where was she living? A West of the river a couple of miles from town.

Q How long did she continue to live at this place? A I can't say as to that, a year or two or three, I kept no count of it.

Q Where did she go from there? A Her family moved from there into town.

Q Well, did you know them after they came to town? A Yes, sir, that was the same as I knew other colored families, I knew of them.

Q Did you know the father and husband's name? A Mose I think.

Q You knew him? A Oh yes.

Q Did you know any other members of the family, the first names? A I knew of their father's, but I didn't know but very few of their names, really I couldn't keep track enough of them, on their names, I knew several of the oldest ones, there are probably several of the younger ones that I didn't know, I knew their names, it is Grubbs, there is a family resemblance.

Q How long did you know them, up to what time did you know this Nancy Ross or Grubbs? A Oh I have known her more or less all these years.

Q You know where she is now? A Well no I don't, my idea was that she was there at her home I guess, but I heard she is here in town now.

Q Then did you last know of her being up there at her home? A Well as I said in the lower court this morning, I have no absolute knowledge of her being at home since her family was quarantined last winter.

Q Well you know of her then being there as late as last winter?

A Yes.

Q Now have you known of them ever since you have learned to know them a year or two after the war, up to last winter?

Mr. Mellette: It strikes me that is about as leading a question as it can be; I object to that question upon the ground of being leading.

Commission: The objection will be noted; let him answer the question.

A Practically so, sir.

Q How far did you live from them last winter, your residence?

A Last winter, I think about seven blocks, about that.

Q Did you know Ned Foreman? A I did know him in the years gone.

Q How long has it been since you have seen him? A I can't tell you, I don't remember much of having seen Foreman very much since he married, he lives out east of town some six or eight or ten miles, maybe eight or ten or fifteen years ago, maybe longer.

Q Did you ever know Kizzie, a girl? A I knew of her, knew her by sight.

Q Did you know her husband? A I don't remember whether I did or not, no I didn't.

Q Did you know George Ross or George Grubbs? A Well now I can't state that except from what I heard in the preliminary examination when we referred to her having married Newman.

Q You don't know about that? A I probably know of it at the time, but it has escaped my memory; the probabilities are I did know of it at the time.

Q Well through these years did you ever know of this family moving away from there? A No, I have no knowledge of their ever moving away, not to my knowledge; they might have been gone at times for a couple or two or three months or perhaps a greater period of time, but I wasn't aware of it at all.

Q Could it have been possible for this woman and her family to have lived here ever since '66 in the Cherokee Nation? A Well scarcely.

Q If she swears that she moved here in '66 and lived here ever since, she is mistaken? A Well I rather think so; that would be my idea of it; profoundly mistaken.

Mr. Mellette: Where is that preliminary court you talk about?

A In the room below here.

Q What makes you call it a court? A I don't know whether it was a court or not.

Q Didn't they tell you that that is just the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know, perhaps they did.

Q Why did you come down here? A I was subpoenaed.

Q What kind of subpoena was served on you? A The same as the balance I presume.

Q Now what kind of subpoena was served on you, who signed that subpoena? A I think it was Mr. Keys.

Q Don't you know that subpoena isn't legal? A I don't know anything about it.

Q Do you people up there think that subpoena is binding on you folks to come down here? A That is the impression we got.

Q Why do you have that idea?

Mr. Hastings: That is the use of going into that; I am going to object to that.

Mr. Mellette: I simply want to know what kind of subpoena is being served on these people, whether they are coming of their own accord and voluntarily to appear as witnesses in these cases or whether they are coming in obedience to a legal subpoena, and if the subpoena served on them is a legal one, and if not, I want to know who signs it, by what process they are brought here, if they are voluntarily appearing as witnesses, it is a question that goes to their credibility; if otherwise, why they are entitled to know it. I simply want to know how this man is being brought here, upon what kind of a subpoena.

Mr. Hastings: If the commission pleases, it is enough for the attorney for the applicant to know that a subpoena was regularly issued and that this man was brought here; he was brought here at our instance, we subpoenaed him, he is here to give testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation. Now what would it avail him, what business is it of his to go into the question of the legality or illegality of the subpoena issued by the Cherokee Nation? That is a legal question that this commission don't know anything about nor would it be of any benefit to them in this case to investigate it; it is simply a side question. For the gentleman's information, I might say the Cherokee Nation passed a law authorizing the employment of attorneys before this commission, and that same law authorizes the issuance of these subpoenas by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, and these subpoenas were issued by the Cherokee Nation in obedience to that law, and there were served by people qualified to serve them upon these outside witnesses. It don't affect whether Nancy Grubbs came back here after the war, or whether she continued to reside here after that time.

Commissioner Breckinridge: I have no occasion to go into the question of the sufficiency of these subpoenas when served in the State of Kansas. If the witnesses themselves choose to raise the question and refuse to come, it would then arise before a court of competent jurisdiction. There has been a law passed by the Cherokee Nation and approved by the President of the United States providing for all these processes, and so long as these witnesses are here, the only point in which I am concerned would be the weight of their testimony. Even if they come without any subpoena, it is a question of the value of their testimony. A great many of the witnesses have come without any subpoena; they are selected from the crowd at the time. If the service of a subpoena is necessary for the proper accounting of the business to enable the Cherokee Nation to pay their mileage and per diem, I don't see any objection to it. I overrule any objection that seeks to exclude evidence upon ground of that character, and that evidence will be received, and as for going into the technical question of the subpoena, I see no occasion for that. I want to proceed upon the merits of the case and the value of the testimony. If you want to impeach the witness as to his integrity and character, why take steps to that effect; otherwise I consider the question as of no probable bearing or force. Counsel can put in the record any objection that he likes, but the case will proceed and the matter will be considered by the full commission when opportunity is offered.

Mr. Mellette: Now Mr. Tharp, where was Nancy Grubbs in 1886? A I think she was west of the river at that time living up there on a place they had rented.

Well, do you know where she was, can you swear where she was? I don't remember, I wouldn't say for certain that I was at their house in '86, but I think it was about in '87.

Well, are you willing to swear that you were at her house in '87?

A Oh I think I might, yes, sir.

Q Now if she swore that in 1867 she was in this country and went from Russell Creek up to Vinegar Creek, she is mistaken, is she?

A I think so, probably.

Q Now, you swear positively she is mistaken? A I think she was mistaken, I wouldn't say positively, but I think so just the same.

Q When did you get back from the army you spoke of? A I got home Christmas after, '65.

Q You said you saw her a year or two after you got back? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, was it one year or two? A I can't say as to that; I was hauling some wood for some man, over to a neighbor living just west of them, and I frequently went clear around by their house in order to avoid crossing two bad places.

Q But you can't say whether it was one or two years after you came back after the war, nor do you know where she was in 1867?

A I was passing there and saw the old lady; I think on one occasion I saw her husband planting potatoes.

Q I am not talking about the old gentleman? A Well I saw the members of the family there and while not being absolutely close enough, still I had plenty good eyes those days, that is my recollection, that I thought I recognized the old lady, I might have been mistaken but it is scarcely possible.

Q Was that two years after you came back after the war? A I don't think it was, inside of two years, no, sir, about two years, it was in the spring time I was hauling this wood from Mr. Elmer Reagan's farm, H. L. Reagan.

Q Did you know a child of Nancy Grubbs named Martha? A I don't think I did.

Q Do you know whether the Nancy Grubbs you have been talking about is the Nancy Grubbs who has applied here, or the Nancy Ross who has applied here for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman? A I can't say, just as I said in the lower room, whether a court or not, but I don't recollect ever having heard her called Nancy Ross at all.

Q But you don't know that the applicant here is the woman you have been talking about? A No, I know Mrs. Grubbs of course; whether she is the woman Ross or not now I don't know.

Q And whether she is the applicant or not you don't know? A Why if her name is Grubbs I presume it is the applicant.

Q Well, was there ever more than one Grubbs in the State of States?

A There was no more that lived there to my knowledge.

Q I saw, do you swear that the Nancy Ross who has applied here for enrollment is the Nancy Grubbs you have been talking about; do you?

A I think that it is all one and the same person.

Q Do you know who has applied here as Nancy Ross for enrollment?

A I don't know, I have been informed.

Q I am not talking about what you have been ~~was~~ informed; do you know who has applied here as Nancy Ross? A No, I do not.

Q Then do you know whether the Nancy Ross who has applied here as the Nancy Grubbs you are talking about? A I can't say it only in the way of a presumption, I took it granted of course in the way of a presumption it is the same.

Q Do you know Harry Grubbs? A Oh I have known of him I think.

Q Where was he born? A I can't say as to that.

Q Was he born in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you.

Q You don't know whether he was born in the Cherokee Nation or not?

A No, sir.

Q Well, if he was born in the Cherokee Nation, Nancy Grubbs was here at the time, wasn't she? A Probably was; probably was, without no must have been born at pretty long range.

Q Where did Mary Grubbs die? A Well sir, I think he died in Iowa. You swear that? A No, I don't, because I don't absolutely know outside of hearsay, that is how.

Q Now didn't he die in Port Scott? A I can't tell you sir.

Q Did you keep your eye on Nancy Grubbs all the time to know whether she came down here to the Territory? A For several years

I passed her door, some 12 or 14 years, on the way to my home, passed three or four times a day.

Q Was she at home all the time? A She might have been, I can't say as to that, I know I saw her frequently though; I might not have seen her for a ~~month or two~~ week or two weeks, but I wasn't aware by hearsay or otherwise of her being absent from there.

Q Well, you didn't make inquiry, did you, as to whether she was absent or not? A No, no.

Q She might have been absent and you not hear about it? A Possibly, she might have been absent ~~in~~ very frequently that I don't know of, possibly, for short periods, I think two or three or four days; I knew her and three or four boys, and I have some slight knowledge of a girl or two, I don't remember how many.

Q There was George born? A I can't tell you where any of them was born, I can't tell you whether they were born in the Cherokee Nation or Vinegar Creek or anywhere.

Mr. Hastings: I believe you stated that you passed their door three or four times a day for 12 or 14 years? A On my way from home to my shop, unless the weather was too extremely hot or stormy, I passed the door in going to my work and to my meals and back home again at night.

Q And during that time you never missed this woman? A Oh she was probably absent sometimes for a few days that I don't know anything of it, I know nothing of her being away.

M. G. ROBINSON, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A M. G. Robinson.

Q Where do you live? A At Iola, Kansas.

Q How long has Iola been your home? A Since the spring of '70.

Q Did you know a colored woman up there by the name of Nancy Grubbs or Nancy Roas? A Well, she was generally known as Nancy Grubbs.

Q I saw you know her? A Yes, sir.

Q About when did you learn to know her? A I don't know just how soon, it wasn't so very long after I came there, I can't say now just how long.

Q Now how long have you known her since, up to what time? A What I mean in a general way, knew their family in town, it has been my understanding they were there or some of the family all the time, or most of the time, well all the time; what I mean is some of the family.

Q Did you know her husband? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his name? A Mose, that is, he always went by the name of Moses Grubbs.

Q Well, did you know any of their children? A Yes, sir.

Q What was some of their names? A Well, there was one that was called, sometimes Ned Foreman, and some called him Ned Grubbs, and then there was George Grubbs and Kizzie Grubbs and Dick Grubbs, that was among the older children.

Q Do you know this one here (indicating Nelson Grubbs)? A This one here I believe yes, I am not sure whether it is George or Dick, one that they called Dick Grubbs.

Q Was there one they called Dick? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know any other name for Dick? A No, that was the general name he went by.

Q Do you know where Dick went to school? A Yes, sir, he went to school there at Iola; that is the same, he went to school there, he graduated there at the High School, that is my remembrance.

Q Did you know one they called Nelson, or did they have one by that name? A I don't remember one by that name, being called that.

Q You live in town? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your occupation? A Wagon maker, I run the whole thing, but then wagon making is my trade, wood work rather.

Q Where did these people live when you first knew them? A They were living west of the river on a farm there.

Q About how far from Iola? A Well it is somewhere, that is to go out where they lived, it would have been along about close to two miles, a mile and a half or two miles.

Q They lived there when you first learned to know them? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did they live over there before they moved to town? A I can't tell you, they lived there, it must have been they lived there in town, well from fifteen to twenty years anyhow.

Q In town? A In town; of course I had nothing to particularly call my attention to the time they came in.

Q Did you see them there as you saw other people? A Oh yes, the same as I would other people, that is all.

Q Did they ever work for you, any of the family? A One of the girls worked for us some, but I don't remember now which one it was.

Q Did you know one they called Harry? A I don't remember him, not by that name.

Q Did you know one by the name of Kizzie, a girl? A Yes, sir.

Q Know whether she is married or not? A Yes, sir, I think she is, that is my understanding.

Q Do you know her husband? A Yes, sir, Newman I believe, that is my remembrance now, that she married Newman.

Q You know where Newman lives? A I think he is living there in Iola.

Q You have never missed her? A I haven't missed her, no, sir.

Q Well, when was the last time you saw any of this family up there?

A Well it is hard to tell now, it seems to me that it has been a good while; last winter they had the smallpox there; I wasn't down there, but then that was the talk, they had it, that was the report.

Q Were they living in town then? A Yes, sir, same place they have been living ever since they have been there in town.

Mr. Mellette: Well, where was this woman whom you call Nancy Grubbs in 1875? A Well my remembrance is that she was there; that is, out on the farm, out west of town, that is, they were living on the farm there.

Q Do you know whether she wasn't down in the Cherokee Nation at that time? A No, sir, I don't; that is, not at that time.

Q Isn't it a fact that two of the children have always lived up there, Harry and Arthur of these applying for citizenship in the Nation, and that the other people come up there to visit them sometimes? A That I don't know, that is, about the living there, that is, I don't know that they have been away, I don't know that they have been away; my understanding is that they have been there.

Q I am not talking about your understanding? A Why I say I don't know that they haven't been away some.

Q You made the remark a while ago, that some of the family were there all the time? A Yes, sir.

Q Now what did you mean by that? A Well that the family, that is, that where they were living that the family was there.

Q Own any property? A Owned that farm.

Q All the family? A The Grubbs, that is, Nancy, and my understanding is, rather that that was her home.

Q You don't know that she was there all the time? A No, sir.

Q The children all lived there too, didn't they? A Well I think so, that is, those that I have mentioned.

Q Well Harry and Arthur? A Well Harry, yes, sir, I think so.

Q But you don't pretend to say that the old lady, Nancy Grubbs, has made that her home all the time? A Not all the time, no, sir.

Q Do you know anything about her living up on Vinegar Creek in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Do you know anything about her ever coming to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, only just of the reports is all.

Q Then you did hear reports? A I have heard that she has been here a few times.

Q And she might have been here when you didn't hear of it? A Yes, sir.

Q You moved to that country in 1870? A 1870, yes, sir.

Q And you knew nothing about Nancy Grubbs or her family before that time? A No, sir.

Q How long have you lived there, before you became acquainted with her? A I don't think it was a great while afterwards, I had just been there, just done some work for Mr. Grubbs, but I can't tell you now just how long, or how soon it was, it wasn't a great while after I went there.

Q One year or two years? A I am satisfied it was inside of two years.

H. P. GRAY, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A H. P. Gray.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Iola, Kansas.

Q How long has that been your postoffice, or home? A 23 years last December.

Q You know Nancy Grubbs, or Nancy Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A Well, I have known her for 23 years maybe now, I got acquainted with the Grubbs family right after I got there.

Q Where were they living when you got acquainted with them? A They were living in a little cabin a mile and a half west and a mile north of Iola.

Q Did they afterwards move to town? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know them after they moved there? A Yes, sir, they lived on the same street that I did, about six blocks south.

Q Now how long have they lived there? A Well, it is right close to 20 years, I wouldn't like to say because I didn't make any note of it.

Q Well, your best judgment as to the time? A My best judgment is it is eighteen years last spring since they moved in there.

Q You know where they moved from when they moved to town? A Yes, sir, they moved from that cabin.

Q Did you Nancy Ross' or Nancy Grubbs' husband, what his name was? A Mose Grubbs, yes, that is the fellow that I supposed was the husband.

Q Did you know any of the children? A Yes, sir.

Q Name some of them? A Well the oldest one was Lou I think that is the oldest one, and the next was Kiz, I may be mistaken now, I don't swear I know exactly, but Kiz and Dick - oh confound it I forget the other names, I would know it if I would hear it, but I don't recollect the names, they were the oldest; well George was older than Dick, George was next to Kiz according to my best judgment; he is about 28 years old I should think.

Q George married? A He has been once or twice, I don't know whether he has got a wife now or not.

Q Do you know where he lives? A No, I do not; I saw him this summer but I don't know where he lives.

Q Where did you see him? A He was there at Iola a few days.

Q Where is Ned Foreman? A Ned Foreman, he is down in this way or some other Nation, I forget, down here.

Q Do you know how long he has been away from up there? A About some three or four years ago last fall when he left there.

Q Where is this old woman, Nancy? A She lives there in town, I think, when she is at home, she is away some, she was down here about a year or two or three years ago, down in this country somewhere, close to this town.

Q Did you hear of the strip payment about that time? A Yes, she came about that time, her and all the balance of them up there, pretty near all.

Q Well I believe you said you got acquainted with them about '78? A Yes.

Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, I have always known her ever since that.

Q I believe you said they moved to town about

Q I believe you said they moved to town about 18 years ago, to the best of your judgment? A I think that is about it.

Q You know whether Kizzie is married or not? A I do not.

Q Do you know whether they had the smallpox in their family last winter or not? A I think they did, I was told them had by the Marshal, that is the man that told me, I didn't go down to see, for I had no use for the small pox.

Q Mr. Gray, do you know this one (indicating Nelson Ross.)? A Yes, I do now, he looks like Uncle Mose.

Q Looks like his father, does he? A Yes, it has been a long time since I have seen him to know him, I wouldn't have known him to meet him out on the streets, wouldn't have known him.

Q What did they call him up there? A I can't tell you now, but there is half of the fellows there, especially among the colored fellows had some kind of a nick name that nobody else don't know who they were except by that name.

Q But you just recognize him as a Grubbs? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Mellette: Well, who is this man sitting here (Nelson Ross.)? A He is one of the Grubbs family.

Q You swear that? A Well, I have always been told he was, and he used to live with them.

Q Well he hasn't been up in that country for a good many years, has he? A Oh I don't know, it hasn't been a great many years since he was there.

Q Did he go to school there? A Yes, sir.

Q How far is it from Iola to the Cherokee? A Well sir, I can't tell you.

Q About how far? A Why I should think it is right close to ninety miles, I may be away yonder mistaken because I never was over the road except I came down here the other night and I came all the time in the night.

Q Isn't it a fact it is about 80 miles? A Well it ought to be farther than that.

Q Well how long does it take to come from Iola to the Cherokee Nation? A It took me from eight o'clock in the morning till 5:15 the next morning to come here, but the biggest part of it was lying over waiting for trains.

Q How far is from here to where you live? A I don't know, I can't say anything about the distance, I never was over the road, I can't say.

Q What railroad do you live on? A I live on the Santa Fe and Missouri Pacific, they cross there at Iola.

Q How far do you live from Coffeyville? A I don't know.

Q About how far? A I can't tell you for I never was over that country and never paid no attention to it.

Q You don't live over fifty miles from Coffeyville? A Why I would think so.

Q Well, where did Nancy Grubbs live in 1875? A I can't tell you.

Q Where did Nancy Grubbs live in 1885? A She lived in town, I think.

Q Do you know that she lived there? A Well.

Q Do you know whether she was there at all during the year 1885? A In that country, yes, sir.

Q You swear she was there during that year? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see her? A There never has been a month I didn't know, that I didn't see her, only when she was down here about three years ago.

Q Well, we will confine ourselves to the year 1885 please, did you see her in 1885? A Well I don't know, I can't tell you, but they didn't live on their farm then, out in the country then.

Q Well, will you swear that you saw Nancy Grubbs at Iola in 1885? A I wouldn't answer that question, for I don't recollect.

Q Did you see her in 1885? A Oh I don't know what year I have seen her in, I never missed her from there, I don't recollect about the years.

Q Would you be likely to miss her if she would go away from home?
A Well I would suppose so.

Q Why? A Because I saw her frequently and she washed a great deal, or used to.

Q Well, is there any reason why you should keep track of her?

A Nothing only that she is an old settler there and I got acquainted with them when I first came to the country.

Q Do you pretend to say that Nancy Grubbs couldn't have been away from that town for six months without you knowing it? A No, I would not say that, most anybody could have been away from that town and me not know it, not know anything about it, but the family hasn't been away from there.

Q What do you mean by the family? A Why the children generally.

Q Well now name the children that you mean by saying the family?

A Well, Lou I guess, Lou has been away from the last several years, she died, she was Gravens' wife, she was Wash Ross' wife in the first place when I first knew her.

Q Now we are talking about Nancy Grubbs and not her family and I want to know whether you can swear that she hasn't been there all the time since you knew her, or not? A Well she has a great deal, the biggest part of the time, but I wouldn't say she hasn't been there all the time, I recollect once that she was at Fort Scott some little time but I don't recollect how long that was, the majority of the years since I have been there I run a meat market, I used to deal with the Grubbs when they had any meat to buy of me, and they usually bought meat right along, more or less.

Q Isn't it a fact that Nancy Grubbs hasn't kept house for twenty or thirty years? A No, it is not.

Q That the older children who lived in Iola kept the house there, Harry and Arthur? A Well they might have kept the house a great deal of the time, but Nancy Grubbs has been there.

Q You don't say she ever kept that as her house, she kept the house, run the house? A Why yes, I suppose so, she lived there.

Q Well, didn't she live there with her older children, Arthur and Harry? A Well now that is a question, whether she lived with them or them with her, I don't know how that was, but they all lived there.

Mr. Hastings: Now you have known them since '78 I believe? A Yes, sir.

Q Now how often, or about how often, have you seen them since that time? A Why I used to see them of course there near every week day, she nearly always came to town when she lived out in the country and washed every day, old Uncle Mose used to fetch her to town frequently and when he didn't she came afoot, and back home; she has washed for my folks lots of times.

Q Well, how frequently did you see her after she came to town? A Oh pretty near every big occasion, especially any sort of a social, she would always help the woman, everybody called her Aunt Nancy, she was known by that and nothing else.

Q Did you ever miss her for any considerable length of time? A No, I never missed her away from there any great length of time.

Mr. Mellette: Could she have been away from there without you missing her? A Oh she might, yes, sir, I don't suppose she was gone; she was a very popular colored woman among the women folks.

Commissioner: This testimony in this case will be made part of the record on Freedmen D-632, D-1020, D-1023, D-1009, D-318.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 12th of October, 1901.

Bruce C. Jones
Commissioner

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 493, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Nelson Ross, D 622;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to in the case of Roses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings.

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission; and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Applicant appears by Melliste & Smith, Cherokee Nation, by
W. W. Hastings.

For Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Heast Thibault, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 12202 filed in the Marius Hayden case F. D. 190, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Marius Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Marius Hayden, & c.

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he resided within the line specified in the Treaty of 1866, nor that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is immaterial, irrelevant and incompetent, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Marius Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provision of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Hall of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further avers that as to the above named cases involving the Marius Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed without cost to file any of the paper of any or all of the record cases and the decree already referred to.

in the case of James Whitaker, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

F. W. Hastings

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1898, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

Q Did your Choctaw man come with you? A No sir, he come after that; he was arrested; he couldn't come.

Q Who came with you the second time you came from the Choctaw Nation, after you were married? A I come back with mother; she carried us south and brought us back when she come in '66, and brought us back, and then when she come back again after she staid there six years we all come back with her.

Q The second time you came back then there was nobody along but your mother and her children? A No sir.

Q You came back the second time just like the first? A Yes sir.

Q She married when she went back the second time to the Choctaw Nation.

Q When did you marry this second husband? A Yes sir.

Q 21 years ago? A Yes sir, about going on 21 years, but he and him was married about 20 years ago.

Q Who was your mother? A Martha Thompson; used to be Martha Knight.

Q Used to belong to? A Bob Knight.

Q Do you recollect going out of here? A No sir.

Q Don't recollect anything about it? A No sir, that is too far back, I can't recollect nothing about that.

 A No sir, I never crossed any river.
 Q You don't know then how far it is from Horse Creek to Neosho River on that road? A No sir.
 Q Where were you driving your cattle to? A Back in re to Pryor Creek. Driving them home; John had cattle that run there.
 Q When was that- John- you mean John Albany when you say John?
 A Yes sir.
 Q When was that you drove John Albany's cattle from up the re down to Pryor creek? I reckon that's where he lived? A That's where he lived; it was before the war; that's all I can tell you; I can't tell you no year, because I don't know.
 Q You said you went a hundred times, I guess it was several years before the war? A No, it wasn't; I went every day after his cattle; drive a bunch home and go back and get more.
 Q How far was that from John Albany's? A I don't know, 10 or 12 miles or further.
 Q Make the trip easy enough in a day? A Yes sir, I could go up there and bring cattle back, sometimes he after night getting in.

Com'r Needles: Carrie West applied for the enrollment of herself and eleven children; she sworn that she is the wife of Callie West, and that she was a slave of Bob Knight, and Bob Knight is identified on the authenticated roll of 1880 as a Cherokee citizen; she applied for Henry, Callie, Jr., Cornelius, Charles, Carrie, Ella, Fattie, Walter, Willie, Martha and Vinita West; their names are not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880; but they are all duly identified upon the Ferns-Clifton roll with the exception of Walter and Martha and Vinita, whose names do not appear upon said roll; by reason of the fact that the name of said Carrie West does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880 and the further fact that the Cherokee Nation contest her enrollment, and that of her children, said Carrie West and her children enumerated here in will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon what is known as a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the commission; when the commission arrives at a conclusion as to her case she will be notified by mail; it will be necessary for her to file satisfactory proof with the commission of the birth of her children Walter, Martha and Vinita, their names not being on any roll.

H.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL; D-336, Freedmen.

Department of the Interior,
 Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
 Vinita, I. T., May 23, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Carrie West et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

R.D.Knight, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Appearances:

Applicant, Carrie West.

James Davenport, Cherokee Representative.

Q Give me your name? A R.D.Knight.
Q How old are you? A 54.
Q What is your post-office? A Vinita.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I guess you might call it 54 years.
Q All your life? A Yes sir.
Q You are here to give certain testimony in the case of Carrie West and others are you? A I suppose so.

Examined by Cherokee Representative James Davenport:

Q Mr. Knight, do you know the applicant, Carrie West? A Well, I suppose I do; I haven't seen her for over thirty years until a day or two ago.

Q Did you know her mother? A Yes sir.

Q What was her name? A Martha.

Q To whom did she belong, if anyone, at the breaking out of the war of the confederacy? A Well, I couldn't say whether we owned her then or not.

Q Did you leave the Cherokee nation during the war? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go? A Went to Texas, or to the Choctaw nation.

Q You know whether this applicant or her mother went? A Yes sir, she went there to the Choctaw nation.

Q To Texas and the Choctaw Nation? A Not to Texas; we didn't go to Texas; we called it going to Texas, but it was in the Choctaw nation, right on the line.

Q When did you return to the Cherokee nation after the war, to live? A My impression is in '67.

Q Where was the applicant and her mother at that time, when you came back, did they come before you did? A No, we left them in the Choctaw nation.

Q Then your recollection is you didn't come back until '67?

A That's my recollection of it, yes.

Examined by applicant, Carrie West:

Q I thought you said you came here in '66; that's my understanding, when I saw you seventeen years ago? A I don't remember seeing her seventeen years ago.

Q I saw you and traded in your store seventeen years ago, when I come up here to see mother, right here in town.

Q What sort of a store was it?

Q It was a dry goods and grocery store, right over on the other side of the railroad track, and here the other day you told me you came here in '66. Of course I don't know the year, and you know that yourself; there was no white folks educated the negroes to know dates or nothing at all about it, and my mother wasn't able to educate me, and she always said she come here in '66; said she come next year after she was turned loose.

Witness, R.D.Knight, examined by Com'r Breckinridge:

Q Mr. Knight, did you come at all in '66? A I did; I passed through this country in '66; come away from here through this country in '66.

Q Did you come back in '67? A No sir.

Q Where were you going in '66 when you first came to the Cherokee Nation? A Passed through here with a herd of cattle on my way to Lawrence, Kansas.

Q There was this woman, Carrie West, at that time? A I couldn't say where she was.

Q I want to know of course what you knew, not simply supposition?

A I don't know where she was but more than I see in a way, the supposition is she was at Sugar Creek, in the Choctaw Nation, in '66.

Q That's simply supposition? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever hear of Carrie West? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see her at Boggy Depot? A In '66.
 Q Do you recognize this woman as being that woman you saw in '66? A I don't recognize her, for as I said awhile ago this is the first time I have seen her for thirty years; I knew I saw such a woman and that time in '66, but I don't know that this is the same woman; I suppose it is.
 Q Was the person to whom you referred known as Carrie West at that time, in '66? A No sir.
 Q What was her name at that time? A She belonged to my father, at the close of the war; I suppose she took the name of Thompson, or at least her mother did.
 Q Do you remember the name of her mother? A Well, she married a man there that belonged to old man Alice Thompson, his name was Sid Thompson; I suppose that her mother of course assumed his name.
 Q Now what was her mother's given name? Martha.
 Q Do you know what name this woman Carrie West bore went by at that time, in '66? A No.
 Q You don't remember that? A No, she was just a child at that time; probably 10 or 12 years old.
 Q Did this woman's mother belong to your father? A Yes sir.
 Q Did this woman belong to your father? A Yes sir.
 Q That is to say, if this be the woman that you have in mind?
 A Yes sir.

Carrie West, being called and having been before sworn, being examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified:

Q Now Carrie West, what was the name of your mother? A Her name was Martha.

Q Did she marry a man named Sid Thompson? A Yes sir.

Q Did you and your father belong to the father of Mr. Knight, the witness? A Yes sir.

Q That's what she always said, that we belonged to the Knight? A Yes sir.

Q That was your understanding, always? A Yes sir.

Q This witness' father? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember this witness, R.D. Knight? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember him back in '66, when you were quite a girl?
 A Yes, sir, I recollects him.

Witness, R.D. KNIGHT, re-called and further examined;
 By Commissioner Breckinridge:

Q Now, Mr. Knight, when you finished that trip with cattle in '66 when did you return to the Choctaw Nation? A I think I left Lawrence, Kansas about the first day of August, right along about that time.

Q And go immediately down to the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q And when did you leave the Choctaw Nation to come again to the Cherokee Nation? A Moved home, my recollection is, in '67.

Q What time in '67? A Probably in August I expect, September, somewhere along there; late in the summer.

Q You suppose it was about a year after you closed up your cattle deal? A Well, yes, somewhere in the neighborhood of that.

Q Well, where was this woman, Carrie, and her mother, Martha, when you left the Choctaw Nation in '67 to come back to the Cherokee Nation the second time? A I think she was there at this man Thompson's at Boggy Depot in the Choctaw Nation.

Q You think she was? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know she was? A I don't know; that's all a good while ago, and my recollection is we come back to get her and her mother and bring them back home.

Q Why didn't you get them? A Because they wouldn't come.

Q Have you any distinct recollection of applying to them to come? A No sir, I only have my father's word for it; he said he came by to get them.

Q You were not with your father? A Yes, sir, we was all together, quarter of a mile away when he went to the house to see her.

Q You did not see her at that time. A I didn't go to see her.

Q You know she did not come with you and your father? A Yes sir, I know that.

Q Are you distinct in your recollection that the reason she did not come was because she refused to come, or because she had already come? A Well, my recollection, my impression at the time was that she didn't come was because her husband or her stepfather wouldn't come; the man that her mother married, belonged to Thompson and he lived in the Choctaw Nation, and that she staid with Thompson; I don't know whether there was any explanation made as to why.

Q That was the time you and your father came? A Yes sir.

Q And that, you say, was in the summer of '67? A That's my recollection.

Q Well now, that recollection, is it in the nature of positive knowledge or simply an impression? A Well I can't say; it has been a good while ago, and I only know of what I done and the amount of time about that I should spend to do what I did and it would take me until '67 to get around to it, from '66, from the time I left Lawrence, Kansas.

Q Are you sure you did not go to Kansas in '65 with your cattle? A Yes sir, I am positive; I was at Shreveport, Louisiana in '65.

Q And you are sure it was after that you went to Kansas? A It was the next spring; spring of '66 I went to Kansas.

CARRIE WEST, the applicant, re-called, and further examined, by Commissioner Breckinridge:

Q Is there any witness you want to produce here? A Yes sir.

Q Bring up any witness you have got? A She is in town here.

Commissioner Breckinridge: This will be filed as additional testimony in Cherokee Freedmen case D-236, and a note will be made on the card.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this May 29, 1901.

Q Where did she go to? A To the Choctaw Nation.

Q Do you know when she came back to the Cherokee Nation? A She came back, the first I saw of her along in '88.

Q You saw her in '88? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A I saw her at Gibson the first time.

Q Have you seen her occasionally since that time? A I seen her then again at Tahlequah.

Q After that? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you see her after that? A I never seen her no more after that. I never seen her anymore until she come back again.

Q She went to the Choctaw Nation? A She went back to the Choctaw Nation and I never seen her until she come back again.

Q How long, five or six years? A Yes sir, as much as five or six years.

Q Have you seen her occasionally since that time? A Yes sir.

Q She has lived in the Cherokee Nation since that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know her children? A I know them when I see them; I just can't name them all.

Q Do you know Bertie Tinnon? A I know her, yes, sir, when I see her.

Q Do you know the boy, Lunnis? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he living? A Yes, sir, he was living with her when I first knew him.

Q You don't know whether he is alive to-day or not? A No sir, I don't.

L. B. Ball What time in the year 1888, did you see this applicant?

A It was along in the spring when I seen her.

Q That is along in April or May? A Somewhere along there; I couldn't tell you the month, anyhow the grass and leaves were out.

Q What were you doing in Gibson then? A I was riding around.

Q Just riding around? A Riding around, sir.

L. B. Ball of Applicant. Who brought you back to Webbers Falls?

A I come back by self, me and my mother.

Q Nobody in your crowd? A No sir.

Q Where did you start from when you started back to Webbers Falls?

A I started back home.

Q Where did you start from? A From the Choctaw Nation.

Q The Choctaw Nation is a good big place? A From Salt Creek.

Q Old Dave Thompson's Salt Creek? A Yes sir.

Q Close to Beggs Depot? A Yes sir.

Q. What time of the year did you start from there in 1866?
 A. Why it was along in the spring.
 Q. The grass was up, was it? A. Yes sir.
 Q. How did you come? A. Come by wagon.
 Q. About how long was you on the road? A. Well, I don't know, sir, how long we were on the road.
 Q. A month, I guess it was one hundred miles or two? A. I guess it was, I don't know how far it is from here to the Choctaw Nation.
 Q. I mean from Thompson's Salt Creek down to Webbers Falls? A. I don't know how far.
 Q. Were you as much as three weeks on the way? A. Yes, and maybe four.
 Q. How long did you stop at Webbers Falls? A. We didn't stop very long at Webbers Falls.
 Q. A week or two? A. About one week or two.
 Q. And then you came to Gibson? A. Yes sir, came right on through.

 Q. How old are you? A. 70 years old.
 Q. What is your postoffice? A. Choctaw.
 Q. Are you a Freedman? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Your name is not on the roll of 1860, is it? A. No sir.
 Q. Do you know the applicant here, Katie Goody or Katie Blackwell?
 A. Katie Goody, yes sir.
 Q. Was she a slave before the war? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Who did she belong to? A. To the Sanders.
 Q. Do you know whether she was taken out of the Cherokee Nation or not during the war? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Where to? A. She went South.
 Q. To the Choctaw Nation? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Do you know when she returned? A. Yes sir.
 Q. When? A. In '66.
 Q. How do you know that? A. I saw her at Gibson in '66.
 Q. Do you know how long she stayed in the Cherokee Nation at that time? A. No sir.
 Q. You don't know whether she went back to the Choctaw Nation or not? A. No sir.
 Q. But you saw her in '66 in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Did you know her then? A. Yes sir.
 L. B. Bell: What time in the fall of '66 did you see her? A. It was kind of warm weather. I don't know exactly what time.
 Q. Was it summer or spring? A. I think it was summer. It was warm.
 Q. Were you living then at Gibson? A. No sir, I never lived at Gibson; never was there but three days at a time in my life.
 Q. You just happened to be there that day? A. Yes sir, I used to go there pretty often.
 Q. Did you see her there pretty frequently for the next two or three years? A. No sir.
 Q. Did you see her anywhere? A. No sir.
 Q. You saw her at that time? A. Yes sir.
 Q. Where did Sanders live when she belonged to? A. They lived alone to Flint at that time, I reckon it is.
 Commissioner Needles: Is Flint District you mean, do you?
 A. Yes, sir, I thought it was Flint.
 L. B. Bell: Were you ever at the house? A. Yes sir, I have been at the house; that is not right at their house, I met them at a church.

Q Name someone in that neighborhood? A I wasn't acquainted there.

Q You seemed to be, you knew this woman pretty well? A They were raised with me. Sanders' sinit the first people that raised them.

Q They were raised on a place with you? A Not here, but older people.

Q I am asking you what you know about her? A I told you what I know about her.

Q You don't know where she did live, only that she lived in the nation? A That is all, I never was at her house.

Q You never seen her until you met her in '88? A Yes sir, I saw her before.

Q Where did you see her before? A On Peavine Creek near the Peavine place.

Q That was a creek down in DeWitts district, wasn't it?

A I don't know where it was.

Q What did you understand by Peavine? A That is what they called the creek, Peavine.

Q Was you ever down on Peavine? A Yes sir.

Q When? A Before the war, I come from there.

Commissioner Needles: You say Sanders lived in Flint District?

A I don't know exactly, it was down in that way.

Q You are not positive whether it was Flint District or not?

A No sir.

Commissioner of Applicant: You know that these three children, Gertie Tinnon, Lennie Tinnon, and Thomas Ross are alive now are they?

A Yes sir, I brought the little girl with me.

Q Where is your boy? A He is in jail.

Q Who is Lennie living with? A He is living with Johnson Vann.

Ratie Blackwell applies for the enrollment of herself, her sister's children, Gertie Tinnon and Lennie Tinnon, and her child, Thomas Ross. She avers that she was a slave of the Sanders family, Mary and Tom Sanders, and avers that she was taken out of the Cherokee Nation into the Choctaw Nation, and returned in '88. Her name is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, nor the census roll of 1890. Her name is found upon the Kerns Clifton Roll, and the names of the three children, Gertie Tinnon, Lennie Tinnon and Thomas Ross, are found upon the Kerns Clifton Roll. She avers that she has been married three times: first, to Thompson, second, to one Blunt or Gaddy, and thirdly, to her present husband, John Blackwell. She is duly identified according to page and number of the roll as indicated in the testimony, and makes satisfactory proof as to residence. By reason of the fact that her name is not found upon the authenticated roll, and of the protest of the Cherokee Nation, she and the children as enumerated herein will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card awaiting further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at a decision in her case, she will be notified of the same by mail.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission on the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fort Gibson, E. T., September 21, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Katie Blackwell et al
for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee nation.

Appearances:

Vellotto & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
T. F. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

HENRY DEAN, appearing before the commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Q. What is your name? A. Henry Dean.
Q. What is your age? A. About 33, somewhere along about 50.
Q. Where were you born? A. Born in Missouri, I reckon, I came from Missouri, I don't know exactly where I was born.
Q. Where did you go during the war? A. Went to Texas.
Q. Were you in Texas at the close of the war? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where were you for the first two or three years after the war?
A. I was there on the frontier and around about in Texas and there.
Q. Well, about how long after the war was it before you left Texas?
A. Well I reckon it was somewhere along four or five years, about five years I reckon, somewhere along there, I never kept no count of the time, I just suppose about that time.
Q. That is your best judgment? A. Yes, sir, might have been longer.
Q. Where did you go to when you first left the state of Texas? A.
When I first left there I went to the Choctaw Nation and then I went to the Chickasaw Nation.
Q. Do you know Katie Blackwell, or Katie Spady? A. Well, I don't know them by that name.
Q. Well, did you know Katie Thompson? A. Yes, sir, I know Katie
Thompson.
Q. Did she have a sister? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was her sister's name? A. She had one named Dicey.
Q. Did you know Katie's mother? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And what was her name? A. Her name was Martha.
Q. Did Martha have any other children besides Katie and Dicey?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was their names? A. One boy by the name of Charley Flag-burne.
Q. You testified in his case the other day? A. Yes, sir, and had a girl by the name of Peepie.
Q. Well, was this Katie married when you first knew her? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was her husband's name then? A. Albert Thompson.
Q. What was Albert Thompson, was he a Freedman? A. Yes, sir, Choctaw Freedman.
Q. Did you ever know of her having any body else as her husband since that time? A. No, sir, I say know it, I don't know it.
Q. Did you ever know of her going by any other name since that time? A. Yes, sir, they had another name but then I don't remember it, I don't know who her husband was, I know she was married up here about Lightning Creek here somewhere but I forgot her husband's name.
Q. Was she married to, or was she married at all when you knew her first? A. Yes, sir, she was married.
Q. What was her husband's name? A. Kogis G. Frell.
Q. Did she have any children when you knew her first? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I think she had children, I am a little short of remembrance about that, about how many children she had, whether she had one or ten, I know she had one but I don't know she had the other two when I first knew her or not, I have forgot.

Q Now when did you know Fattie and Dickey and her mother first?

A Well, we were on a little creek they called Sandy.

Q In what Nation or State? A In the Chickasaw Nation, near Cherokee Town, about eight miles below Cherokee Town on the Washita River close to the Washita river, between Cherokee Town and old Fort Arbuckle. It was about the same distance I reckon from that.

Q About the same distance from Cherokee Town and Fort Arbuckle?

A Yes, sir, just about the same distance between them, it wasn't just on the Arbuckle road.

Q When was it you knew her first, how long had you been over there? A Well, sir, I can't tell you, I had been there though, I think though about four years, but just the time I can't tell you the day or the time.

Q Tell where, about four years? A It was in the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Well when did you leave the Chickasaw Nation? A I left the Chickasaw Nation in about '74 I guess.

Q Where did you go to? A Went to Tahlequah.

Q Who came with you to Tahlequah? A These people.

Q Just go ahead I want to know you to specify them? A

Martha Thompson, that was Sid's wife, and Charley Blagburns.

Q Who was Charley, what relation was he to Martha? A Charley Blagburns was Martha's son.

Q Give all of Martha's children that was along that you can remember? A Well, there was Fattie Thompson and Dickey Sorrell and Terry Thomas and Nan Hallett, and Mary Ann, that was her youngest child.

Q Was Fattie married? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was she married to? A Charley Thomas.

Q Well, where was Charley and his wife living when you first knew her? A They were living there on that Sandy road about half a mile or three quarters from the old lady, from her mother.

Q Did Fattie come up with you? A Yes, sir, I brought her in my wagon, she is the one I hauled up here.

Q How many wagons did you have along in that crowd? A Three.

Q Now all these people you have mentioned you brought up, didn't you?

A I brought up Dickey and Fattie in my wagon.

Q Well, these others that you mention came along in the same crowd?

A Yes, sir, they were all the same.

Q Through what district did you come? A Well now I can't tell you.

Q I mean up in this country, I don't mean below? A Well I came through Fort Gibson.

Q How long did you stop there? A I didn't stop here but a few minutes, just stopped there in town and drove on through.

Q Did they say anything about having been here before? A No sir, never said anything to me about it.

Q Made no mention about it? A No, sir.

Q You went on to Tahlequah? A Yes, sir, I went on out to Mr. Dennis' out here and left the Sorrell family, it was on the Four Mile Branch to Mr. Dennis.

Q Was Fattie married when you first knew her? A Yes, sir.

Q Was Dickey? A Yes, sir.

Q Were they keeping house down there or not; what were they doing?

A Well, when I first knew them they were not keeping house, they were in the house with the old lady, but they did keep house shortly after that.

Q What were they doing for a living down there? A Well, Sorrell was a barbering around and sometimes he would farm around a little.

Q That was Thompson, Fattie's husband? A Well, he was just working around for wages, and making a little patch.

- Q What was Martha's husband, Sidney? A He was farming, had a little place of his own there.
- Q Was Temple married when you first knew her? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did any of these people marry after you became acquainted with them down there? A Charley Blackburn I think married down there.
- Q Do you remember how many children Katie had when she came up with you? A Let's see, I will have to count them up a little and see if I know, there was Jess and Henry and a girl they called, her nick name was Dude, I forget what her right name was, but they called her Dude, and a little boy named Dan, I believe that is all she had.
- Q Well, do you remember whether Dicey had any children, when she came up? A She had one or two, I know she had children, I think two children but it kinder seems to me like one of the children was born here, but I won't be certain about it.
- Q Well did Temple Thomas have any children? A Yes, sir, she had two children.
- Q I mean when you came up here? A Yes, sir, I think she had two when we came up here, a girl died, the one she brought here.
- Q Do you remember their names? A The boy, Will was his name.
- Q Did you mention one of them by the name of Nancy awhile ago, one of Martha's children? A Yes, sir, Man.
- Q Was she married? A Yes, sir, Hallstock.
- Q Did she come with you? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did she have any children? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was their names, do you remember? A I think one of them was named Kat, I have mighty nigh forgot their children's names, Kat and Martha, seems like one was named Martha, I think Martha is dead though, there isn't but one of the girls living that she brought here.
- Q Why do you fix the date of '74, as the date of your coming out with these people? A Well, the reason why that, I was taking the figures in this way, when we come it was the year, we came the fall before the first ten dollars, that bread money was paid out, and that was paid out in '75 that was.
- Q And you came the fall before that payment? And we came the fall before that payment and that is why I have give it about in '74, about the time them additions was put up at the assembly.
- Q How far did these people live apart in the Cherokee Nation?
- A The families.
- Q Yes? A Well they lived, Temple lived about between half a mile and three quarters from their mother.
- Q Was they all in the same neighborhood? A Yes, sir, all right in the same neighborhood.
- Q Did you know Jim Ross down there? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was he there when you first went over? A I don't know, sir whether he was or not.
- Q That other people lived around in that neighborhood, any Chickasaws or freedmen, people living there? A Yes, sir, Zach Gardinet and old Lady Howell, I don't know her name, and she had a son by the name of John Howell, and then she had a son was a doctor, they all called him Doctor Howell, I don't know what his name was only Doctor Howell, and they was about the closest around, the others was Chickasaws, had Chickasaw names, Nelson Chigley and several others, there was another man lives right close there but I don't remember his name I was well acquainted with him too but I have forgot him.
- Q How long about how long did you say you knew these people there before you moved out with them? A About four years.
- Q Well, how old are you? A About 50 I guess.
- Q Are you a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation, A No, sir, I am not.
- Q You claim to be? A No, sir.
- Q Where does this woman live now you have been talking about?

Q Which one?

Q Katie Blackwell? A I don't know, sir, she lives somewhere out on the --

Q How long since you have seen her? A I haven't seen her for about eight or ten years I reckon.

Q How long has it been since you came here with her, how many years? A Why I don't know just how many years, that is something I don't keep the date, I came here in about '74.

Q Well now you figure it out how many years you have been here, you say it was '74 when you came here, how many years has it been? A I can't tell you, without I sit down and take me I don't know how long to count it.

Q How do you know it was '74 you came here? A Reason I know it, I am going by the time that that money was paid out, I came the fall before that ten dollars was paid out.

Q How do you know that money was paid out in '74? A Well I am giving the time.

Q How do you know that money was paid out in '74? A Well I don't know it.

Q What year did you go to Texas in? A I don't know that.

Q Where do you live? A I live at Tahlequah.

Q How long have you lived there? A Lived there about something over 26 years or maybe longer, I have lived there ever since I came to the country.

Q Why can't you tell what year you went to Texas? A Why I was a boy, a little fellow, I don't know anything about it, I was carried there by my owners.

Q What year did you go into the Chickasaw Nation from Texas? A I don't know, sir.

Q Can't you give an idea? A No, sir, I can't.

Q How is it then that you remember the year you came to this country and don't remember anything else or any other year? A Well sir, I don't know, I don't remember that only by the time, I got the count of the time that I came here, what was done, and figured it up from that time.

Q Now look back here, you don't know anything about the payment in 1875, you don't remember that any payment took place in '75 do you? A Yes sir I do.

Q Do you remember the year? A I remember the payment.

Q Do you remember it was in '75? A Well I am just going by the time, according to the time I got there.

Q How do you know that any payment took place in 1875 here? A Well they paid ten dollars here.

Q How do you know it was '75? A It was the spring after I came here in the fall.

Q Well what year did you come here? A Well we must have come here in the fall, '74.

Q Why? A Because the money was paid out the next spring.

Q Well what year was that money paid out? A In '75.

Q How do you know? A Just because I know when I came here.

Q How do you know that that money was paid out in '75; answer that question; now answer it straight. A Simply because I was here when it was paid out.

Q Will you answer my question, how do you know it was 1875? A Well sir, I will tell you as best as I can about it, the fact that they put up that barn here, but oh yes, I am going according to the time that there is people that figured up the time.

Q Who figured up the time for you? A Well I don't know as anybody has figured it up for me, only I am going by the year that the people counted that this seminary was put up, in 1875, just the people at large; now that is the way I got it.

Q You are testifying from what the people at large said about the date? A Yes, sir, that is the way it is.

Q Well, do you know that the money you have been talking about here, Katie, is the woman who has applied here for citizenship?

A If it is Katie Thompson it is.

Q If it is Katie Thompson it is? A Yes, sir, the mother of Henry and Kessie and these other children.

Q Who else was she the mother of? A Duds and I believe that is all.

Q Now give the names of Katie's children, all you know? A Well Jessie and Henry and Duds and Dan, Duds was a sick name I think, I don't know, the child might have had some other name, but that is the mother of them children.

Q Do you know these two women here (indicating Lucinda Blackwell and Ann Williams)? A No, sir.

Q Ever see them? A If I did I don't know it.

Q Don't you know they were children of Katie Blackwell; the applicant here? A No, sir, I don't know it.

Q Did they come from Texas with you when you say you came here with this woman Katie? A I don't know whether they did or not.

Q Well you ought to know it.

Mr. Hastings: You needn't argue the point.
Q I will ask you if they came with you from Texas, with Katie Blackwell, when you say you came with them? A I don't know whether they did or not.

Q Look at them? A Well it has been ten years since I have seen them.

Q You have seen the family of Katie Blackwell within ten years?
A I have seen her, I haven't seen her whole family, her children, more than Henry and Jessie, I have seen them.

Q How old is Henry? A I don't know, sir.

Q How old is Jessie? A I don't know how old he is.

Q Did Katie have a child by the name of James? A No, sir, not as I know of.

Q James Ross? A Not as I know of.

Q You say that Katie Blackwell has a sister by the name of Dicey?
A Yes, sir.

Q What other name did she have besides Dicey? A Dicey Sorrellis.

Q Did they ever call her Dicey Tinnon? A I don't know, she might have got that Tinnon name after she came here.

Q Ask you if she was ever called Dicey Tinnon? A I don't know.

Q You never knew of her being called Dicey Tinnon? A They might have that might have been her name.

Q Did you ever know of her being called Dicey Tinnon? A Yes, sir.

Q What do you mean by testifying that way; didn't you say just now that she might have been called that, that she might have married some man by the name of Tinnon? A Yes, sir, I said that.

Q And now you swear you don't know she was called Dicey Tinnon?
A Why I do.

Q When was she called Dicey Tinnon? A I haven't heard of her being called Dicey Tinnon the last time I was up on Big Creek, that Dicey Tinnon was it.

Q Why didn't you tell Mr. Hastings she was called Dicey Tinnon?
A I didn't know her by that name at that time.

Q You don't know now whether she was ever called Dicey Tinnon?
A I have heard she was.

Q Who told you? A Charley Blackburn, that is her brother.

Q Charley Blackburn? A Yes, sir.

Q You are giving the name right are you? A That is right as far as I know it.

Q You knew this woman by the name of Katie Blackburn? A No, sir, I knew her by the name of Katie Thompson.

Q You don't know how long these people you are talking about had lived down there in the Chickasaw nation? A No, sir, I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know whether they had been to the Cherokee Nation before that time, do you? A No, sir, I don't know anything about that, whether they had or not, I just got acquainted with them right there.

Commission: This testimony will be made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful cases: D-327, Katie Blackwell; D-333, Lucinda Blackwell; D-334, Ann Williams; D-343, Vinita Martin; D-438, Mattie Madden, D-629, Mattie McNair; D-754, Jesse Roach; D-756, Daniel Thompson; D-757, Henry Chambers.

HENRY PEAN, recalled by attorney for applicants, testified further as follows:

Mr. Bellette: You say the woman, Katie Thompson, that you are talking about, had a sister named Laura? A No, sir.
Q Well, did she have a daughter by the name of Laura? A No, sir.
Q Didn't you say awhile ago that she had a daughter or a sister by the name of Laura? A No, sir.
Q You are certain you didn't say that? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, where did you see this woman, Katie Thompson, ten years ago, you say you saw her then? A I saw her up on Lightning Creek.
Q That were you doing up on Lightning Creek? A I went up there to a celebration.
Q Were you at her house? A No, sir.
Q Where did you see her? A I seen her there at the celebration.
Q Where was that celebration? A On Lightning Creek.
Q What place on Lightning Creek; Lightning Creek is pretty long? A It was there in the settlement, if I can think of the man's name, along there about Wayden, uncle Moss Whitmires, somewhere along in there.
Q How long did you stay up there? A I didn't stay up there but a few days.
Q That the only time you have been up in that country? A No, I have been up there several times; I said about ten years ago, I was guessing at the time, it might have been a little shorter time or might have been longer.
Q Did Wayden live there at that time? A Yes, sir, he lived out there.
Q What kind of a celebration was that? A The 4th of August.
Q Was it on Lightning Creek? A Yes, sir.
Q How far from Wayden's store? A I don't know just how far it was, I don't know whether he had a store there at that time.
Q Did he or did he not have a store there? A I don't know, sir, I can't tell you.
Q Did he live there? A He lived there.
Q How far was that from his house? A I don't know sir, I don't know where his house is, I was never at his house.
Q Did you see his house? A I never saw his house.
Q Where did you stay when you went up there? A I stayed at Looney Glass' and to Elias Wrights.
Q Where does Looney Glass live? A Lives there right there on Lightning Creek, not far from the celebration ground.
Q Was there any building there where they had the celebration? A No, it was there just in the open woods.
Q No school house? A The school house was a little piece from there, I never went around to it.
Q No church house? A School house or church house, or something of that kind isn't far from there, I didn't pay any attention to such things as that.
Q That the only time you were up there? A No, sir, been right over the celebration ground, but I couldn't locate the grounds by ac ing over them.

Q How long did you see this woman at that time? A I just seen her that day.

Q Spoke to her? A Yes, sir.

Q Talk to her? A Didn't have very much talk, I just passed and spoke.

Q Just spoke to her as you passed? A I stopped and spoke to her and talked a little but didn't have very much talk, just passed on.

Q You will swear that was the woman you came from Texas with?

A Yes, sir, from Chickasaw Nation.

Q Can't be mistaken about that? A No, sir, can't be mistaken about that.

FRANK PACK, appearing before the commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A Frank Pack.

Q What is your age? A 40.

Q You know Henry Bean, the witness that just left the stand?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Been knowing him ever since '74 or '75, somewhere along there.

Q Where did you get acquainted with him? A Got acquainted with him at Tahlequah.

Q You know when he came to Tahlequah? A It was along about '75 or '74 when I first seen him, that is my recollection.

Q You know when that first payment was made? A I think it was in '75 if I mistake not, somewhere along about there.

Q Do you know Watis Thompson and Dickey Serrells? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when she came to Tahlequah? A She came there about the same time Henry Bean did, I seen them all just about the same time; they lived in about three miles and a half of where I lived, and stayed there a while and along in about '75 why my mother died and we moved off and rented the place to some of them, they moved over on our place across the river and made a crop there one year.

Q How far is that from Tahlequah? A That is about six miles east.

Mr. Belletts: Now you say you first saw this man Henry Bean in '74? A '74 or '75, along in there somewhere.

Q How can you remember it was that year? A Because my mother died in '75 and I had seen them a while before she died, I got acquainted with them.

Q How long before your mother died? A I can't say how long.

Q One or two years? A It wasn't that long, I don't think it was hardly a year.

Q What reason had you for remembering when Henry Bean came to this country? A Because I told you my mother died along about '75, and I seen them a little before she died.

Q That didn't have any connection with her death did it? A He was always around where we were, we were neighbors.

Q Why does the death of your mother make you remember when you first saw Henry Bean? A Because they were not very many strange people moved in there then and they moved in close to where we lived and that makes me remember them.

Q Do you remember any other colored man that came in that country about that time? A I expect I would if they would mention some of them.

Q Why do you fix your memory on Henry Bean? A Because he was a stranger and came right in close neighbors to us.

Q Was he any kin to you? A None at all.

Q You were 15 years old at that time? A I guess I was somewhere along about there, I recollect it mighty well though.

Q And you can remember it was '74 or '75? A Yes, sir.

Q When was your recollection first brought to bear upon the question as to when Henry Bean came into your country? A It always has been that way.

Q Do you know John Pease? A Yes, sir.
 Q When did you first see him? A I can't tell exactly, he was quite small when I first saw him.
 Q Where did you first see him? A At Tahlequah.
 Q When? A Along, I can't say exactly, he was a small boy.
 Q Give us an idea when you first saw him? A Well I can't really say, it was way after I seen Henry, I know that, and John was quite a boy.
 Q How Pease, Henry Pease, came to that country when you were about 15 years old and you have remembered that from that time on the year that he came there? A Yes, sir.
 Q Are you employed by the Cherokee nation now? A Yes, sir.
 Q In what capacity? A I am just working with them, working for them, anything they want me to do around about the office I am right there working.
 Q You are connected with the Cherokee officers who have charge of this enrollment, are you not? A I am working for them.
 Q You are kept here as a witness are you? A Not particular I don't guess.
 Q Then what do you do for the Cherokee nation? A Anything they want me to do, clean up the room, bring water, go and get the mail, anything they ask me I go and do it.
 Q And you are willing to swear positively that Henry Pease came about Tahlequah in '76 or '75? A Yes, sir.
 Q You knew that you saw him when he first came? A Yes, sir, I am positive. I know what I am talking about.

L. B. Bell, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Q How old are you? A 62 years.
 Q What is your post-office? A Tahlequah.
 Q Mr. Bell, what was the date, to your knowledge, of that first payment that was made some eight or ten or twelve years after the war? A Well it was what we call the Great money, the first payment we had, was in '75; some of them call it the $10.40 payment, and the ten dollar payment.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Cherokee, I.T. June 10, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Adaline Hardman for the enrollment of herself and one child as Cherokee Freedmen; before sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, she testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Addie Rider.
Q How old are you? A About 19 or 20.
Q What is your post-office address? A Wimer.
Q What district do you live in? A Coowaseeowee.
Q You apply to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Who do you want to enroll besides yourself? A My Baby.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q What is your husband's name? A Joseph Hardman.
Q If you are married to Joseph Hardman how did you do your name happen to be Rider? A That's my old den name.
Q What is the name of your child? A Effie Ida Hardman.
Q How old is she? A 2 years old.
Q What was your father's name? A Andy Rider.
Q Has he been listed for enrollment? A I reckon he has.
Q What is your mother's name? A Mary Rider.
Q Where were you born? A In this Nation.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have you always lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A Yes sir.
Q Is your father on the roll of 1880? A I don't know.
Q Why wasn't you here to be enrolled with him? A Maria, I always enrolled with her.
Q Has she been enrolled? A Yes sir, she enrolled Saturday.
Q Did you draw what is known as Strip money? A Yes sir.
Q Is your husband living? A Yes sir.
Q Are you and him living together? A No sir.
Q How long have you been married? A About three years.
Q Cherokee Rep've Hastings: My recollection is your mother was enrolled as Riley? A I know she is.

Kern-Clifton pay roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant identified the roll as follows:
page 172 #4224 Adaline Rider, Coowaseeowee District.

- Q Your father and mother are neither on the roll of 1880 are they?
A I don't know.

1880 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined for applicant's parents, and names not found thereon.

- Q Your mother's name ever Mary Riley? A Yes sir, her name is Mary Riley now.
Q How did it happen to be Riley? A Because she married a Riley.
Q Did she have a granddaughter named Rosa McHair? A Yes sir.
Q You born and raised in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

By Cherokee Rep've Hastings:

- Q You lived here all your life? A Yes sir.
Q Where have you lived? A On Big Creek.
Q You have lived there ever since you can remember? A I have lived on Panther Creek, I just went to Big Creek to live along in March.

Com'r Needles: Adaline Hardman applies for the enrollment of herself and child, Effie Ida Hardman; her name cannot be found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of

Amelia Hardman et al 2

1890, but is identified on the Kern-Whitman Day roll, as Amelia Rider, according to page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony. She swears that she is now a child of Mary Rider who was listed for enrollment on D card 184; the testimony taken in the case of said Mary Rider will be made a part of the record in the case at bar, and a copy filed herewith. She swears that she is now married to one Joseph Hardman, by whom she has one child, little Ida Hardman, two years of age, and she makes satisfactory proof of birth of said child; she makes satisfactory proof as to two losses by reason of the fact that her parents name is listed on a doubtful card, said Amelia Hardman and her child little Ida, will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen on a doubtful card, and will be notified by mail when the Commission arrives at a conclusion in her case.

Mr. Groves being first duly sworn, stated that as stenographer in the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereon.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15th day of June, 1901.

Q How long did you remain out there? A Six months I think.
Q Then where did you go? A Come back to Gibson.
Q Did you talk with these people while they were out there? A Yes sir.
Q Did they say anything about having come back here after the war? A No sir.
Q Did you ever afterwards see them? A Yes sir after they come back here.
Q When was that? A It must have been in the year '73 or '74, about that time, in '74 I guess.
Q That is your best judgment? A Yes sir long about that time.
Q Do you remember who came with them? A I think that they told me.

Q Who told you that? A Dicey.
Q Well, that did she tell you? A That her mother and the rest of them had gone on to Tahlequah--she stopped with me.
Q You didn't see the rest of the family at that time then? A No sir.
Q Where were you living then when she stopped with you? A 7 miles from Fort Gibson.
Q How far from Four Mile Branch? A 3 or 5 miles.
Q Do you know if Dicey Sorrel had any children at that time? A Yes sir.
Q What ones? A Two little boys and one girl.
Q What were their names? A Mattie was the girl, she was the oldest one, one boy named Morris and one Richard.
Q How long did they stay at your house that time? A 5 or 6 months.
Q Did they tell you then where they were from? A No sir.
Q Didn't say where they come from? A No sir.
Q Did they at that time say anything about having been here before, since the war? A No sir didn't say.
Q Was Dicey Sorrel acquainted with where people lived in the country at that time? A I think not.
Q Was you acquainted with her before the war? A No sir.
Q What made her come to your house in '74? A I met her in Fort Arbuckle, our husbands were soldiers together.
Q Had your husband been a soldier with her husband before Sorrel married Dicey? A Yes sir.
Q They staid at your house 4 or 5 months? A Yes sir, so thing like that.
Q Do you know Henry Bean who lived at Tahlequah? A Yes sir.
Q Did you see him at that time? A Yes sir he brought Sorrel's family to my house.
Q Who did you say Tempy married? A Man named Thomas.
Q And Nan married Hallister? A Hallstock.
Q Did you see Nan and Tempy at Fort Arbuckle in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q From the time you left there way in '69 you never saw them until they came to your house in '73 or '4? A No sir.
Q After they came there did they talk to you about Fort Arbuckle? A Not much.
Q Do you know what Dicey's name is now? A I think she married a man named Tanner or Tinner, I was not quainted with him.
Q Where did they go from your place? A Went to Tahlequah.
Q Did you ever afterwards see Kate and the rest of the family at Tahlequah? A Yes sir.
Q Do they live there now? A No sir they moved up this way some where I dont know where.
Q Have you seen her since? A No sir.
(By Smith)
Q Were you a slave before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know who this woman Kate belonged to? A No sir.
Q Where was you during the war? A Fort Gibson.
Q Did you go out at all? A Yes sir.
Q Where to? A Fort Arbuckle.
Q When did you get back? A I dont remember what time.
Q In '65 or '6? A No sir I never was away at that time.
Q You didn't go away until after the war then? A No sir.
Q Where were you when the war closed? A Fort Gibson.
Q Where were you the next year? A On Lost Runyon's place on the Bayou.
Q What year was that? A Year of the cholera.
Q '66? A No sir, '67.
Q What year did the war close? A '65 I think.
Q You think then the war year after the war closed was '67? A No sir, '66 and then comes '67.
Q Well what year did you make a crop on the place you spoke of? A '67.
Q That was the year after the war closed you said? A No sir, '65, '66, '67 and '7.

Then it must have been four or five years after the war that you made a crop on that place? A Yes sir, we made one crop close to Gibson, across the river from Frank Smith's place.

Q What year was that? A I don't know what year.

Q You say you know this woman in '69 in the Chickasaw Nation, now you don't know anything about '69 do you? A Yes sir.

Q You say the war closed in '63? A Yes sir.

Q And you say you made a crop the year after the war closed and that it was in '67? A We made a crop in '67 on the Lost Runyon place and one the year before on the Frank Smith place.

Q Was it the year after the war closed? A (No response)

Q You say it was in '69 that you saw this woman in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

Q How long had you been married when you went to the Chickasaw Nation? A I married here that year.

Q What month? A In the fall.

Q How long had you been married when you went to the Chickasaw Nation? A I don't know, I think I married before I married Dennis—I wasn't married to Dennis when we made these crops—I married him as a soldier and went off with him.

Q You married him in '69? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you stay with him in Fort Gibson before you went to the Chickasaw Nation? A Not long.

Q How long, three months? A No sir, I don't know how long.

Q Was it a year? A No sir.

Q Was it six months? A No sir.

Q Three months? A No sir, it wasn't a month I don't think.

Q How long had you been in the Chickasaw Nation before you saw this woman Katie Blackwell? A Not long, they worked in the garrison there.

Q Was your husband still a soldier then? A Yes sir.

Q How did you go to Fort Arbuckle? A In a wagon.

Q Who went with you? A The man that was driving the wagon.

Q Was you and he along in that wagon? A Yes sir.

Q Was that all that went? A No sir the company of soldiers, the 10th Cavalry.

Q In '69? A Yes sir.

Q And your husband was a soldier then? A Yes sir.

Q How long was he a soldier there? A He was a soldier five years was his term.

Q How long had you been in Fort Arbuckle before he quit? A I don't know.

Q Did you come back that same year or was it longer? A I don't know how long it was, soldiers moved about in such a shape that I don't know.

Q Tell me how you fix the date of '69—what makes you think it was '69? A Because we was—I had one child before I married Dennis, it was born in '68 and in '69, the last part, I went away with the soldiers.

Q How old was that child when you went away? A 6 or 8 months.

Q How do you remember the child was born in '68? A I remember it very well.

Q Do you know the difference between '67, '68 and '69? A Yes sir.

Q How many children have you now? A Four.

Q What year was the next one born? A Born in '70.

Q When was the next one born? A '72.

Q When was the next one born? A Born in— you can count it up, it is 5 years old now.

Q You don't know the year? A If I stopped to count it up I would.

Q Do you know the year the Wallace roll was made? A By long study I might know, there is lots of things that I don't remember, there there are things that happened a long time ago that I remember quite well and other things that I don't remember at all that happened not so long ago.

Q Were you in Webster's Falls in '86? A No sir.

Q You were in Fort Gibson all that year? A Yes sir.

Q Would Katie Blackwell be now? A I don't know, when I met her she was married.

Q Was he an old woman or a middle aged woman then? A I would call her a middle aged woman then.

Q Was she as much as 40 when you know her? A I don't know.

Q What would you call a middle aged woman? A 25, or 30 I guess.

Q You think she was about that old then—did she have any children?

A I think so, but I wasn't acquainted with the children.

Q Didn't she come to your house and stay? A No, sir, Dickey did.

Q Who was Dickey? A Kate's sister.

Q Was it Dickey or Kate that you saw in the Chickasaw Nation? A O

I saw them all there. I was acquainted with four sisters and some of the family I wasn't acquainted with.

Q How many crops had you made before you went to the Chickasaw Nation?

A We made two.

Q Where did you make the crop the first year after the war? A On Frank Smith's place.

Q Where the next year? A None.

Q Where the third year after the war? A The next crop we made we made on the Bayou.

Q When was that? A The year of the cholera, I know all my people died and I think it was in '67.

Q You know it was after the war when you made a crop on the Frank Smith place? A Yes sir My step father made a crop there; I don't think the war was quite closed then.

Q How many years was it when you made the crop on the Bayou? A I think he had tended another crop up by Fourteen Mile Creek I was not there though.

Q You never were at Webbers Falls during '66? A No sir never was there.

Q When did your husband quit the army if you can tell me? A He quit the army in '73 I think it was that his time was up.

Q At what place did he quit? A I don't know where he was discharged, when he came home I was at home.

Q Where? A Where I am living now.

Q Fort Gibson? A No sir seven miles the other side.

(By Hastings)

Q What is your best judgment as to how long you were at Fort Arbuckle?

A 5 or 6 months.

Q What year comes before '66? A '65.

Q What year do you think the war closed? A '65, I think.

Q Were you in '64? A Fort Gibson.

Q Was the war going on then? A No sir, the war wasn't going on there, right there, they was fighting off from there I think I was in the town of Fort Gibson then.

Q You were married to Dennis in '66? A Yes sir.

Q You think you had been married a month when you went off with him? Yes.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

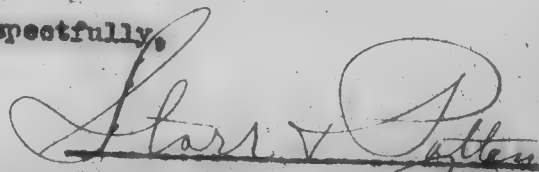

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Adaline Hardman,
F. D., 634 as a Cherokee Freedmen.

M O T I O N F O R R E H E A R I N G.

Comes now the applicant, Adaline Hardman, and moves the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to remand this case to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for rehearing.

The record herein shows that Adaline Hardman is a descendant of one Mary Riley, and has been born since 1866. The applicant was denied enrollment by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes on April 20, 1904 and this decision was affirmed by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior on October 31, 1904. The applicant has testimony by which she expects to prove that she is an illegitimate child of Andy Rider, who is an applicant for enrollment in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful case No. 500 and in the event that it is determined that Andy Rider is entitled to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedmen, applicant expects to prove that she is the illegitimate child of the said Andy Rider and is entitled to such rights to enrollment as the said Andy Rider is entitled to. The affidavit of Adaline Hardman is hereto attached, and in the event it is determined that Andy Rider has rights to enrollment, applicant expects to prove by Andy Rider and other witnesses that she is his illegitimate child.

Respectfully,

This day personally appeared before me the undersigned Notary Public within and for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, Adaline Hardman of lawful age who being duly sworn on oath states that her mother's name was Mary Riley now deceased who was at the time of her death the wife of Frank Riley and that she has always been told that she was the illegitimate child of Andy Rider whose Cherokee Freedmen Enrollment case is number F D 600. That during all of her life the said Andy Rider has recognized her as his child; and that her mother always told her that Andy Rider was her father.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Adeline Hardman as a Cherokee Freedman, N. D. 634.

Protest of Cherokee Nation Against Motion to Reopen.

The record in this case shows that Adeline Hardman claimed to be the child of Andy Rider and Mary Riley. Her application to be enrolled was denied by the Commission on April 20, 1904, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on October 31, 1904. The records also show that her alleged father, Andy Rider, was denied by the Commission on August 30, 1902, and that the same was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on November 28, 1902; said case was reopened and remanded and after being exhaustively heard was again denied by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes on June 4, 1906.

We submit that there is nothing in the motion that would entitle the applicant to a rehearing. In the first place, it is not upon the ground of any newly discovered testimony, and in the second place, it is not because of any error of law in the decision, because there is no contention that the said Andy Rider is enrolled upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and, therefore, we cannot see why the motion for rehearing should be granted upon any theory of the case.

There is no merit in the case of Adeline Hardman, and there is none whatever in the case of Andy Rider, and even if there were merit in the case of Andy Rider the applicant Adeline Hardman should not be enrolled as his illegitimate child, because the said Andy Rider does not claim to be upon the roll of 1880, and it is only the illegitimate children claiming through people upon the authenticated roll of 1880 that the Department has previously held to be entitled to be enrolled and not illegitimate descendants of claimants to citizenship.

Again, the testimony of Adeline Hardman shows that on June 10, 1901, she stated that Andy Rider was her father. She presents no additional affidavits at this time to strengthen her former statement, neither does she plead she has any newly discovered evidence which could not have been adduced at a former trial upon diligent inquiry, and we submit therefore that there is nothing in the motion to entitle the applicant to a re-hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) W. W. Hastings
Attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

Land-40528-1906
72-1907.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,

Washington, January 9, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Departmental letter of May 7, 1906 (I.T.D. 4720,8835-1905, and 4998-1906), denying a motion for review in the Cherokee Freedman case of Katie Blackwell, Gertie Tinnon, Lunnie Tinnon and Thomas Ross, I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes enclosing a motion filed June 14, 1906, by Starr and Patton of Vinita, I. T., attorneys for the applicants, for a rehearing in the Cherokee Freedman case of Adeline Hardman one of the party applicants in the case of Kate Blackwell et al. This motion was served on the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation by registered mail on April 13, 1906. The protest of the Cherokee Nation was filed with the Commissioner July 5, 1906.

The motion sets out that the applicant expects to prove that she is an illegitimate child of one Andy Rider, and that she expects to prove by Andy Rider and other witnesses that she is such an illegitimate child. This would be considered in the nature of newly discovered evidence and is not supported by the affidavit of Andy Rider himself or by any other witness except the applicant, nor is an effort made to show why this testimony could not have been produced at the original hearing. The protest of the Cherokee Nation further shows that Andy Rider, whom she claims is her natural father, has twice been denied enrollment and is not now an enrolled freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

The Office concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that the motion be denied.

Very respectfully,

C.F.Larrabee.

Acting Commissioner.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On January 9, 1907 (Land 40528-1906, 72-1907), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated December 24, 1906, in the matter of a motion for rehearing in the application of Adaline Hardman et al., for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman.

The applicant Adaline Hardman is a party to the consolidated case of Katie Blackwell et al., in which you rendered an adverse decision April 20, 1904, and which said decision was affirmed by the Department on October 31, 1904.

On April 9, 1906, however, departmental decision of October 31, 1904, was rescinded as to Mattie McNair and James Landrum.

On May 7, 1906, the Department denied a motion for review in the cases of Katie Blackwell, Gertie Tinnon, Lennie Tinnon and Thomas Ross.

The Cherokee Nation protests against the granting of the motion on behalf of Adaline Hardman.

You state that except by the affidavit of the applicant, the motion is unsupported by affidavits, being merely the statements of what the attorneys expect to prove. You recommend that said motion be denied.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is enclosed.

In view of the fact that the Department this day has denied the application of Andy Rider, the alleged father of this applicant, and for the reasons set forth in your recommendation, the motion is hereby denied.

The papers are returned for the files of the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

Q Give me the name of your next child? A. Rosetta Leoney.

Q How old is Rosetta? A. I think she is 28 or 29 years old, I think.

Q Is she married? A. She has been married, her husband is dead.

Q Does she live by the name of Leoney? Does she go by the name of her husband? A. That is the way to put her down.

Q What is the name of her husband? A. Elmer Roosen.

Q Well, your next child? A. Lucinda Williams.

Q She is married, is she? A. Yes sir.

Q About how old is Lucinda? A. She is about 27 or 28 years old, I don't know which. I don't know nothing about their ages.

Q Which one next to Lucinda? A. George.

Q How old is George? A. George is 28.

Q Now what is the next child? A. That is all, no, Henry.

Q How old is Henry? A. Henry is the oldest.

Q How old is he? A. I can't tell you.

Q Is he older than Frances? A. No sir.

Q Is he older than Ellen? A. Yes sir.

Q Mr. Deaneport, where were you living when the war came up?

A. I was living in Tahlequah.

Q Where did you go when the war broke out, if you ever left the country? A. Springfield, Mo.

Q Well now, how long did you live at Springfield, Mo.? A. We didn't stay there a year.

Q Did you go on any expeditions about the time the war broke out? A. No, I guess we went there along during the war.

Q Well, where was your son, or Frances born? A. Born in going west.

Q What was the name of the place where you lived before you came to Tahlequah? A. Yes sir.

Q How long did you live there?

A I think she was either five years old or six, I dont know which.
Q Where was Henry born? A He was born, I dont know where he was born at, either in Kansas or Springfield, I dont know which, because we were traveling all the time.
Q The fact is, you have never had any permanent place of living since the war? A No sir.
Q How long did you live in Kansas? A Never lived in Kansas.
Q How long did you live in Missouri? A I just traveled around in Missouri, I dont know how long we did stay there.
Q About how many years did you stay there? A I cant tell you.
Q Did you stay there three or four years? A I think we staid there two years, I think.
Q Well, where did you go from Missouri? A Came on back down here, camped along, we were traveling by ourselves, nobody with us, went by ourselves and came by ourselves.
Q After you got back down here, then where did you go? A Went over in the river here to my sister in law's, in the Verdigris; not the Verdigris, the Grand River, and staid there two or three weeks.
Q After you staid over at Grand River, where did you go? A Went on Big creek.
Q How long did you stay at Big creek? A Staid there ever since we have been here.
Q You never lived on Bottom creek? A No sir, the old man has been over there.
Q Haven't you lived in Arkansas a while since the war? A Not as I know of, as I didnt know it was there.
Q Didn't your husband and you go over there and live near Gane Hill, Arkansas after the war with a man named Fisher? A I dont know nothing about him.
Q About five miles from Gane Hill, Arkansas, didn't you live over there a while? A No sir, not as I know of, we just traveled all the time, we never staid anywhere hardly any time, didn't stay traveling.
Q Never had a home anywhere since the war? A Not till we came to Big creek.
Q How long have you been living at Big creek? A Ever since '66.
Q Well, now didn't you and your husband go to Leavenworth, Kansas, and live there a little while there with a fellow by the name of Tom Bost? A No sir, I dont know nothing about him.
Q Did you ever know such a man as Tom Bost? A No sir.
Q Well how is it you remember you came back here just four months before a certain Christmas in '64? A Because I had my oldest boy, he was born, he was 2 years old in the year '62.
Q How old is he now? A Well, I cant forget, how old he is now I know he was 6 years old the year the brecky was made, he was two years old, he was born in '64.
Q How old is your oldest boy now, so you know? A No sir, I cant say, I forgot.
Q You know he was born in '64? A Yes sir.
Q What time of the year was he born? A On the 11th day of July, 24th of July.
Q How when did you go to Springfield, Missouri? A We went there during the war.
Q What time during the war? A I cant tell you nothing about the year and months.
Q You told me about it, what you tell me when the war broke out? A
No sir.
Q Did you go to Springfield after the war broke out? A I dont know, we were run off, we didnt stay till the soldiers run us away.
Q About how long was it after the war began that you went to Springfield? A I cant tell you.

Q You certainly have some idea, was it a year or two years? A I guess it was two or three.

Q Well, you staid there about a year? A Yes sir, I guess we did.

Q Now you staid there longer than that? A No sir, we didn't we just traveled.

Q Did you go direct from the Territory to Springfield? A Yes sir, we went from the Territory to Springfield, and we were just by ourselves, and nobody was with us.

Q Now your child, Frances, you say was born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Was she born after you came back from Springfield, Missouri? A She was born in slave time I tell you.

Q She was born before you went to Springfield? A Yes sir, she was born a slave.

Q She was born on the 4th day of July? A No sir, the boy.

Q Well, how old was Frances when you went to Springfield? A I think Frances was either 6 years old, I don't know which, or seven.

Q Was the boy born before you went to Springfield, or after you got back? A No, he was born when we went to Springfield.

Q Before you went? A Yes sir.

Q Then you left the Territory for Springfield sometime after July 4, 1844? A Yes sir, I think that is it.

Q Now you staid about a year at Springfield? A No we didn't stay any year at Springfield.

Q Well, how long did you stay? A I think I told you how long we staid; if I knew the numbers and dates I could tell you, but I can't tell you, because I just can't say.

Q Was it less than a year? A. I don't know, we staid about something near a year.

Q Did you go direct from Springfield to the Cherokee Nation? A. Well the way we traveled around, it would take us a long time, because one was horseback.

Q When you started from Springfield, was your objective point the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir, went to the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know, because one was afoot and the other horseback.

Q Where were the children? A. I had one in my lap and one behind me.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know sir.

Q Did you come by Fort Scott? A. No sir.

Q Leavenworth? A. No sir, we didn't we didn't come that way, we come through the woods.

Q To what point in the Cherokee Nation did you come when you returned? A. I can't tell you.

Q Do you know what district it was in? A. No sir, because I didn't know the names of places or districts.

Q Did you come by any point in Arkansas before you came to the Territory? A I think we came to a place they called Bentonville. I reckon that is the way we came.

Q You didn't go from Springfield to Gane Hill? A Yes sir.

Q That was the time your husband and family was over there and he was working for Fisher over to Gane Hill? A No sir, we never lived on Gane Hill.

Q Do you think you were as much as a year coming from Springfield to the Territory? A. I think we were.

Q You traveled pretty much all the time, didn't you? A. Yes sir, and camped out, we traveled till we got tired, and then camped in the woods.

Q Did you stop and work along the road? A He would go out and work a little, get enough grub, and then start again.

Q About how long would you work on one place? A. Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just get something to eat.

A Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just to get something to eat.

Q You were not more than a month or two making the trip from Springfield to the Territory? A No, sir, I guess not.

(Mr. Mellette) Where did you say you came to when you first came to the Territory? A. Came to my sister Judy, Peter Williams' wife.

Q Lived where? A. She lived on Grand river, that is the first place.

MUSE HARDRICK, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A. Mose Hardrick.

Q How old are you? A. 71.

Q What is your post office? A. Chelsea.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. All my life.

Q Where were you during the war, were you out? A. Yes sir.

Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A. No sir.

(Mr. Mellette) Do you know the applicant, Jane Looney? A. Yes sir.

Q Do you know her husband, Holson Looney? A. I knowed her husband.

Q Did you know them before the war? A. I knowed her husband before the war.

Q You didn't know Jane before the war? A. No sir.

Q Well, where did he live before the war? A. Lived at Murrell's, down in the Cherokee Nation, George Murrell.

Q Who owned him? A. George Murrell.

Q Was George Murrell a Cherokee Indian? A. No sir, his wife was.

Q He was a white man? A. Yes sir.

Q Well, do you know when this applicant and Holson Looney returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A. I don't know, I know when Holson came to my house.

Q Well, when did he come to your house? A. In the summer of '38.

Q Where did he come to your house? A. On Grand river, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q You didn't see this applicant then? A. No sir, I didn't see her, Holson came himself and he was looking for his sister.

Q You don't know where she was? A. No sir.

Q Do you know what became of Holson after that? A. No sir, I don't.

Q Did you see him any more? A. I seen him two or three or 'r years after that.

Q Where? A. He was over here at Vinita.

Q Do you know where he lived at that time, when you saw him at Vinita? A. No sir, I don't.

(Mr. Davenport) You are satisfied that when you saw this Holson Looney over there in the summer it was 'ee are you? A. Yes sir.

Q It was earlier than Christmas, or December? A. It was in the summer.

Q It was earlier than four weeks before Christmas? A. It was in the summer.

Q You don't know where they had been living prior to that time that you saw him there? A. No, I don't.

Q And you don't know where they lived since that time? A. No sir.

(Commissioner) Do you know anything about this woman being married to Holson Looney? A. No sir, no more than what he said he had a wife.

Q But you never saw his wife in those days? A. No sir.

Q How long had you known this woman? A. I never seen her until this week at the Court.

(Mr. Mellette) When did he tell you he had a wife? A. Over at the Office.

CHARLIE CHAMBERS, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A. Charlie Chambers.

Q How old are you? A. 70 years old.

Q What is your post office? A. Hudson.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Born living here all my life.

Q Were you out during the war? A. No sir, I wasn't in the war.

Q Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation while the war was going on?

A. I went over in the Choctaw Nation.

Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A. Yes sir.

Q Mr. Belton Looney, do you know the applicant her, Jane Looney?

A. Yes sir.

Q Do you know her husband, Belton Looney? A. Yes sir.

Q Well, now, when did you first see them after the war; do you remember? A. I saw him in '88 in Fort Gibson.

Q Where was she? A. He said he left her on Grand river, he told me; she wasn't with him at all, he was by himself.

Q Well, when did they move up on Big creek, do you know anything about that? A. No, I don't know just when they moved up there, I don't know.

Q Did you get acquainted with them up there? A. I got acquainted with them after I came from Fort Gibson up here, when I went there they had come moved here.

Q Where were they living then? A. They were living out on the prairie out on the east side of Big creek.

Q In what Nation? A. In Cooperscawee district here.

Q About when was that that you came up from Fort Gibson and found them there? A. That was about somewhere in '70.

Q (Mr. Davenport) You say you saw Belton Looney at Fort Gibson in '88? A. Yes sir.

Q What time in the year was that? A. Why it was along a while, just a while before Christmas, little while before Christmas.

Q Now then if Belton Looney testified in 1886 that he never returned to Fort Gibson at all, was that true or untrue? A. If he gave such evidence as that in 1886, that he never did return to Fort Gibson, is that true or untrue? A. I seen him there.

Q I asked you, if he testified that, was it true or untrue; in giving his testimony before the Kern-Clifton Commission, if he gave such evidence as that, was it true or untrue? A. I can't answer that question.

Q When did you come back to this country? A. I came back in '83, they told me in '83.

Q Are you on the 1880 roll regularly? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you have any conversation with Belton Looney at Fort Gibson in '88? A. No sir, not but a very little bit.

Q Who did he have with him? A. He didn't have anybody with her, I just went into Gibson and seen him there, and I went to him and shook hands with him because I was acquainted with him.

Q How many children did they have when the war broke out? A. Didn't have but one then.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge where they went during the war?

A. I know they went north.

Q Did you remain in the same locality where they had lived, or return to that locality when you came back after the war? A. I stopped at first right this side of Fort Smith, on this side the river in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well, did you go back in that neighborhood? A. Yes sir, I came back in the neighborhood where I used to live, lived on the same place I had been when they first taken me away.

Q Who lived in that neighborhood when you returned up there there after the war? A. Why my owners was living there on that same place then, I came right back to them.

Q Who were they? A. Chambers, Maxwell Chambers and his wife; of course the old man was dead, but his wife was living on the same place.

Q What was the right family gone? A. They went south too.

Q Did you know to whom Bolston Leoney belonged at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir, belonged to George Murrell.

Q Where was George Murrell living? A. Well, George Murrell was living there in what they call Park Hill.

Q How far was Park Hill from where you lived at the Chambers place? A. Well, it was all pretty near the same place, it was all called Park Hill where they all lived, we didn't live just two or three miles apart.

Q George Murrell was a man who had a farm in Virginia and lived in Virginia the greater part of his time? A. I suppose he had a place there.

Q He lived there the greater part of his time? A. Pretty much.

Q Also kept a part of his slaves in Louisiana? A. I guess he did, I understand he did, anyway.

Q Did George Murrell ever have a permanent home at Park Hill, where he himself and family resided? George Murrell ever live permanently with his family at Park Hill, in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir, he was there, called that home.

Q He would go back and forward? A. Yes sir, he would be there, because I knowed him.

Q His wife was a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross, who now lives at Fort Gibson? A. Seems to me she was the daughter of Lewis Ross.

Q Wasn't she a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross? A. Yes sir, that is right.

Q Then Bolston Leoney didn't belong to John Leoney at the breaking out of the war? A. No sir.

Q And you don't know who this man belonged to at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Who did she belong to? A. Eli Wright.

Q How do you know that? A. I seen her there.

Q How far did Eli Wright live from Park Hill? A. He lived a good ways, but I was all over the country in them times.

Q About how far? A. I can't tell you just exactly it was.

Q Was it a hundred miles? A. No, I guess was about I come to be grown I expect it was somewhere between thirty and forty miles over there.

Q You lived in there at Park Hill, you say? A. Yes sir.

Q And the other parties lived over thirty or forty miles from you? A. Yes sir.

Q There was no way of getting back and forth except by horse? A. No sir, except on horseback.

Q And there was no settlement between the Park Hill settlement and the settlement of going, snake where they lived? A. I expect there was, I just went going through there, I was going to Cincinnati.

Q When were you at Eli Wright's place, what you claim to be the owner of this woman before the war? A. I didn't stay very long.

Q How long did you stay? A. I was there one time.

Q When did you next see this woman after the war broke out? A. Why I never seed her any more until I came from Indian Territory up here on Big creek.

Q When was that? A. That was along in '67.

Q They haven't had a permanent place of living, have they, since the war? A. Yes sir, they had a log house put up.

Q Didn't they just live from place to place and town to town? A. Well, he did for a while, and then time he told me his wife was over on Brand river.

Q What makes you know it was just before Christmas, is it? A. You saw him down there? A. Because I know him, because I stayed with him to come take Christmas with me.

Q How long before Christmas was it, and what year after the war broke out? A. I don't know what year the war broke out.

Q How long before Christmas was it? A. I don't know what year the war broke out.

Q How long before Christmas was it? A. I don't know what year the war broke out.

Q What year, and how long before Christmas was it the treaty was made? A I know one thing, I know the people near where I was living told me that peace had been declared and the folks was all coming home and I packed up and lit out too.

Q Well, how long before Christmas was the treaty made, and what year? A. And I know right after that, in the near year after I came up there, that was when I seen him.

Q Who was living in Fort Gibson at the time you saw him? A. I can't tell you, there was a plenty of soldiers there.

Q Wasn't there some Cherokee families there, or colored families?

A There was one or two colored families there, I can't tell you, it has been so long ago.

Q Lewis Daniels was living there? A Lewis Daniels was living around there somewhere.

Q And R. B. Nash was living there, wasn't he? A. I don't know.

Q W. B. Nash? A Yes sir, I believe he was, I believe he was living around some same place, but I don't know whether he was living in town or not.

Q You don't remember anyone living there except you saw Bolston Looney before, is that it? A. There is a man now lives right close to where there is a little hollow going down towards the river, that they call Vann.

(Commissioner) You say you knew this woman before the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Was she married to Bolston Looney then? A. I think she was, she had one child, I think she was married to him; I don't know for certain whether she was or not.

Q Where did you first know her certainly as Bolston Looney's wife? A I never knew her really as his wife, not till he came back here with her.

Q When did you first see her with him after the war? A That was in '87, and I can just going to tell you just exactly.

Q You saw him and her together at that time? A Yes sir, they were living together.

Q As mother and wife? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen more or less of her ever since? A. Yes, I seen her off and on all the while since.

Q And all this time? A. Yes sir, they were living together.

Q He died about three years ago? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you seen them ever since as husband and wife? A. Yes sir, they been living ever since as husband and wife.

Q Now this George Murrell that you spoke of, who was his wife? A I think it was a daughter of Lewis Ross if I mistake not.

Q She was a Cherokee woman was she? A. Yes sir.

Q That the family of old Chief Ross? A Yes sir, if I am not mistaken he was her brother.

Q You think then George Murrell's wife was a niece of the old Chief?

A Yes sir, I think she is as well as I can recollect.

(Mr. Mallette) Didn't George Murrell build a fine house at Park Hill? A. Yes sir.

Q Was it brick or frame? A. I don't just recollect what the house was built of, it was a fine house.

Q It was the house R. B. Ross lived in now? A. Yes sir, I think it is.

(Mr. Davenport) Do you know where Bob Ross lives now? A Yes sir

Q Lewis Ross? Bob Ross, do you know where he lived? A Bob Ross was living at Canagah, the man I am thinking about now.

Q What made you answer Mr. Mallette that you thought the house George Murrell built was the house Bob Ross was living in now? A Maybe I didn't understand him good.

(Mr. Mallette) I asked you if George Murrell didn't build a fine house at Park Hill? A Yes sir.

Q You know about that? A. Yes sir.

Q Then I asked you if Bob Ross is living in that house now? A I don't know where Mr. Ross is living now, I misunderstood you sir, I beg your pardon.

COMMISSIONER: The applicant is identified on the Kern Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1896. It appears that she and her deceased husband were slaves in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the Civil war, and were the property of Cherokee citizens. They seem to have lived together at the time of the war, and to have gone into the State of Missouri. She claims to have returned to the Cherokee Nation about four weeks before Christmas, in 1866. The testimony at this point is somewhat conflicting. With a view to the application of her children, they have been identified in the course of the examination as her children, and it appears that their claim will depend upon the claim that may be established for their mother or father. It seems that the marriage between the applicant and her husband was lawful, they have been married, according to her testimony, since before the Civil war, and have lived together until his death, some three years ago. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman on a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the testimony, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

The Kern Clifton roll examined and the husband of Jane Looney identified thereon, page 173 No 4233 4234, Coowasecooee district, as Bosen Looney.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Page 178, No. 4286 Francis Wright, Geowococowee district.

Applicant not found on the Wallace roll.

By Com'r Breckinridge,-

The applicant applies for herself and four children; she is 44 years of age and she is not found on the rolls of 1888, 1896 or the Wallace roll; she is identified on the Kern Clifton roll; she states that she was born in the Cherokee Nation prior to the war and that she is the child of Bessie and Jane Leoney; her grandmother, and grandmother, which she claims through her mother, is set forth in the case of Jane Leoney et al an Cherokee Freedman beautiful card set. Her change of name arising from marriage is established in a satisfactory manner. She states that she came back to the Cherokee Nation with her mother at the close of the Civil war, and that she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that time. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card and for the further examination of her status there will be filed with her application a copy of the testimony in her mother's case before cited. As for the four children named in the testimony, none of them are identified on any roll; they are said to be living and are minors when the Commission is applied with application at these four children they also will be listed for enrollment with her on a doubtful card as Cherokee freedmen. The final decision in regard to all these applicants will be made known to her at her post office address. She makes no application for her husband, whom she states is a white man and who was not married to her under a Cherokee license.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY OF PEOPLE OF CHEROKEE NATION in the matter of the application of Jane Looney for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, D#597.

Appearances:

Jr. Smith, of Bellette & Smith, Vinita, I. T., Attorneys
for applicant;
W.W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

FRANK PEERMAN, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY W.W. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Frank Peerman.
Q How old are you? A 65 years old.
Q Where do you live? A Atchison County, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived in that County? A Since January '58.
Q Did you know a colored woman up there in Atchison County Kansas
by the name of Jane Looney? A I did.
Q Did you know her husband? A I did.
Q What name did her husband go by? A Andy Looney.
Q Did you know any of Jane's children? A Yes, I know Frances.
Q What is her present name? A Smith.
Q What was her husband's first name? A I did not know that.
Q Did you know any of the rest of her children? A Why, I have seen several of them, I have no particular knowledge, they have worked around for my daughter and myself some but I have no particular knowledge of the other two of them.
Q What are the others named do you know? A Really I don't know how many children she has got.
Q I mean of Jane Looney? A Oh I thought you were speaking about Frances. Jane Looney yes, I know Frances is her oldest daughter, and the oldest boy was born on the place where I live now, Jerry,
he was born in '64.
Q You mean in '64? A Yes sir.
Q Well what is the next one? A There was a John, there was several children after they left our neighborhood, I don't know how many they had after they moved to Atchison, there was a Ellen,
there was a George, and there was a John, then three I heard of,
not personally knowed them either.
Q Her husband there was known as Andy Looney? A Yes sir.
Q When did you first learn to know this man and woman in Kansas?
A It was either in '63 in the fall or in the spring of '64, I won't be positive, but it was either one of those times.
Q Where did they live in '64? A On the place I own now.
Q How long did they continue to live there? A Until spring of '67.
Q Continuously all the time? A Continuously all the time, farmed the place.
Q Where did they go in the spring of '67? A They moved to a place right adjoining it on the east where old man Tilman built a little cabin there, they lived there two years.
Q That would be the spring of '69? A Yes sir.
Q Then where did they go? A Then in the spring of '69 they moved on the place right north of me.
Q How far from you? A The house not being more than about 40 rods from where I live now.
Q How long did they live there? A Two years.
Q That would bring it up to '71? A Yes sir.

Q Then where did they go? A They moved to Atchison.
Q How far is that? A 5 or 6 miles, we call it 5 or 6 miles.
Q Did you see them after that? A I saw them 15 years after that, positively and I might say 20, but 15 years anyhow; I saw Andy Looney in '92 the last time and had a long talk with him; he was fencing ground for my daughter.
Q Did you see him frequently after he went to town? A Yes sir.
Q You know when he left up there? A No.
Q You say '92 is the last time you positively remember seeing him? A Yes sir, I had no ~~business~~ dealings with him; that is the last time I talked with him and I didn't know he had gone until here a few years ago.
Q How about Frances Smith? A She lived there in Atchison.
Q Does she live there now? A She lived there now, her husband's working there and the family is there.
Q When is the last time you saw her? A Well I have not seen Frances for several years, because I have no dealings or no need of seeing her, but I have seen her children, I saw one of her children that worked for me this winter up until January.
Q Until this last January? A Yes, this last January last month, and he worked for my daughter the last month.
Q What is that child's name? A Fred Smith.
Q Do you know John Looney or Henry Looney of these boys? A I know Henry, because he was born on my place and I have seen him since, he is now in the penitentiary.
Q What is he in the penitentiary for? A Killing his wife.
Q Did you know any of the rest of these boys living up there now? A There is one by the name of John, but as I have no business with him I see him and that is about all, I have no personal knowledge of him much.
Q Now you said they left there and went to Atchison about '71? A Yes, to the City of Atchison.
Q You say you had occasion to meet them frequently? A Yes sir, often.
Q Did they ever do any work for you after '71 until '92? A Not for me, but my son-in-law, he would do little things in the garden and take care of the house and I would see him, - saw wood; any little thing like that.
Q You know where they were living? A Oh yes.
Q You saw their house? A Oh yes sir, many a time.
Q How far were they living from your son-in-law? A Not more than a quarter of a mile, my son-in-law lived in the south Atchison and they lived in South Atchison, about a quarter of a mile.
Q Well then from about '63 or '4 up until '71 they lived out there either on your farm or the adjoining farm? A Right close adjoining and many a day he has worked for me.
Q What is your business? A Farmer.
Q Are you a farmer yet? A Yes sir.
Q You live on the same place? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Neerman, how long have you lived in Kansas? A Since the winter, since January '58.
Q The people you talk about are people you first became acquainted with in '63 or '4? A Yes sir.
Q Which was it? A The Looney family? they consisted of Andy Looney his wife Jane, and the daughter Frances, about 6 or 7 years old, and the child Henry was born on the place where I live; they had a cabin, and he was born there.
Q Do you know which year it was, whether it was '63 or '64? A I am not positive, but it was not later than that.
Q Now you say the husband of this woman was called Andy? A Andy Looney he went by, yes sir.
Q How long has it been since you saw the Jane Looney to whom you refer? A Oh it has been a good many years, I couldn't tell you when;

Of course she didn't get out Mike her husband Andy and the sons so I could see her and I had no business with them and I didn't hunt her up.

Q You know whether Andy Looney is living or not? A I understand he is dead.

Q When did you last see him? A Last time I saw him was in the summer of '02 that I saw him personally and talked with him in Atchison, Kansas.

Q He was living there then? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know whether the people that applied here for admission are the same people you know at all? A I don't know anything about that at all.

H. C. KING, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY E. EASTBROS:

Q Give the stenographer your name, please? A H. C. King.

Q How old are you, Mr. King? A 41 years old.

Q Where were you born? A Atchison County, Kansas.

Q You lived in that vicinity all of your life? A No sir, not all the time.

Q Where do you live now? A I live in Atchison County.

Q Where were you living when you were 7 or 8 years of age? A In Atchison County.

Q Did you ever know a colored family up there by the name of Looney? A I know her.

Q You know what the woman's name was? A I don't remember every one, what her name was.

Q Don't remember? A No, not her name particularly.

Q Did you remember his name, Andy? A He was known as Andy Looney.

Q Did you know any of his children? A I remember one named Henry Looney.

Q What became of him? A I learned that he was in the penitentiary from what I heard.

BY R. SMITH: I object to that.

Q You don't know only what you have heard? A Just what I have heard there in town, it has been several years since I heard it.

Q Did you know any of the rest of the family? A I know two now, there's two now that I remember that I know, John Looney and Frances Smith.

Q Where does John Looney live now? A In Atchison.

Q When did you last see him? A Last Saturday about one o'clock.

Q You know whether he is single or married? A He is married I understand.

Q You know whether Frances is single or married? A She is married.

Q You know where she lives? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A She lives 715 W. Street, Atchison.

Q You know what her husband's name is? A I knew of him as Doctor Smith.

Q They live there in Atchison? A Yes sir, that is my understanding. I am not acquainted with the man.

Q Were you at her house? A Yes sir.

Q Therefore you are correct as to her place of residence? A Yes sir.

Q How was this Looney family that you knew, this man and woman, the father and mother of these children John and Henry and Frances?

A That has always been my understanding, that they were the children of the family.

Q You know that like you know anything else in the neighborhood?

A Like I know anything, yes sir.

Q When did Andy Looney and his wife leave that country? A I couldn't say for certain about that, I heard of them leaving about

Q '96, I had been away from Atchison and came back in 1896, I had been away about 12 or 13 years.

Q You did not leave Atchison County? A I did leave Atchison County in '83 I think it was '83 or '84.

Q You know whether these Looney's that you speak of were living in '83? A They had been living in Atchison last I knew of them before that, I didn't know just where they was in '83.

Q How long had you known them to be living around in Atchison? A I would judge about 15 years anyhow, something like that.

Q Continuously? A As near as I could learn, occasionally I would see them.

Q You left there about '83 or '84 and came back in '96 and they were gone? A Yes, that is I learned they were gone, I lost track of them anyway. I wasn't particularly acquainted with the younger ones, I remembered Henry as a boy, he wasn't much younger than I was.

Q You don't remember as far back as '66, you are too young? A Well I couldn't say as to the date when I got acquainted with them, but I know when I moved out of the neighborhood in which they lived, the old neighborhood, that was in the fall of '70, I lived about two miles for several years, probably from '85 to '90, within about two miles of J. Neeman, and they lived right in the Neeman neighborhood, either on his place or the Tilman place, I know about where they lived.

Q That is as far back as your recollection extends? A Yes sir, they afterwards moved to Atchison? A Yes, I have seen them around Atchison and I understood that they lived there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q How long did you stay where you were? A 41 years old.

Q You don't remember the name of Andy Looney's wife? A No sir.

Q How many children do you remember? A I don't remember left one particularly, when they were small children.

Q You can only give the name of one child? A That I remembered at that time, when I was a boy.

Q How when you first knew these people that you speak of you were how old did you say, seven years old? A I was from 6 to 10.

Q Somewhere in there, I knew them before I was 10 years old I remember, I lived in the neighborhood with them.

Q Where did you last see any of them? A I saw one that I got acquainted with, John Looney in late years I saw him in Atchison last Saturday.

Q How long have you been living in Atchison County? A 6 years this last time, or about 6 within a month or two of it.

Q You were away awhile? A I was away from Atchison County some 12 or 13 years.

Q Where were you then? A I was in Jefferson County about 10 years and in Oklahoma about 2 years or such a matter.

Q You knew Andy Looney's wife did you? A I knowed her when I was a little shaver.

Q How long has it been since you saw her? A I don't know that I have seen her since in the neighborhood of '70 possibly, along there somewhere, I couldn't say positively.

Q You were there weren't you up until '87? A Not in that immediate neighborhood, they moved out of that neighborhood to town.

Q How far was it to town? A Well it is 4 or 10 miles.

Q And you have never seen her from that time to this? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't know whether it is the same Jane Looney or whether that is the woman that is an applicant in this case or not? A I could not say about that.

Q Was that a thickly settled community in there where they lived in that country? A Pretty thickly settled, yes.

Q Good many people live in Atchison? A Yes sir, along about 15000.

Commissioner: Has your wife been listed for enrollment? A Yes, sir, she is already enrolled.

Commissioner: Nelson Ross applies for the enrollment of himself. From an examination of the 1880 authenticated roll and the census roll of 1896, his name cannot be found, but he is duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. He avers that he is the son of Nancy Ross, who has been listed for enrollment on doubtful card No. 451, and reference is made to the testimony taken in said case, which will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and a copy thereof will be filed herewith. Now the said Nelson Ross will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman upon a doubtful card. He will be notified by mail of the decision of the Commission when arrived at.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Where did you come to when you came back? A Came back to Russell Creek.

Mr. Mellette: Who came with you? A My husband and my children, myself and another woman, who lived in the Creek Nation, came down with us.

Commissioner: What was your husband's name? A Mose Ross.

Q Is he living? A No, sir, he is dead.

Q Have you been married since his death? A No, sir.

Mr. Hastings: You just came back with your husband and your own family? A And another family, man and wife, John Rentie and his wife and two children.

Q You came to Russell Creek? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you stop there at Russell Creek? A Stopped there that spring and fall after I came down.
Q Did you make a crop up on Russell Creek? A Not any more than little garden stuff.
Q Built a little house? A Yes, I built a little house.
Q Put in a crop of corn? A No, didn't put in any corn.
Q Did this other family stop with you? A Yes, sir, they stopped.
Q How many children did you have at that time? A Four.
Q How many children did this other man have? A Two.
Q Had you ever been to Russell Creek before the war? A If I was I didn't know it.
Q Had your husband? A I don't know whether he had been.
Q Where did you meet your husband first? A We both belonged to Ross; met him at Rosses.
Q You know that he lived there at Rosses when the war came up?
A I don't know where the men went, nothing about the men's affairs.
Q The Rosses lived down about Tahlequah? A The Rosses lived at the old Asylum, Lewis Ross, there is where I was raised.
Q That was fifty or sixty miles from Russell Creek? A I don't know how far it was.
Q How far did you locate from Chetopa? A I don't know nothing about Chetopa, I never heard of Chetopa.
Q Didn't you come through that town when you moved to Russell Creek?
A Never saw the town.
Q Did you apply to the Kern-Clifton commission five years ago?
A I applied when they had the roll.
Q About how many acres did you have in that little patch? A I don't know; just a small little place.
Q Four or five acres? A I don't know whether that much or not, I raised the garden stuff and a little hominy corn, just a little patch.
Q Where did you come from? A Came from Fort Scott.
Q What time of the year did you leave Fort Scott? A In April.
Q Well, was Sam Webber up there at Fort Scott when you left?
A Took no notice who was there, there was a good many people of all nations and all colors and all kinds, I don't know who was up there.
Q Do you know him? A I didn't know him, he might have been there.
Q You know Uncle Nelson Murrell; he had left up there, hadn't he?
A I don't know whether he was there or not, the people was up in all parts of the town, I stayed down in the part by the old mill, and there was people camped all around there.
Q You had heard about the treaty passing when you came down?
A I never heard a thing of the treaty.
Q Never heard about it at Fort Scott? A No, sir.
Q Well, after you went over the Kansas line did you go on Russell Creek? A I don't know.
Q What time did you leave Russell Creek? A I left there in the fall after I stayed all the fall.
Q About what time in the fall? A Well, I guess it was along about the last part of the fall when I left there.
Q About Christmas time? A A little before I think.
Q Where did you go from there? A I went to the river.
Q To Grand River? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, you saw Allen Lynch down on the river? A No, I went to their brothers.
Q Mose Hardrick? A Yes, and Jeff Lyons.
Q Was Jeff Lyons living down there? A Yes, sir, he was living down there, my oldest brother.

- Q Who else was living down there? A Tom Moore.
- Q Who else? A Uncle Simon Lynch.
- Q How long did you stay down on the river? A I only stayed there three weeks.
- Q Where did you go from there? A I went to Vinegar Creek.
- Q Where is Vinegar Creek? A It is up above Russell Creek I reckon, it is away up towards Coffeyville on away up above that somewhere.
- Q Then you went there in the early spring of '67? A I went up to Vinegar Creek that winter, I just left Russell Creek and went to the River and stayed three weeks and then went to Vinegar Creek that winter.
- Q Who did you see while you were on Russell Creek? A I saw an old white man there said his name was Hannah.
- Q Did he have a house up there? A Yes, sir.
- Q How far were you from the State line on Russell Creek? A I don't know where the state line was.
- Q How came you to locate up there away from everybody? A Well, I guess my husband wanted to go up there and locate, he was the one, I wasn't locating, it was him.
- Q Did you have a spring up there? A Got water out of the Creek.
- Q On which side of Russell Creek did you live? A Lived on the west side; it was Vinegar creek.
- Q I mean on Russell Creek, when you first came there? A Lived on the south side of Russell Creek.
- Q How far from the railroad? A Wasn't any railroad there.
- Q Where did you get anything to eat all that spring and summer? A Don't you suppose we brought victuals with us; how do you reckon we could make out until we raised a little hammy and things?
- Q Tell us the best you can where that was on Russell Creek? A I lived just about a mile I guess south of the road.
- Q Of what road? A On Russell Creek, south of the road there.
- Q Of the military road? A I don't know whether it was or not.
- Q A big road? A Yes, sir, I don't know whether it was a military road.
- Q And you stayed there the year '68? A Yes, sir, I was there from the spring to fall.
- Q Did you see anybody at all while you lived there? A Never saw anybody except the folks lived with us, only Art Williams stopped there and Uncle Simon Lynch stopped there a time or two.
- Q And that is the only ones you saw? A Yes, sir.
- Q You never went to visit your brother until the fall? A Yes, sir.
- Q And they never visited you? A No, sir.
- Q Never saw anyone pass there except those two you mentioned? A I never noticed who passed the road and who didn't, a great many passed, during all the time I wasn't in good health, I was sick.
- Q How far did you locate on Vinegar Creek from the state line? A I don't know anything about the state line.
- Q Who was living up there when you went up there on Vinegar Creek? A A man by the name of Hannah; he pretended to be an Indian but he wasn't nothing but a white man and a rebel at that, and he was living there.
- Q Did he have any family? A He had a few children, and a wife, I guess it was his wife, I didn't have much to do with them.
- Q How do you know that he was a rebel? A I know he was a rebel, cause he talked and acted like one.
- Q He acted peculiar, did he? A Yes, he did.
- Q Did he have a family up there? A No, sir, I didn't see nothing but himself and wife.
- Q He had a house? A Yes, sir.
- Q How far was his house from you? A I don't know, it wasn't very far.
- Q Wasn't any colored people near you up there? A No, not where

I was.

Q You say that was up in Kansas? A No, I didn't say it was in Kansas.

Q What Creek does Vinegar Creek empty into? A I don't know; it must empty into your creek I reckon.

Q Was her husband living with her then? A Yes, he was sick then.

Q Where was she? A That was up on the river, up here on Big Creek.

Q Near whose place? A Well, it was near the Duffin settlement then.

Q Were you up there to her home? A Yes, I was to her house.

Q Was her husband there? A Yes, he was there when I got up there.

Q How when was that? A I don't remember what year it was in, it must have been along about '75 or '80, somewhere along in there.

Q Where did you see her after that? A A good many times after that.

Q Did she have a place on Big Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q She had a house built? A Yes, sir.

Q She is living on that same farm, and house now? A Yes, sir, in the same house and farm.

Commissioner: Nancy Ross applies for the enrollment of herself and two children, Arthur and Emma. She is not identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880, or the census roll of 1896. She is duly identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. Her two children, Arthur and Emma, are also identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. She avers that she was the slave of one Lewis Ross, a Cherokee citizen, and that she was married to one Moses Ross, or Mose Gribb, now deceased. She avers that she went to Kansas during the war and returned in the year 1866. By reason of the fact that her name is not on the roll of 1880, and by reason of the fact of the special pretext of the Cherokee Nation against her enrollment, said Nancy Ross will be listed with her two children, Arthur and Emma, for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, on a doubtful card, awaiting further consideration by the Commission.

She will be notified by mail of the decision of the Commission when arrived at.

Supplemental testimony.

NANCY ROSS, recalled, testified as follows:

Commissioner: How do you apply for some grandchildren? A Yes, sir.

Q What are their names? A Bert Ross.

Mr. Hollette: These children are these grandchildren? A Cyrus.

Q Was she a slave? A Yes, sir, I guess so.
Q You don't know her name? A Her name was Sidney he said, she didn't live with me.
Q What Sidney? A I don't know.
Q Do you know whether they were ever married or not? A No, sir, he was sick when he came home, his wife was dead, and he just brought the children.
Q Now how many grandchildren you want to enroll? A I want to enroll six.
Q What are their names now? A Bert and Lewis and Georgia and Minnie and Roy and Nancy.
Q Georgia Ross? A Yes, sir.
Q And Minnie Ross? A Yes, sir.
Q And who else? A Nancy Ross.
Q And who else? A Roy Ross.
Q How old is Georgia Ross? A I don't know how old she is.
Q About how old? A I don't know, I can't say, for I don't know nothing about how old the grandchildren is.
Q You ought to post yourself on that before you come to apply.
Q Nobody knows their ages except the fathers, I guess she may be 14.
Q How old is Minnie? A About 13 years old.
Q Well, how old is Nancy, about? A Nancy is another set, another daughter's children.
Q How old is she? A She is 9.
Q Well, how old is Roy? A He is 14.
Q Is Roy the brother of Nancy? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, now, is Cyrus the father of Georgia and Minnie? A Yes, sir, he has got four.

Q In the Cheyenne Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q She lived there till she died? A Yes, sir.

Q Are these children all living? A Yes, sir, they are all living.

Q Are they living with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Mr. Hastings: Where at? A Up on Big Creek.

Q How long have they been living on Big Creek? A Been there ever since I been there.

Q How long is that? A I guess I been living there 14 or 15 or 16 years, I reckon, I can't remember just how long I been living there.

Q You got a place there? A I got a place there now.

Q When did you make it? A I made it in 1897.

Q Who did you live with up there before that? A I lived with Katie Thornton.

Q You never lived on a place of your own have you? A I had a place rented up there.

Q Did you know where Cyrus Ross' children were born, did you ever see his wife? A No, I never saw his wife, he wasn't with me.

Q He was in Kansas? A No, he wasn't in Kansas.

Q And all these children were born up there? A No.

Q How do you know? A I don't think he was.

Q You never saw his wife? A No, sir.

Q You are testifying here and you never saw his wife? A He said they were born in the Nation; he never came home till he was sick enough to die.

Q When did he die? A He died when he died.

Q When was that? A I don't know when he died, I don't know how many years it has been.

Q Has it been 20 years ago? A I don't think it was, I know it wasn't.

Q Is his wife living? A No, sir.

Q You don't know her name? A No, sir, only Sidney, because he was sick when he came there.

Q Don't you know where he was living, your own son? A No, sir; do you know where your own folks is living when they are grown and scattered about keeping up their business?

Q What was Martha's husband's name? A She didn't have no husband, just had them two children.

Q Where were them children born? A Born here.

Q Where? A Where; born here in the Territory.

Q What part of the Territory? A On Big Creek.

Q In your house? A Yes, sir.

Q You were not keeping house at that time? A Yes, sir, I was renting and keeping house.

Q Where did Martha die? A Up there.

Q Where? A Up on Big Creek.

The Kern-Clifton roll examined and the applicants identified thereon as follows:

Bert Ross on page 152, No. 3766, Coconino District.

Louis Ross on page 151, No. 3767, Coconino District, as Louis Ross.

Georgia Ross on page 152, No. 3768, Coconino District.

Minnie Ross on page 152, No. 3769, Coconino District.

Q Did Martha die since she got her Clifton money?

A She got her Clifton money, but they couldn't find the children's names, they were left off.

Q She didn't get it for the children? A No, sir, they were left off.

Q These children all living? A Yes, sir.

Q All living with you? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner- The applicant also applies for the enrollment of six grandchildren, to-wit: Bert Ross, Lewis Ross, Georgia Ross and Minnie Ross, who she avers are the children of her son Cyrus, by one Sidney. The children are duly identified upon the census roll of 1898, but no proof is made as to the marriage of Cyrus with the presumed mother of said children, and no proof as to where they were born, or as to the citizenship of their mother. She avers that she has two grandchildren, Nancy and Roy, and that they are the children of her child, Martha, now deceased. —

The Kern-Clifton roll examined, and the name of Martha Ross found thereon, page 152, No. 3739, Coconino District.

— and the said Martha Ross is identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. The names of the children Roy and Nancy cannot be identified upon any roll, and no satisfactory proof is made as to their citizenship, consequently it will be necessary first that satisfactory proof of marriage be made between Cyrus and his wife, the avowed mother of his children, and satisfactory proof of the birth made as to Nancy and Roy, the avowed children of Martha, and their names will be placed upon a doubtful card as Cherokee Freedmen awaiting further consideration by the Commission. They will be notified by mail when a decision is arrived at.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Nancy Ross et al for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

Hollette & Smith, attorneys for the applicant.
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

R. J. MORRIS, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A R. J. Morris.

Q What is your age? A I am 50 years old.

Q Where do you live? A I live at Iola, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in and about Iola, Kansas? A Since '56.

Q Did you know a colored woman by the name of Nancy Ross, and also known as Nancy Grubbs.

Q You knew her husband? A Yes.

Q What was her husband's name? A None.

Q Did you know any of her children? A Yes.

Q Now name some of them? A Well, I knew George, Dick and Arthur and Kissie I think and also Ned Foreman, that was a son of hers.

Q A son of hers, not a son of her mother? A No.

Q Do you know this man here (indicating Nelson Ross)? A Well it has been quite a while since I have seen him, but he resembles the Grubbs family, I can't say whether he is a Grubbs or not.

Q Well, when did you first learn to know Nancy Grubbs or Nancy Ross? A Well right away after she came up there from the Nation, I think it was about '63 somewhere along there, I wouldn't be positive it was that year, but then right in that neighborhood.

Q Well now how long did you continue to know them? A Well, I know her ever since.

Q Where has she lived since that time? A Iola.

Q Well, have you known those children? A Yes, I am very well acquainted with George and Arthur, and I did know Dick and Harry, I am very well acquainted with Harry, I saw him nearly every day, I have been living or boarding right close to where he lived, I see him most every day.

Q Does he live up there now? A Yes.

Q Does his mother live up there now? A I can't say whether she lives there now, she did the last I knew, that was last winter; you see I have been away from town a right smart of the time this summer at work.

Q How far from Iola did they live when you first knew them just after the war? A Well, I suppose about two miles, mile and a half or two miles.

Q They live on a farm? A Why they lived, I don't know whether you would call it a farm or not, a small tract of land.

Q Well, did they afterwards move in town or move from there? A Yes, afterwards moved from there to town.

Q About how long ago? A Well I can't say positively, probably eighteen or twenty years ago, well I would say fifteen or twenty years ago, I can't say positively just what time it was.

Q Did you ever have them to work for you, do any work? A No.

Q How far did you live from them this first few years after the war, did you live in town? A No, I lived about three miles northwest of town.

Q How far would that throw you from them? A Oh probably about three miles or four.

Q You know where the father, Rose Ross, or Rose Grubbs, died? A Well

now I wouldn't be positive whether he died. I think though he died in Iola; I wouldn't be positive as to that.
Q Well, did you ever hear of these people leaving there for any length of time? A No, I never did, I don't know of them ever moving away.

Q Did you see them frequently? A Very very often.

Q Did you ever know one that they called Nelson? A No.

Q Never knew Nelson? A Didn't know him.

Q You know one they called Dick? A Yes.

Q Did Kizzie marry, the daughter? A Yes.

Q Who did she marry? A She married a colored man by the name of Newman, Taylor Newman.

Q Do you know what became of her? A I do not.

Q When did you remember of seeing her last? A Well, sir, I can't tell you, I see Taylor very often.

Q That her husband? A That is her husband, but I haven't seen him for sometime.

Q You know where Taylor is? A He is in Iola.

Q Living there? A Yes, sir, living there.

Q That is Taylor Newman? A Taylor Newman.

Mr. Hollette: How old are you, Mr. Morris? A 35.

Q You say that the woman, Nancy Ross, whom you know and whom you have been telling about, or Nancy Grubbs, lived in Iola last winter? A Yes, sir.

Q That was the winter of 1886 and 1887? A Yes.

Q Where did she live? A She lived in the southwest part of town.

Q Kept house? A Yes, sir.

Q Have a family there? A Yes, sir, her children was there with her.

Q How many children? A Two I think and then there was one boarding there, George was boarding at home.

Q Well how old a man is George? A He must be well into thirty years old, maybe older, I don't know just exactly.

Q Then you don't know anything about any of the rest of them except George, do you? And Nancy? A No, I don't; well, Harry, I know Harry lives there in Iola.

Q Do you know that the Nancy Ross who has made application here for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman is the Nancy Grubbs whom you have been talking about? A No, sir, I don't, I never knew her by the name of Nancy Ross.

Q Now where was Nancy Grubbs, whom you have been talking about, in 1886? A In 1886, well she was in Iola as far as I know.

Q Well I am not talking about as far as you know? A I can't swear positively whether she was there or not, if she ever moved away I don't know about it.

Q You don't know whether she was there in 1886 or not? A I can't swear positively she was there, no, sir.

Q Where was she in 1887? A That I can't say, for it has been years back.

Q Where was she in 1888? A Well she lived there in Iola or in the vicinity.

Q Well are you certain of that? A If they ever moved away I never knew it.

Q Well, that don't answer my question? A Well I wouldn't swear positive.

Q Then you are not swearing where this woman Nancy Grubbs was in either of the years I have mentioned, '86 or '7 or '8? A I can't swear positively.

Q Where was she in 1890? A Well, I suppose she was in Iola.

Q Well do you know, can you swear that you saw her there? A I can't swear, I seen her there.

Q When? A Summers or times, from the time I became acquainted up to the present time if they ever moved away I never knew it.

Q I am asking you where she was in 1890? A I can't tell you, I wouldn't swear positively.

Q You will not swear whether she was there in 1870? A I say if she ever moved away I never knew of it, she has always been a resident of Iola as far as I know, and I saw them often.

Q Where do you live? A I live northwest of Iola about three miles; and part of the time I lived in Iola.

Q Were you a particular acquaintance of Nancy Grubbs, you have been talking about? A Why I have been very well acquainted with her for sometime.

Q Did you watch her movements closely? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q I will ask you if it is not a fact that she has lived away from there as much as five years at a time? A No, sir.

Q You are positive of that? A Positive of that.

Q Has she lived away from there as much as one year at the time? A I can't say if she has, if she ever has I don't know it.

Q But you can't say she hasn't? A I wouldn't swear point blank that she hasn't.

Q You don't know whether or not she came down into the Cherokee Nation on Russell Creek in 1882, do you? A I can't swear positive.

Q Do you know of her living upon Vinegar Creek up close to Coffeyville in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether she did or not? A I don't know, I don't know anything about Vinegar Creek.

Q I will ask you if she lived there? A I don't know, I don't know, I don't know, I don't know.

Q You say you don't know Nelson Grubbs? A No, sir.

Q You don't know whether he has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life or not? A Don't know him, I don't know any of them by that name.

Q Now you don't know this man, do you (indicating Nelson Grubbs)? A I can't see him.

Q He is right by the window and you ought to look at him; do you know him? A Well he looks like the Grubbs to me.

Q Well do you know him, do you know who he is? A Is it George? A Now you are positive? A Well he is in a little better shape, if he is George, than I have ever seen him.

Q You don't know whether the man sitting here is George Grubbs or not? A It is a pretty hard matter for me to place this fellow here.

Q I am asking you if this fellow is George Grubbs? A I believe it is.

Q This man sitting here is George Grubbs? A I believe it is, it resembles him.

Q If I would tell you it was Nelson Grubbs what would you say? A He must be a brother of George then.

Q You never saw that man in Kansas then? A Don't believe I ever did.

Q This man is Nelson Grubbs, and you will swear you never saw him in Iola, Kansas, that you know of? A I don't think that I ever did, I never saw him that I know of, I can't tell him, it is a Grubbs though.

Q The only child of Nancy Grubbs then whom you know is George Grubbs? A George and Harry and Dick.

Q Where is Harry? A He is in Iola.

Q How old is he? A He must be probably 25 or more.

Q When did you see him in Iola? A I seen him there Saturday last.

Q What is he doing there? A He is in a livery barn.

Q For wages? A I suppose so.

Q Is he a single man? A No, sir.

Q Has a family? A Yes, sir, he has a wife, I don't know whether he has any children or not.

Q Well, where is George? A George, I saw him I think it was last Thursday.

Q Where did you see him? A In Iola.

Q What was he doing there? A Working.

Q What was he doing? A He was helping move a house.
Q How far is it from here to Iola, Kansas? A I don't know the exact distance, it is about 85 miles I suppose, something in the neighborhood.
Q Was he living there or just working there temporarily? A Why I don't know whether he lived in Iola or Humboldt, he lived in Humboldt last winter he told me, and I can't say whether he lives in Iola or Humboldt, he was working in Iola.
Mr. Hastings: Is Humboldt in Kansas? A Yes, sir, Allen County, Kansas.

Q Now Mr. Morris, as I understand you, you got acquainted with or learned to know these people about '85? A Yes, sir.
Q You saw them there last winter and some you saw the last few days ago? A Yes.
Q Between those two dates now have they lived there so far as you know? A So far as I know.
Q You never missed them? A Never missed them.
Mr. Kellotte: Did you take it upon yourself to watch these people? A No, sir, oh no.
Q They might have been gone a year at a time without you knowing it? A I don't think they would, they possible might have been, I didn't watch for anybody very close, it is not my business, my business is attending to my own business, but as I say, if they were away from there I never knew it; well I have known of her going to the Nation a time or two but not to move here, I don't know of her moving here, she has made a few trips, her and George both, I don't know that Harry has ever made a trip.

J. E. THORP, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testifies as follows:

Mr. Hastings: Q What is your name? A J. E. Thorp.
Q What is your age, Mr. Thorp? A 44.
Q Where do you live? A Iola.
Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in and about Iola, Kansas? A 44 years and a little upwards.
Q What is your occupation? A I have been a barber for the last 35 years, 38 years.
Q Do you know a colored woman by the name of Nancy Moss, or Nancy Grubbs? A So called, yes, sir.
Q Where did you know her? A Immediately west of Iola, across the river, in the first place, a little way from Iola.
Q About how far did she live from town when you first knew her? A Two miles, two and a half, sir.
Q Well, about when did you learn to know her? A I think it was about '87, it was a year or more after I got home from service.
Q Where was she living? A West of the river a couple of miles from town.
Q How long did she continue to live at this place? A I can't say as to that, a year or two or three, I kept no count of it.
Q Where did she go from there? A Her family moved from there into town.
Q Well, did you know them after they came to town? A Yes, sir, that was the same as I knew other colored families, I knew of them.
Q Did you know the father and husband's name? A Moss I think.
Q You knew him? A Oh yes.
Q Did you know any other members of the family, the first names? A I know of their father's, but I didn't know but very few of their names, really I couldn't keep track enough of them, as their names, I know several of the oldest ones, there are probably several of the younger ones that I didn't know, I knew their names, it is Grubbs, there is a family resemblance.
Q How long did you know them, up to what time did you know this Haney Ross or Grubbs? A Oh I have known her more or less all these years.

Q You know where she is now? A Well no I don't, my idea was that she was there at her home I guess, but I heard she is here in town now.

Q When did you last know of her being up there at her home? A Well, as I said in the lower court this morning, I have no absolute knowledge of her being at home since her family was quarantined last winter.

Q Well you know of her then being there as late as last winter? A Yes.

Q Now have you known of them ever since you have learned to know them a year or two after the war, up to last winter?

Mr. Mellette: It strikes me that is about as leading a question as it can be; I object to that question upon the ground of being leading.

Commission: The objection will be noted; let him answer the question.

A Practically so, sir.

Q How far did you live from them last winter, your residence? A Last winter, I think about seven blocks, about that.

Q Did you know Ted Foreman? A I did know him in the years gone.

Q How long has it been since you have seen him? A I can't tell you, I don't remember much of having seen Foreman very much since he married, he lives out east of town some six or eight or ten miles, maybe eight or ten or fifteen years ago, maybe longer.

Q Did you ever know Kiska, a girl? A I know of her, knew her by sight.

Q Did you know her husband? A I don't remember whether I did or not, no I didn't.

Q Did you know George Ross or George Grubbs? A Well now I can't state that except from what I heard in the preliminary examination when we referred to her having married Newman.

Q You don't know about that? A I probably know of it at the time, but it has escaped my memory; the probabilities are I did know of it at the time.

Q Well through these years did you ever know of this family moving away from there? A No, I have no knowledge of their ever moving away, not to my knowledge; they might have been gone at times for a couple or two or three months or perhaps a greater period of time, but I wasn't aware of it at all.

Q Could it have been possible for this woman and her family to have lived there ever since '06 in the Cherokee Nation? A Well, scarcely.

Q If she swears that she moved here in '06 and lived here ever since, she is mistaken? A Well I rather think so; that would be my idea of it; profoundly mistaken.

Mr. Mellette: Where is that preliminary court you talk about?

A In the room below here.

Q What makes you call it a court? A I don't know whether it was a court or not.

Q Didn't they tell you that that is just the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know, perhaps they did.

Q Why did you come down here? A I was subpoenaed.

Q What kind of subpoena was served on you? A The same as the balance I presume.

Q Now what kind of subpoena was served on you, who signed that subpoena? A I think it was Mr. Keys.

Q Don't you know that subpoena isn't legal? A I don't know anything about it.

Q Do you people up there think that subpoena is binding on you folks to come down here? A That is the impression we get.

Q Why do you have that idea?

Mr. Hastings: What is the use of going into that? I am going to object to that.

Mr. Mallett: I simply want to know what kind of subpoena is being served on these people, whether they are coming of their own accord and voluntarily to appear as witnesses in these cases or whether they are coming in obedience to a legal subpoena and if the subpoena served on them is a legal one, and if not, I want to know who signs it, by what process they are brought here, if they are voluntarily appearing as witnesses; it is a question that goes to their credibility; if otherwise, why they are entitled to know it. I simply want to know how this man is being brought here, upon what kind of a subpoena.

Mr. Hastings: If the Commission please, it is enough for the attorney for the applicant to know that a subpoena was regularly issued and that this man was brought here; he was brought here at our instance, we subpoenaed him, he is here to give testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation. Now what would it avail him, what business is it of his to go into the question of the legality or illegality of the subpoena issued by the Cherokee Nation? That is a legal question that this Commission don't know anything about nor would it be of any benefit to them in this case to investigate it; it is simply a side question. For the gentleman's information, I might say the Cherokee Nation passed a law authorizing the employment of attorneys before this Commission, and that same law authorizes the issuance of these subpoenas by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, and these subpoenas were issued by the Cherokee Nation in obedience to that law, and these were served by people qualified to serve them upon those outside witnesses. It don't affect whether Nancy Grubbs came back here after the war, or whether she continued to reside here after that time.

Commissioner Breckinridge: I have no occasion to go into the question of the sufficiency of these subpoenas when served in the state of Kansas. If the witnesses themselves choose to raise the question and refuse to come, it would then arise before a court of competent jurisdiction. There has been a law passed by the Cherokee Nation and approved by the President of the United States providing for all these processes, and so long as these witnesses are here, the only point in which I am concerned would be the weight of their testimony. Even if they came without any subpoena, it is a question of the value of their testimony. A great many of the witnesses here come without any subpoena; they are selected from the crowd at the time. If the service of a subpoena is necessary for the proper accounting of the business to enable the Cherokee Nation to pay their mileage and per diem, I don't see any objection to it. I overrule any objection that seeks to exclude evidence upon ground of that character, and that evidence will be received, and as for going into the technical question of the subpoena, I see no occasion for that. I want to proceed upon the merits of the case and the value of the testimony. If you want to impeach the witness as to his integrity and character, why take steps to that effect; otherwise I consider the question as of no probable bearing or force. Counsel can put in the record any objection that he likes, but the case will proceed and the matter will be considered by the full Commission when opportunity is offered.

Mr. Mallett: Now Mr. Tharp, where was Nancy Grubbs in 1867? A I think she was west of the river at that time living up there on a place they had rented.
Q Well, do you know where she was, can you swear where she was?
A I don't remember, I wouldn't say for certain that I was at their house in '68, but I think it was about in '67.
Q Well, are you willing to swear that you were at her house in '67?

A On I think I might, yes, sir.
Q Now if she swore that in 1867 she was in this country and went from Russell Creek up to Vinegar Creek, she is mistaken, is she?
A I think so, probably.
Q Now, you swear positively she is mistaken? A I think she was mistaken, I wouldn't say positively, but I think so just the same.
Q When did you get back from the army you spoke of? A I got home Christmas after, '85.
Q You said you saw her a year or two after you got back? A Yes, sir.
Q Well, was it one year or two? A I can't say as to that; I was hauling some wood for some man, over to a neighbor living just west of them, and I frequently went clear around by their house in order to avoid crossing two bad places.
Q But you can't say whether it was one or two years after you came back after the war, how do you know where she was in 1867?
A I was passing there and saw the old lady; I think on one occasion I saw her husband planting potatoes.
Q I am not talking about the old gentleman? A Well I saw the members of the family there and while not being absolutely close enough, still I had plenty good eyes those days, that is my recollection, that I thought I recognized the old lady, I might have been mistaken but it is scarcely possible.
Q Was that two years after you came back after the war? A I don't think it was, in fact of two years, no, sir, about two years, it was in the spring time I was hauling this wood from Mr. Elmer Reagan's farm, H. L. Reagan.
Q Did you know a child of Nancy Grubbs named Martha? A I don't think I did.
Q Do you know whether the Nancy Grubbs you have been talking about is the Nancy Grubbs who has applied here, or the Nancy Ross who has applied here for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman? A I can't say, just as I said in the lower room, whether a court or not, but I don't recollect ever having heard her called Nancy Ross at all.
Q But you don't know that the applicant here is the woman you have been talking about? A No, I know Mrs. Grubbs of course; whether she is the woman Ross or not now I don't know.
Q And whether she is the applicant or not you don't know? A Why if her name is Grubbs I presume it is the applicant.
Q Well, was there ever more than one Grubbs in the States?
A There was no more that lived there to my knowledge.
Q I say, do you swear that the Nancy Ross who has applied here for enrollment is the Nancy Grubbs you have been talking about; do you?
A I think that it is all one and the same person.
Q Do you know who has applied here as Nancy Ross for enrollment?
A I don't know, I have been informed.
Q I am not talking about what you have been informed; do you know who has applied here as Nancy Ross? A No, I do not.
Q Then do you know whether the Nancy Ross who has applied here is the Nancy Grubbs you are talking about? A I can't say it only in the way of a presumption, I took it granted of course in the way of a presumption it is the same.
Q Do you know Harry Grubbs? A Oh I have known of him I think.
Q Where was he born? A I can't say as to that.
Q Was he born in the Cherokee Nation? A I can't tell you.
Q You don't know whether he was born in the Cherokee Nation or not?
A No, sir.
Q Well, if he was born in the Cherokee Nation, Nancy Grubbs was here at the time, wasn't she? A Probably was; probably was, without he must have been born at pretty long range.
Q Where did these Grubbs die? A Well, sir, I think he died in Iowa.
Q You swear that? A No, I don't, because I don't absolutely know outside of hearsay, that is how.
Q How did he die in Fort Scott? A I can't tell you sir.
Q Did you ever see your eye on Nancy Grubbs all the time to know whether she came down here to the Territory? A For several years

I passed her door, some 12 or 14 years, on the way to my home, passed three or four times a day.

Q Was she at home all the time? A She might have been, I can't say as to that, I know I saw her frequently though; I might not have seen her for a week or two weeks, but I wasn't aware by hearsay or otherwise of her being absent from there.

Q Well, you didn't make inquiry, did you, as to whether she was absent or not? A No, no.

Q She might have been absent and you not hear about it? A Possibly, she might have been absent very frequently that I don't know of, possibly, for short periods, I think two or three or four days; I knew her and three or four boys, and I have some slight knowledge of a girl or two, I don't remember how many.

Q Where was George born? A I can't tell you where any of them was born, I can't tell you whether they were born in the Cherokee Nation on Vinegar Creek or anywhere.

Mr. Hastings: I believe you stated that you passed their door three or four times a day for 12 or 14 years? A On my way from home to my shop, unless the weather was too extremely hot or stormy, I passed the door in going to my work and to my meals and back home again at night.

Q And during that time you never missed this woman? A Oh she was probably absent sometimes for a few days that I don't know any thing of it, I know nothing of her being away.

M. G. ROBINSON, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A M. G. Robinson.

Q Where do you live? A At Iola, Kansas.

Q How long has Iola been your home? A Since the spring of '90.

Q Did you know a colored woman up there by the name of Nancy Grubbs or Nancy Ross? A Well, she was generally known as Nancy Grubbs.

Q I say you know her? A Yes, sir.

Q About when did you learn to know her? A I don't know just how soon, it wasn't so very long after I came there, I can't say now just how long.

Q How how long have you known her since, up to what time? A What I mean in a general way, knew their family in town, it has been my understanding they were there or some of the family all the time, or most of the time, well all the time; what I mean is some of the family.

Q Did you know her husband? A Yes, sir.

Q What was his name? A None, that is, he always went by the name of Moses Grubbs.

Q Well, did you know any of their children? A Yes, sir.

Q What was some of their names? A Well, there was one that was called, sometimes Ned Periman, and some called him Ned Grubbs, and then there was George Grubbs and Kissie Grubbs and Dick Grubbs, that was among the older children.

Q Do you know this one here (indicating Nelson Grubbs)? A This one here I believe yes, I am not sure whether it is George or Dick, one that they called Dick Grubbs.

Q Was there one they called Dick? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know any other name for Dick? A No, that was the general name he went by.

Q Do you know where Dick went to school? A Yes, sir, he went to school there at Iola; that is the same, he went to school there, he graduated there at the high school, that is my remembrance.

Q Did you know one they called Nelson, or did they have one by that name? A I don't remember one by that name, being called that.

Q You live in town? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your occupation? A Wagon maker, I run the whole thing, but then wagon making is my trade, wood work rather.

Q Where did these people live when you first knew them? A They were living west of the river on a farm there.

Q About how far from Iowa? A Well it is somewhere, that is to go out where they lived, it would have been along about close to two miles, a mile and a half or two miles.

Q They lived there when you first learned to know them? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did they live over there before they moved to town? A I can't tell you, they lived there, it must have been they lived there in town, well from fifteen to twenty years anyhow.

Q In town? A In town, of course I had nothing to particularly call my attention to the time they came in.

Q Did you see them there as you saw other people? A Oh yes, the same as I would other people, that is all.

Q Did they ever work for you, any of the family? A One of the girls worked for us some, but I don't remember now which one it was.

Q Did you know one they called Harry? A I don't remember him, not by that name.

Q Did you know one by the name of Rizzie, a girl? A Yes, sir.

Q Know whether she is married or not? A Yes, sir, I think she is, that is my understanding.

Q Do you know her husband? A Yes, sir, Newman I believe, that is my remembrance now, that she married Newman.

Q You know where Newman lives? A I think he is living there in Iowa.

Q You have never missed her? A I haven't missed her, no, sir.

Q Well, when was the last time you saw any of this family up there?

A Well, it is hard to tell now, it seems to me that it has been a good while; last winter they had the smallpox there; I wasn't down there, but when that was the talk, they had it, that was the report.

Q Were they living in town then? A Yes, sir, some place they have been living ever since they have been there in town.

Q Mr. Hollister, well, where was this woman whom you call Nancy Grubbs in 1875? A Well, my remembrance is that she was there; that is, out on the farm, out west of town, that is, they were living on the farm there.

Q Do you know whether she wasn't down in the Cherokee Nation at that time? A No, sir, I don't; that is, not at that time.

Q Isn't it a fact that two of the children have always lived up there, Harry and Arthur of these applying for citizenship in the Nation, and that the other people come up there to visit them sometimes? A That I don't know, that is, about the living there, that is, I don't know that they have been away, I don't know that they have been away; my understanding is that they have been there.

Q I am not talking about your understanding? A Why I say I don't know that they haven't been away some.

Q You made the remark a while ago, that some of the family were there all the time? A Yes, sir.

Q Now what did you mean by that? A Well that the family, that is, that where they were living that the family was there.

Q Own any property? A Owned that farm.

Q All the family? A The Grubbs, that is, Nancy, and my understanding is, rather that that was her home.

Q You don't know that she was there all the time? A No, sir.

Q The children all lived there too, didn't they? A Well, I think so, that is, those that I have mentioned.

Q Well Harry and Arthur? A Well Harry, yes, sir, I think so.

Q But you don't pretend to say that the old lady, Nancy Grubbs, has made that her home all the time? A Not all the time, no, sir.

Q Do you know anything about her living up on Vinegar Creek in the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Do you know anything about her ever coming to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, only just of the reports is all.

Q Then you did hear reports? A I have heard that she has been here a few times.

Q And she might have been here when you didn't hear of it? A Yes, sir.

Q You moved to that country in 1870? A 1870, yes, sir.

Q And you knew nothing about Nancy Grubbs or her family before that time? A No, sir.

Q How long have you lived there, before you became acquainted with her? A I don't think it was a great while afterwards, I had just been there, just done some work for Mr. Grubbs, but I can't tell you now just how long, or how soon it was, it wasn't a great while after I went there.

Q One year or two years? A I am satisfied it was inside of two years.

R. P. GRAY, appearing before the Commission and being duly sworn and examined, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A R. P. Gray.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Iola, Kansas.

Q How long has that been your postoffice, or home? A 23 years last December.

Q You know Nancy Grubbs, or Nancy Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known her? A Well, I have known her for 23 years, maybe now, I got acquainted with the Grubbs family right after I got there.

Q Where were they living when you got acquainted with them? A They were living in a little cabin a mile and a half west and a mile north of Iola.

Q Did they afterward move to town? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know them after they moved there? A Yes, sir, they lived on the same street that I did, about six blocks south.

Q How long have they lived there? A Well, it is right close to 20 years, I wouldn't like to say because I didn't make any note of it.

Q Well, your best judgment as to the time? A My best judgment is it is eighteen years last spring since they moved in there.

Q You know where they moved from when they moved to town? A Yes, sir, they moved from that cabin.

Q Did you know Nancy Ross' or Nancy Grubbs' husband, what his name was? A Mess Grubbs, yes, that is the fellow that I supposed was the husband.

Q Did you know any of the children? A Yes, sir.

Q Name some of them? A Well, the oldest one was Lee I think that is the oldest one, and the next was Kin, and I may be mistaken now, I don't swear I know exactly, but Kin and Dick - oh confound it I forget the other names, I would know it if I would hear it, but I don't recollect the names; they were the oldest; well George was older than Dick, George was next to Kin according to my best judgment; he is about 20 years old I should think.

Q George married? A He has been once or twice, I don't know whether he has got a wife now or not.

Q Do you know where he lives? A No, I do not; I saw him this summer but I don't know where he lives.

Q Where did you see him? A He was there at Iola a few days.

Q There is Ned Foreman? A Ned Foreman, he is down in this way or some other Nation, I forget, down here.

Q Do you know how long he has been away from up there? A About some three or four years ago last fall when he left there.

Q There is this old woman, Nancy? A She lives there in town, I think, when she is at home, she is away some, she was down here about a year or two or three years ago, down in this country somewhere, close to this town.

Q Did you hear of the strip payment about that time? A Yes, she came about that time, her and all the balance of that up there, pretty near all.

Q Well I believe you said you got acquainted with them about '75?

A Yes.

Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, I have always known her ever since that.

Q I believe you said they moved to town about 18 years ago, to the best of your judgment? A I think that is about it.

Q You know whether Kissie is married or not? A I do not.

Q Do you know whether they had the smallpox in their family last winter or not? A I think they did, I was told they had by the marshal, that is the man that told me, I didn't go down to see, for I had no use for the smallpox.

Q Mr. Gray, do you know this one (indicating Nelson Ross)? A Yes, I do now, he looks like Uncle Mose.

Q Looks like his father, does he? A Yes, it has been a long time since I have seen him to know him, I wouldn't have known him to meet him out on the streets, wouldn't have known him.

Q What did they call him up there? A I can't tell you now, but there is half of the fellows there, especially among the colored fellows had some kind of a nick name that nobody else don't know who they were except by that name.

Q But you just recognize him as a Grubbs? A Yes, sir.

Q Mr. Mellette, well, who is this man sitting here (Nelson Ross)? A He is one of the Grubbs family.

Q You swear that? A Well, I have always been told he was, and he used to live with them.

Q Well he hasn't been up in that country for a good many years, has he? A Oh I don't know, it hasn't been a great many years since he was there.

Q Did he go to school there? A Yes, sir.

Q How far is it from Iola to the Cherokee line? A Well sir, I can't tell you.

Q About how far? A Why I should think it is right close to ninety miles, I may be away yonder mistaken because I never was over the road except I came down here the other night and I came all the time in the night.

Q Isn't it a fact it is about 60 miles? A Well it ought to be farther than that.

Q Well, how long does it take to come from Iola to the Cherokee Nation? A It took me from eight o'clock in the morning till 5:15, the next morning to come here, but the biggest part of it was lying over waiting for trains.

Q How far is it from here to where you live? A I don't know, I can't say anything about the distance, I never was over the road, I can't say.

Q What railroad do you live on? A I live on the Santa Fe and Missouri Pacific, they cross there at Iola.

Q How far do you live from Coffeyville? A I don't know.

Q About how far? A I can't tell you for I never was over that country and never paid no attention to it.

Q You don't live over fifty miles from Coffeyville? A Why I would think so.

Q Well where did Nancy Grubbs live in 1875? A I can't tell you.

Q Where did Nancy Grubbs live in 1885? A She lived in town, I think.

Q Do you know that she lived there? A Well -

Q Do you know whether she was there at all during the year 1885? A In that country, yes, sir.

Q You swear she was there during that year? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see her? A There never has been a month I didn't know, that I didn't see her, only when she was down here about three years ago.

Q Well we will confine ourselves to the year 1885 please, did you see her in 1885? A Well I don't know, I can't tell you, but they didn't live on their farm then, out in the country then.

Q Well, will you swear that you saw Nancy Grubbs at Iola in 1885? A I wouldn't answer that question, for I don't recollect.

Q Did you see her in 1886? A Oh I don't know what years I have seen her in, I never missed her from there, I don't recollect about the years.

Q Would you be likely to miss her if she would go away from him?
A Well I would suppose so.

Q Why? A Because I saw her frequently and she washed a great deal, or used to.

Q Well, is there any reason why you should keep track of her?
A Nothing only that she is an old settler there and I got acquainted with them when I first came to the country.

Q Do you pretend to say that Nancy Grubbs couldn't have been away from that town for six months without you knowing it? A No, I would not say that, most anybody could have been away from that town and me not know it, not know anything about it, but the family hasn't been away from there.

Q What do you mean by the family? A Why the children generally.

Q Well now name the children that you mean by saying the family?

Q Well, Lou I guess, Lou has been away for the last several years, she died, she was Gravens' wife, she was Wash Ross' wife in the first place when I first knew her.

Q Now we are talking about Nancy Grubbs and not her family and I want to know whether you can swear that she has been there all the time since you knew her, or not? A Well, she has a great deal, the biggest part of the time, but I wouldn't say she has been there all the time, I recollect once that she was at Fort Scott some little time but I don't recollect how long that was, the majority of the years since I have been there I run a meat market, I used to deal with the Grubbs when they had any meat to buy of me, and they usually bought meat right along, more or less.

Q Isn't it a fact that Nancy Grubbs hasn't kept house for twenty or thirty years? A No, it is not.

Q That the older children who lived in Iowa kept the house there, Harry and Arthur? A Well they might have kept the house a great deal of the time, but Nancy Grubbs has been there.

Q You don't say she ever kept that as her house, she kept the house, run the house? A Why, yes, I suppose so, she lived there.

Q Well, didn't she live there with her older children, Arthur and Harry? A Well now that is a question, whether she lived with them or them with her, I don't know how that was, but they all lived there.

Mr. Hastings: Now you have known them since '78 I believe? A Yes, sir.

Q Now how often, or about how often, have you seen them since that time? A Why I used to see them of course there near every week day, she nearly always came to town when she lived out in the country and washed every day, old Uncle Mose used to fetch her to town frequently and when he didn't she came afoot, and back home; she has washed for my folks lots of times.

Q Well, how frequently did you see her after she came to town? A Oh pretty near every big occasion, especially any sort of a social, she would always help the woman, everybody called her Aunt Nancy, she was known by that and nothing else.

Q Did you ever miss her for any considerable length of time? A No, I never missed her away from there any great length of time.

Mr. Hallett: Could she have been away from there without you missing her? A Oh she might, yes, sir, I don't suppose she was gone, she was a very popular colored woman among the women folks.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Vinita, Indian Territory, October 11, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Kate Ridge for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

TESTIMONY ON THE PART OF RESPONDENT NATION.

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Mellette & Smith, Attorneys for Appl.
Mr. L.B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation,
and Mr. W.W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.
W.H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.

Q What is your age? A 38.

Q Post-office address? A Zenia, Ia. T.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living here after the war began? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go? A Into the Cherokee Nation.

Q For what did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.

Q Where did you come to? A Came to a place near the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District,
Cherokee Nation.

Q How far was that from where the Missouri River crosses Honey Creek? A About a mile and a half.

Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66; I don't remember the month exactly.

Q Will you live there after the war began, or how came you to go on that place? A We lived on that place in the Cherokee Nation.

Q How came you to go on that Polston place? A Bought it from Dr. Polston, my father-in-law.

Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 16 years old.

Q Was there any town there at that time near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store near near the line that they called Honey Creek.

Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about 2 years.

Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.

Q And you left it? A Yes sir.

Q Well how you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.

Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.

Q Were you acquainted with one Kate Ridge, a Freedman? A No sir.

Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.

Q No parties of that sort lived down on that place? A No sir.

Q Are you acquainted with that's known as the old Washburn place at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Was there any freedmen living on that place by that name? A No
sir.

Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.

Q Well how south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever, corn or 3 miles.

Q When did Dr. Polston sell that place after you bought it from him or did he ever? A He sold it on the place then in 1868.

in '68.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville, Arkansas.

Q There was no living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Mayesville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q How do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he came from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when the, no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Kate Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washburn place that you knew? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. MURKIN:

Q How old are you, Mr. Fowdy? A 48 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 15 years old then in 1866, that right? A Yes sir, being on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q He was quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days? A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 15 year old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q What place are you talking about as the one that didn't colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q What was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly, the banks of Honey Creek, I call I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 15 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q How did you return? A In '65.

Q What time in '65? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Choctaw Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY COUNSEL:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. MURKIN:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas on Mike Blowers' place.

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee Nation in '65? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge and (p. 113)

W. M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Hedges, testified as follows:

BY MR. HEDGES:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A W. M. Woodall, 32, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedmen Woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of a Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 3rd article of the Treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokees? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I know them in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Herman Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '56, spring of '56.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister of my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A Yes, she died several years before; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sister, Mrs. Washburn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q It is home that he had was in Washington county, Arkansas?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Rachel? A Yes sir.

Q Did she have a husband named Fanny? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Could you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there, that I know of, she had other children, but I can't remember of ever seeing them when they were small, I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. WELLS:

Q Mrs. Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not, he always lived there, he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until 1856 did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, was it? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866, I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Katie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me, they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not, they didn't ask me that question at all, they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge, brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you claim to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his life, my present husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.

Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I think lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.

Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?

Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Yes it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.

Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri, I saw her husband.

Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.

Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.

Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; I didn't see any of his family at that time.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge, first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.

Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Vatie place, that's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, I was horseback and met the wagon, I was with Dean Vatie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN A. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. HELL:

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Brown is my post-office; my name is John A. Shields; my age is 33.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A I guess not.

Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right somehow or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of those that got behind. I am not a citizen myself at all.

Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 3 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Old Road", line between the Cherokee Nation and Missouri.

Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.

Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A Yes sir.

Q What was there? A Honey Creek without any thing more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the creek, there was no town or village there at all.

Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.

Q Who was the first man that put the store? A John Stephens and J. F. Lawrence were the first ones.

Q Was there a post-office at Southwest City? A Well that kept a post-office there in the Cherokee Nation, I think the post-office was located.

Q Well the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

Rattle Ridge (sup' 1) 6

Q What was the place called when it was Honey Creek? A Honey Creek. Q Did it
Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when, change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.

Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when.
I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. MILLER: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES M. MILL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. MILL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M.
Mill, aged 44, post-office Needmore, or Vinita, either one.

Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation are you? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with some exception if a few intervals I have been here since '38.

Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 22nd day of June, 1839.

Q What did he live about? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware District.

Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.

Q Tell what they were if you can do so? A He had his first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rachel Ridge was the next, Herman, Marcus, Andrew, Susan, Mary, Flora, Malston, continued the family.

Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue us to reside in the Cherokee nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.

Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.

Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '40 something that I was there.

Q That in Benton County? A In Benton County.

Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.

Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.

Q You were acquainted with John Ridge were you? A Yes sir.

Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?

Q He was between 25 and 30, he was 25 I reckon between that and 30.

Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '39 I believe, in
'39, in the Cherokee nation.

Q Well his father was killed in '34, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.

Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother or he was a single man, had no family of his own.

Q He was with his mother? A In Benton County, Arkansas.

Q What did he join the army? A He joined in '38.

Q Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.

Q Do you know of his ever having a family, location or home or how location in the Cherokee nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.

Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes
sir.

Q They were closely related to you very close? A Yes sir.

Q By blood, friendship, social relations or what? A It is my mother.

standing that we are related by blood, but what service I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

BY MR. BELLETT:

Q. Where did you live just before the war? A. My father lived in what was called First district down here near Sailwell before the war.

Q. Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A. They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware District.

Q. That's in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

Q. Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A. Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long. Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q. Now were you there and knew all about this personally, did you see that? A. I saw Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q. I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A. I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q. I will ask you if they didn't leave the territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A. That is the family?

Q. Yes. A. Left the country on that account. That's my understanding, yes sir.

Q. You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A. Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q. Why? A. Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q. All you know is that they were out of the territory? A. Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q. I will ask you now if a Mrs. Ridge, the mother of John Ridge, who lived in Benton County, there, Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back and forth from there and was in their farm to keep it up? A. I know nothing of that.

Q. Didn't she take supplies from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville to live on? A. She might have done so, but I know nothing of that.

L. B. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. W. HASTINGS:

Q. What is your name? A. L. B. Bell, 66 years old, Virginia.

Q. Where were you born? A. Well I was born in the State of Georgia I guess, Raverahan County, they tell me. I don't have no recollection of it.

Q. Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation here? A. Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Smith farm in 1843 when the whole world was flooded. I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '44.

Q. Do you remember the Ridge family? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A. Yes, I know what they called the Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q. Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A. On lots of times.

Q. Now who lived there, occupied it? A. Old Peter, the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he had a son, John, and one more.

and had to go to California, left there and never came back and more. There was also one Peter, he was a son of John, but he was there, remained on the place I don't know.

Q. I guess later on the name of Dr. Volater, who married Peter, was Peter's son, I think. Peter's family, they lived there until he was killed, when I got or 4 years.

Q Did you know Herman Hidge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Hidge so far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first, next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he came and joined our regiment, that is the Confederate Army. General Watie was a kinsman of his and he joined the 1st Regiment that he was joining, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, - his wife died in about 1863, his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. MULLETTE:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee Nation in the conduct of these Freedmen Cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. MULLETTE: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. HULL:

Q Did Herman Hidge keep his slaves, was this Kate up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. MULLETTE:

Q Did she remain in the Cherokee Nation at any time after the war while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q Now the descendants of the Hidges are still citizens of the Cherokee Nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Hidge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Hidge's sister, the children are Herman Hidge's nieces & nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A At Fayetteville.

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I knew her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Hidge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Hidge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville? A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Hidge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went, I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Hidge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the Territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Hidge family in '48? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation? A I think it is so now. A He is not living now.

Q He came back into it after the war? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if they were not taken out of the Cherokee Nation because of the war? A Yes sir, they were taken out of the Cherokee Nation because of the war.

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know this Lon Lynch who just testified in this case? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a slave that belonged to the family named Steve Lynch or Henry? A Yes sir, I knowed him before Lynch owned him, as Buffington.

Q Did you know his wife, Peggie? A I know her after the war.

Q Didn't know her before the war? A No sir.

Q Did you know their children? A Yes sir.

Q Name some of them? A I seed a couple of them—her children—my understanding was that they was her children—uncle Steve's step children, one was named Jess and one was named William.

Q What time did you come back here after the war? A As soon as I was musteredd out I came back there and married her and have been there ever since.

Q Come back when? A '65.

Q Who owned that place before the war that you went to when you returned?

A Joe Lynch, during the war the Northern Indians sold the Southern Indians places and my father in law bought it.

Q Where did you live in '65? A Right below my father in law, four miles below him.

Q Where did your father in law live in '65? A On the Joe Lynch place.

Q What was your father in law's name? A George W. Saraper.

Q He is dead now? A Yes sir.

Q When did you first see this Steve Lynch or Henry after the war? A He came on a visit down there in the fall of '67 and stayed there with some other colored people that belonged to the Lynch family, George and Simon.

Q Was his family there? A No sir, he was on a visit by himself.

Q Did you see him? A Yes sir.

Q Where did he say he was from? A Kansas.

Q Where was his family then? A He said in Kansas.

Q What was in '67? A Yes sir.

Q When did you next see him? A Fall of '68.

Q Was his family there then? A Yes sir.

Q You know this family well do you? A Yes sir, they live close to me.

Q How far do they live from you? A 3 or 4 miles, from where I lived then and now three and a half miles according to the measure line.

Q This is the same Steve? A Yes sir the same one.

Q Same one that you had a talk with in the fall of '67? A Yes sir. There was a colored man that used to belong to uncle Joe that was named George and he was a blacksmith and had a shop up there and did the neighborhood blacksmithing, I saw Steve there when I went to have some blacksmithing done.

Q He never made a crop on the old Joe Lynch place in '66? A No sir, my father in law made a crop there that year.

(By L. B. Bell)

Q Did he make a crop on the Harrison place in '66? A No sir it was a vacant place then, no one lived on it.

(By applicant of witness)

Q How long before you saw Steve Henry before you moved to the Dirsteater place? A I moved to the Dirsteater place before '68.

Q When you didn't know Steve Henry before you moved to the Dirsteater place? A Yes sir I knew him before the war.

(By the Commission)

Q Did you know this applicant here? A Yes sir I know him.

Q Was he up there at that time? A Yes sir they was the old lady's boys, my understanding is that these two boys is only step children of old uncle Steve.

Q Did you know these two boys before the war? A No sir.

Q If Steve came there into the country and located a place before that you don't know it? A No sir.

Q The first time you saw him was in '67? A Yes sir after the war.

Q He had been a slave? A Yes sir, belonged to Buffington before he belonged to Lynch.

Chas. von Weise

Commissioner

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Washoe, I. T., April 19, 1902.

In the matter of the application of James Vann and others for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Applicant represented by Lewis E. Brown, Vinita, I. T.
Cherokee Nation represented by James S. Davenport.

JOSEPHINE HUMISTON, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Josephine Humiston.

Q Where do you live, Mrs. Humiston? A I live in Linn County, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Linn County, Kansas? A I have lived there the greater part of the time since '87. I have been out of the county a few times on visits, and was away some eight or ten months at a time, but that's been my home ever since '87.

Q Since you lived in that county did you get acquainted with a colored man by the name of Stephen Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first get acquainted with him? A I must have seen him first in the fall of '89 or winter. I won't be certain whether it was in the winter or fall, but I think it was in the fall.

Q Do you know whether or not he had a family? A Yes, sir, he had a wife and some children.

Q What was his wife's name, if you know? A Feggie.

Q Do you remember the names of any of his children? A The older boy they called Jesse, and Will, and Vinny the eldest girl, and I am not positive which of the others was the elder, Julia Ann, and one called Fannie. I think Julia Ann is probably the eldest one. Those children he brought there to the place when he came.

Q Well, now, on these places did I understand you to say they lived; after you got acquainted with them where did they live on? A They lived on my husband's place, William B. Emerson, that's my first husband.

Q You say that the children you have named they were in the family when they moved on the place? A When they moved on the place he brought these four children with them.

Q While they were living on your place were there any children born to the family? A Three others.

Q What were their names? A Fannie was one, and Nettie and Sarah, but Sarah died when she was small, Sarah died when she was probably about two months old.

Q Well, about how long did they live on your place or about what year did they leave or move away from the place? A They moved in the fall of '97.

Q Your husband was a man of business conducting affairs, and kept accounts with the different parties that was on the farm? A He was always particular in keeping his accounts. He was the surveyor of Linn County, and had a great deal of business, and it became necessary for him to keep them in good order.

Q Do you know whether or not during the year '97 he kept an account between himself and Stephen Lynch, a book account? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know where that book is now? A I have had it in my possession all these years.

Q Is that husband living or dead? A Dead; he died in '98 I think.

Q Would you recognize his handwriting if you should see it? A Yes, sir, I would.

Q If when you would examine the book that I hand you and see whether or not the account on page 17 of that book is in the handwriting of your deceased husband, Mr. Emerson? A Yes, sir, that's his handwriting; I will swear to it.

Q As I understand, you have had this book in your possession since the death of your husband? A Yes, sir.

Q You knew Stephen Lynch's family quite well because they lived on the farm there for several years? A Lived on the farm, they raised five crops on the farm.

Q You don't know where those older children were born that you speak of? A No, I don't.

Q Do you know whether or not Stephen's children, the older ones that you named, are children by another husband of Peggie's? A I think they were children by another husband.

Q You don't know that or anything about it? A Only as I have heard them say so. I have heard Peggie speak of it frequently, that those older children were not Steve's.

Q I want to introduce the entries on page 17 that have been identified by the witness as being in the handwriting of her deceased husband, which book she states has been in her possession continuously since the death of her husband:

MR. EMERSON: Mrs. Emerson, at the top of this page referred to I was there has been some name there written before the word Stephen was written; can you tell me what that word was? A No.

Q Don't know what name was there before the word Stephen was wrote over it, do you? A No, sir, I don't; I don't know that there was any such name there; of course a person might make a mistake in writing.

Q Now how long did this man Stephen Lynch rent a place from your husband? A He raised five crops.

Q Raised five crops? A Yes, sir.

Q When did he raise the first crop? A In the year '65.

Q Well, where was he when he raised it? A He wasn't on the place; don't know where they was; he was there all through those years.

Q There was no Emersons, was there? A No one at the place or at least his family was.

Q And during the month of December, '86, where was he? A If he was off of the place I didn't know it; I don't know where he was, he was on there I think.

Q It was possible for him to have gone away from that place and stayed as much as ten days and you not know it? A No might have done it.

Q He could have done it without you knowing it; you didn't have no occasion to know when he went and where he went, did you? A No, sir, not at all times.

Q Now then, if this applicant claims to have come to the Cherokee Nation in the month of December, '86, and stayed three or four or five days, are you prepared to say that he didn't come? A Not to my knowledge he didn't.

Q But you wouldn't swear positively that he wasn't here three or four days in the month of December, '86, would you? A I have no knowledge of it whatever.

Q Well, I say you wouldn't swear positively that he wasn't here three or four days during that month in that year? A Well, I think I could certainly say no, he wasn't.

Q Well, were you away from the farm any time during the years from '85 to '87? A Not any length of time.

Q For how long a time would you be away? A Not more than two days at a time.

Q Not more than two days? A No, sir.

Q Well, now you spoke of being away eight or ten months, was that during that time or since then? A Years and years since, probably fifteen years ago; not while they were there though.

Q There were a great many colored people in that neighborhood at that time that come from the Territory, were there not? A Well, I didn't know where they come from, there were quite a number come to visit Steve while he was on my place.

Q Well, now, Mrs. Humiston, do you know any colored family that left there in the fall of '86? A I do not.

Q You wouldn't have remembered anything about Stephen Lynch being there during the year '87 if it hadn't been from the fact that you have this book, would you? A Certainly I would; I remember well when he left if I hadn't seen that book.

Q How many years ago has that been? A It was the year of '87 I guess.

Q It's been about thirty-five years ago, has it not? A Yes, sir, I should say it has.

Q Is there anything to impress the leaving of this man upon your mind or your memory? A Yes, sir, we saw him leave the place.

Q Well, you have seen other people leave, haven't you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember the month and the year they left thirty-five or six years ago? A Well, I didn't remember the month to be sure, but I know it was after the crop was laid by and gathered and everything.

Q Well, now, during the winter months there wasn't much to do on the farm was there? A My husband always hired his work done; he was away from home, and always hired his work done, hired Steve to attend to everything on the place.

Q Well now did your husband hire Steve Lynch during the year '86? A Yes, sir.

Q Does this book show any record that he was hired? A No, not that book.

Q Have you any book that does? A I had a diary, but I didn't bring it.

Q Did you look in that diary before you left home to see whether or not that it showed that he worked during that year? A No, sir.

Q And notwithstanding the fact that this man worked for your husband five years this is the only record that he had so far as you know as to that work was done by him at that place? A Well, I think that he didn't keep his books in that place so he had it mixed up with diaries before that. You see that this began about that time I think.

COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: D-261, D-190, D-518, D-509, D-538, and in the case at bar, No. D-264.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Is he older than Ellen? A. Yes sir.

Q Mr. Devanport. Where were you living when the war came up? A. Living in going alone.

Q Where did you go when the war broke out, if you ever left the country? A. Springfield, Mo.

Q Well now, how long did you live at Springfield, Mo.? A. We didn't stay there a year.

Q Did you go to Springfield about the time the war broke out? A. No, we went there along during the war.

Q Well, where was your daughter Frances born? A. Born in slave times.

Q Where was she born? A. Born in slave times.

Q Where was she born? A. Born in slave times.

I I think she was either five years old or six, I don't know which.
Q Where was Henry born? A He was born, I don't know where he was born at, either in Kansas or Springfield, I don't know which, because we were traveling all the time.
Q The fact is, you have never had any permanent place of living since the war? A No sir.
Q How long did you live in Kansas? A Never lived in Kansas.
Q How long did you live in Missouri? A I just traveled around in Missouri, I don't know how long we did stay there.
Q About how many years did you stay there? A I can't tell you.
Q Did you stay there three or four years? A I think we staid there two years, I think.
Q Well, where did you go from Missouri? A Came on back down here, camped along, we were traveling by ourselves, nobody with us, went by ourselves and came by ourselves.
Q After you got back down here, then where did you go? A Went over on the river here to my sister in law's on the Verdigris; met the Verdigris, the Grand river, and staid there two or three weeks.
Q After you staid over on Grand river, where did you go? A Went on Big creek.
Q How long did you stay on Big creek? A Staid there ever since we have been here.
Q You never lived on Reuben creek? A No sir, the old man has been over there.
Q Haven't you lived in Arkansas a while since the war? A No, sir, I know of it, we did I didn't know it was there.
Q Didn't your husband and you go over there and live near Cape Hill, Arkansas after the war with a man named Fisher? A I don't know nothing about him.
Q About five miles from Cape Hill, Arkansas; didn't you live over there a while? A No sir, not as I know of, we just traveled all the time, we never staid anywhere hardly any time, didn't stay traveling.
Q Never had a home anywhere since the war? A Not till we came to Big creek.
Q How long have you been living on Big creek? A Ever since '65.
Q Well, now didn't you and your husband go to Leavenworth, Kansas, and live there a little while there with a fellow by the name of Tom Root? A No sir, I don't know nothing about him.
Q Did you ever know such a man as Tom Root? A No sir.
Q Well how is it you remember you came back here just four months before a certain Christmas in '66? A Because I had my oldest boy, he was born, he was 2 years old in the year '65.
Q How old is he now? A Well, I don't forget, how old he is now I know he was 2 years old the year the treaty was made, he was two years old, he was born in '64.
Q How old is your oldest boy now, do you know? A No sir, I can't say, I forgot.
Q You know he was born in '64? A Yes sir.
Q What time of the year was he born? A On the 4th day of July, 1864.
Q Now when did you go to Springfield, Missouri? A We went there during the war.
Q What time during the war? A I can't tell you nothing about the year and months.
Q You told me about '66, can't you tell me when the war broke out? A
No sir.
Q Did you go to Springfield after the war broke out? A I don't know, we went out, we staid down till the Confederates run us away.
Q About how long was it after the war began that you went to Springfield? A I can't tell you.

Q You certainly have some idea, was it a year or two years? A I guess it was two or three.

Q Well, you staid there about a year? A Yes sir, I guess we did.

Q Now you staid there longer than that? A No sir, we didn't we just traveled.

Q Did you go direct from the Territory to Springfield, Mo? A Yes sir, we went from the Territory to Springfield, and we were just by ourselves, and nobody wasn't with us.

Q Now your child, Frances, you say was born in the Cherokee Nation A Yes sir.

Q Was she born after you came back from Springfield, Missouri? A She was born in slave time I tell you.

Q She was born before you went to Springfield? A Yes sir, she was born a slave.

Q She was born on the 4th day of July? A No sir, the boy.

Q Well, how old was Frances when you went to Springfield? A I think Frances was either 6 years old, I don't know which, or seven.

Q Was she born before you went to Springfield, or after you got back? A No, he was born when we went to Springfield.

Q Before you went? A Yes sir.

Q When you left the Territory for Springfield sometime after July 4, 1864? A Yes sir, I think that is it.

Q Now you staid about a year at Springfield? A No we didn't stay any year at Springfield.

Q Well, how long did you stay? A I think I told you how long we staid; if I knew the numbers and dates I could tell you, but I can't tell you, because I just can't say.

Q Was it less than a year? A I don't know, we staid about something near a year.

Q Did you go direct from Springfield to the Cherokee Nation? A Well the way we traveled around, it would take us a long time, because one way or the other.

Q When you started from Springfield, was your objective point the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, come to the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know, because one way or the other.

Q Where were the children? A I had one in my lap and the other in mine.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know sir.

Q Did you come by Fort Scott? A No sir.

Q Heavenworth? A No sir, we didn't we didn't come that way, we come through the woods.

Q To what point in the Cherokee Nation did you come when you returned? A I can't tell you.

Q Do you know what district it was in? A No sir, because I didn't know the names of places or districts.

Q Did you come by any point in Arkansas before you come to the Territory? A I think we came to a place they called Searsville. I think that is the way we came.

Q You didn't go from Springfield to Sans Hill? A Yes sir.

Q Was the time your husband and family was over there and he was working far richer over to Sans Hill? A No sir, we never lived at Sans Hill.

Q Do you think you were as much as a year coming from Springfield to the Territory? A I think we were.

Q You traveled pretty much all the time, didn't you? A Yes sir, and we traveled till we got tired, and then camped in the woods.

Q Did you stop and rest along the road? A He would go out and work a little, get enough grub, and they start again.

Q How long would you work on one place? A Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just get something to eat.

Q Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just to get something to eat.

Q You were not more than a month at any one time, the time from spring to the fall? A No, sir, I guess not.

Q (Mr. Hollister) I want to ask you one more question when you first came to the territory? A Came to my sister lady, Peter Williams' wife.

Q Lived where? A She lived on Grand River, that is one first place.

THE WITNESS, having been sworn and examined by Commissioner Washington, testified as follows:

Q Give us your full name? A John Hardison.

Q How old are you? A 41.

Q What is your past office? A Sheriff.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

Q Were you during the war, were you not? A Yes sir.

Q Were you on the roll of 1867? A No sir.

Q (Mr. Hollister) Do you know the applicant, Jane Loney? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know her husband, William Loney? A I knowed her husband.

Q Did you know them before the war? A I knowed her husband before the war.

Q You didn't know Jane before the war? A No sir.

Q Well, where did he live before the war? A Lived at Marshall's, down in the Cherokee Nation, George Marshall.

Q Who owned him? A George Marshall.

Q Was George Marshall a Cherokee Indian? A No sir, his wife was.

Q He was a white man? A Yes sir.

Q Well, do you know when this applicant and William Loney returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A I don't know, I know when William came to my house.

Q Well, when did he come to your house? A In the summer of '68.

Q Where did he come to your house? A On Grand River, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q You didn't see this applicant then? A No sir, I didn't see her, William came himself and he was looking for his sister.

Q You don't know where she was? A No sir.

Q Do you know what became of William after that? A No sir, I don't.

Q Did you see him any more? A I seen him two or three at '7 years after that.

Q Where? A He was over here at Vintha.

Q Do you know where he lived at that time, when you saw him at Vintha? A No sir, I don't.

Q (Mr. Hollister) You are satisfied that when you saw this William Loney over there in the summer it was '68 or '69? A Yes sir.

Q It was earlier than Christmas, or December? A It was in the summer.

Q It was earlier than four weeks before Christmas? A It was in the summer.

Q You don't know where they had been living prior to that time that you saw him there? A No, I don't.

Q And you don't know where they lived since that time? A No sir.

Q (Mr. Hollister) Do you know anything about this woman being married to William Loney? A No sir, he says that when he said he was a wife.

Q Did you never see his wife in those days? A No sir.

Q How long had you known this woman? A I never saw her until she came to the court.

Q (Mr. Hollister) When did he tell you he was a wife? A Over at the office.

THE WITNESS, having been sworn and examined by Commissioner Washington, testified as follows:

Q Give us your name? A Charles Hollister.

Q And you are now 70 years old.

Q Is your post office? A. Enderson.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Been living here

Q You got married the war on, is that right? A. Yes sir, I wasn't in the war.

Q Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation while the war was going on?

Q I went away to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Did you ever live in the Cherokee Nation?

Q Yes, I did. Charlie, do you know the applicant her, Jane Leoney?

Q Yes, I know her. A. Yes sir.

Q Well now, when did you first see them after the war? do you remember?

Q I saw him in '88 in Fort Gibson.

Q Where was she? A. He said he left her on Grand river, he told me;

Q She wasn't with him at all, he was by himself.

Q Well, when did they move up on Big Creek, do you know anything about that? A. No, I don't know just when they moved up there, I don't know.

Q Did you get acquainted with them up there? A. I got acquainted with them after I came from Fort Gibson up here, when I went where they had come moved to.

Q Where were they living then? A. They were living out on the prairie, out on the east side of Big Creek.

Q In what territory? A. In the Cherokee Nation district here.

Q About when was that that you came up from Fort Gibson and found them there? A. That was along somewhere in '70.

Q Mr. Davidson, I saw you saw Balston Leoney at Fort Gibson in '88, is that right?

Q When time in the year was that? A. Why it was along a while, just a while before Christmas, little while before Christmas.

Q Now then if Balston Leoney testified in 1888 that he never returned to Fort Gibson at all, was that true or untrue? A. If he gave such evidence as that in 1888, that he never did return to Fort Gibson, is that true or untrue? A. I saw him there.

Q I asked you, if he testified that, was it true or untrue; in giving his testimony before the Sam-Clifton commission, if he gave such evidence as that, was it true or untrue? A. I can't answer that question.

Q When did you come back to this country? A. I come back in '65.

Q Are you on the 1860 roll regularly? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you have any conversation with Balston Leoney at Fort Gibson in '88? A. No sir, not but a very little bit.

Q Did he have with him? A. He didn't have anybody with her, I don't know. I saw him there, and I went to him and shook hands with him because I was acquainted with him.

Q Any other children did they have when the war broke out? A. Didn't know him then.

Q A year ago or year and a half ago, when they went during the war?

Q I don't know where they went.

Q Did you remain in the same locality where they had lived, or to that locality when you came back after the war? A. I stopped first right side side of Fort Smith, on this side the river in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well, did you go back in that neighborhood? A. Yes sir, I came back the neighborhood where I used to live, lived on the same place I lived in that neighborhood when you returned up there there after the war? A. Yes, my owners was living there on that same place. I came right back to them.

Q Was there any other? A. Charles, Maxwell Chambers and his wife, of course and was dead, but his wife was living on the same place.

Q Where had the right family gone? A. They went south too.
Q Do you know to whom Belston Looney belonged at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir, belonged to George Murrell.
Q Where was George Murrell living? A. Well, George Murrell was living there in what they call Park Hill.
Q How far was Park Hill from where you lived at the Chambers place? A Well, it was all pretty near the same place, it was all called Park Hill where they all lived, we didn't live just two or three miles part.
Q George Murrell was a man who had a farm in Virginia and lived in Virginia the greater part of his time? A I suppose he had a place there.
Q He lived there the greater part of his time? A. Pretty much.
Q Also kept a part of his slaves in Louisiana? A I guess he did, I understand he did, anyway.
Q Did George Murrell ever have a permanent home at Park Hill, where he himself and family resided? George Murrell ever live permanently with his family at Park Hill, in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, he was there, called that home.
Q He would go back and forward? A Yes sir, he would be there, because I knowed him.
Q His wife was a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross, who now lives at Fort Gibson? A Seems to me she was the daughter of Lewis Ross.
Q Wasn't she a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross? A Yes sir, that is right.
Q Then Belston Looney didn't belong to Jane Leenow at the breaking out of the war? A. No sir.
Q And you don't know who this man belonged to at the breaking out of the war? A Yes sir.
Q Who did she belong to? A. Eli Wright.
Q How do you know that? A. I seen her there.
Q How far did Eli Wright live from Park Hill? A He lived a good ways, but I was all over the country in them times.
Q About how far? A. I cant tell you just exactly it was.
Q Was it a hundred miles? A. No, I guess now since I come to be grown I expect it was somewhere between thirty and forty miles over there.
Q You lived in there at Park Hill, you say? A. Yes sir.
Q And the other parties lived over thirty or forty miles from you? A Yes sir.
Q There was no way of getting back and forth except by horse? A. No sir, except on horseback.
Q And there was no settlement between the Park Hill settlement and the settlement of Going Snake where they lived? A I expect there was, I just went going through there, I was going to Cincinnati.
Q When were you at Eli Wright's place, when you claim to be the owner of this woman before the war? A. I didn't stay very long.
Q How long did you stay? A. I was there one time.
Q When did you next see this woman after the war broke out? A Why I never seed her any more until I came from Tahlequah up here on Big Creek.
Q What was that? A. That was along in '87.
Q They haven't had a permanent place of living, have they, since the war her husband? A. Yes sir, they had a log house put up.
Q Didn't they just live from place to place and town to town? A Well, he did for a while, and that time he told me his wife was over on Grand river.
Q What makes you know it was just before Christmas, in '86 you saw him down there? A Because I know him, because I asked him to come take Christmas with me.
Q How long before Christmas was it, was many years after the war broke out? A. I don't know what year the war broke out, but,
Q How long before Christmas and in what year after peace was declared? A I can't hardly tell you that.

Q What year, and how long before Christmas was it the treaty was made? A I know one thing, I know the people near where I was living told me that peace had been declared and the folks was all coming home and I picked up and lit out too.

Q Will, how long before Christmas was the treaty made, and what year? A. And I know right after that, in the next year after I came up there, that was when I seen him.

Q Who was living in Fort Gibson at the time you saw him? A. I can't tell you, there was a plenty of soldiers there.

Q Wasn't there some Cherokee families there, or colored families?

A There was one or two colored families there, I can't tell you, it has been so long ago.

Q Lewis Daniels was living there? A Lewis Daniels was living around there somewhere.

Q And F. H. Nash was living there, wasn't he? A. I don't know.

Q F. P. Ross? A Yes sir, I believe he was, I believe he was living around there some place, but I don't know whether he was living in town or not.

Q You don't remember anyone living there except you saw Bolston Looney there, is that it? A. There is a man now lives right close to where there is a little hollow going down towards the river, that they call Vann.

(Commissioner) You say you know this woman before the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Was she married to Bolston Looney then? A. I think she was, she had one child, I think she was married to him; I don't know for certain whether she was or not.

Q Where did you first know her certainly as Bolston Looney's wife? A I never knew her really as his wife, not till he came back here with her.

Q When did you first see her with him after the war? A That was in '37, and I am just going to tell you just exactly.

Q You saw him and her together at that time? A Yes sir, they were living together.

Q As husband and wife? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen more or less of her ever since? A. Yes, I seen her off and on all the while since.

Q And of him also? A. Yes sir, they were living together.

Q He died about three years ago? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you seen them ever since as husband and wife? A. Yes sir, they been living ever since as husband and wife.

Q Now this George Murrell that you spoke of, who was his wife? A I think it was a daughter of Lewis Ross if I mistake not.

Q She was a Cherokee woman was she? A. Yes sir.

Q That the family of old Chief Ross? A Yes sir, if I am not mistaken he was her brother.

Q You think then George Murrell's wife was a niece of the old Chief?

A Yes sir, I think she is as well as I can recollect.

(Mr. Mellette) Didn't George Murrell build a fine house at Park Hill? A. Yes sir.

Q Was it brick or frame? A. I don't just recollect what the house was built of, it was a fine house.

Q It was the house R. E. Ross lived in now? A. Yes sir, I think it is.

(Mr. Davenport) Do you know where Bob Ross lives now? A Yes sir.

Q Lewis Ross? Bob Ross, do you know where he lives? A Bob Ross was living at Tahlequah, the man I am thinking about now.

Q What made you answer Mr. Mellette that you thought the house George Murrell built was the house Bob Ross was living in now? A Maybe I didn't understand him good.

(Mr. Mellette) I asked you if George Murrell didn't build a fine house at Park Hill? A Yes sir.

Q You know about that? A. Yes sir.

Q Then I asked you if Bob Ross is living in that house now? A I don't know where Mr. Ross is living now, I misunderstood you sir, I beg your pardon.

The applicant is identified on the Kern patent roll, but not upon the roll of 1864 or upon that of 1866. It appears that she and her deceased husband were slaves in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the Civil War, and were the property of Cherokee citizens. They seem to have lived together as the witness of the fact, and to have gone into the State of Missouri, and claim to have returned to the Cherokee Nation about four weeks before Christmas, in 1865. The testimony on this point is somewhat conflicting. With a view to the application of her children, they have been identified in the course of the examination as her children, and it appears that their claim will depend upon the claim that may be established for their father or father. It seems that the marriage between the applicant and her husband was legal, full, they have been married for some time, her testimony, since before the Civil War, and that she was together until his death, some three years ago. The fact that she is listed as applicant as a Cherokee free woman, and that she is the father consideration of the fact that she is the mother of the applicant will be made known to her at her next hearing.

The Kern office has examined and the husband of Jane Logan, identified herself, and the husband of Jane Logan, as Bess Logan.

Judge C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is for applicant;

W. W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

FRANK PEERMAN, being first duly sworn and being examined
testified as follows:

BY W. W. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Frank Peerman.
Q How old are you? A 65 years old.
Q Where do you live? A Atchison County, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived in that County? A Since January '58.
Q Did you know a colored woman up there in Atchison County Kansas
by the name of Jane Looney? A I did.
Q Did you know her husband? A I did.
Q What name did her husband go by? A Andy Looney.
Q Did you know any of Jane's children? A Yes, I know Frances.
Q What is her present name? A Smith.
Q What was her husband's first name? A I did not know that.
Q Did you know any of the rest of her children? A Why, I have seen several of them, I have no particular knowledge; they have worked around for my daughter and myself some but I have no particular knowledge of the other two of them.
Q What are the others named do you know? A Really I don't know how many children she has got.
Q I mean of Jane Looney? A Oh I thought you were speaking about Frances. Jane Looney yes, I know Frances is her eldest daughter, and the eldest boy was born on the place where I live now, Henry,
he was born in '54.
Q You mean in '64? A Yes sir.
Q Well what is the next one? A There was a John, there was several children after they left our neighborhood, I don't know how many they had after they moved to Atchison, there was a Ellen,
there was a George, and there was a John, then three I heard of,
not personally knewed them either.
Q Her husband there was known as Andy Looney? A Yes sir.
Q When did you first learn to know this man and woman in Kansas?
A It was either in '55 in the fall or in the spring of '64, I won't be positive, but it was either one of those times.
Q Where did they live in '64? A On the place I own now.
Q How long did they continue to live there? A Until spring of '57.
Q Continuously all the time? A Continuously all the time, farmed
the place.
Q Where did they go in the spring of '67? A They moved to a place right adjoining it on the east where old man Filman built a little cabin there, they lived there two years.
Q That would be the spring of '69? A Yes sir.
Q Then where did they go? A Then in the spring of '69 they moved on the place right north of me.
Q How far from you? A The house not being more than about 40
rods from where I live now.
Q How long did they live there? A Two years.
Q That would bring it up to '71? A Yes sir.

Q Then where did they go? A They moved to Atchison.

Q How far is that? A 5 or 6 miles, we call it 5 or 6 miles.

Q Did you see them after that? A I saw them 15 years after that, positively and I might say 20, but 15 years anyhow; I saw Andy Looney in '92 the last time and had a long talk with him; he was fencing ground for my daughter.

Q Did you see him frequently after he went to town? A Yes sir.

Q You know when he left up there? A No.

Q You say '92 is the last time you positively remember seeing him? A Yes sir, I had no ~~business~~ dealings with him; that is the last time I talked with him and I didn't know he had gone until here a few years ago.

Q How about Frances Smith? A She lived there in Atchison.

Q Does she live there now? A She lived there now, her husband is working there and the family is there.

Q When is the last time you saw her? A Well I have not seen Frances for several years, because I have no dealings or no need of seeing her, but I have seen her children, I saw one of her children that worked for me this winter up until January.

Q Up until this last January? A Yes, this last January last month, and he worked for my daughter the last month.

Q What is that child's name? A Fred Smith.

Q Do you know John Looney or Henry Looney of these boys? A I know Henry, because he was born on my place and I have seen him since, he is now in the penitentiary.

Q What is he in the penitentiary for? A Killing his wife.

Q Did you know any of the rest of these boys living up there now? A There is one by the name of John, but as I have no business with him I see him and that is about all, I have no personal knowledge of him much.

Q Now you said they left there and went to Atchison about '71?

A Yes, to the City of Atchison.

Q You say you had occasion to meet them frequently? A Yes sir, often.

Q Did they ever do any work for you after '71 until '92? A Not for me, but my son-in-law, he would do little things in the garden and take care of the house and I would see him, - saw wood, any little thing like that.

Q You know where they were living? A Oh yes.

Q You saw their house? A Oh yes sir, many a time.

Q How far were they living from your son-in-law? A Not more than a quarter of a mile, my son-in-law lived in the south Atchison and they lived in South Atchison, about a quarter of a mile.

Q Well then from about '63 or '64 up until '71 they lived out there either on your farm or the adjoining farm? A Right close adjoining and many a day he has worked for me.

Q What is your business? A Farmer.

Q Are you a farmer yet? A Yes sir.

Q You live on the same place? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Neerman, how long have you lived in Kansas? A Since the winter, since January '58.

Q The people you talk about are people you first became acquainted with in '83 or '4? A Yes sir.

Q Which was it? A The Looney family? they consisted of Andy Looney his wife Jane, and the daughter Frances, about 6 or 7 years old, and the child Henry was born on the place where I lived; they now, they had a cabin, and he was born there.

Q Do you know which year it was, whether it was '63 or '64? A I am not positive, but it was not later than that.

Q How you say the husband of this woman was called Andy? A Andy Looney, he went by, yes sir.

Q How long has it been since you saw the Jane Looney to whom you refer? A Oh it has been a good many years, I couldn't tell you when.

Of course she didn't get out like her husband Andy and the sons so I could see her and I had no business with them and I didn't hunt her up.

Q You know whether Andy Looney is living or not? A I understand he is dead.

Q When did you last see him? A Last time I saw him was in the summer of '92 that I saw him personally and talked with him in Atchison, Kansas.

Q He was living there then? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know whether the people that applied here for admission are the same people you know at all? A I don't know anything about that at all.

H. C. KING, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Give the stenographer your name, please? A H. C. King.

Q How old are you, Mr. King? A 41 years old.

Q Where were you born? A Atchison County, Kansas.

Q You lived in that vicinity all of your life? A No sir, not all the time.

Q Where do you live now? A I live in Atchison County.

Q Where were you living when you were 7 or 8 years of age? A In Atchison County.

Q Did you ever know a colored family up there by the name of Looney? A I know her.

Q You know what the woman's name was? A I don't remember every one, that her name was.

Q Don't remember? A No, not her name particularly.

Q Did you remember his name, Andy? A He was known as Andy Looney.

Q Did you know any of his children? A I remember one named Henry Looney.

Q What became of him? A I learned that he was in the penitentiary from what I heard.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that.

Q You don't know only what you have heard? A Just what I have heard there in town; it has been several years since I heard it.

Q Did you know any of the rest of the family? A I know two now, there's two now that I remember that I know, John Looney and Frances Smith.

Q Where does John Looney live now? A In Atchison.

Q When did you last see him? A Last Saturday about one o'clock.

Q You know whether he is single or married? A He is married I understand.

Q You know whether Frances is single or married? A She is married.

Q You know where she lives? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A She lives 716 W. Street, Atchison.

Q You know what her husband's name is? A I know of him as Doctor Smith.

Q They live there in Atchison? A Yes sir, that is my understanding. I am not acquainted with the man.

Q Were you at her house? A Yes sir.

Q Therefore you are correct as to her place of residence? A Yes sir.

Q How was this Looney family that you knew, this man and woman, the father and mother of these children John and Henry and Frances?

A That has always been my understanding, that they were the children of the family.

Q You know that like you know anything else in the neighborhood?

A Like I know anything, Yes sir.

Q When did Andy Looney and his wife leave that country? A I couldn't say for certain about that, I heard of them leaving about

'96, I had been away from Atchison and came back in 1896, I had been away about 12 or 13 years.

Q When did you leave Atchison County? A I left Atchison County in '83 I think it was '83 or '84.

Q You know whether these Looney's that you speak of were living in '83? A They had been living in Atchison last I knew of them before that, I didn't know just where they was in '83.

Q How long had you known them to be living around in Atchison? A I would judge about 15 years anyhow, something like that.

Q Continuously? A As near as I could learn, occasionally I would see them.

Q You left there about '83 or '84 and came back in '96 and they were gone? A Yes, that is I learned they were gone, I lost track of them anyway, I wasn't particularly acquainted with the younger ones; I remembered Henry as a boy, he wasn't much younger than I was.

Q You don't remember as far back as '66, you are too young? A Well I couldn't say as to the date when I got acquainted with them, but I know when I moved out of the neighborhood in which they lived, the old neighborhood, that was in the fall of '70, I lived about two miles for several years, probably from '65 to '70, within about two miles of Mr. Neerman, and they lived right in the Neerman neighborhood, either on his place or the Tilman place; I know about where they lived.

Q That is as far back as your recollection extends? A Yes sir, they afterwards moved to Atchison? A Yes, I have seen them around Atchison and I understood that they lived there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q How long did you state you were? A 41 years old.

Q You don't remember the name of Andy Looney's wife? A No sir.

Q How many children do you remember? A I don't remember but one particularly; when they were small children.

Q You can only give the name of one child? A That I remembered at that time, when I was a boy.

Q Now when you first knew these people that you speak of you were how old did you say, seven years old? A I was from 6 to 10 somewhere in there, I knew them before I was 10 years old I remember, I lived in the neighborhood with them.

Q Where did you last see any of them? A I saw one that I got acquainted with, John Looney in late years I saw him in Atchison last Saturday.

Q How long have you been living in Atchison County? A 6 years this last time, or about 6 within a month or two of it.

Q You were away awhile? A I was away from Atchison County some 12 or 13 years.

Q Where were you then? A I was in Jefferson County about 10 years and in Oklahoma about 2 years or such a matter.

Q You knew Andy Looney's wife did you? A I knowed her when I was a little shaver.

Q How long has it been since you saw her? A I don't know that I have seen her since in the neighborhood of '70 possibly, along there somewhere, I couldn't say positively.

Q You were there weren't you up until '84? A Not in that immediate neighborhood; they moved out of that neighborhood to town.

Q How far was it to town? A Well it is 8 or 10 miles.

Q And you have never seen her from that time to this? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't know whether it is the same Jane Looney or whether that is the woman that is an applicant in this case or not? A I could not say about that.

Q Was that a thickly settled community in there where they lived in that country? A Pretty thickly settled, yes.

Q Good many people live in Atchison? A Yes sir, along about 16000.

BY COMMISSION: This testimony will be filed and will be part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful Cases: 535, 537, 539, 540, 542 and the same as per 597.

Commissioner

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

George Looney.

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

Service of the above motion accepted and a copy of the same received by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, at Vinita, I. T., this day of , 1905.

Q Did he get water out of a spring or well? A Out of a spring.
Q You remember that is your? A Yes, sir, it appears to me like it is right.
Q Are you certain? A No, sir, I am not quite certain but seems to me like there was a spring.
Q Did Dr. Polston have a horse? A Yes, sir.
Q How many horses did he have? A I don't know.

Cornelius Ridge et al, K.

Like there was an orchard, might have been, I won't be sure.

Q Who did you say your father was? A Herman Ridge.

Q Now, where was Herman living? A Well, sir, I don't know where he was living; he was an intermarried man.

Q He had no home in the Nation did he? A The last account I know of Herman was that when he joined the army.

Q Well, where was he living just before he joined the army?

Q I don't know, sir. I could not tell you.

Q Well now, you came back here did you with your father and mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what was the first point you came to? A In the Nation?

AQ Yes. A On Honey Creek.

Q Now, what place on Honey Creek did you return? A Well, I don't know the name of the place at all; but as near as I can remember it was about probably three or four miles down the creek from where South West City now is.

Q That is the point you came to was it? A Yes, sir.

Q That was near your old home? A Yes, sir.

Q You came right back to the old home didn't you? A No, sir, not right exactly.

Q Well about how far from your old home? A It don't, it must have been probably a mile and a half from the old Ridge place.

Q Did you build a house? A No, sir.

Q How did you live there? A Went into a house that was there.

Q That was vacant? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there? A Well, sir, I expect we were there something like three or four months.

Q Then where did you go? A Went to Missouri.

Q Joplin? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married at Joplin, weren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A Ida.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is Ida? A Ida's about, I don't know, 24 or 25 I guess.

Q Well, isn't Henry older than Ida? A No, sir; he is younger.

Q And where was Ida born? A Ida was born on Grand river.

Q Near what place? A On Lynch's prairie.

Q How long after the war was it until you came down to Lynch's prairie? A How long after the war you ask me?

Q That is the question. A I don't know, something about like three or four years.

Q George Clark was living right near you then? A Yes, sir, George Clark was living there.

Q Then the only time you claim to have come back to the Cherokee Nation before that was when you were up on Honey Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q And you lived there, you say about two or three months? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, what kind of a house was that you moved into? A It was a log house.

Q Now, what direction from the old Polston was that log house that you moved into? A Well, if I am not mistaken and kinda turned around I say out south.

Q Did you go to the old place while you were there? A Polston place; yes, sir.

Q Who was living there? A Dr. Polston.

Q Was his wife there with him? A Now, I am not quite sure; let me think over that a little, yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Did she have any children there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know their names? A No, sir, I don't.

Q What did you do for a living down there? A Didn't do anything.

Q Do you remember any citizen you saw down around there? A No, sir, I don't remember any one.

Q Where did you get anything to eat? A Brought provisions with us.

Q And just camped out down there in a house? A No, sir, we lived down there in a house.

Cornelius Ridge, et al, A.

Q You never worked for anybody? A Never done a day's work for anybody as I know of.

Q Well, what year were you there? A We were there in the fall.

Q About what month? A Well, sir, I don't know hardly, I expect though it was in or near the month of October, September or October, somewhere along about there.

Q Were you up about that town where mills you were down there on Honey Creek? A No, sir.

Q You didn't go to any town? A No, sir, what do you mean, South-west City?

Q Yes, sir. A No, sir, there wasn't no town there, we were right past there and there wasn't no town there.

Q Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house, any people living anywhere around you? A No, sir, none that I know of, none that I was acquainted with except Polston.

Q None except Polston? A No, sir, that I can remember now.

Q You don't remember any of those Indians that were living about you? A No, sir, I don't remember, there was none living there as I know of.

Q Was there any field connected with your house you lived in?

A No, sir.

Q What did you get water out of, creek, spring or well?

A Spring.

Q What direction was the spring from the house? A Well, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't remember? A Appears to me though like the spring was east, not to be positive.

Q How far was the home place from Honey Creek? A I presume some-thing near a mile and a half.

Q Were you north or south of the creek? A Well I would say south.

Q Dennis Hicks' wife, your sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q Where was she born, before the war or after, and when? A She was born before the war, I don't know where she was born at.

Q Did she go this round with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your mother was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father? A Yes, sir, I think though Dennis' wife was born in Arkansas.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Well, now in all these rounds you went your father and mother and all the members of your family would go with them? A Yes, sir.

BY COUNSEL HENDERSON:

Q Well, you apply for your wife as an unmarried widow do you?

A Yes, sir.

Q When were you married to her? A I don't know, sir, about '65 I guess.

Q Have you been living with her continuously since that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q Living with her now? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you married? A Married in Missouri.

Q She is a state woman? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living in 1867? A In Missouri.

Q Brought your wife back with you when you came? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Topeka is in Missouri, isn't it? A Yes, sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q What time, Cornelius, did you leave the plantation where you came here in 1867? How long did you stay here in 1867? A We came in the fall and left after Christmas.

Cornelius Ridge, et al.

- Q. When you were married was it at the same time as in 1867? A. Yes.
Q. How did you leave the Nation, the Cherokee Nation, at that time?
A. We didn't have any choice to live on.
Q. Where did you go?
A. We went to Missouri.
Q. How long did you stay there, three or four years?
A. Presume.
Q. And then where did you go to?
A. Came on Grand River.
Q. In the Cherokee Nation? A. In the Cherokee Nation.
Q. Have you been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since?
A. Yes.
Q. In the meantime you had married a Yonki?
A. Did you bring your wife back here with you when you came back, sir?

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q. What time did you say you went back? A. Three years.
Q. Yes. A. In about three or four years I guess.
Q. After that went up there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. R. HASTINGS: Cornelius Ridge applied for the enrollment of himself and three children, Pearl, Jennie and Martie.
Cherokee Freedman; he also applied for the enrollment of his wife, Laura, as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage.
We cannot be identified with the Freedmen roll of 1890 or the census roll of 1900, because all the children are quite identified upon the Kerr Roll, and the name upon the Roll is Ridge. It appears that he was married to the lady, a state woman in the year 1877, and has lived with her continuously ever since that time. He has no other proof as to his residence, and in this connection, he requested by counsel that his testimony also in the present case be made a part of the record in the enrollment of Dennis Rice, who was listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, and it is ordered that the testimony taken in the application of this Ridge be made a part of Cherokee Freedman, who was last listed for enrollment on
D. Roll 2206, be made part of the record in the present case, and a copy of the same be made in the case of the Ridge Cornelius Ridge. The name Cornelius Ridge and his children as enumerated herein will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a special card, and his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a special card for the further consideration of the Commission. The applicant will be notified by mail as to the final decision of the Commission.

A. Gibson, being duly sworn, states that he attended with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he personally viewed the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his statements and notes taken, subscribed and sworn to before me this 17th day of June, 1906.

A My Mistress lived there away after they killed John Ridge, and went from Honey Creek to near Bentonville.
Q How long did you live on that farm? A I don't know.
Q Where did Polston live on that farm? A I don't know exactly.
Q How long had he been living there when the war broke out? A I don't remember.
Q Several years? A I don't know.
Q You don't know nothing about it? A I don't know of him all the time.
Q Herman Ridge lived in Washington County, Arkansas didn't he? A
No sir.
Q Well, well as where he lived then? A In Fayetteville.
Q What is in Washington county? A I don't know.
Q He was Mrs. Ridge's son? A Yes sir.
Q He lived up there when she moved there? A Yes sir.

Q What was you doing there? A I went to Mr. Woodhill's shop and would at Mr. Ridge's every time I went to the shop.
Q Where did you go to from the shop? A On Dallas Prairie.
Q Where did you come here first, after the war? A The first time I came was in '28, and then moved here in '28.
Q What time in '28 did you move here? A In February.

APPLICANT RECALLED: Examined by Commissioner Needles:

Q Did you get your strip money? A Yes sir.

The Name Ridge roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and the name of the applicant identified thereon as follows:
Page 150, No. 1363, Katie Ridge, Cooperscoowee District.

By Com'r Needles, -

Katie Ridge applied for herself; she is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880 or the census roll of 1896 but she is identified on the Name Ridge roll; she makes satisfactory proof as to her residence and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card for the reason that her name is not found on the authenticated roll of 1880 and from the further fact that her citizenship is contested by the Cherokee representatives. When the Commission arrive at a conclusion in her case she will be notified by mail.

Needles, testified as follows:

Q Your name is Anderson Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q How old are you? A About 64.

Q What is your post-office address? A Vinita.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q You know Katie Ridge? A I didn't know her when I first saw her. When I first saw they they were up there on Honey Creek and someone said that was the Ridge.

Q What year was that? A That was along in the fall of '66, I think it was.

Q You saw her in the fall of 1866 then? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known her since that time? A Yes, sir, after they came down here, I got acquainted with them; he said it was some of the Ridge that was up there on Honey Creek.

Q Do you know the Katie Ridge, the applicant here, as the same woman you saw on Honey Creek in the fall of 1866? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A No, sir, I don't know all the Ridge, all I know about them is what Simon was telling me.

Q Simon who? A Simon Lynch.

Q Did you know them before the war? A No, sir, he knew them.

By L. J. Bell, Cherokee attorney: Where were you going in '66?

A Going up to Southwest City.

Q How far is South West City from where they were living? A I don't know, sir, I never noticed; the first time I ever had been there, and I just went along with Simon.

Q About what time of the year was it? A It was long in the fall like.

Q Can you recollect, early or late? A It was early, it wasn't so cold, I don't know we slept out, we were going up there.

Q You don't recollect at that how far it was from where they lived to Southwest? A No, sir, I expect Simon knows, he was acquainted to them and I wasn't.

Q You went on from there to Southwest City did you? A Yes, sir.

Q Now where was Southwest City, in the Cherokee Nation or Missouri or Arkansas or Missouri, I don't know which, it was across the line.

Mr. L. B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation,
and Mr. W. W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

W. H. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

- Q What is your name? A W. H. Wood.
Q What is your age? A 48.
Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living here when the war began? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.
Q How long did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '66.
Q Where did you come to? A Came to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District,
Cherokee Nation.
Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey Creek? A About a mile and a half.
Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.
Q Well did you live there when the war began, or how come you to go to that place? A We lived on Whitewater in the Cherokee Nation.
Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from Dr. Polston, my father did.
Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.
Q Was there any town there at that time, near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over near the line that they called Honey Creek.
Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about 2 years.
Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.
Q And you left it? A Yes sir.
Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.
Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.
Q Were you acquainted with one Kate Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.
Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.
Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.
Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washburn place at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any freedmen living on that place by that name? A No
sir.
Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.
Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 5 or 6 miles.
Q When did Dr. Polston occupy that place after you bought it from him? A He went right on the place when we left it in '68.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville Arkansas.

Q Where was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved out part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q Now do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '66, or where he came from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when the - no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '66 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washbourn place that you knew of? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. MELLETTE:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 40 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1866, that right? A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days? A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 13 year old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q What place are you talking about as the one that white colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly; the brakes of Honey Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 13 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Choctaw Nation.

Q When did you return? A In '65.

Q What time in '65? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Choctaw Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. BELL:

Q Now you said you returned in 1865, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '65? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas on Mike Blevins' place.

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee Nation in '66? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge etc (sup' 113)

SM. M. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A M. M. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war of Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 14th article of the treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokees? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I knew them in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Herman Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '58, spring of '58.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, it was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Fannie Polston? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Were you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband, she died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A At Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washbourn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

Q This home that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Katie? A Yes sir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Could you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there that I know of; she had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. KELLER:

Q Mrs. Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of; there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the family until 1858 did you? A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, isn't it? A Yes sir.

Q When did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1866? A I wasn't here in 1866; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Katie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that is, they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether she was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all; they asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokees before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Q By what right? A By marriage.

Q You married Herman Ridge's brother? A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you claim to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Well I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my present husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
 Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.
 Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.
 Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I last lived there until '59. I left there in the fall of '59.
 Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know, it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?
 Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Why it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place; I never was there; I suppose that Dr. Polster lived on part of it, I don't know though whether it was or not.
 Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Katie Ridge in Springfield, Missouri. I saw her husband.
 Q Oh, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.
 Q Was she there? A I don't know, he said he was living near Springfield, Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.
 Q But you didn't see Katie at all? A No, I didn't see her; at I didn't see any of his family at that time.
 Q When did you see Watie Ridge first? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, fall of '72.
 Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Watie place. That's as near as I can tell you; I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her, I was horseback and met the wagon; I was with Stan Watie's daughter, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN R. SHIELDS, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BRILL:

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Grove is my post-office; my name is John R. Shields; my age is 53.
 Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A I guess not.
 Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right somehow or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of these that got behind. I am not a citizen myself at all.
 Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.
 Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "High Road", line between the Cherokee nation and Missouri.
 Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.
 Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.
 Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything more, there was a man's farm there, crossing of the road on the Creek; there was no town or village there at all.
 Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I can't give the exact date, but directly after the war in '46 or perhaps '67.
 Q Who was the first man that went there? A Alex Strothorn and J. F. Langston were the first men to put up stores.
 Q Was there a post-office established there? A Well they kept a post-office there in the store, in the house of Mr. Strothorn I think the post-office was handled.
 Q Well the post-office was there in the store? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge (cap'1) 5

Q What was the place called then? A Honey Creek. did it

Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when changed back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.

Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years perhaps; somewhere along in that range. I don't know just when. I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. BELLEFLEUR: I don't believe I want to ask him anything.

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Heskett testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M. Bell, aged 59, post-office Needmore, in Vinita, either one.

Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation are you? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with the exception of a few intervals I have been here since '39.

Q Well you have been here 20 years or more? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.

Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware District.

Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.

Q Name what they were if you can do it? A As far as his first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Helen Ridge was the next, Hester, Andrew, Susan Washburn, Flora Polston, constituted the family.

Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country; they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.

Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.

Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '50 sometime, that I was there.

Q That in Benton County? A In Benton County.

Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.

Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.

Q You were acquainted with Hester Ridge were you? A Yes sir.

Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know? A He was between 35 and 40; he was 25 I reckon; between that and 30.

Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '65 I believe, or '62, in the Cherokee nation.

Q Well his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.

Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man, had no family of his own.

Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.

Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.

Q Hester Well did he come from Arkansas to do that? A Yes.

Q Do you know of him ever having a farm, residence or home in the Cherokee nation after his father was killed and his family moved out of the country? A Never did.

Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes sir.

Q They were closely related to you were they? A Yes sir.

Q By blood, friendship, social matters or what? A It is my mother-standing that we are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

BY MR. WELLES:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district down here near Stillwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware District.

Q That's in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q Now were you there and know all about this personally; did you see that? A I saw Rollin Ridge there, you sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family.

Q Yes. A Left the country on that account, that's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q All you know is that they were out of the Territory? A Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you now if a Mrs. Ridge, the mother of Herman Ridge, who lived in Benton County, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back and forth from where she was to their farm to keep it up? A I know nothing of that.

Q Didn't she take supplies from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville to live on? A She might have done so, but I know nothing of that.

L. H. HAMIL, being sworn by Commissioner Newman, testified as follows:

BY MR. W. W. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A L. H. Ham, 52 years old, Vinita.

Q Where were you born? A Well I was born in the State of Georgia I guess, Haversham County, they tell me; I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first old enough to remember in the Cherokee Nation here? A Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Adair farm in 1842 when the whole world was flooded. I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '4.

Q Do you remember the Ridge family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A Yes, I know what they called the old Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A No lots of times.

Q Now who lived there, acquainted? A Old Peter, the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he killed a man there and was shot and had to go to California, left there and never came back any more. Then an old man named Peter, an old slave of his, that he had there, remained on the place 3 or 4 years, then it passed into the hands of Dr. Polston, who married Miss, the youngest girl of John Ridge's family; they lived there until I don't know when they left.

Kate Ridge (Sup'1) 7

or 4 years.

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge as far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first next at Washington County, Arkansas at Fayetteville. He was living at Fayetteville when the war came up. He lived there and at Fayetteville from '45 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he come and joined our company, that is the Confederate Army. General Watts was a friendman of his and he joined the 48 regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A Yes, I want to say I know about that place, except that Watts was at that place and lived there, his wife died in about 1862, his wife and I was.

BY MR. WELLES:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee Nation in the conduct of these Freedmen cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. WELLES: Well, I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. M. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. WELLES:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, when this Kate up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. WELLES:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time after the war while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q Now the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee Nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q The relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A At Fayetteville.

Q No, where did she live after the war? A Then I know her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, is that so? A Yes, she lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, and she went to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville? A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after the war? A Well, I don't know why they went, I don't know.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes, Washbourn and her family and children.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's daughter? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the territory during the war? A I don't know.

Q Where was Polston living when the war was on? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know.

Q He did move back into here? A I don't know.

Q I will ask you if they were ever in the Cherokee Nation? A I don't know.

State Ridge (sup'ly) B.

okes nation? Well I don't know; I know they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You don't know what kind of people were made of these people, whether they were of the same or different blood as the white people?
A No sir.

COMMISSIONER HASTINGS: The testimony will be filed in State Ridge, Cherokee Records D 295, and D 296, and D 297, and D 298 and D 299, D 300, D 301, D 302 and D 303.

Q You and he went out together and came back together? A. Yes sir.

Q And then lived together all the time after you came back? A. All the time, yes sir.

Q What time did you come back after the war? A. We came back in the winter about just before Christmas.

Q In what year? A. In the year of '86, I think.

Q What time of the year? A. Just about four weeks before Christmas.

Q Well, how come it you are not on the roll of 1880? A. Because the old man died.

Q Well, did you ever apply, or did your husband ever apply for you and the family, to any court in Tahlequah, or any other court? A. No sir.

Q He wasn't before the Daniel Court or the Chambers Court back in '70 or '72? A. No, he never was.

Q And you think that no effort was made to get on the roll of 1880? A. Yes sir, I don't think that.

Q How long have you been here? A. Ever since.

Q Have you any children? A. Frances.

Q How old is Frances? A. I don't know how old Frances is, she was born in slave times.

Q Is she married now? A. Yes sir.

Q What is her name now? A. Frances Smith.

Q Now what is your next child? A. Ellen.

Q She is married, is she? A. Yes sir.

Q What is your next child? A. John Leoney.

Q How old is John? A. I think he is 3 years old, he may be older than that.

Q Give me the name of your next child? A. Rosetta Leoney.

Q How old is your child? A. I think she is 23 or 24 years old, I think.

Q Is she married? A. She has been married, her husband is dead.

Q Does she still go by the name of Leoney? A. Yes, she goes by the name of her husband.

Q What is the name of her husband? A. David Leoney.

Q Well, your next child? A. Lucinda Whitmore.

Q She is married, is she? A. Yes sir.

Q About how old is Lucinda? A. She is about 27 or 28 years old, I don't know exactly. I don't know nothing about them.

Q Which one next to Lucinda? A. George.

Q How old is George? A. George is 52.

Q Now what is the next child? A. That is all, no, Henry.

Q How old is Henry? A. Henry is the oldest.

Q How old is he? A. I can't tell you.

Q Is he older than Frances? A. No sir.

Q Is he older than Ellen? A. Yes sir.

Q Mr. Fawcett, where were you living when the war came up? A. Living in being slave.

Q Where did you go when the war broke out, if you ever left the country? A. Springfield, Mo.

Q Well now, how long did you live at Springfield, Mo.? A. We didn't stay there a year.

Q Did you go to Springfield about the time the war broke out? A. No, I guess we went there during the war.

Q Well, where was your daughter Frances born? A. Born in being slave.

Q That was before you went to Springfield, was it? A. Yes sir.

Q How old was Frances when you first saw her? A. I don't know.

I I think she was either five years old or six, I don't know which.
Q Where was Henry born? A He was born, I don't know where he was born at, either in Kansas or Springfield, I don't know which, because we were traveling all the time.
Q The fact is, you have never had any permanent place of living since the war? A. No sir.
Q How long did you live in Kansas? A. Never lived in Kansas.
Q How long did you live in Missouri? A. I just traveled around in Missouri, I don't know how long we did stay there.
Q About how many years did you stay there? A. I can't tell you.
Q Did you stay there three or four years? A. I think we staid there two years, I think.
Q Well, where did you go from Missouri? A. Came on back down here, camped along, we were traveling by ourselves, nobody with us, by ourselves and come by ourselves.
Q After you got back down here, then where did you go? A. Went over on the river here to my sister in law's, on the Verdigris; not the Verdigris, the Grand river, and staid there two or three weeks.
Q After you staid over on Grand river, where did you go? A. Went on Big creek.
Q How long did you stay on Big creek? A. Staid there ever since we have been here.
Q You never lived in Cotton creek? A. No sir, the old man has been over there.
Q Haven't you lived in Arkansas a while since the war? A. Not as I know of; if we did I didn't know it was there.
Q Didn't your husband and you go over there and live near Cane Hill, Arkansas after the war with a man named Fisher? A. I don't know nothing about him.
Q About five miles from Cane Hill, Arkansas; didn't you live over there a while? A. No sir, not as I know of, we just traveled all the time, we never staid anywhere hardly any time, didn't stop traveling.
Q Never had a home anywhere since the war? A. Not till we came to Big creek.
Q How long have you been living on Big creek? A. Ever since '66.
Q Well, now didn't you and your husband go to Leavenworth, Kansas, and live there a little while there with a fellow by the name of Tom Ross? A. No sir, I don't know nothing about him.
Q Did you ever know such a man as Tom Ross? A. No sir.
Q Well how is it you remember you came back here just four months before a certain Christmas in '64? A. Because I had my oldest boy, he was born, he was 2 years old in the year '66.
Q How old is he now? A. Well, I don't forget, how old he is now I know he was 2 years old the year the treaty was made, he was two years old, he was born in '64.
Q How old is your oldest boy now, do you know? A. No sir, I can't say, I forget.
Q You know he was born in '64? A. Yes sir.
Q What time of the year was he born? A. On the 4th day of July, 1864 of July.
Q Now when did you go to Springfield, Missouri? A. We went there during the war.
Q What time during the war? A. I can't tell you nothing about the year and months.
Q You told me about '66, can't you tell me when the war broke out? A. No sir.
Q Did you go to Springfield after the war broke out? A. I don't know, we were run off, we staid back till the Indians run us away.
Q About how long was it after the war began that you went to Springfield? A. I can't tell you.

Q You certainly have some idea, was it a year or two years? A I guess it was two or three.

Q Well, you staid there about a year? A Yes sir, I guess we did.

Q Now you staid there longer than that? A No sir, we didn't we just traveled.

Q Did you go direct from the Territory to Springfield, Mo? A Yes sir, we went from the Territory to Springfield, and we were just by ourselves, and nobody wasn't with us.

Q Now your child, Frances, you say was born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Was she born after you come back from Springfield, Missouri? A She was born in slave time I tell you.

Q She was born before you went to Springfield? A Yes sir, she was born a slave.

Q She was born on the 1st day of July? A No sir, the boy.

Q Well, how old was Frances when you went to Springfield? A I think Frances was either 6 years old, I don't know which, or seven.

Q Was the boy born before you went to Springfield, or after you got back? A No, he was born when we went to Springfield.

Q Before you went? A Yes sir.

Q When you left the Territory for Springfield sometime after July 1, 1844? A Yes sir, I think that is it.

Q Now you staid about a year at Springfield? A No we didn't stay any year at Springfield.

Q Well, how long did you stay? A I think I told you how long we staid; if I knew the numbers and dates I could tell you, but I can't tell you, because I just can't say.

Q Was it less than a year? A I don't know, we staid about something near a year.

Q Did you go direct from Springfield to the Cherokee Nation? A Well the way we traveled around, it would take us a long time, because one was horseback.

Q When you started from Springfield, was your objective point the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, back to the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know, because one was afoot and the other horseback.

Q Where were the children? A I had one in my lap and one behind me.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know sir.

Q Did you come by Fort Scott? A No sir.

Q Leavenworth? A No sir, we didn't we didn't come that way, we came through the woods.

Q To what point in the Cherokee Nation did you come when you returned? A I can't tell you.

Q Do you know what district it was in? A No sir, because I didn't know the names of places or districts.

Q Did you come by any point in Arkansas before you came to the Territory? A I think we came to a place they called Bentonsville, I reckon that is the way we came.

Q You didn't go from Springfield to Cane Hill? A Yes sir.

Q That was the time your husband and family was over there and he was working for Fisher over to Cane Hill? A No sir, we never lived on Cane Hill.

Q Do you think you were as much as a year coming from Springfield to the Territory? A I think we were.

Q You traveled pretty much all the time, didn't you? A Yes sir, and camped out, we traveled till we got tired, and then camped in the woods.

Q Did you stop and work along the road? A He would go out and work a little, get enough grub, and then start again.

Q About how long would you work on one place? A Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just get something to eat.

A Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just to get something to eat.

Q You were not more than a month or two making the trip from Springfield to the territory? A No, sir, I guess not.

(Mr. Pellette) Where did you say you came to when you first came to the territory? A, Came to my sister Judy, Peter Williams' wife.

Q Lived where? A. She lived on Grand river; that is the first place.

MOSE HARDRICK, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified as follows:

Q Give us your full name? A. Mose Hardrick.

Q How old are you? A 71.

Q What is your past office? A. Chelsea.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. All my life.

Q Where were you during the war, were you out? A. Yes sir.

Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A. No sir.

(Mr. Pellette) Do you know the applicant, Jane Looney? A Yes sir

Q Do you know her husband, Bolson Looney? A. I knowed her husband.

Q Did you know them before the war? A. I knowed her husband before the war.

Q You didn't know Jane before the war? A. No sir.

Q Well, where did he live before the war? A. Lived at Murrell's, down in the Cherokee Nation, George Murrell.

Q Who owned him? A. George Murrell.

Q Was George Murrell a Cherokee Indian? A. No sir, his wife was.

Q He was a white man? A. Yes sir.

Q Well, do you know when this applicant and Bolson Looney returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A. I don't know, I know when Bolston come to my house.

Q Well, when did he come to your house? A In the summer of '68.

Q Where did he come to your house? A On Grand river, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q You didn't see this applicant then? A. No sir, I didn't see her, Bolston came himself and he was looking for his sister.

Q You don't know where she was? A No sir.

Q Do you know what became of Bolston after that? A. No sir, I don't

Q Did you see him any more? A. I seen him two or three or four years after that.

Q Where? A. He was over here at Vinita.

Q Do you know where he lived at that time, when you saw him at Vinita? A No sir, I don't.

(Mr. Davenport) You are satisfied that when you saw this Bolston Looney over there in the summer it was '66 are you? A. Yes sir.

Q It was earlier than Christmas, or December? A. It was in the summer

Q It was earlier than four weeks before Christmas? A. It was in the summer.

Q You don't know where they had been living prior to that time that you saw him there? A. No, I don't.

Q And you don't know where they lived since that time? A. No sir.

(Commissioner) Do you know anything about this woman being married to Bolston Looney? A. No sir, no more than what he said he had a wife.

Q But you never saw his wife in those days? A. No sir.

Q How long had you known this woman? A. I never seen her until this week at this Court.

(Mr. Pellette) When did he tell you he had a wife? A. Over at the office.

CHARLIE CHAMBERS, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified as follows:

Q Give us your name? A. Charlie Chambers.

Q How old are you? A 70 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Hudson.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here all my life.

Q Were you out during the war? A No sir, I wasn't in the war.

Q Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation while the war was going on?

A I went over in the Choctaw Nation.

Q Were you on the 1880 roll? A Yes sir.

(Mr. McMillan:) Charles, do you know the applicant her, Jane Looney?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know her husband, Bolton Looney? A Yes sir.

Q Well, when did you first see them after the war; do you remember? A I seen him in '08 in Fort Gibson.

Q Where was he? A He said he left her on Grand river, he told me; she wasn't with him at all, he was by himself.

Q Well, when did they move up on Big creek, do you know anything about that? A I don't know just when they moved up there, I don't know.

Q Did you get acquainted with them up there? A I got acquainted with them before I came from Fort Gibson up here, when I went there they had just moved here.

Q Where were they living then? A They were living out on the prairie, on the west side of Big creek.

Q In what district? A In Cowassawee district here.

Q And that you came up from Fort Gibson and found them about there? A Yes along somewhere in '08.

(Mr. McMillan:) You say you saw Bolton Looney at Fort Gibson in '08? A Yes sir.

Q What time in the year was that? A Why it was along a while, just a while before Christmas, little while before Christmas.

Q Now that Bolton Looney testified in 1890 that he never returned to Fort Gibson at all, was that true or untrue? A If he gave such evidence as that in 1890, that he never did return to Fort Gibson, is that true or untrue? A I seen him there.

Q I asked you, if he testified that, was it true or untrue; in giving his testimony before the Kern-Clinton Commission, is he giving such evidence as that, was it true or untrue? A I can't answer that question.

Q When did you come back to this country? A I came back in '08, they told me in '08.

Q Are you on the 1880 roll regularly? A Yes sir.

Q Did you have any conversation with Bolton Looney at Fort Gibson in '08? A No sir, not but a very little bit.

Q Was he alone with him? A He didn't have anybody with him, I just went into Gibson and seen him there, and I went to him and shook hands with him, and I was acquainted with him.

Q Did you know him then when the war broke out? A Didn't know him, I don't know where they went during the war?

Q Did you know the place where they had lived, or where you came back after the war? A I stopped at the place of Fort Smith, on this side the river in that neighborhood.

Q Did you live in that neighborhood? A Yes sir, I came back and lived where I used to live, lived on the same place I lived in the Choctaw Nation.

Q When you returned up there, there were others living there on that same place? A Yes, of course, so that.

Q A Mr. Chambers and his wife; of course, he was dead, but his wife was living on the same place.

Q Where had the right family come? A. They were south too.

Q Do you know to whom Bolston Looney belonged at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir, belonged to George Murrell.

Q Where was George Murrell living? A. Well, George Murrell was living there in what they call Park Hill.

Q How far was Park Hill from where you lived at the Chambers place?

A Well, it was all pretty near the same place, it was all called Park Hill where they all lived, we didn't live just two or three miles apart.

Q George Murrell was a man who had a farm in Virginia and lived in Virginia the greater part of his time? A. I suppose he had a place there.

Q He lived there the greater part of his time? A. Pretty much.

Q Also kept a part of his slaves in Louisiana? A. I guess he did, I understand he did, anyway.

Q Did George Murrell ever have a permanent home at Park Hill, where he himself and family resided; George Murrell ever live permanently with his family at Park Hill, in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir, he was there, called that home.

Q He would go back and forth? A. Yes sir, he would be there, because I knowed him.

Q His wife was a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross, who now lives at Fort Gibson? A. Seems to me she was the daughter of Lewis Ross.

Q Wasn't she a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross? A. Yes sir, that is right.

Q Then Bolston Looney didn't belong to Jane Looney at the breaking out of the war? A. No sir.

Q And you don't know who this man belonged to at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Who did she belong to? A. Eli Wright.

Q How do you know that? A. I seen her there.

Q How far did Eli Wright live from Park Hill? A. He lived a good ways, but I was all over the country in them times.

Q About how far? A. I can't tell you just exactly it was.

Q Was it a hundred miles? A. No, I guess now since I come to be grown I expect it was somewhere between thirty and forty miles over there.

Q You lived in there at Park Hill, you say? A. Yes sir.

Q And the other parties lived over thirty or forty miles from you?

A. Yes sir.

Q There was no way of getting back and forth except by horse? A. No sir, except on horseback.

Q And there was no settlement between the Park Hill settlement and the settlement of going snake where they lived? A. I expect there was, I just went through there, I was going to Cincinnati.

Q When were you at Eli Wright's place, when you claim to be the owner of this woman before the war? A. I didn't stay very long.

Q How long did you stay? A. I was there one time.

Q When did you next see this woman after the war broke out? A. Why I never seed her any more until I come from Tallapoosa up here on Big Creek.

Q When was that? A. That was along in '67.

Q They haven't had a permanent place of living, have they, since the war nor husband? A. Yes sir, they had a log house put up.

Q Didn't they just live from place to place and town to town? A. Well, he did for a while, and that time he told me his wife was over on Grand River.

Q What makes you know it was just before Christmas, in '66 you saw him down there? A. Because I know him, because I asked him to come take Christmas with me.

Q How long before Christmas was it, and what year after the war broke out? A. I don't know what year the war broke out.

Q How long before Christmas and in what year after peace was declared? A. I can't hardly tell you that.

Q What year, and how long before Christmas was it the Army was made? A I know one thing, I know the people near where I was living told me that peace had been declared and the folks was all coming home and I packed up and lit out too.

Q Well, how long before Christmas was the treaty made, and what year? A. And I know right after that, in the next year after I came up there, that was when I saw him.

Q Who was living in Fort Sibley at the time you saw him? A. I can't tell you, there was a plenty of soldiers there.

Q Wasn't there some Cherokee families there, or colored families? A There was one or two colored families there, I can't tell you, it has been so long ago.

Q Lewis Daniels was living there? A Lewis Daniels was living around there somewhere.

Q And W. H. Nash was living there, wasn't he? A. I don't know.

Q W. P. Ross? A. Yes sir, I believe he was, I believe he was living around there some place, but I don't know whether he was living in town or not.

Q You don't remember anyone living there except you saw Holston Looney there, is that all? A. There is a man now lives right close to where there is a little bridge going down towards the river, that they call Vann.

(Commissioner) You say you knew this woman before the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Was she married to Holston Looney then? A. I think she was, she had one child, I think she was married to him; I don't know for certain whether she was or not.

Q Where did you first know her certainly as Holston Looney's wife? A I never knew her really as his wife, not till he came back here with her.

Q When did you first see her with him after the war? A That was in '87, and I am just going to tell you just exactly.

Q You saw him and her together at that time? A Yes sir, they were living together.

Q As husband and wife? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you seen more or less of her ever since? A. Yes, I saw her off and on all the while since.

Q And of him also? A. Yes sir, they were living together.

Q He died about three years ago? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you seen them ever since as husband and wife? A. Yes sir, they been living ever since as husband and wife.

Q Now this George Marshall that you spoke of, was his wife? A I think it was a daughter of Lewis, that is if I mistake not.

Q She was a Cherokee woman was she? A. Yes sir.

Q That the family of old Chief Ross? A Yes sir, if I am not mistaken he was her brother.

Q You think then George Marshall's wife was a niece of the old Chief? A Yes sir, I think she is as well as I can recollect.

(Mr. McIlletto) Didn't George Marshall build a fine house at Park Hill? A. Yes sir.

Q Was it brick or frame? A. I don't just recollect what the house was built of, it was a fine house.

Q It was the house R. B. Ross lived in now? A. Yes sir, I think it is.

(Mr. Davonport) Is you know where that house is now? A Yes sir, Lewis Ross' son Ross, he was living there as I know it. Ross was living at Tahlequah, the son of Ross was living there.

Q What made you answer Mr. McIlletto that you thought the house George Marshall built was the house that Ross was living in now? A Maybe I didn't understand him good.

(Mr. McIlletto) I asked you if George Marshall didn't build a fine house at Park Hill? A Yes sir.

Q You know about that? A. Yes sir.

Q Then I asked you if Ross Ross is living in that house now? A Yes sir.

know where Mr. Ross is living now, I misunderstood you sir, I beg your pardon.

Commissioner: The applicant is identified in the Kern Clifton roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1884. It appears that she and her deceased husband were slaves in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the Civil war, and were the property of Cherokee citizens. They seem to have lived together at the time of the war, and to have gone into the State of Missouri. The plaintiff has returned to the Cherokee Nation about four weeks before Christmas, in 1886. The testimony on this point is somewhat conflicting. With a view to the application of her children, they have been identified in the course of the examination of her children, and it appears that their claim will depend upon the claim that may be established for their mother or father. It seems that the marriage between the applicant and her husband was lawful, they have been married, according to her testimony, since before the Civil war, and have lived together until his death, some three years ago. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman on a beautiful card, for the further consideration of the testimony, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

The Kern Clifton roll, examined and the husband of Jane Lorne, identified as John, page 173 No 1254 1884, Doonescooee district, as Boston Loney.

Brace C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

By Com'r Breckinridge,--

The applicant applies for herself and two children; the applicant is identified on the Kern Clifton roll; neither she nor any of her family are identified on the rolls of 1880 or 1890; she belongs to the family of Beason and Jane Looney, the former being dead and the latter being alive. The applicant's change of name arising from marriage is established in a satisfactory manner; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life; she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman on a doubtful card and her status will shown by the testimony in the case of her mother Jane Looney on Cherokee Freedman doubtful card No. 7, and a copy thereof will be filed with this case. The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant at her post office address. Her two children are identified on the Kern Clifton roll, her are the children of her first husband and their names are Essie and Bennie Beason. It appears from the testimony that the father of these children was twice married before he married the applicant, that he separated from both of his first mer wives, and there is no evidence that he ever procured a divorce from either of them; therefore according to the testimony these children will have no claim to enrollment except through the status of their mother. They are both living at this time and are minors and they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen on a doubtful card with their mother; if John Deason, the father of these children should apply, his case may be examined with reference as to whether he was in a position to contract a lawful marriage with the applicant in the year 1896, the time of their marriage. The decision of the Commission as to the final status of these applicants will be made known to the applicant at her post office address.

Chas. von Weise, being sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above cause and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY OF BEARER OF CHEROKEE NATION in the matter of the application of Jane Looney for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, D#597.

Appearances:

R. Smith, of Bellette & Smith, Vinita, I. T., Attorneys
for applicant;
W. W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

FRANK FEEHAN being first duly sworn and being examined
testified as follows:

BY W. W. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Frank Feehan.
Q How old are you? A 65 years old.
Q Where do you live? A Atchison County, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived in that County? A Since January '58.
Q Did you know a colored woman up there in Atchison County Kansas
by the name of Jane Looney? A I did.
Q Did you know her husband? A I did.
Q What name did her husband go by? A Andy Looney.
Q Did you know any of Jane's children? A Yes; I know Frances.
Q What is her present name? A Smith.
Q What was her husband's first name? A I did not know that.
Q Did you know any of the rest of her children? A Why, I have seen several of them, I have no particular knowledge; they have worked around for my daughter and myself some but I have no particular knowledge of the other two of them.
Q What are the others named do you know? A Really I don't know how many children she has got.
Q I mean of Jane Looney? A Oh I thought you were speaking about Frances. Jane Looney yes, I know Frances is her oldest daughter, and the oldest boy was born on the place where I live now, Henry,
he was born in '64.
Q You mean in '64? A Yes sir.
Q Well what is the next one? A There was a John, there was several children after they left our neighborhood, I don't know how many they had after they moved to Atchison, there was a Ellen,
there was a George, and there was a John, then three I heard of,
not personally known then either.
Q Her husband there was known as Andy Looney? A Yes sir.
Q When did you first learn to know this man and woman in Kansas?
A It was either in '63 in the fall or in the spring of '64, I won't be positive, but it was either one of those times.
Q Where did they live in '64? A On the place I own now,
Q How long did they continue to live there? A Until spring of '67.
Q Continuously all the time? A Continuously all the time, farmed
the place.
Q Where did they go in the spring of '67? A They moved to a place right adjoining it on the east where old man Tilman built a little cabin there, they lived there two years.
Q That would be the spring of '69? A Yes sir.
Q Then where did they go? A Then in the spring of '69 they moved on the place right north of us.
Q How far from you? A The house not being more than about 40
rods from where I live now.
Q How long did they live there? A Two years.
Q That would bring it up to '71? A Yes sir.

- Q Then where did they go? A They moved to Atchison.
- Q How far is that? A 5 or 6 miles, we call it 5 or 6 miles.
- Q Did you see them after that? A I saw them 15 years after that, positively and I might say 20, but 15 years anyhow; I saw Andy Looney in '92 the last time and had a long talk with him; he was fencing ground for my daughter.
- Q Did you see him frequently after he went to town? A Yes sir.
- Q You know when he left up there? A No.
- Q You say '92 is the last time you positively remember seeing him? A Yes sir, I had no ~~business~~ dealings with him; that is the last time I talked with him and I didn't know he had gone until here a few years ago.
- Q How about Frances Smith? A She lived there in Atchison.
- Q Does she live there now? A She lived there now, her husband is working there and the family is there.
- Q When is the last time you saw her? A Well I have not seen Frances for several years, because I have no dealings or no need of seeing her, but I have seen her children, I saw one of her children that worked for me this winter up until January.
- Q Up until this last January? A Yes, this last January last month, and he worked for my daughter the last month.
- Q What is that child's name? A Fred Smith.
- Q Do you know John Looney or Henry Looney of these boys? A I know Henry, because he was born on my place and I have seen him since, he is now in the penitentiary.
- Q What is he in the penitentiary for? A Killing his wife.
- Q Did you know any of the rest of these boys living up there now? A There is one by the name of John, but as I have no business with him I see him and that is about all, I have no personal knowledge of him much.
- Q Now you said they left there and went to Atchison about '71? A Yes, to the City of Atchison.
- Q You say you had occasion to meet them frequently? A Yes sir, often.
- Q Did they ever do any work for you after '71 until '92? A Not for me, but my son-in-law, he would do little things in the garden and take care of the house and I would see him, - saw wood, any little thing like that.
- Q You know where they were living? A Oh yes.
- Q You saw their house? A Oh yes sir, many a time.
- Q How far were they living from your son-in-law? A Not more than a quarter of a mile, my son-in-law lived in the south Atchison and they lived in South Atchison, about a quarter of a mile.
- Q Well then from about '63 or '4 up until '71 they lived out there either on your farm or the adjoining farm? A Right close adjoining and many a day he has worked for me.
- Q What is your business? A Farmer.
- Q Are you a farmer yet? A Yes sir.
- Q You live on the same place? A Yes sir.
- BY MR. SMITH:
- Q Mr. Neerman, how long have you lived in Kansas? A Since the winter, since January '68.
- Q The people you talk about are people you first became acquainted with in '63 or '4? A Yes sir.
- Q Which was it? A The Looney family? they consisted of Andy Looney his wife Jane, and the daughter Frances, about 6 or 7 years old, and the child Henry was born on the place where I live now, they had a cabin, and he was born there.
- Q Do you know which year it was, whether it was '63 or '64? A I am not positive, but it was not later than that.
- Q Now you say the husband of this woman was called Andy? A Andy Looney he went by, yes sir.
- Q How long has it been since you saw the Jane Looney to whom you refer? A Oh it has been a good many years, I couldn't tell you when;

Of course she didn't get out like her husband Andy and the sons so I could see her and I had no business with them and I didn't hunt her up.

Q You know whether Andy Looney is living or not? A I understand he is dead.

Q When did you last see him? A Last time I saw him was in the summer of '92 that I saw him personally and talked with him in Atchison, Kansas.

Q He was living there then? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know whether the people that applied here for admission are the same people you know at all? A I don't know anything about that at all.

H. C. KING, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY R. HASTINGS:

Q Give the stenographer your name, please? A H. C. King.

Q How old are you, Mr. King? A 41 years old.

Q Where were you born? A Atchison County, Kansas.

Q You lived in that vicinity all of your life? A No sir, not all the time.

Q Where do you live now? A I live in Atchison County.

Q Where were you living when you were 7 or 8 years of age? A In Atchison County.

Q Did you ever know a colored family up there by the name of Looney? A I know her.

Q You know what the woman's name was? A I don't remember every one, what her name was.

Q Don't remember? A No, not her name particularly.

Q Did you remember his name, Andy? A He was known as Andy Looney.

Q Did you know any of his children? A I remember one named Henry Looney.

Q What became of him? A I learned that he was in the penitentiary from what I heard.

BY R. SMITH: I object to that.

Q You don't know only what you have heard? A Just what I have heard there in town; it has been several years since I heard it.

Q Did you know any of the rest of the family? A I know two now, there's two now that I remember that I know, John Looney and Frances Smith.

Q Where does John Looney live now? A In Atchison.

Q When did you last see him? A Last Saturday about one o'clock.

Q You know whether he is single or married? A He is married I understand.

Q You know whether Frances is single or married? A She is married.

Q You know where she lives? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A She lives 716 W. Street, Atchison.

Q You know what her husband's name is? A I know of him as Doctor Smith.

Q They live there in Atchison? A Yes sir, that is my understanding. I am not acquainted with the man.

Q Were you at her house? A Yes sir.

Q Therefore you are correct as to her place of residence? A Yes sir.

Q How was this Looney family that you knew, this man and woman, the father and mother of these children John and Henry and Frances?

A That has always been my understanding, that they were the children of the family.

Q You know that like you know anything else in the neighborhood?

A Like I know anything, yes sir.

Q When did Andy Looney and his wife leave that country? A I couldn't say for certain about that, I heard of them leaving about

'96, I had been away from Atchison and came back in 1896, I had been away about 12 or 13 years.

Q When did you leave Atchison County? A I ~~left~~ left Atchison County in '83 I think it was '83 or '4.

Q You know whether these Looney's that you speak of were living in '83? A They had been living in Atchison last I knew of them before that, I didn't know just where they was in '83.

Q How long had you known them to be ~~living~~ living around in Atchison? A I would judge about 15 years anyhow, something like that.

Q Continuously? A As near as I could learn, occasionally I would see them.

Q You left there about '83 or '4 and came back in '96 and they were gone? A Yes, that is I learned they were gone, I lost track of them anyway., I wasn't particularly acquainted with the younger ones; I remembered Henry as a boy, he wasn't much younger than I was.

Q You don't remember as far back as '66, you are too young? A Well I couldn't say as to the date when I got acquainted with them, but I know when I moved out of the neighborhood in which they lived, the old neighborhood, that was in the fall of '70, I lived about two miles for several years, probably from '65 to '70, within about two miles of Mr. Neerman, and they lived right in the Neerman neighborhood, either on his place or the Tilman place; I know about where they lived.

Q That is as far back as your recollection extends? A Yes sir,

Q They afterwards moved to Atchison? A Yes, I have seen them around Atchison and I understood that they lived there.

BY P. SMITH:

Q How ~~long~~ ~~old~~ old did you state you were? A 41 years old.

Q You don't remember the name of Andy Looney's wife? A No sir.

Q How many children do you remember? A I don't remember but one particularly; when they were small children.

Q You can only give the name of one child? A That I remembered at that time, when I was a boy.

Q Now when you first knew these people that you speak of you were how old did you say, seven years old? A I was from 6 to 10 somewhere in there, I knew them before I was 10 years old I remember, I lived in the neighborhood with them.

Q Where did you last see any of them? A I saw one that I got acquainted with, John Looney in late years I saw him in Atchison last Saturday.

Q How long have you been living in Atchison County? A 6 years this last time, or about 6 within a month or two of it.

Q You were away awhile? A I was away from Atchison County some 12 or 13 years.

Q Where were you then? A I was in Jefferson County about 10 years and in Oklahoma about 2 years or such a matter.

Q You knew Andy Looney's wife did you? A I knowed her when I was a little shaver.

Q How long has it been since you saw her? A I don't know that I have seen her since in the neighborhood of '70 possibly, along there somewhere, I couldn't say positively.

Q You were there weren't you up until '84? A Not in that immediate neighborhood; they moved out of that neighborhood to town.

Q How far was it to town? A Well it is 8 or 10 miles.

Q And you have never seen her from that time to this? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't know whether it is the same Jane Looney or whether that is the woman that is an applicant in this case or not? A I could not say about that.

Q Was that a thickly settled community in there where they lived in that country? A Pretty thickly settled, yes.

Q Good many people live in Atchison? A Yes sir, along about 16000.

IT IS CONFIRMED. This testimony will be filed as part of the record in the following Charles Frederick Douglas cases: 636, 637, 638, 640, 641 and the case at bar, 637, also filed in District.

E.D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., March 5, 1902.

Supplemental testimony and proceedings, in the matter of the application of James M. Coker for the enrollment of himself, wife and children; in the matter of the application of Charles H. Reinhardt (D-623) for the enrollment of himself and wife; Orate Coker, D-638) for the enrollment of himself and child; and Ada F. Barr, (D-659) for the enrollment of herself, as Cherokee citizens.

Appearances:

E. B. Lawson, Nowata, I. T., attorney for applicants;
W. W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

By Commission: James M. Coker was notified by registered letter February 15th, 1902, that his application for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation would be taken up for final consideration by the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 5th day of March, 1902. Receipt has been acknowledged of the Commission's letter, and the applicant this day, appears by his attorney, E. B. Lawson, of Nowata, Indian Territory, and by agreement with the representative of the Cherokee Nation the case is taken up for final consideration this the 5th day of March, 1902.

D-623:

James H. Reinhardt was notified by registered letter February 15th, 1902, that his application for the enrollment of himself and wife as citizens of the Cherokee Nation would be taken up by the Commission for final consideration at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 5th day of March, 1902; receipt has been acknowledged of the Commission's letter and the applicant this day, to-wit: the 5th day of March, 1902, appears by his attorney, E. B. Lawson, Nowata, I. T.

D-659:

The applicant, Orate Coker, was notified by registered letter February 15th, 1902, that his application for the enrollment of himself and child as citizens of the Cherokee Nation would be taken up for final consideration by the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 5th day of March, 1902; receipt has been acknowledged of the Commission's letter, and the applicant this day, to-wit: the 5th day of March, 1902, appears by his attorney, E. B. Lawson, Nowata, Indian Territory, and by agreement the case is taken up for final consideration.

D-659:

The applicant, Ada F. Barr, was notified by registered letter February 15th, 1902, that her application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation would be taken up for final consideration by the Commission at its offices in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 11th day of March, 1902; receipt has been acknowledged of the Commission's letter, and the applicant this day, to-wit: the 5th day of March, 1902, appears by her attorney, E. B. Lawson, and by agreement the case is taken up for final consideration.

By Mr. Lawson: In the first place I desire to call attention to the fact that in the application of Reinhardt and Barr, it seems that he states that James H. Coker was admitted to citizenship in 1881, and that is the case of Orate Coker, and James M. Coker. I desire merely to call attention to this fact to have the matter corrected, and to show that the certhe admission of James M. Coker bears date of September 24th, 1881.

Mary Elizabeth Coker, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

By Mr. Lawson:

- Q State your name? A My full name is Mary Elizabeth Coker.
Q Where do you live? A At the present time.
Q Yes ma'am? A At Coody's Bluff, Cherokee Nation.
Q Are you the wife of James M. Coker? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to James M. Coker? A In 1871.
Q Where were you married? A Arkansas.
Q What county? A Marion County.
Q You were married in Marion County in the State of Arkansas in 1871? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Lawson: I desire to file the affidavit of the clerk of Marion County, stating that the marriage records of that county for 1870 and 1871 cannot be obtained, or a certificate cannot be shown of those marriage records, for the reason that the records were burned.

By Commission: Document referred to was received by the Commission on the 8th day of December, 1900, and has been made part of the record in the case of James M. Coker, et al.

- Q Have you been living with James M. Coker as his wife ever since you married in 1871? A Yes sir.
Q Mrs. Coker, do you know when your husband came to the Cherokee Nation, that is, removed here? A He moved here in 1893.
Q Who came with him at that time? A Why there was a man came out with us by the name of Scott.
Q Did your family come at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Name the family? A Mary Ann Coker, Craton Coker, Ida May Coker, Ada Coker, Joseph Coker, Charles Coker and Ethel Coker and myself.
Q Since 1893 where have you and all of the family just mentioned by you been living? A We lived two years near Chelsea; then we moved to the place we are living on now, near Coody's Bluff.
Q I will ask you if you and all the family that you have just mentioned have lived in the Cherokee Nation since 1893? A We have lived here all the time since that.
Q Now what children were born to you before you came to the Cherokee Nation, name them? A Mary Ann Coker and Craton Coker and Ida May Coker and Ada Coker and Joseph Coker and James Coker and Ethel Coker.
Q All born before you came here? A Yes sir.
Q Now are any of these daughters married? A I have got two married daughters now.
Q What are their names? A Ada F. Barr, she is now; and Mary Ann Reinhardt.
Q Is Mary Ann Reinhardt the wife of Charles H. Reinhardt? A Yes sir.
Q I will ask you Mrs. Coker if you know whether or not Mr. Coker and these children drew the strip money in the year 1894? A Yes sir.

By Commission:

- Q Were any of these children married prior to 1894? A No sir.
Q They were all single then? A Yes sir.

By Mr. Lawson: They were denied the pay out in 1894, and the Cherokee Council met in November of the same year, and the bill was introduced appropriating the money.
1894 pay roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined for all of applicants and their names not found thereon.

By Mr. Lawson: I will state here that the reason I have not that certificate was that I was informed by the Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation, at Tahlequah, that it was in the hands of the Dawes Commission, and that he could not give us the certificate that was a mistake, and I will get that later on.

I believe that is all I care to introduce.

By Mr. Hastings: (Waives cross-examination.)

By Mr. Lawson:

I have my briefs prepared, and I desire also to file a certified copy showing that this money was paid to these parties in 1894; and desire it to be made part of the records in all of these cases.

By Commission: The attorney for the applicant will be granted ten days in which to file a certified copy of the act referred to.

The attorney for the applicants files in the case of the application of Grace Coker, a brief; also a brief in the case of Ada F. Barr; also a brief in the case of Charles Reinhardt; and in the case of James M. Coker.

By Commission of Mr. Dawson: Do you, in behalf of the various applicants mentioned herein submit the case to the Commission? A Yes sir.

Q Do you submit, Mr. Hastings? A Yes sir.

By Commission: The attorney in behalf of the applicants and the attorney in behalf of the Cherokee Nation present submit the case; same is deemed completed, and will be reported to the Commission for final decision, based upon the evidence now of record in addition to the certified copy of the act of Council to be filed within ten days by the attorney for the applicants.

I, M. D. Green, do hereby certify that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

M. D. Green.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he made the above copy and that the same is a true and complete transcript of the original manuscript.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th day of April, 1902.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Robert A. [unclear], et al'

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

Service of the above motion accepted and a copy of the same received by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, at Vinita, I. T., this day of , 1905.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

MOTION for leave to be enrolled as a Cherokee Citizen by blood.

Comes now Rosetta Greenlee, nee Whitmire, and by her attorneys, Talley & Harnage, and moves that the Honorable Secretary of the Interior enroll her as a Cherokee citizen by blood, and for ground of motion states:

That she is a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Indian Nation; that her father, Boson Looney, is a Cherokee citizen by blood; that Boson Looney was the son of John Looney, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Indian Nation; that said John Looney was an old settler Cherokee Indian, and Chief of the Western Cherokees at one time, as is shown by the testimony of Joshua Ross which was taken before the Dawes Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 10th day of August 1906;

Wherefore your petitioner prays the Honorable Secretary of the Interior that she be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR WASHINGTON D. C.

MOTION FOR APPEAL TO THE HONORABLE SECRETARY OF INTERIOR WASHINGTON D. C.

Comes now Rosetta Greenlee, and by her attorneys, Talley and Barnage moves an appeal from the decision of the Honorable Commissioners to the Five Civilized Tribes to the Hon. Secretary of Interior, and if for ground of motion states;

That she is citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation as shown by the testimony of Joshua Ross filed in this case and by the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, showing the enrollment of the John Looney, an Old Settler Cherokee Indian, that she is the daughter of Benson Looney the son the said John Looney, and that all the testimony introduced in her case shows that she is a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and she files herewith her affidavit for appeal:

Wherefore your petitioner by her attorneys, prays that she be transferred from the Freedmen Roll to the Roll of Citizens by blood under the provisions of Section 4, Act of Congress approved April 26 1906.

Personally appeared before me Rosetta Greenlee, nee Whitmire, who being by me first duly sworn on oath deposes and says; that her maiden name was Rosetta Looney; that her grandfather was John Looney, a full blood Cherokee Indian; that his son Bossen Looney was her father, he married Jane Wright, a Cherokee slave:

Affiant further states that she is entitled to enrollment as a citizen by blood, and not as a freedwoman citizen in the Cherokee nation: The testimony of Josiah Ross shows that Looney was a Cherokee, and that she is the grand daughter of this John Looney, a Cherokee by blood.

Affiant further states that she has purchased improvements on 120 acres of land in the Cherokee Indian Nation while her citizenship is pending, and upon which she intends to file in the event that she is finally enrolled.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

January 22, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is forwarded herewith report of Commissioner Bixby, dated September 24, 1906, transmitting a petition of Rosetta Greenlee (formerly Whitmire) to be enrolled as a Cherokee by blood instead of as a Cherokee freedman.

Rosetta Greenlee was a party applicant in the consolidated case of Jan Looney, et al., which is this day forwarded to the Department with the recommendation that the applications for the enrollment of the persons embraced therein be denied.

The Commissioner reports that the records in his office fail to show that any application has ever been made by Rosetta Greenlee for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to September 10, 1906, or that any claim was ever made by the applicant prior to that time of any right to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, or that she possessed Indian blood.

Under the provisions of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat. L., 137), there is no authority in law to receive or consider the application of Rosetta Greenlee for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood, and it is recommended that the application be dismissed.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee,

Acting Commissioner.

L.R.S.

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On January 22, 1907 (Land #3929-1906), the Indian Office transmitted your report dated September 24, 1906, forwarding a petition of Rosetta Greenlee, formerly Whitmire, to be enrolled as a Cherokee by blood instead of a Cherokee freedman. It appears that said Rosetta Greenlee is a party applicant in the consolidated case of Jane Looney et al.

You recommend that the petition be denied.

The Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

It appears from your report that the records of your office fail to show that any application has ever been made by Rosetta Greenlee for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to September 10, 1906, or that any claim was ever made by her prior to that time of any right to enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, or that she possessed Indian blood.

Under the provisions of the act of April 26, (34 Stat., 127), there is no authority in law to receive or consider the application of said Rosetta Greenlee, and said petition is hereby dismissed.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan,

First Assistant Secretary.

Q Is he older than Frances? A. No sir.

Q Is he older than Ellen? A. Yes sir.

Q (Mr. Tavenport) Where were you living when the war came up? A. Living in going sick.

Q Where did you go when the war broke out, if you ever left the country? A. Springfield, Mo.

Q Well now, how long did you live at Springfield, Mo.? A. We didn't stay there a year.

Q Did you go to Springfield about the time the war broke out? A. No, I guess we went there along during the war.

Q Well, where was your daughter Frances born? A. Born in going sick.

Q What was before you went to Springfield, was it? A. Yes sir.

Q How old was Frances when you left the district? A. I think

I I think she was either five years old or six, I dont know which.
Q Where was Henry born? A He was born I dont know where he was born at, either in Kansas or Springfield, I dont know which, because we were traveling all the time.
Q The fact is, you have never had any permanent place of living since the war? A. No sir.
Q How long did you live in Kansas? A. Never lived in Kansas.
Q How long did you live in Missouri? A. I just traveled around in Missouri, I dont know how long we did stay there.
Q About how many years did you stay there? A. I cant tell you.
Q Did you stay there three or four years? A. I think we staid there two years, I think.
Q Well, where did you go from Missouri? A Came on back down here, camped along, we were traveling by ourselves, nobody with us, went by ourselves and come by ourselves.
Q After you got back down here, then where did you go? A. Went over on the river here to my sister in law's, on the Verdigris; not the Verdigris, the Grand river, and staid there two or three weeks.
Q After you staid over on Grand river, where did you go? A Went on Big creek.
Q How long did you stay on Big creek? A Staid there ever since we have been here.
Q You never lived on Cotton creek? A No sir, the old man has been over there.
Q Haven't you lived in Arkansas a while since the war? A. Not as I know of; if we did I didn't know it was there.
Q Didn't your husband and you go over there and live near Cane Hill, Arkansas after the war with a man named Fisher? A I dont know nothing about him.
Q About five miles from Cane Hill, Arkansas; didn't you live over there a while? A. No sir, not as I know of, we just traveled all the time, we never staid anywhere hardly any time, didn't stop traveling.
Q Never had a home anywhere since the war? A. Not till we came to Big creek.
Q How long have you been living on Big creek? A Ever since '86.
Q Well, now didn't you and your husband go to Leavenworth, Kansas, and live there a little while there with a fellow by the name of Tom Ross? A. No sir, I dont know nothing about him.
Q Did you ever know such a man as Tom Ross? A. No sir.
Q Well, how is it you remember you came back here just four months before a certain Christmas in '88? A Because I had my oldest boy, he was born, he was 3 years old in the year '88.
Q How old is he now? A Well, I dont forget, how old he is but I know he was 3 years old the year the treaty was made, he was two years old, he was born in '86.
Q How old is your oldest boy now, do you know? A. No sir, I cant say, I forgot.
Q You know he was born in '84? A. Yes sir.
Q What time of the year was he born? A. On the 4th day of July, 24th of July.
Q How when did you go to Springfield, Missouri? A. We went there during the war.
Q What time during the war? A I cant tell you nothing about the year and months.
Q You told me about '86, cant you tell me when the war broke out? A. No sir.
Q Did you go to Springfield after the war broke out? A. I dont know, we were run off, we staid back till the Indians run us away.
Q About how long was it after the war began that you went to Springfield? A I cant tell you.

- Q You certainly have some idea, was it a year or two years? A I guess it was two or three.
- Q Well, you staid there about a year? A Yes sir, I guess we did.
- Q How you staid there longer than that? A No sir, we didn't we just traveled.
- Q Did you go direct from the Territory to Springfield, Mo? A Yes sir, we went from the Territory to Springfield, and we were just by ourselves, and nobody wasn't with us.
- Q Now your child, Frances, you say was born in the Cherokee Nation A Yes sir.
- Q Was she born after you come back from Springfield, Missouri? A She was born in slave time I tell you.
- Q She was born before you went to Springfield? A Yes sir, she was born a slave.
- Q She was born on the 4th day of July? A No sir, the boy.
- Q Well, how old was Frances when you went to Springfield? A I think Frances was either 5 years old, I dont know which, or seven.
- Q Was the boy born before you went to Springfield, or after you got back? A No, he was born when we went to Springfield.
- Q Before you went? A Yes sir.
- Q When you left the Territory for Springfield sometime after July 4, 1844? A Yes sir, I think that is it.
- Q How you staid about a year at Springfield? A No we didn't stay any year at Springfield.
- Q Well, how long did you stay? A I think I told you how long we staid; if I knew the numbers and dates I could tell you, but I cant tell you, because I just can't say.
- Q Was it less than a year? A. I dont know, we staid about something near a year.
- Q Did you go direct from Springfield to the Cherokee Nation? A. Well the way we traveled around, it would take us a long time, because one was horseback.
- Q When you started from Springfield, was your objective point the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir, come to the Cherokee Nation.
- Q How long were you making the trip? A I dont know, because one was afoot and the other horseback.
- Q Where were the children? A I had one in my lap and one behind me.
- Q How long were you making the trip? A I dont know sir.
- Q Did you come by Fort Scott? A. No sir.
- Q Leavenworth? A. No sir, we didn't we didn't come that way, we come through the woods.
- Q To what point in the Cherokee Nation did you come when you returned? A I cant tell you.
- Q Do you know what district it was in? A. No sir, because I didn't know the names of places or districts.
- Q Did you come by any point in Arkansas before you came to the Territory? A I think we came to a place they called Bentonsville, I reckon that is the way we came.
- Q You didn't go from Springfield to Cane Hill? A Yes sir.
- Q That was the time your husband and family was over there and he was working for Fisher over to Cane Hill? A No sir, we never lived on Cane Hill.
- Q Do you think you were as much as a year coming from Springfield to the Territory? A. I think we were.
- Q You traveled pretty much all the time, didn't you? A. Yes sir, and covered out, we traveled till we got tired, and then camped in the woods.
- Q Did you stop and work along the road? A He would go out and work a little, get enough grub, and then start again.
- Q About how long would you work on one place? A. Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just get something to eat.

A Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just to get something to eat.

Q You were not more than a month or two making the trip from Springfield to the Territory? A No, sir, I guess not.

(Mr. Mellette) Where did you say you came to when you first came to the Territory? A. Came to my sister Judy, Peter Williams' wife.

Q Lived where? A. She lived on Grand river; that is the first place.

MOSE HARDRIK, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A. Mose Hardrik.

Q How old are you? A 71.

Q What is your past office? A. Overseer.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. All my life.

Q Where were you during the war, were you out? A. Yes sir.

Q Are you on the roll of 1880? A. No sir.

(Mr. Mellette) Do you know the applicant, Jane Looney? A. Yes sir.

Q Do you know her husband, Bolson Looney? A. I knowed her husband.

Q Did you know them before the war? A. I knowed her husband before the war.

Q You didn't know Jane before the war? A. No sir.

Q Well, where did he live before the war? A. Lived at Murrell's, down in the Cherokee Nation, George Murrell.

Q Who owned him? A. George Murrell.

Q Was George Murrell a Cherokee Indian? A. No sir, his wife was.

Q He was a white man? A. Yes sir.

Q Well, do you know when this applicant and Bolson Looney returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A. I don't know, I know when Bolston came to my house.

Q Well, when did he come to your house? A. In the summer of '68.

Q Where did he come to your house? A. On Grand river, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q You didn't see this applicant then? A. No sir, I didn't see her, Bolston came himself and he was looking for his sister.

Q You don't know where she was? A. No sir.

Q Do you know what became of Bolston after that? A. No sir, I don't.

Q Did you see him any more? A. I seen him two or three or four years after that.

Q Where? A. He was over here at Vinita.

Q Do you know where he lived at that time, when you saw him at Vinita? A. No sir, I don't.

(Mr. Davenport) You are satisfied that when you saw this Bolston Looney over there in the summer it was '88 are you? A. Yes sir.

Q It was earlier than Christmas, or December? A. It was in the summer.

Q It was earlier than four weeks before Christmas? A. It was in the summer.

Q You don't know where they had been living prior to that time that you saw him there? A. No, I don't.

Q And you don't know where they lived since that time? A. No sir.

(Commissioner) Do you know anything about this woman being married to Bolston Looney? A. No sir, no more than what he said he had a wife.

Q But you never saw his wife in these days? A. No sir.

Q How long had you known this woman? A. I never seen her until this week at the Court.

(Mr. Mellette) When did he tell you he had a wife? A. Over at the Court.

CHARLES CHAMBERS, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A. Charles Chambers.

Q How old are you? A. 70 years old.
Q What is your post office? A. Rudson.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Been living here all my life.
Q Were you out during the war? A. No sir, I wasn't in the war.
Q Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation while the war was going on? A. I went over to the Cherokee Nation.
Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A. Yes sir.
Q Mr. McCallister, Charlie, do you know the applicant her, Jane Looney? A. Yes sir.
Q Do you know her husband, Solomon Looney? A. Yes sir.
Q Well, now, when did you first see them after the war; do you remember? A. I saw him in '88 in Fort Gibson.
Q Where was that? A. He said he left her on Grand river; he told me; she wasn't with him at all, he was by himself.
Q Well, when did they move up on Big creek, do you know anything about that? A. No, I don't know just when they moved up there, I don't know.
Q Did you get acquainted with them in there? A. I got acquainted with them when they came from Fort Gibson up here, when I went there.
Q Where were they living? A. They were living out on the prairie, on the Big creek.
Q In what district here, in what town? A. They came up from Fort Gibson and found them there.
Q Mr. Davidson, you saw you saw Belston Looney at Fort Gibson in 1888? A. Yes.
Q That time in 1888, you saw that? A. Why it was along a while, just a while before Christmas.
Q Now then if Belston Looney testified in 1886 that he never returned to Fort Gibson or anywhere else, was that true or untrue? A. If he gave such evidence as that in 1886, that he never did return to Fort Gibson, is that true or untrue? A. I seen him there.
Q I asked you, if he testified that, was it true or untrue; in giving his testimony before the Keim-Oliston Commission, as he gave such evidence as that, was it true or untrue? A. I can't answer that question.
Q When did you come back to this country? A. I came back in '88.
Q They told me in '88.
Q Are you on the 1880 roll regularly? A. Yes sir.
Q Did you have any conversation with Solomon Looney at Fort Gibson in '88? A. No sir, not but a very little bit.
Q You did go over with him? A. He didn't have anybody with him, I went over there alone and seen him there, and I went to him and shook hands with him because I was acquainted with him.
Q Now how did they live when the war broke out? A. Didn't have but one house.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge where they went during the war? A. I know they went north.
Q Did you remain in the same locality where they had lived, or returned to that locality when you came back after the war? A. I stopped at first right this side of Fort Smith, on this side the river in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well, did you go back in that neighborhood? A. Yes sir, I came back in the neighborhood where I used to live, lived on the same place I lived from when they first taken me away.
Q Now lived in that neighborhood when you returned up there there after the war? A. Yes sir, I was living there on that same place then, I came back to them.
Q And were there any children, Maxwell children and his wife; of course the old man was dead, but his wife was living on the same place.

Q Where had the right family come? A. They went south too.
 Q Do you know to whom Holston Looney belonged at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir, belonged to George Murrell.
 Q Where was George Murrell living? A. Well, George Murrell was living there in what they call Park Hill.
 Q How far was Park Hill from where you lived at the Chambers place? A. Well, it was all pretty near the same place, it was all called Park Hill where they all lived, we didn't live just two or three miles apart.
 Q George Murrell was a man who had a farm in Virginia and lived in Virginia the greater part of his time? A. I suppose he had a place there.
 Q He lived there the greater part of his time? A. Pretty much.
 Q Also kept a part of his slaves in Louisiana? A. I guess he did, I understand he did, anyway.
 Q Did George Murrell ever have a permanent home at Park Hill, where he himself and family resided; George Murrell ever live permanently with his family at Park Hill, in the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir, he was there, called that home.
 Q He would go back and forward? A. Yes sir, he would be there, because I knowed him.
 Q His wife was a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross, who now lives at Fort Gibson? A. Seems to me she was the daughter of Lewis Ross.
 Q Wasn't she a sister of Mrs. W. P. Ross? A. Yes sir, that is right.
 Q Then Holston Looney didn't belong to Jane Looney at the breaking out of the war? A. No sir.
 Q And you don't know who this man belonged to at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir.
 Q Who did she belong to? A. Eli Wright.
 Q How do you know that? A. I seen her there.
 Q How far did Eli Wright live from Park Hill? A. He lived a good ways, but I was all over the country in them times.
 Q About how far? A. I can't tell you just exactly it was.
 Q Was it a hundred miles? A. No, I guess now since I come to be grown I expect it was somewhere between thirty and forty miles over there.
 Q You lived in there at Park Hill, you say? A. Yes sir.
 Q And the other parties lived over thirty or forty miles from you? A. Yes sir.
 Q There was no way of getting back and forth except by horse? A. No sir, except on horseback.
 Q And there was no settlement between the Park Hill settlement and the settlement of going Snake where they lived? A. I expect there was, I just went going through there, I was going to Cincinnati.
 Q When were you at Eli Wright's place, when you claim to be the owner of this woman before the war? A. I didn't stay very long.
 Q How long did you stay? A. I was there one time.
 Q When did you next see this woman after the war broke out? A. Why I never seed her any more until I came from Tahlequah up here on Big creek.
 Q When was that? A. That was along in 187.
 Q They haven't had a permanent place of living, have they, since the war her husband? A. Yes sir, they had a log house put up.
 Q Didn't they just live from place to place and town to town? A. Well, he did for a while, and that time he told me his wife was over on Grand river.
 Q What makes you know it was just before Christmas, in 186 you saw him down there? A. Because I know him, because I asked him to come take Christmas with me.
 Q How long before Christmas was it, and what year after the war broke out? A. I don't know what year she war broke out.
 Q How long before Christmas and in what year after peace was declared? A. I can't hardly tell you that.

Q What year, and how long before Christmas was it the treaty was made? A I know one thing, I know the people near where I was living told me that peace had been declared and the folks was all coming home and I picked up and hit out too.

Q Well, how long before Christmas was the treaty made, and what year? A. And I know right after that, in the near year after I came up there, that was when I seen him.

Q Who was living in Fort Gibson at the time you saw him? A. I can't tell you, there was a plenty of soldiers there.

Q Wasn't there some Cherokee families there, or colored families? A There was one or two colored families there, I can't tell you, it has been so long ago.

Q Lewis Daniels was living there? A Lewis Daniels was living around there somewhere.

Q And F. H. Nash was living there, wasn't he? A. I don't know.

Q W. P. Ross? A Yes sir, I believe he was, I believe he was living around there some place, but I don't know whether he was living in town or not.

Q You don't remember anyone living there except you saw Holston Looney there, is that it? A. There is a man now lives right close to where there is a little bridge going down towards the river, that they call Vann.

(Commissioner) You say you knew this woman before the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Was she married to Holston Looney then? A. I think she was, she had one child, I think she was married to him; I don't know for certain whether she was or not.

Q Where did you first know her? A Certainly as Holston Looney's wife? A I never knew her really as his wife, not till he came back here with her.

Q When did you first see her with him after the war? A That was in '37, and I am just going to tell you just exactly.

Q You saw him and her together at that time? A Yes sir, they were living together.

Q As husband and wife? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen more or less of her ever since? A. Yes, I seen her off and on all the while since.

Q And of him also? A. Yes sir, they were living together.

Q He died about three years ago? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you seen them ever since as husband and wife? A. Yes sir, they been living ever since as husband and wife.

Q Now this George Murrell that you spoke of, who was his wife? A I think it was a daughter of Lewis Ross if I mistake not.

Q She was a Cherokee woman was she? A. Yes sir.

Q That the family of old Chief Ross? A Yes sir, if I am not mistaken he was her brother.

Q You think then George Murrell's wife was a niece of the old Chief? A Yes sir, I think she is as well as I can recollect.

(Mr. Mellette) Didn't George Murrell build a fine house at Park Hill? A. Yes sir.

Q Was it brick or frame? A. I don't just recollect what the house was built of, it was a fine house.

Q It was the house R. B. Ross lived in now? A. Yes sir, I think it is.

(Mr. Davenport) Do you know where Bob Ross lives now? A Yes sir, living at Tahlequah, the man I am thinking about now.

Q What made you mention Mr. Mellette, that you thought the house George Murrell built was the house Bob Ross was living in now? A Maybe I didn't understand him good.

(Mr. Mellette) I asked you if George Murrell didn't build a fine house at Park Hill? A Yes sir.

Q You know about that? A. Yes sir.

Q Then I asked you if Bob Ross is living in that house now? A I know.

know where Mr. Ross is living now, I misunderstood you sir, I beg your pardon.

COMMISSIONER: The applicant is identified on the Kern Gilbert Roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1885. It appears that she and her deceased husband were slaves in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the Civil War, and were the property of Cherokee officials. They seem to have lived together at the time of the war, and to have gone into the State of Missouri claims to have returned to the Cherokee Nation about four weeks before Christmas, in 1885. The testimony on this point is somewhat conflicting. With a view to the application of her children, they have been identified in the course of the examination as her children, and it is probable that their claim will depend upon the claim that may be established for their mother or father. It seems that the marriage between the applicant and her husband was lawful, they have been married, according to her testimony, since before the Civil War, and have lived together until his death, some three years ago. She will not be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman or a freedman's child, but the further consideration of the testimony, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

The Kern Gilbert Roll examined and the husband of Jane Boone, identified therein, page 175 in 1880, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, as Boone Leoney.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Is she is alive is she? A. Yes sir.
Q How many times have you been married? A. Twice.
Q Give me the name of your first husband? A. Manuel Adams.
Q Is he dead? A. No sir.
Q Is he a Cherokee freedman? A. No sir.
Q When did you marry him? A. In 1888.
Q You and he have parted have you? A. No sir, we were parted but went back together again.
Q What is the name of your second husband? A. John Johnson.
Q After you married Adams first then you parted from him and afterwards married John Adams? A. I don't go by his name
~~John Adams~~
Q How can it happen that you married John Johnson if you was not parted from Adams? A. I was made to marry him.
Q When did you marry John Johnson? A. In 1900.
Q Are you and he living together now? A. Yes sir but I don't go by his name.
Q And you say you were never parted from Adams? A. Yes sir.
Q And that you are now living with John Johnson as his wife? A. Yes sir
Q And though you are now living with a man named John Johnson as his wife, you don't want to go by his name? A. No sir I don't.
Q When did you and Adams quit living together? A. It has been about two years.
Q How long after that did you begin to live with Johnson? A. A year after.
Q Did a preacher marry you to John Johnson? A. Yes sir.
Q I can't see how you can go by any other name than Johnson if you are living with him as his wife at this time? A. I don't want to mix up my name.
Q You are a Johnson now are you not? A. I guess so, I is married to him and living with him.
Q Well we will have to enroll you under his name then. A (No response)
Q Have you any children? A. No sir.
Q Is this man Johnson a state man or a Cherokee freedman? A. A state man I think.
Q Did you ever get a divorce from your husband Adams? A. No sir we was married by this Indian law down here.
Q Is there some one here that knows that you have lived with these men? A. Yes sir my mother.

JANE LEONEY CALLED AND SWORN AS A WITNESS, TESTIFIED AS FOLLOWS FOR THE APPLICANT:

Q What is your name? A. Jane Leoney.
Q And you the Jane Leoney who has been listed for enrollment already? A. Yes sir.

Ellen Johnson B.

- Q Is this woman here your daughter? A. Yes sir.
Q What is her given name? A. Ellen.
Q How many times has she been married? A. Twice.
Q Give me the name of her first husband? A. Samuel Adams.
Q Give me the name of her present husband? A. John Johnson.
Q She goes by the name of Johnson now does she? A. Yes sir.
Q She was your daughter by your husband Samuel Johnson? A. Yes sir.
Q How long has this daughter lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Ever since she was born.
Q All her life? A. Yes sir.

Exhibit Commission of the applicant-

- Q Did you draw strip money? A. Yes sir.
Q Under what name? A. Adams.

The Barn Clifton roll examined and the applicant identified thereon as follows:

Page 175 No. 4222 Ellen Allen, Seewasseeowee district.

Applicant not found on the 1880 or 1890 rolls

JANE LOONEY recalled and examined by the Commission:

- Q Was your daughter ever called Ellen Allen? A. Adams is her name but they put it down as Allen.

Applicant recalled and examined by Cherokee representative Harpport:

- Q Where have you lived outside of the Cherokee Nation since you have been grown? A. JEFFERVILLE, MOBILE.
Q How long? A. Six months.
Q Where else since then? A. No sir.
Q Where were you living when you and your husband Adams separated? A. Here in the Nation.

By Sam's Breckinridge-

The applicant is shown to be the child of HOSAN and Jane Looney deceased, and Jane Looney now living. The applicant states that she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life except about six months in Jeffersville Kansas and it appears that she was never a native of the Cherokee Nation; she is 33 years of age; she is identified on the roll as Ellen Allen; it appears from the testimony that the name of Allen used in the enrollment by mistake for the name Adams, which was the applicant's real name at that time; in any event, the evidence clearly establishes that she is the daughter of the father and mother stated and has made her home in the Nation as stated. She is not found on the rolls of 1880 and 1890 or the Wallace rolls. Her mother who is now enrolled as Cherokee Freedman J. Card 1897. The applicant's change of name by marriage is accounted for in a satisfactory manner; she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a Cherokee card, and a copy of the testimony taken in the case of her mother as above stated will be filed in her case and the final decision of the Commission in regard to this application will be made known to her at her post office address.

Eliza Johnson

BY THE COMMISSIONER OF LAND OFFICES

I declare that this daughter, the applicant, named A. More in the Cherokee Nation.

Chas. von Seitz, being sworn, deposes that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above case and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereon.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY OF FRANK FEEHAN OF CHEROKEE NATION in the matter of the application of Jane Looney for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, D-397.

Appearances:

J. F. Smith, of Gillette & Smith, Vinita, I. T., Attorneys
for applicant;
W. V. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

FRANK FEEHAN, being first duly sworn and being examined
testified as follows:

BY W. V. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Frank Feehan.
Q How old are you? A 66 years old.
Q Where do you live? A Atchison County, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived in that County? A Since January '58.
Q Did you know a colored woman up there in Atchison County Kansas
by the name of Jane Looney? A I did.
Q Did you know her husband? A I did.
Q What name did her husband go by? A Andy Looney.
Q Did you know any of Jane's children? A Yes, I know Frances.
Q What is her present name? A Smith.
Q What was her husband's first name? A I did not know that.
Q Did you know any of the rest of her children? A Why, I have seen several of them, I have no particular knowledge; they have worked around for my daughter and myself some but I have no particular knowledge of the other two of them.
Q What are the others named do you know? A Really I don't know how many children she has got.
Q I mean of Jane Looney? A Oh I thought you were speaking about Frances. Jane Looney yes, I know Frances is her oldest daughter, and the oldest boy was born on the place where I live now, Jerry,
he was born in '64.
Q You mean in '64? A Yes sir.
Q Well what is the next one? A There was a John, there was several children after they left our neighborhood, I don't know how many they had after they moved to Atchison, there was a Ellen, there was a George, and there was a John, them three I heard of,
not personally knewed them either.
Q Her husband there was known as Andy Looney? A Yes sir.
Q When did you first learn to know this man and woman in Kansas?
A It was either in '63 in the fall or in the spring of '64, I won't be positive, but it was either one of those times.
Q There did they live in '64? A On the place I own now.
Q For how long did they continue to live there? A Until spring of '67.
Q Continuously all the time? A Continuously all the time, farmed
the place.
Q Where did they go in the spring of '67? A They moved to a place right adjoining it on the east where old man Tilman built a little cabin there, they lived there two years.
Q That would be the spring of '69? A Yes sir.
Q Then where did they go? A Then in the spring of '69 they moved on the place right north of me.
Q How far from you? A The house not being more than about 40
rods from where I live now.
Q How long did they live there? A Two years.
Q That would bring it up to '71? A Yes sir.

- Q Then where did they go? A They moved to Atchison.
- Q How far is that? A 5 or 6 miles, we call it 5 or 6 miles.
- Q Did you see them after that? A I saw them 15 years after that, positively and I might say 20, but 15 years anyhow; I saw Andy Looney in '92 the last time and had a long talk with him; he was fencing ground for my daughter.
- Q Did you see him frequently after he went to town? A Yes sir.
- Q You know when he left up there? A No.
- Q You say '92 as the last time you positively remember seeing him? A Yes sir, I had no ~~business~~ dealings with him; that is the last time I talked with him and I didn't know he had gone until here a few years ago.
- Q How about Frances Smith? A She lived there in Atchison.
- Q Does she live there now? A She lived there now, her husband is working there and the family is there.
- Q When is the last time you saw her? A Well I have not seen Frances for several years, because I have no dealings or no need of seeing her, but I have seen her children, I saw one of her children that worked for me this winter up until January.
- Q Up until this last January? A Yes, this last January last month, and he worked for my daughter the last month.
- Q That is that child's name? A Fred Smith.
- Q Do you know John Looney or Henry Looney of these boys? A I know Henry, because he was born on my place and I have seen him since, he is now in the penitentiary.
- Q That is he in the penitentiary for? A Killing his wife.
- Q Did you know any of the rest of these boys living up there now? A There is one by the name of John, but as I have no business with him I see him and that is about all, I have no personal knowledge of him much.
- Q How you said they left there and went to Atchison about '71? A Yes, to the City of Atchison.
- Q You say you had occasion to meet them frequently? A Yes sir, often.
- Q Did they ever do any work for you after '71 until '92? A Not for me, but my son-in-law, he would do little things in the garden and take care of the house and I would see him, - saw wood, any little thing like that.
- Q You know where they were living? A Oh yes.
- Q You saw their house? A Oh yes sir, many a time.
- Q How far were they living from your son-in-law? A Not more than a quarter of a mile, my son-in-law lived in the south Atchison and they lived in South Atchison, about a quarter of a mile.
- Q Well then from about '63 or '4 up until '71 they lived out there either on your farm or the adjoining farm? A Right close adjoining and many a day he has worked for me.
- Q What is your business? A Farmer.
- Q Are you a farmer yet? A Yes sir.
- Q You live on the same place? A Yes sir.
- BY MR. SMITH:
- Q Mr. Neerman, how long have you lived in Kansas? A Since the winter, since January '88.
- Q The people you talk about are people you first became acquainted with in '63 or '4? A Yes sir.
- Q Which was it? A The Looney family? they consisted of Andy Looney his wife Jane, and the daughter Frances, about 6 or 7 years old, and the child Henry was born on the place where I lived ~~there~~ now, they had a cabin, and he was born there.
- Q Do you know which year it was, whether it was '63 or '64? A I am not positive, but it was not later than that.
- Q Now you say the husband of this woman was called Andy? A Andy Looney he went by, yes sir.
- Q How long has it been since you saw the Jane Looney to whom you refer? A Oh it has been a good many years, I couldn't tell you when.

Of course she didn't get out like her husband Andy and the sons so I could see her and I had no business with them and I didn't hunt her up.

Q You know whether Andy Looney is living or not? A I understand he is dead.

Q When did you last see him? A Last time I saw him was in the summer of '92 that I saw him personally and talked with him in Atchison, Kansas.

Q He was living there then? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know whether the people that applied here for admission are the same people you know at all? A I don't know anything about that at all.

H. C. KING, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY R. HASTINGS:

Q Give the stenographer your name, please? A H. C. King.

Q How old are you, Mr. King? A 41 years old.

Q Where were you born? A Atchison County, Kansas.

Q You lived in that vicinity all of your life? A No sir, not all the time.

Q Where do you live now? A I live in Atchison County.

Q Where were you living when you were 7 or 8 years of age? A In Atchison County.

Q Did you ever know a colored family up there by the name of Looney? A I know her.

Q You know what the woman's name was? A I don't remember every one, what her name was.

Q Don't remember? A No, not her name particularly.

Q Did you remember his name, Andy? A He was known as Andy Looney.

Q Did you know any of his children? A I remember one named Henry Looney.

Q What became of him? A I learned that he was in the penitentiary from what I heard.

BY R. SMITH: I object to that.

Q You don't know only what you have heard? A Just what I have heard there in town, it has been several years since I heard it.

Q Did you know any of the rest of the family? A I know two now, there's two now that I remember that I know, John Looney and Frances Smith.

Q Where does John Looney live now? A In Atchison.

Q When did you last see him? A Last Saturday about one o'clock.

Q You know whether he is single or married? A He is married, I understand.

Q You know whether Frances is single or married? A She is married.

Q You know where she lives? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A She lives 716 W. Street, Atchison.

Q You know what her husband's name is? A I know of him as Doctor Smith.

Q They live there in Atchison? A Yes sir, that is my understanding. I am not acquainted with the man.

Q Were you at her house? A Yes sir.

Q Therefore you are correct as to her place of residence? A Yes sir.

Q How was this Looney family that you knew, this man and woman, the father and mother of these children John and Henry and Frances?

A That has always been my understanding, that they were the children of the family.

Q You know that like you know anything else in the neighborhood?

A Like I know anything, yes sir.

Q When did Andy Looney and his wife leave that country? A I couldn't say for certain about that, I heard of them leaving about

Q '86, I had been away from Atchison and came back in 1896, I had been away about 12 or 13 years.

Q How did you leave Atchison County? A I had left Atchison County in '83 I think it was '83 or '84.

Q You know whether these Looney's that you speak of were living in '83? A They had been living in Atchison last I knew of them before that, I didn't know just where they was in '83.

Q How long had you known them to be living around in Atchison? A I would judge about 15 years anyhow, something like that.

Q Continuously? A As near as I could learn, occasionally I would see them.

Q You left there about '83 or '84 and came back in 1896 and they were gone? A Yes, that is I learned they were gone, I lost track of them anyway, I wasn't particularly acquainted with the younger ones; I remembered Henry as a boy, he wasn't much younger than I was.

Q You don't remember as far back as '66, you are too young? A Well I couldn't say as to the date when I got acquainted with them, but I know when I moved out of the neighborhood in which they lived, the old neighborhood, that was in the fall of '70, I lived about two miles for several years, probably from '65 to '70, within about two miles of Mr. Neerman, and they lived right in the Neerman neighborhood, either on his place or the Tilman place; I know about where they lived.

Q That is as far back as your recollection extends? A Yes sir.

Q They afterwards moved to Atchison? A Yes, I have seen them around Atchison and I understood that they lived there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q How long did you state you were? A 41 years old.

Q You don't remember the name of Andy Looney's wife? A No sir.

Q How many children do you remember? A I don't remember but one particularly, when they were small children.

Q You can only give the name of one child? A That I remembered at that time, when I was a boy.

Q How when you first knew these people that you speak of you were how old did you say, seven years old? A I was from 6 to 10 somewhere in there, I knew them before I was 10 years old I remember, I lived in the neighborhood with them.

Q Where did you last see any of them? A I saw one that I got acquainted with, John Looney in late years I saw him in Atchison last Saturday.

Q How long have you been living in Atchison County? A 6 years this last time, or about 6 within a month or two of it.

Q You were away awhile? A I was away from Atchison County some 12 or 13 years.

Q Where were you then? A I was in Jefferson County about 10 years and in Oklahoma about 2 years or such a matter.

Q You knew Andy Looney's wife did you? A I knowed her when I was a little shaver.

Q How long has it been since you saw her? A I don't know that I have seen her since in the neighborhood of '70 possibly, along there somewhere, I shouldn't say positively.

Q You were there weren't you up until '84? A Not in that immediate neighborhood; they moved out of that neighborhood to town.

Q How far was it to town? A Well it is 6 or 10 miles.

Q And you have never seen her from that time to this? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't know whether it is the same Jane Looney or whether that is the woman that is an applicant in this case or not? A I could not say about that.

Q Was that a thickly settled community in there where they lived in that country? A Pretty thickly settled, yes.

Q Good many people live in Atchison? A Yes sir, along about 18000.

This section will be filed as a part of the record in the following Cherokee, Fre. and beautiful cases: 436, 437, 438, 440, 441 and the case at 442, 443 (also filed in 44103).

H. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographed notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Dennis Vann for the enrollment of himself and two children as Cherokee Freedmen; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Hendrick, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Dennis Vann.
Q How old are you? A 80 years old.
Q What is your birthplace? A Gateona.
Q What district do you live in? A Coconino.
Q You apply to be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes sir.
Q Is your name on the authenticated roll of 1890? A No sir, I don't think it is.
Q Is your name on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think it is on the Wallace roll, - I drew up money.
Q Did you draw that is known as the Cherokee Strip money? A No sir.
Q Your name is not on the Kern-Clifton roll? A No sir.
Q What do you want to enroll besides yourself? A Two children.
Q What are their names? A Carrie Vann.
Q How old is Carrie? A 17 years old.
Q Next one? A Maudie.
Q How old is Maudie? A 14.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Annie.
Q You don't apply for her? A No sir, she is a state woman.

Kern-Clifton pay roll of citizens of the Cherokee nation examined and applicant not identified thereon.

Wallace roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant identified as follows:

Page 184 #3423 Dennis Vann, (No district)

- Q Did you draw Strip money for these two children of yours? A No sir, I never drew for myself or my two children.
Q Did you draw Wallace money for these two children? A No sir, I just drew for myself.

1890 authenticated roll of citizens of the Cherokee nation examined and applicant not identified thereon.

- Q Were you a slave? A Yes sir.
Q To whom did you belong? A I belonged to Katie Vann.
Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q An Indian? A Yes sir.
Q Did you go out of the Cherokee nation during the war? A Yes sir, I was taken out to Kansas.
Q When did you return? A In '68.
Q Have you been living in the Cherokee nation since 1868? A Oh I have been out since.
Q Out where? A Out in Kansas and Missouri.
Q Been living out in Kansas and Missouri? A Yes sir.
Q When did you come to the Cherokee Nation the last time to stay permanently? A Been here ever since. Mr. Wallace paid off.
Q What is the reason your name is not on the authenticated roll of 1890? A I don't know.
Q Did you ever apply to have it put on? A I have been to every roll that was put on since '76.
Q You don't know why it is that your name is not on the 1890 roll?
A No sir, I went to the Cherokee Council.
Q What did they do? A After they drew they notified Mr. Hendrick to pay me, I will draw you the paper, they notified Mr. Hendrick to pay me, and I got for myself but not for my children. (Freedmen paper)

Dennis Vann et al

Q Now that was in 1898, this was dated.

Applicant: That was two years after they got paid.

Q What payment did that have reference to? A That was the Wallace Payment.

Q Why didn't you get the payment on the Kern-Clifton roll? A I don't know, I went before them here at Claremore, I thought it was on there, and when they went to look for it it wasn't on there.

Q They wouldn't pay you? A No sir.

Examined by the Court: Rep'd by H.W. Hastings.

Q You never introduced a witness five years ago did you, before the Kern-Clifton? A They said they didn't need it.

Q You were rejected by the Court, right? A They didn't reject it as I know of, they never said anything about it if they rejected it, they never said anything to me about it.

Q J. Milton Turner was your attorney? A Yes sir.

Q And you never introduced any witness? A Yes sir, I introduced Uncle Willie Markham and I think Uncle George Mangrove.

Q Out there at Claremore? A I think so, yes sir.

Q At the same time you was in? A Yes sir. Another: he put them down I don't know, I introduced them.

Q Where did you live before the war? A About a mile from Saline Court House.

Q You belonged to Katie Vann? A Yes sir, used to belong to her father, and fell to her after he died.

Q Did you know Gull Rowe and Pole? A Yes sir, I was raised up with them.

Q Who did you go out with? A Went out with Uncle Gilbert Vann, my uncle.

Q Where did you go? A We went to Franklin County, Kansas.

Q Who did you come back with? A Uncle Gilbert and Brother George and Lewis Martin.

Q Why didn't you get your brother George to testify for you five years ago? A He wasn't there then.

Q He was around at different places with the Commission wasn't he? A Yes sir, but I went in at Claremore and he wasn't there.

Q He was at a number of other places where the Commission was staying? A Yes sir, but I didn't know but what it wasn't.

Q You never introduced George? A No, because I thought it wasn't. Turner said it was all right, I didn't know.

Q You and your brother George came back in '85? A Yes sir, and Uncle Gilbert and Lewis Martin and Joe Bean and Art Bean, all came back together.

Q All came in '85? A Yes sir.

Q That was the time you come and they had that Horse Creek fight? A Yes sir.

Q That was in '85? A That's what they say, it was the year the war closed, he made a crop that summer and then went up after the others.

Q He made a crop? A Uncle Gilbert made a crop down on Spring Creek and went up all winter in the fall.

Q Did you come in a wagon? A Yes sir.

Q You were about 14, 15 or 16 years old then? A I was about ten years old when we came up, and I was about 15 or 16 I guess.

Q You came along with George did you? A Yes sir, I came along with him.

Q Any people killed up there at Horse Creek? A Yes sir.

Q How many? A Was Vann and Jesse Vann and Phil Vann got killed there.

Q That all? A Tube Bean I believe got shot in the arm.

Q You went back to Kansas then? A No sir.

Q Was he a slave before the war? A I don't know who he belonged to.
Q You don't know nor don't know who he belonged to? A No sir.
Q Where did you first get acquainted with him? A I will tell you what I know about it, when I came down here myself they sent him from Fort Gibson up to my home after my family, after me and my wife to go down and see her sister, being there at the point of death, and they were here then.
Q How is it, they sent him after you you say? A Yes sir.
Q When did you come here? A I came here in '66.
Q And he came after you to go and see your sick family in '66 was it? A Yes sir.
Q How long after you came? A Along in the winter.
Q Do you know when he came himself from Kansas? A No sir, he came there with old man Gilbert, I don't know exactly what time it was.
Q You saw him here in '66? A Yes sir.
Q Have you known him ever since that? A Yes sir.
Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have you ever known of him living in the state of Kansas? A No sir.
Q Have you ever known of him being in the state of Kansas? A I don't know that.
By the Court: Read the last of the testimony.

Dennis Vann et al 8

- Q You have known him since 1860? A Yes sir, when I see him.
- Q How often have you saw him? A Oh well I couldn't tell that, I was on Grand river and he was up at Port Gibson.
- Q Has he lived at Port Gibson all the time ever since? A When he wasn't there he was up at his uncle's saw where on Spring Creek.
- Q He had lived at Port Gibson or Spring Creek ever since? A Yes sir, to my knowing, I don't know.
- Q When was the last time you saw him at Port Gibson? A I don't know that, I don't go down there very often.
- Q Well about when? A Well I saw him, at I don't date to say, he had been there since '66, I guess he was on Spring Creek and backwards and forwards to Port Gibson, I think he lived mostly at Ft. Gibson.
- Q Did you see him at Ft. Gibson since '66? A I couldn't say I saw him there, because I hardly remember that time, ever go down there.
- Q Have you seen him on Spring Creek since '66? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A I couldn't say.
- Q How long after '66? A It may have been two or three years, I don't know.
- Q Have you seen him since that time on Spring Creek since that two or three years? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A I can't date the time, I am not sure ated.
- Q You are a preacher ain't you? A Yes sir.
- Q I want you to tell how often and when you saw him there on Spring Creek since that time? A I don't believe I can tell, it, because it has been so long ago I can't recollect.
- Q When was the last time you saw him on Spring Creek? A That I don't know.
- Q Have you seen him there in the past thirty years? A Yes sir.
- Q When? A Some time inside of that time I have, but I can't tell you exactly when.
- Q About when, your best judgment? A I might go to work and tell you I saw him five years ago and it might not be so.
- Q I don't want you to tell me anything that is not so? A I don't want to tell anything that's not true.
- Q Your best judgment tells you you saw him when? A I saw him on Spring Creek, but I can't tell when.
- Q Was he living there? A Yes sir, with his people.
- Q Who were his people? A Gilbert Vann.
- Q He wasn't married then? A I don't know.
- Q Have you ever seen him since that? A I say he was married.
- Q Had you heard he was married? A I didn't know that.
- Q You know what his wife's name was? A I don't know that.
- Q You don't know how many times he has been married? A No sir.
- Q You are enrolled on a doubtful roll your self? A I am enrolled on it I reckon, I ought not to be on it.
- Q You went down before the Council to get enrolled yourself?
- A Yes sir.
- Q And they didn't enroll you? A No sir.
- Q Who did you come back here with? A I come down here with several of the m, I don't know the all.
- Q Name some of them? A Nathan Turner, Duffin we call him, and old man Adams, several others that are dead.
- Q Did you come back in the spring or in the fall? A In the fall.

By Don's Needles

- Q You came back in the fall? A Yes sir.
- Q What time in the year was it you saw Dennis? A That was along in the winter, he come up there where I lived now in the winter to get us to go down and see my wife's sister.

Dennis Vann et al ?

Examined by Hastings:

Q Where did you first see this Dennis after the war? A I saw him at Mine Archers, he worked there for Miss Archer.
Q The old lady Archer is living? A Yes sir, and then I saw him around in the neighborhood there.
Q Did he work for Mrs. Archer in '66? A No, well he might have worked there in the winter. He made a little crop there in '67.
Q I want to know where you first saw him after the war? A I saw him and Selma District.
Q Where place? A I don't know whether it was at the church or where; I know I saw him at Mrs. Archers, but I don't know whether it was the first time I saw him after he came back or not.
Q That's the first time you can recall definitely? A No, I saw him at the church, that was where we would see him another more.
Q Where was the church? A On Spring Creek.
Q How far from George Ross' place? A About ten miles south-west.
Q You know where he was living then? A Must have been staying with his brother George, come with him.
Q Come with him in '66? A Yes sir.
Q Where were you living then? A On the place we bought on Spring Creek.
Q What is your husband's name? A Sam Vann.
Q First time you can positively recollect where this fellow lived you saw him living at Mrs. Archers? A No that wasn't the first time I saw him.
Q Who preached down there? A Fred Martin and Uncle Billy Loody and Uncle Billy Vann.
Q Where was that church house located? A It wasn't no church house, just a brush arbor, and around at people's houses.
Q Where was this brush arbor that you saw? A Down on Spring Creek on Jesse Vann's place.
Q That was in the winter? A No sir.
Q What time was it? A In the fall.
Q In the fall of '66? A Yes sir.
Q You don't remember who preached at the time you saw him? A Uncle Billy Vann.
Q Do you know it was him preached at that time? A Yes sir.
Q How many years did he stay right there about Spring Creek? A I couldn't tell you that, because I didn't live right there where he was, I stayed at home and I didn't go around only when I would go to church.
Q How often did you see him at church? A Not more than once or twice.
Q He dropped out of your sight for a number of years? A Went to Miss Alberty's and saw him there when he was making a crop.
Q After that time did he drop out of your sight? A I didn't know whether he got over there after he worked there or not.
Q After that when did you see him? A I never saw him any more until he moved there on our place.
Q When did he move on your place? A About ten or 12 years ago.
Q He came from where down there? A I don't know.
Q His woman was a state woman? A I guess so, I don't know.
Q He married her in Kansas City? A I couldn't tell you.
Q Well now down here until then you never saw him? A No sir.
Q Did he tell you about living in Kansas? A No sir.
Q Did he tell you he had another wife before? A I know he had another wife.
Q Did he have any children by the first wife with him? A I never see any children by his first wife with him.

Applicant recalled and examined by Mr. Hastings:

Dennis Vann et al

Q Where did you see Columbus the first time after the war? A At Gibson.

COLUMBUS LADLEY, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Columbus Ladley.
Q How old are you? A 22.32.
Q What is your post-office address? A Tallulah.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Free man? A Yes sir.
Q You know the applicant, Dennis Vann? A Yes sir.
Q Was he a slave? A I couldn't tell you.
Q Where was he when you first knew him? A Port Gibson.
Q When? A I couldn't say just when.
Q You don't know what year? A No sir.
Q How long was it after the war? A It was a few years after the war.
Q Have you known him since that time? A Yes sir.
Q Where has he been living since then? A I couldn't tell you, I saw him around Tallulah some.
Q You don't know where he permanently resided with his family since then? A He was at Hatoosa but he was west of here since then.
Q You know his children? A No sir.
Q Knew any of his wives? A No sir.
Hastings values examination of this witness.

Applicant recalled, and further examined by Com'r Needles:

- Q Was she the mother of those two children, Carrie and Marie?
A Charlotte.
Q That was your first wife? A Yes sir.
Q She was a state woman? A Yes sir.
Q No proof of marriage to her? A No sir.
Q Did you get a license? A No sir.
Q You married in the State of Kansas? A Yes sir.
Q Didn't you have to have a license in the state of Kansas?
A Yes sir, but I didn't get any.
Q Fact is you were not married at all? A Yes sir, just without license and went before the squire and married.
Q The squire married you up there without any license? A I suppose he must have had a license.
Q You know whether you went to the clerk's office and got a license and paid for it don't you? A I never paid for no license.
Q How long did you live with your first wife? A I lived with her about five years.
Q Did she die? A Yes sir.
Q Have you got any witnesses to prove that you lived with her and that those children were born during that time? A No, there is nobody here knows her.

Com'r Needles: Dennis Vann applies for the enrollment of himself and two children; he is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1890 at the census roll of 1896, but is found upon the Wallace roll, but not upon the Kern-Glifton roll; he avers that he has been married three times, - he married his first wife in the state of Kansas, by whom he has two children, Carrie and Marie, whose names do not appear upon the rolls of the Cherokee Nation; no proof is made of marriage other than the testimony of the applicant himself; he avers that he never had a marriage license, although he was married in the state of Kansas, proof of their residence is unsatisfactory, as previously, Dennis Vann and his two children Carrie and Marie,

Department of the Interior,
Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Cherokee, I. T., June 12, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Robert Beem et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Appearances:

Mallett & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

JESSE COCHRAN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q Mr. Hastings, what is your name? A Jesse Cochran.

Q What is your age? A About 53.

Q Where were you born? A Here in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out of the Nation during the war? A No, sir.

Q Where did you live in '63 and '64? A Out here on Grand River, it was known as the Johnson Thompson place.

Q A brick house there? A Yes, sir.

Q Mr. Cochran, was your father living with you in '63? A Yes, sir.

Q When did your father die? A In the fall of '63, he was killed the same of Robert.

Q Where was he killed? A On the military road at what was known as the Bob Daniels place.

Q How far was that from the place you are living? A It is about three miles.

Q On what side of the Grand River were you living? A It would be on the west side, same side the military road was.

Q Do you know Bob Daniels Knight, who is a witness here in this case?

A No, sir, not that time.

Q You didn't know him then? A No, sir.

Q Do you know him now? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you take any steps after your father's death to apprehend, to catch the people who did the killing? A Yes, sir, I went and got the sheriff and his posse, we were trying to find the man that killed him, his name is Lewis Vittetean.

Q Where did you go? A I went up right northwest on what is known as Cabin Creek, over near the Lee Schrimsher place, and couldn't see any track of a wagon, which I thought he had gone and left in a wagon, and then I went across northeast in the direction of Horse Creek and I found the place that was known as the old Knight place, it would have been about the first of November.

Q After your father was killed? A Yes, sir.

Q Was anyone living there at that time? A No, sir, there wasn't anyone there at all.

Q You made an examination of the house at that time? A Well, we just rode around there, there wasn't a wall in there, it was open and vacant, I had been there before.

Q You made an examination and wasn't anybody living there? A No,
sir.

Q Did you have occasion to pass by this same house after that?

A Yes, sir.

Q About how long after that? A It was along in about, I would say about the 15th or 16th of November.

Q Of that year? A The same year.

Q Was anybody living there at that time? A No, sir.

Q Do you know who afterwards lived in that house? A No, sir, I don't.

Q You know what place it was called, known as? A Oh yes, I know it was the old Knight place.

Q On what creek? A It was near Horse Creek.

Q When did you move away from the Thompson place on Grand River?
A In the spring of '87.

Q Up to that time, did you hear of any fight made upon any negroes on Horse Creek in the Cherokee section?

Mr. Hellette: I object to the question as not material in this case. It is pure hearsay.

Mr. Hastings: It is a circumstance that unquestionably ought to be admitted.

Mr. Hellette: I don't think that is a material question.

Q Did you know of any? A Only just heard of it.

Q Did you hear of it at that time? A In 1887, the fall that I went down to Cabin Creek to the store, a man by the name of Mall was selling goods there, and they told me the soldiers had just passed.

Q Don't tell what they said, the others. A That is the only way I got any information there had been a fight.

Q You hadn't heard of any fight before you went to the Knight place in '88? A No, sir.

Q Do you know this appellant, Tobe Bean? A I don't know whether I do or not; in the last few years I might have seen him a time or two at that time I don't think I knew him.

Q How far were you living from Andy Ryse and Millie Ryse when your father was killed in October of 1885? A It must have been about two miles, just above the road across the river, might not have been that far.

Q You didn't know Tobe Bean then? A No, I knew the others that was living there.

Q You were acquainted with the other colored people who were living over there? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever see Tobe Bean over there in that year? A I don't remember whether I did or not.

Mr. Hellette: They had a good many fights around through this country along about that time, didn't they? A No, sir, there wasn't any as I know of.

Q No fights at all? A At that time there wasn't nobody killed.

Q Well there was when my father got killed a month before that.

Q Where did he get killed? A On the military road.

Q Could a fight have occurred and you not heard of it? A It might have been, but I never heard of any.

Q Do you claim to have heard of every fight that occurred in this country? A That was after the war, it was people you knew.

Q Do you swear that you heard of every fight that occurred?

A Well, I would remember it if I did hear it, I don't think I heard of any.

Q Where did you say you lived along about that time? A On Grand River.

Q How old were you then? A Well, I must have been nearly 20 years old.

Q What part of Grand River did you live? A In '86, as I said, where I was living on what was known as the Johnson Thompson place, a brick house.

Q Near what place on Grand River now? A I believe they call it the Ketchum place now.

Q On which side of the river were you living? A I would call it on the west side of the river.

Q You ought to know? A That is what it is.

Q Mr. Hastings had asked you something about the Knight place, what place is that in your mind is your about? A Well, that is right pretty much near the Thompson place, right due north.

Q How far from there? A Well, I don't know, but the Thompson place, well it doesn't have been very far.

Q Would you call it about 10 or 12 miles? A I was, yes, sir.

Q Up where that house stood? A Yes, sir.

Q Where place was that? A It was known as the Knight place, it was vacant, though.

Q How often had you been up in that country? A Well, I can't tell you just how often I had.

Q I just want to know, how often you had been up in that country?

A I had been to that place three times that year.

Q Do you remember every place, do you remember for 35 years afterwards every place that was vacant at that time? A Yes, sir, I do.

Q You can remember now every place that you passed by in '66 that was vacant at that time? A Yes, sir, there wasn't but one old place between there known as the Ben Landrum place, that was the only place there was there.

Q You just passed by those places in question? A Yes, sir.

Q Came right through that country? A Yes, sir, over on the military road.

Q Who did you say was with you? A My father when I first got acquainted with the place.

Q Who was with you the last time? A Tom Thompson and old man Johnson.

Q You rode by the place? A Yes, sir, rode right along and stopped at the spring there.

Q Were you driving or riding? A In a wagon.

Q You stopped at the spring and passed on, is that all you did?

A Yes, that was about all we done.

Q How close to the house did you go? A Well, it must have been in the yard, but there wasn't any yard fence, the road ran right along by the house.

Q That was 35 years ago or 36 years ago? A I guess it was, it was in '66, in the fall, or winter.

Q How do you know it was in '66? A I know it, I had a posse with me when I came by this place.

Q There has been a good deal of talk about these people remembering '66; how do you remember it; you didn't have to get back? A Me, no sir.

Q There wasn't anything to make you remember '66? A Only my father got killed on October 22, 1866.

Q You say you started out to hunt the people that killed him?

A Yes, sir.

Q And Tom Johnson was with you? A No, that was the last time I was up there.

Q The last time that Tom Thompson was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What year was it Tom Thompson was with you? A In December, as I said, about the 10th or 15th.

Q You remember now it was the 10th or 15th of December? A Yes, sir.

Q How do you now happen to remember it? A Old man Johnson Thompson moved into the house we were living in, and they went on up in a wagon, and I went with them, to Neosho, to get some groceries.

Q How do you remember at this time it was the 10th or 15th of December? A Because it was Christmas coming, we had to get back before Christmas.

Q Might not it have been in November? A No, sir, it wasn't in November.

Q What did you have your attention called to this time before this; never thought of this till since this freedman court has been sitting here? A I don't know, it has been talked about for several years.

Q What was it talked about? A This matter came up about the same way at the Clifton Court.

Q You never thought about it then till the Clifton Court? A They told me I was subpoenaed on that.

Q The Clifton Court is the first time you ever thought about this thing that occurred thirty years before that time, is it? A The first time I ever knew so it, I knew those facts though.

-4-

Q You testified to the same facts before the circuit court you testified to now? A Yes, sir, as near as I can remember.

Q What do you know about it? Do you think you have the same testimony that you do now? A I do.

Q Do you remember about Al Lynch getting shot, this colored man, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, I know just about what time, I wasn't there to see.

Q What year was it? A It was in '86.

Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir, I let him have the whack-o to get away.

Q Well now you know it was in '86 that Ross went shot Al Lynch do you, Ross Whitwire shot Al Lynch? A Yes, sir.

Q You went and notified some people that that was the time, at that time, that he had been shot? A No, sir, I hadn't nothing to do with it.

Q Didn't you go down to Dave Ross's and tell them Ross Whitwire had shot Al Lynch? A No, sir.

Q You didn't? A No, sir.

Q You are certain of that? A Yes, I had nothing to do with it.

Q But didn't you just carry the information down there to Ross's that Al Lynch had been shot? A No, sir, I didn't.

Q You will swear that? A Oh yes, I never carried any such news.

Q Didn't tell anybody of it? A Of course I might have said that, it was rumored, everybody knew it.

Q Hadn't you been talking it down at Ross's, about Al Lynch having been shot? A No, sir, I don't think I did.

Q You hadn't mentioned it down there at all? You know where Ross lived, didn't you? A Oh yes, Dave Ross.

Q How close is it to you? A It is 20 or 25 miles.

Q Do you remember being down there in '86? A Not positively, I was occasionally down to Tahlequah, and it was on the road down there.

Q And you don't remember anything about that? A No, sir, it was a common thing that he got shot.

Mr. Hastings: What official positions, if any, have you held?

A Well, I have held the Solicitor and Sheriff, I was one of the Associate Supreme Court judges.

Q Delegate to Washington? A Yes, sir.

R. D. KNIGHT, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A R. D. Knight.

Q What is your age? A 34.

Q Where do you live? A Now, I live in Winita.

Q How long have you lived there, a number of years? A 25 years.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you live in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q You lived in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was the first place that you lived in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A On Royal Creek.

Q What district is that in? A Delaware district.

Q Was there any road that ran by your place at that time? A The old military road, we used to call it.

Q Were you arrested, Mr. Knight, at any time directly after your return? A Yes, it was probably in the latter part of December, yes it must have been in the latter part of December following my return in the fall.

Q Where were you taken? A Yes, down.

Q What were you charged with? A Killing some negroes that was passing down the road there.

Q Well, had some negroes passed your place since that time? A Yes, since to my knowledge.

Q Did any of them get killed at your place? A Yes, there was I guess two anyway was killed there. I heard there was three, I don't know.

Q Any others wounded? A There was one. I don't know, that is only from hearing. I saw him when he was fired at, but I didn't see he was struck.

Q Did you see the shooting? A Yes, sir, the most of it, the first two or three shots I didn't see.

Q Several colored people along? A Yes, looked to me like there might have been fifty in all, or more.

Q Did you ever learn, either at that time or afterwards, who composed that crowd? A Yes.

Q Well, who?

Mr. Mellette: Hold on; did he see who they was.

Q Did you know any of them? A I saw the most of them, but I didn't know the names.

Q Did you ever talk to John Bean here afterwards? A I don't remember that I ever did about it; yes, I might have made some little remark some time. I don't know whether there was ever anything said between us about it.

Q Did you ever learn who composed the crowd? A Yes, sir.

Q How soon afterwards?

Mr. Mellette: I object to that; it is an improper question.

Q Did you learn that? A Yes, sir.

Q How soon afterwards? A It was early in the spring after my arrest in the winter; two or three parties that came to my house —

Mr. Mellette: I object to that, no hearsay evidence.

Q Did they talk over the night that had occurred there prior to that? A Yes, sir, they told me they were in it.

Mr. Mellette: Hold on, I object.

Q Who was that? A Who was that came to my house?

Q Yes? A A young man by the name of Sam Smith and a man named John Willis.

Mr. Mellette: I object to that, they are not parties to this case, because it would not be competent.

Q That was on Horse Creek? A That was two and a half miles south, we called it Horse Creek, that is right on the side of the creek.

Q You saw the killing, did you, the shooting? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know when that was? A Well, to the best of my recollection, it was in probably the first of October, or about there, in 1867, the best I can figure it out; as to saying positive, I can't do it.

Q But that is your best judgment? A That is my best judgment.

Q And you were afterwards arrested and accused of it? A Yes, sir, in the following December, the latter part of December.

Q Well, did you move back to this place when you first moved back after the war, when this shooting took place? A Yes, sir.

Q And that was on the military road, was it? A Yes, sir, on the military road.

Q About how far, Mr. Knight, was this place from where the old Johnson Thompson, or Ketchum place is, on Grand River? A Well, it is in the neighborhood of ten miles; a little more or a little less, I don't know just what to call it.

Q The military road ran right by it? A Not by the Thompson place.

Q By your place I mean? A Oh yes.

Q I will ask you whether or not this man John Bean had ever talked to you about taking shot at that place? A Well, I don't know, but that something might have been said, I think I remember, that he said something about going in that fight, or something about being shot up there in '66, and that he was the fellow shot in that fight in '66, and probably I remarked that if he was shot in '66 he was a different man from the one shot in that fight.

Q That is your best judgment, it was John Bean, the applicant?

A Yes, sir; I think that is the remark, I don't know, I only had a word or two at the time, I never knew since the trouble that he was one of them until that time, I knew his name, but I didn't know him, I could have picked him out.

Mr. Mellette: Mr. Knight, did you say that you were arrested for killing the men that were killed in the Horse Creek fight? A Yes, sir.

Q Who were they, the men you were arrested for killing? A The man I was accused of killing.

Q Yes? A The only killing that ever happened there that I know of.

Q Who did the warrant say you were charged with killing? A I don't know that it specified the names at all.

Q You would not be arrested for killing a man that wasn't killed; there is somebody you were charged with killing? A I was charged with killing some negroes in the Horse Creek fight.

Q It didn't say the Horse Creek fight in the warrant? A It was the killing there at the place.

Q It didn't say that though in the warrant, it just said so and so is charged with feloniously and wilfully killing who? A I don't know who they were, I don't remember the names of them.

Q Is it possible you could be arrested and accused of killing a man and don't know the man you were charged with killing? A I don't know about it, it seems I was arrested for killing somebody, I don't know.

Q How far did you live from Timbered Hill? A Which Timbered Hill?

Q This one up here by Bluejacket? A I don't know, ten or twelve miles, neighborhood of that.

Q Were you not arrested for killing some colored men up there?

A No, sir.

Q Isn't that the case you were arrested for? A No, sir.

Q Isn't that a fact? A No, sir.

Q You remember them being killed up there? A No, never heard of it.

Q Now, Mr. Knight, it seems strange that you would be arrested for killing men and not know the names of the men you were charged with killing? A I didn't see anything strange about it.

Q I do; did the officers read the warrant to you? A Well sir, I can't even say that, I am not positive as to whether he read the warrant, he came in, it was cold weather, and had their overcoats on and buttoned up, and came to the door, and when I stepped out to wash my face for breakfast, and one with the name Holloway, he came to the door, and I saw soldiers all around the house, and he came and asked me my name.

J. C. Trotter, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A J. C. Trotter.

Q What is your age? A 32.

Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I am.

By blood? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, before the war?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out during the war? A I did.

Q When did you come back to the Cherokee Nation after the war?

A In the spring of '66.

Q Where did you live that spring? A On Russell Creek.

Q How far is that from Chetopa, Kansas? A About four miles.

Q What direction from Russell Creek? A We lived on Russell Creek.

Q Well, where did you move to that, fall? A Moved to the mouth of Horse Creek.

Q Where were you living in '87? A On Horse Creek, right at the mouth of Horse Creek on Grand River.

Q Do you know the applicant, John Bean? A I have seen him, I don't know as I am acquainted with him.

Q Mr. Trott, any time after the war, did or did you not hear of the circumstance of some colored people being killed near the old Knight place on Horse Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you hear of that? A It was in the fall of '87.

Q How far were you living from the Knight place at that time? A About four miles.

Mr. Mellette: Now Mr. Trott, do you remember that you came back here in the spring of '88? A I think I do.

Q How in the world do you know it? A I was in the army and was mustered out in '85, in the fall, and the next summer we moved down here, the next spring.

Q Where did you come from? A Kansas.

Q What did you do in Kansas after you were discharged before you came down here? A I didn't do any work particularly.

Q Where did you stay? A In Woodson County.

Q Who did you live with up there? A My father and mother.

Q What time did you start back here in '88? A It was in the spring.

Q In the spring of '88, how did you come? A In wagons.

Q Travel through the country? A Yes, sir.

Q Many people living in this country at that time? A I didn't see but very few after we got in the Territory.

Q Well, where did you first strike the Cherokee Nation? A Right up there on the line south of Chetopa.

Q Which way did you come, come by Vinita? A We came on the Neesho River.

Q Did you come by Vinita? A No, sir.

Q How else did you come? A Came right down the Neesho River all the time till we struck the Territory line there.

Q Then how did you come? A We went up by the creek after we struck the line, and stopped.

Q You stopped just inside the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Up there on Russell Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q In the spring of '88? A Yes, sir.

Q What month? A I don't know exactly as I can name the month.

Q How long did you stop up there? A We stayed all the summer of '88.

Q What did you do in the fall? A In the fall we moved to Horse Creek.

Q What time in the fall? A Probably late in the fall, I don't know the exact date of it.

Q You say you heard of a fight in the fall of '87? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were you living at that time? A Living at the mouth of Horse Creek, living on Grand River.

Q How many fights did you ever hear of along about that time? A That is the only one.

Q You never heard of anybody being killed up there except that? A Not that year I don't think I did.

Q Now are you positive about that? A I think that is the only fight I heard of.

Q You just simply heard of it, that is all, is it? A Well, I saw the troops in there but a short time afterwards hunting the fellows that done it.

Q Where were the troops sent? A Said to be from Van Buren.

Q Were they were troops come from Van Buren, did they? A That is what they said.

Arkansas? A Yes, sir.

Q Federal troops? A Yes, sir.

Q Don't you know there were not any troops at Van Buren in '67?

A I don't know anything about it.

Q You say the troops all right, did you? A I did.

Q How many? A Seemed to me like about 20 or 25.

Q White or colored? A White men.

Q Who commanded them? A I don't know that.

Q Where did you see them? A I saw them at my house on Horse Creek.

Q They told you they were from Van Buren, Arkansas, the troops did? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first know about this fight, that it was in '67 that that fight occurred; what was that first called to your attention Mr. Trotter, since this Freedman Court has been in operation?

A No, sir, I have heard of it all along.

Q I know, but have known a good many things that haven't been particularly called to your attention; when was it called to your attention after that fight occurred? A I have spoke about it a good many times, I don't know, I have heard it talked about ever since then.

Q How did it happen to come up, why did you talk about it? A I don't know, it was the general talk through the country after it was fought, after the fight.

Q That has been 35 years ago, or 36 years ago; what was there to keep it in your mind? A Well I know that I had been there on Horse Creek a year, or pretty near a year, before it happened, that is one thing that kept in in my mind, I was not there in the fall of '66 until very late in the fall, and it was the next fall.

Q What time do you say you went down on Horse Creek from Russell Creek? A Late in the fall of 1866.

Q What time? A I don't know the month, but it was way late in the fall.

Q Were you in the army? A I was.

Q In any fights? A Yes, sir.

Q Where? A Prairie Grove, Arkansas.

Q That the only fight? A That is all.

Q You remember when that was, don't you? A I don't know as I remember the exact date, I know it was in the winter of 1863.

Q '63? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't mean that? A Yes, sir; '63 I meant to say.

Q The winter of '63: Was it before Christmas or after Christmas?

A I guess it must have been after Christmas.

Q Was that in '62 or '63? A '63.

Q What month in '63? A I don't recollect the month.

Q Was that in the first part of '63 or the last part of '63?

A I can't tell you exactly.

Q You can't put it in three or four or five or six or ten months when that fight took place? A It was in the winter of '63.

Q There is two pieces of winter now in the year 1863, the first part of '63 is in the winter and the last part of '63; was it the first part of '63 or the last part? A I think it is in the first part.

Q You are satisfied of that? A I am not satisfied of it positively.

Q You are not as well satisfied of that as you are the Horse Creek fight was in the fall of '67? A I don't know about that Horse Creek fight because I was living there.

Q You were in the Prairie Grove fight, and still you know more about the other one you were not in: isn't that true? A The other hasn't been quite so long.

Q There has been about three years difference.

G. W. CLARKE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Hastings: What is your name? A G. W. Clarke.

Q What is your age? A My coming birthday, I will be 59.

Q A citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q You lived in the Cherokee Nation before the war? A All my life.

Q You were in the army, were you? A I was in the northern army.

Q Where were you mustered out? A I was mustered out in Fort Gibson on the last of May, in 1865.

Q Where did you live the rest of the year of 1865? A I lived on the river.

Q Grand River? A Yes, Grand River, in the fall of '65 I came on the river the next day after I was mustered out, and I was married there eight days afterwards.

Q Where did you live in the year 1866, make a crop?

A I made a crop on what is known as the Ellis McDaniel place on the west side of the river, it is commonly known as the Adair place now.

Q Did you make a crop on the same place in '67? A No, sir, the treaty was made in July and reverted the place, I owned a confiscated place, it was sold as a southern place, and I had a place of my own in about nine miles; going around by the river made it about 15 miles.

Q Was the place you moved to farther up on Grand River than where you had been living in '67? A Yes, sir, go through and cross the river twice and it is about nine miles, and the other way is about 15 or 16 miles.

Q After the war, Mr. Clarke, did you hear of some colored people being in a fight and getting killed on Horse Creek; did you hear of the circumstances? A Yes, sir, I heard of the fight they said there was some colored people killed there, there was a young colored man passed my place and told about it, along in September, as well as I recollect; it was early in the fall.

Q Where were you living when you heard of that incident?

A I was living in the Six Mile Bottom in the fall of 1867.

Q You know Tobe Bean the applicant? A Yes, they are neighbors of mine, have been for a long time, Art Bean, very good men, too.

Mr. Smith: Judge Clarke, you don't know what fight that was you heard of in '67? A I only know they said some fellows run on some colored people and there was a fight up there, and I disremember some of them was killed in the fight.

Q You don't remember whether anybody was killed in the fight you heard about? A No, sir, it has been so long ago.

Q It was right hard to remember about a fight at that time?

A Yes, sir.

Q How many? A Yes, sir, a plenty.

Q You don't know which fight that is you are telling about?

A That is what made me bring it to mind, some fellows run on some colored people up there, that was all.

Mr. Hastings: You were in the northern army? A Yes, sir, I was in the northern army.

Q Did you hear about what place on Horse Creek this fight occurred?

A I don't know as I did, it has been so long, heard it was up on Horse Creek, they were just passing going down the road in the way I understood it.

Commissioner: You don't know anything about that fight of your own knowledge at all? A No, sir, only just what I heard.

Q After you got through with your fighting it wouldn't amount to much as a fight anyhow? A No.

1. J. MONROE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q. Testimony: What is your name? A. T. J. Monroe.

Q. How old are you? A. 43.

Q. Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were born before the war? A. Born in '57.

Q. Where did you live before the war? A. Lived on the line of the Osage and the western line of the Cherokee Nation, near the Osage lands.

Q. Did you go out of the Nation during the war? A. Yes, sir.

Q. To what place did you return after the war? A. A place known as the Bone place on the Grand River, east of Grand River, in Delaware district.

Q. How far was that from Horse Creek? A. It was ten or 12 miles.

Q. Do you know whether the old Knight place was on Horse Creek? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far did you live from that? A. It was about ten or 12 miles I think.

Q. How far from the Johnson Thompson place on Grand River did you live? A. The Johnson Thompson place?

Q. Not a precinct? A. It is about, I would think about 15 or 16 miles, 15 or 16.

Q. When did you move to that place after the war, in what year? A. Sometime in February, 1868.

Q. February of 1868? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now after that did you hear of the circumstance of some negroes being in a fight in which some of them got killed on Horse Creek? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you hear of that? A. The next year, right sometime in the summer or fall, I don't recollect just what month.

Q. What year? A. Of '57, we lived then on the west side of the river on the Stand Waite farm.

Mr. Mellette: Where were you living at that time? A. That I heard of this fight?

Q. Yes? A. On the Stand Waite place, on the west side of the Grand River.

Q. How far were you living from Horse Creek? A. Couldn't have been over eight or ten miles.

Q. When did you move on the Stand Waite place? A. Sometime during the winter of '56 or '57. It appears to me it was in January, in the year '57.

Q. Was it before Christmas or after Christmas? A. I think it was after Christmas.

Q. That is the time you want it to stand? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you move from? A. From the west side of the river, from the Baker place.

Q. How long did you live there? A. From February up until we left I think in January, sometime in the winter time.

Q. What year did you move to the Baker place? A. In '56.

Q. What time in the year? A. I think it was in February.

Q. Where did you move from? A. We came from the Choctaw Nation on Red River.

Q. Then did you come? A. I stayed a while right on the line of Missouri.

Q. When did you come from the Choctaw Nation? A. We left the Choctaw Nation sometime in the latter part of October, I think.

Q. That is '56? A. '56.

Q. You don't be mistaken? A. No, sir.

Q. You are so sure as remembering dates, I suppose? A. I am not trying to remember by.

Q. You don't have to go back here by '56? A. No, sir.

Q. You want anything to impress it on your mind? A. If you will let me explain, we lived right on the same place with Joel Bryant, on the same farm, he was a Major General, or something, in the Confederate army. He came home during the summer, I think in June, and took his family and started to old Mexico, and then we sold our crop in the fall before we gathered it and started back to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well, how old were you at that time? A Well, I was born in '58, I was 15 I believe in '65.

Q About 15 years old? A About 13 in '65 I think, if I am not mistaken.

Q And still you remember all these events? A I remember it perfectly well, that part of it.

Q You remember you left there in the fall of 1865 and came up here and went on to the Boxer place in February, 1866? A I think it was in February, I am not positive, but I think it was.

Q How far is that from the Stand Waite place?

A Well, about six or seven miles I should think.

Q On the opposite side of the river? A Yes, sir, and down the river.

Q A good many fights along about that time, wasn't there? A I don't remember very many.

Q But you know you just heard of a fight? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you first know about it, when did you first have your attention called to the time when that occurred, since that time?

A Since that time?

Q Yes; when did anybody ask you about when that occurred; since you have been subpoenaed in this case? A I don't remember anybody ever did ask me until I came here to-day.

Q Since you came here to-day Mr. Hastings and Mr. Bell asked you what you knew about it? A Yes.

Q And then you remember what you knew of that fight in '67?

A Yes, I knew it all the time.

Q Everything that has occurred you don't keep in your mind all the time, do you? A No, sir.

Q There wasn't any particular reason for you to remember that?

A I didn't see any particular reason.

Q And when you come here 36 years afterwards you are asked about it and you say it occurred in '67; that is a long time that, a long time? A Yes, sir.

Q You had forgotten about that half a dozen times? A Of course it would go out of my mind.

Q Go out of your mind and come back? A Yes, sir.

Q All you know about this fight is 36 years ago you heard of a fight between some darkies and white people? A Allow me to tell you; that fall, or late in the summer, a man brought a mare to our house, and asked me and my brother to take care of it, and right there and then he told us about this fight, did you hear of this fight up here and a lot of them people getting killed; I remember it well, guessing about who done the killing, they didn't call any names, but referred to them as the "red face" fellows.

Q You remember 36 years the man that brought the mare or colt to your house? A Perfectly well.

Q How many horses did you have anyhow? A I think about 15.

Q Can you remember every time a man has brought a horse to you since '67? A No sir; I didn't have any horses then.

Q Didn't have any horses at all? A No, sir, didn't have any horses at all.

Q You had farmed one year on the Boxer place? A Yes, sir.

Q What did you farm with? A A little yoke of stagg.

Mr. Hastings: what position do you hold now, if any? A Senator in the Cherokee Nation.

-12-

Q You are a senator from Delaware district? A Yes, sir.
Q You have been senator before? A Yes, sir.
Q Been Sheriff of your district? A Sheriff one time and senator two terms.

Mr. Hastings: I desire to offer this testimony in the Arthur Bean case, D-213; Joseph Bean, D-215; Lucy Bean, D-290; Lewis Martin, D-239; and Fannie Night, D-207.

Bruce S. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

NOTICE!

IN THE MATTER OF the application of _____ for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen:

Case No. D 641

To Dennis Vann Caloosa

You are hereby notified that the Cherokee Nation will present before the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes testimony on behalf of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove your right to be enrolled as a Cherokee citizen at the office of the United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the town of Vinita, Indian Territory. Indian Territory, on SEP 17 1901 at 8 o'clock A. M. or from day to day thereafter until the same can be heard by said Commission during the usual business hours of said Commission on the respective days above named, for the taking of testimony both for and against applicants for enrollment as Cherokee citizens.

In testimony whereof, the undersigned representatives of the Cherokee Nation have hereunto set our hands this SEP 17 1901

L. B. Bell
M. H. Hastings
Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation.

File with Cherokee Freedmen No. 41, Bureau of Indian Affairs

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Winita, I.T., October 11, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Sobies Bush for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Supplemental testimony on behalf of the applicant.

Appearances:

Mallette & Smith, attorneys for applicant;
W. V. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Mr. Hastings: Let it go formally into the record what you desire to prove by these witnesses.

Mr. Mallette: I am going to offer some additional testimony.

Mr. Hastings: That test?

Mr. Mallette: To show the date of what is known as the Horse Creek fight, out here.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation in object to the taking of any testimony as to the date of what is known as the Horse Creek fight, because that question was gone brought out in the original examination of the applicant himself, and was thoroughly gone into, and is not new matter, and the testimony was introduced by the Cherokee Nation upon this point is not new matter so that rebuttal testimony can be allowed under any rules of procedure.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted.

MARY BROWN, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Mallette: What is your name? A. Mary Brown.

Q How old are you, Mrs. Brown? A. I don't know my age exactly.

Q Give an idea? A. About 60.

Q Are you a Cherokee Indian by blood? A. Yes, sir.

Q Recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir, I am.

Q Where do you live? A. I live at what is known as the Bowling Ferry place on Grand River.

Q How long have you lived on Grand River? A. About 27 years, down there.

Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the war, if you left it? A. I came home about three weeks before Christmas, in '63.

Q Where was your home at that time? A. About one mile and a half north of Fairland City, that is the name of the place now.

Q Is that a point up here close to Fairland? A. Yes, used to be just a depot up above Fairland near the road.

Q Do you remember after you came home the circumstance of hearing of a body of colored people being attacked and some of them killed, on Horse Creek? A. I do.

Q How did you first learn of that? A. There was some news come to my house to stay all night.

Q Who were they? A. Kinch Vest and a band of men.

Q Did you learn from them anything about the colored people being killed? A. Yes, sir, they told us they had killed some negroes.

Q How many were in that party? A. I can't tell you positive.

Q About how many, or can you give an idea? A. About six, to the best of my knowledge, I never took no particular notice how many.

Q Did you hear anything further about it after they came to your house? A. Yes, sir, two or three days afterwards we heard some colored people got killed.

Q Where was that? A. Somewhere on the military road near Horse Creek.

Q How far was that from your house? A About six miles.

Q Now when was that, Mrs. Brown, that Kinch West and his crowd came to your house and you heard of this killing of the colored people? A Fall of '88, in the fall of the year.

Q How do you know it was in the fall of the year? A Because it was getting cold weather.

Q Why do you fix it as 1888? A Well, I came home as I saw in '88, about three weeks before Christmas, and I was in a delicate condition and the baby was born the 26th day of May, in 1888, and this was the fall following.

Mr. Hastings: Did you ever have any other children born? A Yes, sir.

Q When? A Different times.

Q Well, when was the next one born? A Next one, well I am not able to answer that.

Q Well, when was the next one born? A In 1870.

Q That was the second one after this one? A Yes, sir.

Q When was the third one born? A I can't tell you that.

Q Did you have any more since then? A Yes, sir.

Q How many children you got? A 13 in all.

Q Now do you know what happens in September always after your children have been born? A No, sir.

Q Now why is it that you locate that the child was born six months before some event happened? A Because that was a peculiar time, we had all come home to our old home, and there were no neighbors and nobody there but now and then a neighbor.

Q When were you married? A I can't tell you that.

Q You heard of this question being up before the courts here five years ago didn't you? A No, sir.

Q Never heard of it? A No, sir.

Q It wasn't a matter that was discussed throughout the length and breadth of the Cherokee Nation? A I heard talk of it, but as to the date I didn't know anything about it.

Q You didn't know anything about the date? A I didn't know it was about the date.

Q You didn't hear about this last spring when we were examining the matter? A No, sir, I didn't go about the courts.

Q Where do you live now? A I live at the Bowling Ferry place.

Q What is your husband's name? A Jim Brown.

Q What was your maiden name? A Mary Miller.

Q When were you married? A I told you I didn't know the date, I don't know the date.

Q And you have got thirteen children? A I have had thirteen children.

Q Now when was your second child born? A The second one was born in '68.

Q When was the third one born? A The third one was born May 26, of what year? A In 1888.

Q When was the next one born? A I don't know that.

Q Now when was the fifth one born? A He was born in 1870.

Q When was the sixth one born? A I don't know that.

Q When was the seventh one born? A I don't know that.

Q When was the eighth one born? A I don't know that.

Q When was the ninth one? A Well, I don't know that.

Q When was the tenth one? A I told you I didn't know.

Q Eleventh one? A I don't know that.

Q Twelfth one? A I don't know, I can't count them all of them.

Q Don't know? A No, sir, I am no scholar.

Q Where was Bob Knight living at that time? A I can't tell you just exactly.

Q How far did you live from him? A I believe he lived on the old Military crossing on Horse Creek, I wouldn't say positive.

Q Well, how far did you live from there, from where that Military road crosses Horse Creek? A About 10 or 12 miles.

Q And what was the distance, was it? A About ten or twelve miles.

Q Had you ever seen Bob Knight up to that time? A No, sir.
Q You wasn't over there at that time, the Knight place? A I had passed the road.
Q You saw these folks there? A No, sir.
Q You didn't see them? A No, sir, I can't call it.
Q You never saw any of these darkies at that time? A No, sir, I never seen them.
Q Don't know who they were? A Don't know them.
Q Don't know who was shot at that time? A No, sir.
Q Don't know where it was at? A Never was right at the place.
Q Was it over at this Knight place? A No, sir, not right at the Knight place.
Q How far was it from the Knight place? A I understand it was above the Knight place, I am not positive where the fight was.
Q Kinch West is dead, isn't he? A I suppose so.
Q You have heard it, haven't you? A Yes, sir, I have heard it.
Q Can you remember a single other name of that crowd besides Kinch West? A Yes, sir.
Q Let's have them? A John Wells.
Q Is he alive? A No, sir.
Q Well, another one? A Lem Smith.
Q Is he alive? A No, sir.
Q Who else? A Well, I can't positively say any other one.
Q Yet there was others? A Yes, there was others, but I never got acquainted with them, these I got acquainted with them afterwards, they located in that neighborhood.

Mr. Mellette: I want the testimony taken attached to Lewis Martin, D-289, and Arthur Bean, I don't know the number of that.

Commissioner: This testimony will be filed in those cases and the others to which it is applicable.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Winita, I. T., October 25, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Tobias Vann et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Supplemental testimony on behalf of applicants.

Appearances:

Hallette & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
W. F. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

M. P. ROWE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q Mr. Smith, State your name? A M. P. Rowe.

Q What is your postoffice, Mr. Rowe? A Rose.

Q What is your age? A 52.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, Mr. Rowe? A I have lived here all my life.

Q Are you a Cherokee Indian by blood? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you out of the nation during the war? A No, sir.

Q Where were you, Mr. Rowe, in the year 1866? A I was at my father's place.

Q Where did your father live at that time? A Lived in Saline District, Cherokee Nation.

Q Did you know a colored man named George W. Vann? A Yes, I know George.

Q Which George is it you know? A I know George Vann, lives on Spring Creek.

Q Spring Creek George, sometimes called Spring Creek George? A Yes, sir, Spring Creek George.

Q Do you know, Mr. Rowe, when a fight occurred on Horse Creek soon after the close of the war? A Well sir, there was a fight down there, to the best of my recollection it was in '66, fall of '69.

Q Is there anything about the circumstance to make you remember the fight, was anybody killed in it? A There was three men killed I think, to the best of my recollection.

Q What knowledge have you that they were killed? A What knowledge have I?

Q Yes, did you see them? A Yes, I saw the dead men afterwards, saw bullet holes in them.

Q Do you know whether they were buried or not? A Yes, they were buried at Aunt Kalia Williams place.

Q Who were the men? A Well I don't just recollect the names, but I think one was named Phil something, I heard the name, a fellow that I didn't know.

Q Were they colored men? A Yes, sir.

Q Who helped to bury them? A A whole lot of colored fellows buried them there.

Q Can you think of those whose names you remember? A There was Gilbert Vann, the Vann, George Vann, Joe Bean, and a good many men I don't recollect.

Q How many more do you think there were besides those you mentioned? A I don't know, I never counted them.

Q Do you know what was even done about that after, whether anybody was ever arrested or not? A No, sir, I never knew whether anybody was arrested about it.

Q Well, was the George Vann that you speak of, state whether or not he was the man that you spoke of a while ago as Spring Creek George?

A Yes, Spring Creek George was that.

Q Was he one of the men who helped bury those three men?

Q Yes, sir.

Q Hastings? You are not positive, are you Mr. How, as to the year? A That is the best of my knowledge, that it was '86.

Q That is just the best of your judgment? A Yes, I am pretty reliable as to this about it, it was '86.

Q That time of the year do you think it was? A Along in September.

Q Do you know what place on Horse Creek that fight occurred that you speak of? A No, I don't know where it occurred or nothing about it.

Q Know whether it occurred at the old Knight place? A No, sir, I don't know where it occurred.

Q How old were you then? A I guess I must have been 16 or 17 years old.

Q Just a lad of a sort? A Yes, sir.

Q You hadn't been out during the war? A Out of the Cherokee Nation, no I wasn't out of it.

Q There was no duty to make your return? A No.

Q How far did you live from Horse Creek? A I expect it must be about fifty or sixty miles.

Q You were not up there when the fight occurred? A No, sir.

Q You ever testify to these circumstances before? A No, sir.

Q You were never called upon to remember the date before? A No, sir.

Q You were not arrested for it? A No, sir.

Q Have any interest in it? A I wasn't interested any way at all.

Q You were not taken to Fort Smith for it? A No, sir.

Commissioner: This testimony will be made part of the record in the case at bar, and in D-818, D-819, D-820, D-827, D-828, D-829, D-830, D-831, D-832, and D-833.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

RECORDED

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment
as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. H. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Homes Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209 filed in the Marian Hayden case D D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Marian Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Dennis Vann, D D 421;

By W. H. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case.
Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in this case of Marian Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which came within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Marian Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof or any or all of the records other than the decrees already referred to.

in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the expiration of the term of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q What year was you married in? A I don't know sir, what year.
Q Got any children? A Yes.
Q What year was the first one born in? A I never kept no record.
Q But you heard before you left Kansas before the treaty and it was in the papers wasn't it for all of you to come home? A Yes, sir.
Q That was in the spring of the year? A Yes, sir.

Q Well now was it in February, March or April? A It was along the last of March cause we got here in April.

Q That was the March or April now that you heard of the treaty you moved back here? A Yes, sir.

Q You heard about the treaty before that? A Yes, sir.

Q Well now how long after, about how many months until you saw Dennis after you come down in March or April as you stated?

A Along in September.

Q How many months after you come did you say you saw Dennis?

A About a month I reckon, it was the same month I come.

Q The same month you came? A Yes, sir.

Q You come you said in March or April? A Yes, sir.

Q Now are you positive about this? A Yes, sir.

Q You are under oath now and you say you come here in March or April, didn't you? A Yes, sir.

Q Along the last of March? A Yes, sir.

Q Are you certain about that? A Yes, sir.

Q It was along in that month you saw Dennis Vann? A Yes, sir.

Q Now you have sworn a half a dozen times in this testimony that you saw this fellow in September. Now you say you saw him in April after the treaty was made wasn't it? A Yes, sir.

Q Now you are certain about that are you? A Yes, it was in April that I come here.

Q And that was after the treaty? A I suppose it was.

Q Is that correct? A Yes, in April.

Q You left him in Kansas when you come? A Yes, sir.

Q He had been in Kansas all this time when you come? A Yes, sir.

Q You left him there? A Yes, sir.

EXAMINATION BY MR. BULGER:

Q Did you come down to the territory before the Horse Creek fight? A Yes, sir.

Q Was you living in the territory at the time of the Horse Creek fight? A Yes.

Q Do you what year that occurred in? A That fall.

Q The fall after you came down? A Yes, sir.

Q And you say you came in April? A Yes, I think so.

Q Did you come in April before or after the treaty was made?

A Before the treaty was made.

Q Where was you when you first heard of the treaty? A In Kansas.

Q And then you came right down? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you come to the Cherokee Nation before Dennis?

A I come down in April and he come that fall.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

- Q About how old was he then? A He must have been about, I don't know he was from eight to ten.
- Q Where did you take him? A We took him in Kansas, Franklin County, Kansas.
- Q Did you bring him back? A I brought him back myself.
- Q When? A In '66, the fall of '66.
- Q What makes you remember it was in '66? A Well I have got a good remembrance of that cause there was circulars sent all over Kansas that if we got here in the year of '66 we would have all the right of a native born Cherokee.
- Q Did anything occur on that trip down here that makes it more vivid than it would have ordinarily been? A Yes.
- Q What was it? A Well when we got along this side of the Neosho river we discovered someone was slipping on us in the night. Next morning we started out and we came to an old man by the name of Gillstrap and so we stopped there awhile then when we left there we crossed the timber this side of Gillstrap's some fellows run in on us and killed three men and wounded one. Two of them died right then or soon after. We come on to Spring Creek, Saline district.
- Q Where did you say this killing took place? A On Horse Creek.
- Q Is that what is known as the Horse Creek fight? A Yes, sir.
- Q Was Dennis with you at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q About how old was he then? A He was about ten or twelve.
- Q Do you know where Dennis has lived since his return? A Well he lived first on Spring Creek and next he lived with Dink Markham and then he went on the railroad and worked, I didn't see him for a good while after that. Then after a year or two he has been constantly living on Bird Creek.
- Q Has Dennis a family? A Yes, sir.
- Q Of who does his family consist? A Well Dennis has a widow woman with some children, I don't know how many children.
- Q You mean Dennis is a widower? A He Dennis married a widow woman and she had some children, I don't know how many.
- Q Are these children Dennis's? A I don't know sir.
- Q Where does Dennis live now? A On Bird Creek, Catcona, Cherokee Nation.
- Q Did you know Dennis's wife before he married her? A Yes, I knew her when she was married to a man by the name of Cain.
- Q Is she a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, not as I know of.
- Q Was this man Cain a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

CROSS EXAMINATION BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q About what time did Dennis marry? A I don't know sir.
- Q Where did he marry? A I don't know.
- Q Well he is your brother? A Yes I know but we was a good ways apart.
- Q Where did you hear of him after '71? A In '71 I heard of him being here in Muskogee. In Muskogee in the Creek nation.
- Q Where did you hear of him marrying? A I never heard of him marrying until I saw him

Q Did you see him during the Wallace court? A No, sir.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Dennis Vann et al., as Cherokee Freedmen.

--:--

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on June 10, 1901, Dennis Vann appeared before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself and (minor) children, Carrie and Mamie Vann, as Cherokee freedmen. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had on October 10, and November 22, 1904, at Muskogee, Indian Territory. Copies of the testimony taken at various times and places in re application of Tobias Bean et al., for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, are filed herewith and made a part of the record herein.

The evidence in this case shows that the principal applicant, Dennis Vann, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion, that during said rebellion he removed from the Cherokee Nation, but returned thereto within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc. vs the Cherokee nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation, and, except as below noted, has since continuously lived therein. During the interval between the years 1875 and 1890, said applicant, Dennis Vann, resided during a part of the time, outside the limits of the Indian Territory, but it is not considered that his right to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation was forfeited thereby.

The evidence further shows that the applicants, Carrie and Mamie Vann, were born in the state of Kansas, have continuously resided therein since birth, and are the children of the said Dennis Vann and one Charlotte Vann, deceased, a non-citizen of said nation. In this connection attention is called to the fact that the evidence strongly indicates that the two first above named applicants are the illegitimate offspring of the last above named applicant and the said Charlotte Vann, deceased, which, if true, brings them within the ruling of the Department in the case of Ellis Grinnett et al., where it was held that an illegitimate descendant, whose father is borne on the Cherokee Authenticated tribal roll of 1880, is not entitled to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation when it is shown that he has always resided with his mother outside the limits of the Indian Territory.

Attention is further called to the testimony of the principal applicant, Dennis Vann, in this, to-wit: that on June 10, 1901, he was fifty years old; that on the date of his marriage to the said Charlotte Vann, deceased, he was twenty-four or twenty-five years old; that the said Charlotte Vann died about four years after their marriage; that at the time of her death the ages of the said applicants, Carrie and Mamie Vann, were about two and four years, respectively; and, upon examination it is found that the Cherokee census roll of 1893 shows the said Carrie Vann to be, at that time, fourteen years old. Consequently, under section 4182 of the "General Statutes of Kansas", which provides,

"The period of minority extends in males to the age of twenty-one years, and in females to that of eighteen years."

said two applicants were on September 1, 1902, several years past their majority, hence, are within the ruling of the Department in the case of Ora E. Camp (I.T.D. 1418-03). And, in fine, it is considered by the Commission that after ample opportunity afforded, said applicants, Carrie and Mamie Vann, have failed to establish, by satisfactory evidence, their rights to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and that their application is clearly within the rulings of the Department in the cases referred to in the last paragraph of this decision.

Except that the name of Carrie Vann appears on the Cherokee census roll of 1893, neither of the said applicants, Carrie or Mamie Vann, can be identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Dennis Vann should be enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress below noted; and that, following the rulings of the Department in the cases of Eliza Bryant et al. (I.T.D. 844-04), William Rector (I.T.D. 1468-04), Minnie Duncan et al. (I.T.D. 1470-04), Samantha Chambers (I.T.D. 2296-04), Ed Williams (I.T.D. 4230-04), and Case No. 1 (H.L.D. 6088-04), the application for the enrollment of Carrie Vann and Hattie Vann as Cherokee Freedmen, should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 22, 1906 (34 Stat., 405), and it is so ordered.

The record in this case shows, that Dennis Vann, the principal applicant was enrolled as a Cherokee Freedman May 26th, 1906. (I.T.B. 5449-1906), that his daughters Carrie and Minnie were denied enrollment on same date, now for his cause of complaint, he states, that;

The Department erred in denying said Carrie and Minnie Vann.

The Department erred in deciding their legitimacy was in question,

The Department erred in deciding their legal domicile was without the Cherokee Nation.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Dennis Vann, et al'

641

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

June 22, 1905.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to enclose a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated June 16, 1905, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen by Dennis Vann for himself and his minor children, Garrie and Mamie Vann.

June 16, 1905, the Commission decided favorably to Dennis Vann and adversely to the other applicants - Commissioner Brockmire dissenting to the enrollment of any of the applicants.

The record shows that Dennis Vann was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the beginning of the war of the rebellion; that during the war he removed from the Cherokee Nation; and returned thereto on or before February 11, 1867. It is further shown that the minor applicants are the children of Dennis Vann and one Charlotte Vann, deceased, a non-citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that they were born in the State of Kansas and have continuously resided in that State; that it is not established that they are the legitimate offspring of the principal applicant and after ample opportunity they have failed to establish their right to enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

In view of the record the approval of the Commission's decision favorable to Dennis Vann and adverse to the other applicants is recommended.

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

On June 16, 1905, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes forwarded the record in the matter of the application of Dennis Vann for the enrollment of himself and his children, Carrie and Mamie Vann, as Cherokee freedmen. By a majority vote rendered June 16, 1905, Commissioner Breckinridge dissenting, the Commission found that Dennis Vann was entitled to enrollment. The decision of the Commission of the same date was unanimous to the effect that the other applicants herein should be denied enrollment.

Reporting in the matter June 26, 1905, the Indian Office recommended that the decision favorable to Dennis Vann and adverse to the other applicants, be approved. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Indian Office. It is evident that Dennis Vann was the slave of a Cherokee citizen; that he returned to the Cherokee Nation within the time prescribed by the treaty of 1866, and that he has continuously maintained a legal residence therein ever since.

Concerning the other applicants, the Department is not well satisfied that its decisions relative to the Ellis Grinnett and Ora Camp cases are wholly applicable to this case, or that they should govern in the disposition of it; nor is it considered that section 4162 of the General Statutes of Kansas, to which the Commission refers, should be relied upon to determine when the minority of said applicants ceased. It does appear, however, from the preponderance of evidence, that Garvie and Mamie Vann became of age, according to the Cherokee law, prior to September 1, 1908, while absent from the Cherokee Nation; that such absence has since continued and still continues; that since becoming of age they have done nothing whatever toward identifying themselves with the Cherokee Nation; nor does it appear that at any time prior thereto were they identified in any way with the nation, except through such constructive residence as they may have had through their father. Under such circumstances, it is considered that even if it can be admitted that they were Cherokee citizens at the time when they became of age, they voluntarily forfeited such citizenship.

For the reasons stated, the decision in favor of Bennie Vann and adverse to the other applicants is hereby affirmed.

Respectfully,

James H. Wilson,

Assistant Secretary.

Sir:

On May 28, 1906 (I.T.D. 5449), Dennis Vann, the principal applicant, was enrolled as a Cherokee freedman, and his daughters, Carrie and Mamie Vann, were denied enrollment on the same date.

On July 27, 1906, a motion to reopen said claim for enrollment was filed by the attorney for the applicants. Proof of service of a copy of said motion on the attorney for the Cherokee Nation forms a part of said record.

The motion states that the Commission did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in article 9 of the Cherokee treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee freedman was not in the nation prior to February 11, 1867, and "the records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1878."

On May 28, 1906, the Department affirmed the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, favorable to the principal applicant and adverse to his children, Carrie and Mamie Vann.

The records in this case show that Carrie and Mamie Vann forfeited whatever right they had to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen by their residence outside of the limits of the Cherokee Nation; nor does there appear to be any question of fact or law presented which was not originally considered which would justify a modification of the findings in this case.

Your office recommended that the motion for reopening in this case should be denied, which recommendation was concurred in by the Indian Office.

The Department also concurs and the motion filed in this case is denied.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office for its files.

Q Where has she lived since the war? A. She has lived up on Big creek.

Q Well has she lived up there a good while? A. Yes sir, she has been there a good while.

Q About how long—when can you first remember of her being there? A Well I don't exactly know; it has been a long while ago; I don't exactly know.

Q How long after you come back after the war was it before you saw her? A I saw her up there when I first moved up on the river. It has been 20 or three years I reckon; something like that.

Q When did you first move up there? A Yes sir, when I first moved up there.

The applicant applies for his wife. He makes no application for himself as he is a state man and did not marry his wife under a Cherokee license; he is 56 years of age. It is claimed that she lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, except during the period of the war and some time thereafter. She is identified on the Wallace roll, but not upon the roll of 1890, or upon the Kern Shifren roll, or upon the roll of 1890; she is said to be very deaf and unable to submit an examination in her own behalf. For the further consideration of the testimony, she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman on a doubtful card, and the final decision will be made known to her at her post office address.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes
Nowata, I. T. June 27th 1901.

In the matter of the application of Louisa Gray for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman; Bass Harlin, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Appearances:

Mr. Smith, of Mellette & Smith, for the applicant:
Mr. Davenport, for the Cherokee Nation

(By Mr. Smith)

- Q State your name? A. Bass Harlin.
- Q Where did you live? A. Tahlequah town.
- Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
- Q How old are you? A. About 65. It must be that, maybe more.
- Q Do you know Lou Gray? A. Yes sir, I know her, I am well acquainted with her.
- Q Do you know her daughter Gertrude? A. Yes sir.
- Q You know this young man, Ose Freeman, who sits here? A No sir, I am not so well acquainted with him.
- Q You know him though? A. Yes sir I know him.
- Q You know whether he married Gertrude, daughter of Edar? A No sir, I do not know.
- Q You know do not know that of your own knowledge? A. No sir.
- Q The daughter of Edar Harlin? A. No sir, I don't know.
- Q Now who is Edar Harlin? A. That's my grand daughter.
- Q Did you and Lou Gray ever live together? A. Yes sir.
- Q When? A Before the war.
- Q Were you a slave? A. Oh yes sir.
- Q Whose slave were you? A. Eliza Harlin.
- Q Was Lou Gray a slave? A. Yes sir.
- Q Whose slave was Lou do you say? A. She was a slave of Mr. Jim Hays.
- Q How far did she live from you? A It was a short mile, as well as I can place it.
- Q How long did you and she live together in slave times? A Maybe two or three years.
- Q Did she have any children by you? A. Just one, she had 2, but the old-out one wasn't mine.

Q Was the one that was yours a girl or a boy? A. A girl.

Q You know where Lou Gray is living now? A No sir, I do not know where she is living.

Q When was the one, the child she had by you born? A. Before the war, I lived with her before the war.

Q What was the name of that child of yours and Lou's? A Mr daughter?

Q Yes, your daughter? A I sort of forgot the name, I sort of forgot the name.

Q Would you know it if you heard it? A. Yes sir, I would.

Q Was it Edart? A. Yes sir, that's it; I sort of forgot it.

Q You haven't lived with this woman Lou Gray, since the war, since slavery time? A No sir, no sir, no sir, I haven't lived with her since the war; since we was taken apart, no more.

Q When were you and Lou taken apart? A. Just when the war broke out or not.

Q And you and Lou never lived together no more? A. No sir.

Q How old was this child of yours and Lou's, Edart, at that time, when you were separated, you and Lou? A It was just an infant, I don't know how to all it, but then she was in a nighty, she was very lusty, she didn't go many days when her master took her off, Mr. Mayn.

Q How small a child was this girl Edart when you and her and her Lou separated? A I am just giving you my best judgment, when we was first separated she was just standing up.

Q Was she a year old? A. The child? A.

Q Yes? A It wasn't born yet; that's my grand-daughter's mother, no sir, she was just as lusty as she could be, just was standing up and that was all.

Q You mean the mother was just standing up? A No sir, I don't know how to place it to you all, yes sir, I claimed her as a wife, I just lived with her only as my wife.

(By Mr. Hastings)

Q She lived with Lou and she lived with you? A Yes sir.

Q You lived how far apart? A. Just about a short mile.

Q This girl wasn't born yet, and this girl is the child of your? A No sir.

Q When they went off from there? A. No sir, when I was right on the other side—

Q You have never seen her since the war? A. No sir.

Q You went one way and she went the other? A. Yes sir.

Q You don't know of your own personal knowledge whether it was ever born?

A Just her evidence, and she placed the child Corrie before me.

Q But you didn't see the child at all? A. No sir, I never seen the mother of my grand child at all.

Q You never did see the mother of your granddaughter? A No sir.

Q Or, in other words, you never saw your own child, if that was your child? A. Corrie?

Q Corrie's mother, Edart? A No sir.

Q She wasn't born? A No sir.

Q She wasn't born when you separated from your wife? A No sir.

Q That's what you mean to say, she wasn't born? A No sir.

Q How many children had this woman here before then? A. Just one, but it wasn't mine.

Q It was somebody else around there in the country? A. No sir, I don't know sir, don't give me that word, I don't know sir; she may have had a husband, I don't know.

Q You went up there and lived like slaves lived at that time? A. Yes sir, lived public right there.

Q And some other fellow had been living with her before and she had a child by him? A. Yes sir, I will answer you; it was a laughing matter.

Q Did you ever have any children before slave time? A. No sir, that was all.

Q That is all? A. Yes sir.

Q Were you regularly married after the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Is Charlotte your child? A. Yes sir, I was regularly married after the war, Charlotte is my child. Charlotte was born after the war started in '44.

Q When were you married to her mother? A Well this woman I had her before the war.

Q But your regular wife, what did you get hurt? A Oh way in time of the war, what matter took me off?

Q About the beginning of the war? A. No, they was fighting yet.

Q Well '62 or '51 A. Well you knows best; I dont know, I cant recollect you know, and can't keep up with your law, but I will give you the best of my knowledge, you want the truth and I am going to give you the truth

Q You dont know who was the father of this other child of that woman?

A No sir, I dont know.

Q It wasn't you? A. No sir, it wasn't me, Mr. Hastings.

(By Mr. Smith)

Q Did you ever see Edar, the mother of Gertie, after you come back after you and your wife were separated? A. No sir, I never saw her.

Q What did you mean awhile ago when you said that she placed her before you; what did you mean by that? A It was my grand child, Gertie, this young man's wife.

Q Whose wife? A. Mr. Freeman's wife.

Q Well now go ahead and tell what you started to tell? A It was Gertie that she showed me, placed it before me, as my daughter's child.

(By Mr. Hastings)

Q When was the first time you ever saw Gertie? A. It was after I got back it was about three years.

Q Age? A. Oh no, after I was set at liberty, freed.

Q But this is your grand child, supposed grand child, this man's wife, when did you see her first? A. Well that's what I a, telling you.

Q About three years after the war? A. Yes sir,, let me see, her granny, I found them at Fort Gibson in the first place and the next place I went over to Muskogee with my grand child and its granhy.

Q How long after the war was it you saw this man's wife first? A. About three years.

Q After the war? A. Yes sir.

* I mean this applicant's wife, Gertie, when ~~she~~ is the first time you ever saw her after the war? A. Oh, she was a small infant.

Q About how long after the war? A I cant place how long it was, you see my recollection— I am just straight with you, I cant tell you, I might state a certain time and I might tell a lie.

(By Mr. Smith)

Q Who are you talking about seeing shortly after the war, your own child or the grandchild? A. The grand child.

Q How could you have seen it, the grand child, when it was not born? ~~When~~ see you say the mother of this child was born— A. Stop, stop, let me help myself, I am nothing but been a slave.

Qem'r Needles— Take your time and dont get rattled, sit and think a little.

A Yes sir, yes sir, its granny raised the child Gertie, and while she was raising it I saw it; I saw this man's wife.

Q Now when was that? A. Well that was when it was small, after she has got back here I guess, I can place it about three years I guess afterwards.

(By Mr. Hastings)

Q After the war? A. Yes sir, after I got back; the old lady, Louisa was raising the child, and that's the way I saw her.

Q What child was it Louisa was raising? A. Grand child.

Q Where was your child, the one you had by Louisa? A She was dead then my daughter, she was dead.

Q Where was it you saw your grand child? A. Right in Muskogee.

Q About how long ago has it been? A When I saw her it was about three years after I got back in here.

Q About three years from when? A. All I can tell you after I was freed and got back.

Q Well I dont think you know? A. Well if I dont know nobody else dont know.

M. B. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported and recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

By James Davenport, Cherokee Representative, of witness:

Q Did Hector Ross have anything to do with this family? A. Yes sir he brought them down here.

By Com'r Breckinridge,--

The applicant applies for the enrollment of his wife, to whom he was married last year. She was born in the Cherokee Nation; she is 33 years of age and she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. A record of her is found on the Wallace roll, but it is deprived of the privileges of that enrollment, owing, as explained, to her having been born too late under the law or rule under which that roll was made. There appears to be no question of her having lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and of her having been the child of Edie Harlin, deceased some 22 years ago, and that Edie Harlin is the daughter of Louisa Gray, now living, and of Bass Harlin, now living, the daughter of a union between them in the days of slavery. The applicant's wife will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card, and for further evidence in her case there will be filed herewith a copy of the testimony taken in the case of her grandmother, Louisa Gray, on Cherokee Freedman Doubtful Card #500, and if this should not prove satisfactory, reference may be had also to the case of Bass Harlin.

The 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation examined and thereon is found the name of Bass Harlin as follows: Page 768 No. 1014, Bass Harlin, Tahlequah district.

The said Bass Harlin, it appears was in the days of slavery the husband of Certie Freeman's grandmother, and the father of her mother Edie Harlin; it also appears that the said Bass Harlin and his wife of that day, Louisa Gray now, were separated during the war, and Edie Harlin going with her mother Louisa Gray and becoming identified with her thereafter, and not with her father. It would remain to be determined whether Edie Harlin who is said to have returned to the Cherokee Nation with her mother Louisa Gray, came within the treaty prescribed by treaty, that of 1866, or in default of that, if she were a minor at that time, and if as such she acquired and was entitled to any rights through her father Bass Harlin, such as he actually acquired. The Bass Harlin cited in the testimony, requires to be further identified as the grand father of this child. The final decision of the Commission will be made known to the applicant or to his wife at their next office address.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of Bertie Freeman an Cherokee Freedman Beautiful card. 1047

Applicant present.

James Davenport attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

MARY WATKIN, re-called, having been sworn by Commissioner G. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows: (On the part of the applicant)

By James Davenport-

Q How old were you when the war broke out? A. I dont know I cant count.
Q Can you remember when the war broke out? A. No sir.
Q Can you remember or do you know of your own knowledge whatever personal to yourself that Bass Harlin and his wife were living together as man and wife during the war? A He sir only what I have heard.

By Mr. Davenport:

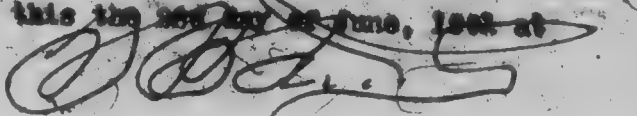

The representative for the Cherokee Nation now move to strike out of the record all that portion of the testimony which refers to Bass Harlin and Louisa Gray having lived together as man and wife prior to the war for the reason that upon cross examination the witness admits that she knows nothing of it whatever of her own knowledge and only from hearsay.

By Comr Breckinridge-

It is shown in the judgment that his testimony is only accepted as being of general family information and that to be available as conclusive proof it would have to be supported by the direct testimony of competent persons now living.
Those competent to testify in this case would be particularly Louisa Gray, the living grandmother of the applicant's wife and Bass Harlin, presumably the living grandfather and the case will for the present rest at this stage.

mission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above case and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

- Q Do you know where he was the balance of the time? A. No sir.

Applicant not found on the 1886 or 1896 rolls.

The Kern Clifton roll examined and the name of the applicant found as follows:

Page 173 No. 4287, Henry Leoney, Geoweeescoowee district.

By Gen'r Breckinridge, -

The applicant applies for a son, Henry Leoney, who is in prison and unable to apply for himself; it appears from the testimony that this ~~man~~ son is now 37 years of age and that he was born during the Civil war and prior to the applicant's return to the Cherokee Nation, and that he came back with her and her husband Benn Leoney, recently deceased, at the time of their return after the Civil war. It further appears that at the time he was 18 years of age, he began a roving life. He is identified on the Kern Clifton roll. He is said to have been sentenced at Vinita, I.T. in the Federal court at that place in February of this year to Columbus Ohio for life, for the murder of his wife. He has no children. It seems wholly probable from the testimony that if he acquired any rights by his return to the Cherokee Nation with his mother he abjured his citizenship by a long continued policy of non-residence in the Cherokee Nation, it appearing that he only made three crops in the Cherokee Nation during the period stated and that his whereabouts, except for occasional visits, cannot be accounted for. None of this family are on the 1886 or 1896 rolls or the Wallace roll. This applicant Henry Leoney will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman on a doubtful card for the further consideration of his case and for additional testimony therein, there will be filed herewith a copy of the testimony taken in the case of his mother of Cherokee Freedman Doubtful card #878, and the official records may be consulted if deemed necessary in regard to the legal action alluded to with respect to this man's conviction. The final decision of the Commission will be made known to him or to his mother at their proper post office addresses.

Q Did your husband go with you? A. Yes sir.

Q When you came back did your husband come with you? A. Yes sir.

Q You and he went out together and came back together? A. Yes sir.

Q And then lived together all the time after you came back? A. All the time, yes sir.

Q What time did you come back after the war? A. We came back the winter along just before Christmas.

Q In what year? A. In the year of '66, I think.

Q What time of the year? A. Just about four weeks before Christmas.

Q Well, how come it was not on the roll of 1880? A. Because the old man didn't try.

Q Well, did you ever apply, or did your husband ever apply for you and the family, to the court in Tahlequah, or any other court? A. No sir.

Q He wasn't before the Daniel Court or the Chambers Court back in '70 or '71? A. No, he never was.

Q And you think that he never was made to get on the roll of 1880? A. No sir, I don't think there was.

Q How many children have you got? A. Seven.

Q Give me their names? A. Frances.

Q How old is Frances? A. I don't know how old Frances is, she was born in slave times.

Q She is married, is she? A. Yes sir.

Q About how old is Lucinda? A. She is about 27 or 28 years old, I don't know which. I don't know nothing about their ages.

Q Which one next to Lucinda? A. George.

Q How old is George? A. George is 22.

Q Now what is the next child? A. That is all, no, Harry.

Q How old is Harry? A. Harry is the oldest.

Q How old is he? A. I can't tell you.

Q Is he older than Frances? A. No sir.

Q Is he older than Ellen? A. Yes sir.

(Mr. Devenport) Where were you living when the war came up? A. Living in Gans Lake.

Q Where did you go when the war broke out, if you ever left the country? A. Springfield, Mo.

Q Well now, how long did you live at Springfield, Mo.? A. We didn't stay there a year.

Q Did you go to Springfield about the time the war broke out? A. No, I guess we went there along during the war.

Q Well, where was your daughter Frances born? A. Born in Gans Lake.

Q That was before you was in Springfield, was it? A. Yes sir.

Q How old was Frances when you left the district? A. I think...

I I think she was either five years old or six, I don't know which.
Q Where was Henry born? A He was born, I don't know where he was born at, either in Kansas or Springfield, I don't know which, because we were traveling all the time.
Q The fact is, you have never had any permanent place of living since the war? A No sir.
Q How long did you live in Kansas? A Never lived in Kansas.
Q How long did you live in Missouri? A I just traveled around in Missouri, I don't know how long we did stay there.
Q About how many years did you stay there? A I don't tell you.
Q Did you stay there three or four years? A I think we staid there two years, I think.
Q Well, where did you go from Missouri? A Came on back down here, camped along, we were traveling by ourselves, nobody with us, went by ourselves and come by ourselves.
Q After you got back down here, then where did you go? A Went over on the river here to my sister in law's, on the Verdigris not the Verdigris, the Grand river, and staid there two or three weeks.
Q After you staid over on Grand river, where did you go? A Went on Big creek.
Q How long did you stay on Big creek? A Staid there ever since we have been here.
Q You never lived in Kansas? A No sir, the old man has been over there.
Q Haven't you lived in Arkansas a while since the war? A Not as I know of; if he did I didn't know it was there.
Q Didn't your husband and you go over there and live near Cane Hill, Arkansas after the war? A Yes sir, I was named Fisher? A I don't know nothing about him.
Q About five miles from Cane Hill, Arkansas; didn't you live over there a while? A No sir, not as I know of, we just traveled all the time, we haven't staid anywhere hardly any time, didn't stop traveling.
Q Never had a home anywhere since the war? A Not till we came to Big creek.
Q How long have you been living on Big creek? A Ever since '66.
Q Well, how didn't you and your husband go to Leavenworth, Kansas, and live there a little while there with a fellow by the name of Tom Ross? A No sir, I don't know nothing about him.
Q Did you ever know such a man as Tom Ross? A No sir.
Q Well how is it you remember you came back here just four months before a certain Christmas in '66? A Because I had my oldest boy, he was born, he was 8 years old in the year '66.
Q How old is he now? A Well, I don't forget, how old he is now but I know he was 3 years old the year the treaty was made, he was two years old, he was born in '64.
Q How old is your oldest boy now, do you know? A No sir, I can't say, I forgot.
Q You know he was born in '64? A Yes sir.
Q What time of the year was he born? A On the 4th day of July, 34th of July.
Q Now when did you go to Springfield, Missouri? A We went there during the war.
Q What time during the war? A I can't tell you nothing about the year and months.
Q You told me about '66, can't you tell me when the war broke out? A No sir.
Q Did you go to Springfield after the war broke out? A I don't know, we were run off, we staid back till the Indians run us away.
Q About how long was it after the war began that you went to Springfield? A I can't tell you.

Q You certainly have some idea, was it a year or two years? A I guess it was two or three.

Q Well, you staid there about a year? A Yes sir, I guess we did.

Q Now you staid there longer than that? A No sir, we didn't we just traveled.

Q Did you go direct from the Territory to Springfield, Mo? A Yes sir, we went from the Territory to Springfield, and we were just by ourselves, and nobody went with us.

Q Now your child, Frances, you say was born in the Cherokee Nation?

A Yes sir.

Q Was she born after you came back from Springfield, Missouri? A She was born in slave time, I tell you.

Q She was born before you went to Springfield? A Yes sir, she was born a slave.

Q She was born on the 4th day of July? A No sir, the 1st.

Q Well, how old was Frances when you went to Springfield? A I think Frances was either 6 years old, I don't know which, or seven.

Q Was the boy born before you went to Springfield, or after you got back? A No, he was born when we went to Springfield.

Q Before you went? A Yes sir.

Q When you left the Territory for Springfield sometime after July 4, 1861? A Yes sir, I think that is it.

Q Now you staid about a year at Springfield? A No we didn't stay any year at Springfield.

Q Well, how long did you staid? A I think I told you how long we staid, if I knew the numbers and dates I could tell you, but I can't tell you, because I just can't say.

Q Was it less than a year? A I don't know, we staid about something near a year.

Q Did you go direct from Springfield to the Cherokee Nation? A Well the way we traveled around, it would take us a long time, because one was lame.

Q When you started from Springfield, was your objective point the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, we went to the Cherokee Nation.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know, because one was lame and the other lame.

Q There were the children? A I had one in my arm and one behind me.

Q How long were you making the trip? A I don't know.

Q Did you come by Fort Scott? A No sir.

Q Heaven's earth? A No sir, we didn't go that way, we came through the woods.

Q To that point in the Cherokee Nation did you come when you returned? A I can't tell you.

Q Do you know what district it was? A No sir, because I didn't know the names of places or districts.

Q Did you come by any point in Arkansas before you came to the Territory? A I think we came to a place they called Mountain Lake, I reckon that is the way we came.

Q You didn't go from Springfield to Cape Hill? A Yes sir.

Q That was the time your husband and family was over there and he was working for Fisher even to Cape Hill? A Yes sir, he never lived on Cape Hill.

Q Do you think you were as much as a year coming from Springfield to the Territory? A I think we were.

Q You traveled pretty much all the time, didn't you? A Yes sir, and camped out, we traveled till we got tired, and then we got in the woods.

Q Did you stop and work along the road? A He would go out and work a little, get enough grub, and then start again.

Q About how long would you work on one place? A Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just get something to eat.

A Sometimes a day and sometimes not a day, just to get something to eat.

Q You were not more than a month or two making the trip from Springfield to the Territory? A No, sir, I guess not.

(Mr. Mellette) There did you say you came to when you first came to the Territory? A. Came to my sister Judy, Peter Williams' wife.

Q Lived where? A. She lived on Grand River; that is the first place.

JOHN SANDRICK being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brookbridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name and age? A. John Sandrick.

Q How old are you? A. 35 years.

Q What is your place of birth? A. Sweden.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. All my life.

Q Where were you born? A. In Sweden.

Q And you came to the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

(Mr. Mellette) Did you ever marry? A. Yes, I married Jane Looney. Yes sir.

Q Do you know where she is now? A. I knowed her husband.

Q Did you know her husband? A. I knowed her husband before the war.

Q You didn't know him before the war? A. No sir.

Q Well, where did you see him? A. Lived at Murrell's, down in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Who owned that place? A. Murrell.

Q Was George?

Q No was a son? A. No sir, his wife was.

Q Well, he was a son of George? A. Yes, and Nelson Looney returned to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Bolston came to the Cherokee Nation? A. I don't know, I know when Bolston came to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well, when did he come to the Cherokee Nation? A. In the summer of '68.

Q Where did he come to? A. On Grand River, in the Cherokee Nation.

Q You didn't see him when he came? A. No sir, I didn't see her, Bolston came to the Cherokee Nation looking for his sister.

Q You don't know where he is now? A. No sir.

Q Did you ever see him after that? A. No sir, I don't after that.

Q Where? A. He was over here in Vinita.

Q Do you know where he is now? A. At that time, when you saw him at Vinita? A. No sir.

(Mr. Mellette) Did you ever see him when you saw this Bolston Looney over there? A. Yes, I saw him.

Q It was earlier than that? A. It was '68 and you? A. Yes sir.

Q It was earlier than that? A. It was in the summer.

Q You don't know where they had been living prior to that time that you saw him there? A. No, I don't.

Q And you don't know where they lived since that time? A. No sir.

(Commissioner) Do you know anything about this woman being married to Bolston? A. No sir, no more than what he said he had a wife.

Q But you never saw her? A. No sir.

Q How long had you known her? A. I never saw her until this week at the Court.

(Mr. Mellette) How did he tell you he had a wife? A. Over at the Court.

JOHN SANDRICK being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brookbridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name and age? A. John Sandrick.

Q How old are you? A. 70 years old.
Q What is your post office? A. Hudson.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Been living here all my life.
Q Were you out during the war? A. No sir, I wasn't in the war.
Q Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation while the war was going on?
A I went over in the Choctaw Nation.
Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A. Yes sir.
(Mr. Neellette) Charlie, do you know the applicant her, Jane Looney Looney? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know know her husband, Bolsten Looney? A. Yes sir.
Q Well now, when did you first see them after the war; do you remember? A I seen him in '06 in Fort Gibson.
Q Where was she? A. He said he left her on Grand river, he told me; she wasn't with him at all, he was by himself .
Q Well, when did they move up on Big creek, do you know anything about that? A No, I don't know just when they moved up there, I don't know.
Q Did you get acquainted with them up there? A. I got acquainted with them after I came from Fort Gibson up here, when I went there they had come moved here.
Q Where were they living then? A. They were living out on the prairie out on the east side of Big creek.
Q In what Nation? A In Sequoyia district here.
Q About when was that that you came up from Fort Gibson and found them there? A That was along somewhere in '70.
(Mr. Davenport) You say you saw Bolsten Looney at Fort Gibson in '06? A Yes sir.
Q What time in the year was that? A. Why it was along a while, just a while before Christmas, little while before Christmas.
Q Now then if Bolsten Looney testified in 1896 that he never returned to Fort Gibson at all, was that true or untrue? A If he gave such evidence as that in 1896, that he never did return to Fort Gibson, is that true or untrue? A. I seen him there.
Q I asked you, if he testified that, was it true or untrue; in giving his testimony before the Kern-Clifton Commission, if he gave such evidence as that, was it true or untrue? A I can't answer that question.
Q When did you come back to this country? A I come back in '65, they told me in '06.
Q Are you on the 1880 roll regularly? A Yes sir.
Q Did you have any conversation with Bolsten Looney at Fort Gibson in '06? A No sir, not but a very little bit.
Q Who did he have with him? A. He didn't have anybody with her, I just went into Gibson and seen him there, and I went to him and shook hands with him because I was acquainted with him.
Q How many children did they have when the war broke out? A Didn't have but one then.
Q Do you know of your own knowledge where they went during the war? A I know they went South.
Q Did you remain in the same locality where they had lived, or return to that locality when you came back after the war? A I stopped at first right this side of Fort Smith, on this side the river in the Cherokee Nation.
Q Well, did you go back in that neighborhood? A Yes sir, I came back in the neighborhood where I used to live, lived on the same place I went from when they first taken me away.
Q The lived in that neighborhood when you returned up there there just after the war? A They my owners was living there on that same place then, I came right back to them.
Q Who were they? A Chambers, Maxwell Chambers and his wife; of course the old man was dead, but his wife was living on the same place.

Q Where had the right family gone? A. They went south too.

Q Do you know to whom Bolston Looney belonged at the breaking out of the war? A. Yes sir, belonged to George Murrell.

Q Where was George Murrell living? A. Well, George Murrell was living there in what they call Park Hill.

Q How far was Park Hill from where you lived at the Chambers place?

A Well, it was all pretty near the same place, it was all called Park Hill where they all lived, we didn't live just two or three miles part.

Q George Murrell was a man who had a farm in Virginia and lived in Virginia the greater part of his time? A I suppose he had a place there.

Q He lived there the greater part of his time? A. Pretty much.

Q Also kept a part of his slaves in Louisiana? A I guess he did, I understand he did, anyway.

Q Did George Murrell ever have a permanent home at Park Hill, where he himself and family resided? George Murrell ever live permanently with his family at Park Hill, in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, he was there, called that home.

Q He would go back and forward? A Yes sir, he would be there, because I knowed him.

Q His wife was a sister of Mrs. V. P. Ross, who now lives at Fort Gibson? A Seems to me she was the daughter of Lewis Ross.

Q Wasn't he a sister of Mrs. V. P. Ross? A Yes sir, that is right.

Q Then Bolston Looney didn't belong to Jane Looney at the breaking out of the war? A. No sir.

Q And you don't know who this man belonged to at the breaking out of the war? A Yes sir.

Q Who did she belong to? A. Eli Wright.

Q How do you know that? A. I seen her there.

Q How far did Eli Wright live from Park Hill? A He lived a good ways, but I was all over the country in them times.

Q About how far? A. I can't tell you just exactly it was.

Q Was it a hundred miles? A. No, I guess now since I come to be grown I expect it was somewhere between thirty and forty miles over there.

Q You lived in there at Park Hill, you say? A. Yes sir.

Q And the other parties lived over thirty or forty miles from you? A Yes sir.

Q There was no way of getting back and forth except by horse? A. No sir, except on horseback.

Q And there was no settlement between the Park Hill settlement and the settlement of going snake where they lived? A I expect there was, I just went going through there, I was going to Cincinnati.

Q When were you at Eli Wright's place, when you claim to be the owner of this woman before the war? A. I didn't stay very long.

Q How long did you stay? A. I was there one time.

Q When did you next see this woman after the war broke out? A Why I never seed her any more until I came from Tahlequah up here on Big creek.

Q When was that? A. That was along in '67.

Q They haven't had a permanent place of living, have they, since the war her husband? A. Yes sir, they had a log house put up.

Q Didn't they just live from place to place and town to town? A Well, he did for a while, and that time he told me his wife was over on Grand river.

Q What makes you know it was just before Christmas, in '66 you saw him down there? A Because I knew him, because I asked him to come take Christmas with me.

Q How long before Christmas was it, and what year after the war broke out? A. I don't know what year the war broke out.

Q How long before Christmas and in what year after peace was declared? A I can't hardly tell you that.

Q What year, and how long before Christmas was it the treaty made? A I know one thing, I know the people keep were I was living told me that peace had been declared and the folks was all coming home and I picked up and lit out too.

Q Will, how long before Christmas was the treaty made, and what year? A. And I know right after that, in the next year after I came up there, that was when I seen him.

Q Who was living in Fort Gibson at the time you saw him? A. I can't tell you, there was a plenty of soldiers there.

Q Wasn't there some Cherokee families there, or colored families? A There was one or two colored families there, I can't tell you, it has been so long ago.

Q Lewis Daniels was living there? A Lewis Daniels was living around there somewhere.

Q And F. H. Nash was living there, wasn't he? A. I don't know.

Q W. P. Ross? A. Yes sir, I believe he was, I believe he was living around there some place, but I don't know whether he was living in town or not.

Q You don't remember anyone living there except you saw Bolston Looney there, is that it? A. There is a man now lives right close to where there is a little hollow going down towards the river, that they call Vann.

(Commissioner) You say you knew this woman before the war? A. Yes sir.

Q Was she married to Bolston Looney then? A. I think she was, she had one child, I think she was married to him; I don't know for certain whether she was or not.

Q Where did you first know her certainly as Bolston Looney's wife? A I never knew her really as his wife, not till he came back here with her.

Q When did you first see her with him after the war? A That was in '67, and I am just going to tell you just exactly.

Q You saw him and her together at that time? A Yes sir, they were living together.

Q As husband and wife? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen more or less of her ever since? A. Yes, I seen her off and on all the while since.

Q And of him also? A. Yes sir, they were living together.

Q He died about three years ago? A. Yes sir.

Q Have you seen them ever since as husband and wife? A. Yes sir, they been living ever since as husband and wife.

Q Now this George Murrell that you spoke of, who was his wife? A I think it was a daughter of Lewis Ross if I mistake not.

Q She was a Cherokee woman was that? A. Yes sir.

Q That the family of old Chief Ross? A Yes sir, if I am not mistaken he was her brother.

Q You think then George Murrell's wife was a niece of the old Chief? A Yes sir, I think she is as well as I can recollect.

(Mr. Mellette) Didn't George Murrell build a fine house at Park Hill? A. Yes sir.

Q Was it brick or frame? A. I don't just recollect what the house was built of, it was a fine house.

Q It was the house E. S. Ross lived in now? A. Yes sir, I think it is.

(Mr. Davenport) Do you know where Bob Ross lives now? A Yes sir, Lewis Ross' Bob Ross, do you know where he lived? A Bob Ross was living at Tahlequah, the man I am thinking about now.

Q What made you answer Mr. Mellette that you thought the house George Murrell built was the house Bob Ross was living in now? A Maybe I didn't understand him good.

(Mr. Mellette) I asked you if George Murrell didn't build a fine house at Park Hill? A Yes sir.

Q You know about that? A. Yes sir.

Q Then I asked you if Bob Ross is living in that house now? A I don't.

COMMISSIONER: The applicant is identified on the Kern Griston roll, but not upon the roll of 1880 or upon that of 1896. It appears that she and her deceased husband were slaves in the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the Civil war, and were the property of Cherokee citizens. They seem to have lived together at the time of the war, and to have gone into the State of Missouri. She claims to have returned to the Cherokee Nation about four weeks before Christmas, in 1866. The testimony on this point is somewhat conflicting. With a view to the application of her children, they have been identified in the course of the examination as her children, and it appears that their claim will depend upon the claim that may be established for their mother or father. It seems that the marriage between the applicant and her husband was lawful, they have been married, according to her testimony, since before the Civil war, and have lived together until his death, some three years ago. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman or a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the testimony, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post-office address.

The Kern Clinton roll examined and the husband of June Leone, identified therein, Page 273 in entry 4254, Coconino County District, as Beach Looney.

Drugs O. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY OF FRANK FEEHAN OF CHEROKEE NATION in the matter of the application of Jane Looney for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, D#597.

Appearances:

Jr. Smith, of Bellette & Smith, Vinita, Ia T., Attorneys for applicant;

W. W. Hastings, attorney for the Cherokee Nation.

FRANK FEEHAN, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Frank Feehan.
- Q How old are you? A 65 years old.
- Q Where do you live? A Atchison County, Kansas.
- Q How long have you lived in that County? A Since January '58.
- Q Did you know a colored woman up there in Atchison County Kansas by the name of Jane Looney? A I did.
- Q Did you know her husband? A I did.
- Q What name did her husband go by? A Andy Looney.
- Q Did you know any of Jane's children? A Yes, I know Frances.
- Q What is her present name? A Smith.
- Q What was her husband's first name? A I did not know that.
- Q Did you know any of the rest of her children? A Why, I have seen several of them, I have no particular knowledge; they have worked around for my daughter and myself some but I have no particular knowledge of the other two of them.
- Q What are the others named do you know? A Really I don't know how many children she has got.
- Q I mean of Jane Looney? A Oh I thought you were speaking about Frances. Jane Looney yes, I know Frances is her oldest daughter, and the oldest boy was born on the place where I live now, Henry, he was born in '64.
- Q You mean in '64? A Yes sir.
- Q Well what is the next one? A There was a John, there was several children after they left our neighborhood, I don't know how many they had after they moved to Atchison, there was a Ellen, there was a George, and there was a John, them three I heard of, not personally knowed them either.
- Q Her husband there was known as Andy Looney? A Yes sir.
- Q When did you first learn to know this man and woman in Kansas? A It was either in '63 in the fall or in the spring of '64, I won't be positive, but it was either one of those times.
- Q Where did they live in '64? A On the place I own now.
- Q How long did they continue to live there? A Until spring of '67.
- Q Continuously all the time? A Continuously all the time, farmed the place.
- Q Where did they go in the spring of '67? A They moved to a place right adjoining it on the east where old man Tilman built a little cabin there, they lived there two years.
- Q That would be the spring of '69? A Yes sir.
- Q Then where did they go? A Then in the spring of '69 they moved on the place right north of me.
- Q How far from you? A The house not being more than about 40 rods from where I live now.
- Q How long did they live there? A Two years.
- Q That would bring it up to '71? A Yes sir.

- Q Then where did they go? A They moved to Atchison.
- Q How far is that? A 5 or 6 miles, we call it 5 or 6 miles.
- Q Did you see them after that? A I saw them 15 years after that, positively and I might say 20, but 15 years anyhow; I saw Andy Looney in '92 the last time and had a long talk with him; he was fencing ground for my daughter.
- Q Did you see him frequently after he went to town? A Yes sir.
- Q You know when he left up there? A No.
- Q You say '92 is the last time you positively remember seeing him? A Yes sir, I had no ~~known~~ dealings with him; that is the last time I talked with him and I didn't know he had gone until here a few years ago.
- Q How about Frances Smith? A She lived there in Atchison.
- Q Does she live there now? A She lived there now, her husband is working there and the family is there.
- Q When is the last time you saw her? A Well I have not seen Frances for several years, because I have no dealings or no need of seeing her, but I have seen her children, I saw one of her children that worked for me this winter up until January.
- Q Up until this last January? A Yes, this last January last month, and he worked for my daughter the last month.
- Q What is that child's name? A Fred Smith.
- Q Do you know John Looney or Henry Looney of these boys? A I know Henry, because he was born on my place and I have seen him since, he is now in the penitentiary.
- Q What is he in the penitentiary for? A Killing his wife.
- Q Did you know any of the rest of these boys living up there now? A There is one by the name of John, but as I have no business with him I see him and that is about all, I have no personal knowledge of him much.
- Q How you said they left there and went to Atchison about '71? A Yes, to the City of Atchison.
- Q You say you had occasion to meet them frequently? A Yes sir, often.
- Q Did they ever do any work for you after '71 until '92? A Not for me, but my son-in-law, he would do little things in the garden and take care of the house and I would see him, - saw wood, any little thing like that.
- Q You know where they were living? A Oh yes.
- Q You saw their house? A Oh yes sir, many a time.
- Q How far were they living from your son-in-law? A Not more than a quarter of a mile, my son-in-law lived in the south Atchison and they lived in South Atchison, about a quarter of a mile.
- Q Well then from about '63 or '4 up until '71 they lived out there either on your farm or the adjoining farm? A Right close adjoining and many a day he has worked for me.
- Q What is your business? A Farmer.
- Q Are you a farmer yet? A Yes sir.
- Q You live on the same place? A Yes sir.
- BY MR. SMITH:
- Q Mr. Neerman, how long have you lived in Kansas? A Since the winter, since January '68.
- Q The people you talk about are people you first became acquainted with in '63 or '4? A Yes sir.
- Q Which was it? A The Looney family? they consisted of Andy Looney his wife Jane, and the daughter Frances, about 6 or 7 years old, and the child Henry was born on the place where I live; they now, they had a cabin, and he was born there.
- Q Do you know which year it was, whether it was '63 or '64? A I am not positive, but it was not later than that.
- Q Now you say the husband of this woman was called Andy? A Andy Looney he went by, yes sir.
- Q How long has it been since you saw the Jane Looney to whom you refer? A Oh it has been a good many years, I couldn't tell you what

Of course she didn't get out like her husband Andy and the sons so I could see her and I had no business with them and I didn't hunt her up.

Q You know whether Andy Looney is living or not? A I understand he is dead.

Q When did you last see him? A Last time I saw him was in the summer of '92 that I saw him personally and talked with him in Atchison, Kansas.

Q He was living there then? A Yes sir.

Q You don't know whether the people that applied here for admission are the same people you know at all? A I don't know anything about that at all.

H. C. KING, being first duly sworn and being examined testified as follows:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Give the stenographer your name, please? A H. C. King.

Q How old are you, Mr. King? A 41 years old.

Q Where were you born? A Atchison County, Kansas.

Q You lived in that vicinity all of your life? A No sir, not all the time.

Q Where do you live now? A I live in Atchison County.

Q Where were you living when you were 7 or 8 years of age? A In Atchison County.

Q Did you ever know a colored family up there by the name of Looney? A I know her.

Q You know what the woman's name was? A I don't remember every one, what her name was.

Q Don't remember? A No, not her name particularly.

Q Did you remember his name, Andy? A He was known as Andy Looney.

Q Did you know any of his children? A I remember one named Henry Looney.

Q What became of him? A I learned that he was in the penitentiary from what I heard.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that.

Q You don't know only what you have heard? A Just what I have heard there in town; it has been several years since I heard it.

Q Did you know any of the rest of the family? A I know two now, there's two now that I remember that I know, John Looney and Frances Smith.

Q Where does John Looney live now? A In Atchison.

Q When did you last see him? A Last Saturday about one o'clock.

Q You know whether he is single or married? A He is married I understand.

Q You know whether Frances is single or married? A She is married.

Q You know where she lives? A Yes sir.

Q Where? A She lives 716 W. Street, Atchison.

Q You know what her husband's name is? A I know of him as Doctor Smith.

Q They live there in Atchison? A Yes sir, that is my understanding. I am not acquainted with the man.

Q Were you at her house? A Yes sir.

Q Therefore you are correct as to her place of residence? A Yes sir.

Q It was this Looney family that you knew, this man and woman, the father and mother of these children John and Henry and Frances?

A That has always been my understanding, that they were the children of the family.

Q You know that like you know anything else in the neighborhood?

A Like I know anything, yes sir.

Q When did Andy Looney and his wife leave that country? A I couldn't say for certain about that, I heard of them leaving about

'96, I had been away from Atchison and came back in 1896, I had been away about 12 or 13 years.

Q When did you leave Atchison County? A I left Atchison County in '83 I think it was '83 or '84.

Q You know whether these Looney's that you speak of were living in '83? A They had been living in Atchison last I knew of them before that, I didn't know just where they was in '83.

Q How long had you known them to be living around in Atchison? A I would judge about 15 years anyhow, something like that.

Q Continuously? A As near as I could learn, occasionally I would see them.

Q You left there about '83 or '84 and came back in '96 and they were gone? A Yes, that is I learned they were gone, I lost track of them anyway, I wasn't particularly acquainted with the younger ones; I remembered Henry as a boy, he wasn't much younger than I was.

Q You don't remember as far back as '66, you are too young? A Well I couldn't say as to the date when I got acquainted with them, but I know when I moved out of the neighborhood in which they lived, the old neighborhood, that was in the fall of '70, I lived about two miles for several years, probably from '65 to '70, within about two miles of Mr. Neerman, and they lived right in the Neerman neighborhood, either on his place or the Tilman place; I know about where they lived.

Q That is as far back as your recollection extends? A Yes sir,

Q They afterwards moved to Atchison? A Yes, I have seen them around Atchison and I understood that they lived there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q How long did you state you were? A 41 years old.

Q You don't remember the name of Andy Looney's wife? A No sir.

Q How many children do you remember? A I don't remember but one particularly; when they were small children.

Q You can only give the name of one child? A That I remembered at that time, when I was a boy.

Q How when you first knew these people that you speak of you were how old did you say, seven years old? A I was from 6 to 10 somewhere in there, I knew them before I was 10 years old I remember, I lived in the neighborhood with them.

Q Where did you last see any of them? A I saw one that I got acquainted with, John Looney in late years I saw him in Atchison last Saturday.

Q How long have you been living in Atchison County? A 6 years this last time, or about 6 within a month or two of it.

Q You were away awhile? A I was away from Atchison County some 12 or 13 years.

Q Where were you then? A I was in Jefferson County about 10 years and in Oklahoma about 2 years or such a matter.

Q You knew Andy Looney's wife did you? A I knowed her when I was a little shaver.

Q How long has it been since you saw her? A I don't know that I have seen her since in the neighborhood of '70 possibly, along there somewhere, I couldn't say positively.

Q You were there weren't you up until '84? A Not in that immediate neighborhood; they moved out of that neighborhood to town.

Q How far was it to town? A Well it is 8 or 10 miles.

Q And you have never seen her from that time to this? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't know whether it is the same Jane Looney or whether that is the woman that is an applicant in this case or not? A I could not say about that.

Q Was that a thickly settled community in there where they lived in that country? A Pretty thickly settled, yes.

Q Good many people live in Atchison? A Yes sir, along about 14000.

I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

Q Did you go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation first after the war?
A '66, in August.
Q Who was with you? A Andy Daugherty, my mother and two brothers.
Q What was your brother's name? A Tecumseh Holt and James Holt.
Q Where is James Holt? A I have not saw James Holt for twenty years.
Q You don't know where he is? A No sir.
Q Where is Tecumseh Holt? A He is here somewhere.
Q Where does he live? A Vinita.
Q What is your mother's name? A Esther Holt.
Q What was your father's name? A Jonas Pack.
Q Where did he die? A He died when the emigrants left this nation going to California about 1840.
Q You spoke of your mother and yourself and brother Tecumseh and another brother named James, coming here to the Cherokee Nation after the war in '66, where did you come to? A Came to Big Creek.
Q Near what point as the country is developed now? A I don't understand you.
Q I mean to say at what point on Big Creek did you come? A Near about in the settlement you have reference to?
Q Yes? A Up there about where Reuben Johnson lives now and Mike Whitmire.
Q Near what place is that now? A It was on George Duffin.
Q I mean as to what post-office is it now? A Near Edna, Kansas.
Q How far is it from where Hayden is now? A I don't know, Hudson may be closer I think, Hudson post-office is nearer than Edna, Kansas.
Q You think it is nearer what is now Hudson? A Yes sir.
Q How long did you live there at that place you have mentioned?
A I lived there off and on and go there and work and come back again.
Q Well you were then about how old? A I can't tell exactly how old I was about that time.
Q Were you married? A I was unmarried at that time.

Q How long has she been living at Vinita? A I guess 13 or 14 years.

Q Was your mother a slave? A Yes sir.

Q Who did she belong to? A Bill and Nellie Holt.

Q The same persons you have mentioned in your own testimony? A Yes sir.

Q Where was your mother when the Civil War commenced? A Webers Falls, Cherokee Nation.

Q Did she or did she not go out at the same time you did? A She went out at the same time I did.

Examined by Com'r Needles:

Q Do you live in Vinita? A Yes sir.

Q Why didn't you appear before the Commission at Vinita when we were there? A My mother was sick and she wasn't able to get there; that's just the reason I didn't appear at that Commission.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q Your present wife is the only wife you have ever had? A Yes sir.

Q You testified that you married her in 1889? A 1889.

Q Your oldest child is 16 years of age, you have given, Laura?

A Yes sir, she is my step-child, my wife's child, Laura and Ella both.

Q Didn't you apply for your daughter Laura and Ella to be put on the Kern-Clifton roll? A I applied for them, yes sir.

Q Did you then say anything about their being your step-children?

A I think I did, I am not certain.

Q What was your wife's maiden name? A Jane Johnson.

Q Where was she born? A Big Creek, Indian Territory, Cooweescoowee District.

Q How old is she? A I think she is now about 32 years old, 30 or 32.

- Q Yes sir.
- Q He had a house up? A Yes sir.
- Q He had a patch of corn in? A Had a little corn in.
- Q When you came? A Yes sir.
- Q Who else had a house down there when you came? A I think Uncle Mike Whitmore had a house and Reuben Johnson had a house and Anderson Johnson had a house and Harrison Johnson had a house.
- Q George Daffin? A I think so, I am not certain.
- Q Was Uncle Peter ~~Whitmore~~ living down there then? A I don't know.
- Q Was Reuben and Tuck Sanders? A Yes sir.
- Q Did they have small crops of corn too? A I wasn't on their place, would see them passing back and forth, I guess they lived there.
- Q Didn't all these people that you have mentioned have corn?
- Q I don't know; Uncle Andy Daugherty did, and I believe Whitmore did.
- Q What time did you come there? A In August.
- Q How long did you remain when you came in August? A I must have stayed there about six or eight months before I went away.
- Q Where did you go to? A I think I went to Lawrence I believe.

Joshua Holt et al 5

Q Where was your mother at that time? A When I left I left her on Big Creek, at Andy Daugherty's.

Q She came down with you did she? A When she first came from Kansas you mean? Yes.

Q How long did she stay down there? A I don't know how long she stayed altogether.

COM'R NEEDLES:--Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Mancelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or census roll of 1896, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his elder stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, ~~Clifford and Mancelia~~, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Mancelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah, being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts as set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Beason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Mancelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card. The fact that his two children's, Clifford and Mancelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

Q You remember just what year he got killed? A No sir.

Q You don't remember just about how long after he come down there? A No sir.

Q The circumstance of his getting killed isn't as great as the circumstance of your first seeing him after the war? A I don't know, it might be greater for all I know, but I never paid no particular attention.

Q About what is the first date that you are willing to swear that you saw them living together as husband and wife? A I tell you I never paid no attention to it, as many people married, I don't know the dates of all of them, and of course I didn't try.

Q I am not asking you, Mr. Webber, for exact date, but how long ago, now, when they first began living together, but about how long years ago are you willing to testify you saw them living together?

DEPARTMENT

Ruth Chinnett et al vs

 A I don't know, I couldn't be positive about that.
 Q Did they have any children when you first saw them living together as husband and wife? A When I first saw them they didn't have any.
 Q Do you have any idea how old this woman is, (indicating applicant)?
 A No sir, not exactly.
 BY COM'R HASTINGS:
 Q Well, Mr. Webber how long did they live together as husband and wife according to your best recollection, your knowledge? A I declare I couldn't answer that, I can't raise them right there on the Black-throated blue.
 Q While they were living together as man and wife they raised a family? A Yes sir.
 BY MR. HASTINGS:
 Q You don't know where he got the woman? A No sir, I couldn't tell you.
 Q How far did they live from you? A About 10 miles I guess, as near as I can guess at it.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of EDWARD FRIGHT as a Cherokee Freedmen, introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation.

The Cherokee Nation by its representative makes satisfactory proof of service on E. S. Lavean, the attorney for the applicant in this case, that testimony would be introduced by the representatives of the Cherokee Nation tending to disprove the right of such applicant, Howard Wright to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation at the office of the commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 3rd day of March, 1903, and from day to day thereafter until the same could be heard by the Commission during the usual business hours.

Cherokee Nation treated by its representative, L. R. Bell.

C. V. Rogers, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation.

MR. BELL:

Q Tell him your name? A C. V. Rogers.

Q Age? A 63 years old.

Q Place of residence? A Claremore.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you been such? A All my life, a little over 63 years.

Q Did you go out in the country during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q When did you return? A '66.

Q Where did you come to? A Came to Fort Gibson.

Q And stayed there did you? A Yes, sir.

Q Well what was your business? A After I come back?

Q Yes? A I followed freighting for something over three years.

Q Where and between what places? A Sedalia and Pleasant Hill and Kansas City to Fort Gibson.

Q Were you ever acquainted with a Freedman by the name of Moses Whitfire? A Yes, I know him.

Q Where did he belong before the war? A He belonged in Goin' Snake District.

Q Do you know what particular Whitfire he belonged?

A I don't remember whether he belonged to George Whitfire or Lee Whitfire.

Q If you did see him when did you first see Moses Whitfire after the war, after your return to the Cherokee Nation?

A As well as I can remember it was in February, '68; I met him just on this side of the Neosho River, as they were moving back to this country from Texas. There was between 24, from 24 to 26 wagons and I let them rest on this side of the Neosho River; Dick Whitfire, Moses Whitfire and Aaron Whitfire and old Major Wright is still now in the office.

Q Did you have any conversation with them, stop and talk with them? A Yes, sir, and Col. Bill Rice passed while I was talking to them going to Fort Scott.

Q Did you ask them where they was going to? A They said they was moving back.

Q Well this 25 or 26 wagons was loaded with people?

A Yes, mostly over and had household goods in them.

Q Colony of Cherokee Freedmen? A Yes, sir, coming back to the Cherokee Nation.

Q Well now that was where you say it was? A It was right on this side of the Neosho River; between the old Hudson place and Neosho River.

Q How far from the Neosho River? A I suppose half a mile.

Q How far is on the north line of the Cherokee Nation?
A I think the river is the line, about half a mile.
Q And how far is that from the Kansas line? A The same is the line, way I understand it.
Q You had reference to where the military road crossed the Neosho river? A Yes, sir.
Q At Jack McLean's ferry? A They called it Hudson Ferry at that time.
Q Hudson lived there? A Yes, sir, in about a half mile.
Q And this Moses Whitmore you met and talked with is the same one you knew in Going Snake and belonged to the Whittier family there?
A Yes, sir.
Q About how old a man was he when you met him? A He is an older man I think than I am.
Q And you saw other with him you know? A I think Aaron Whitmore and Moses Whitmore and old Major Wright is the old ones I know.
Q And you talked with him there? A Oh, I guess I talked with him ten or 15, 20 minutes and while I was talking to him Col. Ross passed going to Fort Scott.
Q Do you know where this man Whitmore lives now, Moses Whitmore you met?
A No, I don't know where he lives.

MR. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q Do you know he lives on Salt Creek near Wyand? A No, I don't know for certain I heard he lived on Salt Creek. I don't know where he lives. I have saw him ever since I have been here. I don't think I ever was at his house.

—o—o—o—o—o—o—o—

I hereby certify upon my official oath as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that I correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in this case on the above date, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of my stenographic notes thereof.

respectfully presents the following statement of his claim according to the requirements of the Commission.

Claimant claims under classification five of claimants in the law creating this Commission, that is, as a colored person formerly a slave owned by a citizen and resident of the Nation at the beginning of the late war, freed by law and made a citizen of this Nation by provision of the treaty of 1866. For claimant was at the first and place above said owned by George Whitmire, a Cherokee citizen, left the country during the war and returned in the summer of 1866 to select and prepare a home for his family (they then being without one) and, again, the following year prosecuting the work as his circumstances and the condition of the country at that time prevented and leaving his family in the intervals of time when they would subsist without discomfort and exposure and until a removal of them was practicable which removal of claimant's finally was accomplished to the point of the Nation settled by claimant for theirs and his home in the spring of 1867.

claimant's rights have been called in question by competent authority, and he therefore presents them to the important examination of this Commission as are authorized to do by law.

Case 80.

Aaron Whitmire.

vs.

Cherokee Nation.

Tahlequah.

July 2, 1870.

Mike Fields, a witness for claimant called and sworn. I am I think I am about 17 years old. I live in Illinois near let, C. N. an a citizen of the nation. I have been on the ground a long but had my rights proved up before the Supreme Court.

Am a citizen under the treaty of 1866. I went north to the state of Kansas in 1862. I returned in August - 21st of 1866. I left my family in Fort Scott when I came. I came down to get an claim. I staid about three weeks that time, and then returned to Fort Scott. After I returned to Fort Scott there were others who started down, the Whitmires were of that number. The claimant was one of them. They came down in Decr. 1866. They returned to Fort Scott before I left there. I left Kansas about the 2nd week in January, 1867 and got to the crossing of the Neosho river about the last of January. When I first got down there was about 15 in the party. They left their families in Kansas when they came down here. There was some of party gone with the Whitmires who piloted the Whitmire party and my party were Sam Webber, Mike Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Aaron Webber, Reubin Sanders, Tuck Sanders.

The Whitmire proper were Aaron, Leola, Moso, Dennis and Nelson Whitmire and others that I do not recollect. The object of this party coming was for the purpose of creating homesteads. When I moved with my family I stopped on Pryors Creek at Mrs. Alberts and remained about two weeks. The reason we left that part of the country was because that part of the country was too sparsely settled and bare of subsistence. As I was coming down the first time we were overtaken by the Cherokee Delegation. They were here and come here were authorized by others to locate claims for them, one was by MeKey requesting Abe Fields to locate for him. The original request filed.

Grass Examined.

I can not remember the date I arrived here the first time from Kansas. The claim we made I got three sets of house logs, hauled them and piled them up, and some of the men put up houses. I did not put up a house. I started back to Kansas about the middle of September. When I first left the country it was in February, 1868. I was a slave before the war and was owned by Sam Taylor when the war broke out. He was living on Greenleaf near Bushy Mountain on this side of Arks. River. When the Whitmires returned to Fort Scott I do not know when they left there to come to this country as I left them there when I left. It was reported when they returned to the Nation that the Whitmire party had built houses. But I do not know this myself as I was not along. I only heard they had. The war closed in 1865 I think. I did not know it myself but people told me and could read.

I do not know myself that it was the month of Aug. When I come here first, but I was told it was that time.

Re Direct.

It was the December following the time I first came down that the Whitmires come down first to select and improve claims.

August 1, 1878.

Bluford Alberts, witness for claimant.

I reside in Coconawawee District, C. N. I am a Native Cherokee citizen. I left the Nation during the war. I returned to the Nation on the west side of Grand River, Coconawawee District.

on the 3rd of September, 1866, I had occasion some time in the last of Oct., or the first of Nov, or probably it might have been as late as the middle of November, to go to the Waxhills. While out there I fell in with a party of seven or eight persons who were camped with others near Sam Crompton's. I did not go to the camp. They were colored people. I knew most of them. Their names were old Sam Webber, Aaron Whitire, and a younger brother and Lewis Whitire.

There was another person whom I was told was a Landrum. I do not recollect any of the others and can not identify them. The Whites were Aaron and George Whitire, Aaron, Lewis and his brother belonged to George. In conversation with Sam Webber he asked me if I knew anything about the treaty and if the Freedmen had got here. I told him I had not seen the treaty but had heard rumors about it. He told me they had come to pick themselves up or make claims and that he was the leader of the company and the reason why Major Wright did not come was that he was an old man, but that he had sent his son down to work for him and make him a claim. He then asked what chances there was to get provisions over on the river. I told him there was none there, but that there was a lot of cornmeal flour at Simon and if they would go there they would get some. He also represented that they had come down to take claims for others, who had remained in Kansas, to build them houses and so forth. They also stated that they were notified to come and that they had accordingly come to make claims for themselves and the others that they left behind in Kansas. As near as I can recollect it was some time in October or November that I saw these parties. I was not very cold weather at the time. I recollect as I camped out at night, did not see any of these parties after this time, May, 1867. There was no provisions to be had in this country at that time. Provisions were very scarce. It was my understanding that they had come to prepare to go for themselves if necessary. They told me so at least. Major Wright belonged to Cornelius Wright before the war.

Grove Examined.

I heard after this word of them going back to Kansas. At the time I got that I do not know whether their families were with them. I think I saw some of the Whitires with this party, but am not certain of seeing Benjamin or Nelson. I know there was four of the Whitire boys. They were owned in the Nation and resided here up to the breaking out of the war.

B. F. Alberts

Aaron Whitire
vs
Cherokee Nation.

I know Melissa Gatliff. She was twelve or fifteen years old at the close of the war.

She was living with me then and still lives in my family. Jack Landrum was one of the band above referred to, also Fannie Daniels. I learned from our leaders Uncle Mike and Sam Webber that the Cherokee delegates advised us to settle in a compact body on unoccupied lands. We crossed the River in coming down at Holcomb's Ferry in 1866. The chief ferryman who crossed us was Bill Martin.

While on lightning Creek in 1865 I saw Mr. Liberty but had no conversation with him, but Sam Webber had in my presence.

Cross Examined.

I am a claimant before this court for citizenship. I am half-brother of Aaron Whitmire, Louis, Dennis and Nelson are also my brothers. Marian Whitmire is my sister. Major Wright is my stepfather. The names of the party that came with me to the Nation are as follows: Mike Sanders, Sam Webber, Peter Heige, Bill Foreman, Tuck Sanders, Ransom Daniels, Sam Webber, Jr., Louis Whitmire, Nelson Whitmire, Dennis Whitmire, Aaron Whitmire, is all I can recollect now. Witness and my brother were authorized to make claims for others still back in Kansas. Dennis made a claim for Major Wright. I can't name any others. Witness was at Fort Scott, Kansas when we came on from Kansas. My family went at Fort Scott. Witness, in 1867, and my wife and myself were back at Fort Scott. Witness had no family. Aaron and Nelson did. Major, Louis, Nelson and Allen were Aaron's children and his wife, Sarah. They were born the wife and children in Fort Scott which was once in 1868. Mike Sanders, Tuck Sanders were Nelson's family and back at Fort Scott. We went back 1st January 1866 to Kansas after coming to the Nation. Then witness returned in 1867 to the Nation Aaron, Louis, Nelson, Dennis, Ransom Daniels, Tuck Sanders, Peter Heige and the families of those who had families all came so I did besides others not particularly remembered. This was the first time any of our families had been to the Nation, at least mine, Aaron's and Nelson's.

The first time Marian Whitmire was in the Nation after the war closed was after our families returned in families in 1867.

The first time Major Wright returned was on our first trip in 1867. Maria's father was named by one Alec Ratliff at breaking out of war. She first came in March 1867. Jack Lancaster was slain in 1866. He was a slave at the beginning of the war. I was present during the examination of Mr. Albert as a witness in this case.

Re Direct.

Marian's family at the close of the war was a separate family. Harry Whitmire, her son, represented his mother on the first trip in 1866. Witness is about 55 yrs. old. Major Wright was an old man at the close of the war. Louis Whitmire had been back to the Nation before 1866.

Case 63.

Aaron Whitmire & family) vs) Claiming citizenship.
Cherokee Nation.

Now comes plaintiff by atty before the Commission sitting at Tahlequah to try certain claims for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation and makes this his statement of his grounds for said claim to wit:

Claimant is a colored person and claims an ancestor under privilege of the fifth specification of the classes of claims preferred by law to the Commission to acquire and decide rights by competent authority having been denied citizens.

Claimant belonged to Geo. Whitmire a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion and was then living in the Nation. After the beginning of said war claimant moved to or the vicinity of Fort Scott with his family at which location he resided until the summer of 1866 when he returned to this Nation and proceeded to select and improve a home on the Verdigris River for himself and family's permanent residence. While he was thus making preparations for the removal of his family by providing for their habitation and subsistence at the place mentioned they his family remained where they had been sojourning during the war.

Claimant was compelled by unfavorable circumstances and the attention he was obliged to bestow upon his family to remit his work upon his improvement on Verdigris River from the early fall of 1866 to the early winter of the same year, when he resumed labor upon his improvement, after which he removed his family as soon as practicable to live in the spring of the year of 1867.

Claimant claims to have returned to this Nation in his own person and as representative of his family within the six months provided for by treaty, in that having no residence to come to or other former citizens he did everything possible to constitute a return consistent with the duty he owed to his family by laboring as far as his means allowed to provide a home in this Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

Arnon Whitmore,

Arnon Whitmore

vs.
Cherokee Nation.

August 1st, 1878.

Mr. Martin, witness for claimant, called and sworn.

I live on Big Creek, Cowassee County, Ok. I am a citizen of the Nation. From August up to Christmas 1866 I was at the ferry on the Neesho River on the old Military road leading from Fort Scott, Kansas to Fort Gibson, C. N. Am acquainted with claimant and his brother, Lewis, never knew Arnon until I meet him at the river. Lewis I knew prior to that time. While I was in charge of the ferry I recollect having met claimant and Moss, Lewis, Dennis and Nelson, Whitmore, Peter Neige, Mike Sanders, Sam Fobber, and Young Sam, Bill Fereran and others but I do not recollect anything about them. They were traveling. They stated they were coming from Fort Scott, Kansas, they were traveling from the direction of Fort Scott. I crossed them from the Shawnee side of the River into the Cherokee Nation, they inquired the road to Big Creek. Nolan gave them the directions to the head of Big Creek. They stated the reason why they were coming was that the Cherokee Delegation had invited them to come back under the treaty. They mentioned Jim McDonald as the principal one who had invited them and they were then on their way to select themselves homes.

It was after the Delegation returned that I met claimant and the others spoken of it was pretty cold weather when I crossed them. It was as near as I can recollect about the last of October, 1866. I am positive it was before Christmas or I left then at Christmas or probably a few days before Christmas.

Cross Examined.

I was not acquainted with the claimant nor any of the others named previous to the war.

I do not know the owners before the war. I do not know whether they had lived in the Nation previous to the war. I do not recollect of seeing any of the families of the parties named at that time.

I crossed them over the river. I set some of this same party back over the river a short time after they had come in, Lewis, Nelson and Dennis Whitmire and little Sam Webber and I think they were more who crossed back but I can not place them now. I learned the names of the parties from conversation with them, but did not become particularly acquainted with their names at that time. I think there was one woman with the party, I think she was little Sam Webber though I would not be right positive that there was a woman along or not. I was positive there was no children as I never seen any. They had camped there long enough that were they any women and children I would have known it. The next time I saw claimant was in the fall of 1867 on Big Creek. I learned from them that they had got there in March 1867. I know this from having heard it generally talked amongst themselves.

Re Direct.

At the present time the distance between our two settlements is about 5 miles. I recognize the claimant and the other parties spoken of. I have been there frequently since that time. I got them over the river. When I saw them in the fall of 1867 they had their families with them then. The means of subsistence at the time I crossed in the country at that time was short.

George Whitmire before the war lived in Going Snake Dist. This Dist. borders on the line of the state of Arks.

Claimant now resides near the western line of the Cherokee Nation. The settlement before the war was sparse where claimant now resides. I would say the distance from where George Whitmire resided prior to the war, and claimant's present residence is 90 or 100 miles. Witness states that he had a conversation with Sam Webber in which Webber assigned as a reason for settling where he had was that Agent Jones advised the colored people after their freedom to settle in colonies or as thickly as it was convenient to do in an unoccupied part of the country.

This was thought best for the colored man as they would have their own schools so until matters were more regulated in the country.

The first conversation was in the fall of 1866. The second conversation was in the spring of 1867. I saw several of their families in May, 1867 on Big Creek or Lightning Creek in the Nation.

The town of Chatham in the same locality as that of the time mentioned above. In Oct. or Nov. 1866 I gave Chatham and other colored men permission to occupy the old fields in that neighborhood for the purpose of raising crops the year following. Louis Williams in the name of the other men, I also permitted to go on the old field. The summer of 1867 I and James and Louis Williams at work on the two fields spoken of. This gentleman of colored rank was the conductor of which in business and the raising of crops as usual as any in the nation. Some of these people have large and good farms all made by themselves since the war.

Witness taken a party of six gentlemen in the fall of 1868 and this colored party who settled on the creek alluded to in the neighborhood for the purpose as they sought the time of settling their homes. Several claims were then in sight of witnesses which the colored party said they had selected and are now the names of the party above indicated.

Agent James was at the time visiting said colored party. A delegation for W. H. Cheevers, Nelson and Washington. There were parties as witness learned from one as there was claimed to expect or arrive and from their taking this colored party at the time they were prospecting the country. This was advised by James and it was not done or carried out. Witness partly spoken of above had approached of Cheevers with one colored man. I am the sole author of this party except the colored man and possibly one other. Occupation of witness is herding wild cattle. I traveled a good deal in that neighborhood at that time spoken of.

Sworn to witness for Deft. I live in Boone, Boone Co. Ky. I first moved there in 1857 and have continued to reside there except in time of war. I came back in the month of August 1866 to the Nation. I know James Williams. He returned or came to the Kentucky River to live in the month of March 1867. Also came to the same time with his wife, John Sanders, Sam Robey, Billy Roberts, with their families and others whom I don't recollect. Williams made a cross in the spring of 1867 on an old piece of land named. He had settled in Boone place before that.

James Williams

I don't know of any colored party at that time being in the Nation in the month of Decr. 1866 or before. I have heard of some who came in Sept. 1866 for that purpose. I know James Williams Williams lived at that time. I have seen goodly a place in Decr. 1866. I live on the west side of the river. Williams lives and settled on the east side of the river. If any heads of families came in Decr. 1866 I never heard of them. I never knew of anyone settling there in the part of the country in 1866 in the part who came in Sept. 1866. James Williams was not living but John Sanders, Sam Robey, Polk and a number of other persons. James was not living at that time. I know of no other party who came in Decr. 1866. I learned from John Coker that most of this colored party returned to Kansas after their families and now remained. I was at General Convention of the Colored People in 1866. It was witness' understanding that the purpose of said convention was to ratify the treaty of 1866. I think the object of the convention was to ratify amendments to the Constitution under the treaty and to ratify the treaty. The treaty was concluded the 9th of Aug. 1866 in my information. - Q Where did you go during the war? A Went to Kansas.
- Q When did you come back from Kansas? A Came back in 1866.
- Q You been living here ever since? A Yes, sir.
- Q Are you married? A No, sir.
- Q Ever been married? A No, sir.
- Q Got no children then? A No, sir, I haven't.
- Q You are certain you came back in 1866? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q Who did you come back with? A Sam Webber and my father.
- Q Why is your name not on the roll of 1880? A Why I can't tell you about that.
- Q Did you ever try to have it put on? A Yes, sir.
- Q They refused to do it? A Yes, sir, must have, for it aint there.
- Mr. W. W. Hastings: attorney for Cherokee Nation: You say you returned with your brother Sam? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q Did you come the first time he came out here? A Yes, sir, I did.
- Q What time of the year was it? A '66.
- Q What time in the year '66? A Well you see I can't read and I can't write, I didn't keep no count of the days and the months because my owner's didn't give me time to get my education.
- Commissioner: Was it in the fall or summer? A It was along in March when I came back in 1866.
- Mr. Hastings: Was it the March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir.
- Q You are certain of that? A Yes, sir, I am.
- Q And you came back with him at that time? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did he bring his family along then? A Yes, sir.
- Q His wife and children? A Yes, sir.
- Q He had already been out there and put up a house? A Yes, sir, I had come out before that and I come with him, and we put up a house and I came back with him in '66.

Q The first time you came back was in March after the treaty was made? A Yes, sir, that is when we moved there.

Q How long before that was it when you came out? A I can't give the days of the month, how long it was we came out, but we came and put up a house one fall and went back and came right on down.

Q About how long did you stay out there when you had put up the building? A We stayed three or four days and then went right back and moved down.

Q What kind of buildings did you put up? A We put up a log cabin.

Q Out on Big Creek? A Yes, sir.

Q How far from where Sam Now lives? A Sam lives on the north side of Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek. I can't tell you exactly how many miles, but he lives at Nowata and we live up there on Big Creek.

Q What old citizen lives near where you first located, where you first located when you first moved out? A There isn't anybody lives there now.

Q Name some old citizen who lives at the place now where you located then? A Sam Webber.

Q Does Sam Webber live at that place now? A He did live there but he don't live there now.

Q Who lives at the place Sam and you came to? A The Mcigs and Whitmires and Sanders, and a whole lot of them.

Q You have lived there ever since? A Yes, sir.

Q You came out in wagons the first time? A Yes, sir, because Sam Webber drove the ox wagon and I drove the horse wagon.

Q Do you know anything about dates? A I know when they say the year is out, and this year is in.

Q What year is this? A If I am not mistaken I think this is May.

Q The year though? A I can't tell you exactly what year it is, because I am not educated like you smart men.

Q You are satisfied in '09 you came here in March? A Yes, sir, Commissioner. Do you know when the treaty was adopted, know what month it was adopted in, the treaty, you hold Mr. Hastings you came here in the march after the treaty was adopted, you don't know what month in 1866 the treaty was adopted? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Have you got any witnesses? A Yes, sir, Sam Webber and Abe Hare.

Sam Webber, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.

Q What is your age? A About 68, somewhere near about that.

Q What is your post office address? A Nowata.

Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Your name on the 1866 roll? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Is he any relation to you? A He is my brother.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Talia Webber.

Q Was she a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.

Q By blood? A Yes, sir.

Q There was no spring the war? A He was with us in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He came with us when we came back in July.

Q You came in July from Kansas and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q What year was that on? A In 1866.

Q He was a slave the same as you? A Yes, sir, same as me, with the same woman.

Q Suppose he was killed so the same rights you have got? A Yes, sir, have just the same right, because to the same parties too.

Q Mr. Hastings, what was it the way you if you say you brought him back? A He came in July, got married, and then back and moved down.

Q You had heard at the treaty passed? A We were right in the same month the treaty was made in Kansas and over took the delegates.

at Fort Scott.

Q You had heard of the treaty before you left there? A As soon as we arrived at Fort Scott and talked to them, and they told us they had made a good treaty.

Q And you came on down and he came with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you bring your families at that time? A I didn't have any family then.

Q The rest of the people, they come along? A Yes, sir, I was small myself, I was with father, we came and built and went and moved some of them after that.

Q How long did you stay down there at this time? A I didn't stay long, I couldn't tell you just how long we really stayed, we didn't stay only long enough to find claims and cut logs and build shanties.

Q Who lives up there at the place that you located, now? A Reuben Sanders lives right where I built my house, he is living there to-day.

Mr. Bell: Where did you start from when you started from Kansas down to Big Creek? A Started from a little creek six miles south of Mound, said to be about twenty miles north of Fort Scott.

Q Had you started to the Cherokee Nation when you came across these delegates at Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your notion about starting? A I had been down here and looked through the country and went back and told them the war was over here as well as everywhere else, and let's come home.

Q You hadn't started then with a view to saving your rights here under the treaty? A We didn't know nothing about the treaty, it wasn't made when we started as we knowed of, until we got to Fort Scott, and we saw the delegates.

Q What time was that? A Along in the last part of July, the last week in July, as near as I can remember.

Commissioner: When Aaron says he came in March he is mistaken?

A He is mistaken, he don't know dates; he is not bright enough to know dates.

Abraham Hare, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Abraham Hare.

Q How old are you? A About 70.

Q What is your post office? A Wymer.

Q Are you a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir, claim to be.

Q Your name is not on the roll of 1880, is it? A No, sir.

Q Were you a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your owner's name? A Arlie Hare.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q Was he a slave? A Yes, sir.

Q To whom did he belong? A Takie Webber.

Q Well, did you know Aaron Webber before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he go out of the Cherokee Nation during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you go out? A Yes, sir.

Q What made you colored people go out during the war? A We couldn't stay here.

Q Thought it was safer to go out? A Yes, sir, I had to go out.

Q Why couldn't you stay here? A They wouldn't let us.

Q Who wouldn't let you? A The Rebels and the Yankees neither one.

Q Where was Aaron Webber during the war? A He was with his father up in Kansas.

Q When did he come back? A He come back in the fall of '66.

Q How do you know? A I come with him.

Q And you came at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you known Aaron Webber since that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Has he always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, lives right by me now.

Mr. Hastings: Your rights are disputed? A Yes, sir, same as his.

Q You were in here this morning; your case was presented?

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: Aaron Webber applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman. His name does not appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880, but does appear upon the Kerns-Clifton pay-roll. By reason of the protest of the Cherokee Nation the name of Aaron Webber will be placed upon a doubtful card awaiting further consideration of the Commission.

O. F. D. 350.

Appearances:

W. W. Hastings for the Cherokee Nation.
Mellette & Smith for the applicants.

DOUGLAS WALKER, being first duly sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows for the Cherokee Nation.
(By the Commission)

- Q Give me your full name? A Douglas Walker.
Q How old are you? A 50.
Q What is your post office? A Mound City, Kansas.

(In Hearings)

- Q How long have you lived in Mound City, Kansas? A Since May 1857.
- Q What was your father's name? A James Walker.
- Q What was your mother's name? A Maria Walker.
- Q Was your father and mother here the first of the month? A Yes sir.
- Q They testified in this matter at that time did they? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know Samuel Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know his son James Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know them? A Near Mound City, Kansas, in the neighborhood where I live.
- Q Do you know the applicant here? You know? A I know him as Joe Webber.
- Q Is the the same fellow? (pointing) A Yes sir.
- Q Where was he living at the time? A He lived with the elder Sam Webber at the time.
- Q You know this applicant here is the same party? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know a woman named Chloa? A Yes sir.
- Q What relation was she to Joe Ross? A Sister.
- Q Did you know Aaron Webber a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you know him? A In the same family in Mound City, Kansas, Linn County.
- Q Whose farm did Samuel Webber live on, if you know? A He lived on a farm that belonged to a man named Jeff Flemming.
- Q I mean in the year 1862? A His father bought the farm.
- Q Of whom did he purchase the farm? A Of Flemming.
- Q Do you know where young Sam Webber was married? A He was married there in Linn County, near Mound City, in the neighborhood there, where I was living.
- Q Did he marry before or after he moved from that country? A Before he moved.
- Q Mr. Walker, have you looked up the date of when your father purchased that farm? A Yes sir.
- Q The date of the deed? A Yes sir.
- Q What was that date? A The date of the deed is October '60.
- (By Mr. Smith) Object to that if you have not the deed.
- (By Mr. Hastings) Have you looked up the date? A Yes sir, but have forgotten the exact date as to days.
- Q At that time, where was Sam Webber living? A On this farm that father purchased.
- Q Where was young Sam living at the time he married? A On this farm on the same place.
- Q What is your best judgment as to the time Sam Webber, including Joe Ross, Chloa Grayson and Aaron Webber left that country with their women folks and came to this country? A According to my best recollection it was the latter part of February or early in March of '67. I can't state exactly the month, early in the spring of '67 though.
- Q Did they all move down at the same time? A All started together.
- Q Left there together? A Yes sir.
- (By Mr. Smith)
- Q You say you know that this applicant in this case is the same man that you knew at that time in Kansas as Joe Webber? A Yes sir.
- Q How did you know it? A I recognized his countenance as one man knows another.
- Q How? A Well I saw him.
- Q Where? A Today.
- Q Where? A On the street.
- Q And you knew him as Joe Webber? A Yes sir, the same Joe Ross was not used much.
- Q When did you first become acquainted with old Sam Webber? A In '62 he moved on this farm.
- Q Which farm? A The farm on which I live in the neighborhood where I live, the old Flemming farm.
- Q When did you first see him? A In the fall of '66. I have forgotten the exact day, but it was in September.

Q Who owned the farm at the time old man Sam Webber was on it? A Jeff Flemming owned it until my father bought it.

Q How do you know it was '63 that you became acquainted with Sam Webber? A I remember that it was during the last years of the war and the refugees were coming into Kansas, both white and black, in '63 and they were amongst them.

Q Did any come after '63? A Yes sir some came later and some come earlier, and I remember again by this farm, I remember how long they farmed it before we got it.

Q How long? A Three years--four years in the spring of '67.

Q They farmed it four years before your father got it? A They farmed from '63 to '67.

Q You say the reason you knew that you knew this man in '63 was because you knew how long they worked this farm before your father got it? A Yes sir.

Q You say it was in September of 1867 that your father bought that farm? A In '66.

Q You are positive about that? A Yes sir we got possession the first of March '67.

Q Did old man Sam Webber rent this place from your father? A No sir he rented it from Flemming.

Q Did Sam Webber, the old man and the boys, come down here or leave that country in the fall of '65? A I think not.

Q Don't you remember that they did and that the old man came back by himself one time? A If my memory serves me, it was in '66, late in the summer, or early in the fall of '66.

Q What was in the fall of '66? A That they came down here--started away from there.

Q Who came then? A Sam Webber, the old man, and young Sam and Aaron.

Q What is your recollection as to how long they staid? A They came back I think in November or late in October.

Q Well which came back first? A Why I think the older Sam Webber came first.

Q How long do you think it was before you saw Sam Webber Jr. again?

Q Well, it was a short time, a month or so--I can't recollect that, it is a good while ago.

Q Who helped Sam Webber make a crop in '66? A Johnson Webber and the old man Sam made a crop in '66.

Q Who helped him? A Then two and the little boys I think worked too; Aaron did, I don't know but as the old two, I don't remember much about that.

Q Where was old man Sam Webber in July 1866? A That summer he raised that crop and worked part of the summer for my father on this farm.

Q Is it not a fact that in July of 1866 that Sam Webber Jr. came here for his father and that they left there for this country to build some houses? A That is not the way I remember it.

Q You have stated that it was a long time ago, do you think that you remember the date absolutely? A Not to the day or month exactly, but that is my best recollection.

Q Are you testifying to the best of your recollection? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. bringing any place to that country?

A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A In the fall or beginning of the winter of '66 and '67 he brought some horses and furs.

Q To refresh your memory, was it not in March? A March, that?

Q '66? A No sir.

Q Back that trip was that that he brought those horses? A He left and said he was coming back on a hunting trip.

Q Was that the trip that he left Kansas and when old Sam returned first that you spoke of a while ago? A Yes sir, that was the first the short trip.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber selling out a crop up here? A I don't.

Q Do you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory to build some houses?

Q Was that after the time that he brought the hides there? A It was that trip that he left there for the purpose of building some houses that he brought the hides when he returned.

Q Don't you remember of them leaving there to come to the Territory for the purpose of building houses? A Well that was wither in the spring or winter, in the latter part of February or early in March I have not given the matter any considerable study.

Q How do you fix the dates you have given? A I remember them and then by the dates I have looked up.

Q What dates have you looked up? A The purchasing of this land.

Q Are you testifying from the date of the purchase of that land? A Father bought the place in the spring of '66 on condition and paid $80 down, or traded cattle, as a forfeit, and in the fall he got some money and got full possession of the place; Webber had possession until the first of March, that is the Kansas law, from the first of March one year until the first of March the next year; they had possession of it until March first 1867.

Q Mr. Walker, when you had occasion to investigate this matter, you had forgotten all about it practically hadn't you? A No sir, but it was something I had not thought much of.

Q You couldn't have told on the moment what year Sam Webber left there could you? A I would have had to look at the dates.

Q Then you are not testifying from your recollection, but from the dates that you have looked up since? A Part of it is from recollection and part of it is from looking up the dates.

Q How long has it been since you thought of the time Sam Webber left that country before you made this investigation? A I was asked the question as to when they moved and I hadn't given the matter any thought till then.

Q You didn't know then did you? A Yes sir after I thought it over.

Q How long did it take you to think it over? A I don't exactly remember.

Q Can't you give us some idea of it? A 2 or 3 weeks.

Q Were you here when your father testified in this case? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know as much about it then as you do now? A No sir.

Q How long was that from the time you had first been asked to about the date? A I had not expected then to give testimony in this case and had not thought much about it.

Q What were you doing here then? A I was subpoenaed in another case.

Q You had been talking about this case then? A Not much.

Q How much? A A word or two.

Q And you were here all the time your father and mother were her and yet didn't testify in this case? A Yes sir.

Q You went back to Kansas? A Yes sir.

Q And came back here again to testify? A Yes sir.

(By Hastings)

Q You were subpoenaed by the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

--00--

HENRY C. SHORT, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Henry C. Short.

Q How old are you, Mr. Short? A 48.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long, Mr. Short, have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas? A Well ever since the spring of 1857.

Q What was your father's name? A John Short.

Q Were you living there in the years '66 and '67? A Yes sir.

Q Were you living in town or in the country? A Living in the country.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker that left the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a colored man by the name of Sam Webber up there?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you know that young Sam Webber, his son? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q This is the man there? (Pointing to the applicant.) A I wouldn't have known him unless he had been pointed to me. They always called him Joe; I don't remember about him being called Joe Ross up there.

Q Have you talked to him? A Just spoke to him.

Q Did he recognize you as being the man? A He recognized me as being Short by telling him who I was and where I was from; he claimed that he was one of the boys.

Q Do you know Aaron Webber, a little duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live in the spring of '66? A In Linn County, on Elk Creek, in Kansas.

Q Did you live on the same place in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.

Q Did you live in the same house? A I lived in the same house now that I moved into in the fall of '66.

Q Well now that time in the fall did you move into it? A Well now it was the last of October or the first of November, I went say which; along about in them times I moved, that is my folks moved; of course I was small, I moved there after that from the west part of the place to the east part of the place.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was at that time? A They lived then at that time in the fall of '66 they lived on the place known as the Fleming place, adjoining farms of ours.

Q Were they living there when you moved? A That fall?

Q Yes sir? A They were living there then.

Q I will ask you what in your best judgment as to the time they moved with their families and left that country? A Well I could not say just now, for I have got nothing to fix them dates. The best of my judgment they left there in February.

Q February now of what year? A Of '67. I would say that, but now I ain't certain, I ain't got no opinion about what time they left.

MR. SMITH: Now I want to strike out the testimony to that effect, because the witness says that is his opinion.

Commissioner: We will take it for what it is worth and let the Commission pass on it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q That is your best judgment? A Yes, sir.

Q That is your best recollection? A No response.

Joe Ross (ang'1) 2

Q You said I believe you knew they were there in the fall. A Yes sir, that is all I can state positively. I don't know how long they were there.

Q You know that by your mind? A Yes sir, that is the only thing I have got you know.

Q Do you know Joe's sister, Eliza? A Yes sir, there was a girl there called Eliza. I supposed it was Joe's sister.

W. MR. SMITH:

Q Mr. Ross, how old were you in 1865? A About 13 years old, September 9, 1865.

Q Now when were you asked first as to the time when Sam Webber left that country? A When you asked first.

Q Yes? A I think it was last Sunday.

Q Well you didn't know did you? A No, I don't know what day he left there at all.

Q Did you have that opinion then? A Yes, I have the same opinion I got now. It was the best of my opinion they left in the morning. I got nothing to say that day or did not.

Q Where was Sam Webber, Jr. in February 1865? A I don't know.

Q Where was he in October, 1865? A He was on the beach.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, he was there, he hadn't moved, he came down here and went back again to the falls and the whole family was all there on the fall.

Q That was in the fall of 1865 was it? A Yes of 1865.

Q I am talking about 1865. A Well they was there too.

Q Did you see him? A Yes, of course they was there.

Q Of course, well now do you know if you see him? A Yes I saw him.

Q Where did you see Sam Webber in the fall of 1865? A Oh I don't know, he worked some for me.

Q Did he work for you in the fall of 1865? A Worked for my grandfather some.

Q That young Sam Webber? A Yes, sir.

Q You say you knew young Sam Webber, the younger of the two?

A Yes, sir. I knowed young Sam and old Sam too.

Q Did you know young Sam Webber, called Sam Webber, Jr.? A Yes sir, of course I has been a long time from the time I saw him, from the time he left there until I come down here, saw him the first time at about 1865 or thereabouts.

Q What did you say about him being a doctor? I suppose he was a young man, I couldn't say as to that.

Q What about Joe Webber, was he a boy? A Yes sir, he was younger than me, I am not mistaken. I wasn't much difference in the age, but I think he was younger than me.

Q Now is it not a fact that Sam Webber and his father old Sam Webber and Aaron Webber came to the Cherokee Nation in the fall of 1865?

A I think not, I don't think they did, they was there in 1865 but they was going and coming all the time, they came down in 1866 and located.

Q They came in 1866 and located? A Yes sir, but they was here and got their family.

Q Now you know only that they were there in 1865? A I know they were there in 1865.

Q You don't know what time in 1865 they was there? A They were there before 1865.

Q Well I am talking about what was the time in the spring of 1865?

A I couldn't say what time of the year, I don't know they were there all the time.

Q You don't know what time they was there all the time in 1865?

A No, I don't know what time they was there, I don't know what time they was there, I don't know what time they was there.

Q Now you are sure that they was there in the fall of 1865?

A Yes, I am sure they was there in the fall of 1865, I am sure they was there in the fall of 1865, I am sure they was there in the fall of 1865.

Joe Ross (sup'l) 7.

Q Well did they ever come back together? A I don't know whether they did or not; Aaron didn't come back; I don't think.

Q What about Sam Jr., did he come down with his father? A Yes sir, I don't know whether Aaron came back or not; I know Sam and the old man came back and got the family.

Q Do you know that they came back together? A Yes, I am pretty sure that they came back, I know I saw them afterwards.

Q Do you remember of Sam Webber Jr. ever bringing any hides into the country? A No sir, I don't remember; I remember Sam telling me he had his cabin up.

Q When did he tell you he had his cabin up? A In the fall of '66.

Q He had been down here in the fall of 1866 and had built a cabin? A Yes sir, he told me he had his cabin built.

Q And now that final move when they took all the people out you think was in what time? I don't know, but it runs in my mind as February or March; I won't say anything about that.

Q What year? A '67.

Q You say you won't say anything about that? A I don't know whether it was or not.

Q You don't know whether it was or not? A No sir, that is a fact, but it runs in my mind it was.

Q Where was Sam Webber during the winter of 1866 and '67, the winter that commenced with December, 1866 and ends with February, 1867? A I think he was there.

Q Well, did you see him there? A Yes, I think he was there pretty much all the time.

Q Well do you know it? A I got no way to fix it; that's my opinion he was there.

Q You can't state it positively that he was, or was not? A I know most of them was there and I believe he was too.

Q You can't state that positively? A No sir, not unless I got something to fix the date.

Q You won't say that? A No sir.

Q How can you remember about Sam Webber coming up there in the spring of 1866 and bringing some of his hides? A No sir, I can't remember; of course then dates is a long time ago, now I have got these things fixed in my head that was in the fall of '68 I was moving from one farm to the other, and that was in the fall.

Q You didn't go off at that farm? A No sir, just moved from the west to the east side.

Q And you were a boy about 18 years old? A Yes sir.

Q What is there in that to fix the date in your mind it was in 1866 any more than 1865 you moved? A I know we moved from the things that occurred; the death in the family of a young man that was there; I know it was '66.

Q Now about that now, about the death in the family? A There was a young man died in the family in '66, 3 years after we moved there it must have been from the things that he did when we moved from one house, but he didn't move to his house at all.

Q You don't seem to be positive about any of these dates you give?

A Why I do, when the family moved over remember that fact.

Q I mean about Webber's movements? A They was all there in the fall of '66, they was all down in October or November one of the two months, because we moved then.

BY MR. BAKER:

Q Now you were a boy about 18 years old in 1866 did you? A No sir.

MR. BAKER: I object to that, it is not competent whether he moved there or not.

Q Did you ever come down to the farm of 1866? A No sir, I have got no way to fix it.

Q That is your best evidence about that? A Yes sir.

MARY A. BAKER, sworn to and examined by Commissioner Brock.

Joe Ross (sup'1) 2

Q Give me your name, Madam? A Mary A. Hicks is the way I sign my name.

Q How old are you? A If I live to the 31st of next month I will be 67 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Hantawa.

Q Is that in Kansas? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How far do you live from Mound City, Kansas, Mrs. Hicks? A I live 8 miles.

Q How long have you lived in that neighborhood? A Ever since the spring of 1957.

Q Were you living there then after the war? A Living there in the time of the war.

Q Do you know Mr. Walker, Douglas Walker, that has been on the stand? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Mr. Smith that left the stand here? A Yes sir.

Q Mrs. Hicks, did you know of a man up there by the name of Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q How far did you live from him just after the war? A Well I think it was about 105 steps; they used water out of my well.

Q Did you know his son, young Sam Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Well did you know a little short one called Aaron Webber? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a boy called Joe Ross? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A Why I met Joe Ross down there; he said he knew me and come up and shook hands with me and I saw Sam Webber.

Q I will ask you to look if this is the same parties now? A Well I tell you Ross don't favor himself so much, but Joe he is just like his father and I knowed him because he is just like his father; well old uncle Sam was older than Sam is of course.

Q I will ask you if you had any deaths in your own family in the fall of 1966? A Yes sir.

Q What was the date of it? A The date of the death.

Q Yes, madam? A Well it was in October.

Q Did you make any record of it in your Bible? A Yes sir.

Q Is this your Bible? A I reckon it is; if you will let me look I will tell you.

Q Look at it and see if this is your Bible? I think it is, but I can't read it. I haven't got my specs.

Q You haven't got your specs? A No sir.

Q Well at the family record book of births and deaths appear this: "Franklin Hicks, was born November 7, 1894." A Yes sir.

Q And under the column of deaths appear "Died October 23, 1966" A That is correct.

Q Who was Franklin Hicks? A He was my son.

Q Do you know where Sam Webber was when your son Franklin died? A No sir, I could not tell you.

Q Don't know? A No I don't; you mean this Sam?

Q That name? A Oh the old gentleman; he lived up there by me I think; I am not positively he lived there then.

Q Do you know where his wife was? A His wife died there.

Q Well do you know whether she was dead at the date of your son's death? A Yes sir, she died I think before he died; there was an old lady, they called her old aunt Maria, living.

Q She was living? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she a member of this family? A Yes sir, she lived there with them.

Q Well do you know whether she was there during the sickness of your child? A Yes sir, she was up with me several days and if it was a bad night she would come in and sit up with me.

Q Did you have a sister or brother called Charles? A Yes sir.

Q Yes I would like to see you, Mrs. Hicks, as to the time old Sam Webber would call on you and if you had any children from that connection?

MR. SMITH: The applicant objects to the witness giving her opinion as to the time when this sickness took place, because it is not the subject of their expert or opinion evidence.

COMMISSIONER: I understand the question to be her best recollection.

A It has been a long time you know.

Q Well, answer the question? A About him being there?

Q I want to know, the question is, what is your best recollection as to the time Sam Webber and his family, when he left Kansas with his family? A *

OBJECTED to by applicant.

A Well my best recollection was that, I would not be positive of course, but I think it was in February or March, or or the other. The best of my recollection, because the old lady, old aunt Rhoda and uncle Cy, that was her husband, they both was old and feeble and I think old uncle Sam stayed there on that account more than anything as long as he did.

Q Well now that would be February of what year? A It would be '67 wouldn't it?

Q You lived then about 125 yards from them? A Yes sir, I could hear them sing over there and hear them laugh and talk to my house.

Q On whose place were they living? A Well they was living on Mr. Walker's place then.

Q He had recently purchased it? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember who he purchased it of? A I think it was a man by the name of Fleming; I think it was Flemings owned it.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q About how long, Mrs. Hicks, had Mr. Walker owned this place at the time these people lived there? A Well I couldn't answer that question.

Q Well you could tell whether it had been a few months or whether it had been a year or two? A It was, I suppose it may be quite a while; I couldn't tell you.

Q You remember that Mr. Walker owned a place there? A Of course I know he had charge of the land; I think Mr. Walker bought it from Mr. Fleming if I ain't mistaken.

Q And you know these Webbers were living on the Walker place?

A Yes, sir.

Q Well what is your best recollection as to how long Mr. Walker had owned that place? A I don't know; I won't pretend to say anything I don't know; I don't want to meddle with, I didn't come down here to criticize or anything about it; I want to tell the truth as far as I know.

Q Where was young Sam Webber in December, 1865, and up until January or February of 1866? A I could not tell you where he was, I think Sam worked out some around; I couldn't tell you whether he was at home all the time or not; I could not tell you.

Q Where was young Sam Webber at the time your child died? A I couldn't tell you that, that one.

A Yes? A I don't know.

Q He was not there was he? A I don't know, I couldn't say as to that.

Q Do you remember old man Sam Webber and young Sam Webber and Andy Webber and others leaving; Aaron Webber and others leaving that community in 1866 and coming down to the Cherokee Nation? A I recollect only Sam coming down here, I don't know, I won't be positive, I guess, though it was in '66.

Q Tell about how long was it ago, your best recollection, before this date in the fall that you have spoken of? A I don't know.

Q Don't know? A No I don't; but I recollect about it, he brought me back spine wood and ashtrays and.

Q Do you remember young Sam bringing some hides in to the community?

A No sir, I didn't charge my mind with anything like that.

Joe Ross (sup'l) 10

Q Well now give me some idea, Mrs. Hicks, about the time old man Sam Webber started off on this trip to the Cherokee Nation in 1866 that you testified about? A Why I don't know; he come in the fall I reckon.

Q You don't know whether it was fall, summer or spring? A No sir, I don't.

Q Well how is it you have no better recollection of this very time that you mention he came than you have of the first time? A I know he was there when that child of mine died.

Q And you don't know how long after that? A No; they went along the latter part of the winter, but I don't know what time; I think though it was in February or March.

Q You couldn't be positive whether it was February or after Christmas could you? A I don't think it was before Christmas.

Q You don't think that was? A No I can't, for several facts.

Q You can't state positively whether it was before or after Christmas, you can't swear it? A I wouldn't want to swear it either way.

Q Where did you move from to this place that you live? A Where did I move from?

Q How long have you been living at this place now where you lived when your child died? A I have been living on the place ever since the spring of '57.

Q About how long did you remain on the place? A I stay there yet, when I am at home; my husband is dead.

Q Do you know how many trips Sam Webber made to the Cherokee Nation before this time that he came away from there the last time? A No sir, I don't.

Q You know of his coming one time? A I know him and his father and I think Aaron, and I don't know whether Joe was along or not.

Q Well is this Joe? A Well of course; ah that one, Joe Webber that one sitting there?

Q Yes? A I think it is.

Q Which one of them don't look familiar? A That one, he was nothing but a boy when I knew him.

Q Which one, the right one here, the black one? A Yes sir.

Q What is his name? A Joe he always called him.

Q And what is this man right here? A Sam, that is the way we always called him.

Q You think that is the man you knew up there in Kansas? A This Joe? A I don't know, he says it is, he was nothing but a boy when I saw him.

Q You don't recognize him then? A Hardly, I wouldn't know; he says he is the man; I used to think he was a very good boy when they lived there, but then he has grown out of my knowledge.

Q You don't know where the old man Sam Webber was in July '66 do you? A No sir.

Q You remember anything about young Sam Webber coming for the old man and the family in July 1866? A I don't think I have seen them after that but they didn't come down here in July.

Q You don't know when they did come? A No I think they come some time in the latter part of the winter, but I say I would not be certain what month it was, in February or March.

Q You don't be certain it was either of them? A I say they left, I was there and saw them go.

Q You would be certain it was either February or March? A I think they did, I am certain it was February or March.

Q You think so? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HARRIS: A Yes.

Q I was going to ask you if you knew when young Sam Webber married? A They said he married; I didn't see it down.

Q Did you hear of his marrying up there? A Yes sir.

Q Was that before or after he left? A It was before they left.

Joe Rosa

JANE SPEARS, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A Jane Spears.

Q How old are you? A I am 16 years old.

Q What is your post office? A Mound City.

Q In the State of Kansas? A Yes sir Mound City, Kansas.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Mrs. Spears, was Mrs. Hicks who left the stand your mother?

A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in and about Mound City, Kansas, I mean in the neighborhood? A Well I came there when I was about a year old.

Q And have you lived there ever since? A Yes sir, well since I have been married I have just moved one mile north.

Q You moved a mile north of your mother? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Douglass Walker? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know Harry C. Short? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember at an early date just after the war some colored people that lived up there; one of them by the name of Sam Webber?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember his son Sam? A Yes sir, I know him.

Q Were you living with your mother at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Joe, that was living with them, Joe Rosa? A Yes sir.

Q Have you seen any of these parties since you have been here this time? A I met them to-day.

Q Talked with them some? A Well I just spoke to Joe; Sam I did not.

Q Did he recognize you? A Well he let on as though he did; I don't know that he did; I suppose he heard we were here.

Q I will ask you if this is your mother's family Bible? A Yes sir.

Q That is the family record of the births and deaths? A Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if you had a brother by the name of Franklin Hicks?

A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember the date of his death? A Yes sir, October 23, 1866.

Q I will ask you if you know where the Webber family was living at the time he died? A Yes sir, they were living there.

Q About how far from your mother's? A About 175 steps I suppose, in a cabin.

Q Short distance? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know Aaron Webber, a little short legged duck legged fellow? A Yes sir.

Q I would like to know from you Mrs. Spears your best recollection as to the time old man Sam Webber left that country permanently with his family? A

BY MR. SMITH: The counsel for the applicant objects to that question, because it is incompetent and calls for the opinion of the witness.

COMMISSIONER: The counsel for the applicant has put a number of questions in the same form and asked as to their best recollection that exists; it is entirely competent to give the best recollection and belief in regard to the facts.

Q My best recollection is that it was in the spring of '67, either February or March.

Q Did you know whether or not young Sam Webber married up there?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know whether that was before or after they left there?

A That was before they left there.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Spears, did you know Sam Webber, Sr., leaving that country and coming to the Cherokee Nation, or leaving that country for the Cherokee Nation before the time you mention? A He came in the fall I think, or summer sometime and got a claim I think.

member so much about the men; there was an old lady that moved down here with the men that sat up with my brother in his sickness.

Q Do you remember Sam Webber bringing you any sassafras and spice switch up there? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A That was the first time they came down.

Q When was it? A That was in '66.

Q What month? A I don't know.

Q Can you state within two months of the time? A No I don't know as I could.

Q Can you remember that as well as you could the other time? A (No response).

Q You know that they were gone from there before the spring of '67, and it must have been in '66 they brought the sassafras? A Yes sir.

Q What was it, sassafras roots? A Yes sir.

Q That must have been in the spring? A I don't know.

Q Well they don't make sassafras in the fall? A We used it for tea

Q It was not in the spring at all Sam Webber brought the sassafras?

A No sir, it was not; he didn't bring it at all; the old gentleman brought it.

Q Well now as a matter of fact do you remember any one of these people being there at the time your brother was sick and died except the old woman Rhoda? A Well this family was there on the place; I don't remember them being there.

Q Well if they were you tell me who you saw except Rhoda the old woman? A Well I don't know as I remember. There was Johnson's wife, of course I don't just remember who was there, I was just a child then; there was a great many of the neighbors in, but I remember the old lady, sitting up with my brother at the time he was sick.

Q Now isn't it a fact that the old lady Rhoda is the only one you remember being there at the time? A No sir.

Q Now who else was there? A Chlora was there.

Q Well now name some other one, all you know that was there? A I don't know, I don't remember them, there was hardly any day but what they was there, some of them.

Q Well now what I want to know, who was there except this woman, Rhoda? A I don't know anything about that.

Q You don't know? A No sir.

Q How many trips did the Webbers make down here to this country, do you know? A They came once and got claims and came back and went again.

Q All you know of? A Yes sir.

Q If they made others you don't know it? A No sir, I don't know anything about any more trips they made.

Q Now when was this entry in this Bible, the date of your brother's death, made, was that made at the time? A Just when he died?

Q Yes? A I don't know as it was, I suppose about the time.

Q Well about when, do you know who wrote that? A I know who wrote that?

Q That is what I am talking about? A This was drawn off from another Bible.

Q You don't think that this entry, "Lizzie Bell Lewis, born September 1st, 1868" is in the same handwriting that this is do you?

A No sir.

Q You don't know that this is in the same handwriting? A No sir, it is not.

Q Now who wrote that date, October 23, 1866? A Park Nichols.

Q Well now can you tell me how nearly at the time of your brother's death that entry was made? A No sir, I could not.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q How long has this Bible been in your mother's possession? A I can't tell.

Q Has this entry been in here a long time to your knowledge? A Yes sir, it has been several years.

Q It was in there long before any investigation came up wasn't it?

A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Didn't Sam Webber and his father come down here in '65? A If they did I never missed them from home.

Q If they came here you didn't miss them? A No sir.

MARY A FICKS, re-called for additional cross examination.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q Mrs. Ficks, when was the entry upon this Bible you have with regard to the date of the death of your child made with reference to his death? A Well, I don't just remember when it was; it was not long.

Q Was it put there at or about the time he died? A Why it was not long after he died.

Q Well give us your best judgment as to how long? A Well he died that fall and I don't know just how long it was.

Q Well was it as much as a month? A I won't say sir.

Q You can give some sign? A Well I tell you now, I won't say anything when I don't know anything.

Q I thought probably you might know better than I do, as I know nothing about it? A If I knew when I set it down I would recollect it; I have had a good deal of trouble about it.

Q I don't want to cause you any trouble about it, but I would like to know, if it is some importance in this case? A There was a young man working for us that set it down.

Q What was his name? A His name was Nichols.

Q Do you remember how long after your child died before Nichols went to work for you? A No sir.

Q Well when it was set down what was it set down from, your recollection? A Why I had a husband then and all of us recollected it, who wouldn't recollect it?

Q I am asking you how long it was before this entry was made, if you can tell me? A I don't know when.

Q Do you think it was as much as two years? A No sir.

Q It was not? A No sir, if I should guess at anything about it I should think it was along in the summer sometime, I should think now; afterwards this young man was breaking prairie and of course he broke it in the winter.

Q Was this the first place it was made where it was made here in this Bible? A Yes sir.

MR. SMITH: If the Court please, I want to show by the title page of the Bible that it was not published until in 1869.

COMMISSIONER: The title page has been examined and it shows that the edition of the Bible in evidence was published in Philadelphia in the year 1869.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Do you remember, independent of the Bible, of the dates of your son's death? A Yes sir.

Q You didn't attempt to give distinctly when that entry was made in your Bible? A No sir.

Q You so stated? A Yes sir.

BY MR. SMITH: I object to that; it is leading.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation ask that the testimony of Sam Webber, recalled, in the case of Jefferson Ross and others, Freedman D-872, be made a part of the record in this case.

COMMISSIONER: It is ordered that the testimony just taken be filed in supplemental testimony in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 408, the same being the case of Clara Grayson, and it will likewise be filed in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 216, the case of Aaron Webber, and in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 350, the same being the case of Joe Ross.

It is further ordered that a set of all the testimony given by Sam Webber in Cherokee Freedman Doubtful case 872, the same being the case of Jefferson Ross, be filed in case Cherokee Freedman D-350, of Joe Ross, and in Cherokee Freedman D-406, of Chisum Grayson, and in Cherokee Freedman D-216, of Aaron Webber.

Joe Ross (sup'1) 35

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in this case, as dictated to him from the stand by the notes of JOHN C. Rosson, by said Rosson, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Jefferson Ross for the ... ment of himself and four children as Cherokee Freedmen.

Appearances:

Mallette & Smith, attorneys for applicants;
W. W. Hastings, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

Sam Webber, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

Mr. Smith: What is your name? A Sam Webber.

Q How old are you? A About 38.

Q Where do you live? A I live about two miles west of here.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born and raised here, and after the war came back.

Q Do you know this applicant, Jefferson Ross? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you acquainted with him before the war? A No, sir, I wasn't acquainted with him before the war.

Q When did you first know him? A I got acquainted with him just after the war.

Q Where? A Here in the Nation.

Q About what part of the Nation? A He came to my house there on Big Creek in the Nation.

Q What time? A Along in the spring of '67.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge when he first came back to the Territory after the war? A No, sir, I don't know of my own knowledge.

Q Do you know where he was living at the time he came to your house? A He had been working on Big Creek he claimed and he was on his way hunting his sister.

Q Did you ever see after you saw him that time? A I put him on the trail down to his sister's and I never saw him for quite a little bit from that; when I saw him he was there on Lightening Creek.

Q Did you see him after that at his sister's? A I saw him then often and on for near about two years I guess.

Q Where? A There at Lightening Creek.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
 Q Was he a married or a single man at that time? A He was a single man to my knowledge.
 Q Do you know where he is living now? A No, sir, I don't.
 Mr. Hastings: You saw him around here for about two years?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q Then how long was it till you saw him again, Sam? A I remember after that of seeing him on Big Creek again.
 Q How long after that? A Must have been six months of a year after that I met him again there.
 Q You know where he was married? A No, sir, I can't tell you.
 Q Was he married at that time? A If he was I didn't know it.
 Q Did you know his wife? A No, sir, I don't know his wife.
 Q Did you ever see his wife? A Not to know it was her.
 Q Has this man ever kept house to your knowing? A When I saw him he was to his sister's.
 Q What was her name? A Katie Thornton.
 Q You never saw him in a separate, independent house, keeping house with his family? A No, sir, never did.
 Q What is his occupation? A I can't tell you.
 Q Did you ever see him making a crop anywhere? A I never saw him farming, I have seen him working for people around there.
 Q He never made a crop to your knowledge? A No, sir, not to my knowledge.
 Q Has he got any special occupation like a carpenter? A Not as I know of.
 Q What is Katie Thornton's husband named? A Henry Thornton.
 Q Was that her husband at that time? A Yes, sir.
 Q With whom does this man stay now? A I don't know that.
 Q You never saw him anywhere except around to his sister's? A That is all I have noticed him.
 Q Did he have any children when you saw him? A I never saw them if he did.
 Q You don't know where his family were, if he had any? A No, sir.

Sam Webber, re-called, testified as follows:
 Mr. Hastings: Mr. Webber, when were you first married? A When I first married, I married just a short while after the war, I don't remember what year.
 Q Before you came down here? A After I came down here.
 Q Well, about how many years after you came down here? A It wasn't a year I guess after I came here.
 Q Well, you know what time of the year you were married? A I was married along in the winter.
 Q Was that the same winter you came, or the winter of '67? A It was along about it, I think in '67, it was after Christmas.
 Q You mean in January of '67 or the last part of '67? A It was along after Christmas, I don't remember the date.
 Q What was your wife named? A My wife at that time was Linda Martin.
 Q When did you commence keeping house? A I went in my house when I first came there.
 Q You and your wife keeping house separate and apart? A I was keeping house when I was single, I built me a little house, and was living in there.
 Q What time in the year did you and your wife move into that house? A We moved right in the house after we were married.
 Q And you don't remember when that was, what time of the year? A Along after Christmas, I was already in the house.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he made the forgoing copy and that the same is a true and complete copy of the original transcript.

Page 175, No. 2852, Reuben Sanders, Cowaswowa district.

Q Did you ever have to carry the question of your citizenship before any court? A Yes sir.
 Q What court? A The Chambers court.
 Q Is that the only one? A Yes sir that is the only one; I was admitted by the Chambers Court.

Q Where was it sitting? A At Tahlequah.
 Q In what year was that? A I cannot tell what year it was Q Your citizenship had been disputed had it? A Yes sir.
 Q When was your right to citizenship first disputed? A It was during the time that Charles Ochseltz was chief.
 Q Was that before the 1880 roll was made? A Yes sir.
 Q Did the court decide in your favor? A Yes sir.
 Q Was there any dispute made then about your being put on the 1880 roll? A No sir.
 Q Were you required to show a copy of the decision of the court in your favor when you went to enroll in 1880? A No sir.
 Q Did they ask you any questions when you went to be enrolled in 1
 1880? A No sir.
 Q Where did they take your name? A I was in Goodenack Farm, at the time.
 Q Do you know the applicant Elizabeth Meigs? A Yes sir.
 Q Your wife is her daughter? A Yes sir.

By W. W. Hastings:

Q Peter Meigs' citizenship was disputed the same time yours was? A Yes sir.
 Q Did he go before the court at the same time? A No sir, I think not.
 Q His wife's citizenship was also disputed? A I judge so.
 Q Did she go before that court? A Not to my knowledge.
 Q Did he go down to Tahlequah to the court before that time? A Yes sir I think he went down to the Hon. Daniels' court, think he went with my father.
 Q Was Bob Daniels Chief Justice of that court? A Yes sir.
 Q Just a few years after the war? A Yes sir.
 Q In 1877 wasn't it? A Yes sir.
 Q Was any polling taken in that court? A I don't know.
 Q You were not there yourself? A No sir.
 Q You were about 12 or 13 years old when you came back? A Yes sir
 I guess so, I don't exactly know how old I was.
 Q You were not married then? A No sir.
 Q How long before you got home before you married?
 A Not very long after I got back.
 Q Did you marry on your way down here? A No sir.
 Q How long did you live here before you married? A I have been married to her.
 Q How long had you been here before you married the first time? A
 A Not very long.
 Q As much as a year? A May be so.
 Q Is that your best judgment? A My best judgment is perhaps that it was that long.
 Q When have you married to your present wife? A Towards or 30 years, or so.
 Q How long did you live with your first wife? A Not very long, she died.
 Q A year? A Perhaps it was, maybe a little longer.
 Q Then you married your present wife? A Yes sir.
 Q When you came to the Cherokee Nation how did you come the first time? A In wagon.
 Q The first time? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you? A Several were on horse-back, it is beyond my knowledge how many there were.
 Q Tell all you can remember? A We made a trip in August and one in October and then we moved here in the winter.
 Q Did you come in August? A Yes sir.
 Q Who came with you then? A Some of this family, Peter Meigs and got his place, the heads of these families.

Q Who else came with you? A My brother Dan and the Whitmires.
 Q Which ones? A Several.
 Q Which ones? A Mose and Donals, and the Webbers.
 Q Name them? A Old man Sam and younger Sam and little Aaron, and a man named Abe Thomas, and Abe Hall, and I dont know who else, I dont know who all come.
 Q Who come when you come in October? A I dont know who all come then, some of that same crowd and some more come in October.
 Q Do you remember any additional persons? A To the best of my knowledge the Smith family.
 Q What was his first name? A Old man Genser Smith.
 Q You come in both of the detachments yourself? A No sir.
 Q Which one did you come in? A I come in August.
 Q You didn't come in October then? A Yes sir, I come when we first come; we brought some of our farming utensils when we come in August and left the on the creek.
 Q On Big Creek? A Yes sir.
 Q Where Mrs. Heigs lives? A Yes sir.
 Q And you returned in October, how long did you stay in October.
 Q We all didn't return in October, we didn't all go back, some staid in August, some staid and some came back; some of us brought our things with us and some came to look but home, we all come with the intention of making our homes here.
 Q When did you afterwards move here the last time? A In the winter of '66 is when we came down here the last time.
 Q What time in the winter? A Long in January.
 Q You mean in '67.
 Q No, in the winter of '66.
 Q If you come here in the August and October of '66 and then returned for your families and came back here in the following winter, in the following January or February, that would be in '67? A I dont understand you; we came here in the winter of '66 is what I said, in January after we had first been here in August and October, we came right to where Mrs. Heigs is living now.

By the Commission:

Q You say you first came here in August of '66? A Yes sir.
 Q That was your first coming was it? A Yes sir.

Q When you moved here permanently, tell all that you possible can remember of who came with you in the January or February following?
 A This family is one, her, the Heigs family, Peter Heigs, Elizabeth Heigs, Mary Heigs, George Heigs, Eliza Heigs, Harriett Heigs, Henry Heigs, that is all that I can remember of that family.
 Q I dont mean only of that family, there were other families were there not? A Old man Billie Forman.
 Q Who else? A He had several children.
 Q The heads of families I mean? A Fannie Sanders; I dont recollect them all; I dont know as I can call the names of all of them.
 Q Were any of the Webbers along? A Yes sir.
 Q Old man Sam and young Sam? A Yes sir, I would not pretend to call them all over as I had forgotten them Webbers and so I cant remember for if I had forgotten them I dont think I can remember any of the others.

By the Commission:

Q Did old man Sam Webber come? A Yes sir.
 Q Did young Sam come? A Yes sir.

By the Commission:

- Q Dont you remember any one else? A Rachel Webber.
- Q Do you think of any one else? A No sir.

Q Did he go there by himself? A No sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that you came here in August the first time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember distinctly that Peter came with you in August and made your third and last trip? A Yes sir.

Q With his family? A Yes sir.

By Com'r Breckinridge,-

The applicant states that she was a slave in the Cherokee Nation from the time the Cherokees moved to the Indian Territory in 1837 until she was liberated by the Civil war. She is identified on the Kerns-Clifton roll and on the Wallace roll, but not on the 1880 roll or upon the roll of 1896. The testimony indicated that her husband first returned to the Cherokee Nation after the war, coming from Kansas in August of 1886, that he came at that time to prepare for the bringing of his family back to the Cherokee Nation. He is now deceased, but he and the applicant were married at that time and had several children. The testimony further indicated that the applicant's husband made a trip back to Kansas in October, but not with a view of relinquishing his purpose to bring his family to the Cherokee Nation, but apparently to get provisions. It further appears that he returned to the Cherokee Nation with his wife and children in the following month of February. There is some conflict of testimony in regard to this matter, but so far that is the weight of the testimony. It also appears that proceedings may have been had by some Cherokee Court, either a citizenship court or the Cherokee Supreme Court, prior to the date of the Chambers Court, affecting the citizenship of this applicant and her husband and all those who may claim through them. It will be necessary to take ~~further~~ further inquiry upon this point, and if possible to get an official copy of the record. Under these conditions, the applicant will now be listed for enrollment on a doubtful card and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

Vinita, I. T., May 22, 1901.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Meigs for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman;
REUBEN SANDERS, having been before sworn by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give your name? A Reuben Sanders.
Q How old are you? A I am only about 50 past.
Q You gave testimony just now in the case of Elizabeth Meigs?
A Yes sir.
Q And you want to correct a statement you made there? A Yes sir, I wish to make the statement that it was in January, 1867 when we made the last move, about the first of the month; it was the following August in 1866; we had been here in August you know, in '66 and in October, and we made the last move in '67, January, and I put it down February I think; I wanted to say January.
Q How do you find out now it was January instead of February?
A It was just after Christmas that we was on the road coming down.
Q How long after Christmas? A Perhaps a week after Christmas; my reason for stating this is this, along Christmas- a few days before Christmas there was a man got killed named Hayford, and there was a gentleman killed him, a colored man killed that man Hayford, a man by the name of Mackey, and we started then right shortly after that killing was, and the parties followed us, thinking he was with us, in our crowd, that was just the following- a few days after Christmas, a week, or after Christmas.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W. W. Hastings:

- Q How old are you? A Well I just don't know my age exactly, I suppose that I am about 50 years old; something in that line.
Q Where did you say that killing took place? A In Kansas.
Q Fort Scott? A Yes sir.
Q And the man that was accused of the killing was named what? A Named Mackey.
Q You remember his first name? A No.
Q You remember the man who was killed, you get his first name? A No sir I don't.
Q Did you ever learn afterwards whether or not that man was caught, do you know? A It seems to me like I learned afterwards that the man was caught. No I don't know nothing about that part of it.
Q You know what county Ft. Scott is in? A No sir.
Q Who called your attention to this ~~error~~ error? A I thought so myself; I called my own attention to it; I was studying over it, I did.
Q You know now it was only a few days after Christmas? A Yes sir, a few days after Christmas.

Com'r Breckinridge: This statement will be filed as supplemental in the Elizabeth Meigs case, to be considered in connection with the former statement of the witness, and the other evidence relating to the date in question.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of Elizabeth Meigs et al. for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen.

Testimony introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, agent for the applicant;
J. S. Davenport, of counsel for Cherokee Nation.

L. T. Brown: I would like to have the record show that sometime next week the applicant intends to introduce as witnesses in this case, Aaron Wright, Reuben Sanders, Dan Sanders, and Sam Webber, for the purpose of showing that all the applicants in this case returned to the Cherokee Nation during the time prescribed by the Ninth Article of the Treaty of 1866.

Commissioner Needles: Hasn't that already been shown?

L. T. Brown: And that they have had a continuous residence in this country since that year.

Commissioner: Well, that is all right.

ROBERT MEIGS, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows.

Mr. Davenport: What is your name? A Robert Meigs.

Q Where do you live? A I live five miles southwest of Tahlequah.

Q What is your postoffice? A Park Hill is my postoffice.

Q How old are you? A I am 56 my next birthday.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I have lived here all my life except a little while time of the war, from '64 to '65.

Q Did your people own any slaves before the war? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether they owned a woman by the name of Elizabeth?

A No sir.

Q Do you know whether or not they owned her mother, or anybody of the family? A Elizabeth, no, sir.

Q Well, did you know Peter Meigs? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what his wife's name was when the war broke out?

A Betsy they called her.

Q Well, was she living, Betsy, at the time the war broke out?

A Yes, sir.

Q Well, did you ever know her by any other name than Betsy?

A Bettie.

Q Where was Peter Meigs and his family at the breaking out of the war? A Well Peter was with us at home at the breaking out, but he and his wife was up there somewhere near the Dutch Hills on the Arkansas line.

Q Well I wish you would look at that woman there and see if she is the woman you knew as Betsy or Bettie or whatever you knew her by (indicating applicant)? A Yes, I think that is the one, I have never seen her but once.

Q That is since the war? A I just saw her once in my life and that was time of the war, after the war.

Q Did you ever see Peter Meigs and his family after the war? A Yes sir, saw Uncle Peter.

Q What year was that? A Sometime after '71.

Q What were the circumstances as to your seeing him or meeting him?

Q Why he had to come down to Council to see about fixing up his rights, and he came down to visit my brother John, we were right together, and I went up there to see him.

Q Did you have a conversation with him or did he have a conversation with your brother John in your hearing where he and his wife were present in regard to his right or when he returned? A Yes sir.

Q Give that conversation as near as you can.

L. T. Brown: The applicant objects to this witness relating any conversation he might have had with Peter Meigs, for the reason that Peter Meigs is dead and cannot affirm or deny this statement.

Commissioner: The objection will be noted and the witness will answer.

Q Go ahead and state what the conversation was between you? A He was talking about returning, he said he came down here in the fall of '66 and started to make him a place somewhere on Big Creek and his family wasn't with him, and afterwards when he returned why it was too late when he brought his family.

Q Did you ever see any other members of his family excepting he and his wife at the time you speak of? A No, sir, just him and his wife is all, I wasn't acquainted with the children.

Q Do you know where he was living at that time? A He said he was living on Big Creek somewhere.

Q That was in what year? A This was after '71 sometime, I don't know just what time it was.

By L. T. Brown: Now what did you say that conversation was, Mr. Meigs? A Why he said that he had come down to make him a place somewhere up here on the Verdigris, or Big Creek, and he started to make him a cabin, and put up the wall, and then went back for the family.

Q He told you that he came down and started him a little cabin with the intention of making him a home in the fall of '66? A He said he came down and started to make him a home.

Q In the fall of '66? A Yes, in the fall of '66.

Mr. Davenport: Well, what did he do after he started that home, did he say, after he started that cabin? A Went back after his family.

Q And he stayed up there till when he came back down here it was too late, is that what he told you? A Yes, sir.

L. T. Brown: How long did he tell you he stayed up there in Kansas after he made the first trip? A He didn't state, I believe he gave but one date.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SAMUEL BECK as a Cherokee freedman; introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation.

Appearances:

L. T. Brown, Vinita, I. T., Agent for Applicant;
J. S. Davenport, Cherokee representative.

L. B. BELL, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Bell? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q How long have you lived in and near Vinita? A Oh, since '67, including most of '67.
Q Was there any railroad running in or through Vinita when you first moved into that community? A No, sir.
Q When did the railroad first come through that country, Mr. Bell?
A In 1871.
Q You know this applicant, Sam Beck? A No, I don't know him.
Q Don't know anything about him? A No, sir.
Q Was you living in that country before the railroad started from Kansas through the Indian Territory, that is, the K. K. & T.?
A Well, I will tell you what I know about the railroad; The railroad came through the country in 1870, and on the application of the Cherokee Nation, a complaint to the Secretary of the Interior, they stopped building and during the session after 1870 of the National Council of the Cherokee Nation, they passed an Act there, it is dated the 14th of December, 1870, authorizing the furnishing of cross-ties to the railroad, and agreeing that the railroad could go through. The secretary hadn't determined which had the right-of-way. They had begun it in 1870 and the K. K. & T. got the right-of-way, and then they authorized the selling of cross-ties, and I went to Okotopa and made a contract with the company for cross-ties enough to build from the Kansas line to Pryor Creek and sublet it.
Mr. Martin was one I sublet to, that was in 1870 that contract was made, I don't recollect the exact date. Well, just a few days following that we began getting cross-ties and then worked on down to the Creek Nation. That was the first railroad built in the country and first cross-ties was cut on the railroad in this country.
Q You don't know anything about the wife of Beck or anything about them? A No, I don't.

C. D. MARTIN, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:
MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A C. D. Martin.
Q Where do you live? A At Tahlequah.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation?
A I was born and raised here, never left except during the war.

Q Where did you live before moving to Tanlequah? A Lived on Grand river east of Choteau about ten miles.

Q Do you know Samuel Beck, the applicant in this case, or his family? A No, sir.

Q Where were you living along the latter part of the sixties or early part of the seventies? A On the Grand river.

Q Do you know about the year the K. K. & T. railroad built from Chetopa, Kansas, down through the Territory? A It must have been the latter part of '71 or '72.

Q Had you any connection with it any way that makes you remember it? A Yes, sir, I had a contract on the road, beginning at Bryant's lake, down this way.

Q And that was in what years it built down there? A The ties was put in there in the spring, latter part; it was in the spring of '71.

BY ATTORNEY BROWN:

Q You don't know the applicant, Mr. Markham? A No, sir, I don't.

Q You don't know to whom he belonged before the war or when he returned to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir.

Commissioner: This testimony will also be filed in and made a part of the record in Cherokee Freedman case No. D.391.

"Another Murder."

Shooting of Dr. Hayford.

Testimony given before the coroner.

On Saturday night, the 22nd inst., after dark, Mr. Dyer Hayford, of this city, was found murdered. A colored man, named Eli Mackey, has been arrested, and is in jail, charged with the crime. There would not seem to be much, if any, doubt of his guilt. Mr. Hayford has been a resident of Fort Scott for several years, has kept a grocery and provision store on the corner of William and Miller Streets, and was a very quiet, unobtrusive man. The facts of his murder as we learn them, are these:

On Saturday, about dark, the back of a store which Mr. Hayford had placed on the corner, outside the door of his store, was stolen. Being raised almost immediately, and learning that the boy had taken it, and was then on his way home with it, (Mackey resides near Fort Scott mill,) Mr. Hayford jumped on a horse and started toward the mill. He had not been gone more than twenty or thirty minutes before several shots were fired, on the road between the city and the mill, where Mr. Hayford lay found on the ground, in the last agonies of death. He had received four shots from a weapon, evidently a revolver.

Suspicion was at once directed to Mackey and he was arrested. As the news spread through the city, the excitement and the indignation was great, and many threats of lynching Mackey were made; but wiser and better counsels prevailed, and there was no disturbance.

On Sunday, Justice Barrows was called on to hold a coroner's inquest. A jury was empanelled, consisting of Messrs. D. F. Drake, Joseph Ray, Frank Gough, Porter Phillips, John Warden, and E. L. Phillips. The body of Mr. Hayford having been removed to his late residence, the jury proceeded to inquire into the cause of his death. We give the principal part of the testimony given before the jury.

Drs. J. S. Red told me D. F. Appleby had a post-mortem examination, and testified that they found four pistol or gun-shot wounds on the body and face of Mr. Hayford, then lying dead before them. One shot entered the region of the stomach which came out over the liver, in the side of the back. This wound bears evidence that the pistol was held close to the body when discharged. Two other wounds found on the body were about two inches above the left nipple and about an inch and a half apart - one ball passing through, coming out below the left shoulder, the other hanging downward, and was found close to the spinal column, a few inches below the lower ribs on the left side of the body. The fourth ball entered the upper part of the chin, not fracturing the bone, and lodged in the right shoulder. (evidently fired, as I think, after he was on the ground.) The surgeon testified that any of the three wounds found on his body would have been fatal.

Alonzo Cullin, (colored) sworn - was at Hayford's Saturday evening, just after six o'clock, came on horseback, left by horse at the door, went in and found Hayford alone and coming toward the door. Eli Mackey, colored, was standing on the walk when I went into Hayford's; a sack of flour was standing on the back of the door when I went in; Hayford came out and the flour was gone. I asked who was there when I came in, and I told him; asked him to get on my horse and follow Mackey and see if he had the flour; did so; rode very fast and overtook Mackey at the mill, going toward the mill; he had stopped and the sack of flour was on the ground beside him; his coat was off and thrown over the flour but the end of the sack was in sight; I rode close to him; he put his hands up to his sides and was blowing right and left; I inquired if he had a steer with a rope on his neck; he said no; I rode back toward Hayford's and told him Mackey had the flour and where it was; Hayford said he would go and get the flour, and asked me for my gun; he got on and rode down the road; he had been gone a good while before I heard the firing; he had been gone long enough to ride to the mill and back to the place where he was shot; before I heard the firing. When I saw Mackey at Hayford's he was on a soldier's coat, it was of m. s. I found him with the flour. Didn't notice that at any time Mackey had any arms or weapons with him; saw him again after he was arrested, a short time after Hayford was killed; he then had a different coat. He asked what he was arrested for; he was told, for stealing flour; he asked who had got him with the flour; he was then told he had shot Hayford, and he said he had nothing to shoot with. I know that he generally carried a revolver; when I saw him with the flour I didn't notice whether he had one or not. When Hayford started from the mill, he said he would go and get Mr. Hyatt to go with him to get the flour; from the place where I saw Mackey with the flour to that where Hayford was shot, is about one hundred yards. I heard these words distinctly.

Harry Lender, (Coker) sworn - Saturday evening heard several shots fired. Was at home, lived near the mill close by Eli Mackey. About twenty minutes after the shots were fired Mackey came to my door; asked me if his wife was there; told him no. He seemed to be in a hurry. He had on a black soldier's coat; the shooting sounded as if it was south from my house, and about the place where Hayford was found; someone rode down to Mackey's and returned about fifteen minutes, before the shots were fired. Saw the coat which Mackey wore when he came to my house, at his house afterward. - Do not know whether he had any revolver then or not, he usually carries one, have seen him have one several times. I did not notice any flour on his coat. It was a navy revolver which Mackey usually carried. He also owns a gun, didn't see that at his house that night. When Mackey left my house he went to his house, and soon afterward heard him going back to town, whistling. Mr. Jones found the sack of flour at the edge of the creek, looked as if thrown down the bank. Was found about twenty yards from Mackey's house. Saw Mackey have a revolver on Friday the day before Hayford was killed.

R. C. H. Myers, sworn - I live about 100 yards west of Eli Mackey's. - Saturday night was at home sick abed; a man came to my house and inquired for me; I heard him and knew by his voice that it was Mr. Hayford; have known him several years. He left and my wife said he rode in a northerly direction, that is the way from my house to Mackey's. About five minutes after he left I heard four distinct shots. From the sound thought they were about 150 yards off and southwest from my house. After the firing heard someone walking past, whistling; he was going towards town.

Stephen Looney, (col.) sworn - After dark Saturday night I saw Eli Mackey at Smith's saloon. He asked me to play cards with him that night. He went out and I told him not to stay long. I waited a good bit and Mackey didn't come back and I went out and called him; he didn't answer; I then went over to Hayford's and learned that a sack of flour had been stolen. Didn't notice whether Hayford was there or not. Adams Gullin told me he saw Mackey on the road towards home, and that Mackey heard me call, but wouldn't answer. Didn't see Mackey again until Mr. Jones had arrested him, and brought him up to town. When I saw Mackey at Smith's he had on a soldier's frock coat; he had a revolver on him then; it was a navy revolver. When I saw him after he was arrested, I think he had on a different coat.

Daniel O'Hall, sworn - Saturday night I was at Kippy's and heard a shot fired, and soon after heard a man hailed; ran out and another shot was fired before I got out; immediately after heard another shot and saw the flash of a pistol down in the bottom toward the mill. Alex Harris, Westly Dickey and myself ran down the road. We found a man lying on his side; his face was turned downward; he was alive but could not speak. From the scene I saw it was a pistol that was fired. Came to town to find Mr. James, Deputy Marshal.

The coroner's jury returned to the justice their indictment, stating that Hayford came to his death by gun shot wounds received at the hands of Eli Mackey. They also found that Mackey had feloniously and wilfully fired the revolver at Mr. Hayford with intent to kill him.

Mackey will have his examination soon, before Justice Warrave, and will be brought to court for trial at the next April term of the District court. Mackey is said to be a very dangerous man; he was raised in the Cherokee Nation; and is said to be part Cherokee. He is also accused of having assassinated two men in the Nation, before he came to Fort Scott.

and he was once before arrested here, for shooting at a man; but before his trial came off the prosecuting witness left for parts unknown, and Mackey was discharged without trial. Let him be tried for the offence with which he now stands charged, and if guilty he should expiate his crime on the gallows."

MR. HASTINGS: I desire to introduce an editorial from the Fort Scott Monitor of date February, 27, 1867, as follows:

"Eli Mackey, colored, accused of the murder of Dyer Hayford, confined in our jail, to await his trial at the next term of the District Court, for murder in the first degree, escaped last evening, and up to the time of going to press this morning, has not been heard of. A reward of two hundred dollars is offered for his apprehension."

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation offers in evidence the following from the Fort Scott Monitor of Wednesday, March 27, 1867:

"A Chapter of Horrors.

Murderer of Hayford Captured and Hung.

Tragical events connected with the affair.

The history of our community for the past week is replete with horrors, such as will, for long days to come, overshadow the hearts of our citizens with gloom.

A few weeks ago, we published an account of the escape of Eli Mackey, the black fiend, who last winter murdered Dyer Hayford. Ever since that time the officers of justice have been on the alert with a view of his recapture, and on Wednesday, the 20th inst., Deputy Sheriff Wheaton, having learned that the murderer was concealed in his brother's house, about five miles northeast of this city, started, in company with his son, Charles F. Wheaton, Edward Coe - who were on police duty in this city - and Benj. Files, for the purpose of capturing him.

On arriving at the house, Messrs. Coe and Wheaton, Jr., approached and ordered the wretch to surrender. In return he fired several shots through the partially open door, and then ran out of the house into the open prairie. Coe, being nearest, received the first shots that were fired. He stepped to the corner of the house, sat down and expired in about fifteen minutes. Immediately after Charles Wheaton received a ball in the right side and fell to the ground. For some time no hope was entertained for his recovery; but at the present writing his condition is improved, and his friends entertain some hopes that he will live.

In the mean time a number of the neighbors had gone around and headed by Capt. Curtis Johnson, Mr. Files and Mr. Dickinson started in pursuit. The murderer, with a gun and revolver in his hands, ran fleetly across the prairie, firing at his pursuers as he ran, and dropping down to load as fast as his weapon became empty. Finally, when nearly dead from the wounds he received from his pursuers, he signified his readiness to surrender; but even after they approached him his bloodthirsty spirit was not satisfied, and he fired the two remaining shots in his revolver at the crowd. Fortunately, no one was injured, though Mr. Dickinson had part of his coat shot off. After the murderer was secured he was taken back to the house from which he had fled and hung by the neck until he was dead. Before his death he tried to implicate an innocent negro in the murder of Mr. Hayford, but having been caught in the falsehood, he confessed to having committed the deed himself. He also confessed to having killed five other men, and also to having shot at Major Jefford last winter. All reports indicate that he has always been a character of a thoroughly a parallel in the annals of history for desperation and bloodthirstiness. -- We are informed that at one time, in the Cherokee Nation, 25 men attempted to arrest him but failed on account of his desperation. The colored people, who knew him, were terrible afraid of him. Kistow has seldom presented a character so utterly lost even to every sentiment of humanity.

As a general rule, we have always deprecated the taking of life except by due process of law, as dangerous to the peace and quiet of the community and to the best interests of society. We have always found that nothing but the most extreme necessity would justify it, but we believe in this instance that necessity existed; for every moment this desperado was allowed to live, endangered the lives of good citizens. We learn that the house he occupied was since burned to the ground. The sufferers from their attempt to arrest him, were among the best of our young men. As members of the police force of this city they have performed their duties faithfully. Generous and brave to a fault, the death of one and the danger to the other creates a spirit of sadness that cannot soon be eradicated.

The body of Mr. Coe was brought into the city, and on Friday after a funeral sermon by Mr. Irwin was escorted by a large procession, headed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, to the cemetery where it was interred.

Sequel.

On Thursday night a crowd of about fifty men, still laboring under the excitement growing out of the tragedy of Wednesday, entered the jail and having possessed themselves of the keys took Jackson Mackey and Harry Vain -- on the brother who harbored the murderer and the other charged with furnishing provisions and aiding in his concealment, to the ravine near the poorhouse and hung them to a tree where their lifeless bodies were found next morning. So quietly was this done that few in the city except those who participated knew of it until the next morning.

Benjamin Files, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What's your name? A Benjamin Files.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A Kansas, yes, sir.

Q Were you living there at the close of the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Were you living there in '66, December? A I have lived there ever since '32.

Q Did you know Dyer Hayford? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you known him before December '66? A Yes sir; I had known him in the neighborhood of two years before that and knew him up until that time.

Q Was he killed? A He was killed at Fort Scott.

Q Was he killed in the town? A He was killed just at the brink of the hill along in the mouth. Yes, sir he was killed in the city just about the brink of the hill.

Q About what time of the day was he killed? A He was killed just after dark, just dark.

Q Do you know who killed him, who was said to have killed him, who was accused of killing him? A Yes, sir.

Q Who? A Ed Mackey.

Q Was he a colored man? A Yes sir, he was.

Q Did you assist in his arrest? Yes, sir.

Q Who arrested him? Myself and a man we called Deacon Jones.

Q That this other man here with you? A Yes, sir.

Q About how long after this reported killing? A I heard the shots fired, then run down there and run over him. I lit a match and this man drew his breath twice. From the time the shots fired I wouldn't it was more than twenty minutes.

Q Twenty minutes? A Yes, sir.

Q Had it become generally known at the time of the arrest? A No, sir.

Q There was no time for the public to know? A Only a few people knew. I heard the shots fired myself and run down there.

Q And a few people knew that the killing had taken place before he was arrested? A Yes, sir.

Q And the excitement then, was that after that? A Yes, sir, they didn't have time to know it.

Q Was he put in jail? A Yes, sir.

Q You remember how long he remained in jail? A Till about the twentieth, sometime in February, 26th I think it was.

Q Of February following, of '87? A Yes, sir.

Q Well did he make his escape? A He got away.

Q He got away? A Yes, sir, he got past the turnkey, Ed Coe.

Q Ed Coe was the turnkey was he? A Yes, sir.

Q I will ask you then if there was any searching parties out for this man? Yes, sir.

Q For how long? I think he was killed on the 30th of March.

Q From then about the 26th of February until the 30th of March people looked for him, a reward offered for him? Yes, sir, some three hundred dollars I believe.

Q Well were there quite a number of people out searching for him? A Yes, sir.

Q Considerable excitement at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q Did people go out in the country looking for him? A Yes, sir, and searched houses and searched lands, they looked around for him, but failed to find him.

Q Up until that time? Yes, sir.

Q You say that was for about three weeks? A Yes, sir, something over three weeks.

Q From the 26th of February up until about the 30th of March? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether this Ed Hackey was reputed to be a Cherokee darkey or not? A Yes, sir, he was.

Q I believe there was a newspaper account to the effect that when he was captured he was hung up there? A He was killed, yes, sir.

Q What I want to get particularly from you was whether there was any search made for him at the time he was killed or whether search was made for him after his escape, after the 26th of February? A There was no search made for Hackey until he broke jail.

Q No houses searched, nor no wagons, nor no nothing when he was first captured? A He was in jail. I don't think it was much over a half an hour, I don't think it was any. He was in jail, he got out over half an hour after he shot Hayford. I heard the shot that killed Hayford.

Q And you helped to arrest him? Yes, sir, I got to Hayford before he died, but he was too far gone. I lit a match and he was too far gone to speak.

Q You had known Hayford prior to that time? A Yes, sir, him and me was friends.

Q You was a friend of his? A Yes, sir.

H. C. Jones, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

MR. HASTINGS: What is your name? A. H. C. Jones.

Q What is your postoffice? A. Fort Scott.

Q Kansas? A. Kansas, yes, sir.

Q What is your age, please sir? A. 66.

Q Were you holding any office in the town of Fort Scott, Kansas, in December of '66? A. I was.

Q Well were you holding any office at the time a man by the name of Hayford was killed by Eli Mackey? A. I was.

Q What office was that? A. City marshal, called town constable.

Q You was a city policeman? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did you assist in his first arrest? A. I did.

Q Who assisted you in the arrest? A. Mr. Benjamin Files.

Q This man that's present here? A. Yes, sir.

Q Did you hear the shots that killed Hayford? A. I did.

Q How soon after Hayford was killed was Mackey arrested, Eli Mackey?

A. 20 or 25 minutes, inside of a half hour at most.

Q Very short time? A. Yes, sir.

Q Had any houses or wagons or anything of that kind been searched in the mean time? A. No, sir, there was no knowledge.

Q People didn't generally know it up to that time? A. No, sir.

Q Put in jail then? A. He was taken right to the jail as soon as he was arrested, he was hurried off to jail for fear of any mob violence.

Q Well how long did he remain in jail, do you remember? A. Why I think something like six weeks or more.

Q Well the Fort Scott Monitor puts it about February 28th? A. I presume that was right, it was correct. It was hard for me to remember exactly.

Q Well he remained in jail up to that time? A. Up till that time, he was not out of jail except while he was under guard.

Q He made his escape then? A. He made his escape, yes, sir, at the time.

Q You know how long he was at large? A. Well I put it something like three weeks.

Q I will ask you if there was any searches at that time made for him?

A. You mean after?

Q Then he got away after February 28th? A. Oh yes, sir, there was considerable hunt for him at that time.

Q Reward offered for him? A. Yes, sir, reward offered.

Q People searched around in the country for him? A. There was quite a number of both officials and independent searches, they would search for him for the first couple of weeks of his escape from there.

Q He was afterwards captured was he? A. Yes, sir, he was located afterwards, he hadn't been out of a radius of probably ten miles from there after he got away, he was captured.

Q Do you know whether this Eli Mackey was reputed to be a Cherokee colored man? A. He was called a Cherokee refugee, yes, sir, had the reputation, that is his name, of being a Cherokee nigger.

COMMISSIONER: You are positive about these dates? A. To the best of my knowledge now, I would have put it, that is a week before the holidays, and I knew it was only a few days before Christmas when the killing was done.

Q '67? A. In '66 the killing was done.

Q Few days before Christmas of '66? A. Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: The Cherokee Nation asks that all the testimony introduced in the case of Aaron Webber, D-216, with reference to the return of the Webber Detachment, be introduced and made a part of the record in this case.

MR. BROWN: Come now the agent for the applicant and moves the Commission to strike from the records of this case all the testimony taken on this day. For the reason that it is inconsistent, irrelevant, immaterial and not the best evidence, it being purely hearsay.

COMMISSION: The request of the representative of the Cherokee Nation will be denied with, and the testimony filed.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the record in the following Cherokee Freedmen cases: Nos. B-384, D-396, D-398, D-401, D-402, D-404, D-407, D-773, and in D-381, the same being the case at bar.

Arthur G. Croninger, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the testimony and proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman:

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings:

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitacre, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17809, filed in the Mariak Hayden case F. D. 496, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariak Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Joshua Hall, D 644,

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariak Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariak Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to

In the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case re-opened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and perfect transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Tecumseh Holt, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of

Tecumseh Holt,
William Holt,

Cherokee Freedmen D-653
Cherokee Freedmen D-694.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Tecumseh Holt for himself and by William Holt for himself. A copy of the testimony taken at Chelsea, Indian Territory, on June 10, 1901, in Cherokee Freedmen D-644, and a copy of the testimony of Sam Webber taken at Nowata, Indian Territory, on June 26, 1901, in Cherokee Freedmen D-866, are filed herewith and made a part of the record in this case.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Tecumseh Holt, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during said rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto and establish a residence therein within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation. The evidence further shows that the applicant, William Holt, is the son of the said Tecumseh Holt; that he was born since 1866 and has no right to enrollment except through his said father.

It does not appear that either of the applicants is identified on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Tecumseh Holt and William Holt as Cherokee freedmen should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Moses Holt as a Cherokee freedman.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Moses Holt appeared before the Commission at Vinita, Indian Territory, on October 21, 1901, and made application for his enrollment as a Cherokee freedman.

The evidence in this case shows that the applicant, Moses Holt, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during the rebellion he left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto and establish a residence there ~~in within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. The Cherokee Nation et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation.~~ The evidence further shows that the applicant returned to the Cherokee Nation temporarily about the year 1866, but that he did not establish a residence therein but went to the State of Kansas, where he has since resided. It appears from his testimony that he has voted in Kansas and otherwise exercised the rights and privileges of a citizen of that State.

It does not appear that the applicant herein is identified upon the 1880 authenticated Cherokee Roll.

It is therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of Moses Holt as a Cherokee freedman should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application of Esther Holt for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

D E C I S I O N.

The record in this case shows that on June 10, 1901, Esther Holt appeared before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made personal application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Copies of the testimony taken at various times in the cases of Joshua Holt, et al., and Sallie Miller are made a part of the record herein.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Esther Holt, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during the rebellion she left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, et al., vs. The Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Freedmen to said Nation.

The name of said applicant is not found on the 1880 authenticated roll of said Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application of Esther Holt for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman should be denied, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

To the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior:

In the matter of the application of the following named persons for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of:

Joshua Holt, et al.

MOTION FOR REVIEW OF DECISION.

Come now, by their attorneys, the above named persons who have been denied enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen solely because they or their ancestors were not physically in the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866, or within six months thereafter, regardless of attendant circumstances, and move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior to rescind said decision to readjudicate said cases and to enroll said persons as Cherokee Freedmen for the reason that the evidence shows that said persons or their ancestors were slaves of Cherokee citizens at the commencement of the War of the Rebellion, that during said war they were compelled by circumstances over which they had no control to go out of the Cherokee Nation, but returned within a reasonable time after promulgation of treaty of July 19, 1866, considering the attendant circumstances, as shown by the records of the Department of the Interior, the Department of War and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

These records show that these persons were legally residents of the Cherokee Nation on August 11, 1866.

The records of the Commission show that it did not base its decisions in these cases upon proper grounds, but based them upon a supposed bar in Article 9 of the Cherokee Treaty of July 19, 1866, against the consideration of the reasons why a Cherokee Freedman was not in the Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The records show that these persons were residents in good faith in the Cherokee Nation prior to June 28, 1898.

That applications were made for their enrollment prior to September 1, 1902.

Wherefore we respectfully request that this motion be allowed.

Attorneys for Applicants.

Service of the above motion accepted and a copy of the same received by the attorneys for the Cherokee Nation, at Vinita, I. T., this day of , 1905.

- A Yes, sir.
- Q He had a house up? A Yes, sir.
- Q He had a patch of corn in? A Had a little corn in.
- Q When you came? A Yes, sir.
- Q Who else had a house down there when you came? A I think Uncle Mike Whitmire had a house and Reuben Johnson had a house and Anderson Johnson had a house and Harrison Johnson had a house.
- Q George Buffin? A I think so, I am not certain.
- Q Was Uncle Peter Ward living down there then? A I don't know.
- Q Was Reuben and Tuck Sanders? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did they have small crops of corn too? A I wasn't on their place, would see them passing back and forth, I guess they lived there.
- Q Didn't all these people that you have mentioned have corn?
- A I don't know; Uncle Andy Daugherty did, and I believe Whitmire did.
- Q What time did you come there? A In August.
- Q How long did you remain when you came in August? A I must have stayed there about six or eight months before I went away.
- Q Where did you go to? A I think I went to Lawrence I believe.

- Q Where was your mother at that time? A When I left I left her on Big Creek, at Andy Daugherty's.
- Q She came down with you did she? A When she first came from Kansas? Yes.
- Q How long did she stay down there? A I don't know how long she stayed altogether.
- Q How long did she stay before she went back? A She probably stayed a year.
- Q Then she went down to Ft. Scott? A Yes, sir, and worked a year and come back again.
- Q Did she keep house up at Ft. Scott? A She was working around there, she used to keep house.
- Q You lived with her up there, and your brothers? A Yes, we kept house up there in '64 and 5.

COM'Y NEEDLES:--Joshua Holt applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife, Jane, his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Reason, and his own four children, Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia Holt. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 or census roll of 1888, upon examination; neither can his wife. He is identified as well as his wife on the Kern-Clifton and Wallace rolls according to the page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and his older stepchild, Laura, is identified upon the Wallace roll and Kern-Clifton roll. His remaining stepchild and his own children, Jessie, Willard, are identified upon the Kern-Clifton roll. His two children, Clifford and Maucelia, are not identified upon said rolls, having been born after said roll was compiled. He avers that he is a child of Esther Holt, and that his wife is the daughter of Anderson and Dinah Johnson. He avers that Dinah Johnson was a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, and that Anderson Johnson was a slave of a Cherokee citizen. He also avers that Anderson Johnson, father of his wife, was a United States soldier and returned to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1846, where his wife, Jane, was born. Anderson Johnson being a Cherokee slave and his wife, Dinah being a slave of a citizen of the State of Arkansas, it will be necessary to make satisfactory proof of the marriage between the said Anderson Johnson and the said Dinah Johnson in order to establish the citizenship of his wife, Jane; and it will also be necessary for satisfactory proof of marriage to be made between Joshua Holt and his wife, Jane, in order to establish the citizenship of his children, in case the citizenship and marriage of Jane's mother is not fully proven. By reason of the facts set forth in the testimony, said Joshua Holt, his wife, Jane, and his two stepchildren, Laura and Ella Reason, and his four children, to-wit: Jessie, Willard, Clifford and Maucelia, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful and. The fact that his two children's Clifford and Maucelia, names do not appear upon any rolls of the Cherokee Nation it will be necessary for him to file satisfactory proof of birth as to said children.

J. J. Rossen, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q Were they born while they were living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Where were they born? A On Big Creek, there where they lived.

Q In the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember which one of the girls, Josh Holt married? A No, sir, I don't believe I remember her name.

Q Do you know whether she is the eldest child or not? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Do you know whether she was born? A No, sir, not exactly, but to my best judgment they was all born in the Cherokee Nation on Big Creek.

By Hastings: With whom did Anderson Johnson first live when he came down here? A Where I live.

Q You all first came down in August and then went back? A Yes, sir.

Q You say Anderson wasn't married then? A No, sir.

Q His wife was up in Kansas then? A She wasn't his wife at that time.

Q The woman that he afterwards married was in Kansas then? A Yes, sir.

Q He afterwards went up there and married her? A Yes, sir, and then brought her back with him.

Q Did you know his wife before she married him? A Yes, sir.

Q Where did she live? A There in Fort Scott.

Q And your recollection is that some 5 or 6 years after you all came down that she came down as Anderson Johnson's wife? A Yes, sir.

SAM WEBBER, being sworn by Com'r Needles, testified as follows: By Mr. Brown:

- Q What is your name? A Sam Webber.
- Q Mr. Webber, do you know Anderson Johnson and Dinah Johnson, the mother and father of this applicant? A Yes, sir.
- Q You know whether they were ever married or not? A I couldn't tell you about the wedding, they were living together as man and wife.
- Q So recognized by the community? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were they living together as man and wife at the time this applicant was born? A Yes, sir.
- Q You know this girl's sister, Mary Johnson? A Yes, sir.
- Q At the time she was born were they living together as man and wife? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you testify for Jane Holt in the Joshua Holt case? A I did 5 years ago, I didn't this time.
- Q You testified a while ago in the Mary Johnson case? A Yes, sir.
- Q You didn't say anything about their marriage then? A No one asked me; I didn't have no right to answer they asked me.
- Q When did you first see Anderson Johnson and the mother of this girl living together as husband and wife? A They come and settled down there; he married her somewhere and brought her there, I don't know where he married her.
- Q When was it? A I don't believe I can tell you just when that was.
- Q How long after the war was it? A I couldn't tell you that and be positive in it.
- Q Was Anderson Johnson married when he first came there? A No, sir, he was a single man.
- Q It was sometime after that when he married? A Yes, sir.
- Q Had he been married up to that time? A Up to what time?
- Q Up to the time he first came there after the war in '55 as you testified a while ago? A He was single when he come down.

Q You don't remember how long after that when you saw him living with this woman? A No, sir, I couldn't say positive, but they was living together as man and wife on the creek there when he got killed, and had been for several years.

Q You remember just what year he got killed? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember just about how long after he come down there? A No, sir.

Q The circumstance of his getting killed isn't as great as the circumstance of your first seeing him after the war? A I don't know, it might be greater for all I know, but I never paid no particular attention.

Q About what is the first date that you are willing to swear that you saw them living together as husband and wife? A I tell you I never paid no attention to it, so many people married, I can't keep the dates of all of them, or of course I didn't try.

Q I am not asking you, Mr. Webber, the exact date, but how long ago, now when they first began living together, but about how many years ago are you willing to testify you saw them living together? A I don't know, I couldn't be positive about that.

Q Did they have any children when you first saw them living together as husband and wife? A When I first saw them they didn't have any.

Q Do you have any idea how old this woman is, (indicating applicant)? A No, sir, not exactly.

By Com'r Needles: Well, Mr. Webber, how long did they live together as husband and wife according to your best recollection, your knowledge? A I declare I couldn't answer that correct.

Q Did they raise a family there? A Raised them right there on the creek, three children.

Q While they were living together as man and wife they raised a family? A Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings: You don't know where he got the woman? A No, sir, I couldn't tell you.

Q How far did they live from you? A About 10 miles I guess, as near as I can guess at it.

Kern-Clifton pay roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation examined and applicant identified on page 144, #3581, Chinnett, Holt, Cooweescoowee district.

SAM WEBBER, witness, recalled and further examined: By Mr. Smith: (Of Mellette & Smith.)

Q Did you know Jane Holt? A Yes, sir.

Q Whose wife is she now? A John Holt's.

Q Whose child is Jane Holt? A That's Anderson Johnson's child, by Dinah, his wife.

Q And the mother? A Dinah I said.

MR. SMITH: If the Court please, I would like a copy of the statement of Sam Webber taken in this case, filed with D 644.

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he made the foregoing copy and that same is a true and complete copy of the original transcript of the testimony of Sam Webber in above styled case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 8th, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SALLIE MILLER as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on behalf of
Cherokee Nation:

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Counsel for applicant;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SIMON MCKENZIE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A. Simon McKenzie.

Q Where do you live? A. I live up Pryor Creek, about five miles north of Pryor Creek.

Q What is your age? A. I am 59.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A. Been living here all my life, only few times I have been out of the Nation.

Q Well, you were out of the Nation; when you were out of the Nation what places were you in? A. When I was out of the Nation I lived at Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q About what year did you live in Fort Scott, Kansas? A. I lived from 1865 down to 1866, '67 and down to spring of '68.

Q During the years you lived there did you become acquainted with Sallie Miller, or Holt, or Walker? A. Yes, sir, I was acquainted with one lady named at that time Sallie Holt.

Q Well, did you know her family at that time, her mother?

A. Yes, sir.

Q What was her mother's name? A. Aunt Easter Holt.

Q Did you know any of her brothers? A. Tecumseh and I forget the other one's name, was another one.

Q Do you know whether it was Mose or Joshua? A. Yes, sir, Mose and Joshua.

Q Did you know any of her sisters? A. Yes, sir, but I forget their names.

Q Now, where were they living, if you know, during the years you lived at Fort Scott? A. They lived in an old Government building right in Fort Scott.

Q You went there in 1865? A. In '65.

Q How long had you been there before you knew these people, or got acquainted with them? A. I was there about a month or two or three months, I could not state the time.

Q Well, where were they living when you left Fort Scott, Kansas, if you know? A. Well, Aunt Easter was living in an old Government building.

Q Have you seen any of them since that time? A. No, sir.

MR. MELLETTE: Now, Mr. McKenzie, you don't know that the woman who is an applicant here for enrollment is the woman whom you say you saw up at Fort Scott, Kansas, at the close of the war, do you?

A. I don't know the woman.

Q You don't know that that is the same woman? A. In the same name.

Q It is not the same name? A. She name Holt.

Q Well, you don't know that that is the same woman that you knew up there, do you? A. Well, it was a daughter of Easter Holt, it was a Sallie woman.

Q Well, you don't know anything about this applicant; you have never seen this applicant here? A. I haven't seen her here.

- Q Well, you have never seen her since she has made application here for enrollment have you? A No, sir.
- Q Now, when did you leave Fort Scott, Kansas? A I left there early in '68, in the spring.
- Q In the spring of 1868? A Yes, sir.
- Q What were you doing up there at Fort Scott? A I was working there at Fort Scott, for Billy Shanahan, stone mason, doing putlin work there.
- Q Did you keep track of these colored people? A All I saw.
- Q Did you ever testify in this case before? A I guess I did.
- Q When? A Not long ago at Fort Gibson.
- Q You give testimony up at Fort Gibson? A I think I did.
- Q How long ago? A I don't know exactly whether it was last month.
- Q How old are you, Mr. McKenzie? A I am 39.
- Q Well, it has been 35 or 6 years ago then since you saw them up there at Kansas? A Yes, sir, I guess so, I never kept count of the time.
- Q Well say 35, well, Mr. McKenzie, can you remember just about the time you saw these people up there 35 years ago? A Well, I guess I could remember it, I stated before.
- Q There is no reason why you paid particular attention to them? A No, just seeing them pass and repassing about.
- Q You left there in the spring of '68? A Yes, sir.
- Q Well, they could left there a year before that and you not remember it 35 years afterwards? A Didn't I saw they back and forth all the time I was up there, off and on.
- Q Well, now, off and on there, you saw them? A Every where.
- Q Can you remember 35 years ago you saw these people every weeks? A I guess so, I wouldn't be here if I didn't thought I could testify nothing.
- Q Well, you feel because you are here you have to testify something? A I don't know.
- Q Well, I want to know if you can remember 35 years ago you saw these people every weeks? A I did while I was living in Fort Scott most every week.
- Q Is it possible they might have left there a year before you did? A If they did they went back in a short time.
- Q What were you paying so particular attention to those people for? A I could not tell you.
- Q You just watched them? A Well, just seeing them pass and pass every day.
- Q Who else did you see up there at Fort Scott? A Why I see good many.
- Q What other colored people? A Good many, good many other colored.
- Q What people, but I don't know their names.
- Q Well, now, give the name of some other colored person you saw up there except this family? A I could not give their name.
- Q There were a great many colored people in Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.
- Q And of all the colored people that was in Fort Scott this family is the only one you remember the names? A Yes, sir, of course I was passing there and some lived out in the country.
- Q Well, who else lived in the Government building there? A Good many families.
- Q Good many families? A Yes, sir.
- Q Why don't you remember the names of the other colored people? A Because the boys I remember them, and part lived in town.
- Q Why can't you remember the names of some other colored people you saw there some time? A Well, I could if I wanted to state the whole thing I can, there was Bill Thompson.
- Q Who is Bill Thompson? A There he is, pointing to a man in the audience.)

Q And who else was there? A Bill was blacksmith; Tom Brown,
 Q Was it Tom Brown or Bill Brown? A Tom Brown.
 Q When did they leave there? A I don't know.
 Q Were they there when you left? A I don't know; they lived out at the edge of town; of course when I left town I went out about three miles or two and a family lived there by the name of Campbell, worked right there at Fort Scott. I know the whole generation if you will give me time to tell the name over, the whole generation of them.
 Q What makes you remember seeing these people there all the time you were there? A I saw them off and on, because I was working in town; Tom Brown was a blacksmith, worked in town.
 Q When was the last time you remember seeing this Sallie Miller?
 A Well, I saw her when I left Fort Scott.
 Q Did you see her the day you left? A No, sir; I didn't see her the day before I left.
 Q How long before you left did you see her? A Oh, short time, maybe a week or two weeks.
 Q You remember then of seeing her two weeks before you left?
 A Yes, might have been two weeks, and maybe longer and not so long.
 Q Maybe a year too? (No response.)
 Q Was it a year? A No, sir, I don't think it was a year; if she left there at all she went west, went towards Napoleon.
 Q How do you know she went to Napoleon? A Well, if she left at all.
 Q What makes you think that? A That was the talk.
 Q How was that? A That is why I found out by talking with her brother.
 Q You got a letter? A No, sir, talking with her brother.
 Q You are testifying to what her brother told you?
 A That is how I found out where she went, if she went off at all.
 Q That is the reason you are swearing that she was there all the time you were there? A No, sir; I know it.

WILLIAM MARGRAVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
 testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Margrave.
 Q What is your age, Mr. Margrave? A My age is 430--about 82;
 I am away along in the 83 year.
 Q Where do you live, Mr. Margrave? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
 Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A Since 1854.
 Q Since you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you become acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts or Holt? A Yes, sir.
 Q You know the old lady's name? A Yes, sir; do you mean the mother?
 Q Yes, sir; what was her name? A Easter Holt.
 Q How many of the children do you remember, Mr. Margrave? A Let's see, there was Rose, Cussie, Sallie and John.
 Q When did you become acquainted with the family? A I am not positive, I think they came there along towards the close of the Civil war, if they didn't they came there very shortly afterwards.
 Q Well, now, when did they live with reference to where your home was? A Well, most of the time they lived in, I should judge, about a hundred yards, except when he lived, after he married, he lived about 50 yards.
 Q Well, now, where is Rose Holt living now, do you know?
 A Lives right there in the Fort Scott.
 Q Do you know what John is living? A I do not, he has been away from there a good many years, I don't know how long.
 Q Well, about how many years has it been since John moved away from there? A Of course that would be from guess work, something I never took no count of; I don't think he has made his home in Fort Scott for the last 15 years, I might not be correct about it.

Q about how long has it been since Tecumseh moved away from there?
Q That maybe all the way from five, six, seven or eight years,
not longer than that.
Q Well, when did Bettie leave there, about when did she leave?
A That is quite a while ago, I could not tell that.
Q Well, did Sallie Holt marry while she was up there? A Yes, married twice.
Q What was her first husband's name? A Walker he died and then she married a Miller.
Q Do you know what Miller's first name was, or what he was known by up there? A Stephen I believe it is.
Q Have you seen Sallie Miller, the applicant, since you been down here? A I saw her this morning, spoke to her.
Q Did you recognize her as the same woman you knew up there as Sallie Holt? A Well, she lived right there near me for I expect
50 years, I don't know that it was that long, of course I knew her as well as I knew anybody in Fort Scott.
Q About how long ago was it since Sallie left Fort Scott?
A Well, now, I can't tell you.
Q Well, you came from there in - I - seven, eight or ten years.
Q Do you know where Aunt Hester Holt is living now, whether she is living or dead? A I saw her I think about a year ago up in Fort Scott, I have never heard of her dying.
Q When did she move away, if at all, from Fort Scott, Kansas?
A It comes to those dates.
Q About how long? A I would think it was six or seven years ago.
Q You got acquainted with this family as I understand you, sometime about the close of the war? A Yes, sir, I knew them by sight and afterwards got acquainted with them.
Q They afterwards lived right near you? A Yes, sir. It was right close to me, I don't think it was over a hundred yards from where I now live.
Q And they lived there then in your neighborhood from the time you got acquainted with them up until a few years ago? A Yes, just as I stated.
MR. HELLSTEDT: Now, where was Sallie Miller in the fall of '65?
A I don't think I could tell just that because -
Q Well, now, where was she in '66? A The family was there, I am satisfied they were in Fort Scott in '66.
Q I am talking about Sallie Miller now? A I know you do; but of the family might want away.
Q You don't say that Sallie Miller, or Sallie Holt, was not here in the Cherokee Nation in 1866 can you? A No, sir, I cannot;
I know the family was living up there at that time. One of the family could go off and I would not know anything about that; go off and return again.
Q Isn't it a fact that she was down here in '66 and didn't go back up to Kansas for a couple of years after '66 about '68?
A No, I don't know.
Q You don't know? A No.
Q That might be true, might it not? A Yes, the family was there.
I know they didn't all come here; might be such a thing as she did,
of course not looking for a thing as that kind of thing I might not know.
Q Well, these people might have come down in the territory from time to time without you knowing their whereabouts might they not, 34 years ago? A You mean one of the time?
Q Yes, or two at the time? A Of course they might.
Q Sallie Miller's husband died up there, did he not? A Miller.
Q Didn't she take some children down here the first time
she went back? A Children; I don't know anything about it.

JOHN FORBES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John Forbes.

Q What is your age, Mr. Forbes? A 34.

Q Where do you live? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 33 years.

Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the old lady's name, if you knowed, Forbes? A I don't exactly know what the old lady's name was.

Q What was the children's names? A I have heard the names; well there was Hoss and Josh and Mrs. Walker; well, there was one or two others.

Q Do you know whether her name was Sallie Walker or what her first name was? A Her name was Sallie Walker.

Q Did she marry a man by the name of Walker? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Walker at the time of his death, if you know?

A I don't know where he died, but I was informed that he died; that I don't know where he died, nor whether he died in Fort Scott.

Q Well, do you know whether or not she married after Walker's death?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she marry that time? A Man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you remember his first name? A Well, I have heard it called Stop Miller.

Q What business did he follow? A Shoemaker.

Q Well, did you know any of her brothers or sisters that you remember the names of? A Well, there was Bet or Bess, I think that is it, and there was Hoss and Josh.

Q Any one else you remember? A I think there was more than that.

Q Do you know where Miss Bess is living now? A Living at Fort Scott.

Q Do you know anything about where Josh is living? A No, sir.

Q About when did Josh Holt move away from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A Well, he moved away from there some many years ago, I don't know very well, I wasn't very well acquainted with him on that account.

Q Well, when did the applicant, Sallie Miller now, formerly Sallie Holt, move away from there? A I could not say, I think the best of my judgment it was eight or ten years ago, but I could not say after I got acquainted with them in '70, then I was personally acquainted with them after that.

Q Was the mother of them living there and keeping house when you got acquainted with them in '70? A I am not sure whether the mother was there, but she was there at that time.

Q Do you know what became of Bessie whether she is living up there or alive? A No, I do not.

Q You don't remember what year they left but they left there a number of years after you got acquainted with them? A Yes, sir.

MR. DAVENPORT: Mr. Forbes, you don't know where these people, any of them, were in 1866, '67 or '8? A No, sir.

Q Isn't it a fact that they came, after you knew them, that they came back and Fort Scott was in the territory and went up to Kansas?

A I didn't know anything about that, I think I heard some of them talking about going down to Fort Scott or going from Fort Smith or something when I got acquainted with them.

Q Fort Smith down here on the border? A Yes, sir, I wouldn't be positive of that, some little recollection in my mind but I couldn't be positive.

JOHN FORBES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

Q Where do you live, Mr. Forbes? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 20 years.
Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, have you become acquainted with a family of colored people by the name of Holt?

A Yes, sir.

Q What members of the family are you acquainted with? A I know Mose, Mose lives there now, well I think anyother one, George Maybe.

Q Did you ever know any of the girls? A Oh, I have seen them, I don't know.

Q You are not very well acquainted with them? A I knowed Mose well and knowed where they lived well; no, I am not well acquainted with the lady folks.

Q Did you ever know the mother? A No, sir.

MR. McLESTER: You don't know where the women folks made their homes, whether they made it here and visited up there, or where they really belonged, do you? A No, sir.

WILLIAM SEXTON, being duly sworn by commissioner Needles, testified as follows: On part of Cherokee Nation;

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Sexton.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Sexton? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I have lived at Fort Scott ever since '89.

Q Well, since you came to Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A I did.

Q Did you know the mother, the old lady, or reputed mother of the family? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Her name was Master Holt.

Q What were the names of the children, as many as you can remember? A There was one by the name of Mose, Josh, and Cumsah and Jennie and Sallie; that's as many as I recollect.

Q Well, did you know Sallie Holt, if she was a grown woman?

A Sallie she was a woman when I got acquainted with her.

Q Josh, was he grown when you got acquainted with him?

A No, sir, he was a young man.

Q Would you know Sallie Holt if you would see her now?

A Yes, sir.

Q I wish you would look back through the audience and see if you see her? A Yes, sir.

Q You recognize her as being the same woman, Sallie Holt, you knew? A Same woman.

Q Did she marry while she was living up at Fort Scott? A She was married when I got acquainted with her.

Q Do you know what her husband's name was? A Her husband's name was Walker.

Q Do you know whether Walker is living or dead? A He died.

Q Well, did she marry again? A She did.

Q Do you know who she married? A She married a man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you know his first name? A Stephen.

Q What was his business? A He was a shoemaker up there.

Q You knew Josh too up there did you? A Yes, sir.

Q And Cumsah? A Cumsah.

Q Did you know any other girls of the family, was there any other girls that you remember? A I do not.

Q Do you know whether or not there was a girl by the name of Battie?

A I wouldn't be positive but it appears to me there was.

Q Were they living in Fort Scott when you went there in '88, Mr. Sexton? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, about how long after you went there did they continue to live in Fort Scott? A Now, I could not say; I didn't pay particular attention, sometime they would leave and sometimes they was there.

- Q Did they keep house while they were there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Sallie live there with Walker when he was living?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where is Mose living now? A Moses is living up there now.
Q About how long has it been since you remember of Josh and then living in Fort Scott? A Josh hasn't been there for some considerable time.
Q Well, about how long? A It has been, I should judge, some ten or 12 years.
Q Well, how long has it been since Tecumseh has been living there?
A She has lived there to the best of my recollection, it has been that long since I seen him there.
Q Do you know where he went when he left there? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether he went to Kansas City or not?
A No, sir, I do not.
Q Well, how long has it been since Sallie has been living there?
A I don't know.
Q Has she lived there any since she and Miller married? A Yes, sir.
MR. MELLETTE: Well, how long do you think it has been since Sallie Miller lived there regularly? A Well, now, I could not say positive, it has been since she left there regularly.
Q Well, isn't it a fact that she was back and forth ever since you have known her, to the Territory and back to Kansas, would come down here a stay a while and go back to Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q That is true? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know where any of these people were in '66? '67 or '68?
A No, sir; I came to Scott in '69.
MR. DAVENPORT: And they were living there when you came?
A They was there when I came.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be made part of the record in Freedmen doubtful cases #953, #979, #980, #645, and in case of Bettie Hicks.

copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmire, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation,
No. 17209, filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 496, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Eather Holt, D 645;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship.
Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicants be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decrees already referred to in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Esther Holt for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

-: D E C I S I O N :-

The record in this case shows that on June 10, 1901, Esther Holt appeared before the Commission at Chelsea, Indian Territory, and made personal application for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman. Copies of the testimony taken at various times in the cases of Joshua Holt, et al., and Sallie Miller are made a part of the record herein.

The evidence shows that the applicant, Esther Holt, was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that during the rebellion she left the Cherokee Nation and did not return thereto within the time specified, in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. The Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Freedmen to said Nation.

The name of said applicant is not found on the 1880 authenticated roll of said Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application of Esther Holt for enrollment as a Cherokee freedman should be denied, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

Q Did these children of yours ever draw any Creek money?
A No, sir.
Q Ever been enrolled over there as Creeks? A No, sir, Creeks don't recognize the Cherokee people over there; they recognize them as Cherokee citizens; never did draw, never tried to.
Q Did your husband draw Creek money? A He draws Seminole money; he is a Seminoles.
Q But he lives in the Creek Nation? A He lives in the Creek Nation.
Q Got a farm over there in the Creek Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How many acres? A I can't tell you.
Q Your husband is named Rowe is it? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his first name? A George.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q What is your post office? A Onoka.
Q That has been your post office all the time? A Yes, sir.
Q You didn't have any witnesses before the Kern-Clifton Commission?
A No, sir; you told me you didn't want Tom Archer to go in there any more; I told you Tom Archer was my witness; I want to tell you what you said; you was the one that would not call my witnesses, you would not have him in there.

Peggie A. Rowe, et al., vs.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

Q Have you got anybody leading to your case for you?

A No, sir.

KATIE VANN, the Witness, recalled:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q Where were you living in 1866? A On Grand river, at Martha Vann's place, Dave Vann's mother.

Q You saw this woman at Fort Gibson? A Yes, sir. Went down there to draw rations.

Q And she was there to draw rations? A I don't know what she was there, I was there after something to eat myself.

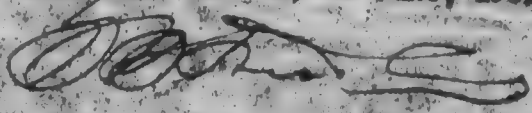

COM'R NEEDLES: Peggie Archer Rowe applies for the enrollment of herself and four children, Dinah, Katie, Annie and Ruthie. She also applies for the enrollment of her two grandchildren, Clarence Simmons and Rogers Wheat, and avers that they are the children of her daughter, Katie, for whom she applies. She also applies for her grandchild, Agnes Porter, whom she avers is the daughter of her child Dinah. The name of the applicant and name of her children are found upon any of the rolls in the possession of the Commission, the rolls have been duly examined and their names cannot be found. She avers that she resides in the Creek Nation and has resided there ever since '66 and that her husband, George Rowe, is a Seminole citizen; and avers that she was taken to Texas before the war between the United States and the Confederacy, and returned in 1866. Reference is made to her testimony. From the fact that her name does not appear upon any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, said Peggie Archer Rowe and her children and grandchildren, as enumerated herein, will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card, awaiting further consideration of the Commission. It will be necessary for her to make satisfactory proof of the birth of her said children and grand children, they not being identified upon any of the rolls; blank affidavits for that purpose will be furnished.

that is what I understood her when she came.

Commissioner: Who took Peggy Rowe to Texas? A Mrs. Summers.
Q Clarinda Summers? A Yes, sir.
Q Who owned her? A She lived with my family then.
Q Was she owned by your family? A Yes.
Q And did your family go to Texas at the same time? A No, they have never been to Texas.
Q If she was owned by your family, how did she get into Texas?
A She went with my sister.
Q Did your family hire her to your sister? A No, we just let them go.
Q You are a Cherokee citizen? A Yes, sir.
Q Always have been? A Yes, sir.
Q Then you owned Peggy Rowe when she went to Texas with Clarinda?
A Yes, sir.
Q You owned her then at the time of the emancipation then?
A Yes, sir, I guess it would be considered so.
Q When did Peggy come back from Texas? A I don't know when she come back, I never knew her any more till about two years ago.
Q You don't know where she has been living then from '88 to the present time? A No, but she said she was living in the Creek Nation.
Q But she belonged to your family and you are a Cherokee citizen?
A Yes, sir.
Q And she belonged to your family at the time of the emancipation proclamation? A Yes, sir.
Mr. Davenport: Your sister was a member of this family? A Yes, sir.
Q And when she started to go to Texas she was a Cherokee citizen too? A Yes, sir.
Q When her and her family returned, she had to be readmitted?
A Yes, sir.
Commissioner: What branch of your family did Peggy belong to?
A She belonged to me before the war.

Commissioner to Applicant: You want to ask Mrs. Archer anything? A No, sir.

Commissioner: This testimony will be made part of the record in Freeman case D-896 and D-897.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Basie Johnson, B 546;

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decree, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be entertained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provision of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Gill of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to.

in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings:

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case re-opened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and perfect transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Peggy A. Rowe, et al., as Cherokee Freedmen, consolidating the applications of--

Peggy A. Rowe, et al., Cherokee Freedmen D-646. ✓
Cully Rowe, Cherokee Freedmen D-896. ✓
Freeman Rowe, Cherokee Freedmen D-897. ✓

DECISION.

The record herein shows that applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to this Commission by Peggy A. Rowe for herself, her minor daughters, Dinah, Katie, Annie and Ruthie Rowe and her minor grand-children, Clarence Simmons, Roger Wheat and Agnes Porter; by Cully Rowe for himself and by Freeman Rowe for himself.

The evidence in this case shows that Peggy A. Rowe was the slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the rebellion; that prior to the commencement of said rebellion she was taken out of the Cherokee Nation into the State of Texas, and that she did not return to and establish a residence in the Cherokee Nation within the time specified in the decree of the Court of Claims rendered on February 3, 1896, in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, etc., vs. the Cherokee Nation, et al., for the return of Cherokee freedmen to said Nation.

It further appears that all the other applicants herein have been born since 1866 and are the children and grand-children of the said Peggy A. Rowe; that they have only such rights as may be possessed by the said Peggy A. Rowe.

It further appears that the names of none of the applicants herein appear on the 1880 authenticated Cherokee Roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the applications for the enrollment of Peggy A. Rowe, Dinah Rowe, Katie Rowe, Annie Rowe, Ruthie Rowe, Clarence Simmons, Roger Wheat, Agnes Porter, Cully Rowe and Freeman Rowe as Cherokee Freedmen should be denied, under the provisions of section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, May 5, 1904.

W. W. Hastings,

Attorney for Cherokee Nation,

Tahlequah, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is herewith enclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated April 20, 1904, in the consolidated case of Peggy A. Rowe et al., rejecting the applications for the enrollment of Peggy A., Dinah, Katie, Annie and Ruthie Rowe, Clarence Simmons, Roger Wheat, Agnes Porter, Cully and Freeman Rowe as Cherokee freedmen.

The decision, with the record of proceedings had in the case, has this day been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his review and decision. The action of the Secretary will be made known to you as soon as the Commission is informed of the same.

Respectfully,

Enc. D-179

Q You were living when the war broke up were you? A Yes, sir.
Q How long had you been there? A I don't know, I don't suppose I had been there so very long; I don't know just how long I had been there.
Q Did Doctor Polston have a wife? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Her name was Flora.
Q Was she living then? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children had he when the war came up? A I don't remember.
Q Dr. Polston's wife was your Mistress? A She was a sister to my father.
Q You don't know how many children he had? A No, sir.
Q Did he have any children? A Appears to me like there was one or two, I am not sure.
Q Boys or girls? A I don't hardly remember.
Q You don't remember? A No, sir.
Q What kind of a house did Dr. Polston live in, on Peter's prairie?
A Well, sir, I could not describe the house at all.
Q Did he get water out of a spring or well? A Out of a spring.
Q You remember that do you? A Yes, sir, it appears to me like that is right.
Q Are you certain? A No, sir, I am not quite positive but seems to me like there was a spring.
Q Did Dr. Polston have a farm there? A Yes, sir.
Q Have an orchard? A I don't hardly remember, don't seem to me like there was an orchard; might have been, I won't be sure.

Q What did you say your Master was? A Herman Ridge.

Q Now, where was Herman living? A Well, sir, I don't know where he was living; he was an intermarried man.

Q He had no home in the Nation did he? A The last account I know of Herman was that when he joined the army.

Q Well, where was he living just before he joined the army?

Q I don't know sir, I could not tell you?

Q Well now, you came back here did you with your father and mother?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what was the first point you came to? A In the Nation?

AQ Yes. A On Honey Creek.

Q Now, what place on Honey Creek did you return? A Well, I don't know the name of the place at all, but as near as I can remember it was about probably there, or four miles down the creek from where South West City now is.

Q That is the point you came to was it? A Yes, sir.

Q That was near your old home? A Yes, sir.

Q You came right back to the old home didn't you? A No, sir, not right exactly.

Q Well about how far from your old home? A It don't, it must have been, probably a mile and a half from the old Ridge place.

Q Did you build a house? A No, sir.

Q How did you live there? A Went into a house that was there.

Q That was vacant? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you live there? A Well, sir, I expect we were there some time like three or four months.

Q Then where did you go? A Went to Missouri.

Q Joplin? A Yes, sir.

Q You were married at Joplin, weren't you? A Yes, sir.

Q What is your oldest child's name? A Ida.

Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.

Q How old is Ida? A Ida's about, I don't know, 24 or 25 I guess.

Q Well, isn't Henry older than Ida? A No, sir; he is younger.

Q And where was Ida born? A Ida was born on Grand river.

Q Near what place? A On Lynch's prairie.

Q How long after the war was it until you come down to Lynch's prairie? A How long after the war you ask me?

Q That is the question. A I don't know, something about like three or four years.

Q George Clark was living right near you then? A Yes, sir, George Clark was living there.

Q That the only time you claim to have come back to the Cherokee Nation before that was when you were up on Honey Creek? A Yes sir.

Q And you lived there you say about two or three months? A Yes sir.

Q Now, what kind of a house was that you moved into? A It was a log house.

Q Now, what direction from the old Polston was that log house that you moved into? A Well, if I am not mistaken and kinda turned around I say out south.

Q Did you go to the old place while you were there? A Polston place; yes, sir.

Q Who was living there? A Dr. Polston.

Q Was his wife there with him? A Yes, I am not right sure; let me think over that a little, yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Did she have any children there? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know their names? A No, sir, I don't.

Q What did you do for a living down there? A Didn't do anything.

Q Do you remember any witnesses you saw down around there? A No, sir, I don't remember any one.

Q Where did you get anything to eat? A Brought provisions with us.

Q And just camped out down there in a house? A No, sir, we lived down there in a house.

Cornelius Ridge, et al, 4.

Q You never worked for anybody? A Never done a day's work for anybody as I know of.

Q Well, what year were you there? A We were there in the fall.

Q About what month? A Well, sir, I don't know hardly, I expect though, it was in or near the month of October, September or October, somewhere, along about there.

Q Were you up about that town there, while you were down there on Honey Creek? A No, sir.

Q You didn't go to any town? A No, sir; what do you mean, Southwest City?

Q Yes, sir. A No, sir, there wasn't no town there; we come right past there and there wasn't no town there.

Q Did you have any neighbors down there where you lived in that little house, any people living anywhere around you? A No, sir, none that I know of; none that I was acquainted with except Polston.

Q None except Polston? A No, sir, that I can remember now.

Q You don't remember any of those Indians that were living about you? A No, sir; I don't remember, there was none living there as I know of.

Q Was there any field connected with your house you lived in?

A No, sir.

Q What did you get water out of, creek, spring or well?

A Spring.

Q What direction was the spring from the house? A Well, sir, I don't know.

Q You don't remember? A Appears to me though like the spring was east, not to be positive.

Q How far was the home place from Honey Creek? A I presume something over a mile and a half.

Q Were you north or south of the creek? A Well I would say south.

Q Dennis Hicks' wife your sister? A Yes, sir.

Q Was she older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q Where was she born, before the war or after, and when? A She was born before the war, I don't know where she was born at.

Q Did she go this round with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your mother was with you? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father? A Yes, sir; I think though Dennis' wife was born in Arkansas.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir, I think she was.

Q Well, now in all these rounds you want your father and mother, and all the members of your family would go with them? A Yes, sir.

BY JOHN R. HEDGECOCK:

Q Well, you apply for your wife as an intermarried citizen do you?

A Yes sir.

Q When were you married to her? A I don't know sir, about 1867 I guess.

A We didn't have anything to live on.
Q Where did you go after that?
A I went to Joplin, Missouri.
Q How long did you stay there?
A About three or four years, I presume.
Q And then where did you go?
A I came on down here.
Q In the Cherokee Nation? A In the Cherokee Nation.
Q Have you been living in the Cherokee Nation ever since?
A Yes, sir.
Q In the meantime you had married?
A Yes, sir.
Q Did you bring your wife back here with you when you came?
A Yes, sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What time did you say you came back to the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes. A In about three or four years I guess.
Q After you went up there?
A Yes, sir.

DOY R. REEBLES: Cornelius Ridge applies for the enrollment of himself and three children, Pearl, Jennie and Myrtle, as Cherokee Freedmen; he also applies for the enrollment of his wife, Laura, as a Cherokee Freedman by common-law marriage. He cannot be identified upon the authenticated roll of 1860 or the census roll of 1880, yet he and his children are duly identified upon the New-Clifton pay roll, and he upon the Wallace roll. He avers that he was married to his wife, Laura, a state years in the year 1851, and has lived with her continuously ever since that time. He makes satisfactory proof as to his residence, and in this connection, he requested by counsel that the testimony taken in the present case be made a part of the record in the application of Dennis Hicks who was listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedman with D. #335, and it is ordered that the testimony taken in the application of Katie Ridge for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman, who was duly listed for enrollment as D. Card #295, be made part of the record in the present case and a copy of the same be filed in the case of the application of Cornelius Ridge. The said Cornelius Ridge and his children as enumerated herein will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen upon a doubtful card, and his wife will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful card, for the further consideration of the Commission. The application will be satisfied by mail as to the final decision of the Commission.

J. O. Reason, being first duly sworn, states that he stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and he has carefully recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

By Com'r Needles,-

Katie Ridge applies for herself; she is not found on the authenticated roll of 1890 of the census roll of 1896 but she is identified on the Korns Clifton roll; she makes satisfactory proof as to her residence and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card for the reason that her name is not found on the authenticated roll of 1890 and from the further fact that her citizenship is contested by the Cherokee representatives. When the Commission arrive at a conclusion in her case she will be notified by mail.

Q. How old are you? A. About 54.

Q. What is your post-office address? A. Vinita.

Q. Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You know Katie Ridge? A. I didn't know her when I first saw her.
When I first saw they they were up there on Honey Creek and someone said that was the Ridge.

Q. What year was that? A. That was along in the fall of '86, I think it was.

Q. You saw her in the fall of 1886 then? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you known her since that time? A. Yes, sir, after they came down here, I got acquainted with them; he said it was some of the Ridges that was up there on Honey Creek.

Q. And you know the Katie Ridge, the applicant here, as the same woman you saw on Honey Creek in the fall of 1886? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know whether she was a slave or not? A. No, sir, I don't know all the Ridges, all I know about them is what Simon was telling me.

Q. Simon who? A. Simon Lynch.

Q. Did you know them before the war? A. No, sir, he knew them.

By L. J. Bell, Cherokee attorney: Where were you going in 1886?

A. Going up to Southwest City.

Q. How far is South West City from where they were living? A. I don't know, sir, I never noticed; the first time I ever had been there, and I just went along with Simon.

Q. About what time of the year was it? A. It was long in the fall like.

Q. Can you recollect, early or late? A. It was early, it wasn't so cold, I don't know we slept out, we were going up there.

Q. You don't recollect at that how far it was from where they lived to Southwest? A. No, sir, I expect Simon knows, he was acquainted up there and I wasn't.

Q. You went on from there to Southwest City did you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now where was Southwest City, in the Cherokee Nation of Missouri?
A. It was in Kansas or Arkansas, I don't know which, it was across the line.

TESTIMONY ON THE PART OF CHEROKEE NATION.

Appearances:

Mr. Mellette, of Mellette & Smith, attorneys for applicant,
Mr. L. B. Bell, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation,
and Mr. W. W. Hastings, of attorneys for Cherokee Nation.

W. R. WOOD, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

- Q What is your name? A W. R. Wood.
Q What is your age? A 48.
Q Post-office address? A Zenia, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Were you living here when the war began? A Yes sir.
Q Where did you go? A Into the Choctaw Nation.
Q How when did you return to the Cherokee Nation after the close of the war? A In '68.
Q Where did you come to? A Came to a place known as the Polston place, on the south-west part of Peter's Prairie, Delaware District, Cherokee Nation.
Q How far was that from where the Missouri line crosses Honey Creek? A About a mile and a half.
Q When did you move onto to that place? A Moved on that place in the fall of '66, I don't remember the month exactly.
Q Well did you live there when the war began, or how come you to go on that place? A We lived on Whiteswater in the Cherokee Nation.
Q How come you to go on that Polston place? A I bought it from Dr. Polston, my father did.
Q How old were you at that time? A I guess I was about 14 years old.
Q Was there any town there at that time, near there? A No sir, there was no town, there was a little post-office and store over near the line that they called Honey Creek.
Q How long did you live there on that place? A We lived there about 2 years.
Q Then what did you do with it? A Sold it back to Dr. Polston.
Q And you left it? A Yes sir.
Q Well now you went there in the fall of 1866 and you stayed there then? A Until the fall of 1868.
Q During the year of 1866, that is to say, the winter of 1866, were there any freedmen living on that place? A No sir.
Q Were you acquainted with one Kate Ridge a Freedman? A No sir.
Q Cornelius Ridge? A No sir.
Q No parties of that sort lived down on that farm? A No sir.
Q Are you acquainted with what is known as the old Washburn place at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Was there any Freedmen living on that place at that time? A No sir.
Q How far is that from the Polston place? A About a mile and a half north and west.
Q Well now south and east of that place for a mile and a half around about that Polston place was there any other houses? A No sir, nothing but hills and hollows, no improvements whatever for 5 or 6 miles.
Q When did Dr. Polston re-buy that place from you bought it from him or did he own? A He bought it on the place when we left it.

in '58.

Q Where did he move from to that place? A He moved from Mayesville, Arkansas.

Q Where was he living during the year of 1867 after you bought that place from him? A He was living, I think possibly he moved out part of his family to Mayesville and part of them was in Fayetteville in the early part of '67, and in the winter of '67 they all moved there to Mayesville and lived there until he bought this place back.

Q Now do you know anything about where Dr. Polston was in the early part of '68, or where he came from when you saw him and your father bought the place? A He came from Arkansas.

Q He was a white man was he? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when that, no, I don't guess you do either, you never did get acquainted with Katie Ridge did you? A Never have seen her that I know of.

Q There never was any Freedmen on that place from '56 after you bought it? A No sir, there wasn't but one house and we had it.

Q After that was there any Freedmen lived on the Washburn place that you know of? A Not that I had any knowledge of.

Q But you moved away from that place in '68? A Yes sir.

BY MR. WELLETTS:

Q How old are you, Mr. Wood? A 33 years old last July, sir.

Q You must have been about 13 years old then in 1866, that right? A Yes sir, going on 14 I think.

Q What did you mean by buying a place at that time, you didn't buy a place did you? A I said my father.

Q You were quite a young boy at that time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember well everything that took place in those days? A Yes sir, I do.

Q You paid particular attention to just who was living around there? A Yes sir, there wasn't so many but what you could count them very easy.

Q You were a 13 year old boy and still you recollect it at this time? A Yes sir.

Q What place are you talking about as the one that killed colored people did not live on? A On the Polston place.

Q Where was that? A On the south edge of Peter's Prairie in the Cherokee Nation.

Q Was that on Honey Creek? A No sir, it wasn't directly, the banks of Honey Creek, a mile I guess from the Creek.

Q How many Polston places were there in that country? A Just the one.

Q How do you know? A I lived there.

Q You were a boy 13 years old, can you remember that there were no other places belonging to Polston? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you go during the war? A I went to the Cherokee Nation.

Q When did you return? A In '66.

Q What time in '66? A Spring.

Q What time in the spring? A We left Carriage Point in the Cherokee Nation in April and I think we were possibly 3 months getting through.

Q Do you know Herman or Hiram Ridge? A No sir.

Q You don't know where he lived before the war then? A No sir.

BY MR. NEEDLES:

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q By blood? A Yes sir.

Q What is your occupation? A I am farming and selling goods.

BY MR. NEEDLES:

Q Now you said you returned in 1866, did you come to the Cherokee Nation in '66? A No sir.

Q Where did you come to? A We landed up on Honey Creek in the edge of Arkansas or Mike Blevins' place.

Q And then moved down into the Cherokee Nation in '66? A Yes sir.

Katie Ridge etc (sup'1)3

Wm. H. WOODALL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. BRILL:

Q Give your name, age and post-office? A W. H. Woodall, 59, Big Cabin.

Q This is a case, Mrs. Woodall, of Katie Ridge, Freedman woman, claiming to be a Cherokee slave before the war or a Cherokee, and now claims a right as a Cherokee citizen under the 3rd article of the Treaty of 1866, were you acquainted with the Ridge family, Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you know them? A I know them in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How did you get acquainted with them? A I married into the family.

Q Who was it? A I married Inezus Ridge.

Q About when was that? A I married him in '88, spring of '88.

Q Were you acquainted with one Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, he was my brother-in-law.

Q That was a brother of your husband? A Yes sir.

Q Were you acquainted with Miss Flora Belmont? A Yes sir, she was a sister to my husband.

Q Now you acquainted with Mrs. Sarah Ridge? A No, she died before I went there; she was the mother of my husband. She died a year or so before I went there.

Q Where did this Herman Ridge, your brother-in-law, live when you became acquainted with him? A In Fayetteville, at his sisters, Mrs. Washburn's.

Q Was that his home? A Yes sir, all the home I ever knew of.

Q You never knew of him having a home in the Cherokee Nation?

A No sir.

Q This name that he had was in Washington County, Arkansas?

A Yes sir.

Q Did you know a negro woman he had by the name of Katie? A Yes sir.

Q Did she have a husband named Henry? A Yes sir.

Q Have any children? A Yes sir.

Q Should you name any of them? A Cornelius is the only one I ever saw while I was there that I know of; you had other children, but I don't remember of ever seeing them when they were small; I have seen them since they were grown.

BY MR. BRILLITE:

Q Mrs. Woodall, was Herman Ridge a Cherokee Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't he have a farm in the Cherokee Nation? A Not that I ever knew of, there was a farm here that had belonged to his father, but I don't think he ever claimed it.

Q He claimed to be a Cherokee citizen didn't he? A I don't know whether he did or not; he always lived there; he was living in Fayetteville when I knew him and I never heard him say.

Q You didn't become a member of the Cherokee Nation, did you?

A No sir.

Q That was two years before the war began, say? A Yes sir.

Q Then did you see Katie Ridge back in the Indian Territory, in 1865? A I wasn't here in 1865; I saw Henry, her husband, in Springfield, Missouri, the winter of '66, but I didn't see her.

Q Well you were a witness for Katie Ridge before the Wallace Court were you not? A Yes sir, that day they asked me the same questions you have asked me; they didn't ask me whether he was here in '66 or not; they didn't ask me that question at all. They asked me if I knew her and knew she belonged to the Cherokee before the war, and I told them I did.

Q Are you a witness of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Is that right? A By marriage.

Q Was Herman Ridge's brother?

A Yes sir.

Q And by virtue of marrying Herman Ridge's brother you claim to be a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir. I never lived in the Cherokee Nation during his lifetime; my husband is a Cherokee.

Q Your present husband is a Cherokee? A Yes sir.

Q Where did you live during the lifetime of Mr. Ridge? A We lived at Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Q How long did you live there? A A year and four months, that was as long as he lived.

Q That was up just about the beginning of the war? A Well I had lived there until '58. I left there in the fall of '58.

Q Where was the farm located that the father of Herman Ridge owned in the Cherokee Nation? A Well I don't know. It was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the farm, that Herman Ridge owned?

Q No, that Herman Ridge's father owned? A Yes it was somewhere on Honey Creek, but I don't know anything about the place. I never was there. I suppose that Dr. Polston lived on part of it. I don't know though whether it was or not.

Q How long after the close of the war was it that you saw Kate Ridge in Springfield, Missouri? A I never saw Kate Ridge in Springfield, Missouri. I saw her husband.

Q O, you just saw her husband? A Yes sir.

Q Was she there? A I don't know. He said he was living near Springfield. Henry Ridge told me he was living there near Springfield at the time I saw him.

Q But you didn't see Kate at all? A No, I didn't see her. I didn't see any of his family at that time.

Q When did you see Kate Ridge then? A I saw her in '72 here in the Cherokee Nation, near St. Louis.

Q Where did you see her? A I saw her on the road toward Southwest City on the old Vicksburg road. That's all I can tell you. I don't know exactly where on the road I saw her. I was on my way back and met the wagon. I was with Sam Vicksburg's wagon, and she told me that was Uncle Henry and his family, and I stopped and spoke to him.

JOHN R. SHIELDS, being sworn to by Commissioner Hendrix, testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Tell that gentleman your name, your age and post-office? A Grove is my post-office; my name is John R. Shields, my age is 35.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I guess not.

Q Well how do you put it down for a fact? A Well I expect you will have to put it down for a fact that I never proved my right somehow or another; my wife claims citizenship, but we never went through; we are one of those that got behind. I am not a citizen myself at all.

Q You are a white man, not an Indian? A Yes sir.

Q Where were you living in '66? A I was living 2 miles north of Southwest City, up on what is known as the "Long Road", line between the Cherokee Nation and Missouri.

Q Were you living 2 miles north of Southwest City or what is now called Southwest City? A 2 miles north of what is now Southwest City at the present time.

Q At the time you lived there was there a town on the present site of Southwest City? A No sir.

Q What was there? A Honey Creek without anything else. There was a man's farm there, crossing of the road in the creek; that was all town or village there at all.

Q Can you state just when a store was first put up there and a town started? A I cannot give the exact date, but directly after the war in '66 or perhaps '67.

Q Who was the first man that first carried a store there and I suppose were the first man to live there?

Q Was there a post-office there? A I don't know. I don't know what the name of the first man was.

Q What was the post-office name? A I don't know.

Katie Ridge (map 1) 5

Q What was the place called then? A Honey Creek. Did it

Q How long did it retain that name of Honey Creek, or when change back to Southwest? A It remained Honey Creek until there was a little village started up there and then it was changed to Southwest City.

Q Was that in one or two or three years? A Well yes, three years perhaps, somewhere along in that range, I don't know just when, I don't recollect the date as to when it was changed, but after the town was started a little.

MR. BELLETTE: I can't believe I want to get him anything.

JAMES M. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

BY MR. BELL:

Q Give me your name, age and post-office? A My name is James M. Bell, aged 52, post-office Needmore, St. Vincent, either one.

Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation and you? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you lived in this Cherokee nation? A Well with the exception of a few intervals I have been here since '89.

Q Well you have been here 40 years or more? A Yes sir.

Q Are you acquainted with John Ridge's family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know when John Ridge died? A He was killed the 12th day of June, 1839.

Q Where did he live then? A He lived on Honey Creek, in Delaware District.

Q Did he leave a family? A Yes.

Q What was their name? A They were if you can do it. A daughter was the first child was not of sound mind, a girl, Rollen Ridge was the next, Herman, Eugene, Andrew, Susan, Washburn, Eliza Polston, constituted the family.

Q Well, how long did they continue to reside, or did they continue to reside in the Cherokee nation after John Ridge's death? A I think they moved out immediately, out of the country, they didn't remain long after the death of Ridge.

Q What became of them? A They moved to Benton County, Arkansas.

Q How long did they reside there, or did they continue to live there? A They were living there when I was visiting the family but afterwards moved to Fayetteville, that was in '55, sometime, that I was there.

Q That in Benton county? A In Benton County.

Q Then you say they afterwards moved to Fayetteville? A Yes sir.

Q Where is Fayetteville? A In Washington County, Arkansas.

Q You were acquainted with Herman Ridge, were you? A Yes sir.

Q How old a man was he at the time of his death, if you know?

A He was between 25 and 30; he was 25 I reckon, between 25 and 30.

Q Well he was killed when? A He was killed in '63 I believe, or '62, in the Cherokee nation.

Q Tell his father was killed in '39, how old did you say he was you think? A I think he was between 25 and 30.

Q Now where did he live and make his home? A He was with his mother; he was a single man; had no family of his own.

Q He was with his mother where? A In Benton County, Arkansas.

Q When did he join the army? A He joined in '62.

Q Would you tell me some more about that? A Yes.

Q Do you know of his ever having a wife, or of him having a habitation in the Cherokee nation? A Yes, he was killed and his family moved out of the nation.

Q You were intimately acquainted with the family were you? A Yes.

Q How were they related to you? A They were my friends.

Q By blood, friendship, or otherwise? A By blood.

Q How was it? A It is my father.

standing that we are related by blood, but what degree I don't know, but the family were intimately acquainted.

BY MR. BELLETTE:

Q Where did you live just before the war? A My father lived in what was called Flint district down here near Stillwell before the war.

Q Where did the Ridges move from when you say they moved to Benton County, Arkansas? A They moved from off of Honey Creek, Delaware District.

Q That's in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q Well they kept up their farm after they went to Benton County, didn't they? A Rollin Ridge moved onto the farm after his father was killed, but didn't remain there long; Rollin Ridge was the oldest son, and moved back onto the farm with the expectation of restoring the old place I guess, and living there.

Q Now are you there and know all about this personally; did you see that? A I saw Rollin Ridge there, yes sir, at the place.

Q I will ask you if Peter Ridge, a slave, was not in charge of that place for the Ridges after they went out into the State? A I don't know anything in regard to that.

Q I will ask you if they didn't leave the Territory because of the murder of John Ridge? A That is the family?

Q Yes. A Left the country on that account. That's my understanding, yes sir.

Q You don't mean to say that they abandoned their citizenship in the country? A Well I don't know; it is my impression that they did.

Q Why? A Why it was impossible for them to live here.

Q All you know is that they were out of the Territory? A Yes, I know that they were out of here.

Q I will ask you now if Mrs. Ridge, the mother of Herman Ridge, was lived in Benton County, there at Fayetteville, she didn't send her slaves back and forth from where she was to their farm to keep it up? A I know nothing of that.

Q Didn't she take supplies from that farm over to her house at Fayetteville to live on? A She might have done so, but I know nothing of that.

L. B. BELL, being sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

BY MR. W. V. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A L. B. Bell, 32 years old, Minnie.

Q Where were you born? A Well I was born in the State of Georgia, I guess, Haversham County, they tell me, I don't have no recollection of it.

Q Where did you live when you were first able enough to remember, in the Cherokee Nation here? A Well I think I was right down here below the Grand Saline, below that Frank Adams farm in 1842 when the whole world was flooded, I just have recollection of moving out of there, '43 or '44.

Q Do you remember the Ridge family? A Yes sir.

Q Do you remember where the old Ridge place was on Honey Creek this side of Southwest City? A Yes, I know what they called the old Ridge place, on Peter's Prairie.

Q Were you ever at that place prior to the war? A On lots of times.

Q Now who lived there, occupied it? A The Peter, the way I first got acquainted with John, Rollin Ridge, a son of John Ridge lived there, him and his family, and he had a son there and another and had to go to California, and there was some other people there. Then an old man named Peter, an old slave of his, that he had there, remained on the place a long time, then it passed into the hands of Dr. Pelster, who married John, the daughter of John Ridge family; they lived there until I suppose lived there a or 4 years.

Q Did you know Herman Ridge? A Yes sir, I knew Herman Ridge so far as I could recollect.

Q Where did you know him? A I knew him in Benton County, Arkansas first; next at Washington County, Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

Q Was he living at Fayetteville when the war came up? A He lived there and at Fayetteville from '48 up until the war as well as I could recollect him, and then he came and joined our command, that is the confederate Army. General Watie was a kinsman of his and he joined the 2nd regiment that he was raising, and I think he was killed in '63, or maybe '62.

Q Anything else you want to state? A That's about all I know about that place, except that Polston re-occupied the place and lived there, - his wife died in about 1868; his heirs own it yet.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q You are chief counsel for the Cherokee Nation in the conduct of these Freedmen cases are you? A Yes sir, supposed to be.

MR. MELLETTTE: Well I believe if that is the case I will let you go.

MRS. M. N. WOODALL, being re-called and further examined, testified as follows:

BY MR. RILL:

Q Did Herman Ridge keep his slaves, keep this place up there in Washington County while he lived there? A Yes sir, they lived right there.

BY MR. MELLETTTE:

Q Did she return to the Cherokee Nation at any time after she was there while you were there? A Not that I know of.

Q You don't pretend to say you can remember back that long and say she didn't return to the Cherokee Nation? A She never returned to the best of my knowledge, I was there.

Q Now the descendants of the Ridges are still citizens of the Cherokee Nation are they not? A Yes sir.

Q The Washbourns? A Yes sir.

Q What relations are the Washbourns to Herman Ridge? A Mrs. Washbourn was Herman Ridge's sister, the children are Herman Ridge's nieces and nephews.

Q Where was Mrs. Washbourn living when you were living at Fayetteville? A She was living at Fayetteville.

Q And did she live after the war? A At Fayetteville.

Q No, where did she live after the war? A When I know her after the war she lived here in the Cherokee Nation on Honey Creek.

Q This Mrs. Washbourn who was Herman Ridge's sister and lived at Fayetteville with Herman Ridge, came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war as a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q She was a young lady at the time she was living at Fayetteville? A She was a married woman.

Q Married to Washbourn? A Yes sir.

Q Didn't they all leave the Cherokee Nation because they were afraid of their lives after John Ridge was murdered? A Well I don't know why they went; I wasn't in the family then.

Q They all came back to the Cherokee Nation after that? A Mrs. Washbourn and her family and Polston and his family came back.

Q Polston married Herman Ridge's sister? A Yes sir.

Q Did he leave the territory during the war? A I wasn't here during the war, I don't know anything about it.

Q Where was Polston living when you went into the Ridge family in '48? A He was at Fayetteville.

Q He is back in the Cherokee Nation as a citizen is he not? A He is not living now.

Q He did move back into there at a certain time after the war? A Yes.

Q I will ask you if they were not considered citizens of the Cherokee Nation because it was made for them to live in the Cherokee Nation?

Kato Ridge (sup'l) B

okes, Nations? A Well I don't know; I knew they were living there and that's all I know; I never heard them say anything about it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You don't know that these people were taken by these people,
Washington and on Polatom to re-establish their citizenship? A
No sir.

Commissioner.

Sadie Miller et al.

Sadie Miller, recalled and examined by Commissioner, testified as follows:

Q You say you and Dick Whitmire were married before the war? A Yes, sir, before the war.

Q Where was it that you and he parted during the war? A He lived in Going Snake district and I lived at Webbers Falls time of the war.

Q How did you happen to part, did he go one way and you go another, or did you quarrel and part? A No, sir, I was living at the falls and he lived up in Flint District; Going Snake district, and I went out, the soldiers came and got us there and took me to Baxter Springs, and he came after that, I don't know where he came from.

Q Did he come after that while the war was still going on? A Yes, sir.

Q Had you married in the mean time? A No, sir.

Q Well, he was still your husband at that time? A Yes, sir, he was my husband.

Q You hadn't parted then down to that time? A No, sir.

Q Were you and he husband and wife up in Kansas during the war, at Baxter Springs? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, what became of him after that? A He got away from there in '63.

Q And how long was it that you saw him after that? A I never seen him till the fall of '65.

Q Had you married again in the meantime? A No, sir, I wasn't married when I first saw him.

Q When you saw him in the fall of '65 you hadn't married? A No, sir.

Q Had he married? A I don't know, he was living with a woman.

Q Did he claim you and live with you as his wife? A No, sir.

Q That was, you say, in the fall of '65? A Yes, sir.

Q Now Buck Bushyhead, you say you married him in the winter of '65?

A Yes, sir, in the winter of '65.

Q Well most of the winter of '65 was a long time before the fall of '65? A '65; now I made a mistake, I came back, that is in '65, Dick Whitmire was living with a woman.

Q Before you married Bushyhead? A Yes, sir.

Q When you married Bushyhead he didn't any longer claim you as his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Dick Whitmire was living as man and wife with another woman, and no longer claimed you as his wife? A No, sir.

Q And then you felt free to marry Buck Bushyhead? A Yes, sir.

Q And you lived with Buck Bushyhead until he died? A Yes, sir.

Q And after that you married Stephen Miller? A Yes, sir.

Q And you are living with him now? A Yes, sir.

Q Had peace been made then? A Yes, sir, peace was made.

Q How long was that after peace was made before you saw her, do you know? A No, sir, I can't tell that exactly.

Q Well, what do you know about her from that day to this, have you been seeing her all the time? A No, sir, I can't locate her all the time, she stayed a while in Gibson and said she was going away from there, and I asked her where she was going and she said I was going to take my children back to school, and said, there is nothing here for them but death, and I said, you had better come back down here.

Q Did you ever know this child Nettie after the war? A No, sir, she just had two children with her and I never paid no attention to them at all.

Q Well, have you seen much of her from that day to this? A No, sir, I haven't seen her for a good while until I met her here again. I heard of her but I haven't seen her.

Q Did you remember and recognize her distinctly? A Yes, sir.

Q As she was when you knew her before the war? A Yes, sir, know her the minute I set my eyes on her.

Q The same woman you knew in Port Gibson? A Yes, sir, same woman. I was glad to see her alive.

Q You don't know anything about her marriage since the war time? A No, sir, I don't know anything about her marriage at all.

Q Now she says that this woman belonged to, the Holts, was she well known and recognized throughout the country? A Yes, sir.

Q And you know her as their slave, did you? A Yes, sir.

Q She passed it down in the neighborhood? A Yes, sir, she called her mistress, she would be waiting on her everywhere she would go.

Q Now long before the war broke out had it been known that you had her, Aunt Folly? A I can't tell you how long.

Q How long before she came to my home as a slave?

Q How long before she came to my home as a slave? A Yes, sir, same year.

Q That was before the war began? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know anything of them after they left Flint district and went to Canadian, up to the time the war began? A I seen her in Gibson.

Q Not before the war? A No, sir, but after we came in scattered during the soldiers, we all met at Gibson, they brought us to Gibson, carried us to where we first went, to Maesho, and back.

Q Holt before that moved down about Webbers Falls sometime before the war began? A There is where she lived I guess before the war broke out.

Q They moved away then from where you were living? A Yes, sir.

Q And you don't know anything more about them until after the war began, do you? A No, sir.

Q And you don't know where she went during the war, do you? A No sir, don't know where she went.

Q All you know about it is that she came back to Fort Gibson sometime before the close of the war or about the close? A Yes, sir.

Q You don't know where she has been living since the war closed?

A No, sir, I can't place her where she has been living since.

Q There would be several years at a time you didn't hear of her?

Q Of course I don't know only where she went.

Q Where do you live? A I live at Big Creek.

Mr. Smith: Do you know how long Sallie Miller, the applicant, was at Fort Gibson when you saw her at the time the refugees were there?

A We were all there about three years.

DORCAS BUSHINGTON, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your name? A Dorcas Burington.

Q How old are you? A I am 38 years old, according to what Mr. Bushyhead told me.

Q What is your post office? A Melvin.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born in the Cherokee Nation, in Tennessee.

Q Did you come here with the Cherokees in old times? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you lived here ever since? A I have lived here ever since; of course my folks hired me out once in a while in the state, but that was when I was small.

Q Went out during the war? A No, sir.

Q Here during the war? A Yes, sir, all during the war.

Q Were you here when the war began? A Yes, sir, right here.

Q Who was it you belonged to? A I belonged to Mr. Bushyhead, that lady's (indicating) husband's father.

Q The father of Chief Bushyhead? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Smith: Do you know this applicant, Sallie Miller? A Yes, sir, she married in my town.

Q How long have you known Sallie? A I been knowing her, I can't exactly tell you, but it has been long before the war.

Q You know her before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q You know whether she was a slave or not? A I know she was a slave, I don't just think it, I know it.

Q Who did she belong to? A She belonged to old Mrs. Holt, old Mrs. Fannie Holt, she married a white man.

Q Were the Holts citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir, citizens.

Q Where did they live? A They lived away down there in Flint, I can't tell you exactly the place.

Q When did you first see Sallie in the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Well, I can't tell you exactly the time I met her, but that she came to my house and stayed with me when they put out word about the negroes that were back to the old country, and she came to my house and stayed there for a week or so, and then she went off to the Hoards, and I don't know how long she stayed there.

Sallie Miller - p.

Q Where were you living? A I was living on Fourteen Mile Creek.

Q Did you go out of the Nation during the war? A No, sir.

Q Was it all? A No, sir, not at all, only when I was traveling with the army, waiting on the Cherokees.

Q Do you know what year it was you saw her? A Not clear, I can't tell you that part, I never kept the dates of the years, I never thought nothing about it.

Q Where did this man Rogers that you spoke of live? A He lived between Grand River and I lived on Fourteen Mile Creek.

Q Do you know whether she had been to Fort Gibson, or whether she went to Fort Gibson after you saw her? A She went to Gibson, said she was going when she went from my house.

Q What was her name then? A Her name was Sallie Walker, Charlie Walker married her.

Q Was she ever married after that to anybody else? A I can't tell you that, I know before she married Charlie Walker she lived with a man named Big Whitmire, one of the Whitmires, and I believe she had some children by him; I don't know, I never seen the children.

Q Did Whitmire ever go by any other name? A No, sir.

Q Who did he belong to? A He was a Freedman, he was a Cherokee the Whitmires was.

Q He wasn't a colored man at all? A No, sir, he owned slaves; Temple Holt married Johnson Whitmire, and you know Temple was a fine lady, she wouldn't want a nigger.

Q When did Sallie marry Miller, her present husband? A I don't know sir, I don't know that.

Q How many children did Sallie have, if she had any children, at the time you speak of her coming to your house? A She had two.

Q Do you know what their names were? A I think one was named Annie and the boy I can remember what that child's name was right now, but she had two children.

Q Do you know whether Sallie has been married more than once?

A No, sir, I don't, I don't know nothing about her whether she was married more than once or not, but I know she was married once and that was to Charlie Walker.

Q What was he, a colored man? A He was a colored man, he was my sister's son, and you know I am colored.

Q Was Charlie Walker a slave? A That is what he was, a slave of the same people I was.

Q Did they sometimes call Charlie Walker Charlie Bushyhead?

A Yes, sir, got the Charlie Walker from his father.

Q His father's name was Walker and his mother's name was Bushyhead?

A No, sir, it isn't that way, after the dorkies got free, he went by the name of his father, and when he was a slave we all went by the name of our masters.

Q What was that? A Bushyhead.

Q Charlie Walker, the man who married Sallie, his name was Walker?

A Yes, sir.

Q And his mother's name was Bushyhead, is that right? A No, sir, that isn't right yet; Charlie Walker he went by the name of the man that his father belonged to, after he got free, and when he lived at home why he went by the name of Bushyhead.

Q Then he went by two names? A Of course, after he got free.

Q What were they? A When he got free he went by the name of Walker, and when he was living at home at Bushyhead's, he went by the name of Charlie Bushyhead.

Q That was this woman's husband? A That was her husband.

Mr. Smith: If the court please, in making this record, I would like to have a reference to the case of Joshua Holt, D-244, Joshua Holt was this woman's brother.

Sallie Miller - 6.

Sallie Miller, recalled, testified:

Commissioner: Did you have a brother named Joshua? A Yes, sir.

Q A full brother? A No, sir.

Q Now a full brother? A No, sir, brother on my mother's side.

Q Is he older or younger than you? A Younger.

Q How much younger? A I guess he must be 10 years younger, I am 39 and I think he is 33 or 35.

Q Was he with you during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Did he come back with you when the war closed? A No, sir.

Q You didn't come back with him? A No, sir.

Q Did you and he belong to the same people when the war broke out? A Yes, sir.

Mr. Bavenport: Now Sarah, did you ever apply to the Bob Daniels, ex-chamberlain's court to establish your right after you returned to the Cherokee Nation? A No, sir, I never was but once, was sent to Tahlequah, I think it was somewhere in ninety, when I didn't get the Wallace money.

Q You applied to the Kern-Clifton Commission? A Yes, sir.

Q Now where were you living when your husband Dick Bushyhead died? A Bush Bushyhead you mean; why he died in Fort Scott.

Q Where were you living at that time? A On Big Creek.

Q You were down on Big Creek when he died in Fort Scott? A Yes, sir, he went up there to apply for his pension, he was there two weeks.

Q You had been in Fort Scott during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q You went from Baxter Springs? A Yes, sir.

Q You stayed there a few months, and then came back, and you and your husband went to Fort Scott? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know the time when you were in Fort Scott? A No, sir, not before he died.

Q When were you and your present husband, Miller, married, in what year? A In 1884.

Q Where were you living at the time? A I was living in Fort Scott.

Q Miller was a resident of Fort Scott too, wasn't he? A Yes, sir.

Q Now then you and Miller lived there some time after you married before you came back to the Cherokee Nation? A I stayed about six months.

Q You stayed there first and last all together about seven years? A No, sir, I never stayed in Fort Scott seven years at one time.

Q I mean first and last? A Yes, sir, about that first and last since the war.

Q About that first and last since the war closed? A Yes, sir.

Q Now you are not a full sister of Joshua Holt? A No, sir.

Q Both had the same mother, but not the same father? A Yes, sir.

Q Easter Holt is your mother, isn't she? A Yes, sir, Easter Holt.

Q Did you and Easter Holt and your ~~uncle~~ half brother go out of the Cherokee Nation together during the war? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, who returned first? A Why I returned first.

Q When did your mother and Joshua return? A Why they — now I can't say they did —

Q Do you know really when they returned? A Yes, sir, they came back when they had that fight at up here at Horse Creek.

Q They came back the year of the Horse Creek fight did they? A It seems to me, I can't say positively.

Mr. Smith: Are you the daughter of Easter Holt, who applied for ~~pension~~ this morning over there? Did you see her ever there? A Yes, sir.

Commissioner: When did you marry your husband Dick Bushyhead? A In Fort Gibson.

Q Was he a Cherokee Freedman? A Yes, sir.

Sallie Miller - 7.

Q Dorcas Buffington stated about your being at her house on Thirteen Mile Creek? A It is Fourteen Mile Creek.

Q What time was that after the war? A It was in '70.

Q That was a long time after the war? A Yes, sir.

Q She doesn't know anything about when you came back? A Well now I don't know whether she did or not, because I stayed in Gibson.

Q Before you saw her after the war was closed before '70? A Yes, sir, I seen her then in Fort Gibson, at the sutler's store, Mr. Percival run the store, and Buck Bushyhead worked at the same store.

Q You spoke of going to Tahlequah once to see about getting your rights? A Yes, sir.

Q What did you go there? A I went down there and I seen Mr. Thompson, V. A. Thompson.

Q Did you apply to any Court? A Yes, sir, there at Tahlequah.

Q And what did the Court do? A They told me that I was re-admitted.

Q Did you apply to be recognized or re-admitted? A Yes, sir, they said all them they could find the names on the 1880 roll to go down there with proof and they would put them on the roll, and I went and I thought I knowed him in time of the war there at Fort Gibson and I thought I would get him and he would attend to it for me.

Q Did you appear before the Court? A Yes, sir.

Q You give in your testimony? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you have any witnesses? A Yes, sir.

Q And the Court heard your case? A Yes, sir.

Q Did the Court pronounce a decision in your case? A They said the chief would have a ten days session and then he would attend to it.

Q Did you ever get any notice of what that decision was? A No, sir.

Q In what year was that, as near as you can remember? A It has been, I guess, six years ago.

Q Was that the only application you ever made to any Court or Commission on authority to have your rights fixed? A No, sir, went before the Wallace Court, and went before the Clifton and Kerns.

Q Why wouldn't they put you on the Wallace roll? A I don't know.

Q Why didn't they put you on the Kern-Clifton roll? A I don't know, unless it was because I didn't have a whole lot of money to pay out, that asked me for some money and I told them I didn't have any.

Q Who asked you for money? A Turner, he wanted ninety dollars, and I told him I didn't have ninety cents.

Q Well, your rights ought not to depend upon your having money; how about the roll of 1880? A I was at Fourteen Mile Creek at that time when the 1880 roll was made.

Q Were you at Dorcas Buffington's at that time? A Yes, sir.

Q What about they making that roll? A They didn't come, and I got Uncle Harry to go down to see Mr. Lips, I believe old man Lips had something to do with that, and he went there, and said Mr. Lips said it was all right, and that was the reason I didn't bother anything about these rolls, I thought I was all right till it came around and I didn't get any money.

Mr. Davenport: I would like to object to that hearsay part about what that fellow went down there and said Mr. Lips said.

Mr. Smith: What did you state was the occasion, or why did you go to Tahlequah in the nineties to see about your citizenship?

A They had a notice in the paper to all them didn't appear on the 1880 roll to go down there and with sufficient proof and they would put them on the roll.

Q Who had the notice? A It was in the paper, in the Vinita paper.

Q And you went to Tahlequah? A Yes, sir.

Q Who did you go to when you went to Tahlequah? A I went to this Mr. Thompson.

Q V. A. Thompson? A Yes, sir.

Sallie Miller - 8.

Q Now you spoke of going before some Court or Commission; what Court did you ever go before? A Before the Wallace Court and before this Clifton and Kern.

Q But when you went to Tahlequah? A The Council was going on, the Council was in session at that time.

Q You didn't go before the Council, did you? A Yes, I guess it was, Stick Ross was one of the councilmen, and Spade was one of the councilmen.

Q What ever became of that W. A. Thompson you went to see? A They said he died.

Q Did he? A I never seen him since.

Q Now as a matter of fact, do you know whether you went before any Court or not down there? A There was eight or ten men in a room, they said they was.

Q Did you pay Thompson? A Yes, sir, gave him $10.

Q Do you know of your own knowledge whether there were any applications made, of your own knowledge, outside of what Thompson told you?

A No, sir, I don't, I just had faith in him, and he knew me during the war at Fort Gibson and I thought sure he would do what he told me.

Mr. Davenport: You hadn't heard at that time about Thompson going back to Georgia and having a friend to write home to his mother that he was dead and having his mother send money to pay his funeral expenses? A Yes, sir, I heard about that afterwards, and I never tried to see anything more about it.

Commissioner: Did you ever apply to the Dawes Commission in 1888 to have your rights recognized? A No, sir, I don't think I ever went before them.

Commissioner: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and one grandchild. The applicant is not identified upon the roll of 1880 or on the Wallace roll or on the Kern Clifton roll or on the roll of 1890. It appears from the testimony that she was in the Cherokee Nation at the breaking out of the Civil War, and was the slave of a Cherokee citizen. There is considerable testimony to the effect that she returned to the Cherokee Nation in 1865, and has lived in the Cherokee Nation at this time, and has been so living for a number of years past, but it appears that altogether, for six or seven years, but not in a continuous way, she has since the war been absent from the Cherokee Nation and in the State of Kansas. In the light of her omission from the rolls, what she has to say in connection therewith, the testimony of her return to the Cherokee Nation within the time prescribed by the Treaty of 1866, though so far quite definite and reasonably satisfactory, requires to be carefully considered, and some attention should be given to the testimony relating to her subsequent residence to determine whether or not she has adjured her citizenship. It appears that she made application at Tahlequah for recognition before some Court of the Council of her rights as a Cherokee citizen, and that her application was not granted. The testimony in this particular is not quite very definite. Her change of name arising from marriage is established in a reasonably satisfactory manner. She will, under the conditions stated be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card, and the final decision of the Commission will be made known to her at her post office address.

As for her grandchild, her application will not be considered at this time, inasmuch as she is said to have been born in 1876, or prior thereto, and to be now married, but the examination with reference to her rights has been quite carefully made, as this child can only claim through its mother, and when she does apply it will be desirable to file the grandmother's testimony with the application. It appears that the mother of this grandchild, called by the applicant Nettie Holt, died in 1878, and was the daughter of her first husband, Dick Whitmore, a slave in the Cherokee Nation at the time of the breaking out of the war, and with whom the applicant continued to live until about the time of the close of the war. It further appears that this Nettie Holt returned with the applicant from Kansas and so far as the applicant's rights in that particular may be concerned, acquired all the rights of her mother; and also, it appears that this Nettie Holt, after her return to the Cherokee Nation about the time of the close of the Civil war, was never out of the Nation except some four years when she was at school. This daughter, now known as Katie Davis, is shown to be Nettie Holt's daughter by a non citizen. Therefore, when the facts of her own residence be duly established in the Cherokee Nation, her rights apparently will turn exclusively upon the date of the return of the applicant, her grandmother, to the Cherokee Nation, with reference to the treaty of 1868. As indicated, the examination continued further at this time than simply to develop the testimony through the grandmother, upon which that application must rest when it is made in its regular order.

Bruce P. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

VINITA, I.T., OCTOBER 5th, 1901.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of SALLIE MILLER as a Cherokee Freedman, introduced on behalf of Cherokee Nation.

APPEARANCES:

Mr. Mellette, of Counsel for applicant;
Mr. Davenport, of Counsel for Cherokee Nation.

SIMON MCKENZIE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles,
testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A Simon McKenzie.

Q Where do you live? A I live up Pryor Creek, about five miles north of Pryor Creek.

Q What is your age? A I am 59.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Been living here all my life, only few times I have been out of the Nation.

Q Well, you were out of the Nation; when you were out of the Nation what places were you in? A When I was out of the Nation I lived at Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q About what year did you live in Fort Scott, Kansas? A I lived from 1865 down to 1866, '87 and down to spring of '68.

Q During the years you lived there did you become acquainted with Sallie Miller, or Holt, or Walker? A Yes, sir, I was acquainted with one lady named at that time Sallie Holt.

Q Well, did you know her family at that time, her mother?
A Yes, sir.

Q What was her mother's name? A Aunt Easter Holt.

Q Did you know any of her brothers? A Tecumseh and I forget the other one's name, was another one.

Q Do you know whether it was Mose or Joshua? A Yes, sir, Mose and Joshua.

Q Did you know any of her sisters? A Yes, sir, but I forget their names.

Q Now, where were they living, if you know, during the years you lived at Fort Scott? A They lived in an old Government building right in Fort Scott.

Q You went there in 1865? A In '65.

Q How long had you been there before you knew these people, or got acquainted with them? A I was there about a month or two or three months, I could not state the time.

Q Well, where were they living when you left Fort Scott, Kansas, if you know? A Well, Aunt Easter was living in an old Government building.

Q Have you seen any of them since that time? A No, sir.

MR. MELLETTE: Now, Mr. McKenzie, you don't know that the woman who is an applicant here for enrollment is the woman whom you say you saw up at Fort Scott, Kansas, at the close of the war, do you?

A I don't know the woman.

Q You don't know that that is the same woman? A In the same name.

Q It is not the same name? A She name Holt.

Q Well, you don't know that this is the same woman that you knew up there, do you? A Well, it was a daughter of Easter Holt, it was a Sallie woman.

Q Well, you don't know anything about this applicant; you have never seen this applicant here? A I haven't seen her here.

- Q. Well, you have never seen her since she has made application here for enrollment have you? A. No, sir.
- Q. Now, when did you leave Fort Scott, Kansas? A. I left there early in '88, in the spring.
- Q. In the spring of '88? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. What were you doing up there at Fort Scott? A. I was working there at Fort Scott, for Billy Shanahan, stone mason, doing public work there.
- Q. Did you keep track of these colored people? A. All I saw.
- Q. Did you ever testify in this case before? A. I guess I did.
- Q. When? A. Not long ago at Fort Gibson.
- Q. You give testimony up at Fort Gibson? A. I think I did.
- Q. How long ago? A. I don't know exactly whether it was last month.
- Q. How old are you, Mr. McKemie? A. I am 59.
- Q. Well, it has been 35 or 36 years ago then since you saw them up there at Kansas? A. Yes, sir, I guess so, I never kept count of the time.
- Q. Well say 35; well, Mr. McKemie, can you remember just about the time you saw these people up there 35 years ago? A. Well, I guess I could remember it, I stated before.
- Q. There is no reason why you paid particular attention to them? A. No, just seeing them pass and repassing about.
- Q. You left there in the spring of '88? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Well, they could left there a year before that and you not remember it 35 years afterwards? A. Didn't I saw they back and forth all the time I was up there, off and on.
- Q. Well, now, off and on there, you saw them? A. Every week.
- Q. Can you remember 35 years ago you saw these people every weeks? A. I guess so, I wouldn't be here if I didn't thought I could testify nothing.
- Q. Well, you feel because you are here you have to testify something? A. I don't know.
- Q. Well, I want to know if you can remember 35 years ago you saw these people every week? A. I did while I was living in Fort Scott most every week.
- Q. Is it possible they might have left there a year before you did? A. If they did they went back in a short time.
- Q. What were you paying so particular attention to these people for? A. I could not tell you.
- Q. You just watched them? A. Well, just seeing them pass and pass every day.
- Q. What else did you see up there at Fort Scott? A. Why I see good many.
- Q. What other colored people? A. Good many, good many other colored.
- Q. Just people, but I don't know their names.
- Q. Well, now, give the name of some other colored person you saw up there except this family? A. I could not give their name.
- Q. There were a great many colored people in Fort Scott? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. And of all the colored people that was in Fort Scott this family is the only one you remember the names? A. Yes, sir, of course I was passing there and some lived out in the country.
- Q. Well, who else lived in the Government building there? A. Good many families.
- Q. Good many families? A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Why don't you remember the names of the other colored people? A. Because the boys I remember them, and part lived in town.
- Q. Why don't you remember the names of some other colored people you saw there some time? A. Well, I could if I wanted to state the whole thing I can, there was Bill Thompson.
- Q. Who is Bill Thompson? A. There he is (pointing to a man in the audience.)

Q And who else was there? A Bill was blacksmith; Tom Brown.
Q Was it Tom Brown or Bill Brown? A Tom Brown.
Q When did they leave there? A I don't know.
Q Were they there when you left? A I don't know; they lived out at the edge of town, of course when I left town I went out about three miles at least and a family lived there by the name of Campbell, worked right there at Fort Scott. I know the whole generation of you will give me time to call the name over, the whole generation of them.
Q What makes you remember seeing these people there all the time you were there? A I saw them off and on, because I was working in town; Tom Brown was a blacksmith, worked in town.
Q When was the last time you remember seeing this Sallie Miller?
A Well, I saw when I left Fort Scott.
Q Did you see her the day you left? A No, sir; I didn't see her the day before I left.
Q How long before you left did you see her? A Oh, short time, maybe a week or two weeks.
Q You remember then of seeing her two weeks before you left?
A Yes, might have been two weeks, and maybe longer and not so long.
Q Maybe a year too? (No response.)
Q Was it a year? A No, sir; I don't think it was a year; if she left there at all she went west, went towards Mapleton.
Q How do you know she went to Mapleton? A Well, if she left at all.
Q What makes you think that? A That was the talk.
Q How was that? A That is why I found out by talking with her brother.
Q You got a letter? A No, sir, talking with her brother.
Q You are testifying to what her brother told you?
A That is how I found out where she went, if she went off at all.
Q That is the reason you are swearing that she was there all the time you were there? A No, sir; I know it.

WILLIAM MARGRAVE, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Margrave.
Q What is your age, Mr. Margrave? A My age is -430--about 82;
I am away along in the 83 year.
Q Where do you live, Mr. Margrave? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A Since 1854.
Q Since you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you become acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts or Holt? A Yes, sir.
Q You know the old lady's name? A Yes, sir; do you mean the mother?
Q Yes, sir, what was her name? A Easter Holt.
Q How many of the children do you remember, Mr. Margrave? A Let's see, there was Moss, Funch, Sallie and Jack.
Q When did you become acquainted with the family? A I am not positive, I think they came there along towards the close of the Civil war, if they didn't they came there very shortly afterwards.
Q Well, how, where did they live with reference to where your home was? A Well, most of the time they lived in, I should judge, about a hundred yards, except Moss he lived, after he married, he lived about 50 yards.
Q Well, now, where is Moss Holt living now, do you know?
A Lives right there by me in Fort Scott.
Q Do you know what Moss is living? A I do not, he has been away from there a good many years, I don't know how long.
Q Well, about how many years has it been since Jack moved away from there? A Of course that would be from guess work, something I never took no count of, I don't think he has made his home in Fort Scott for the last 10 years, I might not be correct about it.

Q About how long has it been since Resumach moved away from there?
A That maybe all the way from five, sir, seven or eight years,
not longer than that.
Q Well, when did Bettie leave there, about when did she leave?
A That is quite a while ago, I could not tell that.
Q Well, did Sallie Holt marry while she was up there? A Yes, married twice.
Q What was her first husband's name? A Walker he died and then she married a Miller.
Q Do you know what Miller's first name was, or what he was known by up there? A Stephen I believe it is.
Q Have you seen Sallie Miller, the applicant, since you been down here? A I saw her this morning, spoke to her.
Q Did you recognize her as the same woman you knew up there as Sallie Holt? A Well, she lived right there near me for I expect
30 years, I don't know that it was that long; of course I knew her as well as I knew anybody in Fort Scott.
Q About how long ago was it since Sallie left Fort Scott?
A Well, now, I can't tell you.
Q Well, you came from there in -? A Seven, eight or ten years.
Q Do you know where Aunt Master Holt is living now, whether she is living or dead? A I saw her I think about a year ago up in Fort Scott, I have never heard of her dying.
Q When did she move away, if at all, from Fort Scott, Kansas?
A It comes to those dates.
Q About how long? A I would think it was six or seven years ago.
Q You got acquainted with this family as I understand you, sometime about the close of the war? A Yes, sir, I knew them by sight and afterwards got acquainted with them.
Q They afterwards lived right near you? A Yes, sir. It was right close to me, I don't think it was over a hundred yards from where I now live.
Q And they lived there then in your neighborhood from the time you got acquainted with them up until a few years ago? A Yes, just as I stated.
Q MR. BELLETT: Now, where was Sallie Miller in the fall of '65?
A I don't think I could tell just that because -
Q Well, now, where was she in '66? A The family was there, I am satisfied they were in Fort Scott in '66.
Q I am talking about Sallie Miller now? A I know you do; one of the family might have went away.
Q You can't say that Sallie Miller, or Sallie Holt, was not here in the Cherokee Nation in 1866 can you? A No, sir, I cannot;
I know the family was living up there at that time. One of the family could go off and I would not know anything about that, go off and return again.
Q Isn't it a fact that she was down here in '66, and didn't go back up to Kansas for a couple of years after '66, about 1868?
A No, I don't know.
Q You don't know? A No.
Q That might be true, might it not? A Yes, the family was there,
I know they didn't all come here; might be such a thing as she did,
of course not looking for a thing of that kind I might not know.
Q Well, these people might have come down in the Territory from time to time without you knowing their business, might they not, 35 years ago? A For many one at the time?
Q Yes, or two at the time? A Of course they might.
Q Sallie Miller's husband died up there, one of them? A Walker.
Q Didn't she take some children back from here the first time
she went back? A Children, I don't know anything about it.

JOHN FORBES, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A John Forbes.

Q What is your age, Mr. Forbes? A 56.

Q Where do you live? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 35 years.

Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A Yes, sir.

Q What was the old lady's name, if you know Mr. Forbes? A I don't exactly know what the old lady's name was.

Q What was the children's names? A I have heard the names; well there was Hoss and Josh and Mrs. Walker, well, there was one or two others.

Q Do you know whether her name was Gallie Walker or what her first name was? A Her name was Sallie Walker.

Q Did she marry a man by the name of Walker? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was Walker at the time of his death, if you know?

A I don't know where he died, but I was informed that he died; that I don't know where he died, or whether he died in Fort Scott.

Q Well, do you know whether or not she married after Walker's death?

A Yes, sir.

Q Who did she marry that time? A Man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you remember his first name? A Well, I have heard it called Step Miller.

Q What business did he follow? A Shoemaker.

Q Well, did you know any of her brothers or sisters that you remember the names of? A Well, there was Bot or Bit, I think that is it; and there was Hoss and Josh.

Q Any one else you remember? A I think there was more than that.

Q Do you know where Hoss Holt is living now? A Living at Fort Scott.

Q Do you know anything about where Josh is living? A He, sir.

Q About when did Josh Holt move away from Fort Scott, Kansas?

A Well, he moved away from there good many years ago, I don't know very well; I wasn't very well acquainted with him on that account.

Q Well, when did the applicant, Sallie Miller now, formerly Sallie Holt, move away from there? A I could not say, I think the best of my judgment it was eight or ten years ago, but I could not after I got acquainted with them in '70, then I was personally acquainted with them after that.

Q Was the mother of them living there and keeping house when you got acquainted with them in '70? A I am not sure whether the mother was there, but she was there afterwards.

Q Do you know what became of Sallie whether she is living up there or alive? A No, I do not.

Q You don't remember what year they left but they left there a number of years after you got acquainted with them? A Yes, sir.

MR. MCLELLITE: Mr. Forbes, you don't know where these people, any of them, were in 1866, '67 or '68, do you? A No, sir.

Q Isn't it a fact that they came after you knew them, that they came back and forth down here in the territory and back up to Kansas?

A I didn't know anything about that; I think I heard some of them talking about going down to Fort Smith or going from Fort Smith, or something when I got acquainted with them.

Q Fort Smith down here on the border? A Yes, sir; I wouldn't be positive of that; some little recollection is in my mind but I wouldn't be positive.

JAMES BRIGHTON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows on part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A James Brighton.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Brighton? A Fort Scott, Kansas.

Q How long have you lived in Fort Scott, Kansas? A 20 years.
Q Since you have been living at Fort Scott, Kansas, have you become acquainted with a family of colored people by the name of Holt?
A Yes, sir.

Q What members of the family are you acquainted with? A I know Mose, Mose lives there now, well I think any other one, George Maybe.
Q Did you ever know any of the girls? A Oh, I have seen them, I don't know.

Q You are not very well acquainted with them? A I knowed Mose well and knowed where they lived well; no, I am not well acquainted with the lady folks.

Q Did you ever know the mother? A No, sir.

MR. MELLETT: You don't know where the women folks made their homes, whether they made it here and visited up there, or where they really belonged, do you? A No, sir.

WILLIAM SEXTON, being duly sworn by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows: On part of Cherokee Nation:

MR. DAVENPORT: What is your name? A William Sexton.

Q Where do you live, Mr. Sexton? A Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q How long have you lived at Fort Scott, Kansas? A I have lived at Fort Scott ever since '69.

Q Well, since you came to Fort Scott, Kansas, did you get acquainted with a colored family by the name of Holts? A I did.

Q Did you know the mother, the old lady, or reputed mother of the family? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Her name was Easter Holt.

Q What were the names of the children, or as many as you can remember? A There was one by the name of Mose, Josh, and Cumsh and Jennie and Gallie; that's as many as I recollect.

Q Well, did you know Gallie Holt, if she was a grown woman?
A Gallie she was a woman when I got acquainted with her.

Q Josh, was he grown when you got acquainted with him?
A No, sir, he was a young man.

Q Would you know Gallie Holt if you would see her now?
A Yes, sir.

Q I wish you would look back through the audience and see if you see her? A Yes, sir.

Q You recognize her as being the same woman, Sallie Holt, you knew?
A Same woman.

Q Did she marry while she was living up at Fort Scott? A She was married when I got acquainted with her.

Q Do you know what her husband's name was? A Her husband's name was Walker.

Q Do you know whether Walker is living or dead? A He died.

Q Well, did she marry again? A She did.

Q Do you know who she married? A She married a man by the name of Miller.

Q Do you know his first name? A Stephen.

Q What was his business? A He was a shoemaker up there.

Q You knew Josh too up there did you? A Yes, sir.

Q And Tetumseh? A Tetumseh.

Q Did you know any other girls of the family, was there any other girls that you remember? A I do not.

Q Do you know whether or not there was a girl by the name of Bettie?
A I wouldn't be positive but it appears to me there was.

Q Were they living in Fort Scott when you went there in '69, Mr. Sexton? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, about how long after you went there did they continue to live in Fort Scott? A Now, I could not say; I didn't pay particular attention, sometime they would leave and sometimes they was there.

- Q Did they keep house while they were there? A Yes, sir.
Q Did Sallie live there with Walker when he was living?
A Yes, sir.
Q Where is Mose living now? A Mose is living up there now.
Q About how long has it been since you remember of Josh and then living in Fort Scott? A Josh hasn't been there for some considerable time.
Q Well, about how long? A It has been, I should judge, some ten or 12 years.
Q Well, how long has it been since Tecumseh has been living there?
A She has lived there to the best of my recollection, it has been that long since I seen him there.
Q Do you know where he went when he left there? A No, sir.
Q You don't know whether he went to Kansas City or not?
A No, sir, I do not.
Q Well, how long has it been since Sallie has been living there?
A I don't know.
Q Has she lived there any since she and Miller married? A Yes, sir.
MR. MELLETTE: Well, how long do you think it has been since Sallie Miller lived there regularly? A Well, now, I could not say positive, it has been since she left there regularly.
Q Well, isn't it a fact that she was back and forth ever since you have known her, to the Territory and back to Kansas, would come down here a stay a while and go back to Kansas? A Yes, sir.
Q That is true? A Yes, sir.
Q You don't know where any of these people were in '66? '67 or '68?
A No, sir; I came to Scott in '69.
MR. DAVENPORT: And they were living there, when you came?
A They was there when I came.

Com'r Needles: This testimony will be made part of the record in Freedmen doubtful cases #953, #979, #980, #645, and in case of Bettie Hicks.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., May 31, 1902.

In the matter of the application of PERRY ADAMS for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman.

Applicant appears by Mellette & Smith; Cherokee Nation, by W. W. Hastings.

By Mr. Smith:

The applicant moves the Commission to make the certified copy of the decree of the Court of Claims in the case of Moses Whitmore, Trustee for the Freedmen, vs The Cherokee Nation, No. 17209 filed in the Mariah Hayden case F D 498, a part of the record in this case and the cases hereinafter mentioned by reference to the said case of the said Mariah Hayden, and if it be deemed necessary that a copy of the said decree be filed in this case and in the following cases, to-wit:

Ellie Miller, F 441,

By W. W. Hastings:

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and objects to the introduction of the decrees, because, First: It does not tend to show that the applicant was a slave of the Cherokee Nation at the beginning of the war, nor that he returned within the time specified in the treaty of 1866, or that he had been a continuous resident of the Cherokee Nation since that time, or that he is a descendant of such a person. Second: Because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and does not tend to prove an issue in this case. Third: Because the Commission will take judicial knowledge of all laws, treaties and decrees necessary for the determination of the right of any person who makes application for citizenship. Fourth: The Cherokee Nation objects to the filing of a certified copy of this decree in the case of an applicant unless the same is called and filed in each individual case.

Commission:

The motion of the attorney for the applicant will be sustained and the decree of the Court of Claims filed in the case of Mariah Hayden will be made a part of the record by reference in all the cases above named with the exception of those which come within the provisions of the temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Goff of the United States Court, of the Northern District, Indian Territory.

Mr. Smith:

The applicant further moves that as to the above named cases including the Mariah Hayden case that counsel for the applicant be allowed within thirty days to file any of the proof of any or all of the record other than the decree already referred to.

in the case of Moses Whitmire, trustee, vs Cherokee Nation, on file in the Court of Claims to the counsel of the Cherokee Nation if it is desired to do so.

W. W. Hastings;

The Cherokee Nation most certainly strenuously objects to the allowance of this permission or to the granting of this request for the reason that most of these applicants have had more than a year in which to file all of their testimony that they desired to file to make out their case before the Commission and that notice was given them all by agreement in March last, that the cases would be closed so far as testimony was concerned by the special permission of the firm of attorneys representing these applicants, on the 31st day of May, 1902, and that this being the 31st day of May, 1902, we say that under the rulings of the Commission, that under the agreement between the attorneys, that the testimony in all these cases is to close and should be closed by the Commission, and that no extension should be granted in any case and no case reopened unless there is some special and particular reason shown either by the Cherokee Nation on the one side or the applicant on the other why an extension of time is necessary or desired.

The Commission:

The law provides that the roll of Cherokee freedmen shall be made in strict compliance with the decree of the Court of Claims rendered the 3rd day of February, 1896, and as the Commission must take judicial notice of the judgment roll of said Court in the proceedings referred to the motion of the attorneys for applicants for additional time to file certified copies of the proceedings of the said Court is denied.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings in the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sallie Miller of lawful age being duly sworn on her oath deposes and says, My name is Sallie Miller my age is about sixty-three years and my post office is Vinita, Indian Territory. I was the slave of a Cherokee Citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion and during said war I left the Cherokee Nation and went to the state of Kansas returning and establishing my residence in the Cherokee Nation again before February 11th 1867. I returned to Fort Gibson, Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory in the fall of the fall of the year of 1868 and remained at Fort Gibson until about September 1867 when I moved upon the Verdigris river where I spent a part of the winter and during the cold weather of the winter of 1867 I went over on big Creek Cherokee Nation and stayed the rest of the winter with my uncle, Andrew Daugherty, and in the Spring of 1868 I returned to my place on the Verdigris until May 1869 when I went back to Fort Gibson Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory and I continued then to live in Fort Gibson until the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad was built through the Indian Territory which according to my recollection was about the year of 1872 and I then went back to the Verdigris river and continued the improvements on my farm on the Verdigris river and I lived on my farm until June 1877 when my husband went to Joplin Missouri to have his arm treated for a wound he had received in the Army. While my husband was in Joplin having his arm treated I spent the time with my uncle Andrew Daugherty. I spent seven or eight months in Fort Scott Kansas and while there my husband died and I then came back and went to Fourteen mile Creek Cherokee Nation and spent some time in the vicinity of Fort Gibson. After that I went to Fort Scott Kansas occasionally to work but was in the Cherokee Nation looking after my property here part of each year. I have owned property in the Cherokee Nation consisting of a farm and other personal property continuously from the time we made a place on the Verdigris river in the year of 1868 and at no time since 1868 have I been without property in the Cherokee Nation.

Department of the Interior
Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sallie Miller et al as Cherokee Freedmen.

R E Q U E S T.

Come now the applicants and represent to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes that John Sharp is a material witness in the behalf of these applicants and without whose testimony the applicants can not safely go to trial. That said John Sharp is now in the custody of the United States Marshal for the Northern District of the Indian Territory charged with the killing of a man recently and that he will be found in the United States jail at Vinita at any time from this time until the date this cause is set for trial. That the name of John Sharp appears among the list of witnesses furnished by the applicants.

We therefore request that the Honorable Commissioner make such arrangements as will secure for these applicants the testimony of the said John Sharp. Said John Sharp will testify that the applicant Sallie Miller was admitted by the National Council.
In view of the fact that witnesses should appear personally before the representative of the Commissioner and give their testimony we ask that the representative of the Commissioner go to Vinita and take his testimony and if this is not practicable then that the Honorable Commissioner authorize the taking of the deposition of the said John Sharp before the case is called for trial.

Respectfully,

Starr & Patten

Attorneys for applicants.

J C Starr of lawful age says he is one of the attorneys for the applicants that he has read the foregoing statements and same are true as he verily believes and that he knows that John Sharp is in the custody of the Marshal of the Northern District I T.

Answer of Cherokee Nation to Request of Applicants to take Testimony of John Sharp.

Comes now the Cherokee Nation and opposes the request ^{of applicants} that to take the testimony of John Sharp alleged to be in the custody of the United States Marshal in the jail at Vinita, Indian Territory, for the reason that it does not show in said request what is expected to be proved by the said John Sharp, and therefore it is not material and it is not shown that the same cannot be proved by other witnesses.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of GALLIE MILLER, ET AL., as Cherokee Freedmen.

APPEARANCES:

For Applicants, Starr & Patten.

For Cherokee Nation, W. W. Hastings.

This case was remanded by the Secretary of the interior on July 9, 1906, for further hearing. All parties concerned being duly notified thereof, and the case being set for hearing on this day, the following proceedings were had:

SEYMOUR ROSS, being first duly sworn by H. F. BARNES, a Notary
Public, testified as follows on behalf of the applicants:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q What is your name? A. Stick Ross.
Q How old are you? A. 58.
Q What is your postoffice? A. Tahlequah, Indian Territory.
Q Are you acquainted with the applicant, Gallie Miller? A. Yes
sir.
Q How long have you known her? A. Ever since the war.
Q Were you personally acquainted with her about the year 1892 and 1894? A. Yes sir.
Q How long had you known her before that? A. Well I knew her just about the time of the war when they came over to the place there and have been knowing her ever since; they stayed there at our house.
Q Had you known her about continuously from the close of the war up to that date? A. Yes sir.
Q What, if any, official position were you holding about 1892?
A. Member of the lower house.
Q Lower house of what? A. Council.
Q Council of the United States or where? A. Cherokee.
Q Cherokee Nation? A. Yes sir.

- Q You were a member of the lower house of the Cherokee Nation at that time? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know whether or not during the November session of that Legislature whether or not this Sallie Miller that you say you know applied for readmission as a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
- Q You knew her at that time, did you? A Yes sir.
- Q You knew that she applied? A Yes sir.
- Q Well do you know who represented her or how she made her application, any particulars other than just knowing it? A I don't know how she got in there but they had a committee there to act on it and I was one of them and Mr. Sharp.
- Q What Sharp? A John Sharp and Lincoln England and Mr. Dobson, and Will Thompson was the Clerk.
- Q Were they part of the members of a certain committee? A Yes sir all of them were; that is Mr. Dobson, England and Mr. Hare, either Mr. Hare or Mr. Hucklebrand at that time; there was two or three of them full bloods, we had to have an interpreter for them.
- Q What, if anything, did you have to do with that matter? A I was a witness in the case.
- Q Anything more, did you represent her or aid her in it in any way? A I voted for her.
- Q Do you know whether or not she was admitted at that time? A Yes sir, she was.
- Q This committee that you speak of, did she go before that committee? A Yes sir, she stayed in person when they were talking over her case; she was in the house awhile.
- Q What kind of a committee was that, was that a standing committee? A I think it was at that time; I think it was a committee to act on this readmission of citizenship concerns.
- Q Do you know whether or not her matter was upon before the both houses of the Cherokee Legislature? A I couldn't tell about that but looked like it must have been; it come in the lower house and we taken action there and it must have went through the Senate, couldn't have gone through the lower house and not through the Senate.
- Q Do you know whether or not that after it had passed that committee that you just mentioned, whether or not that bill was ever perfected, I mean signed by the Chief so she was really readmitted? A I do not know.
- Q Can you look at the applicant, who is present, and say on your oath and say whether or not it is the same woman who was present at that time? A Yes sir, this is the woman here.
- Q You identify her, do you? A Yes sir, this is the woman we passed through that time.
- Q Do you know how she happened to come down there, what did she come for? A About her lot she had at Vinita there and some fellow was trying to take it away from her.
- Q Do you remember any question or anything that occurred that would make you sure that this matter transpired while she was in that committee room other than the mere fact that she was there? A Well there wasn't but one thing that I noticed; after we got through questioning her about her right we had an interpreter there to talk to the full bloods and when we got through Mr. Dobson told them to relate that to that committee and as he went to say something to the committee ~~next~~ one of them said something to her in Cherokee and she turned around and talked back to them in Cherokee and they said let her talk herself, and then they said she was all right and we went right in and voted on it and wasn't but two voted against her.

Q Who was that? A John Sharp was one of them.

Q You are satisfied this is the woman? A Yes sir, this is the one; she is the only one that passed through at that time while I was a member of the Council.

Q How long were you a member? A Two years.

Q Do you know when you were elected? A No sir, I can't; I can't read and write but I know I served two years.

Q Are you able to say whether this was on or about the latter part of 1893?

MR. HASTINGS:

Objected to because it is clearly leading and the witness has said that he doesn't know the years he was a member of the Council, and therefore cannot testify as to that.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The objection will be noted.

A Well I couldn't tell; I think it was the last year when I was in the house; the first year I was there I don't think she applied; the last term she come there and then I went out; I can't tell about what time that was; ~~wasn't~~ there the first year I was elected, and the next year she appeared there about a man taking her place up there at Vinita away from her; I don't know whether it was taking her in for readmission or what.

Q Well do you know whether or not there were any other freedmen while you were a member of the Council ever admitted?

MR. HASTINGS:

Objected to as being irrelevant and immaterial.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The objection will be noted.

A No sir, that is the only one.

Q This is the only one you know of being up there for readmission?

A Yes sir, this is the only one.

- Q Was it the practice of the Cherokee Legislature to readmit or admit freedmen, or did they confine that almost entirely to Cherokees by blood? A Well they first said when I first got in I had so many applications come to me and I was introducing them the first Legislature, and a friend of mine told me that they were not acting on any freedmen at all and said your cases are all coming before the Supreme Court, and I told them all and she got in possibly some way or the other, I don't know how.
- Q You don't know who her father was, do you? A No sir, I don't know; well it was the only one that ever passed there while I was a member of the house.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You said just now you didn't know her father? A No sir, I didn't.
- Q And never did know him? A No sir, never seen him.
- Q Was this woman admitted as a Cherokee by blood or as a freedman? A I couldn't tell whether it was a freedman or by blood, but anyway them full bloods were talking to her and they said she was an Indian by blood.
- Q Do you know how she was applying, as an Cherokee by blood or as a freedman? A I don't know how she was applying, but anyway she was in before us in there.
- Q If you don't know now how she was applying, will you please explain to the Commissioner how you could be a witness for her when you didn't know how she was applying? A I can't tell how she was applying.
- Q You said just now you didn't know whether she was applying as a freedman or Cherokee by blood? A I don't know what her right were; I was a witness having seen her at that time.
- Q You were a slave yourself? A Yes sir.
- Q You can't read nor write? A No sir.
- Q Did you introduce her application into the Council then? A No sir, I don't know who introduced it.
- Q But it was introduced into the lower house? A I don't know whether Will Thompson introduced it or not, I was a witness in the case there.
- Q It was introduced in the lower house? A Yes sir.
- Q Then it was referred to a committee of the house? A Yes sir, that is the way I think it was.
- Q I want to know, you are swearing to this? A Yes sir.
- Q Then did that committee in there frame a bill? A Yes sir, I guess they did, yes sir.
- Q Well did you go back then and introduce that bill? A Took it back into the house.
- Q Well from the report of this committee was a bill introduced? A It must have been by taking a vote on it.
- Q I am asking you if you knew? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you swear that the committee of the lower house after these hearings introduced a bill admitting this party to citizenship? A Yes sir, I think they done that; that is what I think.

- Q That is the way you are swearing, is it? A Yes sir/
Q And that bill passed, did it? A Yes sir, it passed.
Q And that is the last you heard of it? A Yes sir/
Q You don't know what became of it after that time? A No sir, I don't Q You have just now sworn you don't know whether it became a law or whether the Chief signed it or not? A No sir, I don't know that
Q All you intend to testify is about the hearing of the committee of the house and about the introducing of the bill in the house and about it passing the house, and you don't know what became of it thereafter? A No sir, I don't
Q You say you cannot read nor write? A No sir/
Q But you do know this was the second year of your term? A Yes sir.
Q But you don't know what year that was? A No sir, I don't.
Q You are positive that it was the second year of your term? A Yes sir.
Q Did she have any members of her family there then? A No sir/
Q By herself? A By herself; she said she had a family, some children up about Vinita.
Q Didn't tell you how many? A No sir/
Q When did you see Lincoln England last? A Time we had that convention up here.
Q When did you see Levi Gritts last? A The other day.
Q Talk to him about this case? A No sir.
Q And he never talked to you? A No sir.
Q Who else did you admit to citizenship there that session of Council? A No one else as know of/
Q You don't remember a solitary one? A No sir, I know we killed a good many; that was the only one that passed in our house.
Q Now lets see who was on that committee again? A Well as well as I remember I know Mr. Dobson.
Q He is not here? A No sir
Q You know this woman went out to see him the other day? A Yes sir, I know she went out.
Q Now who else was on that committee? A I think John Sharp, and Link England and a fellow named Helterbrand.
Q That was a committee of five then? A I think there was five.
Q Were you on that committee? A I was in there, I don't know whether I was on the committee or a witness, and Will Vann was in there too.
Q Don't you know that you would remember whether you were on a standing citizenship committee when you were a member of the Council? A I was a witness I said.
Q Were you a member of that committee? A No sir, I was a witness before that committee.
Q Don't you know that the five people whom you have mentioned of belonging to that committee all belonged to one party, namely the National Party and never in the history of that Council was all the members of one party on a standing committee? A I don't know, that is the way it was.

- Q Now do you swear that those are the fellows that was on that committee? A I said I didn't know all of the committee, only Mr. Dobson and Link England and John Sharp. And Will Thompson and I don't know whether he was on the committee or a clerk.
- Q But you do know it was the second year you were elected? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know what time of the year it was? A No sir, I don't know ~~whether~~ nothing about the months, what dates or nothing.
- Q Do you know one year from another? A Yes sir.
- Q But you don't know what year you were elected? A No sir.
- Q And you never heard of anybody else being admitted during that session of Council? except this woman? A No sir, not while I was in the lower house.
- Q You would have known it? A I would if it had come up.
- Q I say if there had been any other bill passed there admitting anybody else other than this woman, you would have known it? A Yes sir; there was a lot of bills passed while I was not in the house.
- Q Admitting anybody except this woman? A Yes sir.
- Q Will you swear that? A Not while I was in the house; I wasn't there all the time.
- Q This bill originated in the committee you were before of the lower house and went back to the lower house and passed there and was sent over to the Senate? A No sir, I didn't; I don't know whether it come from the Senate or whether they took it to the Senate.
- Q Didn't you say you framed a bill and took it back? A I said they framed a bill and took it in the lower house and voted on it.
- Q Did they have a bill in the lower house before that committee? A They had that bill they framed it in the committee room I guess.
- Q Do you know? A I don't know for certain but that is all the bill I know of; we all went right back in and a fellow wrote it and we all voted on it and it passed.
- Q And that was for this woman? A Yes sir.
- Q Anybody else? A Not as I know of; not while I was in there.
- Q Couldn't have been in there at that time at this woman? A Yes sir, a whole lot been in there.
- Q At that same time? A Not that same day but along through the session.
- Q I mean in that same bill, there wasn't anybody but this woman? A No sir, there wasn't; I know a bill came through there with a whole lot of names to it and they took a vote on it and killed the bill.
- Q But when this one passed, just this one woman? A Yes, sir.
- Q Nobody else was in it but this woman? A No, sir, nobody but this woman.
- Q And it was framed in the committee room, and you don't know what become of it after you voted on it? A No, sir, I never heard any more about it until here this summer I heard something about it, was asked whether I was a member at that time, and I told them yes.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Was this woman's application for admission when it left the committee room reported to the house? A Yes sir/
Q Was it acted on by the house? A Yes sir, just stepped out of the room like this and right in the room there.
Q Now her application when it came up before the house, can you state whether it had already been presented to the Senate?
A No sir, I couldn't tell, I don't think it had, I don't know; there is where it started right in there.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q When this matter was referred to that committee that you speak of, did they take any testimony or inquire into the facts as to whether or not she got back in time under the Treaty of 1866?
A Yes sir, that is what the testimony was for there at that time.
Q You don't know then whether the bill or part of the bill that Sallie Miller was admitted under an original bill, or an amendment, do you know? A No sir, I don't know that.
Q Who was the interpreter at that time? A Gritts/
Q What was his first name? A Levi Gritts/
Q Was he present at the time? A Yes sir, he was the interpreter.

(Witness excused).

SALLIE MILLER, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows in her own behalf:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A Sallie Miller.
Q How old are you? A 64.
Q What is your postoffice? A Estella, Indian Territory.
Q Are you one of the applicants in this case? A Yes sir/
Q On or about the latter part of 1893 were you ever in Tahlequah?
A Yes sir.
Q For what reason did you go there? A Well I had bought a lot at Vinita and there was a man there went and fenced it; they said I didn't have no right to it; that I wasn't no citizen, and that is why I went down there to see about it.
Q What did you go down there for? A I thought I would come down there to see, I knowed I could get witnesses down there, the folks knew me down there.
Q You were in Tahlequah to look for some witnesses? A Yes sir, I thought I would just go before the Council there.
Q What did you do when you got to Tahlequah? A Well I got W. A. Thompson to attend to it for me.

- Q What was he doing at that time? A Why I think he was a Clerk of the Court there.
- Q In what way did he attend to that for you? A A Mr. Trainor told him,---I don't know, Dave Trainor sent for me and they fixed it up and Mr. Thompson introduced the bill and they questioned me on my citizenship too.
- Q Where did they introduce that bill? A I don't know, I couldn't tell whether it was right in the house there; you know they were questioning the witnesses there.
- Q Did this matter occur in the Cherokee Legislature? A Yes sir, Legislature was going on.
- Q You say they took the matter of your citizenship up before that Council? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you there in person? A Yes sir/
- Q Before whom did you personally appear yourself? A Well this committee that Mr. Sharp and Mr. England, and this other man, I can't hardly think of the names, it has been quite awhile, and most of them were full blood Cherokees.
- Q Well when you appeared before that committee what was gone into, did they ask you any questions about anything; what did they ask you about? A They asked me about whether I got back here in the limited time or not.
- Q Did you have any other witnesses on that question? A Yes sir, Stick Ross was one.
- Q The witness that just left the stand? A Yes sir; and I believe Columbus McNair, he was there, and another man they called Harrison Foreman; they were the colored people that knew me, that I was in Fort Gibson in '65, '66 and '67, and in '68 I was at Tahlequah; and W. A. Thompson told them he knew me at that time in Fort Gibson, knew my husband; he was a soldier; I didn't know just what they did do with the bill.
- Q What proceedings were gone through with, what different rooms were you in; tell how the thing happened from the time you went there until you left? A Well, just went into two rooms.
- Q What two were you in, and all about it? A Well, I think the middle room; I think I went in the back room first and then into the middle room.
- Q What did you do in that back room? A It wasn't the back room, it was a big room here and then we come out and went into a little room.
- Q Did anything transpire there? A Yes sir, Mr. Thompson was attending to it and they would ask me questions there.
- Q Then where did you go? A Into a little room on the other side of the hall, I think a man named Eubanks, I think was his name?
- Q Well what did you do in that room? A Well, I don't know, Mr. Thompson went in there with me and they done the talking.
- Q What did they talk about? A About my case and writing.
- Q Discussing it? A Yes sir.
- Q Who all were in that room, do you remember? A Wasn't any one but Mr. Thompson and Mr. Eubanks.
- Q Where did you go from there? A Back on the east room where they just all set around in there and I stayed there.
- Q Well was this matter ever discussed before any committee, any number of men? A Yes sir.

- Q Now who was on that committee of men? A Well there was, I am not going to tell what men were in there.
- Q Well the men in there, who were they? A Dick Wolfe, and old Soggy Sanders, and another old man that used to live on Spring Creek, he was a Preacher.
- Q Was that Dobson? A No sir, another Cherokee, and Dobson, and this Mr. England, and a man there in Tahlequah, a Cherokee, Dick something or other, I think he was in there, I can't think of his name.
- Q Would you know his name if you heard it? A Yes sir.
- Q Was it Dick Wolfe? A No sir, he was in there; I don't know whether he had anything to do with it or not, but he was in there. But there was a man in there named Dick something or other; he lives there in Tahlequah, I can't think of his name that was on that committee.
- Q Well, when you were in there before that committee did they examine you, ask you any questions? A Yes sir.
- Q What subject did they ask you about? A Asked me where I lived when I lived in the Territory and where I went to when the war come up and when I come back and who my mother was and who my father was.
- Q Did you have any other witnesses that testified? A Yes sir, this witness that was here awhile ago, Stick Ross, and Mr. Thompson and Columbus McNair.
- Q Well were there any full bloods in the ~~xxx~~ room or on that committee? A Yes sir, there was full bloods; this man, I can't think of his name, he was a full blood and this Gritts was a full blood, and then there was one named Spade, he was a full blood.
- Q What Gritts was that? A This Levi Gritts, the interpreter.
- Q Did you talk Indian to them yourself? A Yes sir, they said something or other, and I just turned in and went to talking Cherokee to them.
- Q Who was your father? A A man named Jack Miller that lived in Vian.
- Q Was he a Cherokee? A A full blood Cherokee.
- Q What did you talk first, Cherokee or English? A Cherokee.
- Q When did you commence to talk English? A I was about 10 years old, my Master sent his children out to school and when they come back they talked English and that is what got me to talking English.
- Q Did they go into the question of who your father was at Tahlequah that time? A Yes sir.
- Q Your mother was a freedman? A Yes sir.
- Q Was she a negro? A Yes sir.
- Q And Jack Miller was your father? A Yes sir.
- Q And he was a full blood Indian? A Yes sir.
- Q When you got there in that room where this investigation was going on where did you go then; what did you do then? A Well just as I said we went into that other room where Mr. Eubanks was, and I just went into the room where they were sitting in there and Mr. Thompson said when the Council is through I will just have to fetch this bill off to get the Chief to sign it, and just as soon as he signs the bill I will send it to you.

- Q Do you know who the Chief was then? A Yes sir/
 Q Who? A Chief Harris
 Q When Thompson told you this, did you talk to any of them after that? A No sir, I didn't, I was getting ready to go home; it was near Christmas time.
 Q Did you go home without knowing whether you had been admitted? A He told me I had been admitted.
 Q When was that? A The next day, and said all they had to do was the Chief had to sign it
 Q Did he say the Chief had already signed it? A No sir, he said the Chief was busy and had so much work that he hadn't got to it, but said that as soon as he would sign it he would send it to me
 Q Did he send it to you? A No sir/
 Q You say this come up about a lot at Vinita? A Yes sir.
 Q Were you ever bothered after that? A No sir/
 Q Well who were members of your family, have you any children? A Yes sir
 Q Who are they? A Why the oldest one is named Dick.
 Q Dick what? A Dick Holt.
 Q How old is he? A He is about 46 years old.
 Q Any more? A Yes sir, well at that time you say?
 Q I am talking about now? A At that time when I was down there I just had four children; Dick and Annie Bushyhead.
 Q Bushyhead now? A No sir, it is Peterson now, but then was Bushyhead.
 Q Was her name ever Butler? A Yes sir/
 Q Any others? A Yes sir, Kattie Putman.
 Q Name tha now? A No sir, Davis now
 Q Any others? A Well the oldest one was Nettie Holt and the next one was Dick Holt; they were born slaves and this Annie Bushyhead at that time, and I raised theis atie Putnam, she is a grand-daughter
 Q Who was her mother? A Nettie, my oldest daughter, she died.
 Q Did Annie peterson, Bushyhead or Holt ever have any children? A Yes sir
 Q What was its name? A Ester Owen.
 Q Is it dead or alive? A Yes sir, she is dead.
 Q Now what others did you have besides those you named? A That is all.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q You had ~~any~~ one Howard? A Yes sir; there was Dick and Nettie, they were born slaves; then Annie and Howard Bushyhead.
 Q Is Howard dead or alive? A Yes sir, he is dead.
 Q When did he die? A I think he died; he has been dead about four years.
 Q Do you know what year he died? A I think it was in 1902, or '03.
 Q You don't know, do you? A No sir, I don't.

- Q Is Dick living? A Yes sir, I reckon he is living now; I aint heard from him for a long time.
Q Do you know whether he ever made an application for enrollment?
A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What month did Howard die in? A In October.
Q How long has it been since you heard from Dick? A About six months.
Q Where was he living? A His wife wrote and told me he was in Chicago.
Q How long has it been since he has been in this country? A He has not bee here since; he was here when I was at Tahlequah at that time.
Q He was right along with you? A No sir, he wasn't with me.
Q But he was here then? A Yes sir, he was up to his father, s. Old man Dick Whitmire was his father.
Q How long had old man Dick Whitmire been dead at that time? A He wasn't dead then.
Q When did he die? A Dick Whitmire, I think died during,--- after the Kern-Clifton enrollment.
Q When did your son Dick marry? A Now I couldn't tell you because he never stayed with me very much.
Q Haven't you got no idea about when he was married? A He has been married I guess about 20 years.
Q Living separate and apart that length of time from you? A Yes sir, except what time he would be down there at Vinita, just come down
Q On a visit? A Yes sir, come and see me.
Q Where was his wife during those 20 years? A She was up to Parsons, Kansas.
Q Did he marry in Parsons, Kansas? A I don't know where he married.
Q Did Nettie ever marry? A No sir.
Q Did Annie ever marry? A Yes sir; she married a man by the name of Owen.
Q When? A I think it was in '89, I guess.
Q Where did she marry him? A In Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q Where was Lattie Putnam born? A She was born over here at Gibson Station.
Q Where was Howard Bushyhead born? A In Fort Scott.
Q Now did you give Will A. Thompson any money when you wer at Tahlequah at that time? A No sir, he was send this,---- Certificate to you? A Yes sir.
Q But you didn't give him any money? A No sir.
Q He wasn't a member of the Council? A I don't know.
Q Well were you to give him any money when he sent it to you? A Yes sir, I told him I would pay him what was right for his trouble.
Q But he never did send it to you? A No sir.

- Q Now this committee that you were before, is the committee that Stick Ross was testifying about awhile ago? A Yes sir
- Q Do you know whether Will A. Thompson introduced your petition or not? A Yes sir
- Q And did he introduce that in the same house this was a committee of, the lower house? A Yes sir, I guess it was the lower house.
- Q This was the first testimony you gave was before this committee that Stick Ross testified? A Yes sir
- Q And it was in that body where the bill was introduced? A Yes sir
- Q Well you never knew what became of the bill? A No sir, I don't.
- Q All you know about it you were in that committee room and you talked in there and you had Columbus McWair, Stick Ross and yourself as witnesses? A Yes sir
- Q And that was all the witnesses you had? A And W. A. Thompson.
- Q And those witnesses told as to your return? A Yes sir
- Q And you never knew of the sort of bill they framed? A No sir, I don't.
- Q The fact you didn't know of your own knowledge that it passed that house? A No sir, just what Thompson told me.
- Q But you never saw a copy of it? A No sir, I never.
- Q Did they ask you in there the names of your family? A Yes sir.
- Q And you give them all the names of your family? A Yes sir.
- Q And told them their ages and where they were at? A Yes sir.
- Q But you never give Thompson or anybody any money? A No sir.
- Q Now you are sworn to tell the truth? A Yes sir, I am sworn to tell the truth; I never give him any money and I told him if he got that through satisfactory I would pay him for his trouble; I seen lots of people there just paying out there money, but I wasn't able to do that.
- Q Are you the same Gallie Miller that testified in our own case on the 10th day of June, 1901, at Ghelsea? A Yes sir, I guess it is; before this Commission?
- Q Yes? A Yes sir
- Q I will ask you if at that time, if you were not asked, "Did you pay Thompson?" (referring to W. A. Thompson in the previous question), and if you didn't answer, "Yes sir, gave him $10."?
- Q A No sir, I didn't; I agreed if he ever got it through; I told them I would pay them to get on the roll and I never paid none of them nothing
- Q I will ask you if you were not asked at the same time the reason why you went down to Tablequah and if you didn't say then not anything concerning any law, but if you didn't say in answer to this question, "What did you state was the occasion, or why did you go to Tablequah in the nineties to see about your citizenship," and if you didn't answer, "They had a notice in the paper to all them didn't appear on the 1880 roll to go down there and with sufficient proof and they would put them on the roll." Didn't you say that? A Yes sir, I did.

- Q You never said anything about having a difficulty over a lot before? A Yes sir, I did down there at Tahlequah.
- Q Well when you were before the Dawes Commission, you didn't say it? A No sir.
- Q You never dreamed about that before did you, about the lot controversy? A I never said anything about it with them, just you know when I was down at Tahlequah I mentioned it there.
- Q Did you apply at Tahlequah to be enrolled as a freedman to get in under the Treaty of 1866? A Yes sir, I guess it was.
- Q And you introduced your witnesses? A Yes sir.
- Q And you give them the names of your children? A Yes sir, I told them I had four children.
- Q What year was that? A I think it was in '93; I think it was before the Strip payment.
- Q You are not right certain as to the year? A No sir, I ain't.
- Q How long before Christmas was it you were there? A I went there six weeks before Christmas.
- Q How long before Christmas was it you left? A About two weeks; there was another woman there, a Cherokee woman was there about her case, and I don't know whether she ever done anything or not.
- Q Now you never tried to get on the Strip roll the next year in 1894? A No sir.
- Q Why didn't you try? A They wasn't taking any colored people then, were they?
- Q Then you didn't ever claim to be admitted as a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.
- Q You claim to have been admitted as a Cherokee freedman? A Yes, I told them what time I was here; that is what they were asking me if it had been a Cherokee you know they wouldn't ask you if you were right here under the '66 Treaty and I told them I come back in '65.
- Q Then you were applying as a Cherokee freedman? A Yes sir.
- Q And that is the reason you never made any application to get on the Strip pay roll of 1894? A I guess that was it.
- Q Do you know? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Why don't you? A Because I guess I never give it in to them.
- Q You were before the Fern-Clifton Commission in 1896? A Yes sir.
- Q And you never during that whole investigation ever open your mouth about having been before the Cherokee Council, did you? A I don't believe I did.
- Q You never claimed in 1896 that you had been previously admitted by the Cherokee Council? A Yes sir, I did; I told them that I made application and Thompson looked after it for me, but I never got no hearing from it.
- Q You didn't tell them that you had been admitted then did you? A Well I didn't know, you know the Chief was to let him sign it and he was to let me know.
- Q You never knew he signed your bill? A No sir, I don't.
- Q And you don't know the year? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Don't you know that I was before that Fern-Clifton Commission in 1896 and don't you know that you never said anything at all about having been readmitted by the Council? A Well I did tell Davenport now.

- Q That is the man you told about it? A Yes sir, and I think I told Hooley Bell too because I was before them.
- Q Now I am talking about, not before the Dawes Commission, but the Kern-Clifton Commission, five or six years before that; you ever said anything to the Kern-Clifton Commission about having been admitted, did you? A Yes sir, I did.
- Q You swear that, do you? A Yes sir, I swear I told them; I never got any hearing from them.
- Q You never introduced any certificate? A No sir, couldn't when I didn't have none.

(Witness excused).

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The records of this office fail to show that any application has been made for the enrollment of Dick Holt or Dick Downing as a citizen of the Cherokee nation.

LINCOLN ENGLAND, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of applicants, through Official Interpreter, William P. Drew:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A Lincoln England.
- Q How old are you? A 58 going on 59.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Baren, Indian Territory.
- Q About 1893 did you hold any official position in the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir, I was a Councilman.
- Q Was that in the Cherokee Legislature? A Yes sir.
- Q Well while you were a Councilman there were you a member of any committee at any time? A I was one of the standing committeemen.
- Q You are a Cherokee by blood, are you? A Yes sir, I am.
- Q Do you remember whether or not while you were a member of that standing committee, whether or not there was any matter about the application for a freedman for readmission up before you as a member of that committee? A Yes, the matter of the application came up during that time, and the reason I remember was while at the same time when this matter was discussed there was a negro lady came in during that time; that is why I remember so well.
- Q Did she have anything to say about it or was she the party, herself, do you know? A I think they called her up as a witness in that matter.
- Q Well was it the matter you are talking about it was it a freedman that they were discussing about readmitting not a Cherokee? A Yes sir, it was a freedman.

Q Do you know what was done with it, do you know whether she was ever readmitted or admitted? A I don't know anything how it came out, whether it was rejected or readmitted.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q You don't have no recollection about it, what was done with it?
A No sir.

(Witness excused).

LEVI GRITTS, being first duly sworn by E. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of applicant:

BY MR. PATTEN:

Q State your name? A Levi Gritts.
Q How old are you? A 32.
Q What is your postoffice? A Tahlequah, Indian Territory.
Q Are you acquainted with the applicant, or do you know her when you see her, Sallie Miller? A Well couldn't say; I know her name, I know the circumstances when she was before the committee.
Q Do you know her face? A Yes sir, I know her face.
Q On or about 1893, the latter part of that year, did you hold any ~~official~~ office in relation to the Cherokee Legislature at that time? A I was an interpreter; I couldn't remember what year it was; before the citizenship committee when Rev. Dobson was the Chairman of the Committee and W. A. Thompson was Clerk.
Q Was that a committee on citizenship or to which such matters were referred? A Yes sir.
Q Now you say you were interpreter for that committee? A Yes sir.
Q Well while you were interpreter for that committee of which Mr. Dobson was a member and Will Thompson was Clerk, during that time, do you remember whether or not there was any matter of an application by a freedman for readmission up before that committee, do you remember anything about that? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember any of the other members of that committee? A Well I remember Dobson, Lincoln W. England, and a fellow named Fields from Delaware District; they are the only ones I remember.
Q Do you know whether or not any examination was gone into before that committee in regard to that matter; whether any questions were asked as to the time they returned? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know who that freedman was? A No sir, I don't know the name at all.
Q Well what you, --would you know her if you saw her? A Yes, what occurred in there about the application was considered was the reason why I remember this case; I couldn't remember all the cases there before that citizenship committee.

Q Well how do you remember this case? A Well Stick Ross was very interested in the case and he did most of the talking before the committee, and the committee was opposed to her readmission, so finally Stick succeeded in getting her to go before the committee so she was admitted to the committee room, and the fellows that spoke English asked her questions, and finally after they got through Mr. England then desire to ask her some questions and he called upon me to interpret for him and when he asked the question she spoke up in Cherokee and says I can tell you, and the committee agreed then to let her do the talking herself and so after she got through the talking she went on out and my recollection was that the committee was convinced that she ought to be readmitted and in the course of time, after this Stick Ross came into the ~~xxxx~~ room and when he came in,-----

MR. HASTINGS:

Now I want to object to anything he might have said for the reason that Stick Ross is present and is a witness himself; if you are about to relate anything Stick Ross should have said.

A I am just going to show how I remember her.

MR. HASTINGS:

If you are going to relate anything what he said I am going to object to it.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

Just go ahead.

A So he says when he came in, he kinder bragged on what he could do and she thanked him for his assistance and he says that is all right, and she asked him how much she owed him for his services and Stick said nothing, you might kiss me, and this is how come me to know this woman. And sometime afterwards I came along by the Capitol there she stopped me and asked me about her citizenship and I says I don't know but if I recollect I thought you were readmitted when you went through the committee room and then afterwards I met her twice and about a year ago I seen her at Vinita and I told her, I didn't know but my recollection was she was readmitted; I had never seen her before, that was the first time I ever saw her

Q Now is this applicant, Gallie Miller, here the woman about whom you are testifying? A Yes, this is the woman; all I knew this is her face.

Q Irregardless of her name, is that the woman? A Yes, this is the woman that came into that committee room.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q You didn't remember her name? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Did she give her name there then? A Yes sir.
- Q Did she have some witnesses? A She had some witnesses, but I don't know who they were.
- Q She applied as a freedman? A That was my understanding, yes sir.
- Q Do you know who introduced her bill into the lower house? A No sir.
- Q It was introduced there, however? A I don't know that.
- Q Well you don't know of your own knowledge what report was made back by the committee? A No sir.
- Q You don't know that it was reported then? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You don't know that any bill was ever passed? A No sir.
- Q You don't know her name? A No sir.
- Q You didn't know then? A Well, I knew at the time when her name was mentioned, but I had never seen her before.
- Q You don't know what year it was? A No sir; all I remember was just the circumstance occurred just as I mentioned awhile ago.
- Q Now Stick Ross swore positively it was the second year of his term, are you prepared to dispute that? A No sir.
- Q Well was it on the second year of Stick Ross's term? A I don't know.
- Q You don't know what year that was in this circumstance you are talking about? A No sir.
- Q Where did you come from today? A Came from Tahlequah.
- Q Did you go up after Lincoln England? A Yes sir, I went up with Mr. Patten.
- Q When? A Last Monday.
- Q When did you return from up there? A I came back Monday evening to Tahlequah and waited until today.
- Q You went to see this Lincoln England Monday? A Yes sir.
- Q And came back Monday evening? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you go with him to see any other witnesses? A No sir, he is the only one that we went to see.
- Q You don't remember then what year you were interpreter for the committee? A No sir.
- Q You really don't know what evidence, if any, was taken before the committee? A No sir.
- Q You don't know whether it was a separate bill or an amendment or what? A No sir.
- Q Then you don't know that any action at all was taken? A No sir, I don't know at all, only it was favorable by the committee after she talked Cherokee, and they said she was all right.
- Q Did it ever occur to you that because a person talked Cherokee that that was not sufficient to show that they were here in 1866? A No sir, it was all new to me.

(Witness excused).

MR. PATTEN:

The Attorneys for applicants respectfully announce that under the list of witnesses submitted by them in this case that they have introduced all of the witnesses who they desire to introduce with the exception of John Sharp, whose testimony we respectfully ask be taken under a motion heretofore made in regard thereto at a future date fixed by the Commissioner and agreed to by the Attorney for the Cherokee nation, and with the exception of rebuttal testimony.

MARY E. BRICE, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of the Cherokee nation:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q State your name? A Mary E. Brice.
Q How old are you? A 40 years old.
Q What is your postoffice? A Vinita, Indian Territory.
Q What was your maiden name? A Mary E. Eaton.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir/
Q Where were you born? A I was born in California.
Q When did you come to this country? A November, 1871.
Q Do you know whether you were readmitted to citizenship at that time? A Yes sir, my mother, her and her family.
Q Do you know whether or not your name appears upon the 1880 Authenticated roll? A Yes sir.
Q Have you been married? A Yes sir.
Q What was your first husband's name? A Butler was my first husband's name.
Q Is he living? A No sir, he is dead.
Q When did he die? A He died in 1884.
Q Were you married since then? A Yes sir/
Q What time? A 1886.
Q What was your second husband's name? A Charles H. Miller.
Q Where were you living in 1886 when you were married the second time? A In Kansas.
Q How long did you continue to live in Kansas? A Three years, the longest and come back here.
Q When did you get back from Kansas? A Come back in 1888.
Q How long did you remain here then? A 18 months.
Q And then did you return to Kansas? A Yes sir, I went back.
Q Then when did you return the last time? A I was here in the fall of 1889.
Q I mean the last time? A I come back in 1892 to stay.
Q Do you know whether or not you made application for readmission to citizenship after you came back the last time to the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
Q Through whom did you make it? A Henry Drew, of Vinita.
Q Make it to the National Council? A Yes sir.
Q What was your name in 1892? A Mary E. Miller.

- Q Did you have some children at that time? A Yes sir.
 Q How many children had you then? A Three.
 Q What were their names? A Guy E. Miller, Berley M. Miller and Mattie L. Miller.
 Q Do you know what became of your application? A No sir, I don't.
 Q I mean the application you made to the Council to be readmitted in 1893? A Henry Drew ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ never turned it over to me at all.
 Q Well did you hear what action the Council took? A Yes sir,
 I heard they had admitted me back to citizenship; that I was all right.
 Q You are a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir/

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q You say your maiden name was Patten? A Yes sir.
 Q What was your first husband's name? A Butler.
 Q When did you marry him? A In 1882.
 Q Well what was he, a Cherokee or white man? A He was a white man, United States citizen.
 Q Did he live in the Cherokee Nation with you? A Yes sir.
 Q Where did you live with him? A Lived here near Vinita.
 Q Well when did he die? A Died in 1883.
 Q When did you get married again? A 1886.
 Q Who did you marry that time? A Charles H. Miller.
 Q Was he a white man or Cherokee or freedman? A He was an United States citizen.
 Q He wasn't a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.
 Q Was he a white man? A He sir, he was a colored man; my second husband was, but then he was a United States man; he was no citizen here.
 Q He was a negro? A Yes sir, had no right here at all.
 Q Was your first hus and a white man or negro? A White man.
 Q Second husband a negro? A Yes sir.
 Q You are married again? A Yes sir.
 Q To Mr. Brice? A Yes sir.
 Q Is he a white man or negro? A He is a negro.
 Q And you are a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
 Q You say you were readmitted what time by the Cherokee Council?
 A 1893.
 Q Who attended to that for you? A Henry Drew.
 Q Where was he, at Vinita? A Yes sir.
 Q What was he doing up there? A He was the Clerk of the City at that time.
 Q Well how did you happen to get Henry Drew, what did he have to do with it? A Nothing at all only he, ---, thought I had to be readmitted I would get him to attend to it as I was a triple at the time and I had a little baby; I thought I would get him to see to it.
 Q You didn't go to Tahlequah? A No sir.
 Q Your name at that time was Mary E. Miller, was it? A Yes sir.
 Q You were the mother of Idella J. Miller? A Yes sir.

- Q Examine that signature and say whether or not that is yours to that birth affidavit? A Yes sir, that is mine.
- Q On September 20, 1900, at Vinita, you gave some testimony in your own case didn't you, as a witness, in the matter of the application for the enrollment of yourself and five of your children as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, didn't you testify in regard to that matter at Vinita in 1900? A No sir.
- Q That is when you made your application as a citizen before the Dawes Commission? A Yes sir.
- Q Were you not asked the question, "What is your name," didn't you answer, "Mary E. Miller?" A Yes sir.
- Q In signing the birth affidavit as to the time of the birth of your child, Idella J. Miller, didn't you sign your name as Mary E. Miller? A Yes sir.
- Q Then you are the same Mary E. Miller are you, who testified in behalf of your own application, and that of your children at Vinita, in 1900? A Yes sir, I am the one.
- Q You didn't go to Tahlequah yourself? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever receive any notice from the Legislature, the Chief or any of his representatives that you were readmitted? A No sir, only through Henry Drew; he said he had word that I was readmitted.
- Q That is all you know then about whether you were readmitted as is what Henry Drew told you? A Yes sir.
- Q You were never there yourself? A No sir, not on that.
- Q Did you participate in the distribution of the funds that were realized from the Cherokee Strip in 1894? A Yes sir.
- Q Now this was about the year before that was it? A Yes sir.
- Q Well wasn't that the reason that you were getting this matter fixed up in order to get your strip money? A Yes sir, I wanted to have everything straight so I could be enrolled.
- Q Then wasn't that the matter in which Henry Drew represented you in getting matters shaped up, that you might come in under and draw the strip money? A Yes sir.
- Q That is the purpose for which he represented you? A Certainly.
- Q To get that strip money? A Yes sir, so I could get back as a witness.
- Q Then after Henry Drew had represented you, you got your strip money didn't you? A Yes sir.
- Q You say you are a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Your present husband a negro? A Yes sir.
- Q Who first came to see you about being a witness in this case? A W. F. Bell.
- Q L. B. Bell? A Yes sir.
- Q Any one else? A No sir.
- Q He bring you down here? A Yes sir.
- Q You came with him did you? A Yes sir.
- Q When did Roland come to see you about it? A He came this morning to see if I was ready.
- Q He came down with you? A Yes sir, we came together.
- Q Been with you most of the time since you have been here? A Yes sir.

- Q Roland Ave, a negro? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you always represented your name while it was Miller, to be Mary E. Miller? A Yes sir.
- Q That is the way you have been enrolled is it? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you received your allotment of land? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know how your certificates were made out to you? A Yes sir.
- Q How? A Mary E. Miller.
- Q There has always been an E in your name? A Yes sir, I have the papers right with me.
- Q Lets see them? (witness hands deed to Attorney).
- Q In this deed made by the Cherokee Nation to you for your allotment of land, please examine it and state how your name is written there as allottee? A It is written Mary E. Miller.
- Q Then your name appears in your allotment deed from the Cherokee Nation for your allotment of land, and in your applications and in the affidavit as to the birth of your children, you have always stated your name as Mary E. Miller? A Yes sir.
- Q What did Roland have to say to you about this case? A Didn't say much of anything; I didn't feel like talking to nobody.
- Q You discussed it with him? A No sir.
- Q You say you were never at Tahlequah in regard to that matter? A No sir.
- Q Were you ever in Tahlequah? A Yes sir, I went there to file.
- Q You lived in Vinita? A Yes sir.
- Q What year was that that you had Henry Drew represent you in some citizenship matters? A In '93.
- Q How do you know it was 1893? A That was the year I came here.
- Q Well you say that the matter in which Henry Drew represented you was in order for you to get your strip money? A Yes sir.
- Q You never received any notice from the Council yourself about being readmitted, did you? A No sir.
- Q When you made your formal application before the Dawes Commission in 1900 at Vinita for citizenship you didn't introduce at that time any certificate or certified copy of a bill or anything like that as to being readmitted, did you? A No sir.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q You have stated that your name is on the roll of 1880 have you? A Yes sir.
- Q Why did you think it was necessary to make an application for readmission? A Because the law required that you should be readmitted if you had been out a certain time and I didn't want any trouble at all, so I wanted to be straight.
- Q Before that had you lived outside of the Cherokee Nation, before 1893? A Yes sir.
- Q How long did you live outside of the Nation at any one time before that? A Three years.
- Q And it was on account of your thinking that you had lived out so long that you had to be readmitted? A Yes sir.

(Witness excused).

GEORGE W. MAYES, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee nation:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A George W. Mayes.
- Q How old are you? A 58.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.
- Q Were you a member of the Cherokee Senate in 1893? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know this woman who now goes by the name of Mary E. Brice, who just left the stand? A Yes sir, I knew her.
- Q How long have you known her? A I have known her ever since 1872 or '73, somewhere along there.
- Q How far did she live from you? A About a mile at that time.
- Q Was she a recognized Cherokee citizen then? A Yes sir.
- Q What was her maiden name? A Eaton.
- Q Did she ever afterwards marry? A Yes sir, she married a man by the name of Miller.
- Q Do you remember whether she married a white man before that? A No sir, I don't remember about her marrying a white man.
- Q What about the circumstance of her marrying Miller? What race was he? A He was a negro.
- Q Did she continue to live in that neighborhood after she married this negro? A No sir, I don't think she did; after she became of age she left that neighborhood and went up about Winita somewhere.
- Q Do you know whether they moved out of the country or not? A I don't know but I heard she did.
- Q But you had known her there right by you? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know about any application being made for her admission or readmission to citizenship while you were a member of the Cherokee Senate? A Yes sir.
- Q When was that? A In 1893.
- Q Do you know anything about the circumstance of it? A Well I was a member of the Senate and I got a letter from her; there was a bill pending then, several cases, I don't know how many and I got a line from her just before the bill got ready to be acted on asking me to have her readmitted, and I got the floor and got up and made an explanation before the Senate and I gave the name to Mark Benge, he was Chairman of the Citizenship Committee of the Senate; I gave her name to him and asked him to place it in that bill as an amendment.
- Q Is that the same person that just left the stand? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know whether that amendment was adopted? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember of having any talk or correspondence with Henry Drew with reference to this woman? A Henry Drew wrote this letter; it was his hand writing so he told me, but her name was signed to the letter.
- Q Asking you to have her readmitted? A Yes sir, and when I went to Winita afterwards he asked me about it and I told him she was readmitted.

- Q You had her readmitted on your own personal knowledge? A Yes sir, I got up and made a statement before the Senate in regard to her citizenship.
- Q It was upon your statement? A Yes sir.
- Q And you know that it was this identical person? A Yes sir.
- Q Was it represented to you that she had been out of the country, the reason she wanted to be readmitted? A Yes sir, I knew she had been out and knew she came back; - had been to Vinita and heard all about it.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q What were you doing in 1890? A I couldn't tell you all I was doing.
- Q Were you farming? A Yes sir.
- Q Or in politics? A I was in politics too.
- Q When were you elected? A In 1893.
- Q What time? A In August.
- Q Member of which house now? A A member of the Cherokee Senate.
- Q You say you had known this woman before that? A Yes sir, I had known her since she was a girl; knew her father and mother.
- Q You say you got a letter from Henry Drew? A Well her name was signed to the letter, but Henry Drew had written the letter; he told me he did; and he asked me if I got it and if this woman had been placed on the roll sometime after that when I went to Vinita.
- Q And that was in 1893 you got her readmitted? A Yes sir.
- Q Sure of that? A Yes sir.
- Q How do you know it was the same woman? A The reason because I had seen her afterwards and had a time with her.
- Q She wasn't there in person? A No sir.
- Q How long before that was it the last time you had seen her? A It was a month or two.
- Q Before that? A It might have been two or three years, I couldn't tell you; I saw her all the time from the time she was a girl - up until she was grown.
- Q She just wrote you a letter and you got her readmitted? A Yes sir.
- Q Well how long were you a member of the Senate? A Two years.
- Q Of course while you were there you never readmitted any freedmen? A No sir.
- Q Ever have any before you? A No sir.
- Q Were you ever on any committee; you were not a member of the standing committee on citizenship were you? A No sir, I don't think I was; no sir I was not.
- Q Well in 1893 did you ever have any freedmen there? A Well now we had what we called the Reviewing Committee, the purpose of which was to review the rolls for the Strip payment; that is all the committee I was on.
- Q I mean in 1893 did any freedmen apply down there? A No sir, I never seen any.
- Q Were any ever readmitted or not? A No sir, I knew there was not any.

- Q How do you know it? A I was a member of the Council and if they had made an application, I didn't know it.
- Q Didn't make any application? A No sir, not as I knew of.
- Q Did any negro ever apply as a freedman for readmission, representing themselves to be a freedman? A They might have done it; I wouldn't swear that they did or didn't.
- Q Were any admitted? A No sir, I don't think there was.
- Q Isn't it a fact that you are pretty positive for the reason that the practice of readmitting a freedman to citizenship was something that was seldom, if ever, indulged in by the Cherokee Legislature? A Well no I don't remember of any ever being before the Council at all while I was a member.
- Q Wasn't it contrary to the practice and contrary to the rules you might say of that Cherokee Legislature to admit a freedman? A Yes sir.
- Q It is a thing that rarely ever happened? A Well I don't know as it ever did.
- Q If they did admit a freedman, readmit one, I mean to citizenship, it was an ~~unusual~~ unusual thing, wasn't it? A Yes sir.
- Q Something that you don't remember? A Yes sir.
- Q And if they ever did readmit any they didn't readmit enough of them, not over one or two, in such a small number, or so few that you don't know it out of a large number? A Well I think I would; everybody that was readmitted was readmitted as a Cherokee; there never was while I was there any case come up for negroes to be readmitted.
- Q Do you want to swear that while you were there there was never a case of any negroes to be readmitted? A Yes sir, I will swear that.
- Q How do you know it? A Because they didn't readmit negroes.
- Q That is the way you know it? A Yes sir, and I was a member of the Council. There never was none while I was a member.
- Q Readmitted? A Yes sir.
- Q You know that? A Yes sir.
- Q You were a member two years? A Yes sir.
- Q Well you were in attendance attending to your duties all the time those two years? A I was there most every day; I might have been absent a day or two; whenever a fight of that kind come up I was down there generally to vote on it.
- Q Were you there all the time? A No sir, I couldn't say I was there every day.
- Q Well do you know what transpired while you were away? A Well I know it.
- Q And you know it because you know a Cherokee Legislature would not readmit a negro? A That is one reason I know it.
- Q Isn't it a fact that that is the way you know it; and that is the way you are attempting to swear it? A No sir, I swear what I knew, that they didn't readmit negroes.
- Q That is the reason you are swearing they didn't readmit negroes because they didn't readmit any negroes at all? A Yes sir.
- Q That is the reason they didn't readmit this applicant here? A She might have been readmitted I don't know.

- Q Didn't you testify they didn't readmit any? A She might have claimed to be a Cherokee then.
- Q I mean as a freedman? A Not as I know of.
- Q You are pretty certain they didn't? A I am pretty certain they didn't.
- Q You are willing to swear it? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q It would have been an exceptionally unusual thing to readmit negroes? A Yes sir.
- Q And you would have remembered that? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know whether this woman is some kin to that man Drew that wrote this letter? A No sir, I don't think she is any relation to Drew.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q While you were a member of the Council during your term of office were any exceptions that you know of made to the Council for the admission or readmission of freedmen? A No sir, none as I know of.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Then you don't know of any applications being made? A No sir.
- Q Are you willing to swear that were not made? A Well they might have been made while I wasn't in there; I don't know of any; I will swear I don't know of any.
- Q Who was this fellow Drew; what was he doing about 1893? A He was just a good citizen of Vinita.
- Q Did he hold any position or office? A I don't know as he did at that time, he had been Deputy Clerk there, and Clerk of the town.
- Q Is he alive now? A Yes sir.
- Q Here as a witness? A No sir, I don't think he is.
- Q Where does he live? A In Vinita.

ON BEHALF OF THIS COMMISSIONER:

- Q This woman that was just on the stand, Mary E. Miller, why did she ask to be readmitted? A Well she had been out of the country and under our laws she had to be readmitted; whenever any citizen went out of the country and came back here that was gone a couple of years and came back had to ask for readmission of the Council; and we were going to have a payment at that time and she wanted to draw her part of the money.

- Q And unless they were readmitted, did the nation recognize them as citizens, those who had gone away and stayed? A Two years they had to ask the Council to be readmitted.
- Q Unless they did, did the nation recognize them as citizens? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Have you ever been arrested? A No sir.
- (Witness excused).

G. W. BERGE, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee nation:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A G. W. Benge.
- Q How old are you? A 54.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Tahlequah, Indian Territory.
- Q Were you a member of the Cherokee Senate in 1893? A Yes sir.
- Q When were you elected to that term? A Well as well as I remember in 1891, I guess it was, or 1893 I forget which.
- Q Don't you know how long a term in the senate is? A Yes sir, two years.
- Q Do you know whether it is the off year or even year? A Off year.
- Q Then if you were elected in 1891 you would have only had 1891 and 1892 to serve? A Yes sir.
- Q Now after refreshing yourself do you know when you were elected? A In 1893.
- Q Well were you a member of the Senate in 1893 and also 1894? A Yes sir.
- Q Was Stick Ross a member of the lower house at that time? A I don't remember about that; I would not be certain about that.
- Q Now while you were a member of that Senate in 1893 did you know of any Cherokee freedmen at all being admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee nation? A No sir.
- Q Did you ever hear of such a thing as a Cherokee freedman being admitted or readmitted as a Cherokee freedman in the Cherokee national Council? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q When were you elected, in 1891? A 1893.
- Q Now which was it Mr. Benge, was it 1891 or 1893? A 1893.

- Q Are you certain? A Yes sir.
- Q Sure of that? A Sure of that now.
- Q Well what makes you sure it was 1893 instead of 1891? A Because I had just been elected in the August election and at the first session of the National Council and during the session of that Congress convening in December following why myself and two or three others were appointed to go to Washington to attend to certain business for the Cherokee Nation; specially appointed by the National Council.
- Q What time in December did you go? A I didn't go in December, I went I think it was in February.
- Q What year? A February the following February.
- Q What year? A 1894.
- Q Was that after you were elected? A Yes sir.
- Q Well how does that help you to remember it was 1893 you were elected instead of 1891? A Because I had to go to Washington on this special business immediately after I was elected; and the business up there at Washington was such that I didn't represent in a legal capacity but I was sent there in a special capacity by the people.
- Q Well what had that to do with the year? A Simply because I went in the interim between the two sessions and the very next session brought about a consummation of the business I went for, and I had the business the next year in the Senate.
- Q How do you know that was 1893 or 1894 instead of 1891 or 1892? A Our election laws fix the time for elections and each off year.
- Q I know what I am getting at, but are you sure it was 1891 or 1893, how do you come at it, it was one or the other of those years? A Because, I was only in the Senate at that time for two years.
- Q The time in 1893 then you say you don't remember of any freedmen being readmitted? A No sir, I don't; I don't ever remember a case of an application at that time before the Council.
- Q Mr. Penge wouldn't it have been a very unusual thing for that Cherokee Legislature to readmit a freedman to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation? A Unusual thing?
- Q Yes sir, a thing rarely, if ever, did happen? A I think so.
- Q You don't ~~think~~ remember of any of them ever having been readmitted? A No sir, and I don't think, so far as my knowledge goes; I have been in the Senate twice, served four years subsequent to that time and I don't remember ever of a Cherokee freedman making application for admission or readmission directly before the Council; because we always had established Courts for that particular purpose.
- Q You don't only remember of any being readmitted but you don't remember of any ever applying? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You don't know of any that even made an application for readmission? A I don't know of any; of course that matter usually went to the Committee; we had committees just like any other form of Government; and we had committees for particular classes of business, and I didn't serve on that Committee and if there was any applications made to that committee I don't remember of ever a report coming to the Senate for the readmission or admission of freedmen.

- Q You don't remember of any such reports? A No sir, wherein a freedman was directly an applicant you know.
- Q Well suppose a freedman had applied for readmission as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation and the standing committee on citizenship had recommended them for readmission to citizenship and attached it on as an amendment to the bill not stating whether they were freedmen or Cherokees by blood, would you know from reading the bill whether they were a freedman or a Cherokee? A I might not have known it but I wasn't the rule.
- Q You know that it wasn't the rule? A It wasn't the rule because if it had been the case, it would have surely been stated in the report and the minutes should show whether it was a negro or Indian.
- Q Now when they readmitted Cherokees by blood to all the rights of Cherokee citizens, did the bills designate that they were Cherokees by blood so that the bill would show the itself that they were not freedmen? A Not necessarily because under the Constitution of the Cherokee Nation which was in operation long before the freedmen was ever brought in that country that law was in operation and it had direct reference to Indians of Cherokee blood only and none but that class of cases were supposed to be handled by the Cherokee Council. Usually citizenship cases we always provided Courts or Commissions to try and here those cases.
- Q Then under the practice that had always been indulged in by the Cherokee Legislature they would not readmit any one only Cherokees by blood? A Sure who had once lived in the country and left, according to the terms of the Constitution they had to be readmitted.
- Q And for that reason in some of the bills it wasn't necessary to specifically designate that they were being readmitted as Cherokees by blood? A I would simply take it for granted that the Senator that had charge of the matter would attend to his duty and would report it to the Senate.
- Q As a matter of fact that standing committee on citizenship wasn't supposed to readmit any one but Cherokees by blood? A They might readmit a white man or any other citizen as far as that is concerned if he had once been a citizen and went out of the country.
- Q Another way of putting it they were not supposed to readmit a freedman? A I don't know what the supposition was, but according to the terms of the Constitution relative to such matters I base my statement on it.
- Q Well if a freedman had been recommended for readmission by that standing committee on citizenship and they had been included in that bill making no distinction whatever as to whether or not they were negroes or Cherokees by blood, if it had just put their names in there the same as they did the ones that were in the bill, now you as a member of that Senate, if that bill had come up before you and you had read it, are you prepared to say that the name of any particular party in there with whom you were not acquainted, that that name wasn't the name of a negro?

A No sir, I couldn't say that, if the committee so reported it as you state it; if they vouched for the name in making their report as the case of readmission under the Cherokee Constitution, without any light thrown on the matter to the contrary, why of course I would not know.

Q You would not have been in the committee room? A No sir.

Q You were attending to your duties as a Senator there? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

Q But when one of these bills came up before you voted on it there was always a report from the committee and always some explanation made by the parties sought to be readmitted? A Yes sir.

Q And if there had been a negro I will ask you if that would not have been such an unusual thing to attract yourself and other members of the Senate? A Yes sir, sure; but just as I said if the committee was so disposed to keep the matter somewhat away from the rest of the Senate, I might vote upon it and not know it.

Q But there was always an explanation made? A Yes sir, at my time there was generally always an explanation made.

Q And you never heard of any such case? A No sir.

BY MR. PATTEN:

Q Did you ever know this applicant here, Gallie Miller? A I don't know her.

Q Do you know Mary Miller? A Why, I knew of a Miller going through about the time but personally I wasn't acquainted with her.

Q Was she present when she went through or do you know about that? A Well I don't remember that circumstance that whether she was or not.

Q Well when they applied for readmission was it necessary for them to apply in person? A It was not necessary.

Q You say you knew of a Mary Miller going through? A I would not be positive as to the name at this time; after I was summoned I remember a Miller going through and I don't remember two or three other women, and I knew there was another woman went through but whether it was that particular session of the Council I disremember, for as soon as I was summoned up here in this case the names of those particular people began to revolve in my mind and I couldn't place which was it.

Q You don't know whether they were present or not, do you? A No sir, I don't.

(Witness excused).

 Q You say you would not believe Stick Ross under oath? A No sir.
 Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A I am.
 Q What is the matter why wouldn't you believe Stick? A Because I have known him a long time and know his reputation.
 Q Did you ever have any business dealings with him? A No sir, no business dealings, he had to come to my father-in-law for lumber there.
 Q He owes you a bill doesn't he? A An old bill, of course this was in 1893, somewhere along there.
 Q Whenever has paid it yet? A No sir, and we run a store down there and he had an account we couldn't get.
 Q Does he owe you any more? A Yes sir.
 Q You are kinder sore at him because he would not pay those bills? A No sir, I am just telling what I know.
 Q What did you ever hear around there say they would not believe him under oath? A All the good people of Tahlequah.
 Q Who are some of them? A The Merchants, business people there.
 Q I wonder if he owes them anything, do you know? A I didn't go that far to inquire.

(Witness excused).

Q You are too, aren't you? A Yes sir.

(Witness excused).

W. W. HASTINGS, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary public, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

(Statement by Mr. Hastings).

My name is W. W. Hastings, I will soon be 40; my postoffice is Tahlequah. I was one of the Attorneys representing the Cherokee Nation in the making of the Worn-Clifton roll in 1896, and during that enrollment we had a synopsis of the testimony taken at that time made. I have refreshed my memory from looking up the testimony taken at that time and examined the application and statement made by Sallie Miller, the applicant, and I find that no reference whatever was made at that time to her having claimed that she was readmitted or admitted to citizenship by any authority of the Cherokee National Council at that time or prior thereto.

I desire to state that in contradiction of Stick Ress that our elections are held on the first Monday in August of the odd years, and that we had an election on the first Monday in August of 1893, and that his second year of service would have been in 1894. I want to add also that I know personally George W. Mayes who testified on the stand, was a member of the Senate from Cooweescoowee District during those two years, and that George W. Bengel, who also testified, was a member of the Senate from Tahlequah District.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Who made this synopsis of this testimony that you say you have refreshed your memory with? A I had it made under my direction; it was made at the time the testimony was given; it was usually made by J. M. Keys, but at times he was relieved by Mr. Stephens.
- Q Who was Mr. Stephens, was he in the employ of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, temporarily.
- Q In your best judgment that synopsis was made by Mr. Keys or Mr. Stephens? A My judgment is it was; Mr. Keys however is present and states that is not in his hand writing; I am not able to say but my best judgment is it was made by Mr. Stephens, however it is one of the books that we made at the time and has been in the possession of the Cherokee Authorities since that time.
- Q In what capacity did Mr. Keys act at that time? A As one of the representatives of the Cherokee Nation.
- Q Then that synopsis was made by Mr. Keys or Mr. Stephens, or some one at least in the employ of the Cherokee Nation? A Certainly.
- Q It wasn't a synopsis officially made by the Commission or by the authorities who were hearing the testimony, at that time? A No sir, this was made by us for our benefit.

(Witness excused).

MR. HASTINGS:

Now anticipating that the evidence of John Shary is going to be taken, I have some impeachment witnesses as to him and I desire now to save the expense of the Cherokee Nation, and have them introduced upon the stand in advance.

MR. PATTEN:

I have no objections.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

By agreement between the Attorneys for the Cherokee Nation and applicants that the impeaching testimony the Nation has present will be taken at this time and will be made a part of the record in the case only on condition that the testimony of John Sharp is taken in the case.

S. D. MILLER, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of the Cherokee Nation:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A S. L. Miller.
Q What is your age? A 37.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Tahlequah.
Q Do you know John Sharp, being the person now incarcerated in jail charged with the murder of young Powell at Tahlequah? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A About 20.
Q Do you know his reputation in the community in which he lives for truth and veracity? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A The people around Tahlequah there say it is bad.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Who did you ever hear say it was bad? A The people around Tahlequah.
Q Who? A Prexy Wyly was one; I was City marshal and I had more trouble with him than any one there; I arrested him once for running a gambling house; he runed a society joint out there and I had more trouble out there than any other place.

(Witness excused).

T. W. FOREMAN, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A T. W. Foreman.
Q How old are you? A 46.
Q What is your postoffice? A Tahlequah.

- Q Do you know John Sharp, a man that is now in jail charged with the killing of a young Powell a short time ago? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A About 20 years I reckon, 20.
Q Do you know his reputation for truth and veracity in the community in which he lives? A Yes sir.
Q Is that good or bad? A Bad.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q When did it get bad, since he has got into this trouble? A No sir.
Q Before that? A Always been bad so far as I know; I have been right there in Tahlequah and he was connected with our Council.
Q Did you know him when he was connected with the Cherokee legislature? A Yes sir.
Q Was his reputation bad then? A Yes sir.
Q You are the same T. W. Foreman who testified in regard to the reputation of Stick Ross and Levi Gritts? A Yes sir, I am.

(Witness excused).

BEN JOHNSON, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Ben Johnson.
Q How old are you? A 52.
Q What is your postoffice? A Moody.
Q Do you know John Sharp? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A Several years.
Q Do you know his reputation for truth and veracity in the community in which he lives? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Bad.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q You are the same Cherokee that testified in regard to the reputation of Stick Ross and Levi Gritts, aren't you? A Yes sir.

(Witness excused).

JOSEPH WOODARD, being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, a Notary Public, testified as follows on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q What is your name? A Joseph Woodard.
Q How old are you? A 58.
Q What is your postoffice? A Tablequah.
Q Do you know John Sharp who was recently arrested charged with murder? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him? A About 12 years I guess.
Q Do you know his reputation for truth and veracity in the community over there? A Yes sir.
Q Is it good or bad? A Bad.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q You are the same Joe Woodard that testified in regard to the reputation of Stick Ross and Levi Gritts? A Yes sir.
Q You say tha John Sharp's reputation is bad? A Yes sir.
Q How far have you lived from Tablequah? A About a mile.
Q Well hie is your reputation? A It is good I guess.

(Witness excused).

MR. HASTINGS:

We are ready to close.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

Attorneys for applicants have heretofore filed a motion that the testimony of John Sharp, who is confined in the Federal Jail at Vinita, Indian Territory, on a charge of murder, be taken at Vinita, and they were verbally advised by the Commissioner that their request would be granted, and that the testimony of said witness would be taken at Vinita, On December 19, 1906, but owing to the fact that Sharp had been transferred to Ballisawhis testimony was not secured. The request that his testimony be taken at Vinita will be granted and his testimony taken at the earliest practicable date, of which the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation and the applicants will be duly informed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
VINITA, I. T., DECEMBER 26, 1906.

SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDINGS had in the matter of the application for the enrollment of SALLIE MILLER, ET AL., as Cherokee Freedmen.

APPEARANCES:

For Applicants, STARR & PATTEN.

For Cherokee Nation, W. W. HASTINGS.

In compliance with order of the Commissioner of December 20, 1906, the further hearing of this case having been set for this day at Vinita, I. T., for the purpose of taking the testimony of John Sharp, the Attorneys for applicants and the Cherokee Nation being duly notified thereof, the following proceedings were had:

JOHN W. SHARP, being first duly sworn by O. A. Smith, a Notary Public for the Northern District, Indian Territory, testified as follows on behalf of applicants:

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q State your name? A John W. Sharp.
- Q How old are you? A 53.
- Q What is your postoffice? A Tahlequah, Indian Territory.
- Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee nation by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q In the latter part of 1893 what, if any, official position did you hold in the Cherokee nation? A I was a member of the Council then.
- Q Was that the lower house? A Lower house, yes sir.
- Q While a member of that Council were you ever a committeeman on any committee that investigated citizenship matters? A Yes sir, I was on the committee there in 1893 and 1894.
- Q Who, if you can remember, were other members of that committee? A Old Parson Debson and Sam Fields, as well as I recollect, Link England and Jesse Hair.
- Q Do you know who the official interpreter for that committee was? A I declare I don't remember, I believe though it was Gritts, I want say for certain.

- Q While a member of the lower house of the Cherokee Legislature and a member of that committee was there any application for readmission to citizenship ever made before you? A Yes sir.
- Q By any colored person? A Well there was an old colored woman come there; she talked Cherokee mostly and she was, ---we give her her citizenship.
- Q Do you know what her name was? A I declare I disremember.
- Q Would you know the name if you heard it? A I believe I would.
- Q Was it Sallie Miller? A I believe that is the name.
- Q You say she was a negro? A She looked like she was; she was mixed, colored and talked good Cherokee.
- Q She applied to be readmitted as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, did she? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know whether or not that that was a proceeding in which she was admitted was contrary to the ordinary practice of that Legislature? A I don't know, she was admitted there I am satisfied; I know I was opposed to it when I was on the committee at the start and they brought in some evidence and seemed liked those full blood members wanted to admit her and I give in.
- Q Did she talk Cherokee to them? A Yes sir.
- Q Did she introduce any evidence before that committee as to her citizenship rights? A I think she did but it has been so long now I forget how the evidence was; I know she was admitted.
- Q Now is not it a fact that it was an unusual thing for the Cherokee Legislature to ever readmit a freedman, wasn't it? A Well I suppose so.
- Q Do you ever remember of any one other than her ever being readmitted? A That is the only case I knew of.
- Q You do remember she was readmitted, do you? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know whether she was readmitted in an ordinary bill, an original bill, or whether it was an amendment to the bill, or how the matter came up? A No sir, I disremember, but I know the committee allowed her her rights and it passed the lower house.
- Q You know it passed the lower house? A Yes sir.
- Q From the information you acquired at that time, do you know whether or not that bill or amendment became a law which readmitted her? A I suppose it did; I never heard nothing to the contrary.
- Q You know that it passed that committee, and that it passed the lower house, do you? A Yes sir.
- Q And you know this was a colored woman? A She claimed to be part darkey and part Cherokee.
- Q Well now do you know whether or not that part of the bill wher - in this colored woman, Sallie Miller, was interested, do you know whether or that that was an amendment from the Senate or how it came up? A It has been a long time ago, and I declare I can't say for certain whether it was or not, but I know distinctly well it passed our committee and then it passed the lower house.
- Q You were a member of the lower house? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you take a vote upon it? A Yes sir.
- Q And it passed by a majority vote? A Yes sir.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Do you remember who introduced her application? A No sir, I don't remember it now.
- Q Do you remember what year it was? A I think it was in 1893.
- Q Do you remember anybody that made an application in 1894? A No sir, I don't; I don't remember.
- Q Do you remember whether that application after it was introduced was referred to your committee or not? A In 1894?
- Q 1893? A Why I remember well that we voted on it and it passed and then it passed the lower house.
- Q Well you don't know then of your own knowledge that it ever became a law? A Well now I think the Senate passed it; I heard them talking about it but of course I wasn't in there.
- Q Well if the Senate passed it they passed it after the lower house it? A Yes sir, it originated in the lower house and went from out committed and then from the, --er through the Council of the lower house first.
- Q Do you remember any other names that were on the committee, I mean any other names as members of her family? A No sir, I don't.
- Q Do you remember whether she had anybody else other than just herself? A No sir, I don't, it has been a long while ago.
- Q Then you don't really remember the name? A I remember this old lady well.
- Q But you don't remember the name? A Well they had a Sherokes name for her, then fellows did, and I forget what that was.
- Q But you don't remember her English name and didn't until Mr. Patten told you? A Well that was her name; what they called her, it come to me but I don't know the balance of the folks name and know nothing about them. I knew I kicked at the time this matter come up myself.
- Q If this woman was admitted there through your Council your minutes would show that? A They ought to.
- Q You kept minutes in the lower house of it? A Yes sir.
- Q And you kept minutes of the committee proceedings? A Yes sir.
- Q And you don't remember who the witnesses were? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You don't remember what aged woman she was? A She looked to be like; --she was a pretty old woman.
- Q How old, about? A Between 50 and 60 years old.
- Q At that time? A Yes sir.
- Q I believe you said you didn't know who her witnesses were? A No sir, I don't know, I disremember who they were.
- Q You don't remember anybody else that applied at the time? A No sir, I don't.
- Q You don't recollect anybody else that applied during that session of Council, do you? A Oh there was a great many claims there, but it has been a long time ago and I forget now.
- Q But I say you don't recollect a one of them? A Lets see, maybe I can study some; yes there was some parties from California, a lady came there and she was readmitted; lived over here in Delaware District and I forget her name now; maybe you know her name she married one of them Walchs that come back here.

- Q You don't recollect her name? A If I could hear it; she was kin to Sam Fields, some of his relations.
- Q Were they admitted by this same bill? A I don't know whether it was the same bill or not, but she was readmitted at that time.
- Q No one else readmitted by this bill except this woman? A No sir, I don't remember anything sure.
- Q But you know this woman was readmitted by a bill introduced in the lower house and you understand it afterwards went through the Senate? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know who framed the bill to admit her? A No sir.
- Q Do you know whether it was framed by your committee after hearing the testimony? A Why we reported it in there, I don't know who framed the bill; we reported it to the Council and they passed on it.
- Q Anybody else reported but the one person at that time was there? A Well now I will tell you I don't remember whether there was or not; I expect old man Dobson is better posted on it than I am, he was Chairman of the Committee.
- Q You can't recollect then the name of anybody else admitted at that session of Council other than this party? A That is all I remember of.
- Q You never saw the Act after it was approved by the Chief? A No sir, I never have seen it.
- Q You don't know then that it ever passed? A Nothing only that it passed our house and went to the Senate, and I heard there, I believe it was Roach Young told me it had passed the Senate.
- Q Well all you knew about it is just the rumor you heard upon the street? A Well I heard it from that Senator.
- Q When has your memory been first refreshed with reference to this matter? A Well I believe it was last summer or spring, some one told me about it.
- Q Who was it? A Mr. Starr over there and he got to talking to me about it and I remember the circumstance then, and old man Dobson come around and we got to talking about it.
- Q Don't tell what Dobson said. Well has any one since that time talked to you about it? A Why no, only when this gentleman here, Mr. Patten today come around and asked me about it.
- Q Mr. Patten talked with you this morning about it? A Yes sir.
- Q Did he then discuss with you the name of this woman? A Why he just asked about the name is all.
- Q You and him discussed the name at that time? A And he asked me if I thought I would know the woman if I could see her.
- Q You are confined in the United States Jail? A Yes sir.
- Q You are under an indictment for murder? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you ever been indicted for anything else? A No sir, I believe not.
- Q Were you ever charged in the Cherokee Courts with shooting Tom Triplett? A I was charged for that, but I never was tried for it.
- Q Isn't it a matter of fact that our Courts lost jurisdiction by the passage of the Curtis Bill? A Yes sir.
- Q And your case was pending at that time? A Yes sir.

- Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
- Q How many times have you been married? A Twice.
- Q When were you first married? A The first time?
- Q Yes? A It has been about 30 years ago.
- Q Were you ever divorced from your first wife? A Yes sir,---well you might call it a divorce, we lived together as man and wife a long time.
- Q Separated by a legal divorce from Court? A No sir.
- Q Is she living? A Yes sir, she is married; been married a long time.
- Q Were you married after you separated from your first wife? A Yes sir.
- Q How as a matter of fact you never were legally married after to your first wife? A Well, no.
- Q How long did you live with her? A About 20 years.
- Q How many children did you have by her? A Seven or eight.
- Q Are you living with your last wife? A No sir.
- Q Divorced? A No sir.
- Q Separated? A Yes sir.
- Q You don't recollect anybody then that was admitted by an Act of 1893 or during that session of Council? A Why this lady I spoke of just now but I disremember the name.
- Q Well is that the only one that you remember that was readmitted? A I suppose there was others, but I don't remember who they were.
- Q Do you remember any one that was admitted in 1894? A No sir, I don't believe I can call the names who they were.
- Q Were you a member of the Council in 1895? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you remember any one that was readmitted by that Council? A There was some parties readmitted but I don't know they were; it has passed my recollection and remembrance.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q You say I believe that you didn't remember whether or not that part of the Act referred to this Gallie Miller that was before you, you didn't remember whether that was an original bill or an amendment? A Why I suppose it would be an original bill from the lower house; she applied there for her citizenship and the committee passed on it and it went to the lower house, then they voted on it there and they passed it, and when it went to the Senate this other Senator told me it had passed there; Of course I don't know that.
- Q You spoke of her having some other name there, was it some other name at that time? A It was some Cherokee name, but I don't remember it.
- Q Do you know whether or not at that time she was ever called Gallie Holt or Gallie Miller other than the Cherokee name? A I don't remember but I believe they said something about Gallie Holt or Gallie Miller; of course it has been a long time ago, and I can't be too positive about these things, but I am positive about that committee passing on her and it passing the Council, I am positive about that.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q This person about whom you have been testifying as being readmitted, you state she was at least part colored? A That is what they claimed she was.
- Q Did her looks show it? A Yes sir, her looks showed it, looked to me like she was
- Q Do you have a distinct recollection of her? A Well I believe I would know her if I should see her; I never have seen her since that time, and never did see her before that time.
- Q Do you know whether her application was made for readmission as a Cherokee by blood or as a Cherokee Freedman? A I think it was made by blood.
- Q Is that your impression? A Yes sir, that is my impression.
- Q Isn't it a fact that applications for readmission as Cherokee Freedmen were very seldom, if ever, made? A That is the only case I know of.
- Q And you now state that your impression is that she made her application for readmission as a citizen by blood? A That is my recollection of it.
- Q Do you know whether anything was said of her ever having been a citizen prior to that time? A Why they claimed she was; that is she claimed she was and I think they proved it up there that she was
- Q Well if she had never been a citizen before that time, would she not have had to make her application for admission instead of readmission? A Well I think it was for readmission; I am might near positive it was.

~~EXHIBIT OF THE COMMISSIONER~~

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Do you know whether the testimony showed she had been a slave? A No sir, I don't; I don't recollect that.
- Q Well don't you know as a matter of fact that all of the witnesses that this woman claimed to have had before your committee were freedmen and she claims that it was on the grounds that she was a slave? A I don't remember, as I told you I don't remember, but I do remember about that woman being readmitted there and went through that Council; I do know that for I was a little hot about it.
- Q You were mad because she was being readmitted as a Freedman? A I thought so.
- Q Weren't you made because they were attempting to readmit her as a Freedman? A I thought she was and some of the balance of them said she was.
- Q Don't you know that if you have got any distinct recollection about it at all that she applied as a Freedman and introduced testimony to show that she was entitled as a Freedman? A I was tryin' to study who her witnesses were; they were not all colored people I don't think; there was some other people there but I don't remember their names.
- Q You don't remember any of them? A No sir, I don't.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Do you remember whether or not Stick Roas had anything to do with it? A I believe probably he was a witness in the case.
- Q That is your best recollection? A Yes sir.
- Q You say you were opposed to this in the beginning? A Yes sir, I was.
- Q Isn't it a fact that you were opposed to it because you were of the opinion that she was a negro and hadn't ought to be readmitted? A Yes sir, that is my reason and they brought in evidence there and it seemed like the full bloods on the committee were in favor of her and I just give right in.
- Q Do you remember whether or not there was any evidence as to who her father was? A No sir; --, will take that back, I believe I do; -- believe they claimed that her father used to live on the Illinois River somewhere.
- Q Do you remember whether or not there was any evidence, testimony, to show whether her father was an Indian by blood? A Yes sir.
- Q Was that the fact that helped make those full bloods think she ought to be readmitted?

MR. HASTINGS:

Objected to by the representative of the Cherokee Nation for the reason that this question is clearly leading; that this witness has heretofore testified that he did not remember a single solitary witness that appeared before the committee.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The objection will be noted.

A Yes sir, it seemed that they thought that; that is the reason I looked under on it.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Now ~~xxxxxxxx~~ since you have gone into the testimony, don't you know that if any examination on earth was made of this case before this committee that the testimony developed that she was a slave herself before the war? A I believe it would.

BY MR. PATTEN:

- Q Your best opinion then is the testimony introduced there was that this woman before the war was a slave? A Yes sir, -- think it was.

Q Was that one of the reasons that made you think all the more that she must have some negro blood in her?

MR. HASTINGS:

Objected to because it is leading; and second, because it calls for a conclusion of the witness.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The objection will be noted.

A That is the reason I didn't think she ought to be readmitted there.

(Witness excused).

MR. PATTEN:

Attorneys for applicants now offer in evidence a certified copy of the original bill and amendments thereto, namely Council Bill No. 10, passed by the Cherokee Legislature December 11, 1893, readmitting, among others, to all the rights of Cherokee citizenship, Mary Miller, et al.

MR. HASTINGS:

Objected to by the representative of the Cherokee Nation for the reason that the certified copy offered to be introduced shows that Mary Miller and family was readmitted to citizenship, and not Sallie Miller, and that the bill has no reference whatever to the applicant; second, for the reason that all of the testimony introduced tends to show that original application was made to the lower house of the Nation Council, whereas the certified copy of the Bill offered to be introduced shows that this amendment readmitting Mary Miller and family was made offered in the Senate and not in the Lower house.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

The copy referred to being certified by the Assistant Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation, and under the Nation seal, appearing to be correct, the same will be filed and considered for what it is worth in connection with the testimony in regard to the admission of the parties to which it refers.

MR. HASTINGS:

To which the representative of the Cherokee nation
excepts.

The attorneys for applicants and the Cherokee nation announce they have no further evidence to introduce in this case, the same will be closed and a decision rendered on the evidence heretofore introduced.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sallie Miller, et al., as Cherokee freedmen, consolidating the applications for the enrollment of:

Sallie Miller.....Cherokee freedman D 648
Anna Butler and Rether Owen...Cherokee freedman D 979
Howard Bushyhead.....Cherokee freedman D 980
Katie Davis.....Cherokee freedman D 983

D E C I S I O N
- - - - -

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That applications for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen were made to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes by Sallie Miller for herself; by Anna Butler for herself and minor child, Rether Owen; by Howard Bushyhead for himself and by Katie Davis for herself. The records further show that the applications for the enrollment of the above named persons were consolidated with the case of Katie Ridge, et al. C.F.D. 298, et al., and that on October 13, 1905, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision in said consolidated case, denying all the applicants therein the right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and that said decision was duly forwarded the Department for review; that thereafter on July 9, 1906 (I.T.D. 17864-05), motions to reopen said cases having been filed with the Department, the Secretary of the Interior remanded said consolidated case to this office for further hearing and readjudication with instructions that said consolidated case be divided into groups according to the three places from which it is alleged the applicants returned to the Indian Territory after the war. It having been determined by this office that the cases of Sallie Miller, C.F.D. 648, Anna Butler and Rether Owen, C.F.D. 979, Howard Bushyhead, C.F.D. 980 and Katie Davis, C.F.D. 983 should constitute one of these groups, further proceedings in the matter of said applications were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 20, 1906, and at Vinita, Indian Territory, December 26, 1906.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Sallie Miller, was a slave of a Cherokee citizen at the commencement of the war of the rebellion; that during the progress of said rebellion she left the Cherokee Nation, and did not return thereto and establish an actual personal bona fide residence therein after the close of the war until subsequent to February 11, 1867. Attention is here invited to "Council bill No. 10", entitled "an act to readmit B. F. Davis and children to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation", a certified copy of which is filed with and made a part of the record in this case, and the testimony introduced on behalf of the applicants herein attempting to show that one Mary Miller mentioned in said act, and the applicant herein, Sallie Miller, are one and the same person, but it is considered by this office that in this they have wholly failed, and that the evidence conclusively shows that Mary Miller mentioned in said act is not identical with the applicant herein, Sallie Miller. It is further shown that all the other applicants herein are descendants of the said Sallie Miller, were born since 1864, and neither claim nor possess any right to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen other than as such descendants. Excepting that the said Katie Davis is identified on the Wallace roll of Cherokee freedmen, no one of the applicants herein can be identified on any roll of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of this office.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: that under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1896 (30 Stat. 495), Sallie Miller, Anna Butler, Esther Owen, Howard Bushyhead and Katie Davis are not entitled to enrollment as Cherokee freedmen, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

SIGNED,

Tams Bixby
Commissioner.

A P P E A L.

Come now the applicants in the above entitled cause and pray an appeal from the Decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory on February 23, 1907, to the Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior, Washington.

An examination of the record in this case previous to the time that this case was remanded to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for rehearing, and an examination of all the evidence in this case which constituted the record herein previous to the time the supplementary proceedings had herein at Muskogee, Indian Territory on December 20, 1906 and at Vinita, Indian Territory on December 26, 1906, we respectfully submit, left the issues in this case very close. An examination of this record shows that upon the previous trials herein as well as upon the late rehearing had on the above case, that on these occasions and now the only question before the Department at issue in this case was the question of return and compliance with the Ninth Article of the Treaty of July 19, 1866.

Upon this issue, considerable testimony had been introduced on behalf of the applicants and also on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, all of which was conflicting and left the question at issue, we submit, unsatisfactorily explained. When this case was remanded to the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes for further hearing, our contention at that time was that the principal applicant herein, Sallie Miller, and those claiming under her, a part of whom constituted her family, were readmitted by the Cherokee Legislature in 1893 to all the rights of Cherokee citizenship. We took this position contending that, if this were true, that the action of the Cherokee Legislature in this matter was sufficient to give to the applicants herein the benefit of any doubt that might have been left by the testimony heretofore introduced upon their rights to be enrolled as Cherokee Freedmen; and to entitle them, if we sustained our contention upon this point, to be enrolled as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

The sole question, then, raised upon the rehearing had in this case before the Commissioner on December 20 and December 26, 1906, and the sole issue tried upon that rehearing was the question above stated "Was the applicant, Sallie Miller, and her family readmitted to all the rights of Cherokee citizenship by the Cherokee Legislature in 1893?". We introduced in this case a certified copy of the original Bill and an Amendment thereto, namely, Council Bill No. 10, which was passed by the Cherokee Legislature on December 11, 1893 and signed by the Chief of the Cherokee Nation, which Bill readmitted, among others, to all of the rights of Cherokee Citizenship, one Mary Miller and family. Our contention in this case was that this Mary Miller and family named in that Bill was the same person as the applicant, Sallie Miller, herein, which therefore left the issue only of identity, and we respectfully submit that if the applicant, Sallie Miller, has been sufficiently identified as being the person named in that Bill that these applicants are entitled to be enrolled as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

The testimony in brief upon this question is as follows:

STICK ROSS:

This witness gave his age as 59 years and his Post Office as Tahlequah, Indian Territory. His testimony shows that he has been quite well acquainted with the applicant, Sallie Miller, for years; that in 1893 he was a member of the Lower House of the Cherokee Legislature; that while a member of that branch of the Cherokee Legislature this identical applicant, Sallie Miller, applied for readmission as a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation to the Cherokee Council; that the question of her readmission was referred to a standing committee on citizenship composed in part of John Shapp, Lincoln England, Reverend Dodson and Mr. Hare, and that W. A. Thompson was Clerk of this Committee. His testimony shows that during the November Session of that Legislature this Committee considered her application and investigated the fact of her parentage and the question of her return and compliance with the Treaty of 1866; that this witness was then a witness before that Committee in behalf of this applicant; that it developed before that committee, among whom were several full-bloods, that this applicant was in part a Cherokee by blood and spoke good Cherokee, and they considered all this together with the testimony before that Committee upon the question of her compliance with the Treaty of 1866 as to her return to the Cherokee Nation and this Committee recommended that she be readmitted. His testimony further shows that this Bill passed the Lower House of which he was a member and that he afterwards learned that it also passed the Senate and became a Law. He positively identifies the applicant as being the person whose name appears in this Bill. His testimony shows, and there is no question, that this was the only instance to his knowledge ever known in the history of the Cherokee Legislature of a freedman being admitted or readmitted to Cherokee citizenship, and we respectfully submit that the fact that it was known to that committee, among whom were several full-bloods, that the father of this applicant was a full-blood Indian and that this applicant herself talked to that Committee in Cherokee, explains in part, as this witness shows, how it was that she was readmitted to Cherokee citizenship. Certainly it can not be said that she did not appear before this Committee and that these actions were not taken, and certainly it can not be said that she was admitted on any grounds other than as a freedman, for the reason that the testimony shows that the evidence before that committee showed that she was a slave before the war; that her father was a full-blood Indian and that she complied with the Ninth Article of the Treaty of 1866 in regard to her return to the Cherokee Nation after the war.

3

GALLIE MILLER.

This witness, the principal applicant in this case, and a poor freedman woman, as the testimony shows, was not acquainted with the workings of the Cherokee Legislature and for that reason, we respectfully submit, her simple testimony of what occurred while she was at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, is worthy of a great deal of weight. She says that about the latter part of 1893 her citizenship was questioned; that she went to Tahlequah where she was acquainted and where she thought she could get witnesses to straighten her out; that she got W. A. Thompson to attend to the matter for her. It will be noted that this same W. A. Thompson was the Clerk of this standing Committee on citizenship referred to by the previous witness, Stick Hess. Her testimony shows that this matter was taken up before the House and the standing Committee on citizenship composed in part of Mr. Shapp, Lincoln England and some full-blood Indians and that W. A. Thompson was Clerk of that Committee and that Levi Gritts was Interpreter of that Committee. She shows in her testimony that she had witnesses before that Committee; that they questioned her upon her parentage, upon the fact of her being a slave before the war, upon the question of her leaving the Cherokee Nation during the war, and upon the question of her return to the Cherokee Nation after the war. Her testimony further shows that Mr. Thompson, the Clerk of this Committee, advised her that the Committee recommended favorably upon her application and that when the matter was taken up in the House and Senate, that the Bill had passed both the House and Senate of the Cherokee Legislature and that ^{it} ~~was~~ only remained for the Chief to sign the Bill. The Bill itself shows that it was signed by the Chief of the Cherokee Nation. Unquestionably then, by the testimony of this applicant, she did appear at Tahlequah and did appear before that standing Committee on citizenship, and at considerable length and completeness had the question of her readmission to citizenship in the Cherokee nation, brought before that tribunal. We believe that this, at least, can not be doubted.

LINCOLN ENGLAND.

This witness gave his age as 58 years and his Post Office as Baron, Indian Territory. His testimony shows that in 1893 that he was a member of the Lower House of the Cherokee Legislature; that he is a Cherokee by blood and testified in this case through an official interpreter. His testimony shows that while he was a member of the Lower House of the Cherokee Legislature; that he was a member of the standing Committee on citizenship; and that while a member of that standing Committee on citizenship that the matter of an application of a Cherokee freedman woman for readmission to Cherokee citizenship came before that Committee for consideration; that he was positive that she was the negro woman and that she appeared herself in person and had witnesses presented before that Committee to support her application. This witness has no recollection of what was the result of that investigation, but we respectfully submit that an examination of his testimony shows that, while it was a very uncommon and almost unknown practice for that tribunal to entertain freedman applications for citizenship and readmission thereto, yet we invite attention to his testimony to show that he is absolutely positive that in the latter part of 1893, while he was a member of that Committee on citizenship, that they entertained and received evidence upon an application for readmission to Cherokee citizenship of a colored freedman woman, and that she herself was present in person before that Committee.

LEVI GRITS.

This witness gave his age as 32 years and his Post Office as Tahlequah, Indian Territory. His testimony shows that in 1893 he was the official interpreter for a standing Committee on citizenship composed of members of the Cherokee Legislature at Tahlequah, of which Committee Rev. Deason was Chairman and W. A. Thompson was Clerk. Upon the trial of this case he positively identifies this applicant, Sallie Miller, as being the self-same woman who appeared before that Committee as above stated, and of whom Lincoln England and Mr. Fields were also members, and his testimony shows that that Committee went into the question of her citizenship relative to readmitting her as a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation, and he says that his recollection is that that Committee recommended that she be readmitted. His testimony further shows that according to his best recollection at that time as he now remembers it, that she passed the Legislature and was readmitted, as the Council Bill introduced as evidence in this case shows. We invite attention to his testimony in this case which will show the circumstances concerning this transaction in that Committee Room, which clearly called to the mind of this witness the facts about which he testified. His testimony shows that he did not remember the name of this woman but that he recognized her as soon as he saw her, as being the same woman admitted at that time. He distinctly remembers the circumstances of that woman being a freedman, which appealed to him as being such an unusual thing in the Cherokee Legislature. His testimony shows, as did the testimony of the previous witness which it corroborates, that she conversed with the full-blooded members of this Committee in their own language, which fact, coupled with the testimony that her father was a full-blood Indian, probably accounts for this remarkable exception in the actions of the Cherokee Legislature in readmitting this freedman woman to all the rights of Cherokee citizenship.

JOHN W. SHARP.

This witness gave his age as 53 years and his Post Office as Tahlequah, Indian Territory. His testimony shows that in 1893 he was a member of the Lower House of the Cherokee Legislature, and that while holding this official position, he was also a member of the standing Committee on citizenship, of which Mr. Deben, Sam Fields, Lincoln England and Jesse Ware were also members. His testimony corroborates that of the witness who just left the stand and he says that Levi Gritts was the official interpreter for that Committee. His testimony further shows that while a member of that Committee that an old colored woman named Sallie Miller applied to the Cherokee Legislature for readmission as a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation; that the facts in her case were investigated by this Committee and that he was opposed to her readmission because she was a freedman, and that practice was contrary to the customs and usages of the Cherokee Legislature, yet he positively says that when she had introduced her evidence before that Committee and showed them that her father was a full-blood Indian, and had talked Cherokee to the full-blood members of that Committee, that these full-blood members were in sympathy with her and they insisted that she be readmitted. His testimony shows that she was readmitted and he is positive in his testimony that this Committee recommended her application favorably, and that, as a member of the Lower House of the Cherokee Legislature, that he knows that the Bill passed that House and that he was informed by members of the Cherokee Senate that it also passed that branch of the Cherokee Legislature and that it was consummated and she was readmitted to all the rights of Cherokee citizenship. An examination of this witness's testimony will show that he was positive of the facts about which he testified and his testimony shows that he certainly could not have been mistaken about these facts. Unquestionable, we submit, that in the testimony of this witness, this applicant, Sallie Miller, did not appear before that Committee, who investigated her application for readmission, and that that her application was recommended by this standing Committee on citizenship and upon that recommendation passed the Cherokee Legislature.

This constituted the applicants' case.

After examining the testimony in this case, we respectfully submit that it can not be doubted that the Mary Miller named in the Council Bill is identical with the Sallie Miller, the applicant in this case, and that unquestionably there could only have been a clerical mistake made in recording the Bill. We respectfully submit that in this testimony we have sustained our contention in this case.

Let us see in what manner the Cherokee nation sought to meet this contention.

They introduced as a witness in this case one Mary E. Brice, a Cherokee by blood, whom the testimony shows in 1893 was Mary E. Miller, and by reason of the mere fact that in 1893 her name was Mary E. Miller, they contend that she is the person named in this Council Bill, a certified copy of which we have introduced in evidence in this case. A cross-examination of her testimony, we respectfully submit, will show that she at no time ever appeared before the Cherokee Legislature or any branch of that tribunal in regard to her citizenship matters, and that the only thing she ever did was to employ Henry Drew of Vinita, Indian Territory, who had no connection or relations whatever with the Cherokee Council ^{to} but represented her in the matter of getting her straightened out that she might draw her strip money in 1894. A close examination of her testimony from every legitimate conclusion that can be drawn there from, we respectfully submit, shows that this was the matter in which Henry Drew represented her. Not a single witness, not even this witness, undertook to say that she ever appeared before the Cherokee Legislature at Tahlequah in this matter, and the record itself, showing that she is duly enrolled on the authenticated roll of 1890, certainly shows that there would be no reasonable excuse or any occasion for her appealing to be readmitted as a Cherokee citizen. We have introduced a number of witnesses who positively identify our applicant as being the very self-same person who appeared before the Cherokee Legislature and the branches thereof in 1893 in this matter. Not a single witness introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation even attempted to say that this witness, Mary E. Miller, ever appeared at Tahlequah in this matter and an examination of her testimony, as well as the testimony of the Nation's other witnesses, who undertook to know anything about this witness personally, will conclusively show, we respectfully submit, that she was only being represented in the matter of drawing her strip money. We further desire to call attention to the fact that this woman at all times in her testimony, in the matter of the application of herself and her children to be enrolled as ~~Indian~~ Cherokee citizens, in her certificates of allotment, in every birth affidavit signed by her, and in the deeds conveying the title to her allotment of land to her by the Cherokee nation, that on each and every occasion and without a single, solitary exception, her name has always been given and has always been recognized as Mary E. Miller. We respectfully submit that this is just as great a discrepancy between her name and the name of the woman in Council Bill No. 10 introduced in evidence in this case, as is the discrepancy, which we submit is a clerical mistake, between the name of Nellie or Sarah Miller and Mary Miller; and we respectfully fully submit that in a name being pronounced to a Clerk, who did the Clerical work, that it would be easier to mistake the name of Sarah Miller for Mary Miller than it would be for him to omit the prominent initial "M". This witness, herself, thus admits that she had no notice officially whatever of ever being admitted by the Cherokee Legislature, and simply undertakes to say she was, we submit, by reason of the fact that she drew her strip money in which transaction Henry Drew represented her. While we do not consider her testimony of much force in this case and of no damaging effect whatever to this applicant, yet, we submit, that the testimony of this woman is worthy of little credit. It is a well known fact that the poorest guarantee of veracity which the rational man or woman may possess is the character of a very low grade of morals, and it is only necessary to call attention to the record in this case to show that perhaps no witness ever took the stand before the Commissioner to the five Civilized Tribes who was possessed of a lower grade of morals, and as nearly devoid of a moral sense as was this witness.

GEORGE W. MAYES, another witness on behalf of the Cherokee Nation, gave his age as 58 years and his post Office as Pryor Creek, Indian Territory. His testimony is substance attempted to show that the former witness, Mary E. Miller, was the person admitted in the Council Bill introduced in evidence in this case for the flimsy reason that he received a letter from her written by Henry Drew about 1893 in regard to some citizenship matter. He admits that this woman never appeared before the Cherokee Legislature at Tahlequah, and he admits that no testimony whatever was brought before that Legislature in her behalf. We respectfully submit that, beyond question, when this witness's testimony is compared with the testimony of the previous witnesses, it shows unquestionably that the matter in which she wrote him was the same matter in which she testified in regard to having Henry Drew attend to, which the former witness said was in regard to the strip payment. This witness shows in his testimony on page 25 that the only Committee upon which he served was a Committee for the purpose of reviewing the rolls for the strip payment, and we respectfully submit that from a reasonable consideration of this testimony and its comparison with the testimony of the former witness, that this is just about the way he ever had occasion to know anything about this matter whatever, that is, by attending to getting her in shape for the strip payment. We respectfully submit that the larger part of his testimony in substance is that it must have been this Cherokee woman who was admitted to Cherokee citizenship because he never knew of an instance in the Cherokee Legislature in which a Freedman was readmitted. We, ourselves, contend that this was a very rare exception, but when our testimony shows conclusively that this applicant was the person admitted at that time, we respectfully submit that it was an exception, and that the fact that this witness undertakes to say that it certainly could not have been the applicant because she is a freedman, that his conclusion is not sufficient to rebut the evidence and convincing testimony of the witnesses introduced in this case on behalf of the applicants.

The last witness introduced in this case on behalf of the Cherokee Nation was G. W. Benge, another Cherokee by blood, who gave his age as 54 years and his Post Office as Tahlequah, Indian Territory. In his testimony he does not undertake to say, nor does he undertake to remember who the Mary Miller admitted in this Council Bill was. His testimony, we respectfully submit, in substance, is nothing more or less than that so far as he knows, the Cherokee Legislature never in the history of that body ever readmitted to Cherokee citizenship a colored person. We respectfully submit that the fact that this witness testified the same as did our own witnesses upon this point, to-wit, that it was an extremely unusual thing for this body to do, yet, we submit, when it is positively shown that they did make this exception, that his testimony is of no prebative force to the issues in this case.

On page 29 of the Commissioner's record herein this witness admits that in the Bill admitting the applicants in this case on its face showed no distinction between her and the Cherokees by blood; that that Bill could have easily passed both houses of the Cherokee Legislature and he not have known that one of the persons named therein and readmitted to Cherokee citizenship was a freedman. At this point we respectfully invite attention to the fact that this condition is exactly what this Council Bill shows. An examination of the Council Bill introduced in evidence in this case on behalf of the applicants will show that there was no distinction whatever made and no notation whatever showing whether the Mary Miller therein named was a Cherokee by blood or a Cherokee freedman.

This was the case at Bar with the exception of the testimony of T. W. Foreman, Snake L. Miller, Joseph Woodward, and Ben Johnson. These witnesses testified that they were acquainted with the reputation of Levi Gritts, Stick Ross and John W. Sharp and that their reputation was bad. This was their testimony and the only purpose for which they were introduced. We respectfully invite attention to the fact that, while each of these witnesses attempted to in this way impeach the previous witnesses above named, that an examination of their testimony will show that every one of these impeaching witnesses are Cherokees by blood and that each and every single one of these witnesses had some motive, something to be "more" about as one of them expressed it, which prompted them to testify in this manner. It seems to us that if the Cherokee Nation wanted to impeach these witnesses, and could have done it, and that if the reputation of these witnesses for truth and veracity was bad, that they could have procured the testimony either from white men who were disinterested, or at least the testimony of men who did not have ill feelings toward the men they were attempting to impeach. It is a well known fact, we believe, that there are very, very few men, especially any man of business in a community who does not have enemies, and no matter how reputable and how honorable a man may be, it is always possible to get at least two or three of his enemies who are willing to testify that they will not believe him under oath. We respectfully submit that the testimony of these witnesses, as it stands, is not sufficient to question in any way the truth of the statement made by our witnesses relative to the issues in this case.

This is all was the case at Bar and we respectfully submit that we have abundantly sustained our contention in this case and have prove beyond question that the Mary Miller and family readmitted to Cherokee citizenship in 1893 is the identical person who is the principal applicant in this case. It seems to us that if our contention that the Mary Miller introduced as a witness in this case on behalf of the Cherokee Nation is the same they purported to be the person admitted by the Cherokee Legislature, that this Mary Miller was only represented by Henry Drew in the matter of arranging for her to draw her strip money, we say it seems to us that if our contention upon this point was incorrect, that it would have been an easy matter for the Cherokee Nation to have proven conclusively by Henry Drew, who represented this woman in that matter and who lives in the City of Vinita, Indian Territory, the very town where the witness, Mary B. Miller, lives, and he was much more able physically to make a trip to Muskogee, Indian Territory, as a witness in this case, and who stands so much higher morally for integrity and truthfulness than does the witness, Mary B. Miller, that it would have been an easy matter for the Nation to have produced this man as a witness and had him explain the capacity in which he acted and the purpose for which he represented the witness, Mary F. Miller, in 1893.

C O N C L U S I O N .

After the whole evidence in this case, we respectfully submit that we have conclusively sustained our contention in this matter and, having sustained our our contention herein, on account of the Cherokee Legislature admitting to all the rights of Cherokee citizenship the principal applicant and her family herein, after having thoroughly investigated the facts in her citizenship case, is of sufficient weight to over balance any doubt that may have been left upon the issues in this case in favor of these applicants and is of sufficient weight to entitle these applicants to admission as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation; and we, therefore, respectfully move the Honorable Secretary of the Interior that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of February 23, 1906, be reversed and that Sallie Miller, Anna Butler, Mother Owen, and Katie Davis be enrolled as freedmen citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

Stuart A. Pelt

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of SALLIE MILLER, ET AL., as Cherokee freedmen, C. F. RD 648.

Brief of the Cherokee Nation.

An examination of this case shows that there is absolutely no merit whatever in it, and that perhaps more fraud was attempted to be practiced in it than in any other case.

During the first trial numbers of witnesses were introduced on behalf of the Cherokee Nation who testified that they knew Sallie Miller, nee Holt, in Fort Scott, Kansas, where she lived continuously after the war, where she owned property until along in the nineties, and therefore she did not come back and establish a residence in the Cherokee Nation prior to February 11, 1867.

The testimony was so clear and conclusive and upon it she was rejected and the case was remanded only because of the fact that several large families were grouped together and the record too voluminous, and the department thought it advisable to have them separated.

Upon remanding the case effort for the first time was made by counsel to show that Sallie Miller was readmitted to citizenship in 1893, and Stick Ross, Levi Gritts, and John Sharp were introduced for the purpose of showing that they were connected with the lower branch of the Cherokee Nation council, and they swear that a bill was introduced in the lower branch of the nation council admitting Sallie Miller, but none of them know whether it finally became a law or not. Their other witness, Lincoln England, knows of some one applying, but he has no further recollection of the matter.

Stick Ross, Levi Gritts and John Sharp are impeached by T. W. Foreman, S. L. Miller, Joe Woodard and Ben Johnson, all reputable citizens who live in the vicinity of Tahlequah, who swear that their reputations for truth and veracity were bad and that they would not believe them under oath.

All of these witnesses are further contradicted by the fact that the act itself introduced shows a Senate Amendment admitting one Mary Miller as a Cherokee and contradicts witnesses introduced on behalf of the applicant to the effect that the bill was introduced in the Lower House.

Bear in mind that the Mary Miller admitted was by a Senate Amendment.

The Cherokee Nation introduces the Mary E. Brice, formerly Miller, who is a well known Cherokee, but who had left the Cherokee Nation and forfeited her citizenship and had to be readmitted as provided by Section Two, Article One of the Cherokee Constitution, and she was readmitted in 1893 as testified to by George W. Hayes, who was a Senator from that District, who had known her and known of her and who positively identifies that the Mary E. Brice is the person admitted.

All testify that no freedmen were ever admitted. The record shows that it was a Senate Amendment; all of the witnesses for the applicant are impeached, and the testimony further shows that in 1896 Sallie Miller never claimed before the Kern(Shiften Commission that she had ever been readmitted to citizenship, which tends to further contradict her claims at this time.

Again, the person admitted was named Mary Miller, whereas this applicant is named Sallie, and the witness Mary Brice was named Mary Miller in 1893, although her initial seems to have been omitted from the Senate Amendment.

We respectfully submit that in our judgment this is one of the greatest frauds ever attempted to be practiced upon the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Sir:

It is hereby ordered that the Cherokee freedmen cases of Sallie Miller, Anna Butler, et al., Howard Bushyhead and Katie Davis be separated from the consolidated case of Dennis Hicks, et al., and that they be consolidated and heard separate from the Hicks case.

There is enclosed a copy of a letter, dated November 7, 1906, from Starr & Patten, Vinita, Indian Territory, Attorneys for applicants, submitting a list of the names and addresses of the witnesses they propose to introduce on behalf of the applicants. The principal applicants and their Attorneys have this day been notified that they will be permitted to appear before the office of the Commissioner at nine o'clock A. M. on Thursday, December 20, 1906, and introduce the testimony of the witnesses whose names and addresses they furnished. The Cherokee Nation will also be permitted to appear on that day and introduce in rebuttal such testimony as it desires in the case.

Q Did you know her before the war? A Yes sir.
Q Was she a slave? A Yes sir belonged to Lewis Rogers.
Q Was he a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.
Q Was she living here in the Cherokee Nation when the war broke out?
A Yes, sir.
Q When did you come back from Kansas? A In '63.
Q Did you know this woman in slavery days? A Yes sir, I used to see her.
Q Did you know her at that time? A Yes sir.
Q Did she live in your neighborhood? A No sir she lived about, to my knowledge about 18 miles from me.
Q When did you first see her when the war closed? A First at Fort Gibson.
Q How long after you got back here? A I just had got back, about three weeks after I came back.
Q Are you on the roll of 1860? A Yes sir.
Q What was before her marriage? A Yes sir, she wasn't married when I seed her.
By Mr. Davenport for the Cherokee Nation:
Q Did you ever live in Tahlequah district? A Yes sir.
Q Was you ever up there before the court for anything? A Not as I know of.
Q Don't you know you was before the court for stealing and convicted and whipped publicly at Tahlequah? A Not as I know of.
Q Was you or was you not convicted and publicly whipped by the Sheriff of Tahlequah for stealing? A I went answer nothing that wasn't done lawfully, I went answer nothing that was just done to keep my vote out, anything that was done lawfully I will answer.
By the Commissioner:
Q You don't want to give in testimony to your own hurt, is that it?
A It would not hurt me, no sir; if it was lawful I would answer.
By Mr. Davenport: We except to the Commissioner's ruling in this.
By Mr. Davenport of the witness:
Q When did you leave the Cherokee Nation to go to Kansas? A Time or the Q Where was Lewis T. Ridge living at the breaking out of the war?

A I don't know.

Q I will ask you if you don't know that he was a citizen of the state of Arkansas at the breaking out of the war and was not living in the Cherokee Nation at all then? A I don't know as he was living there.

Q Was or wasn't he not a citizen of the state of Arkansas and residing there then? A I can't tell you that.

Q You hadn't seen him for some years in the Cherokee Nation before the war broke out had you? A I hadn't seen him just before the war.

Q How long before the war broke out that you saw Lewis T. Ridge in the Cherokee Nation? A About 20 years.

Q Then you have no idea whatever as to where this woman was living and where Lewis T. Ridge was living when the war broke out? A I used to see this woman.

Q But that was some years before the war broke out? A Not right in the neighborhood where I was living, but I seen her.

Q You know as a matter of fact don't you, that Lewis T. Ridge and his family did not live in the Cherokee Nation for a long time prior to the breaking out of the war, and that the Lewis T. Ridge family are not recognized citizens of the Cherokee Nation to-day? A No, sir, I don't.

Q Did Lewis T. Ridge have any children? A Yes sir, if I am not mistaken, I never was never to his house, just seen the colored people that he owned.

Q Where did you see the colored people that he owned if you were never at his house? (No response.)

Q Give me the name of one of Lewis T. Ridge's children? A I can't give the names.

Q Did he have a boy named William Cornelius? A Yes sir I guess it was.

Q You know he had one son? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know where William Cornelius is living now? A I don't know.

Q You claim to have seen this woman where after the war? A At Gibson.

Q How old was she? A I don't know.

Q Was she a child then? A No sir a woman.

Q Grown woman? A Yes sir.

Q How long did you stay with her when you were at Fort Gibson?
A I didn't stay with her.

Q You were living in Tahlequah district before the war weren't you?
A No sir in Flint.

Q Who was she living with when you saw her at Fort Gibson right after the war? A There was three women staying there together.

Q What was her name then? A Sarah.

Q Sarah what? A Opps.

Q Did she say then if she had ever left the Cherokee Nation during the war? A No sir I never asked her.

Q You didn't ask her where she had been living after the war broke out? A No sir.

Q That was just after war times and you colored folks were all coming back and meeting one another again, and yet you say you didn't ask her where she had been all through the war? A I was not then meeting people, I was selling and trafficking.

Q You don't know if this was '68 or '69 that you saw this woman in Fort Gibson do you? A I hadn't been there long.

Q Well you don't know when it was that you got back yourself do you?
A Yes sir.

Q When was it? A In Dec, in the spring.

Q How do you know it was? A I was told it was.

Q Was it before or after the treaty? A I was inside of the treaty.

Sarah London - 5.

Q Did you come back before or after the treaty was made? A Yes sir I guess I did.

Q Well which was it? A I don't know nothing about the days of the months.

Q But you would know if it was before or after the treaty was made - had you heard of the treaty having been made when you returned? A Never heard nothing about it then.

Q Did you come back in the fall or in the spring of the year? A In the spring of '66 I tell you.

When you got back to Fort Gibson, did they tell you about the treaty? A No, sir.

Q What made you come back then? A I was born and raised here and wanted to get back to my old home, I loved my home and wanted to get back to it, didn't know no other place but this as my home.

Q Was the war over? A Not quite done yet cause there was still soldiers here.

Q The troops were still here were they? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what year this is? A No sir I don't.

Q Don't know anything except '66 do you? A Yes sir, but I don't know anything about your high language.

DAVID MARTIN, called and sworn as a witness, testified as follows on the part of the applicant: Examined by the Commission:

Q What is your name? A David Martin.

Q What is your age? A 64.

Q What is your postoffice address? A Coffeyville.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life only when I was out during the war.

Q Are you on the roll of 1860? A No, sir.

By Mr. Davanport:

Q What do you know about this woman? A I knowed her owners.

Q How long before the war? A All my life.

Q Where were they living before the war? A On Sallisaw.

Q Who were her owners? A Lewis Ridge.

Q Did he have a "T" in his name? A No sir, that was his son.

Q Sometimes called "Osage Tom"? A Yes sir.

Q He had a son called Cornell? A No sir, he had, John, Hens, Pole and Tom. Tom was the oldest, John next, Pole next, and Hens was the youngest.

Q Do you know where this woman was during the war? A No sir.

Q How long before the war did you see her? A In '59.

Q Where was you living then? A With Joe Martin, right joining places, he had her young missus for a wife, we were together all the time.

Q Do you know where the Ridges went? A No sir.

Q Are you able to state if they left the Territory? A No, sir, I cant.

Q Where did you see this woman after the war closed? A Never saw her again until I saw her at the Wallace court.

By Commission:

Q You say that you lived on adjoining places to where this woman lived? A Yes, sir, and some of the time on the same place.

Q Where did you go to during the war? A Kansas.

Q When did you go to Kansas? A I went to Kansas in '61.

Q What time in '61? A I left in February of '61 - I was in the woods scouting since '59.

Q How does it happen that you did not see this woman from '59, until the Wallace court, and that you did not know where she went during the war if you lived on adjoining places to her? A Well you see I was not at home from '59, I was in the woods scouting, and from what I learned they taken this woman south during the war and I went north.

Q Why didn't you see her from '59 until '61 when you went to Kansas?

Sarah London - 4.

A I was not at home, I was in the woods scouting all the time.

APPLICANT recalled and examined by the Commission:

Q Who did you come back with to the Cherokee Nation? A With a whole passel of folks.

Q Do you know if any of them are alive yet - them with whom you returned to the Cherokee Nation? A No sir it has been so long since then that I don't know if any of them is alive yet or not.

Q Were you taken out into the state of Texas? A No sir, Arkansas.

Q Where in Arkansas? A A place called Fulton.

Q What did you do down there - make crops? A No sir, I was cookin

Q When did you first go to Fulton? A Just a little before the war.

Q About how long before the war? A I can't tell exactly how long.

Q Were you cooking in a private family there? A Yes sir.

Q Whose family? A Mr. Crabtree's.

Q Were you hired to him? A Yes sir.

Q Who went with you to Fulton? A A whole routine went - they carried us.

Q Did you stay there about Fulton until you came back to the Cherokee Nation after the war? A Yes sir.

Q Where was your master Lewis Ridge at that time? A He was dead himself before the war.

Q Who claimed you as an owner? A Mrs. Ellen Ridge.

Q Where was she when you were at Fulton? A She was here in the Nation.

Q Did she have many slaves? A Yes sir a good many, she had my sister.

Q Who had charge of you when you went to Fulton? A I don't remember his name.

Q What was he? A One of them was a Cherokee, he was the man that carried us there.

Q Was he a farmer or a planter? A I don't know.

Q Did he claim to own you? A Yes sir.

Q What was his name? A Crabtree.

Q Was he a Cherokee man? A No sir.

Q Was he an Arkansas man? A Yes sir.

Sarah London - 7.

By the Commission:

Q Who is there here that knows of your being married to Ben London?
A I can call any one of them.

JOHN ROSS, called and sworn as a witness, testified as follows for the applicant:

By the Commission:

Q What is your name? A John Ross.
Q How old are you? A 30.
Q What is your postoffice? A Muskogee.
Q Do you know the applicant here? A I have known her about ten years.
Q She is married is she? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of her husband? A Ed London.
Q Has she been living with him as his wife ever since you have known her? A Yes, sir.
Q They have a lot of grown children have they? A Yes sir.
Q You know the family do you? A Yes sir.

APPLICANT recalled and examined by Mr. Ravenport:

Q You own property there in Muskogee now do you? A No sir, I am working there is all.

By Com'r Brackinridge:

The applicant applies for herself and two children who are minors. She is identified on the Kern-Clifton roll but not upon the roll of 1889 or that of 1893. It appears from the testimony that she was at one time a slave of a Cherokee citizen, but that she was sold prior to the war to a man, presumably a Greek, who lived near what is now known as Fulton, Arkansas, and that she was there taken before the breaking out of the Civil war, and lived there until she was set free by the war. She claims to have come to the Cherokee Nation in the year 1866. This is confirmed by two witnesses cited in the case, but her testimony is vague and does not convey an impression of being reliable; however, it appears that she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since she returned, except some years in the Creek Nation. Her change of name arising from marriage is established in a satisfactory manner. Giving her the benefit of any doubts that may exist at this time, she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card and the final decision will be made known to her at her postoffice address. As for her two children, Levi and Hester, they are both minors and are living at this time; they are identified on the Kern-Clifton roll but not upon the roll of 1889; their claim is only through their mother as their father is a Greek; it is stated that neither the applicant nor any of the children have ever been enrolled as Greeks, the only application that has been made for them being for enrollment as Cherokee freedmen; those children will be listed for enrollment as Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful card to await the termination of the status of their mother, through whom they claim. The final decision of their case will be made known to her mother at her postoffice address.

Chas. von Walze, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full the proceedings in the above cases from page 1 inclusive, and that the same is a full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes.

Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Sarah London.
Q Is she living? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you on any of the rolls of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What roll? A On the Kern-Clifton and the Wallace roll; it is Rogers on the roll.
Q How does it happen to be Rogers? A Neither just happened to have them enrolled that way.
Q Just as a fancy, and for what reason? A That was her old name.
The 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
The 1890 census roll of Cherokee Freedmen examined and the applicant not identified thereon.
Q Are you on the Kern-Clifton roll as Rogers or London? A As Rogers.
The Kern-Clifton roll examined, and the applicant identified thereon, page 128, No. 3214, Doonawadawee district, as Miner Rogers, 24 years of age.
The Wallace roll examined and the applicant identified thereon page 194, No. 3215, as Mina Rogers, district not given.
Q How does it happen you are not on the roll of 1880? A I don't know, sir.
Q How does it happen you are not on the census roll of 1890? A I don't know.
Q Have you ever applied to be enrolled by any other tribe or Nation except the Cherokee? A No, sir, not outside of this Nation.
Q You never applied to be enrolled as a Creek? A No, sir.
Q Have you anybody here who knows that you are the child of Sarah London, or Rogers? A Yes, sir, my mother is here.

Sarah London, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Brackinridge, testified as follows:

- Q Give me your name? A Sarah London.
Q What is your post office? A Muskogee.
Q Were you a slave in the Cherokee Nation with the war slave roll?
A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you belong at that time? A About 18 years.
Q You are married now are you? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your husband? A Ed London.

Miner London - 2.

Q Have you been put on the rolls as Negro? A Yes, sir.
Q Is this applicant here your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Is he a son of your marriage with Ed London? A Yes, sir.
Q Son of this husband? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was he born, this young man? A He was born in the Cherokee Nation.
Q How long has he lived in the Muskogee? A I can't tell you how long he has been in Muskogee.
Q About a number of years, hasn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q About how long? A I can't tell you exactly how long he has lived in Muskogee.
Q As much as eight years? A Yes, sir, I expect it was about that, because we stayed on Brushy Mountain a long time.
Q Brushy Mountain is in the Cherokee Nation, isn't it? A Yes, sir.
Q Well now, except the time spent in Muskogee, where has he lived? A I don't remember him living anywhere else, because they grown up right on Brushy Mountain and Muskogee and Fort Gibson.
Q Has he lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life except when he has been in Muskogee? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you ever applied to have him enrolled as a Creek Freedman? A No, sir, never did.
Q Only as a Cherokee? A Yes, sir, when I enrolled them I enrolled them as Cherokee.
Mr. Davenport: You say this boy has never lived outside the Cherokee Nation excepting Muskogee? A Yes, sir, and on Brushy Mountain.
Q Where is he living, he and his brother, at the present time, when they are not here enrolling? A In the Creek Nation.
Q What is the other brother's name that stays with him? A Billy.
Q How long since he and Billy came from Denison, Texas? A It has been a good while.
Q How long did they stay in Muskogee after they left Denison before they went to Kansas City? A I can't tell you.
Q They did go to Kansas City after that, went to Kansas City and lived? A They didn't go to live, of course they were hunting work, when they are not here in the Cherokee Nation they are working.
Q They are making their home in Kansas City now? A They go there and work.
Q There is where they stay? A No, sir, they don't stay.
Q Are they men of families? A No, sir, they have got no families.

Miner London, recalled, testified:
Commissioner: When did you go down to Denison, Texas? A I went down there last May.
Q Was that the first time you ever went down there? A Yes, sir, that was my first.
Q Did you get work down there? A Yes, sir.
Q What kind of work did you do down there? A Hotel work.
Q What hotel? A Mrs. Brown's hotel.
Q How long did you work down there? A I worked down there about nine months.
Q Have you ever been in Texas except that time? A No, sir, that was my first.
Q Well, when you left there, where did you go? A Came back home.
Q When did you go to Kansas City? A I went to Kansas City this winter.
Q What have you been doing up there? A Working.
Q What kind of work? A Packing house work.
Q Were you ever in Kansas before this time you speak of now, before you went there last winter? A Yes, I have been there.
Q How many times have you been there before? A This makes about Minor London - 3.

the second time.

Q When was it you went there before? A I went there, it has been about three or four years ago.

Q Well, what did you do when you went there then? A I was up there working, working on a sewer there at Parsons, Kansas.

Q How long did you work up there that time? A Worked up there about six months, stayed there and worked there about six months.

Q What job have you got now in Kansas City? A I was working in a packing house there.

Q When did you leave there? A I left there about a week ago.

Q When are you going back there? A Well, I can't know whether I will go back at all.

Q Did you give up your job? A Yes, sir, I gave it up.

Q Did you ever vote in Texas or up there in Kansas? A No, sir.

Mr. Davenport: How long since you gave up your job in Kansas City?

A Been about a week.

Q What packing house did you work with? A Swartschild & Sulzberger.

Q You gave up your job for a time to come back down here to the enrollment? A No, sir, I quit.

Q Didn't they write you to come and meet them here at Chelsea to enroll? A No, sir.

Q Why didn't you tell Major Brookbridge when you told him your post office was Muskogee, that you had lived at Denison and Kansas City, instead of telling him you hadn't lived anywhere besides the Cherokee Nation? A I wasn't asked.

Q He asked you where you had lived other than Muskogee, and you told him nowhere except Muskogee? A I said outside of the Creek Nation, I wasn't living up there, I was working up there.

Q You don't make your home at Muskogee? you don't claim to be a Creek citizen? A No, sir, just staying there, that isn't my home.

Q What claim have you got on Choctawhatchee district? you said you didn't was Choctawhatchee? A I haven't got my claim at all.

Q You haven't got nothing in Choctawhatchee district in the way of property or anything else? A No, sir.

Commissioner: The applicant is identified on the Kohn-shirt on roll and on the Wallace roll. He is 36 years of age. He is not identified on the 1880 roll, or on the roll of 1890. It is stated that he was born in the Cherokee Nation, and that he lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life except some eight years that he has lived in Muskogee. It is developed from subsequent examination that according to the testimony, he lived some nine months in the state of Texas, and also has lived at two periods in the state of Kansas.

Mr. Davenport: Was it Kansas City, Kansas, or Kansas City Mo., you were living in? A Kansas City, Kansas.

-- but apparently not for as long a period either time as was embraced in his stay in the state of Texas. He affirms that he never voted in either Texas or the state of Kansas. It is not considered that the questions originally put to the applicant were fully and frankly answered. He will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman on a doubtful claim, and for further evidence in his case, there will be filed herewith the testimony in the case of his mother, Sarah London, Cherokee Freedman, husband case 3-57, which will determine the applicant's original rights as a freedman under the treaty of 1866, he being the child of said Sarah London, and her living husband, M. London. In connection with the testimony elicited and that just referred to, there will be also considered the work showing of the applicant's residence ton, Arkansas.

Q Where did you come from to the Territory? A Pulton, Arkansas.

Q When? A Five or six years ago.

Q And before that did you live all your life about Pulton?

A Yes, sir, right around Pulton.

MR. HASTINGS: Mr. McGermick, what did you give as your age, I didn't understand it? A 32 years old, I am close to 32, or 3 years old.

Q Were you ever married? A Yes, sir.

Q What was your wife's name? A Married her by the name of Bettie
Rogers.

Q Did she go by the name of Rogers prior to your marriage?

A That is the name she was going in when I went to see her and I married her.

Q Did you know your wife's mother? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her name? A Sarah London.

Q Where did you first know Sarah London? A I first got acquainted with her in the town of Pulton, Arkansas.

Q Was that before or after you married her daughter? A It was before.

Q How long had you known Sarah London before you married her daughter? A Well, give you as close as I possibly can, I think it must have been two or three years, or probably four, it was somewhere close to about that.

Q Where was she living when you first knew her? A She was living in Pulton.

Q Arkansas? A Yes, sir.

Q What was her husband's name? A His name was M. London.

Q You knew her three or four years before you married her daughter? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, how long did you know her after you married her daughter?

A Well, I guess it must have been somewhere about a year or two after I married her, I don't know the exact time, I guess it was close about that time.

Q Did she leave down there or you, which left first? A No, sir, she left me there, said she was going to the Territory, sometimes she left me there.

Q What was your wife's given name? A Given name was Bettie.

Q When did she first come to the Territory? A Let's see she came here in the year they discharged the payment down here, that is the year she come down there.

Q You have reference to the strip payment? A Yes, sir.

Q About how many years ago? A I don't know, it has been I guess just about how many years it has been.

Q Well, five or six years ago? A Yes, sir, fully that long.

Q Do you mean that payment? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember the year that you were married? A No, sir, I don't know exactly.

Q Where were you married? A I was married down at Fulton.

Q How old is your oldest child? A He is about 18 or 19 years old.

Q You married of course before that child was born? A Yes, sir.

Q That was your first child? A Yes, sir.

Q Did you know the rest of Sarah London's family? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know some of the other children? A Yes, sir.

Q Name them. A She had a child named Mina London, that is a boy, and another one by the name of Billy London, he is a boy; she has got one named Sam, I think he is a boy, and Tub, I think he is a boy. She has got two daughters.

Q Was Ed London the father of your wife? A No, sir.

Q That was this woman's second husband? A I don't know, that was the only husband I knowed of.

Q That was not the father of your wife? A No, sir.

Q Steppather? A Yes, sir.

Q Was Sarah London and Ed London living down there keeping house when you knew them? A Yes, sir.

Q You remember whether or not Sarah London was there when your first child was born or not? A Yes, sir.

Q Now, I will ask you to look at this applicant here and see if that is the same Sarah London you are talking about? A This lady here. (Referring to applicant.)

Q Yes. A Yes, sir.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: You say you married your wife Bettie, daughter of this Sarah London, down at Fulton, Arkansas?

A Yes, sir.

Q That was a year or such a matter before your 18 year old child was born? A Yes, sir.

Q Then you and Bettie have been married some 18 or 20 years ago somewhere along there? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was your wife's mother living then? (No response.)

Q Was she down there at Fulton when you married that daughter Bettie? A Yes, sir.

Q She was there? A Yes, sir; it seems to me like she was there.

Q How long did you and your wife lived at and about Fulton?

A We have always lived there; Sarah London lives from the time we was married up until the time she came down here to this payment and then we separated.

Q Some six or seven years ago? A Yes, sir.

Q Where was your wife's mother during all that time, this woman over here? A She left them down there, she was there a short while as I said a while ago and then she left to come to the Territory.

Q A short time after you married? A Yes, sir.

Q And then came to the Territory? A Yes, sir.

Q Have you ever seen her back there from that day to this?

A No, sir.

Q What do you know about her being there at Fulton before you and your wife married? A I don't know about her being out away from there and going back down after we was married.

Q Did you know of your wife's mother back there before you and your wife married? A No, sir.

Q You don't remember her there before you and your wife were married? A Before we was married; yes, sir, I was acquainted with her before I and her was married.

Q When did you first see your wife's mother? A I first seen her at Fulton, Arkansas.

Q How long was that before you married her daughter, Bettie?

A Oh, it was about two or three years.

Q Well, now did your wife's mother live there at Fulton from the time you first saw the old lady until you got married? A Yes, sir; around about there, working.

Q You don't know anything about her leaving there and coming to the Territory during that time? A No, sir.

Q Then you say she lived there and about there a short time after you and your wife married? A Yes, sir.

Q About how long? A Two or three years.

Q And it was your understanding that she came to the Territory?

A Yes, sir, and I never saw her until I came here myself.

Q And you then saw her in the Territory? A Yes, sir.

SARAH LONDON, the applicant, recalled, testified as follows:

Q You have listened to this testimony, now if you want to ask this witness any questions you may do so? A No, sir, I don't know what to ask him.

Q Well, has he made any mistakes in what he said? A I don't know what to say.

Q You have heard him say everything, is there anything you want to correct and say where it was wrong? A No, sir, he is perfectly right, of course he married my daughter when I went down there, after I went down on the river.

Q How long did you know this man before he married your daughter, Bettie? A I knowed him I reckon about three years.

Q And did you live there in and about Fulton from the time you knew him until he married your daughter, Bettie? A Yes, sir, lived around there at Mrs. Adams.

Q And how long was it before this man married your daughter and came to the Territory? A I reckon it was about three years.

Q Just like about like he says? A Yes, sir.

Q Well, now had you been there about Fulton all the time from the time you left the Territory until you came back after your daughter Bettie married? A Yes, sir.

Q When you came back after your daughter Bettie married that was the first time you came back to the Territory after you left? A Now, listen to me good, I came here first before I ever knowed this boy and got Bettie and married her from here down there with me.

Q How long did you stay here when you got Bettie? A I never get down on the river with her until she and Neely was grown.

Q So you had made that trip back here after you first left?

A Yes, sir, when I first left here I come back here and got this child; I left this child when I was sent off and went back there and stayed there until this girl married and then I come back here.

Q And that is all the going and coming that was done? A Yes, sir.

Q How old was Bettie when you came and got her? A I think she was about four years old, she was a little bit of a thing.

Q How old is Bettie now? A I could not tell you how old she is.

Q Where was Bettie born? A Betsy was born in slave time.

Q Before the war? A Yes, sir.

Q How long before the war? A Well, I can tell you when Miss Ellen sent for me Betsy was a little girl just commencing to walk, and the black folks wasn't free then.

Q Now, was the war over when you came back and got Betsy? A When I came and got Betsy the war was over.

Q Well, how long before the war was it Betsy was born? A I don't know how long it was, Betsy was a child, she was about that high (indicating) when I taken her away from here.

Q When you took her with you? A Yes, sir.

Q You mean about four years old? A I reckon she was.

Q Which came out here first when you came out here to look, you or your husband, Ed? A Ed came first.
 Q About how long before you came? A Ed came out here and stayed a year, I don't know whether he stayed a year before I came because I didn't make any crop that year before I came.
 Q Did you go over in Canadian district near Mr. Lowrey's and Smith's?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q That is where you first came? A Yes, sir.

HENRY C. LOWREY, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows, on behalf of the Cherokee Nation:

Q Give me your full name, please? A Henry C. Lowrey.
 Q How old are you? A 32.
 Q What is your post office? A Muskogee.
 Q You live in the Cherokee Nation, do you not? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About 15 years, all my life nearly excepting the time during the war.
 Q Were you born in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
 Q You lived there all your life then except during the war?
 A Yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: Mr. Lowrey, did you know a colored man in Canadian District by the name of Ed London, whose wife was Sarah? A Yes, sir, I used to know him when he lived there, I don't live there now.

Q I will ask you to look at this woman and see if this is the woman?
 A Yes, sir, that is Sarah London.
 Q About when did you first know her husband, Ed London?
 A I think about '84 or '85, along there somewhere.
 Q Where did you know him and in what circumstances?
 A They moved in our neighborhood, Canadian district.
 Q Which came first? A The old man.
 Q And about how long until his wife and family followed?
 A I don't know, it may have been a year, I don't know what time he came in the spring something like a year.
 Q Did you know from him where his family was? A Just what he said.
 Q What did he say about it? A They said they was on the line of Arkansas and Texas, near Texarkana.
 Q His family came out you say about a year after he came?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q What was your first acquaintance with them? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long did they live in your neighborhood there? A About two years.
 Q And then where did they go? A Went to Muskogee.
 Q Have they lived about there since then? A Yes, sir, I have saw part of the family all the while there, especially the old man.
 Q Do you know anything about his making arrangements to send for his family? A Oh, yes, that is they were talking about going for their family; he said they were coming from Texas.
 Q You mean Texarkana? A Yes, sir, and he was making arrangements with his brother-in-law to go after them; he lived with his brother-in-law right by me, and I say they lived close to me, a mile and a half, after they first came in.

SARAH LONDON, the applicant, recalled: Com'r Breckinridge:
 Q Now you have heard Mr. Lowrey's testimony, do you want to ask him any questions? A No, sir.
 Q Has he made any mistakes that you want to correct? A No, sir, none at all.

MCCOY SMITH, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows, on behalf of Cherokee Nation:

- Q Give me your full name, please? A McCoy Smith.
 Q How old are you? A 34.
 Q What is your post office? A Braggs, Indian Territory.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 34 years.
 Q All your life? A Born and raised here, yes, sir.

MR. HASTINGS: You know the applicant here, Sarah London?

- A Yes, sir, I know her.
 Q Did you know her husband, Ed London? A Yes, sir.
 Q Smith, how long have you known either or both of them? A I have known Sarah 14 years.
 Q Which did you know first, she or her husband? A Her husband.
 Q Where did you first see her husband? A There in Coosawhatchie Bend, just above Mountain, about two miles above Braggs Mountain.

- Q What district? A Canadian.
 Q There is a Coosawhatchie Bend in Canadian? A Yes, sir.
 Q Well, did he have his family there then? A No, sir, not when I first saw him.
 Q Do you know where his family was? A He said they were down at Texarkana.

- Q Well, did you afterwards see his family? A Yes, sir.
 Q About how long after you first saw him? A About a year.
 Q Texarkana, Arkansas? A Yes, sir, that is the place.
 Q And about a year afterwards you saw the applicant and family?
 A Yes, sir.

- Q Is that the first time you ever saw the applicant? A Yes, sir.
 Q How long did they live in that neighborhood by you? A They were there about two years, and they moved up to Muskogee, and they went, I think they moved in the spring and that fall they came back down there to pick cotton, down in the neighborhood there.
 Q How far did they live from you when they first came up in there?
 A She came to her brother-in-law's first, that is a little more than a quarter of a mile, and stayed I don't know how long to Braggs Mountain, about a mile from me and lived there about a year and the second year following from that lived right down in the hollow, six or seven hundred yards of my place.
 Q You knew the family well? A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know who moved them up there? A I think it was Ed's brother maybe, but I don't recollect his name. Brought them from Muskogee though I believe.

SARAH LONDON, applicant, recalled: Don't Breckinridge:

- Q Sarah London, you have heard this testimony, do you want to ask any questions? A No, sir.
 Q Has he made any mistakes now that you want to correct? A No, sir.

FRANK SMITH, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:

- Q Give me your full name, please? A Frank Smith.
 Q How old are you? A 33.
 Q What is your post office? A Braggs.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.

MR. HASTINGS: Mr. Smith, you know this applicant sitting behind you, Sarah London? A Yes, sir, I see her, not very well acquainted with her.

- Q Did you know her husband, Ed London? A Yes, sir.
 Q When did you first see either of them and where? A I saw Ed about '83 on Coosawhatchie Bend on the Arkansas river.
 Q In what district? A Canadian.
 Q Did you see his family after that? A Yes, sir.
 Q About how long? A About a year I guess after he came in there his family came.

Q Do you know where they went from when they came there? A No, sir. I have never had any talk with him.
Q About how long did they live around there? A About year.
Q And then where did they go? A Muskogee.
Q That is about all you know about it? A Yes, sir.

SARAH LONDON, the applicant, recalled: Gos't Breckinridge:
Q Do you want to ask the witness any questions? A No, sir.

J. F. VanHoy, being duly sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows, on part of Cherokee Nation:
Q Give me your full name, please? A J. F. VanHoy.
Q How old are you? A I am 72, be 72 the first day of December next.

Q What is your postoffice? A Fort Gibson.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 50 years last Christmas.

MR. HASTINGS: Mr. VanHoy, do you know this applicant, Sarah London? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know her before the war? A Yes, sir.
Q Where was she first living when you first knew her? A On Spav-law, at Lewis Rogers.
Q In what district? A In Saline District.
Q About how long before the war was it when you first knew her?
A Oh, it was several years before the war, ten or 11 years somewhere along there.

Q Are you well acquainted with Lewis Rogers? A Very well, sir.
Q Were you about his place much? A Good deal, sir, I built houses there.

Q Are you a carpenter by trade? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you know Lewis Rogers' wife? A Yes, sir.
Q What was her name? A Ellen one of them, and the other one was named Lucy.

Q Was Lewis Rogers alive when the war came up? A No, sir.
Q How long had he been dead before the war? A I do not recollect, but I think Lewis Rogers died about '57, I think so.
Q His wife survived him, lived after him? A Yes, sir.
Q Now, were you about Lewis Rogers' place and his wife's place after Lewis Rogers' death? A Very often, there was a store there down a mile from there then; I was one time with the family.
Q Trading point was it? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know whether Sarah London was there just before the war came up or not? A Well, they told me they had sold Sarah, that is what they told me.

Q Who told you? A Tom Rogers and Ellen Rogers.
Q When did they tell you that? A About '58.
Q Did they say to whom they sold her? A Man by the name of Crabtree, they said.

Q Do you know where Crabtree lived? A No, sir.
Q Well, did they say? A No, sir, I don't remember.
Q Well, you say you were about Rogers' place frequently a few years before, immediately preceding the war? A Yes, sir.

Q You didn't see her there? A No, sir, I didn't see her there
I saw her sisters there.
Q When was the first time you saw her since the war? A Well, sir, it was about '83 or '84 in Canadian District, I was passing a Belackman's house and saw her and knew her and got over the fence and had a talk with her.

Q Did she say where she had been? A Yes, sir, she said she had come back from Arkansas if I remember right.

Q That was about 1884? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember whether she went by her present name or not, Landon, or did you just call her Sarah? A I just called her Sarah; there was a man there she called husband and I guess he was.

Q Did she have some children? A Yes, sir, she had some children but I didn't notice the children; I saw her old man once in a while at Mackagee and talk with him yet and ask him about Sarah.
Q Do you know whether Rogers' wife is alive now or not? A She told me she was dead; that is, her son Tom told me she was.

SARAH LONDON, the applicant, recalled; Com'r Breckinridge:
Q Are there any questions you want to ask the witness? A No, sir.
Q Are there any mistakes he made? A No, sir.

R. L. MARTIN, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge, testified as follows:

Q Give me your full name? A R. L. Martin.
Q How old are you? A Going on 54.
Q What is your post office? A Ponserola.
Q In what district do you live? A Delaware district.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
MR. HASTINGS: Did you know Lewis Rogers before the war?

A Yes, sir.
Q What relation, if any, was he to you? A He was my father-in-law; since the war I married his daughter.
Q Did you know a slave that he formerly owned by the name of Sarah? A Yes, sir.
Q I will ask you to look at this applicant and see if you recognize her? A I don't know as I could recognize her, it has been so long since I seen her.
Q What was Lewis Rogers' wife's name? A Ellen, he had two wives at that time.
Q Well, do you know what became of Sarah? A Yes, she fell into my father's hands and he sold her.
Q Well, when did he sell her? A About '88 I reckon, I don't know just exactly the date.
Q Do you know to whom he sold her? A Yes, I think the man's name was Crabtree.
Q Do you know where Crabtree lived? A I understand he lived in Arkansas, I don't know him personally.
Q You have never seen her since, or have you? A No, sir.
Q You have never seen her since the war? A No, sir.

COM'R BRECKINRIDGE: When did you first know this woman, Sarah, how long before the war? A I guess along about '87 or '88, I knew her before the old man Rogers died, I don't know just how long it was I don't know just how long it was.

Q You knew her some time before she came into your father's possession? A Yes, sir.

Q She did belong to Lewis Rogers did she? A Yes, sir.

Q How did your father happen to get possession of her?

A It was by divisions of the estate, his wife was old man Rogers daughter.

Q Your father's wife? A Yes, sir.

Q And you knew Sarah while she was still the property of Lewis Rogers? A Yes, sir.

Q Your father sold her then very soon after he got possession of her? A Yes, sir, I think it was in '88, it may be a little longer.

Q How long did your father have possession of her?

A I don't know, it could not have been long, I think old man Rogers died in '87.

Q How far did your father live from Lewis Rogers? A At the time he died I think he lived right there, but he moved away about ten miles.

Q Did this woman leave the farm of Lewis Rogers and come over to your father's house? A Yes, sir.

Q When and lived with your father until she was sold to Crabtree?

A Yes, sir.

SARAH LUNDEN, the applicant, recalled; Gen. R. Breckinridge:

A. Sarah, you have heard the witness' statement, do you want to ask him any questions? A. No, sir.

Q. Has he made any mistakes? A. No, sir, none.

Q. Are you the Sarah that belonged to this witness' father?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is correct? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then he sold you to Dr. H. H. A. Yes, sir.

Gen. R. Breckinridge: This will be filed as supplemental testimony in Cherokee Freedmen case B-4577, and sets of the testimony will also be filed in Cherokee Freedmen Doubtful cases #849, #852, and #854.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

- Q You present a certified copy of a certificate of marriage certifying that marriage license was issued to you to marry one Lydia Thompson according to the laws of the Cherokee Nation, and that you were married by Elder J. H. Jones, on April 8th, 1887; the certified copy that you present shows that the license is signed by eight parties; the law requires ten, and I see that the certificate has been interlineated since it was issued; there are eight on here that were certified to by Mr. Alberty, Assistant Executive Secretary, and it appears that two names have been inserted in here since the typewritten certificate was issued; did you insert them in here? A No, sir, Mr. Alberty did.
Q Your wife don't appear to be listed for enrollment by us?
A She was at Fort Gibson, she come up with Jim Vann.
Q What was her husband's name before you married her?
A She didn't have any husband.
Q Well what was her father's name, mother's name?
A Her mother, Jennie Vann.
Q Your wife's name is Mattie instead of Hattie?
A It is Hattie.

BY MR. HASTINGS:

- Q Who was her father and mother? A Aleck Boudinot was her step-father and her mother was Jennie Vann.

MR. HASTINGS: Comes now the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation and offer in testimony pages 86 and three lines on the top of page 87, being a decision of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation, down in "Minutes of the Special Court of Commission, Supreme Court, 1871," with reference to the right of colored people by intermarriage:

"Tuesday Morning June 20th 1871.
"Court convened - Present same as yesterday. The making out of report continued until the court announced the following decision regarding certain colored men who have married colored women of the Nation to wit:

The Court of Commission after mature reflection feel authorized to decide against all cases before it wherein colored or ~~the~~ black men are claiming citizenship from marrying black female citizens under the law "Regulating Intermarriage with Whites," as they are convinced a correct interpretation of said law will not authorize a clerk of any of the courts to issue a license to a blackman to marry a blackwoman as it only alludes to, and was intended for whitemen and Cherokee women."

"The Court believe it is further sustained in the opinion that Colored citizens, are such by adoption, and as such,

Fred D. Thomas, --3.

can not confer rights upon others, without further legislation upon the matter. Therefore decide "The following named persons are not entitled to Cherokee citizenship as claimed: To wit

George Washington,	Seewoossee Dist.	"
Henry Johnson,	Tahlequah	"
Lee Cooper,	"	"
Henry Bird,	"	"
William Madam,	"	"
Alonso Gullen,	"	"
Selamon Foster,	Illinois	"
William Madam,	"	"
Raymond Youngblood,	Sequoyah	"

(Marginal Note.) "Decision regarding colored citizens of the United States intermarrying with colored women citizens of the Cherokee Nation made June 30th 1871."

BY COM'R HENDLER:

- Q Your present wife, Hattie, was never married before?
 A No, sir.
 Q And I understand you to say that you were formerly married to one Sidney Moser or Sidney Thompson? A Yes, sir.
 Q And that she had been previously married? A Yes, sir.
 Q To whom? A Before to Felix Thompson.
 Q And they were separated? A Yes, sir.
 Q And that you were previously married to only your former wife?
 A Moser was married before.
 Q And that you separated from your wife, Sidney? A Yes, sir.
 Q And obtained no divorce? A Yes, sir.
 Q Wasn't there something said a while ago about getting a divorce from somebody? A She did.
 Q Well then there was a divorce from you? A (No response.)

COM'R HENDLER) Fred D. Thomas applies for the enrollment of himself as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage. He presents satisfactory proof of the issuance of a license by the authorities of the Cherokee Nation to him on the 4th day of April, 1887, and that he was married on the 9th day of April, 1887. The date of the license is not given but the certificate shows that the marriage was recorded on the 4th day of May, 1887. He avers that he was formerly married to one Sidney Thompson, who was the wife of one Fog Thompson; that they were separated and no decree of divorce was granted. He avers that he was lawfully divorced from his wife, Sidney Thompson, through whom he claims citizenship by intermarriage. He avers that a divorce was applied for by said wife, Sidney, and that since he was married to one Hattie Moser, a Cherokee citizen. The name of his present first wife through whom he claims citizenship is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 by the name of Sidney Johnson, the wife at that time of Fog Johnson. The name of his present wife is identified upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Hattie Moser, her maiden name. By reason of the fact that no satisfactory proof is made as to the divorce between Sidney Thompson and her two former husband and between Sidney Thompson and the applicant, Fred D. Thomas, and the protest of the Cherokee Nation and the testimony as to the laws of intermarriage made by said Fred D. Thomas will be linked for enrollment as a Cherokee Freedman by intermarriage upon a doubtful basis, and he will be notified of the decision of the Commission when arrived at.

Fred D. Thomas.—4.

BY MR. HARTINGS:

- Q You didn't employ any lawyer or put in any answer to that divorce did you? A No, sir.
Q You let it go by default? A Yes, sir.
Q You weren't at the court house? A No, sir.
Q You don't know what she said against you in the suit?
A No, sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES:

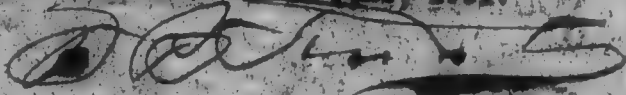

- Q Did you have a child by Hattie? A Four.
Q She didn't enroll but one? A There is dead, mine and hers.
Q Has she a child named Gammie? A Not as far as I know of, we have been separated pretty near five years.

and another little one on top.

Q Did your father take a wagon back up there for his family?

A Yes sir, he took an old Texas Dump Cart, fastens on the wagon tongue and chaps, set on put with.

Q Was that his wagon? A Belonged to some of them down here, I can't tell you whose it was, we left it there on the old Mc Air place when we left there.

Q You don't know whether it belonged to the Cherokee Kelleir family or not? A I can't say that, we left it there.

Q How long did you live down there at that place where you first went to? A Made two crops, the old man raised there, we raised one after we come.

Q And then where did you go to from there? A Went to Pryor Creek; well on the other side of where John Edwards lives now, two or three miles south of there under the foot of them mountains.

Q How far is that from where Pryor Creek now is? A I expect it must be seven miles up the creek I was there.

Q Northwest? A Yes, sir, little North-west.

Q How long did you live there? A I can't tell you how long, but we lived there quite a spell.

Q Were you ever arrested by the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.

Q What were you charged with? A Stealing a hog.

Q Did you have any other members of your family arrested at the same time? A Yes sir, two of them besides me, father and one of my brothers.

Q Who were you charged with stealing the hog from? A I guess they must be so said it was Alex Rider's hog, I was not, I guess it must have belonged to some of the riders, I never seen the hog, but I was charged with it just the same.

Q Alex Rider was your kin to Blue Rider? A Yes sir, his brother.

Q That was out of the court house in Coconino County District?

A Yes sir, out on Dog's Creek, kept us there in prison about eighteen days, me and my little brother and daddy.

Q You people at that time claimed you were not citizens of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir, we claimed we were citizens then.

Q They didn't try you? A Yes sir, they tried us, I guess it is what you might call trying, a man and the jury and all sit along there and old man Judge Rogers was the Judge and well I was kinda little, but then they pled and hauled around there and adjourned for dinner and they say to come back after dinner and the jury went out and come back and Judge Rogers said it was a verdict, it was a little piece of paper and Judge Rogers said I was clear.

Q You didn't raise the question as to your citizenship at that time? A No, sir; they knew we was citizens.

Q Who was your lawyer? A Judge Hayes.

Q Jobi Hayes? A Yes sir.

Q Is your mother's name Marian Kelleir? A Yes sir.

Q Were you present in 1898 when your case was tried, and here, you were all put in one case and tried? A Yes sir, we was all ten of us there, all ten of our children, we might not have been all in there.

Q You had Andy Frye and Millie Frye as your witnesses? A Yes sir.

Q You were present? A I was not in the house.

Q You never heard them testify? A No sir, I never heard them testify.

Q You can't know then whether they said you came back in '07 or not? A No sir, I don't know they could hardly state that and been justifiable in it, I don't think they could be.

Q You state you were not present? A No sir, I was not in there.

By Mr. Kelleir:

Q What is it you were tried in the Cherokee court for hog stealing? A I don't know.

Q How many years after it was? A It must have been, to the best of my memory, somewhere about about, close I expect, if I would say anything, I would say about '09, somewhere along there.

-6- Moses Riley et al 4

Q The Representatives of the Cherokee Nation mentioned the name of Mrs. Martin Thompson and asked if she was on the McHair place at the time you arrived in 1866, and was she? A She was Jack McHair's wife; he married in Texas, I don't know where he married her, but anyhow he brought her back there.

Q You say she was on the place at the time you arrived there?

A She was on the place when father brought us there and I don't know whether she was there when he came back or not.

Q If she had married Jack McHair she would not be called Thompson?

A Jack McHair's brother-in-law married her a Thompson.

Nation then you do about the Cherokee people don't you? A There were not many Cherokees there about that time, they had all gone out.

Q You don't know when she got back? A No sir.

Q What are you doing now? What is your occupation? A I told you that the other day.

Q Well I want to know how you feel? A I am not doing anything just now, am sort of idle.

Q You testified for what is known as the Robinson case before the

-14- Moses Riley Jr

Kerna-Clifton Commission five years ago didn't you? A Yes sir.
Q How much did they give you to testify for them in that case?
A They has that to do with this case.

Q I want an answer to this question, I am going to ask that question of you every time that you come here and testify.

BY MR. MELLETT: I desire to object to the question the attorney for the Cherokee Nation asks this witness as to what he received for testifying in a case before the Kerna-Clifton Commission, on the ground that a witness cannot be impeached by proving a particular act or that makes contradictory statements, or by showing his general bad character for truth and veracity.

BY COMMISSIONER NEEDLES: I will let go for what it is worth and your objection will be noted.

BY MR. W. HASTINGS:

Q I would like to have an answer to that question? A You want to know how much they gave me?

Q Yes sir? A They agreed to give me $25.00 each.

Q And there were five of them? A Yes sir.

Q That would be $125.00 in all? A Yes sir.

Q Did any one else agree to pay you that time? A Yes sir Andy Daniels.

Q How much? A $50.00 for himself and his wife.

Q Did any one else? A No sir, several promised me but never paid me.

Q You took notes for people didn't you for testifying for them?

A Yes sir, I took notes from those I have named.

Q Have these people in this application here, agreed or promised to give you anything? A No sir.

BY MR. MELLETT:

Q Did they give you this money as a bribe to testify falsely? A No sir.

Q Did you testify the truth? A I did.

Q Was the money received from them in payment of your time and expenses? A Yes sir.

BY W. HASTINGS:

Q How long were you on the stand in that case? A I don't know.

Q All of them were consolidated as one case were they not? A Yes sir.

BY COM'R NEEDLES: Moses Riley applies for the enrollment of himself and his child Lillie Riley as Cherokee Freedmen; upon examination of the authenticated roll of 1880 his name cannot be found thereon, but it is found in the Kerna Clifton roll and the Wallace roll according to page and number of the rolls as indicated in the testimony. The name of his child Lillie is also found on the Kerna-Clifton roll and is duly identified as the child of the applicant. The applicant is identified on the Kerna-Clifton roll as Moses McHair or Riley, and his child Lillie is found as Lillie McHair. They are both duly identified as the applicant and his child; they both make satisfactory proof as to residence. Consequently the said Moses Riley as Freedman on what is known as a DOUBTFUL CASE is awaiting the further consideration of the Commission. When the Commission arrives at a final conclusion in this case he will be notified by mail.

Chas. W. Perkins, being sworn, deposes that as stenographer to the Commission he has taken down in full the proceedings in the enrollment of the above application and that the foregoing is a full true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes therein.

W. W. Hastings, for Cherokee Nation.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the application of Moses Riley, C. F. D. #258, MOSES RILEY, being sworn by Com'r Brookbridge, testified as follows: (By Commissioner.)

Q What is your name? A Moses Riley.

Q How old are you? A 51.

Q What is your post office address? A Cherokee.

Q You have already applied for enrollment? A Yes sir.

(By Mr. Mellette)

Q Columbus McHair made a statement in your case at Vinola that you returned to Kansas in the fall of 1866 and brought your father's family to the Cherokee Nation in 1866, and that he was in Kansas when you brought them back? A He was in Kansas but not in that year.

Q When was it? A '67, fall of that year.

Q What did you go there for then? A After my aunt.

Q Where was your aunt? A Working at a hotel at Garnett, Kansas.

Q Did you bring her back to the Territory? A Yes sir.

Q Had she been here before that herself? A Yes sir.

Q And you, or did you not go after your father's family? A I left them right on the McHair place when in Salado district.

(By W. W. Hastings)

Q What was your aunt's name? A Mary Rogers or McHair.

Q You were present when Columbus made his statement in your case? A No sir I was not in the tent.

Q How did you find out that he gave it in that way about it? A I saw it in Mr. Mellette's hands.

Q Did Mr. Mellette speak to you about the inconsistency of that statement? A No sir.

Q Did you talk with Columbus about it? A He said that it was wrong himself. As soon as he came out of the tent he said that he had made a mistake.

Q Didn't you ask him to correct it? A No sir, I desired it should be corrected, but I did not tell him to do it for he said that he was going to his wife.

Q Did Dan ever tell you that he had done it? A No sir he didn't. (By Mr. Mellette)

Q How when you went up to Kansas that time after your aunt, who went with you? A Jerry Butler, Jim McHair and Columbus Rogers.

JERRY BUTLER, called and sworn as a witness for the applicant by Com'r Breckinridge, testified as follows:

(By the commission)

Q What is your name? A Jerry Butler.

Q How old are you? A 43.

Q What is your post-office? A Ghoutau.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life except during the war.

By W. W. Hastings)

Comes now the representatives of the Cherokee Nation and respectfully protest against the present witness testifying for the reasons that the purpose for which this witness is to be introduced has been explained by the attorney for the applicant, and which is to be, first, to make a correction of what one of his own witnesses has testified, as he states, erroneously; and for the reason that the witness himself is present and should be called first and allowed to correct his own testimony; and second, because it has been explained that additional testimony is desired to be given as to the time of the return of the applicant, after the case is closed on the part of the applicant, which will result in making the investigation interminable; and third, because this witness who is now desired to be introduced was present a number of days at Vinita where the application was made and was not at that time introduced; and fourth, after a case is closed it is not permissible to introduce additional testimony upon a point already inquired into.

(By Commissioner C. A. Breckinridge) The case is not as yet closed in a formal manner, and it is not, or has not been, the practice of the commission in any of these cases to treat any of the cases as closed, down to this time. The Commission will not permit an abuse under the form of taking additional testimony which would simply be a multiplication of testimony from the same source; but in frequent instances in conducting these cases it has been found advisable and proper to permit applicant and witnesses to correct their own testimony where they have any of that they have made a mistake in certain particulars, and it is understood that in the present instant the purpose is to bring out certain circumstances which were not developed heretofore and which were calculated to produce an honest but erroneous impression as to facts. Therefore the examination will be permitted to proceed.

(By Mr. Mellette) (Of Jerry Butler)

Q You say you are 43 years old? A Yes sir.

Q Are you a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q Are you on the 1880 roll? A Yes sir.

Q You are sure you went to Garnett, Kansas? A In '67? A Yes sir, in '67.

Q What sized place was Garnett? A Pretty good sized place.

Q Was there a railroad there? A Yes sir, the K. C. & T. Was at Ottawa; we went there to Ottawa after potatoes, mother and that was the first time that I saw see a rail road, there was built to a little creek called a Magazine.

COLUMBUS RILEY called and sworn as a witness testified as follows. (By Mr. Kelleher.)

Q Have you given testimony in this matter heretofore? A Yes sir.

Q Are you a freedman citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q At you in the fall of 1866? A Yes sir.

A You stated in your testimony heretofore in this case that in the fall of 1866 Moses Riley the applicant went back to the Cherokee Nation, Kansas to bring his mother and the rest of his family back to the Cherokee Nation, as you want to make my correction of that statement? A I went up in the spring like of '66, left the Cherokee Nation in March, '66, first year after the war, and then went up through into Kansas and that fall Moses Riley and Jerry Butler came up there.

Q Your former statement was correct then? A Yes sir, that what I thought it was.

Q Who came with Moses? A Jerry Butler.

A What did he bring back with him? A I suppose he brought his mother back, but he says now that it was his son that he brought back.

(By the Court.)

Q Did you see him when he got back? A Yes sir, I wasn't there then.

Q Is his mother my first wife? A Yes sir, my first wife.

(By the Court.)

Q What relation are you to Moses Riley? A He is my uncle.

Q Did you say anything in your first testimony at Vinita of Jerry Butler coming up to Kansas with Moses? A Yes sir, I think so.

Q Did you ever work for him after that time? A I don't know anything about that.

Q Did you ever hear of him? A I heard of him through Thompson.

Q Did you ever hear of him? A I heard of him through Thompson.

Q Is that all the family that you saw up there? A Yes sir, all down.

here, but that one I guess.

Q. Are you sure that it was not '67 that you saw those come up there?

A. Yes sir, I think it was in '66.

Q. Did you see all these people there, Ned and Andrew and the others in the spring of '66 down here? I think it was, but they says now it was in the fall.

Q. Are there any more corrections that you want to make? A. No sir.

Q. You say you lived in the Cherokee Nation until the spring of '66?

A. Yes sir in March.

Q. And did you then go right through the Cherokee Nation into Kansas?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You have the fixed definitely in your mind? A. Yes sir, I went up right in the war.

Q. Did you see Moses Riley up there? A. Yes sir that is what I think, but they says now it was later than that.

Q. When did you see in Kansas in the spring of '67? A. I don't know who all.

Q. For how long did you stay up there? A. Along about - must have been September or October when I got back.

Q. When was it you remember seeing Moses Riley up there in Kansas?

A. In the fall.

Q. Of '66? A. Yes sir.

Q. You didn't see him there in the spring of '67? A. No sir.

Q. And you did see him there in the fall? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he come up there when you were there? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you see besides him in Kansas? A. Jerry Butler.

Q. Any more of the Riley people? A. No sir.

Q. Any of the women, or the family? A. No sir.

Q. Did you see Moses' father? A. No sir I didn't see them, I was three miles in the country, three miles from town with my sisters and they said they came up there after them.

Q. After that? A. I thought it was his mother but they said now that it was his aunt instead of his mother.

Q. You never did know of your own knowledge then who they came for?

A. No sir.

Q. You are only testifying then of the people you actually saw up there and what they told you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you go back to Kansas after that fall? A. Yes sir.

Q. When? A. That winter.

Q. When was it in the winter? A. I can't tell you what time I went back that winter and came back the next spring like an old calendar I can't remember just what month it was.

Q. Is it long did you remain when you came down in the fall of '66?

A. I didn't stay here more than two or three weeks.

Q. And then you went back to Kansas? A. Yes sir.

Q. To Garretts? A. Yes sir.

Q. When did you get back to Kansas after you came back from Garretts?

A. Sometime after Christmas, maybe.

(In Hastings)

Q. Do you mean to tell the Commission that you were up there from the spring of '66 and remained at Garretts all of '66 and winter three miles of Garretts at your sister's? That you don't remember now of seeing Moses Riley up there who was your aunt? A. I said that when they came up there I was three miles from town and I was with my sisters and I supposed that they came up after the Riley's mother but that they says now that they came up after his aunt.

Q. And you say now that you don't remember seeing Moses Riley's mother in Garretts for 3 months up there? A. Yes sir I didn't.

Q. You are positive I don't know? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know any of the folks that were living down here then?

A. No sir I don't.

Q. You testified that you came to the Garretts place when you were going back from the Cherokee Nation to Kansas in the spring of '67? A. Yes sir.

10- Jacob Riley 17

Don't you know who you saw there in the spring of '87? A. The first of the summer it was that I saw him in the Cherokee Nation.
Q That was not the way you testified a while you were at Vinita was it?
A I don't know what I testified at Vinita, I can't remember all they asked me there.
Q Didn't you say that you saw this fellow there in the spring when you were coming through? A I thought it was in the spring but they say now that it was in the fall.
Q You say you didn't work for Mark Thompson? A No sir.

Chas. Tom Wilson, being sworn states that a stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the above case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL, D 256, in rebuttal.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Cherokee, I. T., May 31, 1904.

In the matter of the Application of Jacob Riley et al, for enrollment as Cherokee Freedmen, MARY J. THOMPSON, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Brockinridge, testified as follows:

Appearances:

Hellette, Hellette & Smith, for applicants;
W. V. Eastings, Cherokee Representative.

Q Give me your name? A Mary J. Thompson.
Q How old are you? A 32.
Q What is your post-office? A Chiles.
Q In what district do you live? A Cowlesboro.
Q You desire to give testimony, I believe, in the Cherokee Freedmen case of Jacob Riley, and his daughter, Lillie, is that right?
A I don't know anything about his family, he was a friend of mine I knowed him.
Q Is this the case you are here to give testimony in? A It is a Riley case.
Q I want to find out what case I am dealing with here I take testimony, it is in the Riley case, is it? A That is.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since the fall of 1866.

Examined by Cherokee Representative, W. V. Eastings:

Q What was your maiden name? A Hale.
Q When were you first married? A In 1864.
Q To what? A D. J. Brown.
Q You were married, and at that time were you a free woman?
Q Yes, I was a free woman, but I was a slave at that time.
Q Was that your last husband? A No sir, I was married to my last husband.
Q Where were you during the Civil War? A In Texas.
Q How did you return to the Cherokee Nation? A I came back in 1866.
Q Do you know what his father's name was? A I don't know.
Q Where did you come to in the Cherokee Nation? A I came to the place where I live now, the Cowlesboro Indian Reservation.
Q In what district was that? A In Cowlesboro.
Q What time did you see him? A In the fall of '88, November.
Q Where did you live at that time? A I lived at that place, Grand River.

20- Henry Riley 18

Q You told me you continued to live on that same place? A I lived there until '77.

Q Now, when you saw a colored man in the house of Riley's air?

A Yes sir.

Q When did you first see him? A It was in May, 1867.

Q Where did you see him? A He came to our place the 6, W. C. Riley's place.

Q The place where you were living? A Yes sir.

Q Did you know where he came from? A He claimed to come from Kansas.

Q Did he move his family with him? A He did not; he worked there for us until fall; he went back and put his family in '67; he came in May '67 and went back in the fall and got his family.

Q Do you remember any of the members of that family? A I think there was one named Moses, and one Andrew as near as I remember, and it seems to me like there was a girl named Charlotte; there was about seven; and then there was smallest children; I don't remember now; Sarah was his wife's name.

Q Was his wife Sarah or any of the members of his family with him when he first came in May '67? A Yes sir, he came by himself.

Q You know where he remained after May of '67 until he returned in the fall after his family? A He had a crop at our house, worked there, cultivated a crop for us, and then he was in the fall and made another crop in the year '68, and then in the fall of '68 he moved to Pryor's Creek, and I don't know much about them since they moved away.

Q That was your husband's old home place? A Yes sir, that was his old home place.

Q Do you know where Riley's air went after his family in the fall of '67? A He claimed to go to Kansas. I don't remember, somewhere near Fort Scott as well as I remember.

Examined by Attorney Kellette:

Q Mrs. Thompson, about how old were you at that time? A I guess 38 or 9, I don't remember.

Q Hardly, if you are 52 now? A Well, you can count back.

Q That has been about 36 years ago? A Yes sir.

Q About 28 you mean? A Yes, that's it.

Q When were you married to Mr. Brown? A In '52.

Q How was it '52 or '53? A '52.

Q Did you say a while ago that it was '58? A No, I don't think I did.

Q What month were you married to Mr. Brown? A In November.

Q Where? A In Eastern Texas.

Q When did you go to Texas? A My parents moved to Texas when I was in my 16th year.

Q What year did they move to Texas? A In '52.

Q Do you remember that? A Yes sir.

Q You remember that it was '52? A Yes sir.

Q And what year did you come back from Texas? A We came back in '65, to Red River, and there we stayed a year, and in the fall of '66 we came up here to the Chickasaw Nation.

Q Your husband's mother was living with you on Red River in the Chickasaw Nation in '65, Susan? A Yes sir, she died in Eastern Texas; she had died before we came to Red River.

Q Your husband then succeeded to the place there in Saline District the old Riley place? A Yes sir.

Q He was owner of it at that time? A Yes sir.

Q In '65 you lived in the Chickasaw Nation on Red River?

A Chickasaw Nation.

Q What time in '65 did you come to the Chickasaw Nation? A We came in the fall.

Q How long after the war closed? A Yes, the war closed about along in April, wasn't it, that spring, and that fall we came to the Chickasaw Nation, and next fall we moved on up here.

Q How did you know a colored man named Sophie Pryor? A No sir.

Q Did you know a colored man named Columbus Pryor? A Yes sir.

21-Loose Riley et al sup (19)

Q When did you first see him there about the old McHair place?
A Taken down on the Red River there with Martin Thompson, in '53, and in the spring of '54 he left Martin Thompson and came up this way, and it was three years then before we heard anything more of him, and he came to our place here on Grand River.
Q Was there that Columbus McHair left the Chickasaw Nation and said he was coming to the Chickasaw Nation? A No, he didn't come to the Chickasaw Nation, he claimed to be in those lower nations with John and Art Thompson, who lived in Texas; he was a good-ly he claimed to us, during those three years.
Q Yet understand that Columbus McHair was had been a slave on the same place that Riley was, and when a slave didn't come to the place he was until when? A It must have been '63.
Q Now as a matter of fact don't you know he came back in the spring of '66 to the old place there? A No sir, not that I know of.
Q You don't know that he did or he didn't? A No; he left us there and we never heard of him any more for three years.
Q Well then if he came to the old place and found this Riley McHair there then you are mistaken about Riley McHair not coming until the spring of 1869? A No, it is the other way I guess; I am must have stayed away until '66.
Q How long Riley stayed away until '66? A Yes, I think it was towards the latter part of the summer he came to our place to visit us, and Riley was living right here on Bryor's Creek then.
Q Where did Columbus McHair come from at that time? A He claimed to come from a ranch below Fort Smith, in the Choctaw Nation, it seems to me.
Q That was in 1867? A Yes sir, as far as I remember, and he only came up on a visit, and went back and I don't remember how long before he came again.
Q You know a Choctaw Indian named William Foreman, who testified in this case for this application, of Bill Foreman; did you ever know him, had a little store there close to the McHair place in 1866 you remember his having a store there? A No sir, I think I have seen the man, but I don't remember he lived by the river above from where we lived.
Q How far did he live from you? A He lived on Lynch's Prairie.
A Yes sir, it was eight or ten miles from us.
Q He lived there after you got there in '67? A I don't know, he had been here several years it seems to me before I met him; I remember seeing him and remember the name.
Q Now as you remember Mary McHair, that belonged to Martin
Thompson? A Yes she was a daughter to Susanna McHair.
Q Tell you remember her? A Yes sir.
Q Where was she when you came back in '66? A She came up here with Martin Thompson from the Chickasaw Nation.
Q With Martin Thompson? A Yes sir.
Q Then she came back here in '66 with you and Martin Thompson?
A Yes sir, if it is correct I am thinking of.
Q Well, it is the name of Mary Riley? A Yes sir, she came back.
Q She came into this Nation, she had been Susanna McHair's slave during the war, I think so, I told that she was.
Q And you brought her back in '66? A No, Martin Thompson.
Q Well, she came to you at the same time you did? A Yes, she came at the same time I did, she was from those families.
Q And she was in the fall of '66? A Yes sir.
Q And she was never got on the 1860 roll? A I don't know, she has been dead quite a while; at least I have been told it was, maybe it was her husband's name.
Q Columbus McHair? A Yes sir, that was his name; it seems to me
I have been told she died.
Q How long did you live on that place where you came from Texas? A Well, July, 1871.
Q Then where did you go after that to the Territory country?

 Q Was he along with Riley McNeill when you met him? A I don't remember.
 Q Why don't you remember that? A I guess because he wasn't along.
 Q Do you know this man here? (pointing) A I take it to be Riley McNeill.
 Q Was he along when you met that Mr. Butler? A I can't swear that.
 Q He was about as old as you were when you met him? A How old is he?
 Q About 50. A He might have been along.
 Q I would like to have you state to the best of your recollection, to the best of your judgment as to whether he was along or not. He is the applicant here now for citizenship, and I would like to know if he was along? A I don't remember if he was or not.
 Q What place did they locate on when they came back here? A I don't know, as I know for certain, the first place I saw that was owned by Pete Donohoe's.
 Q How long after that did you see them on Pete Donohoe's place?
 A Good while, when I came up there it must have been in '88 or '90.
 Q Is it not a fact that Susanna McNeill owned Riley McNeill at the breaking out of the war? A She was dead long before the war broke out.
 Q Now don't you know that Susanna McNeill owned Riley McNeill at the breaking out of the war, and that she died in Texas after the war? A I don't recollect about that, except Riley McNeill was with us when the war broke out, and we had him for several years.
 Q You say Susanna McNeill died before the war? A I don't remember.
 Q That made you say then that she died long before the war? A Well
 I don't remember when she died, but I don't know about that, but I know about Riley, I can prove by other people that we owned him and that when the war broke out he was living with us.
 (By Hastings)
 S. Mr. Martin, you said that when you met Riley McNeill he had some children along, but that you don't know who they were? A Yes sir, he said he had his family along and was living with him.

CHARLES SHAB, being first duly sworn as Commissioner of the Needles, testified as follows in the case of the Cherokee Nation through Simon A. Hastings, Jr. as interpreter:

(By Hastings)
 Q What is your name? A Charles Shab.
 Q Are you a Cherokee? A Yes sir.
 Q Was you in the war? A Yes sir.
 Q Where were you captured? A At Fort Gibson.
 Q When? A In the year 1864.
 Q Where did you come to after you were captured? A I stayed out in a line of soldiers with a few other men.
 Q How far was that from the fort? A I don't know.
 Q Did you live in that place? A Yes sir, I lived there for some time.
 Q How long? A About a year.
 Q How far from the fort? A I don't know.
 Q How did you come back from there? A I don't know.
 Q How long? A I don't know.
 Q How far from the fort? A I don't know.
 Q How did you come back from there? A I don't know.

Q Where did you move to then and how long did you stay there? A To Joe Martin's.

Q How far was that from the old McHair place? A About two miles.

Q Where did you live in '68? A At this Joe Martin's place.

Q Was you ever about the McHair place in that year? A Yes sir I would go there frequently.

Q Did you see any markings making a trap on the McHair place in '66?

A No sir I didn't see any.

Q By McHattie:

Q Could you see good in 1866? A Yes sir I could see good then.

Q Can you talk English? A No sir.

Q Can you read? A No sir.

Q How old are you? A 70 years old, I think.

Q Did you live in a house when you were within 70 yards of the Jack McHair place in '65? A Yes sir.

Q Where was that? A Me and my family were keeping house.

Q Where was that? A Why it belonged to a man named Owl.

Q Is it not a fact that Owl's house was a mile and a half from the Jack McHair place? A Yes sir this Joe Martin place was about a mile and a half from there.

Q Ask him if the Owl house is not a mile and a half from the Jack McHair place? A No sir.

Q How far is it? A About 70 yards.

F. B. RIDER, being first duly sworn by Commissioner F. B. Neffles, testified as follows: On the part of the Cherokee Nation

By Hastings:

Q What is your name? A F. B. Rider.

Q What is your age, Mr. Rider? A 34 years old.

Q Are you a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes sir.

Q Where do you live? A In the Territory, on Pryor Creek, seven miles south of Chassee.

Q When did you begin to live there after the war? A I went there in the spring of '67.

Q Did you, at any time, either before or after the war, know a colored man named Riley McHair who had some sons, Howe and Andrew Riley and others? A Yes sir I knew him.

Q Do you know what they located there on Pryor Creek? A Yes sir to the best of my recollection they located there in the fall of '66.

Q Where have you continued to live since the spring of '67? A Right in the same place I first settled on.

Q How far did they locate from you? A On a tract of land, it is four or five miles from me.

Q Was the country thickly settled at that time? A No sir.

Q Is it prairie or timber? A Timber and prairie both, there is timbered hills running through.

Q Is the country generally timber or prairie there? A South east it is more prairie than timber.

Q Do you know whether Riley McHair or any of his sons were arrested any that or not? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what they were charged with? A Dog stealing.

Q From whom? A By brother Alan McHair.

Q Is he a Cherokee citizen? A Yes sir.

Q Have you at the time? A No sir but I went with the sheriff and took care of them, I went to the court.

Q Where was that? A I don't know where it was that they were arrested.

Q By McHattie: I want it to be known of you that they located on Pryor Creek south of the Owl? A Yes sir I think so.

Q Are you certain that it was in the Fall instead of the Spring of that year? A Yes sir.

Q How far is that from what is known as the Old Jaw McHair place? A Somewhere between 10 or 20 miles.

EDWARD BYRD being called and having been first duly sworn by Court Clerk P. B. Woodley, testified as follows on the part of the Cherokee Nation:

Q What is your name? A Edward Byrd.

Q How old are you? A 37 years old.

Q Where do you live? A Shawnee, Cherokee Nation.

Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A By marriage, yes sir.

Q When did you move there? A I came to the Cherokee Nation in June or July of 1888.

Q Where did you live before? A In Pryor Creek.

Q How far is that from Pryor Creek? A I presume it was 10 or 12 miles or so.

Q Did you know any colored man by the name of Riley McHair who had been shot? A Yes, and where? A Yes sir.

Q When did you know him? A I think knew him in the Fall of 1888.

Q Did he move there in Pryor Creek? I think he came from Pryor Creek over there, he claimed to be.

Q Did he live on Pryor Creek when you moved there? A No sir, I know every one around there and he was not there.

Q How far did he live from you at that time? A I presume a mile or so.

Q Did you ever go in Shawnee upon a Cherokee Court at a time when Riley McHair and one of his sons was arraigned? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know what they were charged with? A Haremny.

Q Do you know what was done? A Yes.

Q Did they go to trial? A Yes.

Q Is there any record of anything that is of record or of trial and conviction, the record is the very best evidence and they are by the record.

Q Will state to the Court that ordinarily the records of the records are correct, and in this case I have made some inquiry and there are no records, or no records of any kind of proceedings of the Court were made, and this is the best evidence there is.

Q That does not satisfy the the necessity of the case, is the record was destroyed by fire that this would be satisfactory, but there is no way to show that they were destroyed. This was a point of record and they cannot prove its propriety unless they first show that the records were destroyed.

Q It is not so sufficient here to show that the records were destroyed by fire that they were destroyed.

Q The records are not the same and the records are not the same and the records are not the same.

Q The records are not the same and the records are not the same and the records are not the same.

(By the Commission)

posed and it will go for what it is worth.

(By Hastings or witness)

Q Did you go to the trial? A Yes sir.

Q Did they examine any witnesses? A No sir, I wasn't examined.

Q What was done with the case? A They proved there that they were not citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

(By Hollister)

Q Did you hear the evidence? A I was in the room when they were proving it.

Q Were you sworn as a witness? A I was summoned as a witness is all.

By Mr. Hollister:

I desire again to make a formal objection to the testimony here given that they proved that they were not Cherokee Citizens.

(By the Commission)

I don't think it is proper testimony.

(By Hastings) (or witness)

Q What was done with the case? A They proved that they wasn't citizens of the Cherokee Nation before the Court and the case was thrown out for want of jurisdiction and consequently I wasn't sworn to testify in the case.

(By Mr. Hollister)

Q Now Mr. Byrd, they proved that first and they, before the case had been proved against them, the defendants introduced their testimony before the government had proved their guilt? A Yes sir.

Q Did you ever in your life hear of any other case being tried in that way? A I don't know as I did.

Q Did you ever hear of a case being tried by the defendant introducing their testimony before the Cherokee Nation had introduced its testimony to show their guilt? (No response)

Q You were summoned as a witness for the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.

Q You were not put on the stand? A No sir.

Q Were any witnesses for the Cherokee Nation put on the stand? A I don't know.

Q Then there was no trial? A Only that they introduced witnesses to show that they were not citizens.

Q Did they have any jury? A I think it was summoned there.

Q Did they empanel the jury? A I think they did.

Q Did the jury go out and decide the case? A No sir I don't think they did.

Q How did they get rid of the case? A The judge threw it out, I think Charles Rogers was judge.

Q Is it not a fact that the jury went out and decided the case? A I don't think it did.

Q The jury was empanelled you say? A It was summoned and in the seats.

Q Who gave the evidence? A I don't know.

Q Did they examine witnesses for the defense? A Yes sir, I think their attorney was Joel Mayes.

Q The Cherokee Nation didn't introduce any witnesses? A No sir I don't think they did.

Q What did the defendants introduce any evidence to prove want of jurisdiction when the Cherokee Nation had not yet proven their guilt?
